In a statement released April 13, the National Marketing and Storage Enterprise (Empresa Nacional de Almacenamiento y Comercializacion-ENAC) said private sector exporters will sell 30,000 tons of rice and 20,000 MT of corn between April and June this year. In addition, contracts for importing 20,000 MT of sugar have been concluded. The Industries, Commerce, Integration and Fisheries Ministry is responsible for authorization of corn and rice exports. The government's Monetary Board (Junta Monetaria) has authorized a $7.6 million credit line for the sugar imports. (Basic data from AFP, 04/13/91)
