CHANCE FOR SINGLE STATEHOOD

Only Logical Solution of Situation As It Is Today.

FISH HATCHERY FOR PECOS

Delegate W. H. Andrews is Working Like a Beaver for New Mexico.

Special to the New Mexican.
Washington, D. C., March 13.—Sufficient names for a Republican caucus to be held at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon next on the Hamilton joint statehood bill have been secured. The matter of the Hamilton joint statehood bill will be thoroughly considered and the chances are that Speaker Cannon will be sustained by the majority vote of the caucus. This may mean the defeat of the Hamilton bill at the present session and may bring about the creation of four states during the short session of the 59th Congress. It is admitted that the new state of Oklahoma with the Indian Territory, will be surely Democratic by 20,000 and over in the 1908 elections and this may give the presidency to the Democracy, as well as the next House of Representatives. The question of politics is evidently entering into the statehood situation and may help New Mexico to separate statehood, as leading Republicans claim that the new state will be safely Republican by from eight to twelve thousand majority.

The Colorado incident of 1876 may be repeated in 1908. All posted on current history of the country remember well that Colorado was admitted by a Democratic Congress in order to get the vote of the new state for the Democracy, but that the electoral vote of it was cast for Hayes which elected him over Tilden.

Special to the New Mexican.
Washington, D. C., March 13.—Senator Knox of Pennsylvania has reported favorably the bill for the creation of a Fifth Judicial District for the Territory of Arizona.

Special to the New Mexican.
Washington, D. C., March 13.—Delegate W. H. Andrews feels sure that he will secure an appropriation of $25,000 for the establishment and maintenance of a fish hatchery on the upper Pecos River in New Mexico. The delegate is working like a beaver in every possible way for the Territory and the people of New Mexico may rest assured that if his efforts can bring about the location of a fish hatchery in their Territory this will be done.

Money to Pay Investigation.
Washington, March 13.—The House committee on interstate and foreign commerce today decided to make a favorable report on the Townsend joint resolution providing for the appropriation of $50,000 to aid the Interstate Commerce Commission to investigate the railroads and monopolies under the Tillman-Gillespie joint resolution. The Townsend resolution also corrects the defects in the Tillman-Gillespie resolution pointed out by the President.

Federal Building for Denver.

Pleasure Before Business.

RUSSIAN ELECTIONS RETURNS

Many Instances of Apathy Among Peasants—Moscow Sends Moderate Liberal Delegates.

St. Petersburg, March 13.—The returns from the peasants' elections continue generally to show the selection of elders, priests and village scribes to represent them at the district convention, but there are notable instances of apathy or of demand for a complete new electoral plan. A full return from the workmen's election at Moscow shows that sixty-five participated and that they mostly selected moderate liberals.

GREAT LEADER DEAD.

Susan B. Anthony Succumbs After Long Struggle With Attack of Pneumonia.

Rochester, N. Y., March 13.—Miss Susan B. Anthony died early this morning after a long illness of pneumonia. Arrangements for the funeral probably will be made today.

Dr. M. S. Ricker, her attending physician, said Miss Anthony died of heart failure induced by double pneumonia.

Miss Anthony's last public appearance, which was at the National Woman's Suffrage convention in Baltimore a few weeks ago, was really the beginning of the end of the great suffragist's career. Under the weight of her 86 years and worn by the almost constant pains of neuralgia, she was ill when she left her home in Rochester for the convention city.

At Baltimore her health was little better, but it was with the greatest difficulty that her friends kept her away from the daily sessions of the Baltimore convention. She chafed under the enforced retirement of her room, and was only half content with the minute reports which reached her from the convention hall.

But even in her absence it was her mind which dominated the convention. Every piece of business transacted there was considered by her before action was taken and it was her advice which cleared away many tanglers.

Up until her last illness overcame her Miss Anthony looked to be scarcely 70 and except on days when she was tormented with neuralgia, from which she suffered intensely during her later years, she possessed the energy of a woman of 50. In her latter years, too, her liking for delivery raiment increased to a remarkable degree. She wore soft black gowns of modish cut and had a fondness for pliable satins and soft silk fabrics.

Funeral of Miss Anthony.

Rochester, N. Y., March 13.—The funeral of Susan B. Anthony has been set for Thursday at 2 o'clock. Rev. Gannett, of the First Unitarian Church of which Miss Anthony was a member will officiate.

Armed Deputies Patrol About the Caldwell, Idaho, Jail to Prevent Rescue.

Caldwell, Idaho, March 13.—Under a heavy guard, headed by Sheriff Nichols, of Canon City, Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone are now in the county jail in this city. By order of the Supreme Court and over the protests of Governor Gooding, the three federal officials were taken from the Boise penitentiary this morning and placed in the local jail. To forestall any effort at rescue, a dozen deputies were sworn in and will patrol the jail night and day. If this protection is not sufficient the Governor will call out the militia.

Slippery rails are responsible for the wreck.

RATE INVESTIGATION.

Kansas City, March 13.—When the Interstate Commerce Commission resumed its hearing here today in the investigation of charges of discrimination in the railroad rates on oil, filed by the Kansas Oil Producers Association, it was believed that the work in Kansas City would be finished this evening. When the commission concludes the hearing here, Judson C. Clements will go to Davenport, Iowa, to investigate other charges of alleged illegal rate making.

Processions of converts came into conflict today with a crowd of workmen during which a priest was shot, whereupon his followers attacked and killed five persons.

1,212 FUNERALS OF MINE VICTIMS

Being Held and Are to Be Held Near Courriere.

RESCUERS PERISH ALSO

Terrible Scenes of Grief In Stricken District—Carrying Many Caskets.

Paris, March 13.—Hundreds of funerals are being held at the towns surrounding Courriere where the mine disaster of Saturday resulted in a loss of over a thousand lives. Snow has fallen but lines of mourners fill every road, many carrying caskets where hearses are not obtainable. The latest figures show 1,212 victims of the explosion. Twenty-six more bodies were recovered this morning.

Sad Fate of Rescuers.

Paris, Mar. 13.—Following upon the heels of the terrible catastrophe in the Courrieres Coal mine, seventeen men who went into the shafts to bring out dead bodies at the fearful beseechings of widows, were caught by the deadly gases and died before they could escape. This last sad event has deepened the gloom already prevalent in the scourged district.

Horrible Scenes.

Paris, March 13.—Women with children in their arms attempt to break through the cordon of troops which forms a lane through which the body bearers proceed to the mortuary chamber at the mine. Sometimes the burden consists of merely a heap of burnt flesh and in nearly every case the body is terribly lacerated. Only one-half of the bodies recovered have been identified.

Despite the danger incurred volunteers, who include a number of those who were successful in escaping at the time of the explosion, do not hesitate to descend the shaft. Some of them have been down more than a dozen times. One of them, after having brought up fourteen bodies, was suffocated in his fifteenth attempt and it is feared other fatalities among the volunteers will follow, as the air in the mine is still impregnated with noxious gas. A number of men engaged in rescue work have already been brought to the surface unconscious, and as they were driven to their homes in closed carriages, women followed and broke the windows, suspecting that bodies were being hurried away.

UNHAPPY FRANCE.

People at Coucouron Determined to Resist With Arms Enforcement of Church Laws.

Privas, France, Mar. 13.—The population of the Town of Coucouron, about fifty miles from here, has determined to resist the taking of an inventory of the church under the church and state separation law. ## ROBBED DISTILLERY.

Bold Holdups of Russian Government Employees By a Dozen Armed Outlaws.

St. Petersburg, March 13.—This city has been far from the robbery and murder, prevalent in the interior cities but it was the scene today of a daring robbery in broad daylight. ## STORM KING IS RAGING

Large Area in West Swept By Terrific Blizzard.

SALT LAKE IS SNOW BOUND

Telegraph Wires Down, Train Service Demoralized, Immense Damage in Cities.

Salt Lake, Utah, March 13.—From midnight until daylight, Salt Lake was in the grasp of the worst storm in years. Beginning with a drizzling rain, the wind which at times blew sixty miles an hour followed. Signs were wrenched from their fastenings, chimneys were shattered; in some instances roofs were carried away and great damage was done to uncompleted buildings. The telegraph lines were paralyzed and but one wire out of Salt Lake is working. The wind was followed by one of the fiercest blizzards ever seen here. Street car traffic here is almost impossible this morning.

Iowa Snow Bound.

Des Moines, March 13.—A heavy snow storm struck Iowa early today and increased in severity. The street car traffic is badly impeded and the train service is threatened.

Cod Fish Fleet Scattered.

San Francisco, March 13.—Captain Fussell, of the schooner Mary Ann, and E. B. Greaves, of Seattle, port owner in that vessel, reached port today on the schooner Marion. They tell a story of shipwreck and suffering of, and possible disaster to the cod fishing fleet in Alaskan waters. The Mary Ann was anchored on the Alaskan coast on November 13 last year. A furious storm was raging when the vessel struck and boat after boat was smashed into bits when launched.

Finally a seaman breasted the surf and got a line ashore and eight men, captain and crew, were rescued.

Captain Fussell says that the schooner Nellie Coleman was in the same storm and has not been since heard from.

A Sea Tragedy.

Victoria, B. C., March 13.—News was received from Skidegate that a life buoy and two oars marked "U. S. S. Zeapora," and two dories not marked, have been found on Graham island. Two broken oak built ships boats, ten oars and about twenty thousand feet of lumber also came ashore between Skidegate and Rose Spit. The Zeapora is a steam fishing vessel carrying about thirty men, which plies from Tacoma to the Halibut banks of Queen Charlotte sound.

Blinding Snow Storm.

Missoula, Mont., March 13.—The blizzard which has been blowing here for the past three days increased in violence and the temperature has been falling since noon. There is a blinding snow storm and the wind has increased in velocity to forty miles an hour.

Sheep Perish in Storm.

Denver, Colo., March 13.—A blizzard raging in Silverton and the adjacent country in the southwestern portion of the state; torrential rains in the neighborhood of Salida and Buena Vista on the eastern slope of the Continental Divide, high winds drifting snow that had already fallen around Julesburg and Sterling in northeastern Colorado on the line of the Union Pacific and Burlington roads, sums up the freaky weather conditions in Colorado tonight.

A westbound train on the Burlington road from Cheyenne, Wyoming, is snow bound at Sterling, Colorado.

Grave fears are entertained for the safety of sheep and cattle in Wyoming.

Already one report has been received that a herd of 6,000 sheep had perished near Wamsutter.

PENNSYLVANIA REACHING OUT

Big System Will Extend Its Lines Through Coke Regions of the Keystone State.

Philadelphia, March 13.—The principal business transacted today at the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Railroad was the adoption of a resolution of authorization for the acquisition of additional lines. For this purpose the directors authorized the issuing from time to time of the remainder of the capital stock, which remainder amounts to $18,000,000. The roads to be acquired are the southwestern Pennsylvania, which extends through the coke regions from Greensburg to Connellsville and Uniontown, York Haven, and Rowenna Railroad and Allegheny Valley Railroad.

HEARING IN ASSESSOR CASE POSTPONED

Application for Writ of Mandamus Brought by Collins to be Heard Tomorrow.

The hearing on a petition for a writ of mandamus brought by Glenville A. Collins, the appointed assessor of Santa Fe County by Governor Herbert J. Hagerman, to compel the county commissioners to approve the bond of Collins as assessor of Santa Fe County, was postponed from 10 o'clock this morning upon request of Attorney General George W. Prichard. It will be heard before Judge John R. McFie of the First Judicial District Court at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. The appeal case of Anastasio Gonzales, the county assessor removed from office by Judge McFie upon the charge of incompetency and neglect of duty, was also postponed as it could not be heard until the present incumbent of the office was decided upon.

Edward Andrews, a Democrat, appointed by the board of county commissioners, through his deputy, A. P. Hill is in charge of the assessor's office. Should the decision of the court tomorrow be in favor of Collins it will then be up to Andrews to seek legal recourse. What Gonzales will do is problematical. Verily, the end is not yet.

AGED MAN SUICIDES.

Blows Heart Out With Shot Gun While Despondent Because of Ill Health.

Special to the New Mexican.

Deming, N. M., March 13.—Robert Redding, a miner 70 years of age, who had been an invalid for some time, ended his life on the evening of March 11, by shooting himself through the heart with a shot gun. Death was instantaneous, the entire charge striking him and tearing a hole through his body. His wife had gone to call upon neighbors at the time of the suicide. Her husband stood in the center of the room, placed the muzzle of the gun over his heart and pulled the trigger by striking it with a stove poker. He had been despondent for some time and had frequently threatened to kill himself.

Animal Was Tied to a Hitching Post in Front of Estancia Postoffice—Gambler Suspected.

Word comes from Estancia of the theft of a horse and saddle on Sunday evening. The horse was the property of Sidney Cox, who lives three miles north of Estancia. He had tied the animal to a hitching post in front of the Estancia postoffice. Mr. Cox followed the trail north for seven miles but there the thief left the road. A professional gambler who had been loading around Estancia, disappeared at the same time that the horse and saddle did and descriptions of him are being sent out.

STEADY AND SATISFACTORY

Progress on Jicarilla Reservation in Rio Arriba.

INCREASING IN NUMBER

1,000 Acres in Cultivation This Season—New and Commodious Buildings

H. H. Johnson, superintendent of the Jicarilla Apache Indian Reservation in Rio Arriba County, with headquarters in Dulce, spent a few days in town last week on business before the U. S. District Court then and there in session. To a representative of the New Mexican, Mr. Johnson who bears the reputation of being a very efficient and competent Indian official gave interesting facts as to the progress and the condition of the Indians under his charge.

"Last year there were under irrigation and cultivation by the Indians about 500 acres of land upon which good crops of oats, wheat, potatoes and vegetables were raised. This season, Mr. Johnson expects to have this area increased to 1,000 acres and more. The outlook for a prosperous crop season is very fine so far. Last year, the average yield of oats to the acre was 50 bushels, about 35 of wheat and on fifteen acres, 50,000 pounds of potatoes were raised. The potato crop was not satisfactory as it was planted too late in the season. This year the acreage and the yield will be greater and better than last year. In the present reservoir system there is enough water to irrigate successfully about 1,000 acres. The Indians number about 840 and are increasing of late. During 1904 and 1905, the births were considerably over the number of deaths that occurred. The Indians do not leave the reservation and their condition is improving. They have all adopted American garb and it is but seldom that one sees what is called a 'blanket Indian'.

Plenty of Good Timber.

"There is considerable timber of the Colorado pine variety on the reservation. A high estimate puts this at about five hundred million feet, but Mr. Johnson thinks that a conservative and safe estimate is from between one hundred million and one hundred and twenty million feet of matured and merchantable timber, ready for cutting and for the saw mill. During the past year buildings to the value of $15,000 have been added to the agency. Among these were a new school house, a new barn, an industrial building and a superintendent's residence. The school building is about a mile from the headquarters at Dulce and is very commodious and remarkably well adapted for the purposes for which it was erected. An appropriation for the coming year has been asked for the construction of two new cottages for employes and a barn for live stock, these buildings being greatly needed. Their cost is to be about $10,000 and there is little doubt but that they will be provided for in the Indian appropriation bill at the present session of Congress.

Fine Office Building.

"One of the finest office buildings in the Indian service has been just completed and is occupied by the office force at the agency. It is very commodious and just the thing. It is built of adobe, plastered inside and out, has a steel roof, is one story high of a very pretty architectural design and contains a council chamber, the superintendent's office, clerk's and physician's offices. Its cost was about $3,000.

"Indian Inspector Charles who recently inspected the agency, stated that the office building was one of the finest and best found on the Indian reservations that he has visited. He took the plans of the building in order to recommend their adoption for other agencies."

Mr. Johnson stated that the Indians are peaceable and contented. There has been very little trouble from the illegal sale of liquor to the Indians, as he and the officials under him keep a sharp lookout and report cases of the violation of the law prohibiting the sale of liquor to the Indians promptly to United States Commissioners and to the United States attorney, which officials take active steps for the punishment of offenders.

THE IMMIGRATION QUESTION.

The question of immigration is fast becoming a very serious matter. It has ceased to be a party question and now restriction assumes the aspect of protection to the laboring men of the country. It is an old and wise saying that, "Self preservation is the first law of nature," right here is the test. During the last fiscal year there arrived in the United States, 1,026,499 immigrants. The question arises, how do these people manage to live? There can be only one answer, and that is, the majority of them are almost destitute when they land, therefore they are compelled to work at cheaper wages than the present citizens, and the result of that is that the labor market in many sections is continually depressed. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, says:

"The tariff keeps out cheap foreign goods. It is the employers, not working men, that have goods to sell. Working men sell labor, and cheap labor is not kept out by the tariff. The protection that would directly help the workers is protection against cheap labor itself. The strength of this country is in the intelligence and prosperity of our working people, but both the intelligence and prosperity of our working people are endangered by the present immigration. Cheap labor, ignorant labor, takes our jobs and cuts our wages."

That is the whole question in a nutshell, and needs no further comment. In a recent message the President tersely puts it thus:

"It will be a great deal better to have fewer immigrants, but all of the right kind; than a great number of immigrants, many of whom are necessarily of the wrong kind. As far as possible we wish to limit the immigration to this country to persons who propose to become citizens of this country, and we can well afford to insist upon adequate scrutiny of the character of those who are thus proposed for future citizenship. There should be an increase in the stringency of the laws to keep out insane, idiotic, epileptic, and pauper immigrants, but this is by no means enough. Not merely the anarchist, but every man of anarchistic tendencies, all violent and disorderly people, all people of bad character, the incompetent, the lazy, the vicious, the physically unfit, defective, or degenerates, should be kept out."

There is no politics in this question. In 1896, the Democratic party in its national platform said: "We hold that the most effective way of protecting American labor is to prevent the importation of foreign pauper labor to compete with it in the home market," and the Republican party in its national platform the same year said: "For the protection of the quality of American citizens and the wages of American workmen against the fatal competition of low priced labor we demand that the immigration laws be thoroughly enforced and so extended as to exclude from entrance to the United States those who can neither read nor write." Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, says:

"The educational test should be not only no objection to the bill now pending in Congress, but should be its strongest recommendation. On February 17, 1897, such a bill passed Congress and was vetoed by President Cleveland, doubtless in the interest of the Democratic party; it was passed over the veto in the lower House but failed in the Senate. In the 55th Congress an educational test bill passed the Senate by a vote of 45 to 28, but failed in the House; another bill of like character passed the House, during the 57th Congress; the pending bill therefore is no new measure. It has the weight of many non-partisan majorities behind it. The records of the office of the commissioner general of immigration shows that about 98 per cent of all immigrants from northwestern Europe can both read and write and are a strong people physically, therefore very little restriction would be placed on them. For several years back the leaders of Irish thought, religious and secular, have been and now are, strongly against any more emigration from that country, they want their people to stay at home.

A LOW AND WICKED SLANDER.

It is not in the so-called native and Republican counties where race feeling is stirred up, but in the so-called "American" and Democratic counties. The Democratic central committee of Eddy County last week decided to exclude all so-called "Mexicans" from the Democratic primaries this year. In other words, the "Mexicans" are good enough to vote the Democratic ticket but must keep away from party councils and primaries. Ament which the Dayton Echo says:

"A large per cent of the people generally called Mexicans, are foreign born and don't understand a word of our language, and seemingly don't want to understand it. Nor do they understand our plan of government, and if allowed to take part in our primary, would just as likely vote the Republican ticket as the Democratic ticket. This is the class of Mexicans the committee was after, as we understand it."

It is no wonder, that the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, in commenting on the Senate's action upon the Hamilton statehood bill, says:

"The lack of a sufficient population in Arizona and the still more conspicuous lack of the right sort of population in New Mexico were urged in House and Senate as objections to the entrance of these two territories on any terms."

This slander upon the Territory and its native people has been resented and refuted again and again by the New Mexican and other territorial papers, but it is a slander that dies hard and just such fire-eaters as the Eddy County Democratic leaders are responsible for this. If the native people were at all resentful or envious, the Democratic vote in the Territory this fall would dwindle to less than ten thousand and it is the native Democratic vote in such counties as Taos, Rio Arriba, Santa Fe, Mora and San Miguel that causes the Democratic vote to attain respectable figures at the general elections. With that vote eliminated, there would be no Democratic party in the Territory worthy of mention.

A NEFARIOUS PRACTICE.

Recent dispatches to the Boston Post contain the following astounding intelligence:

"It appears that the steamer Logan, one of the United States transport ships plying between San Francisco and Manila, brought to her home port on last Saturday some fifty men whose deportation from the Philippines had been ordered on recommendation of the secret service officials employed by the Philippine government. It is stated on the best authority that this importation included 'desperadoes' who had made themselves obnoxious in Manila, and others who had served terms under conviction of murder, of robbery, and of embezzlement." After these arrivals had been photographed and exhibited by the San Francisco police, the men were given their liberty."

The present supply of criminals and their works, are sufficient without importing a further supply from the Philippines. It is hardly worth while to put up the bars against criminal immigrants on the Atlantic seaboard and take them down on the Pacific. This paper hopes that the Boston Post has been misinformed on this subject; but if the statement is true the sooner steps are taken for the immediate stoppage of such importation the better for this country. The authorities of the Philippines should be compelled to care for their own criminals and send no more of them over here.

The National Bank of New Mexico, which was opened on Monday of last week in Raton, had all its stationery printed in the printing office of the Raton Range. This is business and good business. Home printing establishments should be patronized by business men whenever and wherever they are fitted to do work and equipped to do it as well as it can be done elsewhere. Protection to home industries has built up the United States and has made it the great, powerful and prosperous nation that it is. The same principles applied in this Territory, in its counties, in its cities and in its precincts will aid a great way towards permanent prosperity and the constant advancement of the people of New Mexico.

There were three hundred and fourteen homestead and desert land entries made in Roosevelt County during the month of February last. That county is certainly growing and its February record in this respect is probably the largest made by any county in the Territory during any one month. The immigrants and settlers who are arriving in that county are reported to be of a very good class and a desirable addition to New Mexico's population. If this sort of business keeps on, the year 1906, will certainly be a record breaker for increase of population and prosperity for the Sunshine Territory.

Chaves County Democrats are neither respecters of persons nor of Rough Riders. Two dyed-in-the-wool followers of Andrew Jackson, have announced themselves as candidates to oppose the ambition of Captain Charles L. Ballard to be sheriff of Chaves County. What a chance for the Republicans to re-elect the present incumbent!

PLANT A TREE.

A. B. Stroup, superintendent of schools of Bernalillo County, is personally making an effort to have trees and shrubbery planted around the public school houses and to utilize the school grounds for gardens for which he will endeavor to furnish seeds and which are to be cultivated by the pupils. The New Mexican has been advocating for several years the establishment of school gardens and regrets that Santa Fe County has not taken a lead in the matter. However, it is not too late to be second in the movement, especially in the city itself, where every school house should be surrounded by a lovely park, in which the school children would feel that they had a personal interest. The work in the school gardens would lead many to make home gardens and what is more beautiful than a city of gardens and orchards? Arbor Day, March 30, should see some tangible beginning made in the city of Santa Fe to establish and maintain school gardens. It was ex-Governor Hogg of Texas, who said shortly before his death recently: "I want no monument of stone or marble. Let my children plant at the head of my grave a pecan tree and at the foot an old fashioned walnut. And when these trees shall bear let the pecans and walnuts be given out among the plain people of Texas so that they may plant them and make Texas a land of trees." What nobler monument indeed than a Linden tree which will give shelter to the birds and shade to humanity for a hundred or even two hundred years after the hand that planted it has been stilled in death!

"Give men their gold and knives their power;

Let fortune's bubbles rise and fall; Who plows a field, or trains a flower Or plants a tree is more than all."

THANKS FOR THE COMPLIMENT.

The Lordsburg Liberal in a recent issue says the New Mexican and its editor a graceful compliment on the occasion of the forty-third birthday of the Daily New Mexican. This paper is under obligations to the editor of the Western Liberal and is gratified to re-publish the comment. The Liberal says:

"The Santa Fe New Mexican last week celebrated the completion of its forty-three years of public service. The paper was established in 1863 as a Republican paper, and has been continuously published ever since. Colonel Max Frost its veteran editor, was first connected with the paper in 1876, and for more than twenty years has been its editor in chief, excepting a few years during the Thornton administration, when it was under the control of a company organized by that Democratic Governor, and was the organ of the administration. The New Mexican, under Colonel Frost, has probably been the greatest single force in the upbuilding of New Mexico. May the colonel and the paper celebrate many more birthdays."

St. Louis has eclipses of the sun almost daily. These are caused by smoke and fog and are more disagreeable than the temporary eclipses caused by celestial bodies. St. Louis is not near as nice a town to live in as its inhabitants declare.

On Saturday last the St. Louis Globe Democrat declared "statehood is in peril." What kind of statehood? Not the one desired by the people of New Mexico and the people of Arizona.

Speaker Cannon of the National House of Representatives lost his temper yesterday when spoken to on the Hamilton joint statehood bill. Tut, tut! Why this unseemly conduct?

The Arizonians are rejoicing too early and to too great an extent. The fate of the Hamilton joint statehood bill is not yet permanently decided.

WHAT IS CATARRH?

A. C. Ireland Guarantees a Cure By Hyomei or Will Refund the Money.

Until very recent years it was thought that catarrh was a disease of the blood, but now modern science has proved that catarrh is a germ disease, and can be cured only by a treatment that will kill the germ and heal the mucous membrane of the nose and throat.

Therefore, when you have catarrh, you can readily see that if you want to cure it, you should use Hyomei, which medicates the air you breathe, thus killing the catarrhal germs and healing the smarting and raw membrane of the passage through the nose and throat.

The complete Hyomei outfit, consisting of an inhaler, a bottle of Hyomei, and a medicine dropper, costs only $1., while extra bottles can be obtained for 50 cents.

A. C. Ireland has sold a great many Hyomei outfits, and the more he sells, the more convinced he is that he is perfectly safe in guaranteeing to refund the money if Hyomei does not cure.

COLLECTION

OF POLL TAX

Superintendent of Public Instruction

Hiram Hadley Urges Prompt

Action.

An item has been going the rounds of the press that I advocate the making of the poll tax $2 instead of $1. This is an entire mistake. At one time, somewhere, a young man asked me if I thought $2 would be too large a poll tax. I replied "No," but I did not think that he was going to quote me as saying that I favor making it $2. I do not. But I do cheerfully tell the people what I do think about poll tax. We have a law "that a poll tax of $1 shall be levied upon all able-bodied male persons of the age of 21 years and over for school purposes." That law is so carefully drawn that it is easily enforced, and if that poll tax is not collected, it is the fault of the clerks of the various school boards. It is a reasonable law.

There are about 65,000 registered voters in New Mexico. After making due allowance for those who are not "able-bodied" and those who from poverty cannot pay, there ought to be received from this source $55,000 per annum. In many cases this is the only tax a citizen pays. Usually such have large families of children, and, therefore, by the small payment of $1 they are receiving the benefit of our public schools. When it is remembered that this poll tax is used exclusively for the education of our children—and every citizen of New Mexico is interested in that object—I confess I have little respect for the individual who hesitates to pay this small stipend. I do recommend that good citizens everywhere lend their moral and legal support to the collection of this tax. If it shall fall to my lot to gather statistics for the year 1906, I expect to show just what the different counties and different districts do in this respect.

HIRAM HADLEY, Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Santa Fe Chapter No. 1, Royal Arch Masons has work ahead of it for the coming few weeks. Nine candidates to take the Royal Arch degree are awaiting to receive it.

The snow fall bulletin issued by the local weather office is printed in full on the sixth page of this edition of the New Mexican. It is of interest to all and should be read carefully.

The Denver & Rio Grande train was five hours late last evening and the Santa Fe trains from the east were from two to four hours late owing to the snowfall in northern New Mexico and southern Colorado.

Francisco Delgado this morning broke ground for two six room modern brick cottages upon his lot on upper Palace Avenue, situated between the properties of M. O. Llewellyn and Amado Chaves.

The cemetery committee of the Woman's Board of Trade has employed F. L. Nichols to take charge of Fairview Cemetery. He will take up his abode in the lodge adjoining the cemetery on the first of April and the grounds will be much improved under his supervision during the coming summer.

Dr. J. M. Diaz, has received a new lavatory and other additions, for his operating room, and they will be installed at once. The equipments were bought in Chicago and were very expensive. The doctor now has one of the most complete operating rooms in the city.

Adjutant General A. P. Tarkington, who returned last week from a trip to Silver City and Las Cruces, is now busily engaged in preparations for the inspection of the companies to be held during the coming month. The inspection of Company F, First Regiment of Infantry, will be held April 2. The company has been drilling hard to get into shape.

J. S. Candelario, has received a number of fine specimens of turquoise from mining property which he owns at Cerrillos. He has had several men employed of late on the property doing assessment work and they sent in the gem stones. Mr. Candelario will work the mine this summer to supply stones for local trade.

The suggestion that ex-Mayor I. Sparks should be the Republican candidate for mayor at next month's election has been received with much favor by Republicans generally and also by a number of Democrats. Mr. Sparks seems to be the leading candidate for the Republican nomination for the office. If nominated, the chances for his election are first class.

Digneo and Crichton, contractors, this morning began the erection of two modern cottages for Frank Delgado on his Palace Avenue property adjoining the lot occupied by Simon Nusbaum and recently sold to Surveyor General Morgan O. Llewellyn. These are two more structures to be added to the big list being built and to be erected during the coming summer.

A number of Santa Clara Indians visited the Capitol building this morning and spent some time in consultation with Judge A. J. Abbott who was at work in the office of the clerk of the Supreme Court. The Indians then visited all of the offices of the "Casa Grande" and shook hands with the officials. Governor Hagerman being absent did not meet the Indians much to their disappointment.

The following candidates for members of the City Board of Education on the Republican ticket are talked of: J. D. Sena, first ward; Frank P. Sturges, second ward; A. M. Bergere, third ward; Dr. David Knapp, fourth ward. For members of the city council so far on the Republican side are mentioned: Telesforo Rivera, first ward, and David Gonzales, fourth ward. Were these citizens nominated they would make a pretty strong ticket.

Complaints are being made that City Clerk L. F. Montenie declines to furnish the City Boards of Registration with the registration books for the April, 1904, elections. Several of the judges of registration claim that this practice has been universal since the establishment of this city and that the duties of the boards are lightened by having the old registration lists before them for reference and comparison. Under the statute boards of registration are required to copy from the old registration books and to eliminate from the new lists the names of all those who have died or left the city.

"Snow north and rain in the south portion tonight and Wednesday. Clearer and much colder weather with a cold wave in the north and east portions." The above is the forecast issued by the local weather observer today and it comes as a surprise to both the weatherman and the people generally since conditions this morning were so spring like. The temperature at 6 o'clock this morning was 36 degrees with a balmy atmosphere and only a light frost. The maximum temperature yesterday was 48 degrees at 2:25 p. m. The minimum was 38 degrees at midnight. The mean for the day was 43 degrees. The relative humidity was 69 per cent with a precipitation of 0.08 of an inch.

SNOWFALL BULLETIN

Local Office, U. S. Weather Bureau, Santa Fe, N. M., March 12, 1906.

At the close of February there was still considerable snow in the mountains in nearly all sections of the Territory, although the fall during the month was comparatively light and there was a general decrease in the average accumulated depth. The valleys were almost entirely free from snow, except in the higher districts of Taos and Rio Arriba Counties.

The heavy snow that fell during December and a portion of January drifted and settled in the ravines and canyons. In most instances it was still very compact and frozen, with ice underneath. In general the reports state that the snow that fell during the month had also been swept into the canyons and is compact. The ground is thoroughly saturated and many of the correspondents believe there is sufficient snow to assure a supply of water late into the summer. The amount of stored snow is not considered excessive, but should conditions favor the rapid melting of the snow, the run-off would probably be high, because the ground is already well filled and the absorption would be relatively small.

The average depth reported for the Rio Grande watershed was about seventeen inches; the greatest depths are in the mountains of Rio Arriba and Taos Counties, where it averages from 20 to 40 inches. In the Sandia Range the average is about twenty inches; in the Valles Range twelve to eighteen inches, and in the Black Range, about twenty inches. The averages for the other watersheds were, San Francisco, Gila and Mimbres, twenty-five inches, but the greatest depths of the drifts range from five to ten feet in the Tularosa and Mogollon Mountains, draining into the San Francisco River. The average for the Canadian was about 14 inches, but in the extreme northern sections there was but little snow. In the Pecos and southeast the average was over eight inches, varying, however, from four inches to three feet.

The following notes are from the reports of correspondents:

San Juan Watershed and Northwest.

Lumberton—M. A. Lucero—The snow is evenly distributed and compact. Bloomfield—Postmaster—There is no snow in the valley but the ground contains sufficient moisture for the present. La Boca—S. B. Garcia—On surrounding mountains there is about two feet of snow. Fort Wingate—Post Surgeon—There is still some snow on north sides of the hills. The outlook for water supply is good.

Rio Grande.

El Rito—P. Lopez—The snow is compact. In this immediate vicinity the outlook for water supply is not very favorable. Gallinas—Gavino Chavez—The ground contains enough moisture and there is an abundance of snow in the mountains, assuring sufficient water in the streams for some time. Tierra Amarillo—Postmaster—In this vicinity there is a scarcity of snow and the water prospects are not good. Vallecitos—A. C. Giron—A great deal of snow has drifted into the canyons. Llano—Cornelio Martinez—There will be an abundance of water during the coming season. Ojo Caliente—A. Joseph—In the mountains the snow is compact, remaining as it fell during December and January, which insures a good supply of water for the coming season. Questa—A. J. Gomez—Snow is evenly distributed and there will be plenty of water until June. Taos—B. G. Randall—The snow is well packed in the canyons with lots of ice under it. There will be an abundance of water. Tres Piedras—Felix Grant—There is plenty of water in sight and everything looks very promising for the coming season. San Pedro—N. J. Strumquist—During February about ten inches of snow fell in valleys and foothills and about twenty inches on the mountains. The indications are for plenty of water. Bland—B. H. Shaw—There is less snow than last winter, but there is an abundance of water. The snow has been gradually melting, the ground absorbing it. Casa Salazar—Isidoro Mora—There is an abundance of snow and the ground is thoroughly saturated. Jemez—R. Unes—There is plenty of snow and evenly distributed, insuring ample water supply. Perea—Nettie P. Patterson—The snow is evenly distributed and has been going off fast. Estancia—H. B. Hawkins—The snow is well packed in the mountains and valleys. The ground is now filled with water. Gran Quivira—B. A. Mason—The snow is evenly distributed and well packed. Datil—Fred Baldwin—There is an abundance of snow and it is melting fast, causing the springs and streams to start. Magdalena—Wm. Pender—There is still considerable snow on north sides of higher mountains. Hermosa—Phillip Zoeller—The snow is drifted into the canyons of nearby mountains and the prospects are for plenty of water. Hillsboro—J. M. Webster—The snow is compact and drifted into the canyons. An abundance of water is assured for spring and summer. Kingston—E. F. Prevost—There is plenty of snow on the north sides of mountains and the prospects are for more water than for several years past.

San Francisco, Gila and Mimbres.

Alma—M. E. Coates—Snow evenly distributed and the outlook is good for an abundance of water late into the summer. Joseph—Cornelio Aragon—The prospects for water supply for the coming season are good. Paterson—James Patterson—The snow on the mountains is melting but there will be plenty of water—Reserve—W. F. Cobert—The indications are good for an abundance of water. Snow is drifted into canyons and is from two to five feet deep. Cliff—T. J. Clark—In the canyons of the Mogollon Mountains the snow lies in drifts four to ten feet deep. Red Rock—Louis Chamblee—Outlook for water supply is good. Steeple Rock—Sanford Robinson—The outlook for water supply is excellent.

Canadian and Northeast.

Aurora—J. C. Lucero—The snow is unevenly distributed, compact and drifted. The outlook for water supply is very good. Black Lake—Guillermo Martinez—The snow is compact on the mountains and in the canyons, giving good prospects for water next season. Dawson—T. C. Hill—There is not as much snow as last year, and more is needed. Elizabethtown—Geo. E. Beebe—Although the snow is very compact and swept into canyons, the outlook for water supply is poor. Rayado—S. B. Abreu—The snow is unevenly distributed and the outlook for water supply is very bad. Cleveland—Daniel Cassidy—The snow has drifted into the canyons and is compact. Prospect for water is good. Halls Peak—F. E. Franklin—About ten inches of snow fell during first half of month but it soon melted. Lucero—Mary Lodge—About six inches of snow fell during the month and was absorbed at once by the porous soil. Mora—Z. S. Longuevan—The snow is evenly distributed on the mountains but packed and drifted in the canyons. Los Alamos—W. N. Frank, Jr.—In some places the snow is drifted to a depth of four feet. Plenty of water and a good year assured. Rociada—John A. Rudolph—The snow on main range near here is very compact and insures a good water supply. The ground is very moist. Albert—H. M. Hanson—Only one inch of snow fell during the month.

Pecos and Southeast.

Pecos—J. W. Harrison—There are twelve inches of snow on nearby mountains and there will be plenty of water for the year. Elk—Boyd Williams—There is no snow in this vicinity but the ground is still very wet. Alto—W. H. Walker—The snow is very deep in canyons, not drifted, compact and frozen very hard. There will be lots of water. Lincoln—Chas. G. Weidman—The snow in the White Mountains is very deep, assuring a plentiful water supply. White Oaks—Robert H. Taylor and J. A. Brown—The outlook for water supply is good. The snow is drifted and compact. Clouderoft—Jack Hollister—On the northern slopes the snow varies from four inches to three feet in depth. Tularosa—Luis Vigil—The snow is evenly distributed and there will be plenty of water for irrigation.

To Prevent Fraud in Election.

At this meeting of the City Republican Central Committee and many other prominent citizens, the following resolution was passed:

Resolved, That it having come to the knowledge of this committee by report, which we believe to be reliable, that certain judges of election appointed by the city council, for the coming election, have openly boasted, that they will, if necessary, resort to fraud to carry this election against the regular Republican nominees.

Therefore, this committee protests against the appointment of such improper persons as judges of elections and request the city council to appoint only reputable and reliable citizens as such judges.

Motion was made and carried instructing the chairman and secretary of this committee to present a copy of this resolution to the mayor or president of the city council so that all the members of the same be informed of this protest.

RATON'S GROWING PROSPERITY

R. H. Carter, Clerk of Gate City, Gives Interesting Accounts of Advancement.

R. H. Carter, city clerk at Raton, spent today in town on business before the United States land office. Mr. Carter has been a resident of the Gate City for ten years and was superintendent of schools there for some time. He is now in the real estate and insurance business. He reports the city of Raton as flourishing; many new people coming in; between forty and fifty new residences are now in course of erection.

Mr. Carter who is well acquainted with the people and conditions there states that he knows of about fifty more persons who contemplate erecting houses during the present year. The population of the town is rapidly increasing. The building of the St. Louis, Rocky Mountain and Pacific Railway from Raton to Elizabethtown has given all kinds of business a new impetus, which is making itself felt to an agreeable extent.

The Santa Fe Raton & Eastern Railroad is hard at work on developing the coal field about ten miles east of Raton in the Sugarite Canon. This road is completed to the coal mines of the company and is in active operation. It is also understood that within the near future plans for extending it to a junction with the Colorado & Southern Railroad near Des Moines station will have matured and construction work will commence.

The distance between the Sugarite coal mines and this junction is only a little over forty miles and it is believed by those best posted that the road will be built and in active operation by the last of the year, thus giving the Gate City another eastern railroad connection.

Merchants and tradesmen are busy and the trade of the town is rapidly extending, as the rich coal mining, agricultural and stock raising country surrounding it is receiving more population.

Concerning the city elections, Mr. Carter says that matters are quiet and that people so far have not taken much interest. There are no political lines as yet drawn and everything promises to be very peaceful and gente. Mr. Carter is a Democrat, but was a candidate on the Independent ticket two years ago for city clerk and was elected. His record in the office has been good.

A further evidence of the material prosperity of Raton is the launching of two new national banks since the first of January, each with ample capital and excellent banking facilities.

REACHED HIGH-EST MARK

Ex-Governor L. Bradford Prince Praises Latest Publication of Bureau of Immigration.

Hon. L. B. Prince, who was the first president of the Bureau of Immigration of the Territory and who for the past twenty-five years has done yeoman work for the advancement and progress of New Mexico has addressed the Bureau the following letter concerning the revised and enlarged edition of "To the Land of Sunshine" just published:

"Santa Fe, March 12, 1906. Colonel Max Frost, Secretary of the Bureau of Immigration, Santa Fe New Mexico:

"Dear Sir—I have examined with much gratification the new edition of "To the Land of Sunshine" just published. As you know, I was the author of the original bill to establish the Bureau of Immigration, in 1880, and was its first president, and, therefore, naturally take warm interest in its work. I have watched all of its publications from year to year and it has been pleasant to note their increasing value and beauty, but the present book is far superior to all that have preceded. In fact, I do not see how it can ever be excelled. Whether in the solid information afforded in the method of its presentation, in the number and beauty of its illustrations, or in the mechanical excellence of the volume, it seems to have reached the highest mark.

"I am quite familiar with similar publications in other states, including the celebrated ones of Kansas and Utah, but it is a source of pride to see that this, New Mexico's publication, is superior to all.

"Yours truly,

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Correct Membership—Meets Thursday Morning in This City to Fix Course of Study.

In the article concerning the meeting of the Territorial Board of Education on Thursday of this week, the New Mexican in the publication of the names of the members, made a regrettable error in yesterday's issue.

The correct membership of the board is Governor Herbert J. Hagerman, ex-officio president; Professor Hiram Hadley, ex-officio secretary; Professor Luther Foster, president of the College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, Mesilla Park; Professor E. J. Vert, president of the Normal University at Las Vegas; Professor C. M. Light, president of the Normal School at Silver City; Professor W. G. Tigh, president University of New Mexico, Albuquerque; Professor J. E. Clarke, superintendent of city schools, Albuquerque.

The board will meet in the office of the superintendent of public instruction at 10 o'clock Thursday forenoon.

NEW MEXICO GROWING.

Large Areas of Land Taken Up By Homeseekers, Especially in Eastern Part of Territory.

At the federal land office a Clayton, from New Year to March 9, this year, 727 entries were made covering 116,320 acres, breaking all previous records for number of entries and area covered in that length of time. During the same time 400 entries were made at the Santa Fe land office covering 60,000 acres and 500 entries at the Roswell office, covering 75,000 acres. These 1,600 entries mean an influx of at least 5,000 immigrants from other commonwealths during the first two months of the year who settled on public lands. This does not take into account the entries at the federal land office at Las Cruces nor the thousands of immigrants who went to the towns and villages to engage in other occupations than farming, or the thousands who came to regain their health impaired by the severe climate of the east and the north. If the present rate of immigration is maintained New Mexico will have a population of half a million in the census year of 1910, over 300,000 of whom will be from other commonwealths.

BLOODY DUEL.

Two Sheep Herders Leave Their Dinner to Fight With Knives While Intoxicated.

A bloody duel took place just at noon today at the home of Lorenzo Ortega on College Street between Candido Romero and Esquibel Ortiz, sheep herders, who are in the city visiting their families and parents. Candido Romero is seriously injured as the result of numerous stabs in the head and back. Ortiz was also severely cut. No arrests were made. Spectators say that both men had been drinking.

As nearly as could be learned, the men were seated at a table eating dinner when a quarrel arose over a trivial matter. Hot words followed and the disputants drew their knives. They walked outside to the street where they fell upon each other viciously, striking with fists and knives. The neighborhood was alarmed and residents in the vicinity caught the enraged combatants and separated them. Ortiz was taken into the house where his wounds were treated. Romero was assisted by friends to the office of Dr. Diaz, and his injuries dressed.

Previous to the fight the men had been the best of friends. For the past ten months they had been engaged in herding sheep eating and sleeping together. They had also been much together while in Santa Fe.

PHARMACY BOARD.

Miss Matthews of Albuquerque Leads Other Applicants in Examination Grades.

Miss Mary Matthews of Albuquerque in an examination before the Territorial Board of Pharmacy which has been in session since yesterday morning, demonstrated her ability to uphold the woman's side of the question, by passing with an average of 94 per cent. She received honorable mention from the board as having made one of the highest grades. The other applicants also passed satisfactory examinations and were granted registration. They were: C. D. Taylor, of Albuquerque; F. D. Wyman, of Albuquerque; H. E. Davis of Belen; F. C. Beasley of Hagerman, and F. D. Winters of Las Vegas.

The committee on complaints and grievances was instructed to investigate certain complaints to the effect that hospitals in the Territory were alleged to have dispensed physicians' prescriptions without having a registered pharmacist in charge. Considerable routine business was transacted at the meeting of the board today but as there still remains much to be done another session will be held tomorrow.

GOVERNOR HAGERMAN EN ROUTE TO CAPITAL.

A special dispatch to the New Mexican from Roswell announced that Governor Herbert J. Hagerman and Dr. J. A. Massie left Roswell at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon via the automobile line for this city. They are expected to reach here tomorrow afternoon.

STAY OF EXECUTION ASKED

In Three Cases Against St. Louis Rocky Mountain and Pacific Railroad.

Judge J. G. Northcutt, of Trinidad, Colorado, arrived in Santa Fe last night and today appeared before Judge John R. McFie to secure stay of execution of judgments rendered in three cases entitled respectively, Martinez, Shuggeu and Thompson vs. The St. Louis, Rocky Mountain & Pacific Railroad. Judge Northcutt this morning filed petitions to fix the amount of bond for a stay of execution for writs of error in the three cases from the District Court for Colfax County, to the Territorial Supreme Court, with Jose D. Sena, clerk of the Supreme Court. The plaintiffs in the cases were owners of land which was condemned for use as right of way by the railroad company. They brought the suits to test the validity of the condemnation law under which they were deprived of their lands. Writs of error and writs of supersedeas have been issued.

The cases came before Judge McFie as Judge Mills of the Fourth Judicial District was not qualified to hear them.

CLARK'S HABEAS CORPUS

Petition for Writ of Hearing Before Referee Harry S. Clancy Today and Tomorrow.

A hearing was had today before Referee Harry S. Clancy, especially appointed by Judge Edward A. Mann, of the Sixth Judicial District Court for that purpose on the petition for a writ of habeas corpus for Jap Clark, confined in the penitentiary for safe keeping from Torrance County on the charge of the murder of James Chase last year.

George Spence, of the firm of Spence & Rose, of Estancia, and Renehan and Thompson, of this city, appeared for Clark, while District Attorney E. C. Abbott represented the Territory.

The following witnesses were examined at the hearing: F. C. Reynolds, W. C. McKean, L. A. Dry of Corona, and Deputy Sheriff Sam Phillips of Estancia.

The case will likely be on hearing tomorrow.

TWO SALOON SCRAPS.

The Lid is Being Lifted Again at Albuquerque—Another Shooting Reported from Kettner.

At Kettner, the lumber camp of the American Lumber Company, in Valencia County, a shooting occurred on Saturday night in which Salvador Chaves was shot through the right hand. Chaves and E. D. George, were quarreling when Chaves made a motion as if to pull a gun. His opponent was much quicker and shot Chaves through the right hand before the latter could pull the trigger. The shooting occurred in the saloon of Deputy Sheriff Jose Padilla. George was arrested and sent to jail at Los Lunas.

Says the Albuquerque Citizen in yesterday's issue: "The lid, from all indications was not on very tight yesterday," and then relates the story of a row in the rear of the saloon of Graham Brothers on Sunday which resulted in the arrest of Antonio Armijo and C. R. Kelley. Refugio Aragon was badly battered up in the fight. Armijo was discharged by the police judge and Kelley was fined $10.

SNEAK THIEF AT LAS VEGAS

A sneak thief invaded the Commercial Club at Las Vegas on Sunday morning. He stole a railroad pass, $10 in cash and a number of trinkets belonging to Alfred Luckett and $5 from the billiard room of the club. He also opened all the letters in the mail department and scattered them over the floor.
