On Oct. 22, the armed forces press office (COPREFA) reported that a mission from the Inter-American Defense Council had arrived in El Salvador on Oct. 21 for a three-day visit. COPREFA said the mission comprised of 55 military officers from 14 nations planned to interview members of the army high command and leaders of civilian organizations. The Council is comprised of senior officers from Organization of American States (OAS) member-nations. (Basic data from Agence France-Presse, 10/22/91)
