SHAW TELLS OF COUNTRY'S MONEY

Secretary of Treasury Makes Annual Report

STATEMENT SHOWS DEFICIT

Elastic Currency Is Recommended--National Banks Reveal Prosperity.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 6.—Leslie M. Shaw, secretary of the treasury, today sent his annual report to the President.

According to the report the government's revenue from all sources for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, amounted to $697,101,269.95, the expenditures for the same period were $720,105,498.55, leaving a deficit of $23,004,228.60.

Receipts Show Increase.

Compared with the fiscal year, 1904, the receipts for 1905 increased $12,886,896.21. There was a decrease of $5,879,447.10 in expenditures.

The ordinary revenues for 1905, as compared with 1904, show an increase of $3,642,935.45, while the expenditures were less by $15,123,407.86. For the past two years the expenditures of the government have been in excess of the revenues to the aggregate amount of more than $64,000,000. This, however, included the extraordinary expenditures in 1904 of $50,000,000 on account of the Panama Canal.

During the fiscal year 1905, there was an addition of $900 to the interest-bearing debt, while there were reductions of $600,675 in the items on which interest had ceased since maturity and $3,021,463.30 in the debt bearing interest. The net reduction was $3,901,921.30.

Cash Balance.

The available cash balance in the general fund, June 30, 1905, was $145,477,491.39, a reduction for the year of $26,674,767.12.

The revenues for the first quarter of 1906 were $147,014,725.10 and the expenditures $156,588,966.66, an excess of expenditures over receipts of $9,574,241.56. In the first quarter of 1905 expenditures were $17,856,615 in excess of receipts.

United States notes to the amount of $11,517,579 and treasury notes for $340,675 were redeemed in gold from the reserve fund during the last fiscal year. The redeemed notes were immediately exchanged for gold, and the reserve was thus kept intact.

The trust funds at the close of the fiscal year 1905 amounted to $992,467,968, a net increase for the year of $14,723,400.

The total amount of United States paper currency issued during the last fiscal year was $637,750,000, and the redemptions were $623,026,600. Gold certificates increased $23,499,400, while silver certificates were reduced $5,211,000 and treasury notes $3,555,000.

The annual cost of maintenance of the paper currency issued by the government averages about two-tenths of 1 per cent of the amount outstanding.

National bank notes to the amount of $308,298,760 were presented for redemption during the year. This was 65.84 per cent of the average amount of notes outstanding.

Bank Deposits.

The deposits in national banks to the credit of the general fund at the beginning of the year were $102,290,863.64.

During the year $68,739,793 was added to the money in circulation. The per capita circulation advanced from $30.77 July 1, 1904, to $31.38 November 1, 1904; then declined to $30.86 April 1, 1905, and at the close of the year, June 30, 1905, stood at $31.08. By October 1, 1905, the total money in circulation had advanced to $2,624,230,391, a per capita circulation of $31.39, 42.8 per cent of which was gold.

The gold in the treasury, including the reserve and trust funds, October 9, 1905, amounted to $739,898,600.36, a sum never equaled in our annals; nor has any other government ever held so much of the precious metal.

During the past year the usual facilities have been extended to aid in the movement of the crops. The deposits for transfer in the New York and Chicago sub-treasuries were $30,093,034, for which payments by telegraph were made at other points in the denominations required to meet the demands of the locality in which the funds were to be used.

The silver dollars in circulation June 30, 1898, were $58,482,966.

National Banks.

At the close of the year ending September 30, 1905, 5,831 national banks, with authorized capital stock of $810,654,075, were in active operation.

Since the national banking system was first authorized there have been 438 failures and 1,661 voluntary liquidations of national banks.

RUSSIA RUSHES NEEDED REFORMS

Promises to Be Fulfilled as Soon as Possible.

WAGES CAUSE BIG TROUBLE

The Czar Publicly Thanks One Regiment for Its Loyalty to Him.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 5.—Via Eydr. kuhn, East Prussia.—An official note was issued today explaining that while the government is determined to carry out the reforms promised by the Imperial manifesto of October 30, it is impossible, at one stroke, to accustom the population to the administration of the new order of things created by the manifesto.

Until new legislation required by the reforms is effected old laws must be enforced, except where they are already replaced by temporary provision. The note adds that the drafts of provisional regulations governing the freedom of press and the right of association have been completed; that the deliberations regarding reforms of the council of the empire and the extension of franchises are nearing conclusion; and that the elections to the national assembly are being expedited. At the same time measures are being initiated to cope with the disturbances which are endangering the public security.

M. E. Reigard chief of the press censorship officers, has been relieved of his post at his own request.

Congratulates Regiment.

At a review of the Smolovsky regiment at Tsarskoye Selo, yesterday, the Emperor addressed the troops commenting on their tried loyalty. At the subsequent regiment banquet, given by the officers to his Majesty, he thanked the regiment for its exemplary services and expressed hope that it would always show itself as firmly united as it was at present.

Advices from Voronezh dated December 3 say that the soldiers of the disciplinary battalion are parading the town in gangs and intimidating the populace.

One contingent it is said is touring the surrounding villages and estates, and levying blackmail.

Factories Bankrupt.

Warsaw, Dec. 6.—Many smaller factories are going into bankruptcy because of their inability to meet the additional expenses occasioned by the increase of wages.

The postal and telegraph authorities estimate that the government is losing $80,000 daily by the present strike which its loss from tickets alone during the recent railroad strike is estimated at $18,500,000.

Say They Win.

Berlin, Dec. 6.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg says: The central bureau of Moscow telegraph and postal employees sent the following telegram to all cities in Russia, "All your demands will be granted, continue to strike. Trust in victory. The prospects are good. Witte agrees to everything. Only Durnovo opposes. Remain firm."

Embassy Silent.

London, Dec. 6.—The foreign office has not heard from the British Embassy at St. Petersburg since November 30. The last communication relative to British subjects in Russia said that most of those still there were business men who proposed to remain.

WRECKS ON ANTA FE

Report Tells of Disaster to Train--No Details Have Been Received Here.

Reports of a Wreck on the Santa Fe Reached This City This Afternoon at 4:15 o'clock.

Trains Nos. 1, 7 and 9 are delayed.

Which one of the trains is wrecked is not known.

It is not known if any lives have been lost.

One rumor said that several had been killed, but this was not verified.

Local Agent Yeocum has received no information regarding the disaster.

D. A. Litton who, last September, shot and killed H. B. Green, near Alamo ranch, on the Jornada del Muerto, and who has been hiding in the Caballo Mountains ever since, has surrendered to Deputy Sheriff Kendall of Sierra County and was taken to the Socorro County jail. The latest news is that he has been released on bond and has returned to his home in Sierra County.

JAMES WALLACE RAYNOLDS.
Who Was Today Re-Appointed By President Roosevelt as Secretary of New Mexico.

SECRETARY RAYNOLDS GETS RE-APPOINTMENT

President Roosevelt Recognizes Right Service and Names Him.

CATRON-RODEY COMBINE BEATEN

Tactics of Opposition so Disgusted Secretary Hitchcock That He Urged Immediate Announcement of Selection--Incumbent Endorsed By Governor Hagerman--Other Candidates Never Considered.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 6.—James Wallace Raynolds was today re-appointed secretary of the Territory of New Mexico.

President Roosevelt sent Mr. Raynolds' name to the Senate for confirmation.

In re-appointing Secretary Raynolds, the President simply carried out his declaration, made some months ago, that all officials who had served one term with credit would be re-appointed.

There was never any doubt that Mr. Raynolds had earned his second term appointment.

Opposed By Catron.

Special to the New Mexican.

Washington, Dec. 6.—Reliable advices here indicate that Secretary Raynolds' re-appointment has been vigorously opposed by the Catron-Rodey combine that was trying to land Major Fritz Muller in the place.

It is now learned that Secretary Hitchcock and Mr. Hagerman, the governor to be, had both endorsed Secretary Raynolds to the President for re-appointment, and that Mr. Raynolds left Washington ten days ago with every assurance of success upon the expiration of his present term, in January, 1906.

However, the nature of the fight being waged by the opposition so dis-

STATEHOOD BILL LITTLE CHANGED

Hamilton Law Similar to One Passed Last Year

SANTA FE TO BE CAPITAL

Railroad and Tariff Measures Introduced--to Annex West Indies.

Special to the New Mexican.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 6.—Chairman Hamilton of the committee on territories of the House of Representatives has introduced an omnibus joint statehood bill, very similar to the omnibus bill that passed the House of Representatives in the second session of the 58th Congress, providing for statehood for New Mexico and Arizona, under the name of Arizona; and for Oklahoma and Indian Territory as one state under the name of Oklahoma.

There are slight changes in the bill, one of them providing that Santa Fe shall be the Capital of the new state of Arizona until 1915.

Townsend Bill.

The Townsend railroad bill which passed the House last session has been re-drawn and was re-introduced in the House today by Mr. Townsend.

The bill embraces all the features of the former measure but is drawn so as to specify things which may be done by the Interstate Commerce Commission. In addition the bill has a publicity feature and gives jurisdiction over refrigeration and terminal charges.

Railroad Bill.

Senator Foraker today introduced his railroad rate regulation bill which he had heretofore presented to the Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce. It is the railroad's measure.

Tariff Amendment.

Senator Lodge introduced an amendment to the Dingley Tariff Law providing a maximum and minimum rate of duty, so as to give preference and advantage to products of those countries which do not discriminate against the products of the United States.

To Annex West Indies.

Senator Hepburn introduced a resolution for the annexation of Santo Domingo and Hayti to the United States.

No Money in Elections.

A bill prohibiting the use of money of insurance companies in federal elections was introduced by Senator Culberson. The offense is made a felony and is punishable at from two to twenty years imprisonment.

GOES TO SENATE.

Governor La Follette Announces in Special Message That He Will Take Seat.

Special to the New Mexican.

Madison, Wis., Dec. 6.—Governor La Follette announced last night in a message to the special session of the legislature that at the end of the session he will resign his position as governor and take his seat in the Senate.

For the past two weeks the action of the governor has been in doubt. It was predicted that he would refuse to accept the Senator's toga and would remain in Wisconsin as governor. Rumor had it that La Follette would attempt to elect Isaac Stephenson, a Marinette lumber baron, Senator.

In his message the governor told the legislature that he had promised the people of the state to remain governor until the pledges of the Republican party were carried out. To redeem these pledges it was necessary to call the special session to perfect some of the legislation passed at the regular session a year ago.

The new railroad regulation bill was found defective and to make it effective it must be amended.

SENATOR DEPEW QUILTS

Resigns as Director of Equitable--Eldredge is on Stand Again Today.

Washington, Dec. 6.—Senator Depew has tendered his resignation as a director of the Equitable Life. It will be presented to the board of directors at its next meeting.

New York, N. Y., December 6.—George D. Eldredge, first vice president and actuary of the Mutual Reserve Life Insurance Company, who had already been on the witness stand before the investigating committee three days and a half was today's first witness before the committee. He was examined on the legal expenses of the Mutual Reserve.

GOODWIN HOME IS RAZED BY FLAMES

Narrow Escape of Woman From Suffocation.

LARGE CROWD TURNS OUT

Good Work of Department Saves Adjoining Property From Burning.

A fire which destroyed the two and one-half story frame house occupied by Mrs. T. A. Goodwin at 102 College Street, at 3 o'clock this morning, caused a panic among residents in the neighborhood and but for the energetic work of the fire department would have destroyed several houses in the vicinity.

Mrs. T. A. Goodwin was awakened by severe coughing caused by the smoke which was pouring into the room in which she slept. "The flames were then on both floors of the house. Mrs. Goodwin, was almost overcome by smoke but succeeded in making her way to the street where she found shelter with neighbors.

Large Loss.

The loss on the building was estimated by Frank Owen, chief of the fire department at $1,500. Mrs. Goodwin says her loss on household goods is between two and three thousand dollars. She was unable to save anything but a basket full of silverware and china. Sixty-five dollars which she had collected the previous day, were burned.

The fire also damaged the residence occupied by J. V. Conway, proprietor of the Normandie Hotel. In moving his furniture into the street and from damage by water Mr. Conway sustained a loss which he estimates at $200.

Mrs. Conway discovered the fire at about the time Mrs. Goodwin was awakened by smoke. She awoke her husband who ran into the street and gave the alarm. Charles J. Parsons, a clerk in the postoffice, ran to the fire station and rang the fire bell vigorously, awakening the firemen who responded promptly. The fire, however, had gained such headway by the time the apparatus had reached the scene that the men devoted their efforts to preventing the spreading of the flames.

Property Threatened.

Despite their efforts the adjoining house, occupied by Mr. Conway, began to smoke. The paint was blistered on one side and the building and the window glass was broken. It was necessary to play a stream of water constantly upon this building to save it. When it appeared as though, his home would be burned, Mr. Conway and wife, assisted by neighbors, moved the household goods into the street. C. W. Astler and wife, J. B. Read, Mrs. C. R. Pierce, and Antonio Valdez, who occupied the frame houses south of the burning building and adjoining the home of Mr. Conway, also took fright and began taking their household effects to a place of safety. The fire, however, was checked.

The buildings on this side of the street form what is known as Improvement Row and belong for the most part to Robert C. Gortner, who is now visiting his father at Goshen, Indiana. It is understood that the loss on the buildings is partly covered by insurance. Mrs. Goodwin, however, said she did not know whether her insurance policies covering her household effects had been allowed to lapse or not.

About 300 citizens turned out from warm beds to help fight the fire. This morning only the front part of the building is standing. It is a wreck and should be pulled down before it falls into the street.

Origin of Fire.

Little is known as to the origin of the fire. Mrs. Goodwin said that there was a hole in the cook stove in a rear room of the house through which a coal of fire might have fallen into waste paper. There were also electric wires in the house and during the day a fire had been burning in an open grate. It is probable that the fire started from the cook stove, however, as this morning, it is plainly evident that the flames originated on the first floor of the house.

Mrs. Goodwin had a number of lodgers previous to the day preceding the fire, when the last one left the city. There was a woman in the house who had been assisting Mrs. Goodwin with her house work, but she escaped without difficulty from the building and suffered no loss.

Many citizens who were aroused by the fire bell thought the fire was in one of the business buildings near the Plaza, so brightly did it burn. When they discovered the location, they returned to bed. This is the first serious fire in Santa Fe for some months.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every postoffice in the Territory, and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the Southwest.

A SENSIBLE VIEW OF THE STATEHOOD SITUATION.

About as sensible and timely an editorial as has of late appeared in New Mexican newspapers, is one in last week's issue of the Farmington Enterprise on the statehood question. The Enterprise approves of the plan of the New Mexican that, if separate statehood cannot now be obtained, it should be given the people of this Territory in 1908. The Enterprise is one of the brightest newspapers in the Territory, printed in one of the most fertile, most progressive and most rapidly settling sections, and is very influential in its home county. It reprints the New Mexican's editorial in full, prefacing it with the following:

"The appointment of a new Governor for New Mexico is taken by all persons who interest themselves in the political affairs of the Territory regardless of party affiliation, as an indication that statehood has again been postponed. It is entirely unlikely that the President would have selected a new Governor for a mere fraction of a term had the prospects pointed to the passage of an immediately effective statehood bill by Congress.

However, the agitation has been so long and persistent that members of Congress are beginning to tire of the subare arguments pro and con and believe that the matter will be closed by the passage of a bill adjourning the territories, but postponing time for the first election under until 1908.

In that case there would seem to be reason whatever why we should be moved to Arizona. Our population and wealth is rapidly increasing by the addition of new people and new enterprises and in three years more we can easily support a state government. The fallacy of little or no representation, a state under which we have so far been compelled to exist, should be so unsatisfactory to the people by this time that they ought to demand all the representation possible in the halls of Congress, and the only way to get it is by securing two seats in each house. Of course one Senator would be of great assistance but only half as much as two, and that is the place where our power must be effective, if at all.

"New Mexico has vast areas of worthless arid land, but she also has rivers of sufficient capacity to impart to it immense value. All that is lacking is the capital to bring the two together and that must be furnished by the government. In order to secure our share of the money for that purpose and for public buildings and a thousand other improvements we should not be satisfied with half a loaf but demand and work for the whole measure. Other western states are realizing the necessity of increased western representation in Congress and are not willing to take for New Mexico and Arizona any less than the precedents of a century have entitled them to, and certainly we should be at least as zealous for our own rights as our neighbors are for us.

"The argument of the Albuquerque joint statehood boomers that they wanted immediate admission in that manner for the purpose of 'getting rid' of the present territorial administration is no longer effective, as that administration will pass into history next month, and while it has not been above error in some respects, it leaves a record which is so far ahead of any of its predecessors that there is no comparison; it leaves the territorial debt less by nearly half a million dollars than eight years ago and a condition of prosperity, law and order not heretofore in existence.

"That its successor will be even more successful we have every reason to believe."

The governors of the states of Washington and of Kansas are in a bad fix. They would like to succeed respectively United States Senator Mitchell and United States Senator Burton when the latter resign, which in the natural course of events is bound to happen before long, but how can they?

TELLING THE TRUTH ABOUT THE ALBUQUERQUE YELLOW JOURNAL.

At times the Albuquerque Citizen shows up its yellow contemporary, the Journal unmercifully and diligently. This action on the part of the Citizen is a good thing for the Duke City as it exposes the humbug pretensions and frog-like vanity of the Journal and proves to the citizens of the Duke City that the latter paper is a detriment and a hindrance to the growth and prosperity of their town. In the following, reproduced from the editorial columns of the Citizen, the truth concerning the Journal is told in good shape:

"The great and only newspaper published in New Mexico, according to its own claims, but the absolute and unceasing afterness of which the Citizen has so completely and unanswerably exposed—the Albuquerque Aftermath—is not beyond all hope. In fact, the Citizen has actually been able to teach that rag the meaning of aftermath, and so proud was it of its newly acquired knowledge that it used the word in big flaring type in one of its telegraph headlines yesterday; although but a few days before it announced its own ignorance of the word's meaning, and attributed the same ignorance to the community. But, then, that is the usual way. No sooner does a small child, or an ignorant grown person, acquire a little additional knowledge than at once such a one begins to parade its new possession on all occasions.

"However, the Aftermath must not grow foolhardy over its success in mastering a plain English word, and in its puffed up vanity attempt to revolutionize geography, history and a few other primary studies—as with impudent silliness it claims to have revolutionized both morals and government in New Mexico. That it is in danger of going to this extreme is proved by its issue today. It starts out the new month by telling us in its much vaunted telegraph service—for which it pays $13 per week, according to its own figures—that the demonstration of the powers against Turkey and the seizure of Mitylene, is 'in order to enforce the demands for the financial control of Manchuria,' a matter with which the Turk is as innocent of having anything to do, as is the morning Aftermath of having to do with news, decency or knowledge."

PRESIDENT PALMA RE-ELECTED.

The returns are in and President Palma has been re-elected by the moderate party in Cuba. The Liberal party did not make much of a fight and its candidates for the presidency, General Jose Gomez, seeing defeat staring him in the face, withdrew some time since from active campaign work. The Liberals are charging that the administration exerted all its power and unscrupulously prevented the expressions of the people in the elections. That part of this charge is true is not doubted but upon the whole it is believed that the elections were about as fair and as honest as could well be expected in a country like the Isle of Cuba. That it is best for all concerned that the Moderates were victorious, is acknowledged by those who are acquainted with the situation there. Under President Palma's regime, the form of government will be more stable and will gain more strength right along. Under the circumstances, the victory of the Moderates may well be considered as the best that could have happened there. For the time being, the fear of revolutions and uprisings on the part of the Liberals has disappeared and the Moderate party will give the island a stable and peaceful administration of public affairs. Cuba's future looks brighter and Uncle Sam will not have to interfere in governmental affairs there for some time to come.

The city council at its last session, adopted measures for the paving of several of the important business avenues and residence streets of the city, including a brick walk, six feet wide, to the Union and Santa Fe Railway depots. The New Mexican is assured that the city administration means business and that if property owners do not comply with these ordinances, the administration will have the work done and sell the paving certificates. The New Mexican is gratified to make this announcement and will give all due credit to the administration, if it will carry out the intention announced. Every sidewalk constructed is a distinct gain to the city at large, to its property owners and business interests. Stubborn and unprogressive property owners may hold back for selfish reasons, but the administration will be supported by all well meaning and public spirited citizens and its measures for advancement, will be upheld by public sentiment.

Chairman Hamilton of the committee on territories of the national House of Representatives asserts that an omnibus bill providing for the state of Oklahoma and Arizona, the former to consist of Oklahoma and Indian Territory and the latter of New Mexico and Arizona, will be passed by the 59th Congress and that within 60 days. If this proves true, there are lively times ahead for the people of the Sunshine Territory and for Arizona proper.

The railroads now know the worst. The President told it to them in about 7,000 words in cold, hard type, black on white, and yet they wiggle along just as if nothing had happened.

BLOOD POISON THE BLACK FLAG

The black flag is an emblem of horror and dread. When it is hoisted by an army, the order has gone forth that "no quarter" will be given, everything must be destroyed. Helpless women and children, as well as opposing soldiers, meet the same fate, and a trail of desolation, suffering and death is left behind. Contagious Blood Poison is the black flag of the great army of disease. This vile disorder is known as the blackest and most hideous of all human afflictions, overthrowing its victims and crushing out the life. It is no respecter of persons; no matter how pure the blood may be or how innocently the disease is contracted, when this awful virus enters the circulation the hideous, hateful and humiliating symptoms begin to appear, and the sufferer feels that his very presence is polluting and contaminating. Usually the first sign of the disease is a little sore or ulcer, but as the blood becomes more deeply poisoned the severer symptoms are manifested, the mouth and throat ulcerate, the glands in the groins swell, a red rash breaks out on the body, the hair and eyebrows come out, and often the body is covered with copper-colored spots, pustular eruptions and sores. In its worst stages the disease affects the nerves, attacks the bones and sometimes causes tumors to form on the brain, producing insanity and death. Not only those who contract the poison suffer, but unless the virus is driven from the blood the awful taint is handed down to offspring, and they are its innocent victims. Blood Poison is indeed a "black flag." Mercury and Potash, so often used, never can cure the trouble. These minerals merely drive the symptoms away for awhile and shut the disease up in the system, and when they are left off it returns worse than before. This treatment not only fails to cure blood poison but eats out the delicate lining of the stomach and bowels, produces chronic dyspepsia, loosens the teeth and frequently causes mercurial rheumatism to add to the patient's suffering. S. S. S., the great vegetable medicine, is the conqueror of this vile disease. It goes down to the very root of the trouble and cures by cleansing the blood of every particle of the poison. S. S. S. does not hide or cover up anything but clears the entire circulation of the virus and puts the system in good healthy condition. It cures safely as well as certainly, because there is not a particle of mineral in it. We offer a reward of $1,000.00 for proof that S. S. S. is not purely vegetable. When the blood is purified and strengthened with this great remedy the symptoms all pass away and no sign of the disease is ever seen again; nor is there left the least trace to be handed down to posterity. Special book with instructions for self-treatment and any medical advice desired will be sent without charge to all who write.

Several years ago I had blood poison and my flesh was in an awful condition. Great sores would break out and nothing I put on them would do any good. My hair and eyebrows fell out and I was "a fright." My mouth was so sore I had to live on milk and water. I took Mercury for a long time and instead of getting better I continued to grow worse and my arms and hands became solid sores. My legs were drawn so I could not walk and I felt that my time was short here if I did not get some relief. I began to use your S. S. S. and it helped me from the start. After taking it awhile the sores all healed, my rheumatism was cured and to-day I am a strong, well man. It got all the mercury out of my system and it cured me sound and well. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

S.S.S. PURELY VEGETABLE.

A man in Denver is the insurance adjuster for Colorado and New Mexico and he fixes fire insurance rates at his own sweet will, regardless of fairness, justice and equity. Another excellent reason why life and fire insurance companies should be placed under national control and why publicity should be given at stated times to their doings. After all, it is becoming quite well established, that the interests of the policy holders are somewhat greater than those of the money sharks who are in control of the life and fire insurance business of the country.

More assassinations, more incendiarism, more destruction of property by fire and more brutal outrages on women and children are reported from a number of the largest cities in Russia. There is a great deal of cruel blood letting and fearful suffering on the part of the innocents and the end seems not in sight. Verily, the Russian people are paying for 500 years of misrule, tyranny and despotism and that with a heavy interest.

United States Senator Stephen B. Elkins of West Virginia, will stand by the best interests of this Territory and is therefore a strong advocate for single statehood. The Senator is a power in the state of West Virginia in political and financial circles, and the fact that he remembers his old friends in this Territory which gave him his political start is highly commendable and greatly appreciated. "Steve" Elkins is all right.

The number of anti-joint statehood papers in Arizona is still 50 and the pro-joint statehood papers, number four. The Arizonians are evidently not a whit scared at the silly bulldozing tactics of the Albuquerque Joint Statehood League and the yellow newspapers under the leaguers' control. They are "tough customers" in the sister territory.

Flowers on the desks of members of the Senate and House of Representatives in Washington have been tabooed and no longer will admiring friends be allowed to pile high bouquets in front of members' seats and on their desks. The practice had become such a nuisance that it had to be abandoned. Even in the Senate of the United States, they move with the times.

The impetus given to the organization of national banking associations by the act of March 14, 1900, which authorized the incorporation of national banks with minimum capital of $25,000, permitted the issue of circulation to the par value of bonds deposited, and reduced the tax on circulation, together with the generally prosperous business conditions which have existed since its passage, has resulted in the organization of 2,666 national banks chartered during the existence of the national banking system.

In the year ended September 30, 1905, 513 banks were chartered, with a capital of $34,765,500. This includes 199 associations with a capital of $50,000 or over and 314 of a smaller capitalization. The number of primary organizations was 275, with a capital of $15,102,500; of re-organizations of state and private banks, 190, with $16,243,000 capital, and of conversions of state banks, 48, with a capital of $3,420,000.

Banks Have Surplus.

Latest reports from national banking associations, made in response to the call of the comptroller of the currency, show the conditions existing on August 25, 1905. These reports cover 5,757 banks, with a paid-in capital stock of $799,870,229 and a surplus of $417,757,591. This surplus is nearly three times the amount required to be accumulated under the law. Deposits to the credit of individuals are $3,820,681,712 and to the credit of banks $1,624,877,581; the aggregate liabilities are $7,472,350,878. The banks' principal items of resources are as follows: Loans $3,998,509,152; bonds, securities, and other investments, $1,239,342,700; specie, $495,479,453 (of which $397,332,952 is in gold and gold certificates, and legal tenders, $170,073,847).

Comparing the returns on August 25, 1905, with those of September 6, 1904, there is an increase of 345 in the number of reporting banks and an increase in capital of $29,092,375. Individual deposits increased $362,465,945 and bank deposits $63,625,240.

Mint Service.

The domestic coinage of the mints during the fiscal year amounted to 152,422,302 pieces, of the value of $91,172,729.82. Of this, $79,983,691.50 was gold coin. The coinage of the standard silver dollars was $310; of subsidiary silver, $9,123,660.60, and of minor coin, $2,065,067.73. The stock of bullion purchased under the act of July 14, 1890, became wholly exhausted during the past year. The coinage of silver dollars is necessarily discontinued.

Gold Production.

The production of gold in the United States for the calendar year 1904 is estimated at $80,464,700, and the industrial consumption at $28,655,963, of which $22,930,036 was of new material. The original deposits of gold at the several mints and assay offices aggregated $143,378,968.86.

The outstanding principal of the public debt June 30, 1905, was $895,158,240, an increase of $900 in the fiscal year, due to the issue of 4 per cent bonds of the funded loan of 1907 in settlement of accrued interest on 4 per cent refunding certificates surrendered during the year, in accordance with the act of February 26, 1879.

Imports and Exports.

Imports to the amount of $1,117,512,629, were landed upon United States wharves during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, and upon these imports $262,060,528 of duty was collected. For the same period the exports of merchandise were $1,518,561,720.

Legislation to bring about a rearrangement of customs districts is an urgent necessity. The demand for such change is even stronger now than when this recommendation was made in previous reports.

The force of special agents and special employees has been actively engaged during the past fiscal year in the detection and prevention of customs frauds.

The receipts from internal revenue taxes for the fiscal year 1905, as shown by collectors' reports, were $234,187,976.37, a net increase over 1904, of $1,284,195.31.

The necessity for an elastic currency has received fresh emphasis in the financial conditions of the last few months. Millions were loaned, approximately at 1 per cent in midsummer, and call money reached 25 per cent in November. The exceedingly low rate was about as dangerous as the high rate, for the latter was the logical result of the former. Such extremes can and should be rendered impossible.

As a means to this end, I suggest the advisability of permitting national banks to issue a volume of additional government guaranteed currency, equal in amount to 50 per cent of the bond secured currency maintained by them, but subject to a tax of 5 or 6 per cent until redeemed by the deposit of a like amount in the treasury. By eliminating the words "secured by United States bonds deposited with the treasurer of the United States" from national bank notes now authorized, the additional currency would be identical in form with that based upon a deposit of bonds, and its presence would not alarm, for it would not be known.

Trust Companies.

In my report of one year ago I called attention to the large increase in the number of trust companies and the extraordinary growth of deposits therein. Few states require trust companies to carry any reserve whatever. Some of these institutions carry none, and few of them carry much.

It is manifest that these institutions in our great cities, helpful as they have been to American development and commerce, unless conservatively managed, may become an element of danger to our financial system. They are already national in character, and several of them are of international influence. I suggest the propriety, therefore, of a law giving trust companies of large capitalization in large cities the privilege of incorporating under federal law, with corresponding supervision.

Panama Bonds.

By act of Congress approved June 28, 1902, an issue of bonds was authorized in aid of the Isthmian Canal. The act provides that the bonds shall bear interest at 2 per cent, and shall not be sold below par. In former reports I have called attention to the fact that these bonds, if now issued, would not be available as security for national bank circulation at a less rate of taxation than 1 per cent per annum, and, therefore, would not be worth par. I believe a general statute should be enacted making all future issues of government bonds available for national bank circulation subject to a tax of but one-half of 1 per cent, as in the case of the consols authorized by act of March 14, 1900.

Subsidiary Coinage.

The time has arrived when it must be determined whether the government will again become a purchaser of silver or will use for this purpose, as the demands of the country require, the five hundred carloads of silver dollars now in the vaults of the treasury, the metallic value of which is approximately 50 per cent of their circulating value. Since their recoinage into smaller denominations will in nowise contract the volume of currency, every principal of prudence points to their gradual use rather than to the purchase of more silver.

For the purpose of providing the people of localities distant from subtreasuries with cleaner currency, I recommend such legislation as will place upon the government the cost of transportation to the treasury for redemption of worn and mutilated United States notes and certificates below the denomination of $10.

"Some weeks ago during the severe winter weather both my wife and myself contracted severe colds which speedily developed into the worst kind of la grippe with all its miserable symptoms," says Mr. J. S. Eggleston of Maple Landing, Iowa. "Knees and joints aching, muscles, sore, head stopped up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, adding the same with a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the grip." These Tablets promote a healthy action of the bowels, liver and kidneys which is always beneficial when the system is congested by a cold or attack of the grip. For sale by all druggists.

THE KEY THAT UNLOCKS THE DOOR TO LONG LIVING.

The men of eighty-five and ninety years of age are not the rotund well fed, but thin, spare men who live on a slender diet. Be as careful as he will, however, a man past middle age, will occasionally eat too much or of some articles of food not suited to his constitution, and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to cleanse and invigorate his stomach and regulate his liver and bowels. When this is done there is no reason why the average man should not live to old age. For sale by all druggists.

A CERTAIN CURE FOR CROUP.

When a child shows symptoms of croup there is no time to experiment with new remedies, no matter how highly they may be recommended. There is one preparation that can always be depended upon. It has been in use for many years and has never been known to fail, viz.: Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. M. F. Compston of Market, Texas, says of it: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in severe cases of croup with my children, and can truthfully say it always gives prompt relief." For sale by all druggists.

When you want a pleasant laxative take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by all druggists.

MINOR CITY TOPICS

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Renehan entertained a few friends last night at a Spanish dinner at "The Willows."

Dr. C. H. Conner, Albuquerque osteopath, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia is not yet out of danger.

If you desire a good supper well prepared and well served go to St. John's Methodist Church tomorrow evening.

Train No. 2 from the south and west on the Santa Fe was three hours late this afternoon and reached here about half past two.

For the remainder of their stay in Santa Fe Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Yocum will have apartments at the Claire Hotel, where they will be glad to see their friends.

Good luck is reported by Millet Clancy, Robert Harvey and Fletcher Catron who returned yesterday from a week's stay at Cow Springs. The three men were accompanied by a partridge.

The Santa Fe Methodist Church will have a social room open from 5 to 8 o'clock every evening. Their annual conference will be held at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and will be served for 25 cents.

A fire last night occurred in the building of the fire last night. The parties were seriously injured was done. The difficulty relating to the fire.

Material is being for the speedier construction of the Eastern Railway of New Mexico, commonly known as the Belen cut off. Since Sunday several train loads of steel rails and several cars of laborers have passed Lamy en route there.

A large number of laborers reached Belen yesterday afternoon to start work on the Albuquerque Eastern Railroad at that point. The contracting firm of Lantry & Sharp will be in the near future move a large part of their machinery and grading equipment from Abo Canon to start work on the Rio Puerco branch.

The weather forecast for New Mexico is as follows: Fair weather tonight and Thursday with stationary temperature. The temperature at 6 a. m. today was 21 degrees. The maximum temperature yesterday was 44 at 3:05 p. m. and the minimum temperature was at 1 a. m. when it was 24 degrees. The mean temperature was 34 degrees. The relative humidity was 65 per cent.

Adjutant General A. P. Tarkington, spent last Sunday on the rifle range at Albuquerque with eight officers of the National Guard, shooting at targets. Only revolver shooting was done. The shooting was universally good and the officers showed ability in handling the Colt's 45. The shoot was held last Sunday in order to allow the scores to be included in the report for the year 1905.

Tourists and travelers from the east when sojourning in this city, are often very desirous of gaining admittance into what is called "The Ben Hur Room" in the Governor's Palace, in which room the late General Lew Wallace wrote his celebrated novel while Governor of New Mexico. The Capitol custodian committee should make arrangements so that this room can be entered by sojourners and tourists.

LETTER FROM MR. READ

Gives Details as to the Change of Name of Metropolitan Avenue.

Santa Fe, N. M., December 6, 1905.

Sir—In your issue of yesterday, you say that, "some people are complaining because of the changing of the name of Metropolitan Avenue to Read Street," on the ground that the street has been known in the original plat as "Metropolitan Avenue." It is certainly a mistake on the part of the objector or objectors and I would like to know who they are.

The truth of the matter is that Metropolitan Avenue has been only an imaginary street, never laid out except in the plat. I owned the greater part of what the objectors seem to insist must be called Metropolitan Avenue. To induce the city council to make the imaginary avenue a real street, I offered, and gave to the city, a strip of land about 400 feet long by 50 feet wide, worth some $500, through the best part of my property on condition that the new street be named Read Street. The council accepted my offer and also the street, which, by my having opened same, became a street proper.

The names of streets and even of cities are changed in all countries and no confusion results from that fact, as deeds can and are made in such a way, as to mention both the former and the new name. There are now some deeds, yes, even official court papers, citing Read Street as a boundary. The objectors will readily learn, upon examination of the premises that there would be no street, whether you name it Metropolitan or any other name without the land that I donated to the city.

If these objectors are so solicitous of having the street named as it appeared in the plat let them do so, but before they can have it so, my consent to allow the street to run through my property is necessary and that would not be given unless they pay for the land so taken. I hope I am mistaken as to the real motive of these objectors, but am constrained to think it is nothing but spite. Let them make their objections to the proper authorities and I shall be pleased to meet them and reason it out.

Yours truly,
BENJAMIN M. READ.

Comfort and Economy

The Wilson responds so accurately and unfailingly to its dampers that when the room is once warmed, by opening the draft wide you can set the dampers and maintain an absolutely even and healthful temperature.

With a WILSON WOOD HEATER

it is just as comfortable in the farthest corner of the room as it is within a few feet of the heater. This means health and comfort.

The patent Hot Blast Down-Draft, found only in the Wilson, consumes every particle of burnable elements in the wood, thus giving greater heat with one-half the fuel.

NEW EDEN COLONY.
A Unique Plan and an Investigation is in Order in San Juan County.

There are colonies and colonies and schemes and schemes for the bringing of immigrants and settlers into New Mexico these days. They are many and they are increasing. Some are all right and others are all wrong. Here is a scheme that needs "noco watching."

Governor Otero received the letter given below a few days ago and referred it to the Bureau of Immigration for investigation and report. The Bureau tried its level best to learn something about the new Eden Colony in San Juan County, but so far has not been able to procure any tangible information thereon. Publication is given the letter in order to get the people of San Juan County "on to it."

The letter reads:
"Canon City, Colorado, Nov. 28, 1905.
"To the Governor of New Mexico,
Santa Fe, New Mexico.

"Sir—It is for a little information that I address you. There is a man in our city by the name of W. G. Black, who is organizing a colony of fifty members to locate on the San Juan, east of Aztec and Farmington. Now, the proposition looks very good to some of us fellows up here. Will give you his plan as nearly as I can as follows:

"He charges $10 for membership in the colony, viz., the New Eden Colony. Then we pay $10 between the first and tenth of each month for fifteen months, or until $160 has been paid. He agrees to have the water available by spring of 1907 and we get a perpetual water right for homesteads. We agree to let him sell all the water the ditch will carry over what the fifty members use or need, that is, when he gets the money to finish the ditch from the men below or nearer to Farmington who have homesteads, but have no water and have agreed to pay $12 per acre for a water right. Now Black has not produced or shown his decree or right to take such ditch from the San Juan River and we are not posted on New Mexico water laws. He claims to have filed on the water right. If he has, what number should his decree be and in what district. He has a good bunch of men and good citizens and we would much like to go there with it if it is all right. He proposed to commence work in January. Do you know of any such a scheme? I believe you or your secretary of state would hear of it, were any such thing going on. Yours respectfully,
"R. D. MITCHELL,
"616 Main St., Canon City, Colo."

"P. S.—We would like a reply at your earliest convenience. If you can give us the time to do so, I assure you your efforts will be appreciated. Judge Harry Lee told me to write you, said he knew you and that you would be pleased to have such a colony go to New Mexico, if everything is all right. Thanking you for your time I have taken, I will close.
R. D. M."

BAD BREATH

"For months I had great trouble with my stomach and used all kinds of medicines. My tongue has been actually as green as grass, my breath has been bad color. Two weeks ago a friend recommended Cascarets and after using them I can willingly and cheerfully say that they have entirely cured me. I therefore let you know that I shall recommend them to any one suffering from such trouble."

Their Belated Wedding

By RITA KELLEY

Copyright, 1905, by E. C. Parcells

Samantha Sanders had always wanted a cuckoo clock. The sandwich man half a block ahead announced them for sale for $1.98—"fine cuckoo clocks, best made." She was racing after him as fast as her prim New England dignity would allow. She upset a child with an all day sucker in its mouth and left it screaming on the walk. It hurt her conscience terribly, but if for one moment she lost sight of the sign he might turn into a side street, and she wouldn't know where to get the clock. Samantha Sanders was the thrifty, unromantic janitress of a bachelor apartment building. Her father and mother had died when she was fifteen and left her without a penny and with an overweening desire to possess a clock with a little bird that popped out of a little door every hour, along with more domestic ambition. Samantha Sanders never had cared for any one person so much as she had for making a home. Hiram Shell had asked her to marry him, but her thrifty soul told her she would be happier faded from her face and left it ashen. "Hiram!" she cried. "Hiram Shell!" "Yes, Samantha," he said, meek as ever, looking at the trim little woman before him and pulling surreptitiously at his worn and soiled vest. The pallor of her face changed to a flush of anger and resentment as she looked at the disheveled old man. "Hiram Shell," she said forcibly, "what you doin' trampin' the streets like this? Shiftless and good for nothing, same as you always was!" "I don't know, Samantha. I never did seem to 'mount to anything." The cuckoo clock swayed perilously near a barber pole, but Samantha did not notice. She was looking at the man's lantern jawed haggard visage and thinking hard. "Hiram Shell," she accused, "you haven't had enough to eat. You can't keep your knees stiff." He smiled weakly. "Well, it do be hard off an' on to get a plenty, 'specially when it takes quite a bit for wire. My new patent clothes wringer, Samantha!" "Hiram Shell, you go right straight down to Thirteenth street and tell those clock people you haven't got sense enough to pound sand in a rat hole!" But even as she spoke her eyes were moist. "And, Hiram, you bring a clock up to my house. I'm going home now to get supper ready." She counted out $2.03 (5 cents for car fare), gave him her address and told him vigorously to hurry up before he forgot what he was to do. She left him standing stupefied in the middle of the walk gazing after her with meek if hungry eyes. "She be just the same as ever," he whispered to himself. "She'd 'a' made me a good wife, Samantha would."

"Hiram!" she cried. "Hiram Shell!" making a comfortable living for herself than eking out a bare existence with such a man. Hiram was all right, only he never stuck to any one thing long enough and his inventions never seemed to be the things people wanted. Now she was almost up to the big red and white sign. Never before had she felt free to indulge her pet extravagance, but now with a steady, tidy income and good clothes in plenty it did seem that Providence had put that sandwich man right there ahead of her. Breathless and excited, she rushed past the man to get a front view of the clock. Oh, joy! There was the long hoped for little face and the cuckoo half emerging from his arch as though the clock had stopped just as he started to announce the hour. Samantha clapped her hands in an ecstasy of rapture. "Oh!" she cried. "Can I get one down on Thirteenth street now?" For the first time she turned her eyes from the sign to the man whose way she had blocked. All the light of joy ing about. "Hiram Shell, if you don't stop actin' the fool and set to eatin' I'll throw out the cuckoo clock and be done with it!" "No, Samantha, 'tain't the clock; it's that new patent clothes wringer I been making. Thought you might like it to wash your clothes." Samantha collapsed into a chair. "Hiram Shell, I haven't done my wash for five years. It goes to the laundry." "Well, now, ain't that nice?" He pushed back the apple butter she handed him. He had not touched a bite, though his plate was piled high with good things. Samantha saw his face had gone white. "I guess I'd better be moving on. The doctor at the dispensary he said I'm allin' some." He clutched at his heart. "It's queer, right in here." Samantha pushed him back into the chair and ran for the brandy. "Did—you call the ambulance?" he asked when he opened his eyes again. "No, I didn't, Hiram Shell. You don't need no ambulance. All you need is a good square meal and the parson. We're going to get married, Hiram." He looked at her, with tears streaming down his cheeks. "Well, now," he said, "Samantha, ain't that nice?"

Now Look Out!

Now look out for watch troubles! The first touch of cold weather is apt to harden the oil--that strains the mainspring and affects the motion. It's the wisest thing you can do to have your watch examined at this time of year. If it is in good order, we'll let it alone; if it needs repairing, we'll do it thoroughly, at a moderate price.

Few watches are cleaned and oiled as they ought to be--once a year. People usually wait until something breaks. The other way is cheapest in the end and saves the watch.

United States and of Mexico during the past few years.

In April, 1901, upon the death of Secretary Wallace, Mr. Raynolds was appointed secretary of the Territory by President McKinley, and was re-appointed to that position by President Roosevelt in December of the same year. His appointment has given great satisfaction throughout the Territory and is especially gratifying to his many friends who know and esteem his sturdy, manly qualities.

Mr. Raynolds, in the conduct of his office during the five years past, as well as while serving as acting governor, has proven himself to be possessed of great executive ability, of a very systematic and energetic turn of mind, of great firmness, tempered with fairness and justice. Indeed for a man as young as he is, he has made a most remarkable record in the important office to which he has just been named for a second term.

Steadfast Republican.

In politics, Mr. Raynolds is a consistent Republican, who works and votes for the success of Republican principles. While young in years, he has had much experience and has mingled much with men of affairs.

This and the fact that he is broad minded, of liberal education, excellent business habits and methods, courageous in doing his duty and loyal to his friends, fit him admirably for the important office he has been called upon to fill, and is proof that the administration of his official duties will reflect credit upon the appointing power, as well as upon himself.

Socially, Mr. Raynolds and his bright wife are leaders in Santa Fe where their friends number a large host.

The land selected Monday lies in Socorro County, township five south, range five east. It is now used for grazing purposes but is suitable for irrigation.

BRING PRISONERS HERE

Albuquerque Officials Take Two Men to Penitentiary to Serve Sentences.

John M. Wiley and W. R. Forbes, deputy United States marshals, of Albuquerque, arrived in Santa Fe last night, bringing with them, S. S. Smith and Juan Montoya, of Alamogordo, prisoners, for the penitentiary.

S. S. Smith was found guilty of breaking into a freight car at Alamogordo and stealing merchandise. He was sentenced to eighteen months in the penitentiary by Judge E. A. Mann. Juan Montoya was convicted of immoral conduct and was sentenced to ten years penal servitude. The deputies took both prisoners to the penitentiary yesterday evening and they have already begun serving their sentences.

CHARGES DISMISSED

Case of ex-Sheriff Hubbell Versus District Attorney Clancy Investigated and Closed.

In the matter of the charges preferred by ex-Sheriff Thomas S. Hubbell against District Attorney Frank W. Clancy of Albuquerque, Governor Otero has carefully examined same and today made an order to dismiss them. This may, therefore, be called a "closed incident."

ONE PARTICIPANT DEAD; RESULT OF KNIFE FIGHT.

News has reached the city that two men from Mexico met on the railroad track near Elmdorf and at once a bloody battle began. The weapons were knives and when the fight was over one of the participants, Manuel Torres by name was dead.

The other participant, Jose Ramirez, was arrested and stated that the deceased had attacked him with a knife and that he succeeded in taking the weapon away and in self defense killed Torres.

Whatever the developments in the case it is a certainty that the killing was not done for robbery as Torres had $45 on his person that was not touched. Ramirez was badly gashed during the encounter.
