VOL. 43.

SANTA FE, N. M., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1906.

NO. 8.

RODEY CONSPIRES TO CHANGE CAPITAL

Of New State From Santa Fe to Phoenix.

ANYTHING TO GET EVEN

Foraker Explains Position on Hepburn Railroad Regula- tion Bill.

Special to The New Mexican.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 28.—Ex-Delegate B. S. Rodey, of Albuquerque, and C. F. Ainsworth, of Phoenix, Arizona, are pressing an amendment to the Hamilton joint statehood bill making the city of Phoenix the capital of the State of Arizona. They claim that they will thus secure large Arizona support for the Hamilton joint statehood bill. The bill, if so amended, will not only give the new state the name of Arizona, but will also give it the state capital. Delegate Andrews, of New Mexico, is fighting the scheme in every possible way. He insists that Santa Fe must remain the state capital. Ex-Delegate Rodey is so sore and angry at the city of Santa Fe and at New Mexico people in general that he is willing to give up all New Mexico's interests for joint statehood.

Franklin's Speech.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 28.—Immediately after the conclusion of routine business of the Senate today Senator Foraker took the floor to deliver the promised speech on the railroad rate question. Foraker delivered a carefully prepared speech against the bill. Foraker conceded that some evils exist in connection with the railroads, but urged that all could be more effectively met by an amendment to the Elkins law than by the passing of the pending bill.

He announced his regret at differing from the President, but said he could not see his way clear to pursue any other course. His attitude towards the pending railroad rate bill was correctly outlined in the first paragraph, in which he said of the bill, "It is so contrary to the spirit of our institutions, and of so drastic and revolutionary a character that if not in immediate effect, at least as a precedent, the consequences are likely to be most unusual and far-reaching."

San Domingo Treaty.
The Senate committee on foreign relations today, by a party vote, agreed on a favorable report on the San Domingo treaty. A number of amendments were made before it was reported.

Minor Bills.
Before proceeding with the army and navy appropriation bill today the House passed several bills of minor importance by unanimous consent.

Taft Before Committee.
Secretary Taft was before the Senate committee on the Philippines today. He said the production of sugar in the Philippines is greatly limited for want of a market.

Officers Retired.
Rear Admiral Colby M. Chester was placed upon the retired list today. He was retained upon temporary active duty in the Bureau of Navigation. The retirement of Rear Admiral French E. Chadwick also occurred today.

MORE TESTIMONY.

Old Employees Make Damaging Wit- nesses for the Oil People in Oklahoma City.

Oklahoma City, Feb. 28.—John Burrows, testifying in the Missouri ouster proceedings, said while in its employ he was sent to Mississippi by the Waters-Pierce Oil Company and Standard Oil Company to see turpentine refined and buy up their products. These were shipped to both companies.
J. A. Brown, ex-agent of the Waters-Pierce Company at Newkirk, Oklahoma, said all oil received at his station had Standard brand on it.
E. T. Hathaway, for twenty years manager of this division of the Waters-Pierce Company, when asked the relations between the Standard and Waters-Pierce Companies, declined to answer on advice of his counsel.

TO MAKE AMENDS.

China Will Punish Murderers of Mis- sionaries and Do What Else Is Demanded.

Peking, Feb. 28.—The government has instructed the Governor of Nanchang, where on February 23, six French Jesuit missionaries and four British subjects were killed, to punish severely all the participants in the massacre, and declares its willingness to make, without question, any reasonable reparation demanded.

COUNSEL PRESENT.

Representatives of Imprisoned Miners Are at Boise Looking After In- terests of Their Clients.

Boise Idaho, Feb. 28.—Attorney Fred Miller, who is employed as counsel for Harry Orchard, today secured an order from Judge Smith, who will try the Stuenkel case at Caldwell, permitting him to see his client.

When the lawyer went to the penitentiary this morning he was put off until this afternoon.

Miller expressed a doubt if Orchard's confession implicates the Western Federation of Miners, but says if such statement was made he expects to learn the exact facts by seeing Orchard.

The prosecution is guarding Orchard more closely than any of the other prisoners. Floyd Thompson, representative of the Colorado Mine Owners Association, who is here from Cripple Creek, is said to want St. John in connection with the murder of Arthur Collins at Telluride.

A statement is made by St. John that he is not implicated in the Stuenkel assassination by Orchard's confession.

CREW RESCUED.

Lumber Schooner Strikes Trouble and Efforts of Life Savers Futile for Several Hours.

Norfolk, Feb. 28.—After a harrowing night on the deck of the four masted schooner George M. Grant, with life savers unable to reach them, either by lifeboat or breeches buoy, and death staring them in the face for several hours, the crew was rescued today by a tug.

The schooner went ashore and conditions grew worse as the hours passed, and just before the arrival of the tug it looked as though the members of the crew, already half frozen, would have to take to the rigging to save themselves.
Immediately after the rescue the schooner sank and the decks became awash. The cargo of lumber is still intact but conditions on the coast are still severe and the indications are that the vessel will be a total loss.

TRANSPORTATION.

Many Electric Lines are Planned Out of Chicago to All of the Sur- rounding Country.

Chicago, Feb. 28.—The Tribune says today: "Transportation, quick, direct and cheap is promised the residents in the Territory, both east and southwest of Chicago, by the proposed construction of one of the largest suburban traction systems in the world.

Access to Chicago from all points of northern Indiana and northern Illinois, with the possible extension of the system to Indianapolis and St. Louis is contemplated.

In addition, a system of electric lines interlacing the whole of this big territory is projected.

The capitalization is said to be $50,000,000 and the road is to be completed by 1909.

PACKERS' CASE.

Presiding Judge Would not Admit Let- ters as Evidence, Holding Them Only as Hearsay.

Chicago, Feb. 28.—Judge Humphrey, presiding in the packers' case today declined to admit as evidence the correspondence that passed between Commissioner Garfield and Special Agent Durand while the latter was investigating the beef inquiry in Chicago. He held that anything that went to show the mental attitude of the packers in the case was admissible but letters were hearsay evidence and would not be competent.

MANY DEAD.

Twenty-five Miners Killed or Injured in Gas Explosion in Alabama Mines.

Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 28.—Passengers arriving here today from points near the Hipper mines, where a gas explosion occurred yesterday afternoon, report twelve miners dead, seven fatally hurt and half a dozen badly injured.

ANNA GOULD'S DI- VORCE CASE REACHED

Paris, Feb. 28.—The suit brought by Countess Boni de Castellane, formerly Anna Gould, against her husband for separation was reached today upon the docket, but the court adjourned the case for a fortnight, when a date for hearing will be fixed.

RUMORS OF KING'S ILLNESS ARE DENIED

Vienna, Feb. 28.—Dr. Ott, King Edward's Marlenbab physician, has taken occasion upon his return from England to deny the rumors of the King's illness. He says the King was never in better health.

COAL OPERATORS CALL CONFERENCE

In Deference to the Wishes of the President.

MEET MARCH NINETEENTH

Those Issuing Summons Say No Agreement of Any Kind Has Been Made.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 28.—Before the conference of the bituminous coal operators of Pennsylvania, Indiana and Illinois opened today, it was generally conceded that a proposition to grant a 5.55 per cent advance would be laid before the operators, and that it would meet opposition, from some independent operators who freely expressed themselves against any increase at this time.

Conference Opens.

The conference opened shortly before noon and all but the members of the state committee were excluded. The conference adjourned about one o'clock and the announcement was made that it had been decided to call a general conference at Indianapolis on Monday, March 19.

Statement.

A statement by the joint committee in explanation of the action taken says: "In issuing a request for a conference it is positively stated by all the operators joining in this call that said meeting has been called entirely in deference to the wishes of the President of the United States and no action has been taken or agreement of any kind made, by any operator up to this date regarding any possible settlement."

BIG DELEGATION.

Municipal Ownership Advocates in Albany to Push Measures Before New York Legislature.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 28.—A delegation of 500 advocates of municipal ownership from New York City, headed by William Randolph Hearst, arrived in Albany by a special train to spend two or three days here in almost continuous appearance in favor of a number of municipal ownership measures pending before the Legislature.

Among the measures the delegates will advocate are those providing for an investigation of the New York City traction merger; direct nominations; the suppression of corrupt practices; half-monthly payments by corporations, and an eight-hour labor day.

RECLAMATION.

One Hundred Thousand Acres to Be Reclaimed on Mimbres River Near Deming.

Special to The New Mexican.

Deming, N. M., Feb. 28.—Word has been received that over 100,000 acres of land on the Mimbres River, twenty miles north of this city, will be placed under irrigation by A. G. Spalding, the well known sporting goods man of Chicago.

The dam will be a large one and it is said the work will start in a few weeks. It is the idea to sell the land in small lots to farmers and, as it is unusually fertile, should make the region a well known one in the agricultural field.

It is stated that the work to be done will cost $1,000,000.

BIG DROP

Shown in Values of Stock Market— Sudden and Heavy Liquidation in New York.

New York, Feb. 28.—Very heavy liquidation was precipitated in the stock market today by the selling of loans and the forcing out of speculative holdings by large pools. There was no conspicuous development in the situation outside of activity in the money market to account for the weakness.

A feeling of distrust over the speculative situation, which has been growing for some time, reached a sudden culmination and the declines were violent and practically no support developed.

POSTMASTER ARRESTED ON EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGE

Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 28.—Postmaster Gilbert Hoerner of the West Seneca postoffice, was arrested today charged with embezzling $5,000 of the postoffice funds.

BODY OF MISSING HERDER IS FOUND

In a Prospect Hole Partly Covered With Rocks.

FOUL PLAY IS SUSPECTED

Three Arrested and in Jail to Wait Action of Coroner's Jury.

Special to The New Mexican.

White Oaks, N. M., Feb. 28.—Last winter during the heavy snows a man by the name of Marcelino Conanzas was herding goats in the foothills of the Jicarilla Mountains about ten miles east of here. Cas Otero and Salomon Gonzales, stepsons of Juan Chavez y Trujillo, a prominent sheep man of the county, living at Ravenon, were also herding goats near by.

Disappeared.

During the cold weather, Conanzas very mysteriously disappeared and the two young men were strongly suspected of making away with him, as the missing man was known to have about $600 concealed in a belt on his person.

No arrests were made, however, at the time, but as soon as the snow disappeared a diligent search was made for the body by Sheriff Owen and others, without results. An amulet or cross which Conanzas wore was found in the possession of a woman who was living with him in camp, also a buckle and a small portion of a belt was found near where Otero and Gonzales had their camps, which were supposed to be a part of the garments worn by the victim at the time of his disappearance.

Body Found.

The search was, however, never entirely given up by friends, and last Saturday the body of Conanzas was found in an assessment hole in the vicinity of the camp where an attempt had been made to conceal it by throwing in rocks. Upon this news being reported to him, the sheriff at once came from Lincoln and arrested the two men above mentioned together with their stepfather as accessory and took them to the county jail. A coroner's jury was empaneled by Justice of the Peace Norton of Jicarilla precinct yesterday afternoon, but what their verdict was has not yet been learned.

THE KEYSTONE MINE.

Active Operations Resumed on this Property at Cerrillos—Old Shafts Have Been Retimbered.

George W. Green, in charge of the shaft work on the Keystone mining property in the Cerrillos mining district, now being operated by an eastern company, spent last night in the Capital City with his family at 181 Palace Avenue. Mr. Green says that mining interests are reviving in the one time prosperous camp at Cerrillos. Regarding the Keystone property he said:

"This company, of which Dr. J. E. Jesse is manager, is making many improvements. The old shafts are being retimbered and new ones are being sunk. The company has also just installed a new milling plant which will be in operation soon. The ore, thus far, assays well in lead and zinc which bids fair to increase in quantity as lower depths are reached. The company will mill the ore at the mine. There is considerable talk of re-opening the smelting plant at Cerrillos but I do not yet know whether or not this will be done. About twenty-five men are employed on the Keystone property at present and the number will be increased as work progresses."

HELD TO GRAND JURY.

Anastacio Gonzales and Two Others Bound Over in the Sum of $500.

As a result of the preliminary hearing of Anastacio Gonzales, county assessor, Braulio Prada, Meliton Vilji and Eliseo Trujillo before Justice of the Peace Jose Maria Garcia this afternoon, Eliseo Trujillo was discharged, it having been established that he was not present when the stabbing affray occurred.

The charges against the defendants are that early Sunday morning they assaulted Jose Inez Manzaneros of Precinct No. 18 with deadly weapons and rocks and inflicted severe bodily injuries.

Gonzales, Prada and Vilji were held in the sum of $500 to appear before the Territorial grand jury, which will commence its sessions for the March term of the district court in this city Monday next.

SUPREME COURT.

Mill of Justice Again Running in Chambers at Capitol Building.

The Territorial Supreme Court met at 2 o'clock this afternoon in adjourned session for the purpose of handing down opinions. There were present: Chief Justice W. J. Mills, of Las Vegas; Associate Justice John R. McFie, of Santa Fe; Associate Justice Frank W. Parker, of Las Cruces; Associate Justice W. H. Pope, of Roswell; Associate Justice Edward A. Mann, of Alamogordo, and Associate Justice Ira A. Abbott, of Albuquerque. Clerk Jose D. Sena was at his post and Assistant United States Attorney David J. Leahy represented the United States and Attorney General G. W. Prichard attended in behalf of the Territory.

United States Marshal Creighton M. Foraker was represented by his deputy, Frederick Fornoff. Joseph Conlin was appointed clerk. The following business was transacted:

Case No. 1119, entitled Territory of New Mexico, appellee, vs. Escolastico Tais, appellant. Veeder and Veeder, attorneys, allowed to enter an appearance and thirty days granted in which to file a supplementary brief.

Case 1141, in re J. M. Palmer, an attorney of Farmington, against whom disbarment proceedings were brought, was reported by the Bar Association, which recommended as follows: First, that all charges against Palmer be made more definite and certain, and that they be not proceeded with until verified by the oath of some person having personal knowledge of the facts alleged; second, that all affidavits, both pro and con, be stricken from the files; third, that Mr. Palmer be required to answer without oath such specifications as may be brought up; fourth, that testimony in the case be taken at Farmington and elsewhere by an examiner, and that oral arguments be allowed. It was suggested by the Bar Association that as there were no funds to pay an examiner that the case be returned to the First Judicial District Court for San Juan County to be tried.

Case No. 1094, entitled Susan E. Barber, plaintiff in error, vs. Monroe Harper, defendant in error; argued and submitted. Prichard, attorney for plaintiff, and Moore, attorney for defendant.

The court was still in session as the New Mexican went to press.

GONZALES' CASE.

Submitted to Court—Arguments and Probable Decision Tomorrow— Interesting Situation.

The case alleging incompetency brought by Traveling Auditor Charles V. Safford against the county assessor, Anastacio Gonzales, before Judge John R. McFie of the First Judicial District Court, was this morning submitted on the evidence so far adduced. Arguments will be heard by Judge McFie in chambers at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, at which time also it is probable a decision will be rendered.

There have been several candidates in the field since the institution of the case, should Mr. Gonzales be removed, although there is no telling what the court's action will be. It is said that the attorneys for Gonzales, A. B. Renehan and R. C. Gortner, have his resignation in hand to be submitted to Governor Hagerman should Edward Andrews, who is now clerk in the assessor's office, be appointed to fill the vacancy. Andrews is a Democrat in politics.

Several members of the Republican County Central Committee have endorsed Telesforo Rivera, who was a Republican candidate for the position in the 1904 campaign and was defeated by the Carlton Democratic Fusion ticket. Other members of that committee, it is said, have endorsed ex-Sheriff Harry C. Kinsell for the position. Rivera has also received signatures from a number of taxpayers to his petition.

Several leading Democrats are of the opinion that Charles F. Easley, ex-member of the Legislative Council, would be the right man for the place. He is a Democrat. The situation is quite mixed, if not interesting. What the outcome will be cannot be told at this time.

MAN SHOT IN A SERIOUS CONDITION

Paul Loviski, a Russian who was shot in the shoulder Monday at Camp No. 5, near Thoreau, is in a serious condition. The man who did the shooting has not been captured. It is thought probable that the Russian may die. Victor Telles, who shot and killed a man by the name of Slocum at the same place, is still at large and there is little chance of capturing him, as it is thought he has gone either into Arizona or Mexico.

RESIGNATIONS OF TWO MIDSHIPMEN ACCEPTED

Annapolis, Feb. 28.—The resignations of Midshipmen Ridgley Hunt of New York and William Oherney of Wisconsin have been accepted and took effect today.

CONLEY VIOLENT TO BITTER END

After Attempt at Suicide Stabs Two Guards.

CONSCIOUS ON GALLOWS

Morose and Revengeful Even to Those Who Were Kind to Him.

"John Conley died displaying the 'white feather,' said ex-Sheriff Harry C. Kinsell, who returned yesterday afternoon from Taos, where he acted as the Governor's agent at the execution of the murderer of James Redding, Monday morning.

The ex-sheriff has a rather ghastly souvenir of the occasion in the shape of the knife with which Conley cut his throat and with which he stabbed two deputy sheriffs in an effort to prevent them from taking him to the scaffold. The knife is covered with blood. In speaking of the execution of Conley, Mr. Kinsell said:

"The court's sentence was carried out in the best manner possible after the man had tried to end his life. There was nothing to do but hang him and we had to do it as expeditiously as possible. Conley's last words previously to cutting his throat are not printable.

Cursed Guard.

"Early in the morning on the day of the execution, I went to a nearby hotel and ordered a good breakfast for Conley. It was taken into his cell. The condemned man was lying upon his bunk by the wall and did not get up. A few minutes later a guard entered and told him he had better eat the food before it became cold. Conley cursed the guard and remained upon the bunk. I had gone to the hotel for breakfast shortly after 7 o'clock, when a guard ran in and told me that Conley had cut his throat. We went hurriedly to the jail and found Conley lying upon the bunk with the blood flowing from a wound in his neck which had severed the windpipe. He still clasped a bloody pocket knife in his hand, two blades opened.

"Four deputy sheriffs threw themselves upon him and he fought desperately, although unable to get to his feet. He struck out blindly with the knife, stabbing Deputy Abdon Trujillo and another officer in the hands. Blood flew in every direction. The guards were covered with it and I got my share.

Subdue Man.

"We at length subdued Conley, who lay upon his back gasping. He could not speak. A surgeon was called and the wound was dressed. The guards then supported the prisoner to the scaffold and seated him upon a stool placed on the trap. They quickly bound him, adjusted the black-cap and upon a signal, the lever was jerked and Conley fell to his death. He was not unconscious, as stated in press dispatches, but knew what was taking place to the end. His neck was not broken by the fall because he did not drop straight down.

"After reaching the end of the rope, Conley struggled for some time, but soon began to weaken. At the end of ten minutes his pulse was lifeless, but we let him hang for a short time longer to make sure that he was dead. His body was then cut down and prepared for burial. I was opposed to any more publicity in the affair than was necessary, but many people crowded into the jail building to look at the body. It was then placed in a wagon and taken to the public cemetery by guards for burial.

Suffered.

"Had Conley met his death bravely, I do not believe he would have experienced half the suffering he did by cutting his throat. The deputy sheriffs stabbed by Conley in the fight in the death cell received painful wounds though they are not of a serious nature.

"I was with Conley on several occasions during the week preceding the hanging and never saw a man take death so hard. He cried several times and apparently could not nerve himself for the ordeal. I did not talk with him much for he seemed to dislike me because I was looking after the arrangements for Governor Hagerman who refused to commute the death sentence for weighty reasons. When he saw me as he was being taken to the gallows, he closed his eyes and would not open them until the cap had been placed upon his head."

After making his report to Governor Hagerman this morning, Mr. Kinsell left for his ranch, where he will remain for several days attending to business affairs.

THE ISLAND OF PINES QUESTION.

A number of American citizens, believing that the Isle of Pines, which is contiguous to the island of Cuba, was American territory emigrated thither and invested large sums of money in developing the resources thereof. The facts relative to this are interesting. That the Isle of Pines was and is American is simply beyond sane argument. Spain formally ceded all the West Indian possessions, except Cuba to the United States. President McKinley, by official act and order, recognized the Isle of Pines to be among the territory so ceded. Official encouragement was given to American citizens to acquire property and make their homes in the island as Americans on American soil. Furthermore, by the Platt amendment and by the Cuban Constitution itself, the Isle of Pines is expressly excluded from the constitutional boundaries of Cuba. On April 17, 1902, Charles Raynard, Benjamin Maso and J. T. Tichenor were personally assured by General Leonard Wood that there was no truth whatever in reports that the island was to be turned over to Cuba. They were assured that the Platt amendment made the island American, and that the whole subject had been carefully considered and all arrangements made. Further, that these arrangements would be completed when Secretary Root came, the American government of the island would be continued and that an American governor would be appointed before he went out of office. Nevertheless, Secretary Root came and went. Governor Wood went out of office, and none of these things were done. The Isle of Pines was simply abandoned, in violation of all these official pledges and in disobedience of law, to Cuban usurpation. This is a remarkable proceeding and is in no way creditable to whoever is concerned in it. A treaty is now before the Senate providing that said island shall be turned over to Cuba, and there is grave danger that it will be ratified. What reasons can be given for the abandonment of American property to the Cubans and the abandonment of American citizens to them? The people of this country are very anxious and properly so, for the safety of their countrymen in China as there is fear of another uprising of what is called "the Boxers," whose object is the massacre of Americans and the seizure of their property; but very little interest seems to be taken in the danger of Americans in Cuba. These grateful Cubans who are unwilling to wait for orderly proceedings to be taken in the matter, have already murdered an American and deliberately set fire to American property. They were too lazy or too shiftless to develop the resources of the Isle of Pines themselves, but now that Americans have done so, they are ready to plunder and murder, to obtain possession of the property which has been improved and drive the energetic men who made the improvements out of the island. The strangest part of the matter is that certain United States Senators are ready to assist them in their nefarious intention. What short memories these Cubans must have. Less than eight years ago the American army and navy without the slightest assistance from those braggart's drove the Spaniards out of Cuba, and subsequently turned the island over to them as a free Republic. In return for these inestimable services, in return for the blood and treasure spent in their behalf, they are now yelling, "Death to all Americans," and in the most cowardly manner sending cards with rude pictures of coffins thereon to American houses to frighten American women and children. What more dastardly acts can the Chinese Boxers commit? The United States Senators were well warned when the subject of setting up Cuba as an independent republic was before them that they should not be guilty of such a reckless act, that the Cubans were unfit for such a government, that they would be sure to abuse such privileges as the Senate was about to confer on them. In spite of all these warnings, in spite of the examples of the failure of the Central and South American Republics to improve their opportunities as they should have done, in spite of their perpetual internecine feuds and revolutions, the Senate proceeded to erect another abortive attempt at a republic, and here are the consequences.

The truth of the matter is that instead of doing as it did, the Congress should have annexed Cuba to the United States and thus saved her people from themselves and secured to them the blessings of civil and religious liberty and that quiet prosperity they never will enjoy under a so-called Republic of their own. The day will come when, in self defense, this country will be compelled to do what it should have done in 1898.

THE PAYMENT OF POLL TAX.

The Roswell Tribune takes the correct position on the payment of poll tax. The New Mexican agrees with its Roswell contemporary in everything that it says in the following editorial with the exception of one point, and that is that it would not be an easy thing in New Mexico to make the elective franchise dependent upon the payment of a poll tax. This will come in a few years, but at this time it might be too early, although no one can justly or fairly dispute the justice and fairness of the proposition. Says the Tribune:

"Territorial Superintendent Hadley is in favor of raising the poll tax to $2, but it has always seemed to us that it was better to provide some way to enforce the collection of the present tax. With some notable exceptions the collection of poll tax in New Mexico has never been attended with that degree of exactness that its justice demands. There is no tax levied that has so many elements of fairness and every dollar possible of it should be collected. The writer advocated many years ago that the possession of a poll tax receipt should be necessary in casting a ballot, as is provided under the Terrell law in Texas, and has never seen any reason to change his belief. A man who does not think enough of his citizenship to pay his poll tax, often the only form of tribute to which he is liable, should not be allowed to vote in this or any other division of the American commonwealth, and if the payment of the poll tax were made a necessity to franchise in New Mexico, the Territory would receive a great sum of money to which it is justly entitled, and the payment of which is now dodged very generally.

SETTLE THE QUESTION PROMPTLY.

According to latest Washington dispatches, the Hamilton joint statehood bill, now pending in the United States Senate, will come up for a vote on March 9th, and it is more than likely that the bill will pass with the Foraker amendment, giving the people of each of the Territories of New Mexico and Arizona the right to vote separately upon the question of jointure. The New Mexican hopes that this news is true. The question should be settled, and the speedier, the better. Its lengthy consideration is doing the two Territories no good. If joint statehood is to come, the sooner the people know and prepare for it the better. If there is to be no statehood act of any kind from the Fifty-ninth Congress, the sooner the people know this and prepare for it the better, again. At any rate, let the vexed question be settled one way or another and that speedily. If a vote upon the question is to be taken within twelve weeks from the date of its approval and promulgation as a law, the chances for the defeat of the joint statehood proposition in New Mexico are much better than those for its success. And, in Arizona, they are about 85 per cent to 15 per cent. The opinion of this paper is arrived at after careful calculation and the receipt of information from many leading men and sections of the two Territories. The New Mexican believes that it is correct.

EXTENDING THE CITY LIMITS OF ALBUQUERQUE.

Citizens of Albuquerque advocate the extension of the city limits, so as to take in certain suburbs and make the population about 20,000 people. Upon the face, this demand looks reasonable enough, and for that matter the cities of New Mexico should be given power to extend their limits to reasonable distances, if such should appear for the best interests of the community and should be ratified by the voters of the localities to be annexed. It will be remembered that some time ago this matter was agitated in what is now Old Albuquerque, and which is certainly in reality a part of the city of Albuquerque. Then, the American Lumber Company, a corporation capitalized at $8,000,000 and which last year put in a valuation of taxable property of less than $100,000, did not wish to come within the city limits and the matter was "busted." There were ugly rumors concerning a political and graft deal in the air at that time, and in fact they were many. What is more, they sounded very plausible and some of them rather convincing. The chances are that nothing in the line will be done as long as that big corporation, which is very much adverse to paying taxes, controls the bosses in the Duke City and of Bernalillo County.

The State of Colorado has arisen in its majesty and three of its powerful corporations, the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, the Colorado Supply Company and the American Smelting Company are to be arraigned in court for violation of the state laws prohibiting the use of the scrip system for the employees of the three corporations. Several of the officers and directors of these companies have been indicted for conspiracy to violate the state laws and will have to stand trial in Pueblo County. The outcome of these cases will be watched with interest, not only by the people of the Centennial State, but by the country at large. There is no question but that it is the first duty of officials of corporations to obey the statutes under which the corporations were organized and which give them protection and the opportunity to do a profitable business.

In a recent issue the Albuquerque Fakir Journal asserted that some years ago the manager of the New Mexican was in Albuquerque and "held up" the sporting element of that town for subscriptions and money donations in a species of blackmail. The Albuquerque Fakir Journal knows that it lied in the above assertion and that it did so with malice aforethought and with intention evident. The trouble with the Fakir Journal is that it imagines that the New Mexican is built upon the same model and acts upon the same despicable principles that it, the Fakir Journal, adheres to. Judge others not by yourself, is evidently not known to that paper and its manipulators.

The Littlefield anti-gambling bill, passed by the national House of Representatives and now pending in the United States Senate, has been amended by the judiciary committee of that body and its provisions have been made much stronger and more stringent than those in the original bill. There seems to be but little doubt that it will speedily pass the Senate, that the amendment will be concurred in by the House and that the bill will be promptly signed by the President and become law. The end of public gambling in the Territories of the United States is very near.

President Roosevelt is again coming to the front as a peace maker. As a result of his intervention, John Mitchell, head of the United Mine Workers, will call a national convention for March 15, which convention will endeavor to take measures to obviate the proposed strike of the soft coal miners of the country. While Mr. Roosevelt is a very aggressive type of a man on one side, he is turning out a good deal of a peace maker on the other. The best of success in his present endeavor will please the people and will be a great thing for the country.

The Albuquerque Fakir Journal growsls that the New Mexican called it a hyena. Wrong again, the New Mexican did nothing of the kind. This paper simply stated that the character of the Fakir Journal and of the gang behind it are similar to those of that animal.

Somebody or other has introduced a bill in the House of Representatives to enable the people to get clean paper money. That man is too dainty. Any kind of money will suit the citizens of New Mexico provided they can get hold of it.

The New Mexican Printing Company is prepared to fill promptly and satisfactorily all orders for engraved visiting cards, marriage announcements, invitations and all work of that kind. Prices as low as compatible with good work. Call at the New Mexican Office and examine samples and prices.

Symbols of the "Cloud Fire."

Nearly all of the ancient nations called lightning by names signifying "cloud fire," and the major portion of them employed some symbol to represent the flash of the "forked fury" darting from the thunder clouds. The early Chaldeans symbolized it with a trident, and the Babylonians, learned in mystic lore, employed a human hand for the same purpose. The bas-reliefs of the towers of Nimrod and Malthia, which are the work of the later and more refined Assyrian artists, show the trident doubled or transformed into what is known as a "trifid fascicle." This triumph of the classic art secured for the ancient Mesopotamian symbol the advantage over all other representations of the thunderbolt. The Greeks represented the "storm fire" with the feathers of a bird of prey. Later on, when they had begun to incorporate the Asiatic form of the symbol with their own, they put it in the claws of an eagle and made it the scepter of Zeus. Gaul received the symbol from Italy, but soon altered it to the familiar two headed hammer so common on Carlo-Roman monuments. The same symbol is seen on amulets found in Germany, Scandinavia, England and France.

AN OPPORTUNITY FOR SMALL INVESTORS.

There is no surer or safer investment than good inside City Property, but it takes money to handle propositions like this, and the man with small capital is barred. Growing new towns, with conditions favorable to permanency afford an opportunity to the small investor to place his savings where his money will earn a handsome profit, equal in proportion to that of his more fortunate brother with larger means. ### LOTS MORE LIKE IT.

Plenty More Proof Like This, and All From Santa Fe People.

No chance for argument here. No better proof can be had. What a Santa Fe man says. Is the best of evidence for Santa Fe people.

Read this case. We have lots more like it. Manuel Montoya, of Canon St., says: "Eight months ago and for a year and a half previous to that my back ached continuously. If there was any time when a change was noticeable it was during wet and rainy spells, when possibly the aching increased. Doan's Kidney Pills procured at Ireland's Pharmacy effectually stopped the aching and what to me is considerable more important and value, during the last eight months there has not been a sign of a recurrence."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

CHEAP RATES TO NEW YORK.

The Mexican Central has recently placed on sale tickets to New York and return, going via the Mexican Central to either Vera Cruz or Tampico, thence via the famous Ward Steamship Line to New York. The return will be by rail over any line to El Paso. The entire trip, covering thousands of miles, Havana, Cuba, and its famous Moro Castle, Newport, and a dozen of the largest cities of the United States, can be made for $122.50. A more delightful trip can not be planned, as stop-over privileges are allowed and the tickets are good for one year from the date of sale. The trip includes the City of Mexico, the "Paris of America." Further information can be secured by addressing A. Dulohery, Commercial Agent, El Paso, Texas, or W. D. Murdock, Assistant General Passenger Agent, City of Mexico.

Startling But True.

People the world over were horrified on learning of the burning of a Chicago theater in which nearly six hundred people lost their lives, yet more than five times this number or over 3,000 people died from pneumonia in Chicago during the same year, with scarcely a passing notice. Every one of these cases of pneumonia resulted from a cold and could have been prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. A great many who had every reason to fear pneumonia have warded it off by the prompt use of this remedy. The following is an instance of this sort: "Too much cannot be said in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and especially for colds and influenza. I know that it cured my daughter, Laura, of a severe cold, and I believe saved her life when she was threatened with pneumonia."—W. D. Wilcox, Logan, New York. Sold by all druggists.

For sale by all druggists.

MINES AND MINING.

Colfax County.

The output of the Dawson coal mines is to be increased to 200 car loads a day. H. S. Henning, the locating engineer of the El Paso & Southwestern Railway has a corps of twenty men surveying between Tucumcari and the Canadian River to find a better grade for the Dawson Railway. All curves are to be eliminated so that 200 cars of coal a day can be hauled over the line. Ten crews will be given employment. The motive power for this increase in traffic is being built.

McKinley County.

For the first time in several years the demand for coal from the Gallup mines is greater than the supply. One company received an order a few days ago for 800 cars of coal from the Mexican Central Railroad, and there were so many orders ahead that the order had to be turned down. For several years Gallup coal mines suffered from the competition of California oil, but it seems that from now on the demand for coal will necessitate the re-opening of several of the mines that had been closed down.

Says the McKinley County Republican: "Somewhere in this vicinity there is a valuable deposit of mica of the first grade. Early this week a Navaho came into town with a sample of clean mica, which he had taken from a deposit of the mineral not far from the town."

Grant County.

A few men employed by the Bonney Mining Company near Lordsburg in the drift of No. 3 shaft, have run into a body of fine ore which has been named the "Rye Strike" in honor of Manager O. Ryback. Work will also be resumed in No. 1 shaft, which was filled with water during the floods of last fall. An attempt had been made previously to unwater it, but it was found that the ore had slacked and considerable of it had caved. The shaft is now being timbered to make it safe.

Socorro County.

The Mogollon Mountain Investment Company has an ore chute over 1,000 feet long on the Little Fannie. It is 500 feet deep and 12 feet wide and averages $30 to the ton.

The mill on the Enterprise Mine, near Mogollon, is to begin operations in April.

The Mogollon Gold and Copper Company is developing its properties in the Mogollon District on a large scale. Thomas J. Curran, the president, is in the east at present raising additional capital for his company.

Rio Arriba County.

A small force of men has been working steadily all winter on the Tampa in the Bromide District and a rich strike of ore is reported from it. The Tampa has the deepest shaft in the district and in the levels several bodies of ore have been opened. A mill is to be erected on the property this summer.

The vein on the Sardine in the Bromide District is widening and increasing in value as depth is attained. In consequence, work is being steadily prosecuted on the mine.

An attempt is being made to locate the south wall of the Red Fissure vein in Cow Gulch, and in consequence the tunnel is being driven across the vein which is several hundred feet in width, the entire vein filling being mineralized with streaks of high grade ore.

Taos County.

Samuel Kahn reports a strike on his property in Long Canon in the Rio Hondo District. Work is being pushed on the strike, which is near to the property of the Frazer Mountain Copper Company.

The American Consolidated Mining Company is running a long tunnel in Long Fork Canon to tap a large body of ore.

The Cristobal Copper Mining Company has uncovered a body of rich copper ore eight feet wide on the South Fork. The tunnel is in about 100 feet. The ore body is well defined and is evidently the source of the rich float which has attracted the attention of mining men for the past twenty years.

SIXTH DISTRICT.

No Spring Term for Otero County—George Sena Appointed Official Interpreter.

There will be no spring term of the Territorial District Court for Otero County this year, county funds not being available for that purpose. Judge Mann expects that there will be enough money for the September, 1906, term, at which he will endeavor to clear the docket as much as possible. The regular spring term of the United States District Court for the Sixth Judicial District will be convened in Alamogordo on the fourth Monday of May coming. There is considerable business on the docket and the amount it is believed will increase by the time court opens.

Judge Edward A. Mann, presiding judge of the Sixth Judicial District Court, has appointed George Sena, of Lincoln County, to be official interpreter of the Territorial Court for that district. The appointment was made last Saturday and goes into effect at once. Jose Gonzales, of Las Cruces, who has been interpreter of the court of the Sixth Judicial District since the creation of the district, has resigned and has been appointed interpreter of the Third Judicial District by Judge Frank W. Parker, vice Eugene Van Patten, resigned, and who is now the Register of the United States Land Office at Las Cruces.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Sick Headache.

This distressing ailment results from a disordered condition of the stomach. All that is needed to effect a cure is a dose or two of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. In fact, the attack may be warded off, or greatly lessened in severity by taking a dose of these Tablets as soon as the first symptoms of an attack appears. Sold by all druggists.

CATARRH ANNOYING-DANGEROUS

Catarrh is usually regarded as nothing more serious than a bad cold or slight inflammation of the inner skin and tissues of the head and throat, when it is, in fact, not only a vexatious and troublesome disease, but a complicated and dangerous one. It is true that Catarrh usually begins with a cold in the head, but when the poisons, which are thrown off through the secretions, find their way into the blood, it becomes a constitutional trouble that affects all parts of the body. It has more annoying and disgusting symptoms than any other disease. There is a sickening and offensive discharge from the nostrils, a constant buzzing noise in the ears, headaches and pains in the eyes are frequent, while filthy, tenacious matter drops back into the throat requiring continual hawking and spitting, and in certain stages of the disease the breath has an odor that is very offensive. Catarrh is worse in winter, because the cold weather closes the pores and glands, and the poisons and unhealthy vapors which should pass off that way are thrown back on the tender linings and tissues, causing the inflammation which starts the unhealthy secretions to be absorbed by the blood. When the blood becomes diseased with this catarrhal matter all kinds of complications may be looked for. As the blood circulates through the body the foul matter finds its way into the stomach, ruining the digestion and producing chronic Dyspepsia, or Catarrh of the stomach. It also affects the Kidneys, Bladder and other members of the body, while the general health is weakened, appetite lost and the patient feels despondent and half sick all the time. But worst of all, if the trouble is not checked the lungs become diseased from the constant passage of poisoned blood through them, and Catarrh terminates in Consumption, the most fatal of all diseases. You cannot get rid of Catarrh by treating it with sprays, washes, inhalations, etc., because they only reach the membranes and tissues, while the real cause of the trouble is in the blood. These relieve the annoying symptoms for a time, but the poison is all the while getting a stronger hold on the system and when they are left off will manifest itself in worse form than before. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and when it has cleansed the blood, this pure, rich stream circulates through the body, carrying healthful properties to the diseased parts. Then the inflamed membranes and tissues begin to heal, the discharges cease, the general condition of the system is strengthened, every one of the annoying and disgusting symptoms pass away, and the patient is left in perfect health. S. S. S. is the best remedy for Catarrh. It goes right into the blood and removes all effete matter and catarrhal poison and cures the disease permanently, and at the same time builds up the entire system by its tonic effect. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable remedy—non-injurious to the system and a certain, reliable cure for Catarrh. Catarrh sufferers will find our free consulting department helpful in advising local treatment to be used with S. S. S.

MINOR CITY TOPICS

If you want anything on earth—try a New Mexican "ad."

Few places the size of Santa Fe have been as gay socially as this city in the last few weeks.

Mrs. Glenville A. Collins is severely ill at her home, 217 Hillside Avenue, as a result of a cold contracted Monday.

Charles C. Closson, who has been seriously ill, is convalescing and today attended to business at his livery barn.

The county treasurer and ex-officio collector, Celso Lopez, is kept busy collecting the taxes for property on the delinquent list.

The Ladies Aid Society of St. John's Methodist Church will hold its regular meeting in the social rooms of the church Thursday at 2 p. m.

Dr. J. H. Sloan, who became suddenly ill Saturday, was able to attend to his duties in the Capitol building today. He was taken to and from his office in a cab.

Evidently the office seekers have given up all hope, at least for the present, as there are not many of them at the Capitol building these days to call upon the new executive.

The New Mexican Bindery is turning out some of the most artistic binding in the Southwest. It is the most completely equipped bindery in the Rocky Mountain States south of Denver.

Today is Ash Wednesday, the beginning of the Lenten season. The day was observed at the Cathedral and Guadalupe church with the celebration of mass this morning. There will also be other services during the week.

George W. Green, in charge of the shaft work on the Keystone mining properties near Cerrillos, arrived in Santa Fe yesterday and spent last night with his family at their home on Palace Avenue. He returned to Cerrillos today.

The breakwater being constructed in the Santa Fe River bed just east of the bridge across Don Gaspar Avenue, is almost completed. It will be about 100 yards long and will protect property owners in the vicinity from high water.

"W. A. Buddecke, who suffered a bad fracture of his leg last Thursday in an accident in the canon, is getting along as well as could be expected. The swelling has been greatly reduced and the injured limb was placed in a plaster cast this morning."—Las Vegas Optic.

The electric moving pictures presented by the White Feather Company last night were everything that they were advertised to be. The pictures were good and there was no flicker on them. The company left this morning for Springer, where it will show tomorrow night.

Citizens are availing themselves of the opportunity of securing rubber stamps at reasonable rates and are responding to the New Mexican Printing Company's advertisement rapidly.

The Santa Fe Central Railway Company yesterday handled two cars of graders and other machinery for the Grant Construction Company from Kennedy to Torrance. The machinery was then taken to Eprjs via the El Paso & Southwestern Railroad for work on the Belen cut-off.

The New Mexican can do printing equal to that done in any of the large cities. Our solicitor: Every piece of work we turn out. Try our work once and you will certainly come again. We have all the facilities for turning out every class of work, including one of the best binderies in the west.

Laborers are at work today grading Sparks Avenue, which runs east along the Santa Fe River from Don Gaspar Avenue to Canon Road. The road is being leveled up to the breakwater. Men are also busily employed on the grounds of the Capitol building clearing the driveway and trimming trees and bushes. This, with the fact that the blue birds are seen everywhere is indisputable evidence of spring time.

The weather forecast for New Mexico is generally fair except rain in north portion Thursday. Warmer tonight and colder weather Thursday. The maximum temperature yesterday was 56 at 2:10 p. m. and the minimum was 25 at 6 a. m. The mean for the day was 40 degrees, and the relative humidity was 34 per cent. The temperature at 6 this morning was 34.

SANTO TOMAS MISSION.

The Ancient Structure in Abiquiu Being Repaired—Fine Agricultural Prospects.

Special to the New Mexican.

Abiquiu, New Mexico, February 27.—Work has been commenced putting a roof and other improvements to cost about one thousand dollars on the old mission church of Santo Tomas. Lee Fowler, of Tierra Amarilla, has the contract for the work and the lumber has been purchased from the El Rito saw mills.

The Old Mission of Santo Tomas is one of the last in the Territory to be changed from its primitive state. It was built by Tona Indian convicts before the conquest of 1692 and has stood in undisturbed crudeness until the present day. The bell in use at this chapel, made of pounded copper procured from the mines in the vicinity, bears a date of the 17th century. No clapper was used to ring it, but instead a man climbed to the roof and beat a chime with a stick. Thus another of New Mexico's old historic landmarks is passing away.

Already spring work is being commenced in the El Rito Valley. Farmers are putting the irrigation ditches in shape and near Abiquiu the eastern portion of the Lobato Grant is being settled by American farmers from eastern and central states.

Sheep and cattlemen say stock is doing well on the ranges and even should a spell of cold weather come they are in condition to stand it well. A great amount of snow fell in the ranges during the winter, but the valley has had scarcely one good fall of snow the entire winter, yet irrigation will not suffer because of the snow in the Cumbres ranges which supplies the Chama River running through the valley and the settlers from the east look forward to a good year.

Her Dowry.

When Mrs. Simpson laid down the paper she had been reading she looked thoughtfully at her husband for some moments before she spoke. From across the cold little hall came the sound of Arabella's voice and that of the young man she was soon to marry.

"We haven't got a sign of a dowry for Arabella, pa," said Mrs. Simpson at last.

"What's that?" asked Mr. Simpson, suddenly roused from his perusal of the weekly paper.

"A dowry is things parents give a daughter when she's married, like heirlooms and money and fine linen," said Mrs. Simpson impatiently. "You know that, but you've forgotten. Arabella hasn't one thing but the clothes she's made herself. Will wouldn't expect us to give her money, and as they're going to live with his folks she doesn't need the linen, but I wish to mercy we'd got some heirlooms for her."

"Well, why haven't we?" demanded Arabella's father stoutly. "What's the reason she can't have Grandfather Brickett's old powderhorn and flintlock and the old coonskin cap? She's all the child we've got, and I shan't ever use 'em again. There's his old knife too. I've got me a new one which cuts full as well. I guess we can fit her out, and if she wants more let her have the old belluses."—Youth's Companion.

Suffered Twenty Years With Indigestion. Cured by Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.

OFFICE OF

The Prison Commissioner of Georgia.

TOM EASON, Commissioner. CLEMENT A. EVANS, Commissioner.

GOODLOE YANCY, Secretary. J. C. MOORE, State Warden.

Atlanta, August 10, 1904.

E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Dear Sir:—"I have suffered more than twenty years from Indigestion. About eighteen months ago I had grown so much worse that I could not digest a crust of corn bread and could not retain anything on my stomach. My heart would beat so fast I could not sleep, at times I would almost draw double with pain in the pit of my stomach. I lost twenty-five pounds; in fact, I made up my mind that I could not live but a short time, when a friend of mine recommended Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I consented to try it to please him and I was better in one day. I now weigh more than I ever did in my life and am in better health than for many years. Kodol did it. I keep a bottle constantly, and write this hoping that humanity will be benefited."

Yours very truly,

JAKE C. MOORE.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the only digestant or combination of digestants that will digest all classes of food. In addition to this fact, it contains, in assimilative form, the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. All other digestants and dyspepsia remedies digest certain classes of food only, and are lacking in reconstructive properties.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is prepared at the laboratory of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, and is sold by leading druggists everywhere.

Miss Gillman, Authoress

By A. M. DAVIES OGDEN

Copyright, 1906, by Ruby Douglas

It was very hot and stuffy in the little office. From the room beyond came the monotonous click, click of a typewriter, broken only by the regular jangle of the bell and the shove of the carriage back into position. The editor sighed wearily. Of what earthly use were the readers if they passed on such stuff as this to him for decision? He stared angrily at the heap of manuscripts on his desk. He was only a very young editor, the junior in fact. The editor himself resolved to try his own output of himself as a writer. He had been looking forward to a quiet, restful Sunday at his sister's, and now the morning's mail had brought news that spoiled all that.

"I am so glad you are coming," Anna's letter ran, "especially as I expect Edna Lawrence. She writes, too, and I am sure you will like her." The editor frowned again at the thought. He had at once sent Anna a wire pleading detention on important business. It was very tiresome of her, when she knew his tastes. He liked women well enough. They were nice and soothing and sat with pretty folded hands. But girls! He shivered at the very idea. They were always rushing about, giggling, chattering—it was easy to see that the editor was young. There was a timid knock on the outside door. The click of the typewriter stopped. A moment later the stenographer appeared.

"A young lady wishes to see you, sir," she said. Warrington groaned, but he felt himself resigned to the worst today. "Very well; show her in," he said grimly. There was a moment's pause, a hesitating step, and then the editor fairly jumped. She was so unlike what he had expected. Shy brown eyes looked at him under long dark lashes with a half-wistful, half-frightened gaze; a sweet red mouth quivered expectantly. She looked so altogether like a little girl about to cry that the editor felt impelled to comfort her. "Come in," he said gently. And then he smiled. "Do I look so terrible?" he queried, rather amused, as the girl still stood uncertainly. "No, no," she said reluctantly. "You don't. But, then, I never spoke to an editor before."

Warrington's smile broke into a laugh. "I am quite a tame one," he assured her. The girl came in, carefully closing the door behind her. Then she pulled out a letter.

"It—it was that which gave me courage to come," she said. "I—I thought perhaps you might have made a mistake. Because the story isn't really very long." She ad mitted the letter to him. It was something shorter. Warrington looked up.

"Yes, I remember now," he said slowly. "We liked the story, Miss Gillman—gathering the name from the letter—but it is a little long. Couldn't you—couldn't you cut it perhaps?" Warrington hardly recognized himself as he proffered this last suggestion, but somehow he felt absurdly anxious to help this appealing little unit. The girl considered a moment.

"Perhaps I could. I do so want to see it published. Don't you love to see your name in print?" For the editor was also an author and was regarded as one of the cleverest of the coming young men. Only his love scenes were a bit weak, and people thought that he would get over that. He laughed.

"Yes, I do," he confessed. "One doesn't get tired of it, at least I don't. But about yourself."

"Perhaps I might try another one," said the girl slowly. "I—I have the idea. About a girl who admired a man's work and wanted to meet him, and so she goes to his office on some excuse and finds him there." She stopped.

"Oh," said Warrington; "and does she like him?"

The girl threw him a queer little look.

"She likes him very much," she assented, "but then she doesn't know how she is to see him again."

"Can't the man manage that?" interpolated Warrington. The girl flushed. "Oh, he doesn't think anything about it," she explained hastily. "You see, he doesn't care about girls—and so—"

Warrington looked puzzled. Somehow the plot sounded oddly familiar, but he was not one bit concerned.

"How do you work it out, then?" he asked.

"Oh," said the girl breathlessly, "I believe they meet at the house of some friend, and there's a lake and moonlight!"

"I see," said Warrington absently. The story itself he did not think much of, but it had suggested an idea. How was he, Warrington, going to see this girl again? He was aware of a great and growing desire that he should do so. She had risen to her feet.

"Goodbye," she said. "Thank you for your kind advice, and I will try the new story." Warrington made a desperate effort.

"And in the meantime?" he said. She started.

"You mean?" she asked. "Am I not going to see you again?" He put it plainly. She flushed deeper than before.

"Oh, do you—do you really want to?" she asked eagerly. "Do you?"

"I do," he said determinedly. She drew a long breath, then threw back her head.

"I am going to be at your sister's for Sunday," she said distinctly. "If you choose to come."

"Choose!" he echoed. "I will come, of course. But—starting in sudden bewilderment—'who are you? I never have heard her mention'—But the girl interrupted.

"I am Edna Lawrence," she said, speaking very fast. "And—and you will probably despise me, but I am going to tell you the truth. Anna inadvertently let fall this morning that on my account you were foregoing your holiday, and, of course, I felt sorry. And—and I told her that I would make you come, and she wagged me that I couldn't. So—so, of course, after that I had to. But you needn't," she urged. "I—I will never tell her that you said you would."

The tears were perilously near the brown eyes now. But Warrington, who had got himself well under command

"I mean the other," said Warrington gently. "The one about the girl who came to the man's office. Did—did she really like him?" he demanded, his own voice changing sharply. "For it wasn't quite right as you had it. Perhaps the man had never cared for girls before, but this one he did care for, and he did try to see her again. Did he succeed? Were there a lake and moonlight? Tell me," his tone dropping to an eager entreaty. "May I come to Anna's tonight?"

But the girl, who had fled to the door, caught at the handle. Then she stopped and looked back.

"There—there certainly is a lake," she admitted faintly, "and perhaps there may be a moon—tonight."

And the next moment she was gone.

The First Artificial Fire.

In the course of time a man somewhere in the world hit upon a plan of kindling a fire without having any fire to begin with—that is to say, he hit upon a plan of producing a fire by artificial means. He knew that by rubbing his hands together very hard and very fast he could make them very warm. By trial he learned that by rubbing two pieces of dry wood together he could make them very warm. Then he asked himself the question, Can a fire be kindled by rubbing two pieces of wood together if they are rubbed hard enough? He placed upon the ground a piece of perfectly dry wood and rubbed this with the end of a stick until a groove was made. In the groove a fine dust of wood—a kind of sawdust—was made by the rubbing. He went on rubbing hard and fast, and, behold, the dust in the groove began to glow! He placed some dry grass upon the embers and blew upon them with his breath, and the grass burst into a flame. Here for the first time a man kindled a fire for himself. He had invented the match, the greatest invention perhaps in the history of the world.—St. Nicholas.

A Precise Answer.

"Lawyers are supposed to be the most literal minded men," said Elihu Root, "but every now and then counsel in course of practice will encounter witnesses who can give them points in the matter of literal answers. An Irishman was called to testify in a damage suit arising out of the death of a man 'at the hands of a bull' so to speak.

"Are we to understand, sir," asked the prosecuting attorney, "that the deceased, Patrick Flannigan, was your father?"

"He was till the bull killed him," was the reply of the witness.—Woman's Home Companion.

SAFFORD RETURNS.

Traveling Auditor Checked up Accounts of Sierra and Valencia Counties.

Traveling Auditor Charles V. Safford, who returned Sunday from Sierra and Valencia Counties, where he checked up the accounts of the treasurers in each county, had rather a stormy trip. He met with bad weather on several occasions and was absent a week from the Capital City. However, he enjoyed the undertaking and reported that he found everything in good condition. Regarding his visit he said:

"I first went to Sierra County, where I found the county treasury in good financial condition. There are plenty of funds on hand and the assessment during the present year promises well. J. C. Plimmons is county treasurer and ex-officio collector of the county. While there I took a little side-trip into the Black Peak Mining District, where property is being operated by an eastern company under the management of W. W. Williams, a representative in the last Legislative Assembly. This company has just installed a new stamp mill and has made a thorough test of the ore. Good profits are anticipated during the coming year.

"Other properties in this district are also paying well and there will be an increase in shipments during the summer as compared to last year. Mining investments all through Sierra County look very good.

"Valencia County is in exceptionally good financial condition and on the first of the year had a balance of $46,000 distributed among the various funds. This record was exceeded by only two counties, as shown in the list published recently in the New Mexican.

"The larger part of the balance is in the school fund, but the general county fund has a goodly excess of $5,600. There is a balance of $4,031 in the court fund and of $4,000 in the interest fund with interest paid up to date. The other funds are in equally prosperous condition. The remittance to the Territorial treasury from this county during the year 1905 was some $8,000 larger than in the year 1904. National Committeeman Solomon Luna is the treasurer and ex-officio collector.

"Valencia County sheep men are prosperous and the people generally have money. All look forward to the coming year for a banner record in prosperity. I believe they are going to have it, too."
