BILLS PASSED OVER VETO

Numbers 117 and 178 Receive Sup- port of House

MOST SENSATIONAL SPEECH

Of Present Assembly Made By Representative Beach-- Scored Officials.

THE COUNCIL.
41st Day--Afternoon Session,
March 19.

The Council met at 3 p. m. pursuant to adjournment President Spies in the chair. The Chief Clerk read the roll, all answering present.

Council Bill Number 125, by Mr. Spies, an act to pay the expenses of water commissioners and carrying an appropriation of $2,500, was read and passed the Council without dissent.

A message from the Governor was received and filed with the Chief Clerk. The Conference Committee from the House, Mr. Holt chairman, asked for a conference on the appropriation bill. Mr. Spies took the floor for a speech. Mr. Cameron presiding in the chair. President Spies made a strong appeal for a compromise agreement on the appropriation bill or the drafting of a new bill quickly stating that the time was short and the needs great. Concluding his speech, he again resumed the chair. Mr. Dales moved that the chair appoint a Conference Committee on this bill which motion prevailed. Mr. Sargent tried to amend it to table the motion indefinitely, but Mr. Dales said the motion was not subject to amendment. The President then signified his intention of appointing Mr. Sargent on the committee as one familiar with finance. Mr. Dales said Mr. Sargent was not familiar with finance. This angered Mr. Sargent who retorted that he was tired of being attacked by Mr. Dales. The chair then appointed the following committee: Messrs. Sargent, Sulzer, Dales, Cameron, Richards and Stockton. Mr. Sargent then moved that the committee be discharged which was seconded by Mr. Duncanson. Mr. Dales said it would be discourteous to refuse to confer with the House Committee. The motion to discharge the committee was lost by a tie of 6 ayes and 6 nays. Those voting yes were Messrs. Chaves, Duncanson, Miera, Sargent, Stockton, Sulzer.

A message from the House was received. It being a certified copy of House Resolution Number 17, and the report of the Special Committee which investigated the condition of the contingent fund of the Territorial auditor.

Council Bill Number 11, an act to tax sleeping cars, was taken up, and the House amendment read. By a vote, the Council refused to concur in the amendment of the House and a Conference Committee consisting of Messrs. Duncanson, Martinez and Stockton was appointed to confer with a like committee from the House.

House Bill Number 191, an act providing for the erection of a memorial arch of stone in the plaza at Santa Fe was taken up, read in full and passed by unanimous vote.

House Bill Number 161, an act relative to sale, lease, handling, etc., of public lands in New Mexico was read by title and referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Council Bill Number 129, an act placing Taos County in the First Judicial District, etc., was read in full the third time and passed by a vote of 12 ayes.

The Council then went into executive session.

Upon re-convening in open session the regular order was again taken up.

Council Joint Resolution Number 8, providing extra pay for regular employees of the Capitol, was taken up, read and passed by a vote of 11 ayes, 1 nay. Mr. Cameron dissenting. This resolution provides an appropriation of $400 for this purpose.

The Council then confirmed the appointment of H. S. Kaune and A. B. Renahan as members of the Capitol Custodian Committee.

House Bill Number 107, the educational bill was referred to the Committee on Territorial Affairs.

A message from the Governor was received announcing that he had signed about fifteen minor bills and resolutions.

Mr. Duncanson then introduced Council Bill Number 130, an act creating Colorado County and for other purposes. This bill is an attempt to get before the Council, further consideration of the division of San Miguel County. The bill was not taken up and the Council adjourned until 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

THE HOUSE.

41st Day--Afternoon Session,
March 19.

The House re-convened at 2:30 o'clock, Speaker Baca in the chair. The Chief Clerk read the roll, all answering present.

A message from the Council was received, announcing the passage by the Council of Council Substitute for House Bill Number 142, the general appropriation bill. This bill was taken up at once on motion of Mr. Holt and was tabled indefinitely by the House, Mr. Huds-peth objecting. Mr. Holt then moved that a conference committee be appointed by the Speaker to meet with a like committee from the Council to draft a new appropriation bill. This motion prevailed and the Speaker being given time to consider his appointees. The House then resolved itself into a committee of the whole and continued consideration of the new election law. At 3:30 o'clock the committee of the whole arose and the Speaker convened the House. He announced the appointment of the following as members of the conference committee: Mr. Abbott of Santa Fe, chairman, Mr. Sanchez of Taos, Mr. Gallegos, Mr. Beach and Mr. Studley.

The Committee on Enrolled and Engrossed Bills reported a large number of bills previously passed as properly enrolled and engrossed. The report was adopted and the Speaker signed the bills. Mr. Holt then suggested that the Speaker should name a conference committee of three to meet with a committee from the Council to discuss House amendment to House Bill Number 115, providing for refunding to educational institutions funds used in land selection and locating, etc. The Speaker appointed Mr. Holt, Mr. Abbott, of Colfax County, and Mr. Aldrich, as members of the committee.

In order to give the two above named committees a chance to meet the House went into recess until 4 o'clock.

When the House re-convened, the election law known as House Bill Number 229 was taken up. Mr. Beach moved that as 79 out of the 121 sections have been read and as the bill has been carefully drawn, the reading of the remainder be dispensed with and that Mr. Mirabal report the same to the House favorably from the Committee of the Whole. This motion prevailed. The report was adopted and the bill without further reading passed the House. It is hardly probable that it will reach the Council in time to allow that body to act.

FRISCO GRAFT SCANDAL GROWING

Accused Officials Deny Having Con- fessed

MANY INDICTMENTS LIKELY

Believed Between 75 and 100 Will Be Returned-- Wild Rumors.

San Francisco, Calif., March 20.—In spite of the fact that the newspapers today published what is purported to be the alleged confessions of the members of the Board of Supervisors before the Grand Jury of accepting bribes from agents of the public service corporations, the supervisors who have been interviewed almost without exception persist in emphatic denials of having disclosed anything sensational and declare there has been no bribery in connection with the giving of franchises to the United Railroads, the Home Telephone and Gas and Electric companies.

Similar denials are also made by the officers of these corporations and also by William Britt, brother of "Jimmy" Britt, the head of the so-called "Flight Trust."

Paid for Flight Permits.

On the other hand it is said that Morris Levy of the Flight Trust, called on District Attorney Heney and made a full confession of the various sums of money alleged to have been paid by him to the Board of Supervisors for flight permits.

All kinds of rumors are in circulation about alleged confessions by city officials, and moves and counter moves by the prosecution and defense, but their verification in almost every instance is impossible.

Many Indictments Expected.

The grand jury was scheduled to meet again this afternoon, at which time it was expected the indictments would be voted and filed with Judge Coffey, presiding judge of the Superior Court. It is said that between fifty and seventy indictments will be returned.

GARCIA MURDER CASE GOES OVER

Until Next Term of the District Court

SALOONKEEPERS ARE FINED

For Violating Sunday Closing Law--Wife Beater Given Term in Pen.

The First Judicial District Court for Santa Fe County continued its session today, Judge John R. McPhee presiding and Clerk A. M. Bergere at his desk. The Territory was represented by District Attorney R. C. Gortner and Assistant District Attorney C. C. Catron. Sheriff Charles C. Closson was at his post.

The case of the Territory vs. Juan Garcia, charged with the murder of his brother, Florencio Garcia, which had been set for trial today, was continued for the term on motion of Attorney A. B. Renahan, counsel for the defendant. The reason given for a continuance was that Mrs. Julia Garcia, an important witness for the defense, had become suddenly insane and her testimony could not now be secured. However hope is entertained for her recovery from the mental derangement, and the court continued the case as requested with the consent of District Attorney Gortner.

Granted Divorce.

Judge McPhee occupied himself the remainder of the forenoon in listening to testimony in a divorce case entitled Samuel Mestas in Madera vs. Ma. Leocadia Martinez de Mestas, which had been filed in the District Court of Rio Arriba County. A decree of absolute divorce was granted on the grounds of infidelity and abandonment. The defendant did not appear. Attorney Benjamin M. Read was counsel for the plaintiff.

Saloonkeepers Fined.

Among the seventeen true bills returned yesterday by the grand jury were indictments against several local saloon keepers charging them with violations of the Sunday closing law and permitting lewd women to enter their bar rooms on Sunday.

Edward Astler and George Atkinson, proprietors of a saloon recently opened on lower San Francisco Street, were arraigned this afternoon and entered pleas of guilty to keeping their place of business open on Sunday, also to having allowed women to frequent their establishment on the Sabbath. They were fined $100 and costs. Other saloon keepers will be arraigned tomorrow.

Wife-Beater Gets One Year.

Ignacio Garcia plead guilty to the charge of wife beating upon being arraigned this afternoon and was sentenced to a term of one year in the Territorial penitentiary. He claimed that he was intoxicated at the time of the offense, and said that since then he and his wife had become reconciled.

The court adjourned until tomorrow at 10 o'clock.

Berlin, March 20.—Japan is doing considerable business with the Krupp in the line of war materials. A large number of guns are now being inspected by Japanese army officials at Essen, preparatory to their being accepted by Japan. As an indication of the friendly relations between the management of the Krupp Works and Japan, several Japanese army engineers are now working there.

CUBA PROVING EXPENSIVE WARD

United States Has So Far Spent $2,500,000 in Trying to Maintain Peace on Island.

Washington, March 20.—The extraordinary expenses to the United States up to date caused by sending pacification envoys to Cuba aggregate about $2,500,000, according to figures prepared at the War Department. It has not been determined exactly when this money will be collected from Cuba. Congress practically allowed the War Department to exercise its own judgment in this matter.

PILE OF RUBBISH CATCHES ON FIRE

Small Blaze in Rear of Mail Carrier Crichton's Residence on Grant Avenue--No Damage.

Shortly after 11 o'clock this morning the fire department was called to the arroyo on Grant Avenue, in the rear of the residence of R. L. Crichton, the mail carrier. Rubbish which had been dumped behind the wooden breakwater caught fire, and it was burning fiercely when the firemen reached the scene. There was danger of the flames communicating to the adjacent fences and sheds and hence an alarm was turned in. It was the work of only a few minutes to drench the rubbish heap and extinguish the fire.

"Secretary, Bureau of Immigration, Santa Fe, New Mexico:

"Dear Sir—I desire to acknowledge receipt by express of 25 copies of the new bulletin on San Miguel County issued by the Bureau of Immigration. I am proud of the booklet, not only because I believe it contains matter absolutely up-to-date, and accurately representative of the resources and attractions of San Miguel County, but as well for the manner in which the booklet is gotten up. Everyone who has seen the work in question so far has been delighted with its appearance and particularly with the many new and attractive cuts it contains.

"This is the kind of advertising that pays. The information contained in the booklet is absolutely authentic and is not overdrawn and when issued under the seal of the Territory, by the authority of the Bureau of Immigration, it carries weight to the prospective health seeker or homeseeker who is looking for a new location.

"On behalf of the Commercial Club, I desire to thank you as Secretary of the Bureau of Immigration for the very great interest you have taken in pushing this work to a rapid completion. That this will be of benefit to the county goes without saying and inasmuch as it does prove of benefit to the county it will thereby benefit the whole Territory.

"We hope that the funds of the Bureau will permit of the rapid issuance of other bulletins on the remaining counties of the Territory, as we are firm believers in the maxim that whatever benefits a part, must consequently be of benefit to the whole.

"With kind regards, I am,
"Yours very truly,

THAW WILL BE TRIED FOR LUNACY

If Court Sustains District Attorney Jerome

JURY EXCUSED TEMPORARILY

Justice Fitzgerald to Have Evidence on Subject of Insanity Commission.

New York, March 20.—The Thaw case was adjourned today until Friday morning when Justice Fitzgerald will determine the matter of a lunacy commission to examine the defendant. Dr. Allen McLane Hamilton was the first witness called today by Counsel Delmas. District Attorney Jerome objected to Dr. Hamilton testifying at this time on the ground that the nature of the examination of Dr. Hamilton was to re-opening the whole case as the evidence belonged to the case in chief and not to the rebuttal. A long discussion between the attorneys then followed and Justice Fitzgerald sustained the objection of Jerome.

Counsel Delmas then tried to bring out the testimony he desired by other questions but Jerome at once interposed objections to these questions and was sustained by Justice Fitzgerald. During the discussion which followed the court sent the jury from the room and Jerome then made an impassioned speech in which he said:

"As I understand matters, Dr. Hamilton was called by the defense and is ready to testify that in his opinion this defendant is an insane man, that he was of unsound mind when he committed the crime of homicide and that as he sits at the table today he is suffering from a mental disease known as paranoia, a disease in which the sufferer, until the last stages of the disease, is capable of knowing the nature and quality of his acts."

He further said that Thaw was incapable of advising his counsel and that the court was trying an insane man.

"If the real facts as to the mental condition of this defendant," continued the district attorney, "were known, the court would be shocked and horrified and would stop the trial instantly."

The district attorney said he could show this in five minutes if he were not bound by the rules of evidence.

"In view of the statement made by the district attorney," said Justice Fitzgerald, "I now ask that I be given all the information in the possession of either counsel and all the evidence as to the defendant's present state of mind which can be presented to this court. I do this before instituting the proceedings I understand have been asked for."

Delmas wanted to know if a commission in lunacy was under discussion and Justice Fitzgerald replied that he was asked to hear that testimony for such a move while the jury was out of the room and was then to determine his course.

Jerome said he had made no formal application but left it to the court. After some further discussion, Justice Fitzgerald dismissed the jury until Friday and will tomorrow hear evidence on the subject of a commission in lunacy.

UNIQUE BANK FOR PHILIPPINES

To Be Financed By English Capital-- American Financiers Suspicious of Proposition.

Washington, March 20.—American capitalists have not taken kindly to the plan for the establishment of an Agricultural Bank in the Philippines and it now seems likely that the bank will be established with English capital. Ten per cent is the maximum rate which the firm establishing the bank will be allowed to charge and no loan in excess of $5,000 can be made to any one person.

English capitalists have found their Agricultural Bank in Egypt a most successful investment and as the proposed bank in the Philippines is to be on the same lines, the financiers of Great Britain have shown a disposition to undertake the establishment of a similar institution in the islands.

TWENTY-FIVE LET- TERS IN ONE DAY

For Information Concerning New Mexico Received By Bureau of Immigration.

The correspondence of the Bureau of Immigration in this city is constantly and steadily on the increase. Yesterday's mail to the Bureau brought letters from the following points, the writers asking for information and for literature concerning the resources, conditions and inducements in the Territory for immigrants, homeseekers, investors, tourists and those in search of health: Oberon, North Dakota; Venice, California; Bee Springs, Kentucky; McGregor, Texas; Rifle, Colorado; House New Mexico; Denver, Colorado; Fort Stanton, New Mexico; Kallispell, Montana; Denver, Colorado; Copperas Cove, Texas; Ladysmith, Wisconsin; Scranton, Mississippi; Los Angeles, Mobile, Alabama; Chicago, Illinois; California; Chicago, Illinois; Minon, Wisconsin; Onkessdale, Washington; Wichita, Kansas; Plainville, Tennessee; Versailles, Missouri; Joliet, Illinois; New Orleans, Louisiana; Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Stockton, Calif., March 20.—Stockton is suffering from the most disastrous flood in its history. Water is standing from one to six feet deep in the streets. More Rain Predicted.

San Francisco, Calif., March 20.—Although the severe rain storm which has prevailed this week has abated, the flooded conditions continue throughout the valleys of Northern California. The rivers at Sacramento, Marysville, Chico and Oroville are still very high. As yet it is impossible to estimate the amount of damage, but it will be very great. All railroad, telegraph and telephone services are demoralized and it is impossible to reach many points in or beyond the flooded districts. The weather bureau predicts light showers in this vicinity for today and tonight with the wind changing to the north, clearing weather is anticipated.

FIVE THOUSAND MEN WALK OUT

When Demand For Wage Increase Is Refused

TYING UP STEEL MILLS

In East Chicago--Rioting Has Already Com- menced.

Hammond, Ind., March 20.—The strike situation at East Chicago was identified today when 3,500 men employed by the Republic Steel Company walked out. Three thousand of these were laborers and the remaining 500 were skilled men. The reason for the walk-out was the refusal of the demand made by the laborers for an increase of 25 cents per day in wages. Six hundred men struck yesterday at the Republic Steel Company's Works and 1,200 at the Republic Iron and Steel Company's plant and the walk-out today brings the total number of strikers to over 5,000.

The steel industries of East Chicago are entirely tied up. Some rioting occurred early today and one of the strikers, who for the most part are foreigners, was beaten by one of the guards at the Interstate plant.

Police Judge in Kansas City Gave Ex- Soldier Chance to Tell About Brownsville Affray.

Kansas City, Mo., March 20.—Clifford Adair, a negro arrested on the charge of disturbing the peace, and haled into police court here today pleaded with Judge Kile to be easy with him, saying he was an ex-soldier. He said he had belonged to Company C, of the Twenty-fifth U. S. Infantry. When the Judge learned from the prisoner that he was at Brownsville at the time of the recent riots, he said:

"Tell me who fired those shots at Brownsville and I'll turn you loose."

When asked about the "Big Red" fesson of the negro Gray, at Galveston, he said:

"I didn't know a thing about it. Judge. We did not have any trouble down there. Gray's confession was a fake. Somebody was just jollying us down there."

Adair was finally discharged after repeating that he knew nothing of the shooting up of Brownsville.

"LONG LIVE THE ROOSTER!"

After all, there is lots of fun in politics even in the Pearl of the Antilles, "Cuba Libre." The Kansas City Journal, which is quite bent at times towards the humorous and sees the funny side of things, shows up one of these sides in the following right readable editorial:

"Not since the great day that sealed the independence of Cuba was there such gallant demonstration as that which marked the national uprising in defense of the cock fight and calling upon the minions of an alien government for the restitution of this sacred right. Havana was in gala attire in honor of an occasion the Cubans fondly hoped would take rank with that historic affair at Runnymede, where liberty had its birth. For two long years the ban had been held against the cock fight. Dreary years they were, with nothing but politics, reconstruction, official scandals, foreign intervention, an insurrection and fever to while away the time. But the Cuban people, divided in other things and distracted by a thousand alarms and fears, were united in the one exalted purpose to secure the inalienable heritage of rooster baiting that had been wrested from them by superior arms.

"The great crowd formed early. Each patriot carried a feathered warrior under his arm, and at the head of the procession floated a banner over which perched in majestic poise the symbol of the sacred fowl. Above the crowns and the murmurs of the people came the discordant notes of the 'Star Spangled Banner' punctuated by cries of 'Viva los Americanos' and 'Viva los Gallos.' Could anything be more impressive than this brave body of barefooted patriots marching up to Governor Magoon's palace to demand that heaven-given trinity—liberty, equality and cock fighting?"

"When Governor Magoon appeared upon the gallery he had to be held up, so weak was he from sorrow and sympathy. Major Slocum and Judge Schoenrich, propped up the limp administrator. After the petition had been carried to the steps and deposited, General Montenegro, on behalf of the crowd:

"Gentlemen, we, the component parts of this committee, are almost assured that cock fighting will be authorized, for we can rely upon the kindly heart of our provisional governor, Mr. Magoon, and we have no doubt but the Cuban people shall have their will. This speech was greeted by another outburst of 'Viva Mr. Magoon,' and 'Viva los Gallos,' and the band played 'Everybody Works But Father.' Thus is recorded the proceedings of a most memorable day."

THE FIGHT FOR NEW COUNTIES WAS FAIR.

The Legislative Council Monday voted by 9 to 3 to consider no more bills, having for their object the creation of new counties, changing of present lines of counties and the like. That means that the pending measures for the creation of the county of Garfield out of San Miguel County, Foraker out of Union and Colfax Counties, and Artesia out of Chavez and Eddy Counties, and Pyramid out of a portion of Grant County are dead for the session. This was expected and it was pretty well known to those on the inside. The expected happened and those who were in favor of these projects will have a chance to try in the Thirty-eighth Legislative Assembly of the Territory of New Mexico or in the first state legislature of the coming Sunshine State. A very good fight for the success of their bills was made by the representatives of those interested and in all fairness it can be stated and it is proper to state that the means used by both sides to the controversies were honorable and straightforward; there were and are no suggestions of graft or corruption or hoodie and this is certainly a great compliment in these cases to the members of the Assembly of both Houses. It is well known, in fact too well known, that county division schemes in legislatures where such can be brought up are generally accompanied by corrupt and dishonest devices and questionable and dishonorable means. In the cases at issue not even the lying Albuquerque Morning Fakir has dared to make such charges. That means a good deal, however, it must be remarked right here that the Albuquerque Morning Fakir had not even the smallest nail whereupon to hang a hat of that kind and especially as neither side cared a continental red cent for its opinion and would not put up a red cent to buy it, therefore, the Albuquerque Morning Fakir had not the least object for lying and libelling of either side. Had there been a few dollars in it for the sheet on either side and had the promoters of the new county creation schemes been so disposed they could have bought that Judas Iscariot of the New Mexico press at a very low rate.

THE SAN MIGUEL COUNTY BULLETIN.

The Las Vegas Optic is evidently well pleased with the bulletin descriptive of the county of San Miguel and the city of Las Vegas, just issued by the Bureau of Immigration. This capitalists and practical mining men brochure was printed under and by the is-and has today."

As the New Mexican had predicted at the beginning of the session, there was little chance for new county projects at this session of the legislature. Nevertheless, it is apparent that it will not be many more years before several of the present new county projects will become realities, especially if the present influx of immigration continues. The tendency is towards smaller counties and this tendency is not a bad one. In the east, a county of four hundred square miles, is not considered an especially small one, while in New Mexico counties average over four thousand square miles in area. Strange to say, it is the smallest county of the Territory that is the richest and the smaller counties with few exceptions are the most prosperous financially.

Evidently the New Mexican is a thorn in the side of the hoodie gang that controls the Albuquerque Morning Fakir, the Albuquerque Water Supply Company, and a few other rotten corporations in the Duke City, much to the detriment of the decent people thereof. But what is, is, and what must be, must be. The New Mexican will continue in the even tenor of its way despite the bitter envy and venomous jealousy and the scaly and venomous libels of the gang towards this paper. The New Mexican hears to the right line, let the chips fall where they may. It has neither the time nor the inclination to be angry nor put out by what Danny Macpherson and his Albuquerque Morning Fakir say or do not say. It is too busy doing good for the people to pay serious attention to their lies, slanders and libels. To be sure, once in a while it must nail a few of them that the people may know.

The election bill prepared by a joint committee of both Houses, and which passed the House yesterday, should not be lost sight of in the Council. It is a very important measure and, if necessary, should be taken up out of regular order and passed. The present election laws are inadequate and unwholesome in some respects, especially in that they leave too much power to chairmen of political committees to encourage or to commit election frauds and to thwart the will of the voters, especially in the method of printing and distributing ballots. The Council will be much to blame should this bill be lost in the shuffle.

The Capitol extension bill which was passed by the Council yesterday and which provides for an extension of the Capitol building, the erection of an executive mansion and the purchase of additional land to be added to the Capitol ground, went to the House yesterday afternoon and owing to the excellent work of Speaker R. L. Bacon and Representative E. C. Abbott, both of Santa Fe County, the bill passed by unanimous vote. This is certainly excellent work.

No bill in aid of delinquent taxpayers should be allowed to become law. No bill allowing county commissioners to rebate penalties on delinquent taxes should be passed. There should be no punishment of the decent and respectable citizens who pay taxes promptly and in accordance with law and would prove a premium for delinquents and encourage the tax-dodgers to continue in their evil ways.

It is a peculiar chapter that the present legislature and executive have written in New Mexico history during the past sixty days. It is too early as yet, to comprehend in its true perspective the effect of this anomalous situation and its effect upon Republican party success in the future, but it takes no wisecrack or prophesy that harmony and energetic party work have become more necessary than ever before.

If indictments for land frauds and in coal land cases continue to be returned at the present rate, much valuable land in the west will be tied up in litigation. Whether this will benefit any one in particular is to be doubted, especially if such litigation prevents development. However, it will make future frauds improbable and will help the people to come into their own.

The Legislative Assembly is about to put the finishing touches upon its work and more than during any previous legislature, it is the work of the last day that will count. There are many measures pending that are ready for final action, some of them of great importance.

The Optic reports that a convict who recently escaped from the penitentiary, is stealing horses and causing other trouble in the vicinity of Corazon. He is evidently longing for a touch of home life at Santa Fe again. He is sure to get it and that in increased doses.

Among the Territorial appointments made yesterday and the day before by the Governor, and confirmed by the Council, are some that are very good, some that are not so good and some that are wholly improper. More anon and in due course of time.

Too many cooks spoil the broth! Too many enactments for the construction of public highways in various sections of the Territory cannot prove bad legislation. Two or three projects at a time are sufficient.

The educational bill should become law. There is no doubt that a logical, cohesive code of educational laws has become a necessity, if the schools of New Mexico are to progress along modern lines.

The people will not forgive legislative adjournment unless a strict anti-gambling law is enacted. Subterfuge will not be tolerated.

After tomorrow, the New Mexican newspapers will once more have space to consider presidential and third term possibilities.

When in need of anything on earth, try a New Mexican want ad. It will positively bring results.

MRS. DANIEL LOTHROP.

Founder of the Society of Children of the American Revolution.

Mrs. Daniel Lothrop, who under the pen name of Margaret Sidney is widely known as the author of many books for children, is intensely interested in the little ones. Mrs. Lothrop's maiden name was Harriet Mulford Stone. She was born in New Haven.

MRS. DANIEL LOTHROP.

usual energy and industry she contrived and arranged the preliminaries for the establishment of the National Society of the Children of the American Revolution, of which she was the founder and first president.

As a correction for the tendency of the danger of spoiling American children Mrs. Lothrop once published in a symposium the following suggestions:

"First.—The old fashioned respect for parents and for God should be revived.

"Second.—There should be an amendment introduced to the resolution that appears to have been adopted largely that the Sabbath was made for man to make a worse day out of it than out of the other six.

"Third.—That ill doing should be exterminated and punished.

"Fourth.—That American children should always hear from American citizens expressions of loyalty to their country, which their lives bear out.

"Fifth.—That American children should be bred to the idea that next to disowning one's country is the aping of manners and customs observed by other nations."—Boston Globe.

Living and Dining Room in One.

If any one chooses to have his living room and his dining room in one, he has only to make up his mind to it and then look about to see how it may be done without first showing elegance and comfort to the door.

The only absolute requisites for such an arrangement are a large room and proximity to the kitchen. There must be room enough to leave the field clear for setting the table, and this there never will be if there is room for only one table, which must serve the family for all its needs.

Such is the unconscious perversity of human nature that so sure as there is but one table the children will get their books or their toys on it or the husband will get out his writing or spread out a map for reference as near as possible to the dinner hour.

The best plan probably is to have either a table reserved exclusively for eating from or else a table that is only a table while it is wanted.

In one house is a table twelve feet, perhaps fifteen feet, long. And this offers a spacious field for all household forces. It is modeled after the Jacobean design. The cloth often is laid at one end of it and dinner served without obliging those who have been working along its generous length to strike their tents and retreat with bag and baggage or scum and scuppage.

The Picture Problem.

According to "A Bachelor's Cupboard," pictures should never be hung so high that it becomes necessary to mount a chair in order to see them. Hang them so the center will be on a level with the line of vision of the person of average height, or about five and one-half feet from the floor. Every one must consult his own taste as to the grouping of pictures. In hanging pictures the stock in hand should be looked over and a general scheme decided upon.

Oil paintings and water colors should never be allowed to become intimate companions, but the latter may hobnob with etchings, pastels, drawing, photographs and even engravings without losing their dignity. An oil painting of exceptional excellence should be given a special position.

Water colors and pastels in delicate tints and black and white and soft etchings should properly be placed in wall spaces where the light is strongest. The darker and more heavily shaded pictures should hang farther away from the light. From the faintly colored pictures in the clearest light the glance should be involuntarily but skillfully led to the deeper toned pictures farther back in the room.

Sometimes, however, a dark corner that needs brightening may demand a lighter picture or a spot of brilliant coloring may be risked. A pen and ink sketch with white mat fills in well in such a case. Harmony must be studied and the position of a picture well considered before its place is decided. One with broad white mat should never be hung next to a carbon in a heavy black frame. The eye must be led, not jerked, from one picture to another.

Wash Lace in Milk.

An almost infallible method of cleansing lace which has been much stained through age or other causes, says a writer in Good Housekeeping, is to stew it in milk. Place the lace in a jar and cover with milk. Then set the jar in a saucepan of water, after the manner of cooking beef tea. An hour or two are usually sufficient. The water in the saucepan will boil, but not so the milk. By allowing the milk to boil the stains would be more firmly fixed than ever. The writer tells of an old piece of Brussels which had been lying on a fan for twenty years and was marked with brown stripes. All ordinary treatment had failed to remove the stains, but the lace came out of the hot milk treatment as white as snow and entirely unharmed.

Canned Foods.

Bright colors should be regarded as a flag of danger in the selection of canned foods, for they invariably indicate artificial coloring. A bright green color, such as is seen in canned peas and beans, indicates the presence of copper or iron. The brilliant red of catchup and canned tomatoes and fruits usually comes from aniline dye. A bright yellow, such as is found in mustard, extract of lemon and noodles, is also aniline in its origin as a general thing. The abnormally white color of canned corn and other foods indicates bleaching.—What to Eat.

Brass in a Room.

Brass can make a wonderful difference in a dreary room. A large jardiniere with a plant in it placed in a dark corner will lighten up marvelously. The andirons, too, will give a cheery reflection. Even candlesticks help, and little trays and bowls, be they ever so small. The importance of brass in a sunless room cannot be too strongly emphasized. Mirrors brighten up, and so do pictures with well polished glasses and gilded frames. But these little points are too seldom taken into consideration.

Kitchen Walls.

To clean the kitchen walls first pour some kerosene in a basin, then take a soft cloth and dip it in the kerosene and wash a part of the wall with it, then wring another cloth out of nice hot water and go over the spot just cleaned with kerosene and lastly wipe with a clean dry cloth. You will be surprised at the results. It is the easiest and most satisfactory way of washing painted kitchen or bathroom walls.

Invisible Patches on Curtains.

Cut a piece of the required size out of an old one, and dip it in starch. Then press it on the curtain with a hot iron, and you will have the defective spot well mended until washing day, for it comes round again. Do not iron your curtains, for ironing breaks the threads. Instead, mangle and shake them out. Any creases which remain will soon disappear when they are hung up.

Skimming Soup.

Grease may always be skimmed from hot soup with a small piece of ice. This is very useful when making broths for invalids or children for immediate use. The grease hardens immediately when touched by the ice and clings to it long enough to be removed to a cup or basin, when it slips off and the ice may be used again.—Good Housekeeping.

Don't Slump.

Don't slump. By this is meant a position when sitting in which the back gets bowed and the spine more or less bent. It does not really rest the body, and it brings about a bad figure and worse carriage. So called "easy" chairs help people to slump. A soft cushion should be used to lean against and fill in the natural hollow of the back.

Repairing a Mirror.

A mixture of three ounces of bluish, a half ounce each of tin and lead melted together and three ounces of mercury added when the first mixture is cool applied to the back of a looking glass which needs renewing will make it as good as new. Apply with a hare's foot.

Do not sew too much. Don't embroder too many hours a day. Don't do one thing exclusively and all the time, for this means a strain upon the eyes and headaches.

A plain girl who carries a large line of smiles hasn't much to fear from the pretty girl with the solemn face.

When selecting soup meat, choose meat which has a little fat surrounding it and a cut from the round.

Do not have a house too large for your requirements.

COMPLETE REPORT OF GRAND JURY

Recommends Making Extensive Improvements at Court House and in Preserving County Records.

Appended is the full report of the grand jury of the District Court of Santa Fe County which was discharged for the term yesterday by Judge John R. McFie. The recommendations contained therein are timely and of interest to every citizen and taxpayer of Santa Fe County, especially as concerns the condition of the court house and the necessity of a better system of preserving county documents. The report is as follows: Territory of New Mexico, County of Santa Fe.

In the District Court.
 The grand jury of the County of Santa Fe, for the March term of Court, 1907, now presents itself for final report and discharge, and begs to state to the Honorable Court:

1. That it has been in session sixteen days, and in all that time has been actively engaged in the investigation of cases which have come before it on remands from justices of the peace, on presentation by the district attorney, and on the motion of its own members. In its sittings the grand jury has investigated fifty cases, returning therein thirty-five true bills, and fourteen no true bills. In all cases where the evidence justified it, in the opinion of the grand jury, true bills have been found; but, as instructed by the court, in cases where the evidence was unsatisfactory or capable of explanation, no bills have been returned. The grand jury has examined in all ninety witnesses, discharging them as quickly as possible, so as to save all possible expense to the county. Various cases have been tried on transcripts legally made in justice courts under direction of the assistant district attorney, and in these cases great saving has been accomplished because the witnesses themselves were not necessary to be called.

2. That the grand jury has, through its sub-committees, examined the various county offices and county buildings, and herewith attaches the reports of such sub-committees. As to the new county jail, it is a great credit to the community, and is in splendid condition. We would recommend, however, that the parcel of land lying immediately back of the jail be purchased by the county commissioners so as to make a sufficient jail yard for the prisoners.

The county court house we find to be in bad condition, and in need of many repairs. The door and window sills are badly worn. The plumbing and water closet in the judge's room upstairs should be immediately attended to. We would recommend also that two water-closets for the use of the officials of the building should be put in the basement, and proper sewer connection made either with the Palace Avenue sewer or by running a line of pipe back of the building to connect with the sewer in front of the Palace Hotel. Also, the old privy back of the court house is filthy and repulsive. It ought to be torn down, and replaced by a sanitary and commodious privy, for the use of the people generally when attending court, and the same should be kept locked and the key kept in some convenient office in the court house. In the offices which are actually occupied, water connections should be made and lavatories put in. The basement of this building is full of rubbish and dirt; it should be cleaned out, and put in proper condition, and a good room constructed in the basement for the water-closets above recommended. The stove pipes and flues in the court house should be looked after at once, as they are in bad condition. In fact, the entire building needs to be overhauled.

3. In the probate clerk's office the county commissioners should, in our opinion, take steps to have the vault enlarged so as to accommodate the books and files. Filing cases should be put in, and the papers on file in this office should be classified, put into separate jackets or packages, and filed away with some system so that the same could be at once found. There is a mass of papers in this office pertaining to the business of the county commissioners, and of the probate court, and also belonging to the recorder's branch of the work, that are not classified or systematized in any way. We recommend that the county commissioners at once cause a docket book to be obtained, similar to that used by the clerk of the district court for cases pending in the latter court; and that the probate clerk enter in this book, giving a page or more, if necessary to each case or proceeding, a docket of each and every case and proceeding of each estate, each guardianship, each contest, and each proceeding of whatsoever kind in the probate court. This book should be indexed, and each case given a number, and the papers in the case filed under that number. The page referring to an estate should, for instance, show the date when the will was offered and filed, or the administration applied for, with a memorandum in brief of the thing done on that day, or paper filed, and should go on down through the proceedings had with reference to this estate, entering up a brief memorandum of each step taken, with the date, and referring to the page of the record where an order is made by the probate court. In short, the probate court should have the same system of docket, record and files, as is used in the district clerk's office. We urge this upon the county commissioners as a matter of great necessity.

4. In the assessor's office there is a vast accumulation of old property schedules. These are badly confused and mixed up. It is quite important at times to refer to the old schedules for the purpose of tracing property and getting it properly assessed and described. A system of filing cases should be put in this office, which would not cost over seventy-five dollars, and in these cases the schedules should be preserved and filed away, by years and precincts, or in some classification by which the assessor could instantly find and produce the tax schedule of any person or corporation for any past year. We urge this upon the assessor and the County Board, and believe their compliance with this recommendation will be appreciated by the people of the county.

5. We call attention also to the fact that the grand jury of the County of Santa Fe, in the court house of the County of Santa Fe, has been moved three times during the present session, from one room to another, because the best and preferable quarters were given and allotted to the United States grand jury. Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney Nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine is dark, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month. Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggists recommend and sell.

While engaged in roping a horse a few days ago, Charles H. Barry, a ranger on the Jemez Forest Reserve with headquarters at Tres Piedras, met with an accident which necessitated the amputation of his right thumb. He was mounted on another horse when he threw the lariat and the rope caught around the horn of the saddle and his thumb was nearly jerked off when the lariat tightened. Mr. Barry came to the city yesterday to receive surgical attention and the injured member was so badly lacerated that it could not be saved. The operation was performed by Dr. David Knapp.

INCREASES AREA OF QUAY COUNTY

Bill Has Passed House Adding 375,000 Acres—New Section Also Contains 34 Miles of Railroad.

District Attorney M. C. Mechem, of Tucuman, has been in the city several times during the session of the Legislative Assembly engaged principally in aiding the passage of the bill which takes some area from the County of Union and adds it to the County of Quay. The bill has passed both Houses. Under its provisions fifteen and a half townships, about 375,000 acres, will be added to the area of Quay County. This section contains thirty-four miles of the Chicago, Rock Island and El Paso Railroad and within its limits are situated the two flourishing towns of Nara Visa and Logan. The former especially is moving rapidly ahead. It now has over 500 inhabitants and a bank has been established there. Four general stores, a lumber yard, a good hotel and a newspaper are already located there. The country surrounding Nara Visa is proving fine farming country and nearly every quarter section that is sufficiently level for cultivation, has been entered under the homestead or desert land laws. The water supply is good, as water is found at shallow depths and as the supply seems to be inexhaustible. All arrangements have been entered into by those having the matters in charge in both counties of reimbursing Union County for the section of land taken from it by the bill and transferred to Quay. Bonds of the latter county to the amount of $15,000 will be issued and will be turned over to the county commissioners of Union County to compensate that county for the loss in taxable property and in population occurring to it in the matter.

The town of Logan, which will also be, as soon as the bill is approved, in Quay County, is growing nicely. It now has over 200 inhabitants, several mercantile establishments and other business houses necessary to the well being of the town. A bridge is to be erected near Logan to cross the Canadian River. It will have to be a huge affair as the river bed is very deep and not easy to cross with a bridge. The bluffs on each side are very steep. Logan did a good business last year, over 50,000 head of sheep and several hundred thousand pounds of wool having been shipped from the town and this year's shipments in sheep and wool promise to be still greater. Quay County will gain fully 1,000 people by this addition.

Mr. Mechem is very sincere in praising the conduct of Representative N. V. Gallegos who represents Quay and Guadalupe Counties in the House of Representatives in the present Assembly. He says that Mr. Gallegos did first class work for his constituents during the session and was certainly one of the main factors in securing the passage of the bill giving Quay County additional territory.

One Old Maid

By LEE MITCHELL.

Copyright, 1907, by P. C. Eastment.

During a certain period, lasting about three years, if any one had asked what was the chief feature of the village of Harpersville he would have been told it was gossip and scandal. It had come to such a point at last that hardly any two families were on speaking terms, and a number of people had sold out and moved away in disgust.

The social state of affairs could not have been much worse when the Rev. Henry Bates received a call to fill the pulpit of one of the two churches. He was a man of thirty and single, and he was expected to be popular. It wasn't a month, however, before there were stories floating around to his detriment. He had come from the west, and it was said that his congregation had been pleased to get rid of him, and there were other sly statements and innuendoes calculated to make his position uncomfortable.

There is more or less gossip in every village in the land, but as to who starts it is always one of those things that can't be found out. Mrs. White hears it from Mrs. Black, and Mrs. Black from Mrs. Green, and Mrs. Green from Mrs. Brown, and so it goes, and the fountainhead is seldom located.

When the Rev. Bates came to find out what a hotbed he had got into he cut short his sermons to do a little outside work. When he came to delve into the situation he was more than astonished. There was just one single woman left in Harpersville who hadn't been talked about to her detriment, and she was an old maid named Sarah Lee. She was not only an old maid,

SHE MADE IT PRETTY PLAIN THAT SHE WAS WILLING TO BE HIS.

but she was extremely homely, and the pastor hadn't been investigating long before he thought he had located the fountainhead. In another week he was sure of it.

The old maid was not a church member, but the pastor called on her just the same and threw out broad hints that the gossip and the scandalizer would have hard work to squeeze into the better land when the time came. Sarah agreed with him and two days later cooked up another canard.

She was in command of the situation up to a certain point. She was well to do, and she had wealthy relatives to stand by her. The minister saw that he must go slow and bide his time. There are clergymen who study the subject of religion alone. There are others who study human nature as well. The Rev. Bates was one of the latter.

"An old maid," he reasoned, "is a woman who has been overlooked in the scramble or got left in the lurch. This fact has soured her temper and made her envious and jealous. The only way she can get even is to stab her tongue. She is down on all her married and on the married men of the village."

The tongue of one old maid can stir up more mischief than five ministers can smooth over."

When the pastor had reasoned that far he took a rest for a few minutes and then continued:

"What is the remedy for a tattling, gossiping, slandering old maid? Remove the cause and the disease is cured. In other words, if she can be freed of the spirit of spite will be cured, and she will have no reason to interfere with the peace of mind of others."

The line of reasoning was up to date, and the philosophy weighed full sixteen ounces to the pound. One may reason a thing to a logical conclusion, however, and yet find that only one difficulty has been removed. The Rev. Bates was pitted against Sarah Lee. It was Lee versus Bates. He realized that he would have to go to the end of a year or Sarah Lee would have to be provided with a husband. Not only was the instinct of self preservation appealed to, but if the question had been submitted to any lay mind the answer would have been that one minister was worth ten times as much to any community as an old maid. The Rev. Bates did not turn conspirator. It takes two to conspire, and he did not take any one into his counsel.

His very first move almost brought about his downfall. He made a second call on Miss Lee, and during that Something like a smile appeared at the corners of the pastor's mouth; but, of course, he let it spread no further. When he found that the happy couple were to go west to live he tendered his hearty congratulations and likewise offered them a wife, and Harpersville knew her no more. Then the calm that settled down was indeed blessed—no more gossip, no slander, no lying; in place of them, peace, harmony and contentment. And if the conscience of the Rev. Bates ever pricked him he had but to say to himself:

"Isn't it better to marry off one old maid than to have a thousand people made unhappy?"

The Volley Over the Grave.

The firing of a volley by soldiers over the grave of a dead comrade is a survival of a very ancient custom. In days gone by, when superstition was practically universal, it was generally believed that making a noise kept away evil spirits, and the passing bell came into vogue for that reason. When firearms were invented volley firing was substituted for the passing bell, the belief being that the sound of battle would be more efficacious in the case of a soldier.

SOME NEW YORK "FIRSTS."

The first street used for building purposes was Pearl.

The first manor house was erected by Killian Van Rensselaer in 1630.

The first man sentenced to be hanged for murder was a negro known as "the giant" (1641).

The first record of marine signaling was a small redoubt erected in 1641 upon the eastern headland of the island, where a flag was raised whenever a vessel arrived.

The first building on the site of New York city was erected by the Dutch in the spring of 1615. It was a tiny structure of logs, answering the double purpose of storehouse and fort.

The first ferry to Long Island was established in 1637. It was in the vicinity of Peck slip. Cornelius Dirksen, who had a farm near by, came to ferry passengers at the sound of a horn which he hung against a tree near his skiff.—New York Herald.

Kissing the Feet.

The custom of kissing the feet of persons whom it was desired to honor originated with the ancients. The people of oriental nations used to kiss the hands and feet or hems of the clothes of the persons they wished to show respect for. The ancient Egyptians got this custom from the Assyrians, and later the Greeks adopted the habit from the Egyptians. The Romans followed the Greeks, and then Pontifex Maximus had his great toe kissed by celebrities. The toe of the sultan of Turkey is kissed by subjects of high rank. Those of more lowly position are merely allowed to touch the fringe of his garment to their lips, and the poorest classes must be content to make a low obeisance in his presence.

Champion Jumper of the Ocean.

The most stupendous of all leapers of the sea is the whale, but the whale is not a fish. I have seen a monster weighing hundreds of tons, possibly eighty feet in length, rise slowly and deliberately out of the water until it appeared to be dancing on the surface, entirely clear of it, then sink slowly back. Such a leap is on record in the annals of the British navy. A large whale cleared a boat, going completely over it, an estimated leap of twenty feet in air—how many in a lateral direction was not known.—Charles F. Holder in Outing Magazine.

A Yankee Trick.

(Original.)

A narrow iron steamer, set low in the water, pointed a light gray, lay at a wharf at Charleston, S. C. The time was 1863, and it was evident that the vessel was a blockade runner. Her low build fitted her especially to escape observation, and her hull was most like the gray of early dawn, the hour that blockaders usually slipped in and out of port. On her stern was her name, the Petrel. She was taking on a load of cotton, a fabric worthless in the Confederacy, but valued at more than a dollar a pound in Liverpool. A lean man, with his hands in his pockets, sauntered up to the captain, who was standing on the deck, and asked: "Chief to call tonight, cap?"

The captain turned with a scowl to the intruder, whose accent was plainly that of a Massachusetts Yankee, but did not condescend a reply. His questioner coolly took out a pocketknife, picked up a stick and began to whittle. "See here, yo' blamed Yankee, what yo' doin' here in South Carolina?"

The Yankee laughed. "Guess they know more 'bout that at Richmond. There's southerners in the Yankee service and Yankees in the southern service. I know all about you. You're goin' to run the blockade tomorrow mornin' before daylight."

"Well, suppose I am," the Yankee pulled a fat envelope out of his pocket bearing the stamp of the state department at Richmond and addressed to a Confederate emissary in London.

"Guess you want a passport, don't you?"

The captain looked puzzled, glancing back and forth between the Yankee and his packet. He did not want any one he didn't know aboard his vessel, but did not like to refuse to take a messenger of the Confederate government. He thought that if he could see the contents of the packet he would be satisfied. But he had no right to open it. He concluded to telegraph the state department for instructions.

"All right," he said; "if yo're a bona fide messenger yo' can go."

About midnight the Yankee came to the deck with a lot of children's well coupled.

"Heard from Richmond?" he asked. "You'll call right. You can see. B I what are yo' going to do with those children?"

"Well, I suppose I'd ought to contribute something to aid ourn' the voyage, and I couldn't think of any thing better'n 'em."

The captain again looked puzzled, but permitted the Yankee to take his brothers aboard.

At the dead of night the Petrel left the dock and steamed down the harbor.

Lying outside was the Yankee gunboat Montauk, Lieutenant Spanker commanding. At 2 a. m., as was his custom, he left his cabin and proceeded on deck. For more than an hour he paced to and fro, cursing the fog and declaring that there never was a better night for blockade runners. About half past 3, just as the coming day rendered the fog less black, he thought he heard a cock crow.

"Mr. Havens," he called to a young ensign, "are there any chickens below?"

"No, sir; not a fowl of any kind aboard."

"Well, then, there's one on a blockade runner. I distinctly heard a rooster crow. Call all hands. She's got out, and we must follow. Order the engineer to put on all steam."

In half an hour it was day, and in ten minutes more the fog lifted. There within a cable's length was the Petrel. "Lay to!" shouted Lieutenant Spanker.

The Petrel replied by a number of angry puffs and sped away, but the Montauk sent a shot after her, and her captain, seeing that the gunboat was gaining on him, made a virtue of necessity and shut off steam. A boat was lowered from the Montauk and Ensign Haven boarded the blockade runner with a prize crew.

"Would yo' mind telling me how you got on to us?" asked the Petrel's captain.

"You're got a rooster aboard. We heard him crow."

The captain looked at the Yankee. The Yankee smiled.

"Are you what you pretended to be or not?" asked the captain.

"I've been layin' for this prize."

"But the dispatch from Richmond.

How did you manage that?"

"Easy enough. I waylaid the messenger who brought the reply, took his message and sent my own reply by another messenger while I gave the regular one a supper."

The southerner, with flaming eyes, made a dash for the Yankee, but before he could reach his prey the latter had whipped out a revolver and covered him. This cooled his ardor, and a couple of marines put the captain under arrest.

The Yankee went on board the gunboat and informed Lieutenant Spanker that he was employed by the United States government to hunt up blockade runners and arrange for their capture. He worked in his own way and on commission, his pay being in prize money derived from the captures he brought about. He showed the dispatch he had taken from the messenger from Richmond to the captain warning him that the pretended dispatch bearer was an impostor. He also opened his letter to the emissary in London, and it contained waste paper.

"You'd better be satisfied with your job," said the lieutenant. "The next time you try such a foolhardy game you'll probably swing."

J. EUGENE DRAPER.

CORDON BLEU.

Origin of the French Title as Applied to a Fine Cook.

The Order of the St. Esprit was created in 1578, was suppressed by the revolution and was revived by Louis XVIII. in 1814. To speak rightly, Louis XVIII. considered that the order had never ceased to exist, for he had given two collars during his exile, in 1810, the one to Francis I., king of the two Sicilies, and the other to his brother, the Prince of Salerno, the father of his brother's wife, the Duchess d'Aumale.

The ribbon of this order was a light blue color. It was worn around the neck in the reigns of Henry III. and Henry IV., but was changed by Louis XIV. when it was worn across the chest. The Chevaliers of the St. Esprit were always known under the name of Les Cordon Bleu, and this was the supreme honor during the monarchy of France. It was from this that the title of "cordon bleu" was given to a first class cook. A gentleman one day declared after a good meal that he had cooked the dinner had proved himself a "cordon bleu" among cooks—in other words, the master of his art. The title became quite the rage and is now always used to designate a good cook without the persons who use it knowing what it means or still less the origin of the title.

FOREIGN HOTELS.

They Differ in Many Ways From Those of Our Own Count'y.

Hot water is not "laid on" (piped) at foreign hotels, says the Travel Magazine. If you hear a gentle tap on the door in the morning, you may interpret it as meaning that a copper ewer of hot water has just been set down outside for your personal use.

If you order a bath, it will be prepared for you accordingly, and a sweet voiced maid will give you notice when it is ready. You are not expected to operate the water valves at all, and it is doubtful if you would succeed if you tried.

From a variety of vacant rooms at a hotel shown you select the one you prefer, with a definite agreement as to price. You are not required to accept humbly and thankfully, in blind faith, whatever room the clerk deigns to assign to you, as in America. It is expected, however, that you will order your breakfasts at the hotel, being free to get your other meals elsewhere if you prefer.

Electric light switches are not commonly turned on by a push button or a flat key, as in our buildings, but by a small brass lever. Many of the best hotels have a reading light in the headboard of each bedstead.

The Last Resort.

A man went into an oculist's the other day, complaining of failing sight, got fitted with a pair of spectacles.

"Is this the weakest glass for my eye?" he asked.

"Yes," replied the oculist.

"Supposing I can't see with it after a few months?"

"Get a stronger then."

"And if I still can't see?"

"Get a still stronger."

"And if the strongest glass fails?"

"In that case I think if I were you I should buy a small, intelligent dog and a couple of yards of string."

amine it, as it will likely wish to do, and take action thereon before final adjournment.

Mr. Holt created considerable merriment by moving that the Joint Conference Committee be discharged without honor. Mr. Beach amended to extend a vote of thanks to the committee which amended motion prevailed.

The following special order recommended by the Steering Committee was then taken up:

Council Bill Number 15, without recommendation—an act to create a new Torrance County and change the county seat to Willard was read by title. Mr. Abbott of Santa Fe, moved to table the bill indefinitely. Roll call was demanded, the vote being 12 to 12, and the motion being declared lost by the Speaker. Mr. Holt moved that the bill be read preparatory to its passage. Mr. Abbott, of Santa Fe, moved to amend to table Mr. Holt's motion indefinitely. This motion prevailed by a vote of 13 ayes, 10 nays, and Mr. Holt's motion was tabled, the House thereby refusing to pass the bill.

Thereby refusing to pass the bill. Mr. Abbott of Santa Fe, moved that the vote by which the motion was tabled be reconsidered and the same be tabled. This motion was lost, the vote being again 12 to 12, the Speaker deciding.

Mr. Beach then moved to defer action on the bill and make it special order for Wednesday at 10 a. m. This motion was lost by viva voce vote. This probably ends further consideration of the attempt to change the county seat of Torrance County.

Council Bill Number 42, relative to assessment of bank stock. The bill upon motion of Mr. Holt seconded and carried, was considered read the third time in full. Mr. Mullens offered an amendment which was tabled by a vote of the House. The bill then passed by viva voce vote.

Mr. Holt moved that the House take up Council Bill Number 44, an act relative to municipal government of Gallup. The bill was read the first and second time by title and in full on its third reading and passed the House by viva voce vote.

House Bill Number 173, providing for armories at Santa Fe, Las Cruces, Silver City and Roswell, was taken up and the House by a viva voce vote concurred in the Council amendments thereto, thus passing the bill.

Similar action was taken on House Bill Number 70, an act relative to malicious prosecution; and on House Bill Number 199, an act relative to road tax and for other purposes.

The House then took a recess until the same evening at 7:30 o'clock.

A message from the Governor was announced that he had signed twelve Council Bills, one Council Joint Resolution and fifteen House Bills.

The Council failed to concur in amendments to Council Substitute for Council Bill Number 11, an act assessing sleeping cars. A Committee on Conference, Mr. Dales chairman, reported to the Speaker of the House that it desired a conference Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock on the bill in question.

The Council also reported that it had indefinitely tabled House Bill Number 184, an act to prohibit gambling and had passed instead as a substitute Council Bill Number 48, known as the Spleen Anti-Gambling Act.

Mr. Abbott, of Santa Fe, took the chair. The Conference Committee from the Council, Mr. Dales chairman, asked for a meeting to discuss a new appropriation bill at 10 a. m. Wednesday. The House assented.

Mr. Baca then moved that the rules be suspended to take up Council Bill Number 105, providing for an addition to the Capitol. The bill was read in full and passed the House by viva voce vote. As Speaker Baca, who has worked long and hard in the interests of New Mexico and of Santa Fe, walked across the floor to the Speaker's stand, he was given a round of applause from the large number of spectators on the floor and in the gallery.

A report was received from the Joint Conference Committee on Council Bill Number 115, an act refunding to Educational Institutions, funds expended in locating lands, etc., recommending that the House recede from its amendment which provided that the auditor should not be relieved from responsibility on his bond for misappropriation of the funds. After a lively debate participated in by Mr. Holt, Mr. Beach, Mr. Hudspeith, Mr. Abbott, of Santa Fe, and others, the report of the committee was adopted and by a vote the House amendment was stricken from the bill.

House Bill Number 155, fixing the time for holding court in the Sixth Judicial District was taken up and by a vote the House concurred in minor Council amendments thereto.

Upon motion of Mr. Sanches, of Taos, the rules were suspended and the House took up Council Bill Number 129, an act placing Taos County in the First Judicial District. The bill was read and passed the House by viva voce vote.

Mr. Abbott, of Santa Fe, amended the bill to name the county Newkirk, after D. L. Newkirk, editor of the Pecos Valley News, and a strong advocate of the new county. After a debate lasting almost an hour, the bill passed by a roll call of 18 ayes, 5 nays, those dissenting being Mr. Beach, Holt, Hudspeith, Mullens and Studley. The bill, however, will not be taken up in the Council owing to a resolution in that body barring county division measures from consideration this session.

The Steering Committee reported favorably Council Bill Number 123, relative to limiting action on municipal bonds. The report was adopted, the bill was read and passed by a viva voce vote of the House.

of the remainder of that $15,000 appropriation by the President and Speaker. The motion of Mr. Hudspeith to adopt the amendment was tabled by a vote of 18 ayes, 4 nays, those dissenting being Mr. Denniston, Mr. Hudspeith, Mr. Mullens, and Mr. Ruppe. The resolution was finally adopted by a vote of 13 ayes, 8 nays, those dissenting on the final roll being Messrs. Holt, Hudspeith, Mullens, Aldrich, Beach, Martin, Padilla, Studley, and Walters.

The report of the Steering Committee, favoring the passage of House Bill Number 238, an act relative to saline lands was read and adopted. The bill was read in full and passed the House by viva voce vote. The House then adjourned until Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

THE HOUSE.

42nd Day—Morning Session, March 20. Pursuant to adjournment the House met this morning at 11:30 o'clock, a delay of over an hour being caused by a caucus of the Republican members.

The Chief Clerk read the roll, all answering present.

The reading of the Journal was dispensed with. Mr. Holt then moved to reconsider the vote by which House Bill Number 177, an act providing for appropriations for el camino real in Dona Ana County and a scenic highway in Otero County, had passed the House. This motion prevailed. Mr. Holt then moved the passage of the bill, the objections of the Governor thereto notwithstanding.

Mr. Beach asked to be heard upon the veto. He read his speech which lasted for nearly half an hour. He severely scored the Governor, the members of the Council who signed the petition for the veto of the bill, and charged that the appointment of these men to public office by the Governor, was the cause for their action with regard to the bill. He opened his speech by reading a copy of the veto message as follows:

March 18, 1907.

Veto Message Number 5.
Hon. R. L. Baca and the Members of the House of Representatives of the Thirty-seventh Legislative Assembly of the Territory of New Mexico, Santa Fe, N. M.

Gentlemen—I have the honor to most respectfully return herewith, House Bill Number 177, entitled an act to amend Section 11, Chapter 7, of the Acts of the Thirty-sixth Legislative Assembly of New Mexico approved February 10, 1905, relative to the construction of a system of public highways in New Mexico, without my approval.

This action is taken for the reason that a majority of the Legislative Council have petitioned me not to approve said bill, a copy of which petition is hereto annexed, and for the further reason that the expenditure contemplated under said bill, is one which I do not deem the Territory should further encourage, it being local in its nature, and while for a splendid purpose, I believe it is an improvement which each of the counties should provide for themselves without establishing a precedent of Territorial aid for county roads.

I have the honor to be,

Most respectfully yours,

H. J. HAGERMAN,

Governor of New Mexico.

He said the Governor had promised the people of Dona Ana County in their Good Roads Convention that he would do all within his power to aid them and he pointed to the fact that the Governor now refused to do so. He pointed to the Governor's message, advocating improved roads and said that he was now inconsistently going back on every word he had said in that message.

He charged that the Governor, through personal and petty animosity had vetoed the bill. He then entered into a discussion of the alleged reasons of the Governor for vetoing the bill and declared them to be only a pretext for carrying out retaliation. He referred to the attorney general as "The Friday" to the Governor. He then intimated that because of opposition, investigation of his land deals and for other personal reasons the Governor had vetoed the bill.

"If such be the case, but one conclusion can be reached for the action of the Governor—personal pique and revenge for imaginary grievances at certain members of this House who are not applicants for office at the hands of the Governor. God give us men whom the last of office can not influence."

Mr. Holt then spoke stating that the slogan of the reformers was "Let the people know." He stated that he wanted them to know and for that reason he went into a detailed explanation of the bill, its purpose, the motives of the Governor and the Councilmen petitioning for the veto message on this bill had done so at the solicitation of the attorney general. He charged the Governor with vetoing the measure because he had been subjected to an investigation with reference to the sale of public lands and concluded with the statement that the whole affair on the part of the Governor was animated by petty and personal animosity and spite.

Mr. Hudspeith spoke in a general opposition to any and all appropriations for improving county roads at the general expense of the Territory. He referred to Governor Hagerman as a Republican when he said that as a Democrat he was always glad to see one Republican showing up another Republican.

position to any and all appropriations for improving county roads at the general expense of the Territory. He referred to Governor Hagerman as a Republican when he said that as a Democrat he was always glad to see one Republican showing up another Republican.

"I deny that the Governor is a Republican," said Mr. Beach spiritedly. The applause was so demonstrative that the sergeant-at-arms had to restore order. Mr. Beach's remark evidently found plenty of supporters in the House members and spectators on the floor and in the gallery. When Mr. Hudspeith concluded speaking, the bill passed over the Governor's veto by a vote of 17 ayes, 6 nays, those voting nay being Messrs. Abbott, of Colfax, Denniston, Hudspeith, Mullens, Ruppe and Walters. Mr. Moran was absent.

The House then took up the veto message of the Governor on House Bill Number 178, an act to abolish the office of public printer and for other purposes. Upon motion of Mr. Holt, the House voted to reconsider the vote by which the bill had passed the House. The bill was then passed over the Governor's veto by a vote of 16 ayes, 7 nays, those dissenting being Messrs. Abbott of Colfax, Denniston, Hudspeith, Lucero, Moran, Mullens, Ruppe and Walters.

The House then took a recess until this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

THE COUNCIL.

42d Day—Afternoon Session, March 20.

The Council met at 3 o'clock this afternoon pursuant to adjournment. All members were present. After the usual formalities of opening, the Council passed House Bill Number 125, known as the Militia Bill, and also House Bill Number 123, known as the Pharmacy Bill.

Mr. Sargent then introduced a resolution asking for an investigation of all the Territorial officers relative to the expenditure of contingent expense monies. The resolution was adopted and will likely go to the House sometime this afternoon.

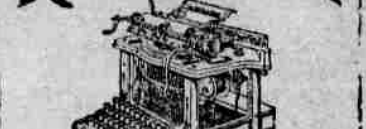

The Council then took a recess until 5 o'clock p. m.
