LIES SHATTERED BY TRUTH AND FACTS

Splendid Record of Republican House Majority of Assembly Clearly and Fully Established.

Under glaring head-lines Macpherson's Albuquerque Morning Fakir, in its Sunday issue, devoted several columns to the review of the record of the Thirty-seventh Legislative Assembly. This last review is so interwoven with falsehoods, with lies, with libelous assertions, slanderous statements and such a venomous attack on the good name and fair fame of the people of New Mexico, and of the Republican party of the Territory, that it should be shown up in all its dirty nakedness and cowardly venom. Fortunately the task is not at all difficult, as in this instance, as in hundreds of others for months past, the Yellow Sheet—the organ of the corrupt Albuquerque Water Supply Ring—has overdone it, and had more than sufficient rope to hang itself. The facts are, simply:

On November 6th last, nineteen regular Republicans, two People's Party men, and three Democrats were elected to the House of Representatives; to the Council, ten regular Republicans, one People's Party man, and one Democrat were elected.

Upon assembling, seventeen of the regular Republicans of the House went into caucus and agreed that no bills should be passed excepting such as were fully considered as good and wholesome legislation for the people of the Sunshine Territory and, naturally, beneficial, when practicable, to the Republican party.

This Republican organization was composed of men who had come from the people and who had been elected to represent them by very large majorities. These men stood firm, and to them, and to them alone, is the first-class legislation that was enacted to be attributed, and they are to be credited with it. It is too well-known a fact to be denied successfully by anyone, even those who have paid for and used the columns of the Albuquerque Morning Fakir for months, that these seventeen Republicans had it in their power at any time, with a few minutes for deliberation, to defeat any and every piece of legislation brought into the House, no matter who desired it, no matter who brought it there, no matter by what vote the Council had passed it, nor how ardently the Governor of New Mexico desired its passage.

Right here the question of how much Chairman H. O. Bursum, the chairman of the Republican Committee, had to do with this need not enter. Mr. Bursum has shown the fullest capacity to take care of himself and will do so hereafter; he is not on trial before the public concerning his record as the Superintendent of the Penitentiary; he has brought suit in the proper court for an adjudication of the claims made against him by certain Territorial officials, and which he prefers against the Territory. This will be settled in due course of time, and properly and fairly, no decent citizen can doubt. It will not be done by absolute ex-parte, cooked-up, or hear-say evidence, but upon facts that will be carefully and judicially investigated in the proper court. As chairman of the Republican Territorial Central Committee, if Mr. Bursum felt like advising the Republican organization of the House he had a perfect right so to do, and people who assail him for that certainly know nothing of politics or of congressional and legislative proceedings in every legislative hall in this country.

The statements of Macpherson's bought and sold Yellow Sheet need hardly be taken up seriatim and shown up for what they really are. The most important ones alone are necessary for this purpose. They fall, and the rotten truck which accompanied them naturally falls with them.

"Briefly, it was proposed, first to pay, contingent expenses, and clerk hire of the office and the revision law. It was proposed to abolish the mounted police, and thus cut off an influence for law and order in the Territory, because that force had been able in the course of running down probable prosecutions and of supplying members of the machine with jobs which they had lost or were in serious danger of losing."—Albuquerque Fakir.

New Mexico is the only State or Territory in this Union in which District Attorneys are appointed by the Executive. The system has been found so bad, so chuck full of corruption and so strongly in the direction of building up a one-man power that every State of the forty-five of the Union, and even the Territory of Arizona, has discarded it many years ago. It was proposed to leave the election of these officials to the people, where it justly and properly belongs. The statement that had the bill passed it would have been for the purpose of shielding corrupt and dishonest officials is absolutely and unqualifiedly untrue in every particular. There were none such to prosecute as far as known at this time; two terms of court have elapsed since Governor Hagerman assumed office and not a single indictment or even information for misdemeanor or malfeasance in office has been found or filed.

"Next it was proposed to so reduce the salaries of certain Territorial officers, notably the attorney general, that men of large ability could not be retained to fill the positions."—Albuquerque Fakir.

This is the veriest slush, and is shown to be the absolute untruth, or a lie, if you please, by the appropriations in the finance law. In addition it should be remembered that up to within two years ago the attorney general of the Territory, the late Edward L. Bartlett, who held office with the best possible record for eight years, received less than one-half of what has been paid the present attorney general, and what is included in the present appropriation for the sal-make three inspection districts. That is true, but under the bill which had this for its object, the provisions of the coal law would have been more stringent and would have been of some use and benefit to the people. As it stands now, under the appointment of James S. Duncan it is believed by the great majority of the people that there will be no rigid inspection and that the great fees of the office will go into the pockets of that ex-member of the Legislative Council, and the man who, according to promise and for their influence, will be appointed Deputy Coal Oil Inspectors of New Mexico. It certainly would have been better to have appointed, direct, three coal oil inspectors, with the strict understanding that they must perform their duties properly and efficiently, than to parcel out the office to deputies for votes and simply as a matter of personal reward.

"It was proposed to prevent confirmation of those executive nominations not satisfactory to the Bursum machine, and thus to further embarrass and upset the administration."—Albuquerque Fakir.

Another damnable lie. There was no such proposition ever broached or thought of. It is universally and fully admitted by every man who knows anything of the form of this Territorial Government that the Executive has the right and privilege to make nominations for Territorial office, provided they are men of the right stamp, and by and with the advice of the Legislative Council. It had become so apparent from the very first that a majority of the members of the Council would receive these nominations that it would have been absolute and utter folly for any opposition to harbor such foolish notions as the defeat of gubernatorial nominations by the very same men who were to be nominated.

"It was proposed to pass laws which would relieve certain members of the machine from prosecution for wrong acts, and it was proposed to defeat every item of the legislation proposed by Governor Hagerman in his message to the Assembly, from gambling legislation down."—Albuquerque Fakir.

Another pipe dream and figment of a coained imagination. In the first place, there was no necessity for such a proposition. There has not been a leading Republican since the administration changed, and there is not one today, who is among those charged by the Albuquerque Morning Fakir as being a member of the "machine" or "tool of Bursum" or a "grafter" who in the least needed such a statute. The men who are accused were not born yesterday but are of full age and stature, and understand the situation clearly; they have not been in the habit of doing useless and uncalled for things or of fighting for objects that were not beneficial or necessary for the good of the commonwealth and of the Republican party. Every good item of legislation that was proposed in the Assembly by anybody by members, or by the Executive, was advocated by the leaders of the party and by the Daily New Mexican for years before these self-proclaimed "reformers" were thought of. From the gambling bill up and down the Republican leaders have been in the van for the good legislation adopted, and certainly the columns of the New Mexican day after day and year after year for many years past prove this undeniable fact, even to the minds of the most skeptical, except such as are too deeply interested in their own schemes and machinations and who naturally will believe nothing except it suits their purposes and whims.

"To go into all the details of the machine's campaign would be to write again the history of the Assembly. It is merely interesting to note what the machine accomplished out of its campaign.

"The district attorneys have been appointed by the Governor and have been duly confirmed.

"The salaries of the Territorial officers have remained the same.

"The mounted police are still an active force for law and order.

"The penitentiary commission has been duly named and confirmed.

"The coal oil inspection system remains under the control of the Governor, and subject to the executive approval."—Albuquerque Fakir.

The funniest thing about this lie is that, with two exceptions, every district attorney who held office "under the machine" for two years past, and many of them for much longer periods, was re-appointed. It is certainly singular that these officials who owe what they are today to "the Republican machine" should have been re-appointed if the "machine" appointments had such bad records and such rotten history.

As a whole statement the reply is: Yes, all owing to the action of the seventeen straight Republicans in the House of Representatives and their advisors. Had it not been for the patriotism, the moderation, the good sense of the Republicans of the House these things would not be in the good shape that they are now in. To be sure, the old appropriation law would (Continued on Page Eight)

BOTH SIDES REMAIN FIRM

Neither Trainmen or Railroads Will Give in

CHAIRMAN KNAPP HOPEFUL

Will Do All in His Power to Prevent Strike—Holding Final Session.

Chicago, March 30.—Chairman Knapp of the Interstate Commerce Commission and Charles P. Neill, United States Labor Commissioner, arrived here today from Washington to confer with the members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the Order of Railway Conductors.

The meeting which opened late this morning did not begin under highly auspicious conditions. Grand Chief Morrissey and Grand Conductor Garretson were positive in their assertions before the conference that the men would not abate their demands. They declared that it was not in their power to accept less than the men had asked, for the reason that the membership of both organizations had voted on the propositions to be considered in the meeting, and that the vote was overwhelming in favor of a strike unless the demands of the men were granted.

Railroads Have Gone Limit.
C. P. Brown, chairman of the board of managers of the railroads was equally confident that the railroads could go no further than they had already gone and that it was impossible for them to make any greater concession.

Knapp Hopes for Settlement.
Before entering the meeting Chairman Knapp said:
"I cannot say just now what will be done. My understanding is that both sides are anxious to avoid a strike and such a disposition is a promise that everything will come out happily. We shall certainly do all in our power while acting with strict justice for all concerned to bring about a peaceable adjustment of the difficulty."

Nothing Done Today.
Nothing tangible resulted from the first meeting of Chairman Knapp and Labor Commissioner Neill with the parties to the dispute. Later, meeting will be held today but it is not believed that any agreement or settlement will be reached for several days.

STRIKE CURTAILS BEER OUTPUT

St. Louis Breweries Abandon Out-of-Town Trade—Will Try to Supply Local Demand.

St. Louis, March 30.—The strike of the brewery workers here and in East St. Louis has already had the effect of curtailing the output of beer. The breweries will continue supplying their city trade but, it is announced, that the out-of-town trade has been abandoned for the time being.

The firemen walked out last night, but the boilers in all the breweries are being kept hot by volunteers who were mostly from the office staffs.

About three hundred others walked out from the different breweries this morning and 1,100 bottlers will go on a strike during the day.

Legislature Passes Act Which Goes to Executive—If it Becomes Law Railroads Will Fight.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 30.—If Governor Stuart approves the 2-cent passenger fare bill which has passed the House and the Senate of the Legislature and which is now in his hands, the Pennsylvania and Reading Railroads will at once begin action to test the constitutionality of the act.

ARTILLERY QUICKLY SUBDUES PEASANTS

Roumanian Revolutionists Slaughtered

GRAPESHOT USED IN GUNS

Many Insurgents Surrendering—Leaders Thrown in Prison.

Bucharest, March 30.—Guns loaded with grape-shot, according to official reports, are winning against the Roumanian revolutionists whose arms are mostly bayonets and scythes blades.

Held Own With Cavalry.
The insurgents were able to hold their own against the troops at close quarters and even withstood cavalry charges, doing terrible execution with long pronged bayonets and scythes blades strapped to long poles but the slaughter since the troops have begun using artillery appears to be terrifying them into submission.

Many Surrendering.
In the province of Vlasheia large numbers of insurgents have surrendered and have denounced their leaders to the authorities. Many of the latter have been arrested. The government hopes that with the leaders in jail the undisciplined bands will soon abandon the field.

PETITIONS COURT FOR AN ACCOUNTING

Territorial Auditor W. G. Sargent Files Suit Against Territory Through Attorney Renshan.

Having failed to secure the passage of a bill introduced by himself in the recent Legislative Assembly providing for the settlement of certain accounts relative to contingent expenses in his office, Territorial Auditor W. G. Sargent has filed a petition in the district court of Santa Fe County praying for an adjustment of the accounts in question. Attorney A. B. Renshan has been retained as counsel for the petitioner.

The petition recites that the act of the Legislative Assembly approved March 16, 1905, entitled "An act providing funds and making appropriations for the Fifty-seventh and fifty-eighth fiscal years and for other purposes, contained among other appropriations the following: 'For postage, express, printing, blanks and incidentals, the auditor is hereby allowed $1,000.'"

The petitioner avers that the said appropriations were for the purpose, first to enable him to procure and pay for such of the particular items mentioned as he might need in his office, and that the residue as might exist from time to time in the funds thus established was in the nature of salary to the auditor. He contends that former auditors charged with the construction of similar statutes have uniformly interpreted them as he has the one in question, and he prays that the disputed accounts may be inquired into and adjusted as the law provides to make settlement and satisfaction of any amount which may be properly chargeable against him and to that end he prays that proper orders directed to the Territory of New Mexico be issued and served upon the attorney general.

THAW STILL UNDER FIRE

Before Lunacy Commission Again Today

EXAMINATION SECRET

Dr. Hamilton, Alienist, is Subpoenaed—May Report Monday.

New York, March 30.—The Lunacy Commission went into executive session at 10:25 o'clock this morning. Thaw was immediately called before the board. His counsel reported him today as in good spirits and fully capable of standing whatever mental tests were put to him.

Alienist Waiting on Commission.
Dr. Allan Hamilton, the alienist who was summoned last night by the Commission was waiting when today's inquiry began. There is much speculation as to the reasons for subpoenaing Dr. Hamilton. The Commission's examination will likely be brief as it is known that Dr. Hamilton has had no intimate relationship with the defendant since last July.

Believes Thaw is Paranoid.
The alienist may be asked his reason for stating that Thaw is in unsound mind today and then the Commission may place whatever value it desires on his testimony. Dr. Hamilton believes Thaw is paranoid.

Thaw on Stand Almost Three Hours.
Thaw was under examination for two hours and fifteen minutes when at 1:15 p. m. a twenty-five minutes recess was ordered and it was announced that his ordeal was nearly over. After half an hour further questioning it is believed the Commission will have concluded their mental tests of the defendant and that there will then be an open session for the examination of Dr. Hamilton. The Commission is bending every effort to end its work this afternoon.

Hamilton's Testimony Barred.
District Attorney Jerome obtained permission late this afternoon to cross-examine Thaw. At the conclusion, Dr. Hamilton was called to the stand but was not permitted to testify.

MORRIS TRIAL TO SAN JUAN COUNTY

Judge McFie Grants Change of Venue in Murder Case—An Interesting Civil Suit.

The First Judicial District Court for Santa Fe County continued in session today, Judge John R. McFie presiding and Clerk A. M. Bergere at his desk.

Some knotty questions have been involved in the civil suit of Isaacs and Company, of Kansas City, versus Mrs. Joseph Hersch of Santa Fe which was expected to go to the jury this afternoon about 3 o'clock. As previously stated, the plaintiff brought suit for the recovery of $75 alleged to be due on a bill of goods sold to the defendant. Mrs. Hersch did not deny having purchased the merchandise in question but claimed that she paid for it to an agent of the company. The plaintiff averred that the agent had no right to accept the money and repudiated this alleged settlement. Attorney A. B. Renshan appeared for the plaintiff and Attorney George W. Pritchard for the defendant, and a seemingly simple case developed more questions of law than many of vastly more importance.

Judge McFie yesterday afternoon granted a change of venue from the District Court of Santa Fe County to the District Court of San Juan County in the case of the Territory vs. John Morris, charged with the murder of Catalino Lobato. Attorney E. C. Abbott for the defense was willing to have the case tried in Torrance County but District Attorney R. C. Gorman objected on the ground that the court might be in error in allowing the case to be taken out of the First Judicial District.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF SANTA FE COUNTY.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every postoffice in the Territory and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the Southwest.

THE FENCES MUST COME DOWN.

The order recently by the Secretary of the Interior directing that all fences on the public domain must come down and must stay down, is in the right direction and for the benefit of the homeseekers, the settlers, the farmers, the fruit raisers in the great Southwest. The great cattle syndicates have for many years used the public domain for their own benefit solely and at a very small expense. They have been a detriment to the settling and building up of the territory which they occupied and an impediment to the general progress and advance of the commonwealth in which they are located. They want steers and not men to occupy the land from which they have for many years gained much revenue without rent and without much cost, except the maintenance of a few men to look after the live stock owned by them.

In New Mexico during the past few years a change has become very apparent as settlers and homeseekers have come into the Territory, especially in eastern counties, namely, Union, Guadalupe, Roosevelt, Chaves, Eddy, Quay, Lincoln, Otero and Torrance in greater numbers than for 50 years before that time. The fences erected and maintained by the big cattle companies in those sections of New Mexico must give away to the homestead and desert land entrymen and of the newcomers and during the past three years these are numbered by the thousands.

The Denver Republican in treating this question pertinently says that there should be no question at all about the policy of enforcing the law against the erection of unlawful fences on the public lands; and there is no reason why any compromise should be made to favor the owners of either large or small herds.

Many of these fences were erected by great cattle barons, who by that means absorbed a vast acreage of public land and occupied it to the exclusion of everyone else. To allow the fences to remain would be to perpetuate this condition to the exclusion of homesteaders and others.

It is for the purpose of opening up such tracts of public land, not alone to theoretical, but to actual and practical location under the land laws, that the removal of the fences is demanded, and the government at Washington will render good service to homeseekers in the Far West if it enforces the provisions of the law as strictly as circumstances may demand.

SOME REAL CONDITIONS IN THE THIRTY-SEVENTH ASSEMBLY.

On another page of this issue the New Mexican publishes an article devoted to an expose of certain of the real conditions that obtained in the Thirty-seventh Legislative Assembly. The New Mexican wants the people to know. And as this paper has a considerable circulation in the Sunshine Territory it is certain the people will know and will become better acquainted with the facts and history of the Assembly as time advances. Truth is mighty and must prevail, even in New Mexico and even against the jobbery with fat offices which was used to influence votes in the Council of the Assembly. The path of duty is outlined clearly and straight and it will not be swerved from by this paper or by true and loyal Republicans in this Territory. While the assaults upon Republican party candidates and principles of late have been severe and serious, nevertheless, this paper believes that the party will weather these virulent and venomous attacks and will come up stronger than ever for next year's political fray. When the real history and inside facts concerning certain doings in the last Assembly will be published and become well known throughout this Territory, the Republican leaders and loyal voters will again rally to the standard of Republicanism as they have numerous times in the past fifty years, and the party will fully recover from the injuries which have been inflicted upon it, and from the vicious assaults and dirty attacks made upon it, its organization and many of its leaders and representatives. The information set forth in the article referred to can easily be substantiated by personal examination and careful investigation by any interested citizen no matter of what political faith or what present predilections. The facts are plain and are set forth in plain and easily understood language. That they will be read the New Mexican fully believes; that they will not be forgotten the New Mexican feels sure.

CREDIT FOR REPRESENTATIVES BACA AND ABBOTT.

The credit for the passage of the law for the extension of the Capitol building, the erection of an Executive mansion and the purchase of more land to be added to the Capitol grounds, belongs primarily to Speaker Baca and Representative E. C. Abbott, both of this county. Mr. Baca first introduced a bill providing for these objects which appropriated $100,000 for the purpose. This was passed by the House owing to the work of the two Santa Fe County representatives, in short order and went to the Council. There this bill was sidetracked and a new bill nearly identical with that introduced into and passed by the House of Representatives was prepared, introduced and passed. This reduced the appropriation to $50,000, this sum to be derived from bonds to be sold by the Territory. When this came back to the House, the bill would have been killed in ten seconds had Mr. Baca and Mr. Abbott so desired. It is well known that there was no friendship whatever in the House for many doings of the Council and especially not for Councilman Miera, who put up the job evidently with the intention of taking the credit from Representatives Baca and Abbott and using it for himself. This man's doings and motives were too well understood and too well known and had it not been for the timely action of Messrs. Baca and Abbott and by their influence in the House the project would have been promptly killed. The people of Santa Fe City and County should not forget this; indeed they should remember it for all time to come. The above are the facts and everybody who knows anything about recent legislative conditions, knows that they are true.

WORKING HARD TO SECURE THE CRAFT.

Certainly Danny Macpherson and his Albuquerque Morning Fakir ring desire to control the business of the Bureau of Immigration. It is the consensus of public opinion that heretofore the affairs of the Bureau have been managed with a view to the best interests of the Territory and to carry out the purpose and objects for which the Bureau was organized and maintained. Should Danny Macpherson succeed in putting his tool Hening into position as secretary in order to repay him for the dirty work as correspondent of the Albuquerque Fakir during the recent sessions of the Thirty-seventh Legislative Assembly and for similar work before then and in that case the people may rest assured that a great change but not for the better will come over the administration of the Bureau of Immigration affairs. To secure control of the Bureau was one of the objects for which Macpherson and his gang assailed the Republican party, leading Republicans and the Republican majority in the House of Representatives recently. It is now well understood that this control and the secretaryship of the Bureau were demanded by the gang as its reward from the Governor. The scheme may be carried out and again it may not be. Its originators are working very hard and that thoroughly, unscrupulously and defiant of all decency or fairness to bring it to a successful issue.

"The Star-Eyed Goddess of Reform" in New Mexico has become defiled. For instance, during the recent Assembly she wanted the vote of Councilman James S. Duncan of the Fifth Council District in order to give the Republican party of New Mexico a solar plexus blow. There was a demurrer on the part of the man approached. "Get thee behind me, Star-Eyed Goddess of Reform," said this statesman at first. "But I will give you the coal oil job, Jimmy dear," was the sweet and seductive answer Jimmy fell and the Star-Eyed Goddess of Reform tumbled with him. James S. Duncan is the coal oil inspector of the Territory of New Mexico.

The compiled laws of 1897 direct that Arbor Day shall be observed on the second Friday of March. For some occult reason the fifth Friday and Good Friday, a solemn church holiday, was proclaimed Arbor Day this year and thereby the very purpose of the day was nullified to a large extent.

PETTY METHOD OF GETTING EVEN.

Governor Kibbey, of Arizona, evidently likes to get even, concluding from an editorial recently in the Bisbee Review. It seems that the chief clerks of the two houses during the recent session of the Arizona Assembly were instrumental in knocking a pet scheme or two of the Governor and hence the awful majesty of the law is evoked and the Attorney General of the Territory has officially advised the auditor not to pay the neat sum of $300 to the chief clerks of the House and Council of the recent Assembly for services in preparing the Journals for the printer as allowed and voted by the Assembly. Says the Review:

"Governor Kibbey, by and with the advice and consent of his Attorney General, has advised the Auditor of the Territory not to pay the chief clerk of the House and the chief clerk of the Council the extra appropriation of three hundred dollars each, given to the clerks as compensation for compiling the Journals. These appropriations have been voted the chief clerks of the past legislatures and this is the first time that its legality has been questioned. Besides the question of legality, raised by the Attorney General, it is remembered that Chief Clerks Robinson and Mauk were active in several occasions in spoiling a set program of the administration, and to the Review, this 'opinion' appears as a petty method of 'getting even'."

ARIZONA BETTER OFF.

It is fortunate for good government and decency and honesty in political affairs in Arizona, that the Governor of that Territory has not the right or the power to appoint members of a Legislative Assembly to office. Had he such there would have probably been as much trading and as much buying or selling of legislative votes in the recent assembly of that Territory as there were in New Mexico. Considering this question the Bisbee Daily Review remarks:

"Over in New Mexico they are still working the old rawhide plan of government. There the governor may appoint a member of the legislature to any position in the Territorial government he desires. During the legislative session which closed there last week there was a bitter factional fight between the friends of Governor Hagerman and those who are known to be anxious to dangle his political scalp at their belts. It seems that the governor resorted to the old plan worked in New Mexico for many long years of trading off positions in the Territorial administration for supporters in the legislature and as a result a good many members of the session will remain in Santa Fe and fill the public offices. In Arizona the governor may not appoint a member of the legislature to a position in the Territorial government."

Several bills were passed by the Thirty-seventh Legislative Assembly which were consigned to the grave by a pocket veto. A number of these deserved the death accorded them by the executive, but others should have been approved and placed upon the statute books as their provisions were beneficial and for the best interests of the people, and against the wishes and desires of several monopolies and certain trusts. A careful examination of the Journals of the Assembly will establish this assertion. More anon.

A young man was recently arrested in the Indian Territory for bigamy. It was found that he hailed from Pittsburg, Pennsylvania. Considering the recent doings in the Smoky City, this was expected. The young men and women hailing from there are getting quite a bad reputation.

They have some sense in the town of Downs, in the great state of Kansas. At a recent school debate it was decided unanimously that "City Girls in the Country are Greener than Country Girls in the City." Quite right, although the city girls may not believe it.

There are some very good citizens on the Territorial Board of Equalization and again there are others who are not so good. It is hoped that the latter are not numerous enough to do harm. That they would like to, if they could, of that there need be no uncertainty.

Somebody may have told the truth in the Thaw murder trial, but from the testimony the average reader could not determine this very easily. That many great big lies were given to the court and jury goes without successful contradiction.

Mrs. Evelyn Nesbitt Thaw is to have $300,000 for her evidence in the Thaw murder trial. The question arises why she is to have that great sum. For telling stories or for telling the truth? Don't all speak at once.

Evidently a good many witnesses in the Thaw murder trial must be acquainted with Danny Macpherson, boss of the Albuquerque Morning Fakir and his correspondent Hening. They lied so easy.

Vice-President Fairbanks is looming up as a Presidential candidate of the Republican ticket in 1908. If not, why not? He is of presidential stature.

It is the Fakir Journal's move next on the Barnes' interview. Why this silence after all this unseemly hilarity?

Not a grain of real coffee, remember, in Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, yet its flavor and taste matches closely old Java and Mocha Coffee. If your stomach, heart, or kidneys can't stand Coffee, try Health Coffee. It is wholesome, nourishing, and satisfying. It's nice even for the youngest child. Sold by Cartwright-Davis Company.

PERFECT CONFIDENCE

Santa Fe People Have Good Reason For Complete Reliance.

Do you know how—
To find quick relief from backache;
To correct distressing urinary ills;
To surely cure sick kidneys?
Just one way—your neighbors know—
Have used Doan's Kidney Pills;
Have proved their worth in many tests.

Here's Santa Fe testimony.
Locario Lopez, living at Alto St., Santa Fe, New Mexico, says: "I have never lost my confidence in Doan's Pills since the first day I used them. Trouble with my kidneys caused me a great deal of suffering for ten years. At times I could not walk, sleep or even lie down on account of the intense pain in my back. A weakness of the kidneys caused me to rise often at night and during the day I experienced difficulty in holding the secretions. Further evidence of fault was shown by a white sediment which they contained. I tried different remedies but derived no benefit until I began the use of Doan's Kidney Pills, a box of which I procured at The Ireland Pharmacy. Three boxes cured me and I had no return of the trouble until about a year ago, and then knowing what to do I did not give it a chance to get a hold of me as formerly but was relieved immediately by one havebox of Doan's Kidney Pills and I have been well from that time on. I certainly take pleasure in renewing my recommendation of Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

FILIGREE WORKERS OF THE SOUTHWEST

Art Almost as Old as History Which at Present Time is Practiced Extensively in New Mexico and Mexico.

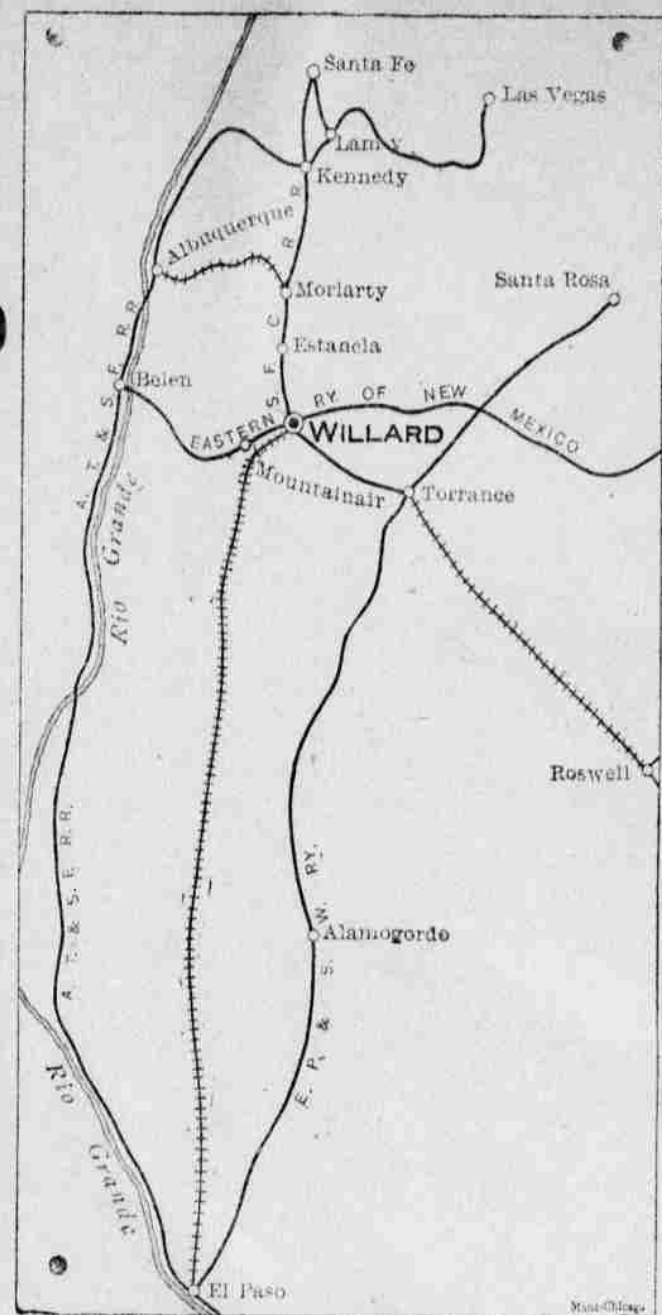

(By John L. Cowan.)

In a recent issue of the Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Bulletin, appeared an interesting article entitled "Filigree Workers of the Southwest" by John L. Cowan, a well known writer who recently visited Santa Fe and who is now visiting various sections of the Territory gathering data for additional feature stories on New Mexico in particular and the Southwest in general. As the article describes a craft which is peculiarly adapted to the Southwest it is reprinted as being of general interest. The article is as follows:

"Where the precious metals 'grew' as it were, it seems only natural that craftsmen should attain extraordinary skill in working them. Accordingly, it excites but little surprise or comment that the goldsmiths and the silversmiths of the Southwest display an originality of design and a deftness of execution that the most skilled workmen of eastern cities cannot equal—at least in lines that depend wholly upon manual dexterity and delicacy of manipulation, rather than upon mechanical appliances and technical knowledge. An Indian of Sandida, Jemez or Zia in New Mexico can take a piece of silver or copper, and with no tools but a hammer and a couple of dies pound it out upon the hard-baked earthen floor of his 'dobe' into a bracelet or saddle ornament that would be no discredit to many a silversmith who has served a long apprenticeship and who considers him-

"The filigree workers obtain their materials from many sources. Whenever possible, they prefer to obtain their gold by melting down broken, defaced or out-of-fashion jewelry—the 'old gold' of less shoddy days than these. Sometimes they purchase both gold and silver direct from the refiners of precious metals. Old coins also are particularly desirable, containing less of alloy than the output of modern mints, and being therefore more ductile and more easily worked. A favorite source of supply for the filigree workers of New Mexico is the old church of San Lorenzo, in the Mexican State of Sonora, about ten miles from El Paso. For hundreds of miles around, on both sides of the international boundary line, both Mexicans and Indians entertain the most profound and abiding faith in the miracle-working powers of the Saint and his agents, the priests in the little church. If anyone has a broken arm, a game leg, a falling eye, or any other physical infirmity, he moulds a miniature replica of the affected organ in gold or silver according to his means; makes a pilgrimage to the shrine of San Lorenzo, hangs his offering upon the image of the Saint, receives the blessing of the priest, and goes on his way rejoicing in the confident belief that a cure will be wrought in due time. Consequently, the image of the good Saint is at all times literally burdened with the quaintly moulded forms of arms, hands, feet, legs, ears, heads, eyes and other human organs self an expert in his line. On a somewhat higher plane in the profession is the Mexican filigree worker, who with tools but little more elaborate, will draw the ductile metals into filaments almost as fine as cobwebs and weave them into fabrics finer than any that ever came from the looms of Cluny or Valenciennes, and so perfect that a microscope is needed to detect a flaw.

"The art of the filigree worker is almost as old as history. It was practiced by the jewelers of ancient Egypt before the time of Moses. Like most of the fine arts, it reached its greatest perfection among the Greeks, whose workmanship has never been equalled in modern times. At the present time it is practiced most extensively in Malta, India, Genoa, Tuscany, the Ionian Islands, parts of Turkey, Mexico and New Mexico. It came to the western hemisphere from Spain, in the days of the Conquistadores. Farther back than that, the Spaniards learned it from the Moors, who took it with them from Arabia and Asia Minor. In both Old and New Mexico, however, this art, though still inferior to that of the Italians and modern Greeks, has reached a perfection never attained by the Moors or Spaniards—borrowing from the aboriginal Americans a barbaric freedom and originality that the workmanship of both the Orientals and Castilians lacked.

In gold and silver. From time to time the priests remove a portion of the offerings, to make room for others; and the ones removed are then sold to the makers of filigree jewelry, or to anyone else wishing to purchase. Peddlars frequently canvass the filigree manufacturing trade, selling tools and implements, old gold and silver, stones for sets, and other supplies for the trade. For the sets used in swastikas, pins, earrings, brooches and other gew-gaws, the turquoise is the most popular stone. The turquoise is found near Los Cerrillos, in the Burro Mountains, at Old Hachitt, and in the Jarilla Mountains—all in New Mexico, which contains the richest turquoise mines, yielding the most perfect gems in the world. Garnets, topaz, quartz crystal and other semi-precious gemstones found in the Southwest are used extensively; and seed pearls are brought from the pearl fisheries of the Gulf of California for the same purpose.

"There are no more fascinating ways of passing an idle hour than in watching the deft-fingered Mexican craftsmen transforming some votive offering brought from the shrine of good old San Lorenzo into a bracelet, a brooch, or some other frivolous article of personal adornment. Somehow it seems like a breach of faith bordering upon sacrilege to devote to the service of

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Holy Week, just passing, has been characterized by a rigid quiet in social circles in Santa Fe. There were several reasons for this lull in festivities. Of course the principal and all abiding one is the fact that Holy Week is the one time of the entire year when Christians are exhorted to forego the temporal pleasures of life and meditate over the Saviour's death on the cross. Following the final adjournment of the Thirty-seventh Legislative Assembly it also came as an opportune relief to tired matrons and maids who had been making the rounds of the numerous social functions held in the Capital during the sessions of the law making body. Then too the fair sex has been more or less occupied in selecting new bonnets, gowns, wraps, and other feminine raiment to wear for Easter. The only functions of the week if such they can be called were limited to dinners to which a few friends were bidden. There will be a return of gaiety in the butterfly ranks at an early date which will be participated in by those of the faithful who have religiously observed the entire Lenten season with its "sackcloth and ashes." Rumors are afloat of weddings that are to be and they are affording a thrilling topic of gossip. None of the engagements have been formally announced, although one of the brides-elect has told intimate friends of her betrothal, and the signs in several other cases are unmistakable.

In Santa Fe society circles it is current that Miss Bertha Staab of this city, and Max Nordhaus of Las Vegas have become engaged and that the marriage is to take place during the summer. This social bit of news is very pleasing to the many friends of Miss Staab and Mr. Nordhaus and they hope it is true. Miss Staab is a bright and highly educated young woman of many accomplishments of mind, attractive and charming. She has traveled a good deal in this country and in Europe and is quite a student of literature and an admirer of art. She occupies a very high place in Santa Fe society and is a favorite wherever she is known. She is a daughter of A. Staab, a New Mexico pioneer, probably the wealthiest man and for many years the leading merchant of the Territory. Mr. Nordhaus is a gentleman in every sense of the word. He is greatly respected for his high probity and admirable qualities as a man and as a citizen, and for his great business capacity and general tact. He has been a resident of the Meadow City for over 20 years, and is universally respected and liked. He is vice-president and general manager of the Charles H. Feld Mercantile Company, one of the largest, if not the largest wholesale establishment in the Southwest. There are four different branches and all of them are under the direct supervision and care of Mr. Nordhaus.

Captain W. E. Dame, formerly a resident of Cerrillos and later on clerk of the Second Judicial District Court in Albuquerque, is spending a vacation with his wife in the latter city. He expects to return to Colima in about ten days or two weeks. At that point he is superintending a large saw mill put there by New York capitalists. Captain and Mrs. Dame visited Santa Fe during the early part of the week. He thinks that the Pacific coast portion of Mexico is just commencing development and that it will prove a great country for American capital and for American investors. It will be remembered that Captain Dame was promoted to a Lieutenantancy while the First U. S. Volunteer Cavalry—the Rough Riders—was doing active service before Santiago de Cuba and that thereafter he served as a captain in the Philippine Islands in one of the Volunteer Infantry regiments during which service he made a first class record. He was offered a commission in the Regular Army, but declined.

Major Robert C. Van Vleet, Tenth Infantry, U. S. Army, who was stationed with his regiment at Fort Union and at Fort Marcy in this city during the later 80's and early 90's, is now with his regiment in Honolulu.

Hulu. The station is very pleasant as the climate is extremely mild. However, it is somewhat enervating and lacks the stamina and health-giving properties of New Mexico's glorious article. Major Van Vleet states that in the capital of the Territory, namely, at Honolulu, the Territory maintains a band of fine musicians; these are members of the National Guard, paid by the Territory and gives daily concerts which add much to the comfort and well-being of the citizens of that far-off town and the many sojourners and healthseekers there. Major Van Vleet will soon be placed on the retired list as a Lieutenant Colonel and will then return to this continent. He expects to visit Santa Fe soon after reaching the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan R. McCord gave a little dinner party last evening at their home, 303 Washington Avenue. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Llewellyn and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ehle. Last Saturday Mrs. McCord entertained a company of friends at a graphophone musicale, at which numerous selections from grand and comic opera were rendered. Each guest was presented with a miniature graphophone horn filled with dainties as a souvenir. Delectable refreshments were served during the afternoon, and it was altogether a very enjoyable affair. There were present Mesdames J. A. Wood, Fletcher and Lyng and Misses McFie, Bach, Brown, DuVal, Rider, Phelps, Walker, Miller, Lindbeck, Hanson, Morrow, Johnson, Schnepfle and Guterman.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Garrison, of St. Louis and Professor and Mrs. W. E. Garrison were guests for dinner Monday evening at the home of Judge and Mrs. John R. McFie. Dr. and Mrs. Garrison returned to their home in St. Louis during the week after a delightful sojourn in Santa Fe visiting their son and his family.

Ex-Governor and Mrs. W. T. Thornton, formerly of this city, who have spent the winter in Colima, Mexico, are on their way to Los Angeles, California, where they expect to arrive early during the coming week. They will remain in Los Angeles for some time, but will likely visit Santa Fe during the summer.

Ex-Governor M. A. Otero is now on the home ranch of the Salado Live Stock Company in Guadalupe County, where he will remain for ten days or two weeks longer on business.

Baal these humble offerings that were, in childlike faith and simplicity of heart, consecrated to heaven. The first steps in preparation for the actual work of manufacture is to melt the metal in a small crucible, and then pour it into moulds, or casting irons, forming ingots about as long as a lead pencil and perhaps half as thick. These are then passed through a graduated series of hand-rolls, each pressing the piece of metal a little smaller in diameter with consequent gain in length, ultimately forming wires, either square or round as desired. For the finest work, these wires are drawn out until they are almost as fine as the filaments of a cobweb. Two of these filaments are twisted together, and the jeweler is then ready to begin the construction of the particular article he has in mind. With these the most intricate and elaborate designs are worked out with a speed and facility that seem amazing. With a blowpipe, a little borax, and gold and silver solder, joints are made that the unaided eye can hardly distinguish. In most conventional designs, the delicate tracery of which the body of the design is composed is enclosed all peoples has been credited with talismanic powers for bestowing good luck upon its wearer. The charm is reputed to work best when the swastika is received as a gift, rather than when purchased by the wearer. It has been dug out of the ruins of ancient Greece, found entombed with the mummies of the Egyptian pyramids, discovered among the relics of the Mound Builders, and may be seen carved on the rocky walls of the pre-historic Cliff Dwellers. It is woven by the Navajos into their blankets, and by the Pimas in their baskets; painted by the Pueblos on their pottery, carved on the pagan gods of China, Tibet and India; and is worshipped by the blacks of Ashantee and the aborigines of Peru. The "New Thought" cult has given it a tremendous vogue in America—which has extended to multitudes who know little and care less about "New Thought" or any other kind of thought. The oddity of the design seems to have captivated the fancy of everyone. Of course the swastika is made of every conceivable material; but its most popular form is in gold or silver filigree, with a tiny turquoise set in the centre. These emblems are now being manufactured by the Mexican filigree and protected by a framework of heavier wire, giving to it the requisite strength and rigidity.

In addition to this delicate wire tracery that forms the body of the figures, some of the craftsmen have mastered the old Greek art of encrusting the surfaces with minute granules, almost as fine as hoar frost; but the manner in which this is done is a carefully guarded secret of the trade. Larger grains, like minute jewels, are sometimes sprinkled over plain surfaces, or are placed in positions that would naturally be occupied by tiny sets of gem stones. In the frosting of surfaces by means of these minute granules, the workmen of both Old and New Mexico are far inferior to the old Greek craftsmen, and to their most adept modern successors in Italy and the Ionian Islands; but in the manipulation of the wire threads the Mexicans have no superiors. They are trained to the craft almost from infancy, taking to it with a facility that seems instinctive. Some of the families of Mexico, New Mexico and Arizona have followed the making of filigree jewelry for hundreds of years, so that we may, perhaps, attribute some degree of the skill of the present generation to heredity.

"Like everything else, filigree jewelry is subject to the fads and caprices of fashion. Just now this class of work is enjoying hitherto unheard-of popularity in the East, and tourists are buying with a freedom and avidity that carries joy to the hearts and money to the purses of the filigree jewelers. The most popular design of the hour is the swastika—known also as the Japanese lucky cross, or the Indian good luck charm. This is the oldest and most universal of all known symbols, and in all ages and among workers literally by the thousand. Filigree butterflies, fans, forget-me-nots, pansies, birds, hearts, crosses, and other articles without number are made to answer as stick pins, brooches, scarf pins, sleeve buttons, shirt waist sets, belt buckles, earrings and other purpose that no one but a woman could define. Bracelets, made of a string of hearts, crosses or pansies are very popular, as also are hat pins, combs, hair ornaments and a thousand other articles. For those whose taste runs to the bizarre and fantastic are tiny toads, lizards, centipedes, scorpions, tarantulas, rattlesnakes, cats, dragons and burros. In fact any well-stocked shop in the Southwest can supply something to suit almost any taste and any pocket-book."

GIVEN UP TO DIE.

B. Spiegel, 1204 N. Virginia St. Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured." Why not let it help you? For sale at the Ireland Pharmacy.

The comic opera, "The Rose of Alhambra," in which Mrs. Louis O. Fullen, the bright wife of Postmaster L. O. Fullen, of Carlsbad, has a considerable interest, having taken part in the composition and writing of the comedy is now being played by an eastern stock company in the large cities of the country and is paying well. Mrs. Fullen receiving quite a handsome royalty from its performances. Mrs. Fullen has spent the past fall and winter in New York City, being domiciled in a very cozy home at Number 40 Morning Side Drive, Cathedral Court. In a social column of a leading New York newspaper Mrs. Fullen's apartments are thoroughly described as follows:

"The Fullen apartment is splendidly done, and some of the Oriental rugs, old mahoganies, brasses and pewter Mrs. Fullen has collected are enough to drive the proprietors of the antique shops wild with envy. Her dining room has such luncheon cloths, buffet spreads and doilies of that fine Mexican handwork that her fondest feminine friends have their moments of envy, too."

Mrs. Fullen will very likely come to New Mexico during the late spring for a visit to Mr. Fullen at Carlsbad and also to Santa Fe.

During her stay in New York she has done and is doing much literary work for society journals and magazines. She is a very bright and magnetic woman and a very pleasing writer.

Invitations have been received in this city by friends of the contracting parties issued by the parents of the bride, announcing the forthcoming marriage of Miss Isabelle Justina Christensen to Charles Christopher Catron, of this city, at the residence of the bride's parents, 335 Soto Street, Los Angeles, California, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon of Wednesday, the 10th of April. Miss Christensen has been a frequent visitor to this city as a guest at the Catron residence. She is a prepossessing and pleasant young woman, very gentle and of engaging manners. Mr. Catron is the second son of Hon. and Mrs. T. B. Catron, a lawyer by profession, assistant district attorney of this district and a young man of much capability and promise. He is very popular and has a fine career ahead of him. After the marriage a wedding tour will be taken and thereafter the bridal couple will be at home in Santa Fe after May 15.

Miss Mabel Helen Baum, the charming niece of Mrs. J. W. Reynolds, who has been a guest at the Reynolds home here for the past three months and showered with social attention during her sojourn in the Capital, will leave during the coming week for Las Vegas, where she will visit Mrs. Ned Reynolds. She expects to remain in the Meadow City a week or ten days and will go from there direct to her home in Denver. Miss Baum has made many warm friends in Santa Fe by her pleasing personality and is assured of a cordial welcome whenever she returns to the city.

Hon. W. E. Martin, clerk of the Third Judicial District Court and who acted as chief clerk of the Legislative Council during the recent session has finished his duties in the latter office and went home to Socorro last night. Mr. Martin is one of the best known and most popular of the younger citizens of the Territory.

Mrs. Guy Yontz, of Columbus City, Indiana, is a visitor in Santa Fe, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Yontz. She will be here about a month and will be joined in a few days by her husband who is a brother of the local Mr. Yontz. Mrs. Ralph Yontz, of Gallup, another sister-in-law of H. C. Yontz, has just returned to her home after a week's visit in Santa Fe.

Hon. and Mrs. Solomon Luna, of Los Lunas spent yesterday in Albuquerque. Mr. Luna presided at a meeting of the Territorial Sheep Sanitary Board of which he is president. Mr. and Mrs. Luna were guests at the home of Mrs. Luna's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Otero.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Reed, who were recently married in Denver are at home in Los Angeles, California. They will visit this city frequently. Mr. Reed being the president of the United States Bank and Trust Company.

Little Josephine Hersch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hersch, left this morning for Alcalde, where she will be the guest for a week of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Clark. She was not a bit afraid to make the journey alone.

Attorney A. B. Rennehan will leave in a few days to join his wife, who is on a pleasure trip to California, and also to attend the wedding of Miss Belle Christensen and Charles C. Catron, which will take place at Los Angeles.

Will C. Barnes, Secretary of the Territorial Cattle Sanitary Board, has returned to his home at East Las Vegas from Magdalena, where he has been in attendance on the meeting of the Central New Mexico Cattle Growers Association.

District Attorney Robert C. Gortner is planning to leave during the coming week for Los Angeles, California, whither he will go to attend the Catron-Christensen wedding, on Wednesday, April 10.

Attorney Charles C. Catron will leave next week for Los Angeles, California, where he will be married on the 10th prox. to Miss Belle Christensen, of that city but formerly of El Paso.

have held for the Fifty-eighth and Fifty-ninth fiscal years, but as the present law is a great improvement upon the appropriation law passed by the Thirty-sixth Legislative Assembly the patriotic sense and well meaning of the Republicans of the House adopted it for the benefit of the commonwealth and because it was just, proper and right for them so to do. Profrs of offices had no effect on the members, they stood straight and firm, and the people know this, and know it full well.

"It is interesting and decidedly pleasant to turn to the other side of the picture, that which shows what has been accomplished in actual constructive legislation.

"In his annual message to the Assembly Governor Hagerman recommended among other things, the following:

"That a strong anti-gambling law be passed which would prohibit gambling in this Territory."—Albuquerque Fakir.

What was accomplished in constructive legislation—the Anti-Gambling Law:

The Daily New Mexican was the first agency, newspaper, official or person to dig up this question, as is amply proven by its files. The New Mexican was greatly gratified to find a similar recommendation in Governor Hagerman's message. The House of Representatives passed the Ramon Sanchez bill, which, if it had become law, would have stamped out gambling at once and would have been very effective. As a compromise the House adopted the present law, which is good enough in its way, as it will be properly executed by the courts and by the officers of the law, but the Ramon Sanchez House bill was a much superior article.

"The Governor recommended the revision of the laws. A commission, of which the attorney general of the Territory is the head, has been named by legislative act, to revise the laws, and an appropriation for the purpose has been accomplished. But one man who stood solidly with the machine, appears on that commission."—Albuquerque Fakir.

This has been recommended by the Bar Association for many years. Similar recommendations have been made several times by ex-Governor Otero, and dozens of editorials advising it, have appeared in these columns for years past. The conditions had finally become so intolerable that several able lawyers in the House of Representatives made it a sine qua non to have a revision law passed, and this was done.

"The Governor recommended the revision of the school laws, and certain advances in the educational system of the Territory. The changes have been made and the advances in part accomplished."—Albuquerque Fakir.

This has been a topic before the people of the Territory for many years. The New Mexican has been a staunch supporter of such provisions. The New Mexico Board of Education has been at work upon it for years; ex-Governor Otero has recommended it several times in his various messages, and as far as that is concerned, the New Mexican gives Governor Hagerman credit for his stand in the premises. He was with the people then and there, but not ahead of them.

"The Governor recommended that the ancient system of handing out the public printing of the Territory as political patronage or graft, be abolished and that the Territory's work be let to the lowest bidder on a business basis."—Albuquerque Fakir.

The New Mexican is perfectly willing to acknowledge that the recommendation was in the right direction. A bill to that effect was introduced in the House and passed by both Houses, but vetoed by the Governor, whose veto was not sustained by the House, but was sustained by the Council. The New Mexican gives the Governor credit for having started right in this instance. That it was time that there should be a change is acknowledged, but it should be remembered that one man who profited greatly by the public printing system was appointed to a very lucrative office under this administration.

"The Governor proposed certain changes in the land laws, and changes in the irrigation laws. They have been made."—Albuquerque Fakir.

That is a subject that has been thoroughly thrashed over for several years, and especially in the columns of the Daily New Mexican. Two or three weeks before the assembling of the session strong editorials to that effect appeared in this paper. The Governor was right in the recommendation, and the seventeen Republicans in the House of the Assembly adopted it.

"The Governor objected to the expenditure of an unreasonable amount for extra employees, and the expenditure for this purpose was limited to $15,000."—Albuquerque Fakir.

This certainly has been too much discussed to need elaboration here. It has been a source of great trouble in the past eight Legislative Assemblies and no Governor was powerful enough to hold the expenses down to a reasonable degree. In Governor Otero's days the Assemblies passed large appropriations for extra employees over his veto. This would have been the case in this Assembly had it not been for the fact that owing to the excellent work of Delegate W. H. Andrews the Congress of the United States passed a measure providing that the sum of $15,000.00, and no more, should be spent for such a purpose. Everybody who knows anything about the history of Legislative Assemblies in New Mexico for the past fifteen years fully understands, believes and knows that had not this been the case large appropriations would have been the result. It is also well understood and believed that the prominent men of both parties, outside of the Legislative Assembly, were always opposed to and that they decied large appropriations in such cases but they could not prevent them. Had it not been for the Congressional action this would have occurred at this time. Such is the opinion of those best posted in legislative affairs.

"Moreover, the majority in the Council, Mr. Duncan, Mr. Miera, Mr. Sulzer, Mr. Sargent, Mr. Chavez, Mr. Stockton and Mr. Murray, saw from the start the inevitable result of success for the ring, and standing flatly on the ground of the best interests of the Territory, blocked legislation which would have sent the Republican party straight to the destruction toward which it was being hastened by the Bureau management."—Albuquerque Fakir.

This is so nice that the New Mexican will have nothing to say about it, except to call attention to the following: James S. Duncan was appointed coal oil inspector, an office that will net him fully five thousand dollars after the fees of the deputies are taken off. And among the deputies, according to common report, is to be a son of another member of the Council. Miera is a member of the Board of Equalization and claims to have secured other offices for friends Sulzer, great reformer and People's Part prophet, also secured an office, having been appointed a member of the penitentiary Commission. Sargent succeeded himself as Territorial auditor. Chavez secured the position of Commissioner of Insurance. Murray is credited with having procured three important appointments in this section. Of course, the stand which these appointees took at the beginning of the session, and maintained throughout, had nothing to do with the subsequent appointments. Something like "The flowers that bloom in the Spring, tra la."

The New Mexican is impartial and fair in this record; it has disclosed nothing for either side. The statements made above are fully substantiated by the journals, debates and records of the Assembly. It is glad to be able to give the executive credit and praise where such can be justly done; at the same time, it believes it to be for the good of the commonwealth to give the facts as they are, that the people may know and guide themselves accordingly in the future.
