LAWLESS INDIANS SLAUGHTER DEER

Red Men Disregard
Territorial Game
Laws.

CAUSE OF GREAT TROUBLE

Warden Otero Says Government Ignores Complaints
--Advises Action.

That the Pueblo and other Indians of New Mexico have little regard for the laws of the Territory, especially the game laws, and the law in reference to their not being allowed off their reservations is made manifest by the numerous recent complaints that are being received by Fish and Game Warden Page B. Otero, relative to the Indians hunting in Socorro, Grant, Valencia, Taos and other counties.

Game Warden Otero is also in receipt of a letter from Captain John F. Fullerton, of the New Mexico Police, which reads in part:

"While Lieutenant Cipriano Baca was returning the other day, together with Private Myers, from a scouting trip, they came upon nine San Felipe Indians who had in their possession four female deer hides. The lieutenant did not make any arrests, as he states that they were in an ugly frame of mind and that he would have had to kill some of them to accomplish an arrest, so he ordered them home, and will arrest them on the reservation later. I am also informed that a party of nineteen Indians has left the Datil Mountains for Jemez on a hunting trip, but as we haven't sufficient men to arrest them unless we swear in a number of ranchmen, I have decided to warn them to return home and arrest them after they get home."

Prepare for Slaughter.

A letter received by Mr. Otero from W. E. Manning, who lives in the Datil Mountains, states that a large party of Indians are hunting in that region. He states that they had with them seven wagons and that in his estimation the wagons would not return empty.

Letters from residents of Socorro County say that at least 150 Indians are in that county for the purpose of hunting, many of whom are from Isleta. The residents of Socorro County are greatly stirred up over the fact that the Indians are allowed to hunt out of season, virtually slaughtering the game, in apparent freedom, while they, if guilty of the same act, would be hauled into court and fined.

In speaking of the matter Game Warden Otero said:

"I have repeatedly written the Department of the Interior at Washington concerning these depredations by the government's charges, but so far it has done no good. It is a well known fact that for the past twenty-five years the Indians have been living from 40 to 60 miles off their reservations, taking up the water holes, and driving white settlers away from them."

Nothing is Done.

"In joint memorial No. 9, passed by the 36th Legislative Assembly, we especially called the attention of the commissioner of Indian affairs to the breaking of these laws by the Indians, but so far nothing has been done by the department at Washington that has borne fruit. I am going to send all the letters I have received relative to the Indians disobeying the game laws, to the commissioner of Indian affairs at Washington, and am not going to give them any peace until they take some steps to have these flagrant violations of the game law stopped."

"I have just received advices from one of my deputies in Taos County, Floyd L. Hamblin, to the effect that he has arrested nine of the Indians for shooting deer out of season. These are the first arrests that have been made so far. It is impossible for me to get around to all the different parts of the country where the Indians are reported to be hunting, and I have advised those living in that part of the country to organize among themselves a party of deputies, and that I would send them all commissions. That would be the easiest and most effective way of stopping them and to confiscate their arms and fine them or put them in jail. It will teach them a lesson."

Perry Notifies Indians.

A letter received from R. Perry, superintendent of the Navaho Agency at Fort Defiance, states that he has dispatched a policeman to notify the Indians in that district that they cannot hunt off the reservation, as it is against the law.

"Much good that will do," said Game Warden Otero, "telling them something that they already know. I have sent out notices of the game law to nearly every Pueblo in the Terri-

HERBERT J. HAGERMAN.

Said to Be Selected By President Roosevelt For Governor of Sunshine Territory.

MIGUEL A. OTERO.

Governor of New Mexico for Eight and One-Half Years.—Terms Expires in January.

GOVERNOR M. A. OTERO MAY BE SUCCEEDED BY H. J. HAGERMAN

Roswell Man Said to Be Slated for Chief Executive---Present Incumbent Was Not an Active Candidate for Re-appointment But Was Generally Endorsed for Another Term by the Republicans of the Sunshine Territory, as Well as by Hundreds of Great and Small Tax Payers.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF PROBABLE APPOINTTEE OF PRESIDENT

Special to the New Mexican.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 21.—In the interview, had between President Roosevelt and the delegation of citizens of Chaves and Eddy Counties, in Washington pushing the project of the purchase by the government of the dam, reservoir and ditch systems of the Pecos Irrigation Company, it is reported that the President told the delegation that he intended to appoint Herbert J. Hagerman, of Roswell, Governor of New Mexico, upon the expiration of the present term of Governor Otero, January next.

It is also reported that the President offered the position of United States marshal, for the district of New Mexico, to Charles L. Ballard, of Roswell, who was a Lieutenant in Troop H, First Regiment, United States Volunteer Cavalry, the "Rough Riders," during the Spanish-American war and served under the President, but that Mr. Ballard declined.

The New Mexico men here also have it, that Judge A. A. Freeman of Carlsbad, Eddy County, who was an associate justice of the territorial supreme court under the Harrison administration, is a candidate for chief justice to succeed Chief Justice W. J. Mills.

Is Given Credence.

The above dispatch to the New Mexican, received this forenoon from a reliable Washington correspondent, is, it is believed here, fairly correct.

Governor Otero was not and is not today an active candidate for re-appointment. Many of the leading citizens and property owners in the Territory, Republicans as well as Democrats, Republicans naturally in the great majority, have recommended Governor Otero for re-appointment, and are doing so today, on account of his admirable service as Chief Executive of New Mexico for eight and one-half years, and because of the successful and beneficial administration which the people have enjoyed since June, 1897, when he took office.

The Republican party organization has not endorsed the Governor as an organization, but nine out of ten members of the Republican State Central Committee, and twenty-four out of the twenty-five county organizations, have strongly made known their desire for his re-appointment.

Served People Well.

Should, according to the above dispatches, Mr. Hagerman be appointed, Governor Otero, will be the first to welcome him heartily and wish him the best success in the arduous and exacting duties of the office. The Governor feels, and he is right in doing so, that he has served the people for these long years to the best of his ability, and for the upbuilding of the moral, political and material interests of the Territory. He is perfectly ready to retire from his official duties as Governor, as he had only consented to allow his name to be used as a receptive candidate, upon the very urgent and most strenuous solicitations of his friends, who have aided to make his administration successful and to whose desires he could not, conscientiously and considerably say "nay."

There will be no ill feeling on his part or on the part of his friends; quite the reverse; should Mr. Hagerman be appointed, he and his friends will give the new executive loyal and sincere support, and will aid him in every possible way in all measures calculated to do good to the Sunshine Territory, and to bring about prosperity, political, material, and principally in moral and administrative directions.

Made Good Governor.

The Governor will retire from office in January next, according to the above report and the verdict of the people will be "well done, thou good and faithful servant." The fact that he is the only Governor of New Mexico who has served two terms and over in the executive office, is more than sufficient to prove fully and satisfactorily that his administration has been acceptable to two Presidents, to four legislative assemblies of the Territory, and to the people as a whole.

Governor Otero's Words.

A representative of the New Mexican called on the Governor this forenoon at the Executive Office, where the Governor was very busy. He was shown the dispatch above given, and while reading, a very good-natured smile spread over his features. He was asked what his opinion was. Very pleasantly, and not a bit excited or flustered, he said: "I suppose your correspondent is reliable; as soon as the report is confirmed I shall congratulate Mr. Hagerman. I have nothing to say in the matter except that I have a very high regard for Mr. Hagerman, whom I have known quite well for several years, and who, in my opinion, is a fine young man of ability, education and of the highest standing in the community. When relieved from duty as Governor of this Territory, I shall, without regret and with the kindest feeling, retire to private life, feeling that I have done my duty to the best of my ability, and have always acted, as far as man can, for the best interests and the good name of our people."

Hagerman a Badger.

Herbert J. Hagerman was born on December 15, 1871, in the city of Milwaukee, the son of J. J. Hagerman, one of the sturdy German-American pioneers of the beautiful Wisconsin metropolis, and in which he was president of the Milwaukee Iron Company, one of the leading industrial establishments on the Great Lakes, at the time of the birth of his son, who ten years later accompanied him on a trip to Europe, where the son laid the foundation for his thorough and wide range of scholarship.

The name of Herbert J. Hagerman appears on the roster of the students of Cornell University, Ithaca, New York, among those who matriculated in 1890. He graduated in 1894, subsequently taking a law course at the University. He was admitted to the bar of Colorado in 1896 and practiced for two years, when he was appointed by President McKinley second secretary of the United States Embassy at St. Petersburg, where Ethan Allen Hitchcock, present Secretary of the Interior, was at that time Ambassador representing the United States, but was succeeded a year later by Charlemagne Tower, of Philadelphia. Mr. Hagerman resigned in 1901 and became a citizen of New Mexico, making his home near Roswell, Chaves County. Before leaving Russia for the United States he was decorated by the Czar with the Order of St. Anne.

Engaged in Cattle Business.

In New Mexico, Mr. Hagerman has had charge, in co-operation with his father, of the South Spring Ranch and Cattle Company, the Felix Irrigation Company, and other interests, including the largest apple orchard in the southwest. Like his father, he is doing much for the development of the Pecos Valley, and has always taken a strong stand for civic righteousness and the uplifting of public morals.

Mr. Hagerman takes an active interest in politics. He is a friend and admirer of Governor Otero and was appointed by the latter a member of the New Mexico Board of Managers of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition and as such did energetic work to make the New Mexico exhibit a credit to the Territory. He was an alternate from New Mexico to the last Republican national convention at Chicago, and as a candidate for county commissioner, this month a year ago, in the hopelessly Democratic County of Chaves, polled far more than the normal Republican vote.

Faith in New Mexico.

He is popular and respected by the people of southeastern New Mexico and highly esteemed throughout the Southwest for his sterling integrity, his high ideals and his clean, moral character.

Mr. Hagerman is an enthusiast in the matter of the development of New Mexico's resources, especially of horticulture, agriculture and stock raising. He is also a student and lover of books, in fact, a gentleman, in the best acceptance of the term.

Both his father, J. J. Hagerman and his brother Percy J. Hagerman, are well known figures in the world of finance and railroads and their reputation as city and railroad builders has given them a permanent place in western history.

J. J. Hagerman has a beautiful home at Roswell and his brother, Percy J. Hagerman, makes his home at Colorado Springs, Colorado, and their interest and faith in the future of New Mexico are indicated by the work they have done in the upbuilding of the lower Pecos Valley and the large investments they have made in that part of the Territory.

The promised appointment of Mr. Hagerman does not come as a surprise, for it has been spoken of for several months and was regarded as a certainty some time ago in the circle of his more intimate friends.

SENATOR PLATT ON THE STAND

Committee Learns That Insurance Companies Gave to Campaign Funds.

New York, Nov. 21.—John A. Nichols, lawyer and quarantine commissioner of the port of New York from 1880 to 1892, who wrote several letters to Senator Depew in behalf of his "friends who usually get around at this time of the year," and who, he wrote, were getting "rambunctious," and needed help, was the first witness before the Insurance Investigating Committee today.

Much interest had been aroused by the reading of Nichols' letters to Depew on Friday afternoon. The Senator was not able to remember who Nichols' friends were.

Received Retainers.

As shown by vouchers under observation by the committee on Friday, Nichols received retainers from the Equitable Life Assurance Society. When he was before the committee today he testified he had been employed by the Equitable for twenty or twenty-five years under an annual retainer of $1,000.

Recently he had been employed by the Mutual Life. He said he was consulted by the officers of the Equitable, but not connected with the legislation in 1904. One of the matters entrusted to him was that of W. S. Manning, of Albany.

The witness said Manning, who had been actuary for the company, was employed by certain persons to bring charges against the Equitable, that the reserve was not so large as it should be. Manning was paid $450, Nichols said, and he promised to be good. The witness later said that this was paid to keep Manning from being employed against the company.

He thought these payments had been made to a man named Kedd, correspondent of a New York paper. Kerr, he said, had died some time ago. In regard to the letter which confused Depew the witness said it referred to Manning.

Gave to Campaign Funds.

Senator Platt followed Nichols on the stand. He said the Equitable Society contributed $10,000 a year to the Republican state campaign fund. It was frequently paid, but not as a regular thing, as he could remember years when no contribution was received. The New York Life, he said, also contributed, but not nearly so much. No other insurance company contributed, so far as he could remember.

Senator Platt also said he had frequently received contributions of $10,000 from the Mutual Life Insurance Company.

Always for State.

During the testimony Platt said he had never received contributions from the insurance companies for national campaigns but always for state campaigns.

He said he did not know Andrew Hamilton, to whom the New York Life had paid large sums for legal expenses, nor did he know anything about his work at Albany. He knew A. C. Fields, who had charge of the house, maintained by the Mutual at Albany, but he did not know anything about his services at Albany, or about any money paid by the insurance companies to Field.

Asked No Favors.

Asked what the insurance companies had done in regard to shaping legislation in the state, Platt replied, he did not know anything they had done. He had never been asked for any favor in behalf of the insurance companies, by reason of their contributions and declared he had never done a favor because of them.

GETS NEW ATTORNEY.

Hearst Secures Services of Former Governor Black—To Take Charge of Criminal End.

New York, Nov. 21.—Clarence J. Shearn, personal counsel for W. R. Hearst, announced last night that ex-Governor Frank S. Black had been retained to take charge of the criminal end of the litigation, which has grown out of Hearst's mayoralty contest. Black will take hold at once and will work in co-operation with Attorney General Mayer.

Shearn intimated that the former governor might be named as special deputy attorney general, to follow up the important line of investigation, which has developed within the last two or three days.

THE IMPUDENT AND SILLY SUGGESTIONS OF THE ALBUQUERQUE JOURNAL.

A few days ago the erratic Albuquerque Corporation Journal stuck its head into a pile of sand and urged that an assistant delegate to the 59th Congress be sent to the city of Washington to represent the people of this Territory, and to attend to New Mexico official business in the departments and perform the duties of the delegate to Congress in the national capital. The corporation sheet, explained that this party could not be admitted and take part in the deliberations of the House of Representatives, but otherwise he would do just as well if not better than the chosen delegate. The paper also very generously, called upon the people at large to contribute enough money to pay this assistant delegate a handsome salary. The suggestion made, strikes people as silly as it is impudent and as foolish as it is impertinent. The Albuquerque Citizen, a newspaper published in the Duke City and which understands the methods and schemes of the gang in control of the Albuquerque Corporation Journal very well, ridicules the suggestion, commenting thereon very properly as follows:

"The morning paper claims to have received a suggestion from a business man, and so it proceeds to print and endorse it. The suggestion is sufficiently remarkable in itself but its inferiority falls far below the more remarkable endorsement which that paper confers upon it.

"The suggestion is that 'since New Mexico will be practically without representation in the 59th Congress, which will convene the first Monday of next month, it would pay the people of the Territory' to make a voluntary monthly contribution in order to send to Washington a man to represent it. The suggestion also selects Mr. Rodey for the position and says that he 'would be recognized as the representative of the Territory to all intents and purposes, except that he would not be entitled to a seat on the floor of the House.'

"Such is the suggestion, and a more absurdly ridiculous one never entered the mind of a sane human being. In the first place, it proceeds upon an absolutely erroneous assumption, which is that New Mexico will be practically without representation in the coming Congress. On the contrary, W. H. Andrews is the delegate to Congress from New Mexico, so recognized and accepted by the federal government, from which he has been drawing his salary as delegate since the 4th of last March, when Mr. Rodey's time expired. That Delegate Andrews will be at the opening of Congress and will take his seat, scarcely admits of doubt. At least, so far, only death can prevent his doing so; for while there have been suits brought against him in connection with the Enterprise Bank matter, they have not been decided, and even if they had been, they are not of a criminal character, being merely civil suits for alleged indebtedness, and carrying with them no shadow of ground for congressional action. Hence, it remains as just said, that Mr. Andrews without doubt will be present at the opening of Congress and take his seat as delegate from New Mexico.

"That Mr. Rodey would be recognized as an official representative of New Mexico, 'to all intents and purposes,' while the Territory has a legally selected and accepted delegate, is too childish for a moment's consideration. Could Mr. Rodey be induced to put himself in so ridiculous an attitude, (which the Citizen does not believe would be possible, for no one knows better than he does the impracticability of such a madcap scheme) the very first member of Congress whom he might approach on New Mexico business would suggest to him that the said business would better come through the territorial delegate. Apart from this, it would seem to many both in Congress and out of it, that Mr. Rodey, having been defeated by Mr. Andrews both before the nominating convention and at the polls, whether by fair means or foul, few would stop to learn, his going to Washington and there attempting to supplant Delegate Andrews would be considered more than indelicate. In addition Mr. Rodey is now engaged in the work of joint statehood, and like one of old he would reply to the suggestion in the morning paper, 'I am engaged in a great work and cannot come down.' And, finally, such effort to supplant his rival, 'to all intents and purposes,' would prove very injurious to his governorship prospects, as the two functions could not be combined.

"The good things which the suggestion says about Mr. Rodey and which the morning paper endorses, were much more appropriate before the nomination took place than they are when New Mexico has a delegate. The Citizen said them at the time, while the Journal was one of the bitterest opponents Mr. Rodey had. But in this, as in all else, the Journal shows itself to be a true aftermath. Bringing out Mr. Rodey's qualifications for delegate, months after the question has been settled, is only an additional indication of how the morning paper tails on behind the Citizen."

SUPPORTING SEPARATE STATEHOOD FOR NEW MEXICO AND ARIZONA.

Public sentiment, regarding separate statehood for the territories of New Mexico and Arizona, is changing for the better and influential newspapers, east of the Rocky Mountain section, are looking more kindly upon the claims of the two territories in this respect and, in fact, have commenced to advocate the justice and fairness of the demands of the two territories named for separate statehood. In Washington the question is also assuming more favorable aspects and, while New Mexico may have to wait two or three years before attaining its cherished desire, it looks now as if this would be brought about by 1908. The Kansas City Journal, one of the influential and widely circulated newspapers of the great west, is one of the powerful papers of the country to come to the aid of New Mexico and Arizona in this respect. In a recent editorial the Journal says:

"It will never be right to make one state of Arizona and New Mexico. The two territories are entitled to preserve each its own existence, either as a territory or as a state. One is almost exclusively an agricultural country and the other is pre-eminently devoted to mining. The difference between the two is much like the difference between Kansas and Colorado. The people in each have made a magnificent struggle to bring about better conditions and have succeeded. In each case the wilderness has been overcome by the splendid efforts of brave men and women who have subjected themselves to the hardships of frontier life and have learned to love the names of the vast areas for the betterment of which they have spent their lives. They know (whether the east knows it or not) that a future of magnificent growth and prosperity is in store for each territory—that mining development and the results of irrigation and other means of enrichment will bring to each a most important relation to the United States—a relation that fully warrants the dignity of statehood. All the recognized principles which have governed the action of Congress with reference to new states are in favor of separate statehood. The great debates in Congress on the new states show that the territories have almost an inalienable right to remain single as states. The geographical greatness of the territories in question is such as to render it impossible that the two should be united with satisfaction to the people. In short, all the considerations seem to be in favor of separate existence. It is to be hoped that no attempt at consolidation will ever be made."

THE PEOPLE TO BLAME.

New Mexico has a right to boast of the progress its public schools have made in the cities and larger settlements but its country schools thus far are below the average "little red school house of the east." Says the county superintendent of schools of Bernalillo County:

"The schools in the outlying districts are in a deplorable condition. Some of the schools are without sufficient books and other materials and are almost entirely devoid of furniture. In many instances, the school houses leak and the recent heavy rains have flooded them to such an extent that they are not fit for occupancy."

When to this is added the fact that the average school term is only from three to four months, then it must be acknowledged that the educational facilities offered to the children of the rural districts are not what they should be. There are a few notable exceptions but the rule is general that the average country district, although large, is too poor to maintain good public schools, unless the citizens are willing to make self sacrifices toward maintaining a good public school for the sake of their children and to attract settlers who may be wealthier. However, the failure to collect the poll tax and the exemption law are much to blame for this state of affairs. There are school districts where almost every citizen escapes all taxation owing to the $200 exemption and the failure to collect the poll tax, and yet, no citizen is so poor that he cannot afford to contribute a little toward the maintenance of a public school in his district.

Said Professor Hiram Hadley in a recent interview:

"Why, we have women school teachers in Santa Fe who don't receive more than $50 per month. After they pay table board of $5 per week and $10 a month for room rent there is not much left for the summer vacation atter the eight months of school. Compare the average salary of school teachers in New Mexico and all over the country for that matter, with the wages of the most ordinary mechanic, and it will be found that the carpenter or plasterer is getting the most money by double. The wages paid school teachers today do not encourage the student to train himself for the work. The young man or woman can more easily prepare for work that pays more money.

"In many districts of New Mexico the people do not pay the proper attention to their school. For this reason many districts are too poor to employ a good teacher. The poll tax law is frequently unobserved and seldom is the special school tax law put into effect. In most cases where districts are without schools, the people have no one to blame for the conditions that exist but themselves."

General Humphrey, the quartermaster general of the U. S. Army, in his annual report says that construction costs 30 per cent more at present than it did three years ago and that last year the price in building materials advanced 12 per cent. What is more, there is no likelihood of a reduction but the indications are that both material and labor will continue to advance as rapidly as in the past. This holds true in building everywhere and houses that were built in Santa Fe two years ago for $2,000 would cost at least $2,500 today. A year or two hence, it may cost $3,000 to put up a similar structure. Therefore, the wise man who contemplates building at all, will do so now, for tomorrow he will have to pay more for the construction of his building than he would today.

The Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway system, certainly can have no kick coming on business given the road this year by New Mexico. For instance, from the small station of Magdalena in Socorro County, the terminus of a short branch, about 75 train loads of sheep in double decked cars were shipped to eastern points and as far as Missouri and Iowa, during the season. Verily, New Mexico's freight business in this year of our Lord is proving a bonanza to the railroad companies in this Territory.

Although San Juan County has plenty and cheap water for irrigation, J. N. Overholzer, a rancher, near Farmington, has expended $750 for a gasoline pumping plant because in the end, pumping water from a depth of 50 to 100 feet is cheaper than using water from the average community ditch. The pump raises 500 gallons a minute to the height of fifty feet. This is a pointer to all sections of the Territory where the underflow is ample and less than 100 feet from the surface.

Accessions to the Joint Statehood League are continuing. They are not as great as they might be, but they may increase in due season. A Japanese cook in one of the grading camps on the Eastern Railway of New Mexico has just come out boldly in favor of joint statehood, with the addition that he thinks New Mexico and Arizona should become parts of the Mikado's Empire.

It is announced that President Roosevelt's message this year, will be longer than last year's document. Well, President Roosevelt is a clear and very interesting writer and the people will read his state paper. He may be sure that it will keep their attention.

The Albuquerque Corporation Journal is very sore, very rabid, and very unhappy. This is its own fault, hence no sympathy should be wasted upon it.

AN EASY ROAD TO WEALTH,

Is by way of investments in growing new towns with conditions assuring permanent prosperity. Small investments of this kind have earned competencies within the memories of the present generation, and it is a wise man who profits by the experience of others. History will repeat itself at

WILLARD

Which has all the things necessary for the building of a good, substantial town, including water of good quality, abundant in quantity at a depth of 35 feet below the surface, located in and tributary to the finest section of grazing country in the Southwest with agriculture in its infancy, enough having been done in this direction to demonstrate its future success, as fine an all around climate as there is in the world, with a pushing, energetic class of citizens, the kind that make empires, and two railroads one the new A., T. & S. F. short line to the Pacific. Willard has made a most phenomenal growth in the three months of its existence and the price of lots will soon advance. Better come now. The townsite is owned by

MINES AND MINING.

In addition to an address upon the mineral resources of New Mexico at the American Mining Congress at El Paso last week, Professor F. A. Jones, of Albuquerque, gave out the following resume of mining conditions in a number of active New Mexico mining camps:

"About Elizabethtown in Colfax County, there is considerable activity. The operations of the placers are greater than formerly. The Oro Dredging Company a very successful concern operating with a dredger at Elizabethtown, will take out about $100,000 this season. The season here is only about 7 months long on account of freezing up. This company has been operating successfully here for five years and this is said to be the best season yet. Several small hydraulic concerns are operating here also with considerable success.

"About Red River in Taos County there was recently made a rich strike of petzite ore which is rich in gold and silver. Petzite is something like sylvanite and this at Red River is so rich that some of it has been hauled to Springer, a distance of 90 miles, and shipped. This property changed hands last summer and is being worked now.

"This section is showing a marked increase of activity. It is a part of the Sangre de Cristo Mountains which come down from Colorado.

"In the Bromide district in Rio Arriba County, the work of extending the great 6,000 foot tunnel on the Bromide mine is going on and is now in about 600 feet. It will tap a number of deposits. The Dillon Development Company (eastern capitalists) which is working the Tampa mine, has some machinery on the ground for a 50 ton concentrating plant. The ores are sulphides of copper, carrying gold and silver and some of the ores carry platinum values—as high as two ounces to the ton. The workings are down 300 feet with extensive tunnels and drifts. The property is owned by the Tusas Peak Mining Company.

"Northwest of Bromide is the Headstone district about Hopewell. Here the King William Mining Company is operating. The lower flat placers are worked by the hydraulic method quite successfully. The season is just closed, as the ground is freezing up. The company is building big storage reservoirs and expects to have enough water to run all through next summer. There is considerable and increasing activity in quartz mining on copper-gold property in mica-schist near the granite contact.

"In Lincoln County about White Oaks, I understand the present shaft on the Old Abe gold mine, 1,375 feet deep, is to be sunk 250 feet deeper. This is the deepest shaft in New Mexico. The Old Abe coal mine, belonging to the same company, is being operated to supply the local trade.

"On the Little Nell, which is an extension of the Comromise, a very rich gold strike has been made within the past two weeks. I understand the ore runs $300 to $1,000 gold per ton.

"Over at Parsons in Eagle Mountains, the Eagle Mining Company, J. M. Rice general manager, new milling machinery is being installed. The processes are amalgamating and cyanide and Huntington mills are used. This mine, the Parsons, has immense bodies of low grade gold ore.

"Also in Lincoln County in the Gallinas Mountains, northwest of Corona on the El Paso & North-eastern Railway, I understand some high grade copper and silver properties have been recently bonded for $200,000 and operations are commenced. Myself and associates of Brownwood, Texas, are doing development on some iron deposits we have there.

"In the Jicarilla Mountains in the same county, W. A. McIvers is building a 50-ton concentrating plant, which I am informed, is to do custom work. The ores in this section are low grade gold."

LIVERY STABLE LAW.

According to the Williams Livery Stable Law, passed by the 36th Legislative Assembly and approved by Governor Otero, every keeper of a livery stable is required to post a copy of the law in a conspicuous place in his stable. The law is for the protection of livery stable keepers against dead beats and persons who damage any vehicle or injure any animal hired from a livery stable. The New Mexican has printed the law neatly upon cardboard and is ready to fill all orders at $1.00 for each poster in English or in Spanish.

A "WANT AD" will bring results.

CURES DEEP SEATED COUGHS

STRONG EVIDENCE OF FAITH.

A. C. Ireland Guarantees That Hymel will Cure the Worst Case of Catarrh in Existence.

When one of the most reputable druggists in Santa Fe guarantees that a medicine will effect a cure or A. C. Ireland will refund the money, it speaks volumes as to the merits of that remedy. It is in this way that A. C. Ireland is selling Hymel, the treatment that has made so many cures of both acute and chronic cases of catarrh in Santa Fe and vicinity.

Hymel is not a pill, nor is it a liquid that has to be taken with a tablespoon or wineglass. Just breathe it by the aid of an inhaler that comes with every outfit, and benefit will be seen from the first treatment.

The complete Hymel outfit costs but $1.00 and includes an inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hymel for several weeks' treatment.

Remember that if Hymel does not cure you, A. C. Ireland will refund your money. This is a good time to cure catarrh by this natural method and prevent catarrhal colds that are so common at this season.

The Original Laxative Cough Syrup is Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It expels all cold from the system by acting as a cathartic on the bowels. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar is a certain, safe and harmless cure for colds, croup and whooping cough.

Sold By Ireland's Pharmacy.

BABY TUCKER'S WONDERFUL CURE

Covered from Head to Foot with Humours—Forty Boils on Head at One Time—Doctors and Drug Bills $100—Baby Grew Worse.

CURED BY CUTICURA FOR FIVE DOLLARS

Mrs. George H. Tucker, Jr., 335 Greenfield Avenue, Milwaukee, Wis., is a grateful mother. "When six months old," she says, "my little girl weighed a pound and a half less than at birth. When one month old a scab formed on her face, spreading until it completely covered her from head to foot, followed by boils, having forty on her head at one time, and more on her body. Then her skin started to dry up, and it became so bad she could not shut her eyes to sleep. One month's treatment with Cuticura Soap and Ointment made a complete cure, and now my child is as large, strong, and healthy as any child of her age. The doctor's and drug bills were over one hundred dollars, and my baby grew worse all the time. Then we spent less than five dollars for Cuticura and cured her."

CUTICURA A BLESSING

To Skin-Tortured Babies and Tired Mothers.

The suffering which Cuticura Soap and Ointment have alleviated among the young, and the comfort they have afforded worn-out and worried parents, have led to their adoption in countless homes as priceless curatives for birth humours, milk crust, scalled head, eczemas, rashes, and every form of itching, scaly, pimply skin, and scalp humours, with loss of hair, of infancy and childhood. Guaranteed absolutely pure.

Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills, are sold throughout the world. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Boston, Sole Props. Send for "How to Cure Baby Humours."

The ball on the 23d of this month, which is to be given by the Woman's Board of Trade, should be well patronized, inasmuch as the funds derived from this source are to be devoted to carrying on the winter work of that organization, which is mostly in the line of caring for the sick and poor during the cold weather. The ball will be given in the dining room of the Palace Hotel and refreshments will be served during the course of the evening.

THE GREATEST EPOCH OF MARRIAGE

The first is the most crucial time. If for the first time the greatest event in your married life is about to occur, how expectant, how wrapped up in it you find yourselves.

You try to overlook, but in vain, that element of uncertainty and danger that you have been led to expect from the experience of those mothers and fathers who have struggled through this ordeal in ignorance of what it is, and what it does.

If at this time every expectant man and wife might know of this greatest of boons, devised for the express purpose of alleviating and dispelling the suffering and consequent danger of child-birth, how quickly would all doubt and worry be dissipated.

Mother's Friend is an invaluable liniment for external massage, through whose potent agency countless mothers have been enabled to experience the joy of parturition for the first time without danger to themselves or their off-spring.

LAWLESS INDIANS
SLAUGHTER DEER

tory and the Indians are perfectly familiar with the law. They simply ignore it, inasmuch as they have not heretofore been punished for violations by the government.

Law Provides Punishment.

The game law relative to the killing of deer provides that there shall be no deer killed after the first of November, and inflicts a fine of $25.00 for each offense. Even in the open season the law only allows one deer to each man of a party of hunters, and when these Indians start out in parties of 150 there is likely to be a wholesale killing of deer, with the result that if such things are allowed to continue long there will be no deer to hunt.

From a given amount of wood the

with the Hot Blast Down-Draft will produce twice as much heat as any other. It is because the Down-Draft consumes all the fuel and the gases which arise from it, whereas in other heaters the gases, which constitute one-half the burnable part of the fuel, escape unburned up the chimney. You can start a fire in ten minutes and hold it for 36 hours.

Remember, it is fuel cost which counts.

The Wilson saves one-half your fuel bill.

NEW MEXICO HAPPENINGS

The Agricultural College at Las Cruces wants to have a postoffice established at the school. Application to the Washington authorities has been made.

After raising a large sum of money to aid the Russian Jews, the congregation of Temple Albert, Albuquerque, has donated $275 to the Associated Charities of that city for the relief of indigent families.

While at work in the smoldering ruins of the commissary building at the Albuquerque Indian School, last week, an Indian boy was severely burned by a can of boiling syrup falling upon him. The hot syrup burned his hands and face. The injuries were dressed by a physician.

An injunction will be asked for by Judge Lindsey and Postmaster C. O. Leach, of Roswell, to restrain the Capitol Syndicate Land Company of Texas, from infringing on their rights by taking possession of land just across the Texas fence from Texico. This land, like the balance of the Texico townsite, is in dispute.

The police authorities of Albuquerque say the reign of burglaries has ceased. For several weeks past the resident section of the town has been visited repeatedly by a gang of second story workers. The homes of more than a dozen people were looted. The police say by arresting several vagrants they have cleaned up the men who were undoubtedly responsible for the crimes.

Because of reports that there was a shortage in the Salvation Army's funds at Roswell, Adjutant W. R. Woodward has issued a statement denying the charge. It was rumored that when one of the officers recently left for Denver he took with him a good share of the army's funds. Adjutant Woodward said that the report is false and that an investigation has shown the books to be straight and the organization's money safely deposited in the bank.

It is probable that the automobile mail route between Torrance and Roswell will be established. The inspector who made the trip of examination has reported favorably upon the project, and the postal authorities have called for bids for carrying the mail over the route. The distance is 110 miles. According to the government's conditions, the mail is to leave Roswell daily at 1 a. m. and reach Torrance not later than 10 a. m. the same day. Mail from Torrance is to leave at 1 a. m. and arrive at Roswell not later than 12 o'clock noon. The Roswell Automobile Company will probably be awarded the contract. The successful bidder will be required to give a bond of $10,000.

EVERY-DAY TROUBLES.

Most Santa Fe Readers Realize What It Means.

The constant, never ceasing itching, ever present with itching piles, with Eczema, with irritating skin; it's every-day trouble in many households. Doan's Ointment brings relief and cure. Is endorsed by Santa Fe people. C. M. Conklin, ex-city clerk, living on San Francisco Street, says: "There came to my notice some time ago a case of hemorrhoids, commonly called piles. They were of the bleeding, protruding variety, and itched intensely. Doan's Ointment came to the notice of the party afflicted and was procured at Ireland's Pharmacy and a course of the treatment given. The first application soothed and a continuation of its use for some time longer radically disposed of that far too prevalent plague."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

It is an admitted fact that real estate and financial men and merchants all say that quickest and best results are obtained by advertising in the New Mexican.

To draw the fire out of a burn, heal a cut without leaving a scar, or to cure boils, sores, tetter, eczema and all skin and scalp diseases, use DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A specific for piles. Get the genuine. No remedy causes such speedy relief. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine.

COMPASSES AND CONFUSION

By LOUIS PIERCE

Copyright, 1905, by E. S. McCutcheon

Gladden looked up from the pan in which the bacon was sizzling. The start he gave tumbled the bacon into the fire, and the wild efforts to right the pan before the evening meal was spilled upset the coffee pot and put out the blaze.

Instead of expressing an opinion upon the happenings of the moment Gladden sprang to his feet and hurried to the bench just as the light canoe grounded on the shore.

One look into the bright face under the red Tam o' Shanter and Gladden was glad that the bacon had been spilled. He had been in camp for six weeks, and even an ugly woman would have been welcomed at the camp. To have this graceful guest at his supper was something he would not have imagined possible ten minutes before.

"Welcome to camp," he said hospitably, extending his hand to assist her to step over the side. To his surprise she refused his aid and sprang to the shore as lightly as a bird. With a haughty glance she swept past him and into the hut. Another moment and she stood before him again, her eyes ablaze.

"Where are the others?" she demanded. "And where are all our things?" "There are no others," he laughed. "I am afraid that the limited population of this camp does not permit the appointment of a reception committee; unless, indeed, you are willing to recognize me as such."

"What have you done with the others?" she repeated. "Have you killed them or have you merely driven them away?"

Gladden laughed. "There has been no one here for six weeks," he declared. "There was this morning," she corrected. "When I left to go over to town there were six here besides the guides. Now not even the things are left, and you have the audacity to camp right here. I suppose you thought that, since you had made away with them all, there was no danger of detection, for a few days at least. I suppose you will have to kill me now to keep from being exposed."

"Don't you think?" asked Gladden. "that you may have made a mistake? Camps look very much alike to persons unaccustomed to the woods. Perhaps you are on the other arm of the lake."

"There is no mistake," she insisted. "I steered by compass."

"Do you know how to use the compass?" he persisted. She looked at him in disdain.

"Is it necessary to insult me?" she demanded. "Why don't you kill me and finish off the work you have commenced?"

"That's a good idea," assented Gladden, recalled by the last half of the sentence. "The work I had commenced was the getting of supper. If you are as hungry as I am you will regard me as a life preserver rather than a murderer."

"Without another word he went about the work of kindling a fresh fire. As he knelt over the twigs the girl made a rush for the boat. He reached the canoe first. "See here," he said firmly. "You are lost already. I cannot have you still further confused just because you imagine that this is your camp and that I have slaughtered the whole family, to say nothing of the guides, for the sake of your canned goods. Sit down and rest, and after you have had supper I will try to find you."

The girl followed him back to the fire, cowed, but unbelieving. Skillfully Gladden fanned the fire into a bright glow and set the pot on. Then he sliced fresh bacon and set out the plates.

Presently the smell of the browning bacon began to fill the camp, and the girl's face softened. She did not realize how hungry she was until the bacon began to fry. For the first time she took notice that this young man, in spite of his evidences of city breeding, was not only decidedly good looking, but skilled in woodcraft, and fear gave way to admiration of his deftness.

"I guess you can eat that," he said at last, as he placed some of the bacon on a plate and poured a cup of coffee for her. Silently she accepted the food and Gladden smiled softly to himself as he saw the way she ate. It had been his experience that girls were always more reasonable after they had been fed, and already she was unbending visibly.

"Are you convinced that I am more human than you were willing to believe at first?" he asked as the plates were at last cleared.

"Perhaps there has been some mistake," she grudgingly assented, "but I was so careful to steer by the compass that I cannot see how any mistake could be made."

"Perhaps you turned east instead of west," he suggested. "The camps are on the west lake because there is a mail delivery over there. That is why I chose the east lake."

"But this is the west lake," she insisted. "The village is to the south, I turned west."

"You turned east," insisted Gladden, "since you are on the west lake at this very moment."

"Look!" she cried. "The other lake is over there." She pointed across the point to where the river formed a strait between the lakes.

"That is the west lake over there," he assured her. For answer she drew from her belt a tiny compass, gorgeous in its gold case.

"See!" she cried triumphantly. "Here is the north. This must be the west!"

"I am afraid," chuckled Gladden, "that you are under the impression that the south is the north. 'That needle is pointing directly away from what you call the north.'"

"Certainly," was the prompt response. "I am afraid you are not very familiar with compasses. They are like weather vanes, you know. They point with the arrow head from the direction."

The next instant he was sorry, but for a moment Gladden rolled upon the turf in an ecstasy of joy. This was the explanation. She had steered her course by the compasses in exactly the wrong direction. There was but one camp on the west lake that resembled his. That was the Driscoll camp, and this must be Benny Driscoll's sister. He rose to confront a very indignant young woman.

"I don't like to be laughed at," she said in a hurt little voice. "If I have made a mistake I want to go back to the other lake where they will be kind to me."

"My dear Miss Driscoll," he cried, "I will take you over to your camp in a jiffy, but not until you have forgiven my rudeness."

"You knew who I was all along," she said reproachfully. "I just this moment found out," he assured her. "I remembered that the Driscoll camp probably looked like this to a new comer to the woods. That is where you belong. Say you will forgive me, and I'll paddle you right over."

For answer she ran to the canoe and sprang into it. Gladden made a leap and sprang upon the bow just as with a sweep of the paddle she cleared the shore.

"I'm not going to let you go until you say you are not angry with me," he said. "Do you suppose I will let you go in this way?"

She glanced into the resolute blue eyes and saw therein not only mastery, but an ardent affection that caused her eyes to veil themselves beneath the lids.

"I forgive you," she said, with a little tremble in her voice, "but please take me home. I am tired."

He tied his own canoe behind and paddled down the lake as the silvery moon rose from behind the shoulder of old Greytop and silvered the wind ripples of the lake.

Not a word was spoken, but it seemed to Gladden that their voices sang in unison, and he was sorry when at last the Driscoll camp was in sight.

They welcomed the prodigal and her rescuer and made him spend the evening. Later Gladden, stooping to unfasten the painter of his canoe, rose to face the earnest eyes.

"I am sorry I was so rude," she said softly. "Can I make atonement?"

"Let me come again," he said as he bent over the tiny hand.

"Tomorrow," she whispered as she snatched her hand away, and as Gladden bent to his paddle the swirling waters whispered that she added "Early," and he had read in her eyes the message she had seen in his own earlier in the evening.

The bridesmaids and ushers never knew why their favors were in the shape of tiny compasses, but they have Mrs. Gladden's assurance that they are lucky.

BONHAM & WADE.

New Law Firm at Las Cruces—One of the Strongest in the Sunshine Territory.

A few days ago the law firm of Bonham & Holt of Las Cruces, consisting of Joseph F. Bonham and H. B. Holt, was dissolved and a new firm under the style of Bonham & Wade, composed of J. F. Bonham and E. C. Wade was formed. The New Mexican has known the members of the new firm for over twenty-five years, and therefore speaks by the book. Both members have received a thorough legal education; have had much experience and practice and are considered as very able and competent attorneys. They are trustworthy and will attend to all business given the firm with alacrity, energy and efficiency.

Mr. Wade came to New Mexico in 1879 from Washington, where he had graduated with honor at the law department of the University there. Since then he has practiced successfully his profession, and for several years was territorial district attorney for the Third Judicial District, a position which he filled with satisfaction to the people and credit to himself. He has been a resident of Las Cruces for about twenty years. He is very well known, a finely educated man and a clear-headed lawyer.

Mr. Bonham came to Santa Fe before 1880 and for a while was a clerk in one of the most prominent law offices in the Territory. Thereafter, he commenced to practice for himself in this city. A few years he spent east and in California, and then returned to the Sunshine Territory, settling in Las Cruces about ten years ago where he has been ever since.

He has proven himself a fine lawyer, courageous, careful and true to the interests of his clients. He has a natural bent for law. He is a hard worker and a conscientious one; he is reliable. The firm is a strong combination and within a reasonable time ought to become, and the New Mexican thinks it will, the strongest law firm in the central and southern part of the Territory.

The Mexican Central has recently placed on sale tickets to New York and return, going via the Mexican Central to either Vera Cruz or Tampico, thence via the famous Ward Steamship Line to New York. The return will be by rail over any line to El Paso. The entire trip, covering thousands of miles, Havana, Cuba, and its famous Moro Castle, Newport and a dozen of the largest cities of the United States, can be made for $122.50. A more delightful trip not be planned, as stop-over privileges are allowed and the tickets are good for one year from the date of sale. The trip includes the City of Mexico, the "Paris of America." Further information can be secured by address: A. Dulohery, Commercial Agent, El Paso, Tex., or W. D. Murdock, Assistant General Passenger Agent, City of Mexico.
