To Protect Herself—Son Files Strong Suit For Accounting of Valuable Property.

Concord, N. H., March 2.—All developments regarding the bill in equity filed yesterday to secure an accounting of the financial affairs of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy head of the Christian Science Church, organization, are awaited with great interest. The science leaders are much surprised. All of the defendants viz.: Calvin A. Frye, Irving C. Tomlinson, Herman S. Herring and Lewis C. Strang of this city; Alfred Farlow, T. O. Knapp, William B. Johnson and Joseph Armstrong, of Boston; Edward A. Kimball, of Chicago, and Stephen A. Chase, of Fall River, Massachusetts, are directors or trustees in the Christian Science Church.

Incappable of Conducting Own Affairs.
The petition filed by her son George W. Glover in detail affirms that Mrs. Eddy is incapacitated through infirmities incident to old age to manage her affairs and to protect her property with prudence and discretion against the undue influence, control or fraud of others, or to take charge and manage her present legal proceedings, and that Mrs. Eddy may be "under charge and in custody of the defendants Frye and Strang and very few persons are allowed to see her except for a few minutes."

Never Received a Direct Answer.
Glover further claims that for the last twenty-five years his letters to his mother have never had a direct reply from her, and from other matters relating to his attempts at correspondence, Glover states in the petition that "believes Mrs. Eddy is surrounded by designing persons who are using her condition for their own selfish ends."

Property of Great Value.
The petition then sets forth the expensive and valuable real and personal property of Mrs. Eddy and alleges the defendants and others "manage the same solely according to their own will and pleasure."

Wealthy Behind Strange Suit.
New York, March 2.—Public-spirited citizens, powerful and wealthy, according to the World today, are behind the suit instituted in the courts of New Hampshire by her son George W. Glover and other relatives, to secure an accounting of the financial affairs of Mrs. Mary Baker Glover Eddy, head of the Christian Science Church.

VICTIM OF WRECK INTERRED HERE
Luis Padilla, Who Lost Life at Trinidad, Laid to Rest in City of His Boyhood.

Funeral services were held at Guadalupe Church this morning over the remains of the late Luis Padilla who was killed last Tuesday in a railroad wreck at Trinidad, Colorado, a small station thirty-five miles northwest of Trinidad. The body was brought to this city last night from Trinidad, where it had been taken to be embalmed and prepared for burial. The deceased formerly lived in Santa Fe and was a son of Jesus Padilla, who resides south of the city near the Territorial penitentiary.

Particulars of the railroad accident were published in the New Mexican in a dispatch from Trinidad. At that time the identity of the victim had not been established. When papers found upon the body disclosed the unfortunate man's identity a telegram was sent to the father notifying him of his son's tragic fate. Mr. Padilla left at once for Trinidad and accompanied the remains to this city.

The deceased was twenty-eight years of age and as a youth lived in Santa Fe. During the past several years he had led a roving life. The railroad wreck in which he lost his life was caused by a head-on collision of freight trains, one of which was drawn by two locomotives. All three engines were demolished in the accident and thirteen cars were piled up in the wreckage.

Circumstances point to the fact that the young man was killed while stealing a ride on one of the freight cars. Although nominally "beating his way" on the train $77 in cash was found tied up in a belt around his waist.

According to advices from Trinidad the young man had been employed at various times as freeman and brakeman on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway but was out of employment at the time of the fatal accident. It is reported that he and three others were on one of the cars bound for Trinidad but three of his comrades were put off, thus probably saving their lives. Padilla was the only person killed in the wreck.

ENFORCEMENT OF CORPORATION LAW

District Attorney Gortner Explains Fully

SUITS OF BENEFICIAL EFFECT

Records Must Be Cleared—Facts as To Fees of Secretary.

A few days ago the Albuquerque Fakir Journal contained an alleged dispatch from Santa Fe about a column and a half long in which it was charged that Territorial Secretary James W. Reynolds made several thousand dollars in fees in cases of corporations which had not complied with the corporation law and had failed to furnish annual statements as required by law and in the cases of which suits had been filed in the First Judicial District Court for Santa Fe County by District Attorney R. C. Gortner, in accordance with the statutes and to punish these corporations for non-obedience of the law. As usual the dispatch was full of misstatements, falsehoods, provocations and misrepresentations of facts. It was charged that District Attorney R. C. Gortner intended charging a fee of $5 in each of the cases which fees were to enrich the aforesaid district attorney and add to his wealth in the sum of several thousand dollars. The following explanations by the district attorney, however, give the facts and figures which show the situation in its true light and prove the Fakir Journal's dispatch to be what is stated above:

Facts in the Case.
To The New Mexican:

My attention has been called to the article in the Albuquerque Morning Journal relative to the actions against corporations recently filed in the District Court here for failure to make annual reports. I think the Journal has misunderstood the law requiring these actions, the purpose of the officers who have been instrumental in enforcing this law, and the fees earned by such officers.

Section 48, Chapter 79, Laws of 1905, requires an annual report to be made by every corporation, foreign or domestic, holding a franchise from this Territory. This report contains information as to the progress of the corporation, the officers and their terms, the capital stock and the amount thereof outstanding. It is of value to the public and gives the creditors of such corporation or the party contracting with it some definite and accurate statement of the recent condition of the corporate body. In these days when the manipulating of corporations to the public injury is being exposed, it certainly is not much of an imposition to require all corporations holding franchises from a state to make a report once a year and pay one dollar for filing it. Two-thirds of the states have such a requirement; most of them going beyond the New Mexico law and making the officers and directors responsible to creditors of the corporation if the report be not filed. Our law simply makes the corporation liable to the Territory in a penalty of $300 for such failure.

For Protection of Public.
There are over 5,000 corporations on the secretary's books. Many of them are mining ventures, stock schemes, which have injured the Territory by their existence. Many are corporations of other states, which, holding their franchises here, perhaps are doing business with the sanction of New Mexico laws, but with no information concerning them less than ten or twenty years old on the secretary's records. Out of the 5,000 corporations mentioned, over 4,000 are absolutely defunct; notices mailed to them and to their stockholders and directors, come back undelivered. Of the remaining 1,000 about half are actually doing business.

Section 48, above mentioned, makes it the duty of the attorney general or any district attorney to institute an action for $200 penalty against every corporation which shall fail to make its report. Under this requirement, being the district attorney of the district where these corporations (when in default) have their situs and can be served, I checked over the lists; eliminated the companies known to be dead and gone, and had the notices required by law sent by the secretary to about 1,000 remaining. Many of these made the report; and as to all who failed, I brought the suit required by this law. The object of these actions is to clear up the records, lay aside the dead corporations, and bring the acting ones into the habit of making the reports required by the law, annually.

Fees Not Exorbitant.
The Journal seems to believe there has been a great deal of money in this. I have spent the better part of two months in the work, and have made in fees about $250. The Secretary has made one-third of that, or about $85. His office has been choked with this business for the past three months, occupying, at the Secretary's expense, a couple of extra clerks. There will be some more fees coming in probably not more than $100 additional. The Territory will get judgments against these corporations which will aggregate probably fifty thousand dollars; and perhaps ten per cent thereof will be collectable. The public will get the law complied with, and the benefit of up-to-date reports as to condition and officers, agents and directors, of corporations with whom we are doing business. As to the policy or benefit of the law I have nothing to say except that two-thirds of the states have similar or more rigorous statutes; but whether the statute be good or bad, it is the law; it requires these suits; and they have been filed and will be prosecuted so that this law is complied with, so long as it remains the law.

I understand further that some gentlemen with a nose for graft have discovered that it is my intention to charge five dollars per case filed under this law, against the Santa Fe County fund. I disclaim any such intent; these actions are not brought for the county of Santa Fe, and are not chargeable against its court fund according to law. I might as reasonably seek payment out of the funds of the Board of Education, or the funds for the improvement of the Rio Grande.

Very truly,
R. C. GORTNER,
District Attorney.

TALK SUBSIDY BILL TO DEATH

Democrats in Senate to Kill Important Measure

PANAMA CANAL BIDS

Result in Resolution in Senate Calling on President to Give Facts.

Washington, March 2.—What practically amounts to an agreement to talk the ship subsidy bill to death was reached by the Democratic Senators today. The understanding was the result of a conference on the floor of the Senate between the leaders of the minority and Representative John Sharp Williams and Representatives Sherley, the leaders of the minority in the House who were opposed to the passage of the bill by the House yesterday.

Carmack Leads Ship Subsidy Fight.
Senator Carmack said shortly after the Senate met that the "Senate will not concur in the amendments if I can get one or two men to help me, and I think I have them now."

Democrats Say Bill Must Die.
Chairman of the Democratic Senatorial Caucus Blackburn, gave notice to the Republican leaders that the Democrats would not permit the ship subsidy bill to pass the Senate before adjournment. Speaking of the matter afterwards he said, if necessary, the Democrats would talk until the gavel should fall on Monday.

Ship Subsidy Before Senate.
The ship subsidy bill as passed by the House was laid before the Senate at 1:30 this afternoon. Mr. Gallinger moved to concur in the House amendments. This was met with a motion by Mr. Burke to substitute the Burke resolution for an inquiry into the practice of railroad companies under the railroad rate law.

After the defeat of various dilatory motions, a general agreement was reached that the subsidy bill should be taken up for consideration at 5 o'clock today.

Fraud Alleged in Canal Contract.
Senator Tillman introduced today a resolution calling on the President for all the papers relating to the recent agitation of the question of having the Panama canal built by contract and not by the government.

Oliver had complied with all of the requirements, and that his bid had been rejected after a delay of a month or more. He expressed dissatisfaction with the course of the canal management and said his suspicion led him to believe that the intention had been to compel Oliver "to let in some competitors who were too greedy upon the first bid."

A BRIGHT AND MILD FEBRUARY

Not a Day Without Sunshine—Santa Fe's Climatic Superiority Emphasized By Official Statistics.

February just past had not one day without sunshine, in fact, there was not one day that had less than 11 per cent of possible sunshine and only six days that had less than 78 per cent of sunshine. There were eleven days that had 100 per cent of sunshine and the average for the month was 79 per cent. Only two days were classed as cloudy; 8 as partly cloudy and 18 as clear. There was only one day when the minimum temperature was below 20 and then it was 19 above zero, and only one day when the maximum was less than 44 and then it was 36. This remarkable record for the month of February which in the East was the worst month experienced for many years from a climatic standpoint, again proves the old repeated assertion that summer or winter, Santa Fe climate cannot be beat for equability, comfort, sunshine and dryness. The mean atmospheric pressure during February was 30.06; the highest 30.42, on February 7 and the lowest 29.53 on February 27. The maximum temperature was 57 degrees on February 20, the lowest 19 degrees on February 23, a range of only 38 degrees for the entire month. The greatest daily range was 32 degrees on February 8 and the least 15 degrees on February 17. The average temperature was 40 degrees or 7 degrees above the normal, the accumulated excess in temperature over the average since New Year being already 184 degrees or more than 3 degrees per day. The precipitation during the month was only .39 of an inch; the snowfall 1.8 inches. The greatest precipitation for any 24 consecutive hours was .16 of an inch, February 2 and 3, and February 24. Since New Year, there has been a deficiency in precipitation below the average of .6 of an inch. The prevailing direction of the wind was from the northeast; the total movement 5,492 miles, an average of only 8.2 miles per hour. The maximum velocity was only 34 miles per hour and blew from the Southwest on February 27. Not a single fog, sleet storm or hail occurred during the month but on Washington's birthday a thunderstorm was observed. The mean maximum temperature was 51.1 degrees and the mean minimum 28.6 degrees. The relative humidity was 54 per cent; at 6 a. m. 65 per cent and at 6 p. m. 45 per cent. These are the official figures as furnished the New Mexican by J. B. Sloan, observer in charge of the Federal Weather Bureau in this city.

OFFICER KILLED MAN TO SAVE OWN LIFE

Roswell, N. M., March 2.—The verdict of the coroner's jury which was empaneled by Justice of the Peace A.

J. Weller to inquire into the death of Ramon Gillen, who was shot and killed by Night Chief of Police W. M. Whitt while the officer was trying to arrest him returned a verdict of justifiable homicide and the officer was released. It developed at the inquest that there were three eye-witnesses to the shooting. All of these testified to hearing the officer's cries for assistance, followed almost immediately by three shots. ### CREEL BECOMES CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR CHIHUAHUA

El Paso, Texas, March 2.—In a recent issue of Ambassador Enrique Creel's own paper, he announces himself a candidate for governor of Chihuahua at the election next June, the term beginning in October. This confirms the opinions here when Creel was made ambassador to the United States that he would accept only temporarily, as he could not afford to give up his interests here to remain long in Washington. However, he may alter his election, secure an indefinite leave of absence, as General Terrazas did and continue as ambassador.

CRUSHED TO DEATH BY BAD FALL OF ROCK.

El Paso, Tex., March 2.—Frank and Lopez, a contractor in the employ of the Comanche Mining and Smelting Company, was crushed to death in the Hearst mine at Pinos Altos recently by a fall of rock. At the time of the accident Lopez was working on the third level of the mine. Although rescuing parties went to work immediately it required several hours of hard work to dig out the unfortunate man and when he was found his body was crushed into an unrecognizable mass. Had he stepped back two feet he would have escaped the fall. The dead man was twenty-two years of age and unmarried. He was buried at Pinos Altos.

FUGITIVE FROM JUSTICE ARRESTED NEAR ALAMOGORDO.

Alamogordo, N. M., March 2.—N. Hathaway, a young man who had been employed on the Oliver Lee ranch fifteen miles south of here for several months, was arrested recently by U. S. Deputy Marshal Harry Forbes, of Albuquerque on a warrant from Tishomingo, Indian Territory, which charged him with seduction and carrying concealed weapons. The officer took his prisoner to the Indian Territory where he was turned over to the federal officers and was lodged in jail at Ardmore for safe keeping.

COWBOYS MUST NOT ACT BOISTEROUS IN ROSWELL

Roswell, N. M., March 2.—The City Council of Roswell has issued an edict against any more broncho busting on the streets of that city. A good deal of damage has been done by noisy cowpunchers who have favored the public with demonstrations of their prowess on Main Street, frightening horses and endangering pedestrians.

MAKES WORK EASIER.

Santa Fe People Are Pleased to Learn How it is Done.

It's pretty hard to attend to duties with a constantly aching back. With annoying urinary disorders, Doan's Kidney Pills make work easier.

They cure backache. They cure every kidney ill.

Lino Romero, living at Palace Ave., Santa Fe, N. M., says: "I know that Doan's Kidney Pills are all right and act just as represented. If I had not been confident of this fact no inducement could have led me to give my recommendation to this medicine as I did some five years ago. I then stated that this remedy which I procured from Ireland's drug store, has cured me of a dull aching in the small of my back which had bothered me off and on for a long time, and had by spells been the cause of my laying off from work. During the lapse of years I have now and then noticed a slight return of the annoyance, but never one that has withstood Doan's Kidney Pills. They go right to the seat of the trouble and remove it quickly and thoroughly. The good opinion I first formed of Doan's Kidney Pills still remains and always will."

FOR THAT TIRED FEELING.

Men whose work keeps them largely indoors; men whose vital forces are consumed by the tremendous strain entailed by constant mental application to business details, will find Dr. Lauritzen's Malt Tonic the most delicious and invigorating of tonics.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Associate Justice W. H. Pope and Mrs. Pope, who have been here for a week, left yesterday for Carlsbad where Judge Pope will hold court before returning to their home at Roswell, Judge Pope, while in the city attended the sessions of the Territorial Supreme Court and he and Mrs. Pope had apartments with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walker, on Grant Avenue. Mrs. Pope was the recipient of much social attention while here.

Associate Justice Ira A. Abbott, of Albuquerque, his daughter Miss Constance and her friend Miss Dora Edwards, of Haverhill, Mass., who have spent a very pleasant week in this city, returned yesterday to Albuquerque. The young ladies had a very agreeable time while here and were present at many social functions. The Judge's time was taken up with the sessions of the Territorial Supreme Court.

Miss Minnie Holzman, of Albuquerque, who has been the House guest of Hon. and Mrs. Arthur Seligman for the past three weeks is expected to return to her home tomorrow. Miss Holzman is deservedly popular and had a charming time during her visit.

Hon. and Mrs. Venecio Jaramillo, of El Rito, and Mrs. J. A. Martinez, mother of Mrs. Jaramillo, have returned from a six week's sojourn in the Mexican Republic during which they visited the city of Mexico, Santa Rosalia, Aguas Calientes and other points of interest. Mr. Jaramillo left for the family home at El Rito this forenoon to attend to pressing business matters while Mrs. Jaramillo will remain here for some time on a visit with her mother at her residence on Grant Avenue.

Professor and Mrs. Hiram Hadley left yesterday afternoon for their home at Las Cruces, Dona Ana County, where a fine residence has been erected which they will occupy hereafter. Professor Hadley does not expect to return to this city for some time, having concluded to retire from the position of superintendent of public instruction which he has filled ably and successfully during the past two years. Professor and Mrs. Hadley were popular with the best people in this city and their retirement from Santa Fe is greatly regretted.

Professor J. E. Clark, assistant superintendent of public instruction, is in Chicago attending a meeting of the superintendents of public instruction of the country. He is expected to return to this city Monday or Tuesday next. It is understood that he will be appointed superintendent of public instruction by the Governor to succeed Professor Hiram Hadley.

Stewart Van Vleet, son of Major and Mrs. Robert C. Van Vleet has arrived in the city from Washington, D. C., and expects to remain in the Territory. He desires to engage in the sheep-raising industry and expects to commence work first to learn the business and thereafter invest in ranch and range. His father and mother were residents of Fort Marcy for several years while Major Van Vleet was lieutenant in the Tenth Infantry, during the late 80's and early 90's. Major and Mrs. Van Vleet are now at Honolulu with the Tenth United States Infantry, to which the major is attached. He expects to be promoted to a lieutenant colonelcy at an early date and will then likely retire to return to the United States with his family.

Rev. George F. Sevier, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and Mrs. Sevier, who will remove shortly to Lamar, Colorado, were the guests of honor at a dinner party last evening given by Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Fiske. The other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bean, Mr. and Mrs. Cartwright, Mrs. Greenly of Minneapolis, who is visiting at the Fiske residence, and Miss Bean. The dining-room and table were decorated in yellow, a profusion of daffodils being used very effectively.

One of the largest and most enjoyable formal "at homes" of the season was the one Wednesday afternoon from three to five o'clock, given by Mrs. Cartwright and Mrs. Fiske. The event was held at the former's residence on east De Vargas Street. One hundred and fifty invitations had been issued and there were over a hundred guests present. The only regrets received came from recipients who are observing Lent by foregoing social pleasures during the penitential season. The reception was to meet Mesdames Bursum and Martin, of Socorro, and Mrs. Greenly, of Minneapolis, the latter being a house guest of Mrs. Fiske, and as a farewell to Mrs. Sevier, wife of the retiring pastor of the First Presbyterian Church. Daffodils were employed in riotous profusion in the decorations, the color scheme embodied being in red and yellow. Mrs. Frost and Mrs. Dalles presided in the refreshment room, the former serving the ice and the latter pouring the coffee. They were assisted in serving by Misses McPhee, Staab, Spitz and Lamy.

Will C. Barnes, of East Las Vegas, secretary of the Territorial Cattle Sanitary Board, is a guest at the Palace. Mr. Barnes will remain here next week working for legislation in the interest of the cattle growers of the Territory. Mrs. Barnes and child are in Phoenix on a visit to relatives where they will remain for the next six weeks or two months.

W. H. Jack of Silver City, member of the Territorial Cattle Sanitary Board and manager of the Crowfoot Cattle Company, having ranges and cattle in Grant, Colfax and Union Counties who has been in the city during the week attending to legislative affairs and the meeting of the board, left last night for Potosi to visit his ranches in that vicinity.

THE FARMER AND THE FOX.

How Uncle Reuben Threw Old Reynard Down and Showed His Ingratitude. Story of the Thief and Judge and the Grocer and the Sage.

[Copyright, 1907, by M. M. Cunningham.]

One day as the farmer was grubbing out a stump in his field he was approached by a fox, who said:

"Uncle Reuben, I am no hand to butt in and mix myself up with other people's business, but I have come to give you a little pointer."

"What, that kind of you, though I ain't in need of any gold bricks just at present."

"I am not that kind of fox. On the contrary, I am here to tell you that I overheard a conversation in the forest this morning and that the wessel intends to rob your henroost tonight. I am on friendly terms with him and shouldn't like him to know that I have given him away, but at the same time I don't want you to be a loser."

"That's good of you," said the farmer. "No, I won't say a word to anybody about it, but if the durned critter comes I'll give him a surprise party. Much obliged, and I'll try and do as much for you some time."

Wasn't a Bit Surprised. The fox went his way with complacent look, and Uncle Reuben continued to grub and to think. When night came he did a little work about the coop, and just as he was winding up the clock and making ready to go to bed a great racket out there demanded his presence. He went out with the lantern in one hand and an ax heve in the other and wasn't a bit surprised to find Reynard in one of the traps he had set.

"How, now, but is this the gratitude you show me for the pointer I gave you this afternoon?" exclaimed the fox as he tugged at his captive leg.

Moral:—"Wait, you see, it's this way." was the reply. "I got to thinking things over after you left and decided that it was just as easy to set a trap for a fox as for a weasel, and that's how you come to put your foot in it."

"Then release me, and we'll call it a mistake."

"Oh, I can't do that, you see! I've got to follow out my logic and decide that it is just as easy to knock a fox on the head as any other critter. Close your eyes and shut your teeth. It won't hurt but a mite."

A farmer who had lost several sheep at the hands of thieves notified the sheriff, and the latter individual set a watch and captured a man with the goods on him. When taken into court the evidence was so conclusive that speedy conviction resulted, and his honor was about to pass sentence when the prisoner rose up and said:

"Excuse me, Judge, but I move to quash the proceedings."

"On what grounds, pray?"

"All the witnesses swore that I had a lamb on my shoulder when caught, while the warrant charges me with having stolen a sheep. I contend, your honor, that a sheep is not a lamb any more than a man is a boy."

The Prisoner's Sentence.

"Prisoner, the point is well taken. I was about to sentence you to state prison for one year for stealing a sheep. I will now amend the sentence to twelve months in the same institution for stealing a lamb."

"But it practically amounts to the same thing," protested the prisoner.

"That is true. But how many of us stop to define the difference between lamb and sheep when eating mutton chops? Remove the prisoner."

Moral:—The only difference between twelvemonth and twelvemonth is in the twiddle.

One day as the sage was sitting beneath a willow tree and meditating on man's inhumanity to man and how a cotton clothesline shrinks up after an August rainstorm he was approached by a fat, red faced man wearing an apron, who greeted him with:

"O sage, I am Green, the grocer."

"Yes, I have heard of green grocers several times before in my life," was the answer. "How is the green goods business coming on?"

"I know not, O wise man. This is my complaint: Some months since Brown, the hardware man, came to me and asked me to endorse his ninety day note."

Bowser Has a Week of Liberty

Takes Life Easy For Seven Days
While His Wife Is Away From Home.

SEES TOWN BY NIGHT.

Moving Pictures, Vaudeville, Poker
Games and Highballs Leave Him a Wreck.

[Copyright, 1906, by Eugene Parcella.]

MRS. BOWSER received word the other afternoon that her mother had fallen downstairs and broken several ribs and wanted her daughter for a week, and the news was communicated to Mr. Bowser on his arrival home from his office. He was agreed that Mrs. Bowser should leave on the train next morning, and leave she did, while he was left to keep house for a week with the assistance of the cook. Mr. Bowser won't admit that he kept a diary during the seven days Mrs. Bowser was absent, but those who know him best are quite sure that he did and that the following is a correct transcript:

"Tuesday.—Mrs. Bowser left this morning for Blauktown to see her mother. It will be a change from the dreary monotony. If I want to go to club or poker party I shall have no one an hour out of the twenty-four dressing and undressing.

"Wasn't cautioned when I left the house not to invest in chickens, pigs, cows, autos or winter toques. Went right out with my head up and able to look the world in the face. How I have stood Mrs. Bowser's sarcasms as long as I have is a mystery to me.

"Saturday.—Changed my clothes after I got home and had dinner and went to a poker party. It was what is called a 'stag' party—that is, you drink as many highballs and gin fizzes as seemed proper and lost all the money you wanted to.

Very pleasant lot of fellows and all prised to see me. Heard some of an hinting that Mrs. Bowser must be dead. Talked politics and played poker. Talked Cuba and played more poker. Talked Panama canal and had a sh.

"Held threes and straights and big girls and never once thought of Mrs. Bowser. Free as air and feeling like a year-old.

Men Pools to Marry.

"What asses men make of themselves when they marry! Just let Mrs. Bowser give me one sassy word when I gets back and—

I have an indistinct recollection of pping something at poker, but after it was a cent or $10 I shall never know—in fact, I don't care. I set out to have a good time and re's nothing stings about me.

I remember speaking about going home at 11 o'clock in the morning. Some one asked what the use. I said no more. Don't remember going home. Don't remember man kindly unlocking the front door and calling me a regular andy. Can't remember the cook lying in the front hall she came down. The first I was up and dressed and ptyman who tied himself to a wife. A policeman met me at the gate as I for the office and wanted to know if I was going to pay for that mean, but when he said damage was $4 I pulled out the money and paid it like a man. Cook brushed feathers on my clothes and picked straws out of my hair before I sat down to breakfast, but she was discreet—very discreet. She said she used to pick up feathers and straws when she went to sacred concerts. "Sunday.—Woke up with a recollection—several recollections; also a sore throat and a headache. Breakfast in bed. More recollections and headache than breakfast. Sympathized in His Loss.

"Cook very kind and thoughtful. Discovered that I had lost my watch and sympathized with me.

"Discovered that I had lost my wallet and said it didn't matter as long as I had had a good time.

"I don't think I came home in an ambulance. Neither of my legs are broken, and why should I have done so? I don't think I slept on the front steps. When a man has a house he sleeps inside instead of outside of it. I sort of wish Mrs. Bowser was home

Cook says I have quite a fever. She attributes it to political excitement. Mrs. Bowser is one of the best hands in case of fever I ever heard of. I might reach her by telephone, but—

"Monday.—Doctor has been here. Says a man of my age ought to have a wife to hold him down. Says there's no particular harm in moving pictures, vaudeville shows, sacred concerts, poker games, gin fizzes, highballs, rabbit clubs and sleeping in the front hall if taken in moderate doses, but that I seem to have overdone the thing.

"Cook is kindness itself, but she isn't Mrs. Bowser.

"I now begin to understand why men marry and why a man is an ass who doesn't. There is something sacred about home. There is nothing sacred about a sacred concert.

"Cook continues her kindness. She has just hinted that she has nothing to tell Mrs. Bowser, who will arrive early tomorrow morning. I am counting the hours. I shall explain to her that it is a hard cold, but she will suspect the truth and forgive me.

"Dear Mrs. Bowser! Durn highballs and a life of freedom!" M. QUAD.

ARIZONA RANGER

IN PISTOL DUEL

Lieutenant Wheeler Shot Twice By J. A. Tracy Who, in Turn, Was Killed By Officer.

Douglas, Ariz., March 2.—As a result of a pistol duel, which occurred February 23 on the depot platform at Benson, just before the El Paso train on the Southwestern pulled out of that place, Lieutenant Wheeler, of the Arizona ranger force, has two bullet wounds, one in the leg and the other in the heel. Both are flesh wounds and neither of a serious nature.

Another result of this duel is that J. A. Tracy, aged thirty-eight years, lies dead at Mescal station, west of Benson, from four pistol shot wounds inflicted by Lieutenant Wheeler. The dead man was shot four times. He lived for only a few hours after the affray ended.

The dead man is J. A. Tracy, who has been living at Vall station, where he had charge of the office of the Helvetia Mining Company at that place. After the shooting Tracy was put on board of the "Burro" train and started to the hospital in Tucson. He died on the train before reaching Mescal station, west of Benson, and his body was taken from the train there.

Tracy, according to the story, was the sole cause of the trouble which resulted in his death. He seemed to be crazed with jealousy over a woman, who claims to be the wife of D. W. Silverton, with whom she arrived in Benson from Tucson. The officer was called to the depot to protect Silverton from Tracy and the fatal duel resulted.

HOUSE PASSED IMPORTANT BILL.
United States Court of Claims for the expressed purpose of righting a similar wrong. The humblest citizen of this great country may go before that court and there bring suit against that great government which we all love so dearly. Are the people of New Mexico not entitled to as much?"

Mr. Ruppe made a reply in which he said that the people of Bernalillo County had troubles enough of their own without mixing into the troubles of one official. His opposition to the bill consisted in re-mouthing what had been much more ably said by Mr. Hudspeh.

Mr. Beach said the only objection he had to the bill was that it was limited to one year by an amendment tacked onto it in the Council. He said it should go on the statute books to be in force without limitation.

Mr. Holt's motion to pass the bill was then put. The bill passed the House by a vote of 16 yeas, 6 nays, Mr. Denington and Mr. Lucero absent with leave. Those voting "no" were Messrs. Abbott of Colfax, Hudspeth, Moran, Mullens, Ruppe and Walters.

Mr. Abbott, of Santa Fe, moved to reconsider the vote by which House Bill Number 64, an act relative to the intoxication of minors, passed the House. This motion prevailed. Mr. Abbott then moved to reconsider the vote by which Mr. Holt's amendment to this bill making it also applicable to adults, was adopted. This motion also prevailed. Mr. Abbott then moved that the amendment by Mr. Holt be stricken from the bill. Mr. Holt stated that while he still favored his amendment, that he was willing that it should be stricken from the bill because Mr. Abbott opposed it so strenuously. The House then voted to strike out the amendment.

Mr. Abbott then moved that the bill as originally drafted do pass this House. The motion prevailed by viva voce vote.

The following bills were read the first and second time by title and referred to the proper committees: Council Bill Number 7, an act providing punishment for certain crimes, referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Amended Council Bill Number 33, an act relative to the assessment and collection of taxes; referred to the Committee on Finance.

Council Bill Number 36, an act to amend Section 1799, of the Laws of 1897, relative to Territorial appropriations; referred to the Committee on Territorial Affairs.

Council Bill Number 37, an act for the protection of public bridges; referred to the Committee on Roads and Highways.

Council Bill Number 49, an act relative to annual reports by corporations; referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Council Bill Number 54, an act relative to the duties of the auditor; referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Council Bill Number 64, an act relative to the qualifications of witnesses; referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Council Bill Number 70, an act to amend Section 1, Chapter 9, of the acts of the Thirty-fourth Legislative Assembly; relative to railroads; referred to the Committee on Railroads.

Mr. Holt announced a meeting of the Judiciary Committee at 9:30 a. m., Saturday and of the Finance Committee at 2:30 p. m., of the same day.

Upon motion of Mr. Gallegos, duly seconded and carried, the House then adjourned until 2 p. m. Monday.
