SENATE TO OUST BURTON OF KANSAS

Unless That Gentleman Resigns His Office.

TO DECIDE UPON ACTION

Effect of Recent Supreme Court Decision Now Being Considered.

Washington, May 22.—The Senate today directed the committee on elections and privileges to investigate the effect of yesterday's decision by the Supreme Court in the case of Senator Burton of Kansas. A resolution was offered by Senator Hale and was as follows:

"Resolved, that the committee on privileges and elections be directed to examine into the legal effect of the late decision of the Supreme Court in the case of Joseph R. Burton, Senator from Kansas, and as soon as may be, to report their recommendations as to what action, if any, shall be taken by the Senate."

The resolution was adopted without debate. It is thought Burton will be ousted by the Senate unless he voluntarily resigns.

Beveridge Wants the Credit. Special to the New Mexican.

Washington, May 22.—Reports in the corridors of the Capitol today were to the effect that, unless the joint conference committee on the Hamilton statehood bill would make speedier report, Senator Beveridge would endeavor to attach the joint statehood bill as passed by the Senate as an amendment to one of their appropriation bills still to be passed. It is claimed that the Foraker contingent and the Democratic Senators have enough votes to pass the Hamilton bill as a rider to one of the appropriation bills: this Senator Beveridge desires to prevent unless he himself can accomplish it and get the credit for it.

Washington, May 22.—The confirmation of B. S. Rodey, former delegate in Congress from New Mexico, as United States judge for the district of Porto Rico was yesterday favorably reported by the Senate committee on judiciary.

DESERTED AFTER TWENTY YEARS

Woman Leaves Father of Her Offspring.

SURPRISE FOR CHILDREN

Mother Tells Them Their Parents Were Never Married. Can Take Choice.

New York, May 22.—After living 20 years with a man to whom she was never legally married, and raising a large family of children, one of whom has married and is a father, the woman who has lived as the wife of Anthony Cagnard has deserted Cagnard in his old age and was yesterday married to Gustave Van Houter, a young Frenchman.

Van Houter lived with the Cagnards. He is thirty-seven years old. His bride, who has known him for two years, has big, black eyes and wavy black hair, but she is a matronly looking woman, 48 years old.

In the house are assembled Anthony Cagnard, 60 years old; his son, Charles, 18 years old, who married last September; his son, George, 13 years; and his daughter, Mary, 11 years.

Mate of Twenty Years Must Go.

To the younger Cagnards Mrs. Van Houter addresses herself. "My dear children, who have blessed my union with Anthony Cagnard, I must tell you that I never married your papa. I have at last met the man whom I love, Gustave, here, and I have married him as I had a perfect right to do. I pay the rent for this house and I own the furniture."

"Cagnard cannot remain here. I give you your choice. You can live with us if you choose, but if you desire to go with your father you must leave with him tonight."

"I am thunderstruck—shocked," cries Charles Cagnard. Then he checks himself and adds mournfully: "But I will not speak ill of my mother. Father," he says, extending his hand, "offer you my home."

Old Cagnard grasps his hand. The second son, George, joins them. But little Mary, black haired, like her mother, throws herself in Mrs. Van Houter's arms, exclaiming:

"I will stay with my mamma."

Tires of Him When He Grows Old. Cagnard here packs up his belongings and departs with his sons. Little Mary kisses him goodbye, but being a married woman, Mrs. Van Houter does not.

Mrs. Van Houter said:

"I, a widow of Perre Fernalis, met Anthony Cagnard, an expert silk weaver, in Paris in 1886 and at his proposal we agreed to live together as man and wife. We came to this country in 1890, bringing along our first born, a son. We settled in Paterson, where Cagnard worked as a weaver. Our lot was a happy one. "But in the last five years Cagnard seemed to grow old quickly and he became nervous, ill tempered and dissatisfied. Everything appeared to displease him—his clothes, meals, my dress, and the conduct of the children brought growls from him. I could do nothing with him and he abused me shamefully. Cagnard beat me and for that reason I left him. I love Gustave."

HEAT AND COLD FAIL TO AWAKE SLEEPER

Philadelphia Man Has Been Unconscious Forty-seven Days Puzzles the Physicians.

Philadelphia, May 22.—In a strenuous effort to arouse William Schnable, who for forty-seven days has been in a state of coma in the nervous department of the Philadelphia hospital, physicians today applied an electric needle to his spine for nearly an hour. There was no response.

It was suggested then that alternate plunges of hot and cold water be tried. Two large tubs were brought into the operating room, one filled with cold water and the other with water at a scalding temperature. Between the tubs the doctors rigged up a seesawlike arrangement, and Schnable was placed on the board. The sleeping man was then rolled into the cold water. This was repeated a dozen times without arousing him. The physicians now are convinced that all efforts to arouse Schnable are useless, and that his death is only a matter of how long he will be able to subsist on the liquid nourishment administered once a day.

HARRISON AGAIN BE CANDIDATE

Former Mayor Carter H. Harrison Willing to Try Again if He Can Secure Nomination.

Chicago, May 22.—The Journal today announces that Edward Lahiff, formerly Secretary to Carter H. Harrison, has declared in a letter to a prominent business man that Harrison will be a candidate for mayor in the spring. Harrison would not confirm the report, saying he did not know as he wanted to be mayor again or that he ever could secure the nomination.

CORONER'S LIST NUMBERS 385

New Victims of Disaster Found Yesterday.

BANKS OPEN FOR BUSINESS

Rush for Money Failed to Materialize—Many Deposit Funds.

San Francisco, May 22.—Four cases were added to the coroner's list of earthquake and fire victims yesterday. The bodies were found in the ruins in different parts of the city. Only one William Barnip was identified. The coroner's list now numbers 395.

Many Injured. San Francisco, May 22.—Besides several scores of employees and patients injured in the collapsing of Agnew's insane asylum on the morning of the earthquake, there were 108 killed according to the list of dead just completed. Of the dead, 11 were employees and 97 patients.

No Rush for Funds. San Francisco, May 22.—The commercial banks opened their doors yesterday but the expected rush for money did not materialize. More money was deposited than was withdrawn.

Other Banks Reopen. San Francisco, May 22.—That absolute confidence reigns in banking circles here was made evident today when several more big savings institutions announced they would open their doors for business tomorrow morning. This announcement came in the nature of a mild surprise, for it had been agreed that these savings institutions would not open their doors until next Monday. Many of the savings institutions which will resume tomorrow instead of next Monday give as reason that it is for the public good as well as its financial policy to thus demonstrate the stability of the banks.

DIVINITY STUDENT BEATS TRADESMEN

Takes Course in Theology and Leaves Town Owning Several Hundred Dollars.

Chicago, May 22.—H. Harvey Mullan, a divinity student, one of the most popular members of the theological department of the University of Chicago, has disappeared, owing $600 or more, partly from fellow students and the rest bills due to tradesmen. He conducted a large cafe at 652 Fifty-seventh Street and paid his expenses through college with the profits of his establishment.

Previous to his disappearance Thursday night Mullan declared at the dinner table that he would sell meal tickets for a week for 50 cents less than the regular amount charged, which was $3.50, and the boarders, who numbered over 100 and who were all students, scrambled to get the tickets at the reduced rates. It is figured he took in at least $100 in this manner.

Walters Lend Small Sums.

After his last boarder had left Mullan is alleged to have borrowed from his waiters, who were all students working their way in part through the university. Nearly all of them offered him sums from $1 to $50. One student gave all he had, which was $50. Grocerymen, butchers, bakers, milkmen, and laundries in the vicinity of the university, who held bills against Mullan in the neighborhood of $400, had been promised their pay Friday morning, and when they came to collect they learned that Mullan had disappeared, leaving no word behind. They declare he had run up bills for months, changing from one merchant to another to avoid paying.

Yesterday morning Mullan's creditors got together. They figured they were out in the neighborhood of $600 or $700.

Chicago, May 22.—Judge Landis today in the United States district court, issued an order restraining Wilbur G. Voliva and all his attorneys, agents and employees from disposing of or in any manner dissipating the assets of the estate of Zion City. An order declaring Dowie insolvent was entered by the court.

MURDERERS MUST NOW PAY PENALTY

F. Hotman and A. Myers to Hang on June 29.

CRIME MOST REVOLTING

Pair to Put Woman's Husband Out of Way That They Might Continue Illicit.

Jefferson City, Mo., May 22.—The State Supreme Court today upheld the death sentences imposed by the lower court in the cases of Frank Hotman and Mrs. Aggie Meyers, convicted of murdering the woman's husband, at Kansas City and set for June 29 as the date of the execution.

Crime Most Brutal.

Kansas City, May 22.—The murder of Clarence Meyers by his wife and Frank Hotman, her lover, was one of the most cold blooded ever recorded in police circles. Meyers was a printer and lived with his wife in a small cottage, on the outskirts of the city. Hotman was a frequent caller. Hotman and Mrs. Meyers, it developed at the trial deliberately planned to get Meyers out of the way so they could marry. On the night of the murder, the woman let Hotman into the house. Hotman struck Meyers with a billiard cue and he called for help to his wife. In reply she stabbed him in the back repeatedly with a pair of scissors and then held him while Hotman finished the job. Mrs. Meyers gave Hotman money with which he fled to the west where he was arrested and confessed, implicating the woman.

MISER LEAVES FOR TUNE TO CHURCH

After Life of Penury and Squalor Aged Gardener Gives Thousands to Catholics.

Laramie, Wyo., May 22.—The will of Peter Kearney, an old English gardener, who died a few weeks ago, after a life of penury and economy, after residing in this town for the past twenty years was probated in the district court here today, and it was found that all the estate of $6,500 is left to the St. Lawrence Roman Catholic Church of this city. The deceased made his living by odd jobs and was not supposed to be worth any money. He had no relatives.

ANTHRAX FEVER KILLS MANY HOGS

At Penitentiary--76 Succumbed Since January First.

PREVENTATIVE MEASURES

Character of Disease Which Attacks Domestic Animals Contagious—Dangerous.

As the result of anthrax fever contracted seventy hogs have died at the Territorial penitentiary in the last few months. The epidemic started about the first of the year in the drove of 120 and yesterday when the veterinary surgeon, M. H. Deacon, began the process of vaccination there were fifty-six left. It is thought that those which were vaccinated will be saved, as vaccination is believed to be a cure for the disease.

Anthrax fever on account of its frightful mortality, is one of the most dreaded diseases that attacks the brute creation. It usually occurs in the form of an epidemic, and an outbreak of it means certain destruction to a large proportion of herbivorous animals in the path of its march. Horses, cattle, mules, sheep, hogs and goats are the sufferers, and as these comprise the valuable domestic animals, the pecuniary loss is always heavy in the infected region.

Its progress is so rapid that stock owners rarely have time to adopt measures of relief when the disease has once made its appearance in the vicinity. Anthrax is also communicable to man and this adds greatly to its terrors.

Anthrax is a germ disease, the germs entering the body usually with food, but sometimes through sores or scratches in the skin. The germs may be carried a long distance without losing their virulence and may be conveyed to a farm, ranch or plantation in many ways. As the disease is contagious, one sick or dead animal may infect an entire herd.

In spite of the fact that the disease has existed at the penitentiary for some time, such care has been taken to avoid the spread of the epidemic, that as far as known there has not been a single case reported outside of the one drove. It is believed the swine at the penitentiary have now been immunized so that there seems to be little fear of a contagion.

ANTONIO JOSEPH INTERESTING TALK

Great Improvement in Hotel and Bath Houses.

GRASSHOPPERS HURT CROPS

Former Delegate Favors Single Statehood—Will Support Joint if Necessary.

Hon. Antonio Joseph, the well known proprietor of the Hot Springs health resort at Ojo Caliente, spent today in the city on personal business. Mr. Joseph is one of the prominent citizens of the Territory, having represented New Mexico for five consecutive terms in the House of Representatives of the National Congress and having held various other positions of trust and honor in his county and district. He served as probate judge of Taos County as well as several terms as a member of the council from the northwestern legislative district.

Improvement in Baths and of Hotel. To a representative of the New Mexican Mr. Joseph said:

"I am on my way to Denver, where I propose to purchase building and other material for the improvement and extension of the hotel and bath houses at Ojo Caliente. There are now fifteen bath tubs at the establishment, which within a month will be increased to 20; these will be modern and of the best approved type now known. The chemical ingredients of the water of the hot springs are so strong that only the best porcelain tubs will withstand their action and even these must be renewed at times. The resort has been doing quite well during the past several winters, as the winter climate there is very equable and as most of the hot springs and health resorts in Colorado and northern New Mexico are closed for the winter, while the Ojo Caliente resort is kept open all the year around. The hotel facilities concerning rooms and cuisines are good and are being improved constantly. About fifty guests can be accommodated there now very comfortably. The trip from Baranca station on the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad is over a level road and I have comfortable conveyances for passengers. Mail and express matter is carried daily, and sojourners at the hotel and at the springs have regular and quick mail and express facilities with the railroad station at Baranca. Marvelous cures are being effected right along by the use of the waters and although I have been acquainted with the curative properties of the springs since my childhood and for many, many years, I must say that the more I learn of the beneficial affect of the waters, the more am I convinced that in many cases of paralysis, rheumatism, gout, atrophy of the nerves, locomotor ataxia and similar ailments, they are as good if not better, than any on this continent. This is becoming known throughout the country and hence the influx of healthseekers."

Conditions in Ojo Caliente Valley.

"In the valley of the Ojo Caliente, which is about fifty miles long and which stream has its source in the Conejos mountains in Colorado and empties into the Chama River, the prospects for crops are excellent this year; the greatest drawback, however, is the presence of millions of grasshoppers. These insect pests I fear will destroy the crops and if so many farmers in the valley will be in a bad fix. "Last year there were some grasshoppers and a good many army worms there and the damage was considerable, but this year it looks as if it would be much greater. Were it not for these insects, the valley would raise the largest crops in its history. The people there are mostly sheep owners and are doing very well with their sheep this year; losses have been few, lambing is going on finely and the increase will be fully from 95 to 105 per cent it is expected. The grade of the sheep in that section has been improved of late years, and, therefore, the fleeces will be better and bring higher prices. Were it not for the grasshoppers this would certainly prove a very profitable season for the people in the Ojo Caliente Valley."

New Settlers in El Rito Valley.

"Settlers are going into the valley of El Rito creek, where a reservoir and irrigation system is under construction. The New Mexico Irrigated Lands Company has constructed a reservoir and built several miles of ditches this spring and quite a number of homeseekers have come there, purchased land under the company's reservoir system and have settled. The El Rito Valley contains quite a large amount of as fine agricultural land as there is anywhere in the southwest, especially suitable for fruit raising and the best of cereals. Upon the whole the people of the section of Rio Arriba and Taos Counties adjacent to the hot springs are prosperous and contented."

The Statehood Question.

"The New Mexican knows very well," said Mr. Joseph, "that I have always been a strong advocate for statehood for New Mexico and have done my level best while in Congress to obtain single statehood for our people. Bills granting single statehood to this Territory were passed three times by the House of Representatives."

BOILER EXPLOSION INJURIES WORKMEN

Accident in Glue Factory Threatens Many Lives.

LABORERS IMPRISONED

30 Employees Rescued From Blazing Building After Narrow Escape From Death.

New York, May 22.—Nearly a hundred men were badly injured today by an explosion in the plant of the New York Glue Company at Shadyside, New Jersey, opposite this city. A four story brick building, 100 by 200 feet was completely wrecked and many outbuildings were torn to pieces. There were five hundred men in the building at the time of the explosion. Many of the injured are in such a bad condition that it is feared they will not recover. Rescuers found there were twelve men imprisoned in the burning debris and after a frantic effort to rescue them two were taken out fatally injured when the flames drove the rescuers back.

Later information proved that those who were endangered by the fire were rescued. In the confusion which followed the explosion many reports of serious loss of life gained strength, but investigation proved them all untrue. A score of men employed in the engine and dynamo rooms were more or less injured. Some thirty men who were in the building had a narrow escape from death but all were taken from the blazing ruins by their fellow workmen. The disaster was caused by an explosion of a big steam pipe.

ENGLISH PAPERS COPY AMERICANS

Whitehall Reid Tells British Newspaper Men too Much Yankee Slang is Bad.

London, May 22.—Whitehall Reid, the American ambassador, presided to-night at the annual dinner of the newspaper press fund at the Hotel Metropole. In proposing the prosperity of the fund he referred to the impression of the overseas observer of the English press and said that if the English people knew something of the press which they did not have they would appreciate fully the press they had.

He said he would not tread on the smoking lava fields by a discussion of the comparative merits of saffron and blue journalism, nor debate the nature of news manufactured or the legitimate scope for the fine art of window dressing in the display news. Without being accused of American boastfulness, he might say some American newspaper editors seemed to be traveling across the Atlantic. In view thereof he deprecated English support of the constant corruption of their common language and wished England had a little less admiration for American slang.

Mr. Reid concluded by suggesting the formation of an international alliance for the preservation of the English language.

ANARCHISTS CELEBRATE BERKMAN'S RELEASE

Meeting Joyful Over Appearance of Man Who Magnate's Life.

Detroit, Mich., May 22.—Three of the most noted anarchists in the United States today, Emma Goldman, Alexander Berkman and Carl Noid, are now in Detroit. They are stopping temporarily at the home of a friend of Miss Goldman, at 167 Hale Street. Their object in meeting here is to hold several propaganda meetings and to celebrate the event of the release of Berkman from prison near Pittsburgh after serving fourteen years at hard labor for the attempted assassination of H. C. Frick of Homestead fame.

Berkman arrived in Detroit late Friday and was met at the Michigan Central depot by Emma Goldman and Carl Noid, the man who served five years with Berkman upon the charge of being implicated in the same crime, although Berkman emphatically states that Noid was an innocent man and had no connection with the plot upon Frick's life.

REPUBLIC WITHDRAWN FROM BUCKEYE STATE

Subsidiary Concern of Standard Oil Will No Longer Do Business in Ohio.

Columbus, Ohio, May 22.—The Republic Oil Company, a subsidiary of the Standard Oil Company, today announced to the secretary of state its withdrawal from Ohio.

WOOL MARKET IS QUIET AND STEADY

Boston, May 22.—The wool market is quiet and steady. The stock is well cleaned up and is being removed by the manufacturers from the warehouses. This is taken to indicate that there is no reduction in the consumption of raw material. Fleece wools are comprehensively dull.

FURTHER REPORT ON OIL INDUSTRY

OF STANDARD'S METHODS

Recent Message to Congress Handles Only Small Part of his Investigation.

Washington, May 22.—Commissioner of corporations, James R. Garfield, stated today that he would submit to the President further information on the result of his investigation of the oil industry. The report recently submitted to Congress only covered the question of transportation and freight rates and Commissioner Garfield is now engaged in preparing reports on the production and refining of oil, the control of pipe lines, organization, foreign trade and conditions and competitive methods.

GAS MAGNATE GOES TO JAIL

President of Rich Denver Corporation Scored for Refusal to Testify.

Denver, May 22.—Henry L. Doherty, president of the Denver Gas and Electric Company and general manager of the McMillan syndicate of gas and electric companies with headquarters in New York City, appeared before District Judge Frank Johnston's court yesterday afternoon and was called upon to testify as to what he knew regarding the matter of alleged bogus tax receipts used in the recent election. On advice of his attorney, Joel A. Valle, he refused either to testify or to be sworn and an order was immediately issued by the court committing him to jail.

Soon after Mr. Doherty's commitment, on application of attorneys representing the election's commission, a temporary order was issued by the supreme court restraining District Judge Johnson from proceeding further with his investigation of vote on the franchise at last week's election until Monday next, when he must show cause why he should not be permanently restrained. Subsequently the supreme court ordered that Mr. Doherty be released in bonds of $500. This order was based on an application for a writ of habeas corpus. Mr. Doherty was immediately given his liberty. During the day several employees of the Denver Gas and Electric Company were put on the stand in Judge Johnson's court and questioned as to their ownership of property for which tax receipts were alleged to have been voted. Some of the witnesses admitted that a high official of the Denver Gas and Electric Company had acted as their agent. Others admitted that they had only owned the property for a day or two prior to the election.

SOLDIERS' WIVES NOW IN REVOLT

Women at Fort Logan Complain That Major Augur Keeps Husbands From Visiting Homes.

Denver, Colo., May 22.—Half a hundred wives of United States soldiers have prepared a petition demanding the court martial of Major A. A. Augur. They will charge that for no other reason than to show his power he punishes the men on the slightest pretext, withholds their pay, and prevents them from visiting their homes outside the military reservation.

When a committee of the women appeared before the major recently and demanded better treatment for their husbands they were met by rebuffs. In all other military camps in the country except Fort Logan, near Denver, private soldiers who are married may live with their families outside the grounds.

Major Augur, according to the complaint, permits soldiers to visit their families only once a week. General Alexander Williams, in command of Fort Logan, is considering the case, but has not indicated what he will do in the matter.

GOVERNMENT IS READY FOR TRIAL

Men Indicted in Rebate Cases Will Appear for Alleged Conspiracy.

Kansas City, Mo., May 22.—The government today in the United States district court announced that it was ready for trial in three rebate cases. The cases called were those of George L. Thomas, a freight broker of New York and his chief clerk, J. B. Taggart, who are under indictments for alleged conspiracy in securing rebates for shippers, and against George H. Crosby, former assistant freight and traffic manager of the Burlington, who is charged with conspiracy in giving rebates. These men were indicted last December with other officials of railways and packing houses, whose trials are to be held later. The government has forty witnesses, among whom is J. A. Roberts, an expert on rates in the employ of the interstate commerce commission.

THE NECESSITY AND BENEFITS OF GOOD PUBLIC ROADS.

The question of the construction of good roads and their maintenance is attracting much attention in the western states and territories and it is right that it should be so. In New Mexico, the matter has been given some attention and the 36th Legislative Assembly passed a road law which, if properly executed, will bring about greatly needed improvement. So far, unfortunately, no great attention has been paid to the provisions of the law and not much progress is noticeable. It is singular that this is the case, as it is well established that the business men of any town of any size in New Mexico will be greatly benefited by the existence of good highways, leading from and to the settlements in their vicinity and within a radius of 50 miles and more, especially where there are no railroads. When the farmer, the cattle grower and his employees, the sheep raiser and his herders, the prospector, the miner, the hunter, the fisherman can reach a town comfortably and easily, and when he can travel in a buggy, in a wagon, or on horseback to reach such a town, the owner will be glad to do it and naturally the greater will be his trade and patronage. It is very plain, therefore, that every merchant, in the Sunshine Territory, should take special interest in the construction and maintenance of highways and public roads in every direction and to have such leading to and from the city, or town, or village, or settlement in which there are mercantile establishments, no matter how large or how small.

The Territory of New Mexico is doing splendid work in the construction of the Scenic Highway between Santa Fe and Las Vegas. The counties should follow suit and that speedily. The present highways and public roads should be straightened, shortened, repaired and kept in good shape and new public roads and highways should be constructed wherever necessary and where they will establish easier and speedier communication between and with the urban and the interurban population. In Missouri, which in the matter of good roads, seems to be almost as badly off as New Mexico, the physicians, the country doctors, have taken hold and are working hand in hand with the friends of the good roads movement, generally, to have proper and vigorous action taken by the state in the matter. The Kansas City Journal commenting upon this phase says that the advocates of good roads have found a powerful friend in the state assembly of physicians who have added their voices to the general demand for prompt relief from the intolerable conditions that prevail in the rural districts by reason of the lack of good roads. A country doctor can appreciate better than almost anyone the advantages of good roads, and the irremediable losses and privations that ensue from the lack of them. His practice takes him day and night over a wide area in the country, and often the life of the patient depends upon his ability to make the utmost possible speed. Under the conditions that have prevailed throughout the counties of the state during the past winter and spring, when as a rule it has been almost impossible to ride a horse along the country roads, the always laborious duties of the doctors have been rendered greatly more difficult and sometimes impossible to perform. If anything could add to the force of the argument in favor of prompt action in the matter of good roads, the petition of these enlightened and public spirited physicians ought to convince Governor Folk of the emergency of the case.

It is not a correct or fair statement of the matter to say, as some of the governor's organs assert, that the failure to call a special session of the legislature and the leaving of the question to the regular session next winter will mean a delay of only five months. Neither is it good logic to say that because the matter of good roads has been neglected for many years it can well wait a year or two longer. If a special session is called this summer the constitutional amendment can be submitted to the voters next fall and the work on the roads can begin in a very short time afterwards. If it is left to the regular session the amendment cannot be adopted before the fall of 1908, and no work can be done until the beginning of 1909. It means a difference of three years in getting the work started. And the fact that the good roads movement has failed to receive the encouragement and support of Democratic governors in all these years is all the more reason why Governor Folk should act promptly now to retrieve their and his past remissness.

THE DEATH PENALTY FOR MURDER IN NEW MEXICO.

"The verdict in the Houston murder case but makes stronger the conviction that the death penalty should be abolished in New Mexico. There is no possibility of its attainment except by accident and to pretend that there is, is making a mockery of the principle of blood atonement, and a farce of a well intentioned principle of law, while the effect on the outside world is extremely damaging. Better wipe it off the books than to continue under the present system of hypocrisy."—Roswell-Register Tribune.

The New Mexican's esteemed contemporary, the Roswell-Register Tribune, is not well informed on the situation. The death penalty in this Territory has been often imposed and often carried into effect. But a few months ago, John Conley was executed for murder in Taos County. On the 25th of this month, two men, Jose Arguello and John Medlock, are now under sentence of death, and in all human probability will be executed at Raton. That juries in some sections of the Territory have been lax and have not done their duty in murder trials in recent years is true. However, upon the whole, New Mexico juries will average very well with those in other sections of the country. The New Mexican generally does not believe in the death penalty for murder, but thinks that in New Mexico for some years to come that that penalty should be applied to persons found guilty of murder in the first degree. In due course of time, it is probable that the extreme penalty will be abolished in all of the commonwealths of the Union; in this Territory this time has not yet arrived.

The Albuquerque Fakir Journal says "that the location of the New Mexico Reform School at El Rito is against it and that it has aroused much dissatisfaction, owing to the inaccessibility of the place." The statement is untrue. When the site for the Reform School was selected it was deemed best to place it at some point twenty or thirty miles distant from a railroad. This was done by the 36th Legislative Assembly and for the purpose of having the school at a point from which the boys that would there be confined, could not as easily run away as they could from a point located nearer to or on a railroad.

Opinions of experts upon such subjects were procured and they agreed that it was better for all concerned to have the school located at a point away from large towns and from twenty to thirty miles distant from an operated railroad. Naturally, the advice of these experts was accepted and the school located at El Rito. It is in one of the most fertile valleys in the Territory where the inmates can be taught farming. It is in a fine and healthy location and just far enough away from a railroad to be as accessible as desired.

The eighth annual commencement of the New Mexico Military Institute at Roswell began yesterday and the ceremonies will close Thursday morning. They are elaborate and prove conclusively that the institute has grown satisfactorily since its institution and is today one of the best schools of its kind in the United States. The New Mexican will publish a special edition descriptive of these commencement exercises and of the Military Institute. This will be fully illustrated, will contain sixteen pages and will be printed on book paper. Several thousand copies will be distributed. The edition will be one of the finest and most valuable advertisements not only for the Military Institute, but also for the Territory at large that has ever been published by any paper in this Territory or elsewhere.

The completion of the Scenic Highway this summer in the Santa Fe Canon should result in the establishment of a summer colony near Monument Rock. Of course, the canon lacks some of the attractions of California, such as fleas, earthquakes, mosquitoes and $10 a day hotels and those who are brought up to have the best at any cost would miss these inevitable adjuncts of life in California, but for ordinary mortals two weeks or three spent in the shadow of the Lake Peaks or among the pines of the Dalton Divide would afford enough of rest and recreation amidst nature's most sublime manifestations to compare with a trip to the Alps. It isn't every town that has at its very doors the best to be had in mountain, stream and forest.

There has been too much peanut politics in the U. S. Senate of late on the part of Democratic Senators and this has brought about a still greater weakening of a weak party in Congress. As this seems to be destiny, there is but little to be said about it. It is pretty well established that men like Senator Bailey of Texas, Senator Tillman of South Carolina, and Representative John Sharpe Williams, of Mississippi, cannot pull the Democratic party out of the slough of despond in which it has been for some years. There will have to be a great change before the untiered Democracy can again hope for national success.

Abdul Hamid is not as big a fool as he looks. He claims to have been convinced in his recent controversy with Great Britain that he was wrong, and that John Bull's arguments were too strong for him. Twenty or thirty arguments weighing from fifteen to twenty thousand tons each, carrying heavy batteries of from six to twelve inch guns with a complement of from four to six hundred men to each argument, would be conceded rather strongly by the ruler of any country that had ports to defend. Whenever such strong arguments appear, Abdul Hamid can be depended upon to do what is right.

The New Mexico potato is an aristocrat. It loves to dwell on mountain peaks and the best tubers are raised on the peaks of the Pecos, Sacramento and Black ranges. Fortunately, the Territory has enough of its acreage at an elevation of 10,000 feet and more to give ground sufficient for raising all the potatoes that are consumed in the Southwest. Potato farming is profitable and easy and it is a wonder that instead of 50,000 bushels a year the farmers of New Mexico do not raise annually half a million dollars worth of the tubers.

As usual in the spring, billions of gallons of water flow to waste down the Santa Fe River, while thousands of fertile acres nearby lie unproductive on account of the lack of water. It will not always be thus, for according to California rates, the water flowing to waste again in the Santa Fe River this spring is worth anywhere from half a million to two million dollars. But why wait a hundred years before making use of this wealth when it might bring prosperity and riches to Santa Fe this very year?

A summer normal which would meet annually somewhere on the Scenic Highway, in the Santa Fe Canon or on the upper Pecos, would prove a success from the start. A large assembly tent and a score or two of smaller tents furnished for camping would be about the expense attached to initiating a movement that in time would prove a source of great revenue to this city and of corresponding profit and pleasure to scores and hundreds of teachers and other visitors.

The new jury law did not give Sandoval County the kind of grand jury it ought to have had, but on the other hand, it produced a grand jury in Lincoln County that is a wonder, for in less than a week it returned 34 indictments that bid fair to rid the county of its horse thieves and pistol totes. It is not jury laws that produce good juries but the character and temper of the people from among whom the jurors are drawn that count.

"The alert Wichita Eagle loses no time in denouncing the 'scheme of the octopod grafters of the Sni hills to have the government spend 20 millions dollars pulling snags from the Missouri River.'"—Kansas City Star.

What is this all about anyway? The New Mexican people would like to know.

A plain, simple citizen remarked the other day concerning the doings of Congress in the freight regulation bill and the joint statehood bill: "I cannot keep up with Congress, it is too much for my mind." This citizen has the satisfaction of knowing that he is not the only one in that fix. Even if he lives in Santa Fe. There are others.

Philadelphia department stores are up to snuff. They know how to catch the people of that town. In one store in the City of Brotherly Love, people can have their stockings darned while they wait. As nearly everybody in the town has more time than money, there are generally a good many people waiting to have their stockings darned.

News comes from West Virginia that there is trouble in the Republican party there and that this may cost Senator Elkins his re-election to the Senate. These reports should be taken with a grain of salt. Senator Elkins seems to have the situation pretty well in hand and the chances are that he will come out on top.

Consumers of oil throughout New Mexico assert that the quality of the oil now purchased by them is better and more satisfactory. Correct! That is why the 36th Legislative Assembly passed the act establishing the office of coal oil inspector and providing for the inspection of the product imported into this Territory.

The New Mexico Yellow Dog Sheets are not pleased with the policy of this paper. This is really too bad, nevertheless, what they cannot cure they will have to endure. The decent citizenship of the Sunshine Territory is with the New Mexican and that is exactly what it wants.

Word comes from Yokohama that Japan proposes to drive the American flag from the Pacific Ocean. Japan need not be at all in a hurry about the matter. The American Congress has done all it can already in that direction for many years past.

It is reported that U. S. Senator Albert J. Beveridge has lost interest in the Hamilton joint statehood bill, at least for the present. Had he done so six months ago, it would have been better for the people of New Mexico and Arizona. It is never too late to mend.

Those two removed commissioners of Quay County want to know "what's up?" They should have known enough to answer the letters they received from the executive office a few days ago. It is very discourteous not to answer letters.

Senator Morgan, of Alabama, threatens to start another speech in the United States Senate on the Panama Canal question. The old man's grudge against the people of the United States is evidently as strong as ever.

The Kansas City Star rejoices because the policemen of that city have acquired the habit of keeping the town clean. Here is a hint to the Santa Fe policemen that should not be lost. It is too valuable.

Ex-Senator Chandler of New Hampshire, hails from a town called Concord. This did not prevent him from creating as much discord between the President and several Democratic Senators as he possibly could.

Governor George Curry, of Samar, is of the opinion that the Puljanos on the island should be exterminated. Governor Curry is evidently correct in his views.

TAOS PUEBLO AND PICURIS

Indians Who Cling Tenaciously to Ancient Customs.

THRILLING CHRONICLES

At One Time Proud and Warlike They Led in Rebellions Against the Spaniards.

The Catholic Pioneer has begun the publication of a series of articles descriptive of the Indian pueblos of New Mexico. They are from the graphic pen of Father A. Jouveaneau and the data are obtained from reports of Catholic missionaries and from the invaluable records of the church and are therefore to be depended upon as being accurate and complete. The first article deals with the pueblo of Taos and Picuris, after a general introduction and reads as follows:

There are in New Mexico nineteen pueblos, inhabited by six different tribes, speaking six radically different languages. The names of these nineteen villages, together with their Indian names are as follows: Taos, or Tai-ga-tah; Picuris, or Wei-la-tah; Nambe, or Na-in-bai; Pojoaque, or Po-sun-gai; Santa Clara, or Kah-po; San Ildefonso, or Po-hua-gai; Tesuque, or Tai-to-gai; San Juan, or Kaj-kai; Cochiti or Ko-ty-ti; Santo Domingo, or Ki-hua; San Felipe, or Ka-ti-ya; Zia, or Tzia; Santa Ana, or Ta-ma-ya; Jemez, or Wa-la-nah; Sandia, or Na-plah; Isleta, or Tchi-ha-hul-pah; Acoma, or A-ko; Laguna, or Ka-hua-ko; Zuni, or Ha-lo-nah.

Following are the names of the six tribes or nations inhabiting these nineteen pueblos or villages; the Tiwas, the Teguans, the Queres or Taos, the Piro, the Jemez, and the Zunis.

Pueblo of Tesuque.

The village of Taos, Picuris, Sandia and Isleta, are inhabited by the Tiwas. The dialects of the Picuris and Taos Indians differ from those of the Sandia and Isleta Indians; however, they can understand each other without much difficulty, as the words are all derived from one common stock. Nambe, Pojoaque, Tesuque, San Ildefonso, Santa Clara, and San Juan belong to the Tegu tribe.

Their idiom is, to my knowledge, the most difficult of all the Pueblo languages; it contains an exceptional large number of harsh guttural sounds and many monosyllabic words. Cochiti, San Domingo, San Felipe, Zia, Santa Ana, Laguna and Acoma are the villages of the Queres nation, or I would rather say, the two last named villages are inhabited by the Queres proper, while the five others belong to the Taos, who are but a branch of the Queres. A slight divergence of pronunciation may be noticed between the Acomas and the Lagunas, but the dialects spoken by all of these villages are much the same. The inhabitants of Jemez constitute a tribe by themselves, with a language of their own, which has no analogy whatsoever with any of the other Pueblo idioms. Piro is the name given to the Indians inhabiting the pueblo of Piro, as also to the remnants of the Pecos, who have all but become extinct, or, as some historians assert, have been annihilated by the incursions of the wild Indians of the plains. The huge ruins of the Pecos village are situated six miles from the station of Glorieta, on the Santa Fe Railway. The Zunis, living in the pueblo of Zuni, about 45 miles south of Gallup, constitute a separate stock, with a language, customs and habits peculiarly their own.

The Moquis, or Hopis of Arizona, must also be classed with the Pueblo Indians, as they, too, live in communal villages and follow a similar mode of life, although their language and their superstitious practices are different from those of the other Pueblos. The seven Hopi villages are perched on three mesas, or high table-lands, or rather table-rocks. One of the villages on the first mesa is inhabited by a branch of the Tegu tribe which left their village on the Rio Grande and took refuge with the Hopis after the rebellion in 1680. The rest of the Hopis, or Moquis, belong to the Shoshonian nation.

The various idioms of the Pueblo tribes are so radically different one from the other that conversational intercourse between them is impossible. There is much radical difference between the various languages of the Pueblo tribes of New Mexico, as there is between the Gaelic, Hungarian, Russian, Turkish and German of Europe. However, as they all speak Spanish and understand it more or less fluently, that language is used in the conventional intercourse and in the transactions of business between the different villages.

Taos. The village of Taos is located in the northern part of New Mexico, eighty miles north of Santa Fe and about thirty-five miles from the Colorado border. It lies at the foot of the Taos Range, a spur of the Rockies, on a beautiful little river called Rio del Pueblo. Its altitude is more than 6,500 feet above the level of the sea. The town of Fernandez de Taos, which is the county seat of Taos County, is only three miles distant from the Indian village. The population of Taos is about 360; the pueblo consists of two immense communal houses, or buildings, erected in two long parallel rows, of five stories each. The form of the buildings is that of a terrace, i. e., each higher story is set well back upon the lower, so that the whole building presents the appearance of a pyramid, as Charles E. Lumis puts it. In the pueblo there are several stupas, built underground in circular form.

Picuris. Twenty-five miles south of Taos, crossing a range of mountains, which was not as yet received a geographical name, is situated the small Indian village of Picuris. The pueblo occupies the center of a small valley, the land of which is very fertile and well irrigated by a stream that empties four miles below into Penasco Creek. The Picuris Indians, like the Taos, belong to the Tiwas stock or nation. They cultivate the ground and raise enough grain for a scanty support. Their village, which is small, numbering about a dozen buildings, is of the same architecture as the other pueblos. While the Picuris, in and prior to the days of the conquest, possessed

PUEBLO OF TAOS.

Near the village, I would say, on one side of it, stand the ruins of the primitive Catholic Church, destroyed by the shells of the American troops when they, in 1847, besieged the Pueblo of Taos, under the command of Governor Bent, and punished the Indians for their rebellion. These ruins show the church to have been a building of very large and substantial proportions.

Cling to Old Customs.

The Taos Indians belong to the Tiwa tribe and are a tall, robust and healthy race of people. They adhere strictly to their old customs, so much so that school boys returning home for their vacation are allowed to wear their American dress only for two weeks, after which time they must don again the traditional blanket and the rest of their national costume. To these Indians is entrusted the charge of the sacred fire, which is kept burning in one of their castles for the purpose, as they say, of helping the Sun during the cold months of winter. The Taos Indians are noted for their agility and lightfootedness; they are the fleet of foot runners among the Pueblos, which may be owing to the fact that they are great Nimrods. The range of mountains near their village is rich in game of every kind.

The annual celebration of their national feast, San Gerónimo, on the 30th of September, always attracts a large crowd of visitors, Indians as well as Mexicans, who are anxious to witness their dances, footraces and other games. Their farming lands are the best in the Taos Valley and they get an abundant supply of water for irrigating purposes from the beautiful stream which runs through the pueblo. The people of Taos are industrious and self-supporting, but not very temperate; the proximity of Fernandez affords them many opportunities of indulging sometimes too freely in the use of intoxicating liquors.

Ancient "Braba."

Taos is probably the "Braba" or "Yuraba" mentioned by Coronado's chroniclers. On account of their remoteness from the center of the colonial government, the Taos Indians, during the time they were under Spanish rule, always manifested a spirit of independence. At the approach of Don Diego de Vargas, October 6th, 1692, the Indians fled away into the mountains, and the conqueror occupied their village without resistance. On October 8th the Indians returned to the village and submitted to the Spaniards. In 1694 they revolted again, and in July of the same year, de Vargas had to march his troops once more against them. The pueblo which had been previously abandoned by the Indians was ransacked by the soldiers, who pursued the enemy right into the heart of their mountain fastnesses. A large number of them perished in the ensuing fight, but the bulk of the Indians escaped, and it was only after the lapse of several years that perfect peace was restored among them. In 1691 the Taos Indians murdered their missionary, Fray Pedro de Miranda.

In 1837 the Taos Indians joined with the people of Chimayo in their uprising against the government of New Mexico, which, together with the murder of Governor Bent in 1847, bears testimony to the warlike spirit of the Taos Indians. At present, however, they are good, peaceful and law abiding people.

The Picuris Indians, like the Taos, belong to the Tiwas stock or nation. They cultivate the ground and raise enough grain for a scanty support. Their village, which is small, numbering about a dozen buildings, is of the same architecture as the other pueblos. While the Picuris, in and prior to the days of the conquest, possessed a large and populous village, they are at present reduced to a very small number. They seem to be rather slow and dull of comprehension, and with not any ambition of raising themselves above the level of their present shiftless condition.

The altitude of Picuris is nearly 8,000 feet above the level of the sea, and the valley is hemmed in by chains of mountains. In customs and habits they are like the rest of the Pueblos; in religion they profess the Catholic faith. Their church, built in the same style as the other Indian churches, is dedicated to St. Lawrence, the Martyr, and the 10th of August, the feast of San Lorenzo, is a gala day for the Indians and the Mexicans of the surrounding towns who come to witness the solemn Pueblo celebration.

When the pueblos rose up in 1680 to shake off the yoke of the Spaniards, the Picuris joined forces with the Taos; they attacked from the north, and contributed not a little towards the defeat of the Spaniards under O'ermín. At present only a few individuals occupy the village, which, three centuries ago, was a powerful pueblo, inhabited by more than 1,000 persons.

New England States
If anyone has any doubt as to the value of Foley's Kidney Cure, they need only to refer to Mr. Alvin H. Stomps, of Williamstown, Conn., who, after almost losing hope of recovery, on account of the failure of so many remedies, finally tried Foley's Kidney Cure, which he says was "just the thing" for him, as four bottles cured him completely. He is now entirely well and free from all the suffering incident to acute kidney trouble. Ireland's Pharmacy.

"What is your favorite play?" asked the girl who quotes Shakespeare. "Well," answered the youth with the hair, "I believe I like to see a man steal second as well as anything."

Not as Rich as Rockefeller.
If you had all the wealth of Rockefeller, the Standard Oil magnate, you could not buy a better medicine for bowel complaints than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The most eminent physician cannot prescribe a better preparation for colic and diarrhoea, both for children and adults. The uniform success of this remedy has shown it to be superior to all others. It never fails, and when reduced with water and sweetened, is pleasant to take. Every family should be supplied with it. Sold by all druggists.

"Johnnie, you shouldn't have eaten those preserved fruits. They were placed on the table merely to fill up." "Well, ma, that's just what I used them for."

Pirating Foley's Honey and Tar.
Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse and substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. Ireland's Pharmacy.

Sciatica Cured After Twenty Years of Torture.

For more than twenty years Mr. J. B. Massey, of 3322 Clinton St., Minneapolis, Minn., was tortured by sciatica. The pain and suffering which he endured during this time is beyond comprehension. Nothing gave him any permanent relief until he used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. One application of that liniment relieved the pain and made sleep and rest possible, and less than one bottle has effected a permanent cure. If troubled with sciatica or rheumatism why not try a 25-cent bottle of Pain Balm and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain. For sale by all druggists.

SAVED BABY LYON'S LIFE

Untold Suffering and Constant Misery—Awful Sight From that Dreadful Complaint, Infantile Eczema—Commenced at Top of his Head and Covered Entire Body.

MOTHER-PRaises CUTICURA REMEDIES

"Our baby had that dreadful complaint, Infantile Eczema, which afflicted him for several months, commencing at the top of his head, and at last covering his whole body. His sufferings were untold and constant misery, in fact, there was nothing we would not have done to have given him relief. The family doctor seemed to be wholly incapable of coping with the case, and after various experiments of his, which resulted in no benefit to the child, we sent to Mazon, Ill., to a druggist and got a full set of the Cuticura Remedies and applied as per directions, and he began to improve immediately, and in about three or four days began to show a brighter spirit and really laughed, for the first time in a year. In about ninety days he was fully recovered, with the exception of a rough skin, which is gradually disappearing, and eventually will be replaced by a healthy one."

"Praise for the Cuticura Remedies has always been our greatest pleasure, and there is nothing too good that we could say in their favor, for they certainly saved our baby's life, for he was the most awful sight that I ever beheld, prior to the treatment of the Cuticura Remedies. Mrs. Maehelle Lyon, 1826 Appleton Ave., Parsons, Kan., July 18, 1905."

Mr. Klefer died April 18th, and proof of death was sent to the sovereign camp on May 5th. Another evidence that fraternal insurance companies meet their death losses promptly.

Captain Fred Fornoff of the Mounted Police returned at noon today from Albuquerque, and will be in this city for several days. He states that Lieutenant Cipriano Baca has arrested Roberto Gonzalez for stealing a valuable horse from a rancher named Davis in Datil Mountains. Gonzalez is also said to be wanted on other charges. He was taken to the jail at Albuquerque where he is held pending the arrival of officers from Socorro County.

The building committee of Montezuma Lodge No. 1, A. F. & A. Masons, has perfected plans for the remodeling of the second story of the Masonic block on the south side of the Plaza. The work of tearing out the present story partitions and transforming the second story into a hall and rooms for Masonic purposes will commence at an early date, probably next week. The hall now occupied by the Masonic fraternity in the Kahn block will be rented to the Elks Lodge as soon as vacated by the Masonic fraternity.

DEMING OVERLANDE. T. Hannan and W. F. Brogan Make Trip in Thirteen Days—Enjoyable
But Tough at Times.

Edward T. Hannan and William F. Brogan formerly attaches of the editorial office of the New Mexican, have just returned from their three weeks' overland trip to the southern part of the Territory.

It will be remembered that they left here driving a light mountain wagon, drawn by two horses, in order to travel overland to Deming, and then south a distance into the Republic of Mexico, to become acquainted with the country, to get outdoor exercise, to hunt and shoot duck and small game, and to "rough it." It took them thirteen days to reach Deming, and their experiences on the route were varied and many. The roads in the valley of the Rio Grande for about two hundred miles south of here are not in good condition, but are very muddy on account of the many breaks and overflows in the ditches and the acquiescence in the valley. Traveling there is rather hard.

They crossed the Rio Grande near San Marcial, and then struck across Gornado del Muerto to Rincon. This was a waterless ride across a great plain, but as the road was hard and dry it was pleasant. From there they struck southwest to the mountainous region towards Deming, where they rested and then took a trip through the Florida Mountains, which was the end of their journey. They returned to Deming where they sold their team and wagon and came to Santa Fe by rail. They are bronzed and brown, greatly improved in health, and know more about New Mexico than they ever did before. Although rather hard, at times, the trip was greatly enjoyed.

In southern New Mexico water was scarce, and one day, their water supply having given out they had to lead their horses six miles to supply them with the life giving fluid. Their wagon and camp outfit they had to leave on the road. Twelve miles on foot leading two play-out horses, in southern New Mexico, on a rather warm day in May, is not as pleasant a task as people who have never undertaken it, may think.

They are glad to be back in Santa Fe, and say, after all, there is nothing south of here that can compare with the atmosphere, climatic conditions and scenery of the Santa Fe Valley.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES.

The schools in all the wards are busy on final reviews and examinations.

The new cement walk being built on the Fort Marcy Addition was completed this afternoon beyond the new high school building to Federal Street.

The grading in front of the new high school building is about completed and the rest of the work will be finished in a few days.

In the first ward, the foundation of the new school building was completed several days ago. The walls are now up nearly to the second story.

Manager Frank Owen of the Santa Fe Water and Light Company today installed the lighting fixtures in the new high school building. Everything is ready for the commencement exercises, which are to be held in the assembly hall of the new building, Friday night, May 25, at 8 o'clock. The city Board of Education has employed an orchestra to furnish music, and the exercises will be free to all. There will be seating capacity for 450 people.

Indian Territory Men Make Homestead Entries—Well Pleased With Country and Conditions.

H. H. V. Lipo, of Oologah, Indian Territory, and Frank Dowell, of the same place, were in town yesterday and located homestead entries on a section of land about six miles south and two miles west of Moriarty station on the Santa Fe Central. They left today for the Indian Territory in order to settle up their business affairs and return to their homestead claims to make an actual settlement and resident. Mr. Dowell is vice president of the Oologah Bank and Mr. Lipo is a farmer. He has traveled through the west for the benefit of his health for some time past and in going home, he heard of the Estancia Valley. He and Mr. Dowell went there and investigated and were so well pleased that they made homestead entries.

If you want anything on earth—try a New Mexican "ad."

Excursion to Albuquerque Sunday, May 27, 1906. Round trip fare, $2. Special train will leave Santa Fe depot at 7 a. m., arriving at Albuquerque 10 a. m., returning, leave Albuquerque 8 p. m.; arrive Santa Fe at 11:30 p. m. Everybody goes. Tickets on sale at city ticket office, and Kerr's Barber shop.

MARRIAGE LICENSE LAW.

The new marriage license law requires probate clerks to post three copies of the new law in conspicuous places in each precinct. The New Mexican has printed the law neatly on cardboard and is now ready to fill orders in English or Spanish at fifty cents for each poster. Probate clerks should enter their orders immediately.

PRESIDENTIAL POSSIBILITIES.

Word has lately gone forth that President Roosevelt favors Speaker Cannon for the next Republican nominee for President. A boom for Vice President Fairbanks is well under way and Secretary of State Root Secretary of War Taft, and Secretary of the Treasury Shaw are supposed to be willing to be President. Other Republican aspirants are Senator Foraker of Ohio, Senator La Follette, of Wisconsin, and Senator Warner of old Missouri.

There is less presidential talk among Democrats than among Republicans. The name of Bryan still has a silvery ring that pleases many ears. W. R. Hearst, alleged enemy of trusts, and advocate of municipal ownership is again seeking the nomination. Mayor McClellan of New York City has been suggested as a possible candidate, so has Mayor Tom Johnson of Cleveland. The South may be able to name the Democratic Standard Bearer in '08. Judge Parker says it deserves the privilege. Congressman John Sharp Williams of Missouri, Senator Bailey of Texas, and Governor Folk of Missouri, are most favorably considered now of the southern leaders of the party. All these notables would agree that the Bon Ton twenty-five cent meals are not a possibility but a reality.

The New Mexican Printing Company is prepared to fill promptly and satisfactorily all orders for engraved visiting cards, marriage announcements, invitations and all work of that kind. Prices as low as compatible with good work. Call at the New Mexican Office in the Southwest.

WORK WEAKENS THE KIDNEYS.

Doan's Kidney Pills Have Done Great Service for People Who Work in Santa Fe.

Most Santa Fe people work every day in some strained, unnatural position bending constantly over a desk—riding on jolting wagons or cars—doing laborious housework; lifting, reaching or pulling, or trying the back in a hundred and one other ways. All these strains tend to wear, weaken and injure the kidneys until they fall behind in their work of filtering the poisons from the blood. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys, put new strength in bad backs. Santa Fe cures prove it.

Pascual Yanni, boot and shoe repairer on the Plaza, residence College Street, says: "A man cannot sit on the bench, repairing shoes all day unless his back is extra strong. When it is weak, lame and pains continually, it becomes a positive nuisance with me mentioning the suffering he endures. If working at my occupation was not the primary cause of backache it certainly aggravated it. Much to my surprise and more to my gratification, a course of the treatment with Doan's Kidney Pills procured at Ireland's Pharmacy so washed, purified and strengthened my kidneys that the backache ceased."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

WEEKLY WEATHER BULLETIN

Climatological Service U. S. Weather Bureau, New Mexico Section.

Local Office, United States Weather Bureau.

Santa Fe, New Mexico.

For the week ending May 21, 1906. Fair weather prevailed at the beginning of the last week with rising temperature and the highest readings of the season were generally registered. The average for the week exceeded the normal temperature more than 3 degrees a day at Santa Fe, and nearly a degree a day at El Paso. Night temperatures were also higher and there was freedom from frost, resulting favorably throughout the Territory.

Light, scattered thunder showers developed in the lower Pecos Valley and the southeast district on the 16th and 17th and in the northeast counties on the 18th, becoming quite general over the Territory on the 19th and 20th. Some hail occurred, but as a rule it was light and caused little or no damage.

The higher temperatures have caused more rapid melting of the snow on the northern mountain ranges and streams are running full, very close to flood tide; in fact, some damage has already occurred along the Rio Grande. The following notes are from the reports of correspondents:

Albuquerque—H. M. Hanson—Clear, hot and somewhat windy weather prevailed during the week, and the soil is getting dry. Some lightning to the southeast during the evenings. The highest temperature was 90 degrees; lowest 41 degrees.

Albuquerque—Pitt Ross—Generally fair weather prevailed during the week, very little wind and rising temperature. Some wind and dust occurred on the 19th, followed by a light shower—0.05 of an inch; also windy and threatening the afternoon of the 20th.

Albuquerque—University of New Mexico—The highest temperature was 85 degrees; lowest 43 degrees.

Artesia—W. H. Benson—The weather continues favorable; 0.19 of an inch rainfall and heavier rain occurred in the vicinity; the highest temperature was 92 degrees; lowest 46 degrees.

Bloomfield—W. A. Baillinger—Ours was a fair week with considerable wind. A hail storm on the morning of the 12th (close of the previous week), caused some damage. The highest temperature was 88 degrees; lowest 41 degrees.

Carlsbad—Gerard H. Matthes—The week has been warm with more or less cloudiness. A refreshing shower with hail occurred on the 16th, amounting to 0.44 of an inch. The highest temperature was 97 degrees; lowest 47 degrees.

Casa Salazar—Isidora Mora—The past week has been warm and dry; the highest temperature was 92 degrees; lowest 48 degrees.

Chama—Geo. Huth—The highest temperature of the week was 75 degrees; lowest 30 degrees; no precipitation.

Rural Free Delivery.
Postmaster Paul A. F. Walter was notified today that the postoffice defor the establishment of a rural mail delivery route to start at Santa Fe and to include Agua Fria, Sunnyside, Canon Road from the city limits to the reservoir and Tesuque. The entire distance is twenty-eight miles and one trip daily is to be made over it. The number of houses served will be 230 and the population 805. Before the order is carried into effect, however, 180 house owners must pledge themselves to put up mail boxes which may be purchased at from 50 cents to $2 each. Delegate to Congress W.

H. Andrews, together with Postmaster
Paul A. F. Walter and Supreme Court Clerk Jose D. Serna have worked hard to secure the establishment of this route, and it is to be hoped that there will be no difficulty in securing a sufficient number of pledges for the erection of mail boxes, so that a rural carrier may be appointed by July 1.

That May will be a record breaking month for business done at the local shown by the number of entries of different kinds made in the district during the past twenty days. The Estanbers of settlers, 52 entries having been made in Torrance County since May 10, Bernalillo County is also making a good showing, 11 entries have been mine, of the Pittsburg and West More-

Morocco, for this port, and flying the American flag, was attacked by Moors, who took away some of her passen-about half way between Tetuan and Melilla, a number of Moorish fish-to hand over to them a number of Moorish passengers belonging to Beni

J. C. Maxwell, of the Maxwell Im-past week in this city and in the Es-fairs, left this evening for Wichita, Kansas, where he will remain for the coming two weeks. He expects to return to Santa Fe about the fifth or sixth of June with another party of intending homesteaders and settlers. The party will travel in a special car and will likely arrive via the Santa Fe Railway System. From here its members will be taken to the Estancia Valley by the Maxwell Company and agents where they will be given full opportunity to examine conditions and to select tracts for homestead entries.

This coming excursion will be the fifth, which Mr. Maxwell will have brought to the Territory. So far about 100 people have come here at his suggestion and under his guidance and fully three-fourths of this number have made homestead entries on the public domain in the Estancia Valley and intend to become permanent settlers. An office will be opened by the company at Melintosh, 60 miles south of here in Torrance County, which will be kept open for the information and benefit of intending homesteaders and settlers.
A. H. Bromelsick, a member of the Maxwell Immigration Company will be in charge of the Melintosh office. A townsite has been laid out and permanent improvements will commence at an early date. A few lots have already been sold and the company will soon be in shape for actual operations in that line. The tract of land for the town has been located with land scrip by the Estancia Valley Townsite and Development Company and, therefore, the title is good. The company will be ready in a few days to give warranty deeds for lots purchased.

Mr. Maxwell secured several hundred copies of the bulletins published by the Bureau of Immigration giving information concerning New Mexico and its counties and took this litera-

INTERESTING TALK

tives, while I was the Delegate from New Mexico, but the Senate declined to concur. I am for separate and single statehood for the Territory if it can be had, but I am for statehood first, and all of the time and will work for and support the joint statehood cause should Congress pass the pending joint statehood bill; especially, as to me it seems to contain some very good provisions and benefits to our people. Of course, the contents of the constitution and of the enabling act will have much to do with my future action, but I believe both these instruments will contain provisions, which will be acceptable and which I can loyally support and advocate.
There is not much talk in my section concerning the matter and work will have to be done to arouse the people and explain to them the great importance of the subject. With proper effort on the part of both political parties in the Territory, this I think can and will be done.

NO DEAD MAN FOUND NEAR GRAHAM
Story Told El Paso Police Proves to Be Fake. Says Sheriff of Las Cruces.

The El Paso Herald says that Jose
R. Lucero, sheriff of Dona Ana County, came down to El Paso from Las Cruces and yesterday went out to the Graham ranch in order to investigate the story of the dead man said to have been found at the ranch and near the banks of the Rio Grande River. The report was brought into the police station Saturday by one of the Graham boys, who declared to Captain Greet that the body had been found near the river and that there were some evidences that would lead to the belief of foul play.

As the Graham ranch is in New Mexico, the local county authorities had no right to investigate the case, and the sheriff's office at Las Cruces was notified.

Acting on this information, Sheriff Lucero went out to the Graham ranch yesterday and made a thorough investigation. He declared this morning that he was unable to find any sign of a dead man and that according to the best information which he could obtain the story was a hoax which was gotten up for the purpose of playing a joke on the officers here.

He declared that nobody at the ranch knew anything about the finding of the body, and that he had dropped the case. Sheriff Lucero will return to Las Cruces tonight.

TWO LIFE SEN-

The Territorial grand jury at Linindictments. Five of the defendants entered pleas of guilty and four were sentenced by Judge Edward A. Mann

as follows:

Paz Otero, murder, 99 years in the penitentiary.
Charles Bell, larceny, not yet sentenced.
Thomas Price, two counts for larceny, two and a half years in the penitentiary.

Fred Emilio, larceny, two and a half years in the penitentiary.
Carlo Lobato was found guilty of carrying deadly weapons and Abram Miller of killing cattle.

ROSSELL MILITARY INSTITUTE VICTORIOUS
In Hotly Contested Game They Defeated Albuquerque McIntosh Browns.

Special to The New Mexican.
Roswell, N. M., May 22.—In the match game between the baseball team of the New Mexico Military Institute with the McIntosh Browns of Albuquerque, the most hotly contested game of the season on the ball grounds of the Institute today the Browns were shut out by the Military Institute team by a score of 1 to 0 yesterday. Brail secured a hit in the first inning; Over-lock sacrificed and Brail scored on Hester's clean drive to center. A feature of the game was Hester's pitching and his perfect support; only twenty-nine men facing him, two reached second, and one reaching third. The visitors made three scratch hits to four hits made by the Institute team, the latter playing an excellent game of ball. The Browns were unable to hit at critical times.

Summary: Struck out, by Gallegos, 8; by Hester, 9. Bases on balls, Gallegos, 1.
Batteries—Gallegos and Neher for the Browns, and Hester and Lohman for the Institute.
