Published: Friday, September 6, 1991

In statements to reporters on Sept. 4, Eulogia Bocanegra, president of United Panamanian Teachers (Magisterio Panameno Unido-MPU), said the union had called a two-day strike to pressure the government into paying benefits and back wages, and implementing job security for teachers. The strike commenced Sept. 5. (Basic data from ACAN-EFE, 09/04/91)
