Panama: Feasibility Study On Privatization Of Telecommunications Company

by Deborah Tyroler

Category/Department: General

Published: Wednesday, September 11, 1991

On Sept. 4, Francisco Denis, director of the state-run telecommunications company, told reporters that the Panamanian government will pay $200,000 to US firm Coopers Lybrand to conduct a feasibility study on privatization of INTEL. The study is to be concluded by year-end. (Basic data from AFP, 09/04/91)
