"HIAWATHA" IN PANTOMIME

Depicted True to Life By Real Indians

AT U. S. TRAINING SCHOOL

Large Audience Packed Auditorium--Every Member of Cast Was Clever.

"The Song of Hiawatha," America's great epic by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, was illustrated with living pictures, or in pantomime, last evening by the children of the people whose legends and traditions this beautiful edda glorifies. Imagine yourself in a rose garden of Verona, a spectator at a performance of Romeo and Juliet by the descendants of the Capulets and Montagus, with the partisans of the rival houses as spectators, and the sensation would be akin to that of seeing Hiawatha rendered by Indians in a country so rich in its Indian traditions and before such an audience as packed the spacious aula at the U. S. Indian Industrial School near this city last evening.

It was as if the imagination had playfully taken one by the hand and led the way into the forest primeval of a century ago, among the nomadic tribes of the North, with their joys, sorrows and sufferings idealized by the imagery of a great poet. No matter, that critics say that Longfellow knew not the Indians, he at least knew the Indian heart, that iconoclasts declare that the poet owed to Schoolcraft and Heckewelder the material and the Norse Kalevala the form of the poem, suffice it that Longfellow lovingly immortalized the popular ideal of the Red Skin and that Hiawatha possesses dramatic possibilities as a tragedy that are lacking in many a celebrated play. His picturesque delineations of the simple emotions and passions of a primeval people, bring them nearer to the heart of the present day than could any scientific or scholarly description of their ways and manners. Especially to those "Whose hearts are fresh and simple, Who have faith in God and Nature, Who believe, that in all ages Every heart is human, That in even savage bosoms There are longings, yearnings, strivings

For the good they comprehend not, That the feeble hands and helpless, Groping blindly in the darkness Touching God's right hand in that darkness And are lifted up and strengthened."

Hiawatha as interpreted by the Indian children last evening made a deep impression.

The Gathering of the Tribes. It is with the words of the poem quoted above that Principal John S. Hammit, after the splendid rendition upon the piano of the well known selection "Hiawatha," announced the rising of the curtain upon a scene

"On the Mountains of the Prairie,

On the great Red Pipe-Stone Quarry," which, by the way, is the early home of Superintendent Clinton J. Crandall, where he, in northern Minnesota, just south of Lake Superior, first taught the Indian the mysteries of the practical, as well as book learning of the Whites.

The beating of a lone tom-tom furnished the rhythm for an Indian dance, weird and characteristic into which the boys in full paint and feathers, entered with spirit. No wonder the audience applauded with vigor. Then appeared Gitchie Manito, the Mighty

"And called the nations, Called the tribes of men together."

A gathering of tribes it truly was, both upon the roomy platform and in the auditorium. They had come from the Navajo reservation, the Jicarilla and Mescalero Apaches, the Pueblos of the south and the north with a sprinkling of representatives from as far west as California and as far north as Idaho.

Hiawatha's Childhood and Youth. The second scene illustrated Hiawatha's babyhood. Etta, a Navajo maiden, seemed the incarnation of the faithful old Nokomis as she rocked her papoose to sleep and sang the quaint lullaby about the naked bear and the little owlet.

The audience saw Hiawatha grow into a sturdy boy who took readily to the bow and flint-tipped arrows made for him by Iagoo, the great boaster; saw him stalk and bring down his first red deer and carry it in triumph to his mother; followed him into the land of the Dakotas where he wooed Min-

WOOD RE-ELECTED SUPERINTENDENT

At Meeting of Board of Education--Enters Upon Tenth Term as Head of Santa Fe Schools.

Professor J. A. Wood was re-elected as superintendent of the local public schools, special tax levies for school purposes for the ensuing year were made, and other important business transacted at a special meeting yesterday afternoon of the Board of Education. Mayor T. B. Catron was in the chair as President and the other members present were Judge N. B. Laughlin, Charles F. Easley, James L. Seligman, Jose D. Sena and Jose Segura.

Next Monday is the date for the regular monthly meeting of the board, but owing to the fact that several of the members would be absent from the city then it was decided to have a session yesterday instead to insure a quorum. One of the first matters taken up after the perfunctory approval of the minutes of the previous meeting was the tax question. A general levy of 7 1/2 mills was made for general school purposes and an additional levy of 2 1/2 mills to provide revenue for the payment of interest and principal on school bonds.

The general school levy is somewhat higher than last year which was made necessary because the receipts from other sources will be curtailed by the abolition of licensed gambling which netted a handsome income annually that went to the support of the public schools. There is also a deficiency to be overcome by the addition of two teachers to the staff which had not been provided for when the levies were made last year.

Professor Wood's re-election as superintendent was unanimous. He is now entering upon his tenth term as head of the local public schools, having served in that capacity continuously since the beginning of the school year in 1899. When the selection of the superintendent for the ensuing year came up for discussion the members of the board expressed themselves as being well satisfied with Professor Wood's past record and felt that he should be re-elected to the position which was done as already stated.

Superintendent Wood was instructed to notify all of the teachers who desired re-appointment for the next term to file their applications at once in order that the positions may all be filled at a meeting to be held later in the month. Professor W. E. Garrison will retire as principal of the High school at the expiration of the present term, and Misses Bach and Daniels will also sever their connections as teachers at the same time. The two latter have been engaged as instructors at the New Mexico Normal University, the presidency of which will be assumed by Mr. Garrison.

Alan G. McCord made application to the board for the purchase of lot 12, in block 5, of Fort Marcy addition, offering in consideration the assessed value, $540. The lot in question is located at the northeast corner of Lincoln Avenue and Marcy Street. Mr. McCord's proposition was accepted upon condition that he build a modern dwelling upon the premises as he stated he would do and let the contract within sixty days. Mr. McCord has had plans prepared for a cottage to cost approximately $3,500 and will begin the work of construction during the summer.

ENGLISH FINANCIAL WORLD IS STARTLED

By Arrest in India of Sir George Arbuthnot, Head of Largest Banking House in That Country.

Madras, India, May 2.—Sir George Arbuthnot, head of the firm of Arbuthnot and Company, of this city, whose London bank, McFadden and Company, failed for a large amount in October last and caused the head of the firm to commit suicide, has been arrested here in connection with the failure of McFadden and Company.

Arrest Startles London. London, May 2.—Sir George Arbuthnot is one of the most familiar figures in the financial world and club life of London and his arrest at Madras has caused a sensation. The Arbuthnot bank is regarded in India as being almost as safe as the Bank of England. Many English officers, their widows and children had deposited their whole resources in the McFadden and Company bank and were ruined when it stopped payment. No details, as to the charges against Sir Arbuthnot are yet known here.

MINISTER ELOPES WITH YOUNG GIRL

Episcopal Rector Deserts Wife and Church

CAUSES A SENSATION IN POLICE DEPARTMENT

While Acting as Guardian Became Infatuated With Her--May Be Insane.

New York, May 2.—The members of the fashionable St. George's Episcopal Church at Hempstead, Long Island, were astonished today when they learned that their rector, Rev. Jere Knede Cooke, had departed, and that Miss Floretta Whaley, an orphan, also had left the home of her grandmother and had written letters saying that she would not return.

Rector Already Married. Rev. Cooke had been married for five years to a daughter of Rienz A. Clarke, of Hartford, Connecticut. Mrs. Cooke left Hempstead some time ago and is now at her father's home. Miss Whaley is an orphan, 17 years old, whose father just before his death, gave her into the special charge of Rev. Cooke.

Girl Loved Minister Best of All. Two letters have been received from Miss Whaley. One written to her grandmother with whom the girl lived states that she loved her grandmother and sister and home, but that she loved Rev. Cooke better and that when the letter was received they would be out of the country. Miss Whaley left Hempstead Monday and the letter was postmarked New Jersey. Rev. Cooke went to New York Tuesday and did not return. When members of St. George's Church entered the robing room yesterday they found the safe open and all the rector's personal effects gone.

Clergyman May Be Insane. A formal statement today by Bishop Burgess of the diocese of Long Island, says that the vacancy will be filled at once. The Bishop said he believed Rev. Cooke of unsound mind. He said he was in a trolley collision three years ago and had been a nervous wreck ever since. According to reports at Hempstead, the minister's infatuation for Miss Whaley was the direct cause of Mrs. Cooke's leaving him. Miss Whaley recently inherited a fortune said to amount to $125,000.

Albuquerque, N. M., May 2.—A private car passed through Albuquerque last night having on board a party consisting of the widow of the late George Smith, the millionaire who died on his yacht in Japanese waters about a month ago from an ulcer caused by the pulling of a tooth. In the baggage car attached to the train was a casket containing the remains of the deceased and his car was strongly guarded by detectives and special watchmen. Mrs. Smith was accompanied by her father A. A. Zimmerman and the Duke and Duchess of Manchester who were also guests on the yacht at the time of Smith's demise. The funeral will take place in New York next Sunday. The estate is valued at between eighteen and twenty millions of dollars, and it is understood that an heir or an heiress to the estate will make his or her appearance shortly. Mrs. Smith is the divorced wife of H. Rhinelander Stewart, a well-known New York society man. The deceased inherited his fortune a few months ago by the death of his uncle, George Smith, a former Chicago banker, but of late years a resident of London, England, and an invalid during his residence in England.

Chicago, May 2.—The grand jury today commenced an investigation of the charges made against former Chief of Police John M. Collins in connection with the recent municipal election in this city. Subpoenas were issued for thirty-six members of the police force, including half a dozen inspectors and captains. The charges against Collins in which other high officials of the police department are also said to be involved, are that he directed the collection of funds for the election campaign for former Mayor Dunne, contrary to the rules of the Civil Service. It is charged he also directed the mutilation of the records of the police department by ordering torn from the order books the pages on which were written his instructions to collect money for the Dunne campaign fund.

CUPID INVADERS SECRETARY'S OFFICE

Romance That Began During Sessions of Legislature Ends in Marriage of Popular Young People.

A romance that had its inception during the session of the Thirty-seventh Legislative Assembly culminated at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the wedding of Miss Marie Fauth and Lawson D. Lowe, stenographers in the office of Territorial Secretary J. W. Reynolds. The marriage ceremony was performed by Very Rev. Anthony Fourchegu, vicar general of the Catholic diocese of Santa Fe, at his study in the rear of the Cathedral.

It has been rumored for the past few days that Miss Fauth and Mr. Lowe would be married in the near future, but they kept the exact date a secret from all but a few intimate friends. Miss Fauth resigned her position at the end of last week which served to give credence to the report of her approaching marriage. The wedding was an extremely quiet one. The only witnesses were Miss Gertrude Jones, and H. Phillip Flint, the latter being a fellow employee in the Secretary's office.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowe are both comparatively new residents of Santa Fe. The bride's home was formerly in Chicago, Illinois. She is an attractive blonde. The groom came here from Las Cruces and is a graduate of the New Mexico College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts which is located near that town. He was employed in the Secretary's office to assist in the extra business resulting from the legislature.

The young couple will continue to reside in Santa Fe. They have rented apartments at the home of Simon Nussbaum. They are popular among their acquaintances here and they begin their married life under most happy auspices.

MAY DAY FESTIVAL AT KINDERGARTEN

Little Tots at Central School Principals in Unique and Successful Entertainment.

A May Day festival that was as unique as it was interesting was given by Mrs. Fletcher's kindergarten pupils yesterday afternoon at the Central School. A large number of spectators witnessed the pretty spectacle, among those present being the parents and other relatives.

The May Queen was little four-year-old Norma Fiske, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Fiske. She looked like a real fairy queen attired in a dainty white frock with court train bedecked with flowers, and having a floral chaplet crowning a wealth of golden curls.

The May Queen's retinue consisted of two little flower girls, Mildred Crichton and Julianita Rodriguez, and two tin pages, Theodore Roosevelt Armijo and Alan McCord, Jr. The costumes of the flower girls were also white and they carried big bunches of flowers. Master Armijo was clad in a blue satin knickerbocker suit and Master McCord wore one of similar design in blue and white.

Naturally the principal attraction was the May pole dance which was participated in by forty little tots all dressed in white. The children entered into the spirit of the festival with true juvenile zest and their smiling faces betokened their keen enjoyment. It was indeed a beautiful spectacle as the young hopefuls gayly and gracefully circled around the big May pole and platted it with vari-colored ribbons.

There were numerous songs and marches appropriate to the occasion in addition to the May pole dance including a skipping rope song and a series of calisthenics with floral hoops. At the conclusion of the entertainment the little queen and her tiny attendants made a tour of the other rooms in the building so that all of the pupils might have a glimpse of the May Day festival and pay their debts to her majesty the Queen of the May.

Master Armijo presented each child in the May pole dance with a box of candy surmounted by a tiny doll. The May Queen gave gold filigree swastika pins to Mrs. Fletcher and her attendants.

TRAIN LOAD OF JOLLY SHRINERS

Indiana Delegation Stops Over in Santa Fe

TRAVELING IN SPECIAL TRAIN

Visitors Remain From Early Evening Until Midnight--Have Good Time.

Los Angeles is the Mecca just now of Mystic Shriners all over the United States. Some two hundred of these noblemen of Masonry, wearing the emblematic red fezzes, swooped down on Santa Fe yesterday evening and remained within the city's gates until midnight when they reboarded their special train and resumed their journey westward to California. The visitors comprised the Indiana delegation and were mainly from Indianapolis. There were a number of women in the party.

The Hoosier delegates to the Mystic Shrine gathering which will be held in the city of Los Angeles beginning next week occupied the first of the special trains to be run to Los Angeles for this purpose over the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway. In making arrangements for the excursion the railroad officials made provisions in the schedule for a side trip to Santa Fe that the tourists might spend several hours viewing the oldest and most picturesque city in the Southwest. Other special trains to follow it is said will also include Santa Fe in their itinerary on the outward bound trip.

The Indiana crowd is traveling in a solid vestibule train composed of six standard sleepers and a baggage car which left Indianapolis the first of the week via the Big Four to St. Louis, thence over the Wabash to Kansas City and from there by way of the Santa Fe. It is due to reach its destination Saturday. A stop of half a day will be made at the Grand Canyon.

Unique Exhibition Drill.

In addition to a first-class brass band the Indians have a drill team which will be hard to beat when it begins to perform in the competitive drill at Los Angeles in connection with the big conclave. The team gave an exhibition drill shortly after arrival here in front of the New Mexican office which was witnessed by a large crowd and went through the intricacies without a single hitch. The series of maneuvers consumed half an hour and the different changes were loudly applauded by the spectators. The men taking part have evidently spent much time in practice before the complicated movements were mastered with perfect clock like precision. There were few spoken commands, most of the signals being given by a whistle.

The musicians had intended giving a concert in the Plaza during the evening but the night air was a little too chilly for them and they compromised by rendering several selections in the lobby of the Hotel Claire. Most of the visitors were fed at the Claire Cafe which had been notified in advance of their coming but the crowd was larger than could be accommodated at one sitting there and the remaining ones secured their suppers at other eating houses.

Local Fraters Entertain Visitors

Local Mystic Shriners organized themselves at once into a reception committee and invited the visiting fraters to the Masonic rooms where they were informally entertained. Ex-Governor L. Bradford Prince also kept open house and at one time or another during the evening nearly all of the visitors enjoyed the hospitality of his home. Had it been known even only a few hours in advance that the vanguard of the Mystic Shriners was coming here last night a more elaborate entertainment would have been planned but they came unheralded.

During the few hours that the visitors were in the city they left behind a good-sized bunch of money. The hotels and restaurants were not the only ones benefited by this unexpected spurt in business. After appetites were satiated there was a rush for souvenir post cards and curios. The lively firms also received a slice of the patronage as some of them hired conveyances for a sightseeing tour of the city.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF SANTA FE COUNTY.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every postoffice in the Territory and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the Southwest.

MORE ABOUT THE HAGERMAN INCIDENT.

About as silly, as foundationless and as far fetched an editorial in any respects concerning the change in the governorship of New Mexico as could well have been written or published appeared in a recent issue of the El Paso Evening News. It is a sample of the stuff published by newspapers outside of New Mexico which take their cue and information concerning the condition of affairs here from the Albuquerque Morning Fakir Journal and other yellow sheets published to the detriment of New Mexico and its people. The editorial is so remarkable in points that the New Mexican re-publishes it herewith:

"After all the fuss and flurry made by the anti-administration faction of New Mexican Republicans to force the President to withdraw his request for the resignation of Governor Hagerman, Mr. Roosevelt stood firm so a new Governor will be appointed.

"Despite the charges of infamy and dishonesty which have been made by both parties to the controversy, it is probable that there was far more of politics than of plunder involved in the quarrel, though that some of the policies employed were dirty enough to damn those who used them is not doubted. The President has undoubtedly set about to select his own successor, and it is generally understood that his favorite is Secretary Taft, whose strongest rival just at present is Senator Foraker.

"Had the Hagerman faction been able to dominate the Republican party in New Mexico, Senator Foraker would, it is said, have received the vote from that Territory, and to enforce his dictatorship, the President was compelled to tap Governor Hagerman with his big stick, thereby putting him out of power and setting an example to others who had dared to oppose the Rooseveltian will. Just what effect this will have on the situation it is hard at present to foretell. Whether those who have held offices under the Hagerman machine will go down in defeat with their fallen leader or desert him for that which seems to offer greater promise of political plums, remains to be seen; but the characteristic love of a Republican for office is apt to prevail, and the deposed leader will be lucky if he can retain a majority of his old guard."

The facts are: Hagerman took office about fourteen months ago. He immediately went to work to establish a Hagerman machine and to undo the regular Republican organization. He was sore at the latter and it was in his way. He acted without discretion, without sense, and without fairness. Naturally the Republican leaders, backed by the great mass of the rank and file of the party, resented this. In the 1906 campaign he and his office-holders, adherents and newspapers gave aid and comfort to the Democratic party whenever and wherever possible. During the session of the recent Legislative Assembly the most important and minor Territorial offices were bartered for votes of members of the Assembly although Hagerman had professed to be opposed to the appointment of members of the Assembly to Territorial positions and in favor of a statute forbidding such appointment. Many of his acts were reprehensible and improper. The fight was carried to Washington where the charges were thoroughly investigated by the Secretary of the Interior and by the Attorney General and thereafter by the President. The latter became thoroughly acquainted with the phases and the facts and acted for the best interests of New Mexico and its people in making a change. The insinuation by the News that President Roosevelt feared that were Hagerman to remain anti-Roosevelt delegates would be sent from this Territory to the next Republican national convention and that therefore he removed him is too childish and too purple for serious answer. With all the job hunters in office, Hagerman could not have secured a single delegate in the next convention for or against Mr. Roosevelt. The party was against him and would have been against him then and there. His influence except with his appointees, with his personal friends, with the newspapers who for policy or for pay supported him and with the Democratic leaders and bosses was too small and would have been too small when the convention came to the choosing of delegates. As far as the officials put into office by Hagerman are concerned some of them should be removed because they are unfit for the positions in many ways. Others again should and no doubt will be retained because they were good appointments. Nearly all of the latter held office under the previous Republican administration and Hagerman did not dare to disturb them. The Hagerman incident will make no trouble in next year's Republican convention or in next year's campaign in this Territory, at least not near as much trouble and injury as was the case in the 1903 campaign when Hagerman was governor, although it is already asserted that he will come out as a candidate for delegate to the Sixty-first Congress. If he should it will have to be either as a Democratic nominee or as an independent Democratic-People's party candidate. This is a free country and if he wants to run, all right. There is, however, not the slightest danger or the least apprehension that the regular Republican party of New Mexico, the one that has always stood for progress, advancement, the rights of the people and an honest and decent administration will honor him with such preferment.

HUMBUGGING AMERICANS.

That Americans like to be humbugged is pretty well established and believed by many people; even in the territories they every once in a while take pleasure in being humbugged, as for instance in the case of the alleged reform administration here during the past twelve months. This process of "humbugging Americans" goes on in a great many places in this country, politically, commercially, financially and often scientifically, but a good bit of it is also done in Europe, much to the detriment of the sensible people in this country. Concerning this phase of "humbugging Americans," the Washington Post puts it very neatly in a recent editorial when it says that Europe awaits the American influx with open arms and yawning pockets. It is reported from England that shopkeepers who cater particularly to Americans are more prosperous than ever, and that their rapid rise in the world has aroused envy and emulation in the breasts of their slower neighbors. The steamship lines are preparing for the heaviest travel in history, and it is confidently expected that English and continental hotels will reap a bigger harvest from rich Americans than ever before. It is estimated that Americans drop over half a billion dollars annually in their pilgrimages to the Old World, and this year the sum is expected to exceed $600,000,000. Thus a large part of the prosperity of the United States is shared with the shopkeepers, hotelkeepers, and transportation companies of Europe.

Meanwhile the great industry of working up antique furniture and curios is more flourishing than ever, in anticipation of the American demand. Consul McNally, stationed at Liege, tells, in a recent report, how the manufacturers of antiques are getting busy. "The aging season is now on," says Consul McNally, "and when the time comes for placing the articles on sale, the ancient appearance will be perfect." He suggests that seekers after genuine bargains in rare old stuff should get off the beaten path. Even little stores in the cities are supplied with bogus antiques from the larger places, and American purchasers who discover "rare bargains" in cigar stores and barber shops are merely paying tribute to the rascally counterfeiters.

But what of it? If Americans love to be humbugged at home, as they unquestionably do, should they not have a little of their favorite amusement while away on a picnic in Europe? They are there for fun, not for work, and it is too much to expect a hard-worked American to run down the authentic history of every little knick-knack that strikes his fancy. It is better to take the dealer's word for it, keep the envelope of romance intact, and pay the price. If the "priceless" Flemish chair should turn out to be only one year old, so much the better; it will last that much longer. The really wise American may ask many questions before he buys a "rare find," but none after the deal is closed.

Should President Roosevelt after his present term expires be elected as United States Senator from the state of New York he would prove himself a Senator-at-large and one who would look after the interests of all the people of all this country. He is too big a man to be the Senator solely of one state no matter how great in population and wealth.

So far the Democratic newspapers and yellow sheets of the Territory are shedding bitter and salty tears over the Hagerman resignation incident. The people, however, the plain people are following their usual vocations with much equanimity and peace of mind.

BURSUM WILL COME OUT OUTSCATHED.

"Hon. H. O. Bursum has been subjected to as vile epithets as the tongue of envy and malice could frame because of his alleged burning of the books of account kept during his superintendency of the Territorial penitentiary. As was to be expected, it now transpires that the books of original entry and the financial records for the entire period of Mr. Bursum's superintendency are intact and will be produced by the referee in the suit brought against the Territory by Mr. Bursum for an accounting. No apologies have yet been heard from Mr. Bursum's villifiers."—Socorro Chieftain.

And none will be heard. They are not that kind. They could not be just and fair if they would and they would not be just and fair if they could. The Albuquerque Morning Fakir Journal, the Roswell Democratic Copperhead Daily and the Democratic weekly papers that assailed Mr. Bursum's official record as Superintendent of the penitentiary by libelous and slanderous charges and with vile fabrications did so for the purpose of killing the man politically and hurting him in the estimation of the people, and to injure the Republican party in New Mexico. The ex-officials and their adherents who pulled the strings worked for the same purpose and for the same ends. Mr. Bursum will come out of the ordeal unscathed, clean and fully vindicated, never fear.

REID, THE CUTTLE FISH.

The cuttle fish muddies the waters in its vicinity when it desires to escape. W. C. Reid, Attorney General of the Hagerman administration, endeavors to muddy the political waters of New Mexico by asserting, that he will make "fearful" exposures of the great corruption and graft that obtained under the Republican administration of this Territory from 1897 to the time Hagerman took the executive office. He also asserts that he and he only is responsible for Hagerman's act in the matter of assuming the duties of the Territorial Land Commissioner and using the seal of the office illegally and improperly. He can talk reform to his heart's content; the Republicans of New Mexico were successful before Reid became Attorney General and will be successful when he goes out. The New Mexican is prepared to believe that he advised the action of the Governor in the matter above quoted but the Governor should not have heeded the advice of a foolish official. "If the Attorney General came here and advised me to do a foolish thing do you suppose I would have heeded it?"

NEVERTHELESS THE PRESIDENT KNEW.

The contention that two or three New Mexico politicians succeeded in bamboozling President Roosevelt is too absurd for serious consideration. Not that the two or three New Mexico politicians alluded to are lacking in political acumen, but that the President is a past master in the art in which they are but novices in comparison.—Socorro Chieftain.

And yet the Hagerman adherents, Attorney General W. C. Reid at the head and the yellow sheets in their pay, have charged and are insisting that the President did not know what he was doing when he committed "that great crime against civilization" and that "awful outrage on the honest and decent citizens of New Mexico" that he was bamboozled by Andrews and Llewellyn, that he was deceived by the "worst ring of thieves and grafters," that he was fooled by impudent and reckless politicians and so on and so forth.

"The Albuquerque Journal is wailing mightily, these days. Nine-tenths of the people mourn because of the retirement of Governor Hagerman, says that exponent of 'modern' reform. It is feared that the Journal merely counted its own force before calculating and issuing the announcement."—Carlsbad Argus.

There is no fear about it, it is a fact. Everybody who knows anything about conditions and affairs in the Duke City understands well that a small clique of real estate speculators, water supply company stockholders, Democratic would-be statesmen, a few Republican sore-heads, Danny Macpherson of the Albuquerque Morning Fakir Journal and those in his pay constitute "we, the people of New Mexico."

The Albuquerque Citizen is boosting the project of a new city hall for the town in good shape and is advising the people to vote for a bond issue from the proceeds of which a new city hall is to be erected. The Duke City people should heed this advice and act accordingly. The Citizen is thoroughly alive and a very consistent and effective worker for the interests of the flourishing municipality in which it is located. What is good for the town is good for the Citizen and vice versa. Its editorial opinions especially on subjects of interest to Albuquerque are always in the right direction and published at the right time. It is directly opposite to the Albuquerque Morning Fakir Journal which succeeds in making enemies for Albuquerque and that right along.

The new town of Carrizozo in Lincoln County, is evidently growing. The Outlook, a weekly newspaper published there, has been increased in size and is otherwise improved.

The people have won—the "plain people."

CURE YOUR KIDNEYS.

Do Not Endanger Life When a Santa Fe Citizen Shows You the Cure.

Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, back ache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, languor, why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a certain cure is offered them? Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use, because it gives to the kidneys the help they need to perform their work.

If you have any, even one, of the symptoms of kidney diseases, cure yourself now, before diabetes, dropsy or Bright's disease sets in. Read this Santa Fe testimony:

Mrs. Bernarda Rivers de Escudero, living at 106 Griffin St., says: "As a good general tonic and in all cases of trouble arising from the kidneys and in the back, I know of no remedy more worthy of confidence than Doan's Kidney Pills. For about a year I was bothered with a weakness and a dull aching across my loins and kidneys. I tired easily from any exertion and the pains were very distressing. Using nearly two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills which I procured at the Ireland Pharmacy, the pains were relieved, my back was strengthened and my health better in every way. I am indeed grateful to Doan's Kidney Pills for the great benefit I have received from them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

DENVER PAPERS
SUED FOR LIBEL

Captain Fornoff an Important Witness—All Account of Counterfeit Bill.

Captain Fred Fornoff of the Territorial Mounted Police is an important witness for the defense in the libel suits set for trial in Denver this week in which Mrs. Luella Hazen of that city seeks heavy damages from the Post Printing and Publishing Company and the Times-News Publishing Company. Not caring to go to Denver to appear in the cases his deposition was taken yesterday by M. C. Miller as notary public.

While Captain Fornoff was connected with the Government Secret Service with headquarters in Denver he had occasion to swear out a warrant for Mrs. Hazen's arrest for withholding information concerning a counterfeit $10 bill which it is said she had in her possession. According to his statement Mrs. Hazen made a purchase in one of the Denver drygoods stores and proffered this bogus note in payment not knowing at the time that it was "bad." It was not accepted by the firm when they found it not to be genuine and returned it to her.

When the matter was called to the attention of the secret service officials Captain Fornoff says he was sent to investigate and asked Mrs. Hazen for the bogus bill. She informed him that she had given it back to the one from whom she had secured it and would not divulge the name of the person. Her arrest followed.

The Denver newspapers told under glaring headlines how a counterfeit-er's den had been unearthed or words to that effect in referring to the arrest and Mrs. Hazen instituted libel suits against each one. She lost her case against the Denver Republican which was tried some time ago.

RATON COUPLE WANT TO PROVE THEIR MARRIAGE

St. Louis, Mo., May 2.—Harvey B. Potts, formerly of East St. Louis, but now of Raton, N. M., has written to recorder of deeds Charles F. Joy for a copy of his marriage certificate "to show these old women."

Though Potts' request was not accompanied by the customary fee, Mr. Joy was so impressed with the urgency of the petition that he has ordered a certified statement of the legality of the marriage sent at once to Potts.

"That man writes like he wants that certificate badly," said Mr. Joy, "and if he does not pay for it himself, I will."

The records show that Potts and Miss Mary M. Lang of East St. Louis, Ill., procured a license in St. Louis on November 18, 1896, and were married in Kirkwood, Mo., a suburb of St. Louis, by the Reverend E. H. Sawyer. The request for the certified copy reads:

"No doubt this will be a surprise to you, but I want you to send us a duplicate of our marriage certificate as we have moved and lost ours all together. We were married in November 18, 1896, license got at St. Louis court house. As we are having some trouble over this affair now please forward at once. If any extra charges are required I am willing to settle for same. Send this at once and to general delivery Raton, New Mexico, I am a railroad man and have been all over the country and am now located here and have nothing at all to show these old women and what a row they are trying to stir up. I am willing to forward whatever amount you say is required for the extra work and duplicate. Yours truly, "Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Potts."

Dairy and Food Commission's Report The Minnesota Dairy and Food Commission's analysis shows that Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar and Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar contained opiates and croton oil. Opiates are poisons and croton oil is a violent poisonous purgative. Refuse to accept any but Foley's Honey and Tar in a yellow package. Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates or dangerous drugs and is the best cough and cold cure. For sale at The Ireland Pharmacy.

Let me mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, the Heart, or the Kidneys. Address me, Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write for my free Book now. Dr. Shoop's Restoratives sold by the Fischer Drug Company.

More News From the New England States.

If anyone has any doubts as to the virtue of Foley's Kidney Cure, they need only to refer to Mr. Alvin H. Stimpson, of Willimantic, Conn., who after almost losing hope of recovery, on account of the failure of so many remedies, finally tried Foley's Kidney Cure, which he says was "just the thing" for him, as four bottles cured him completely. He is now entirely well and free from all the suffering incident to acute kidney trouble. For sale at The Ireland Pharmacy.

Whooping Cough. Kidney complaint kills more people than any other disease. This is due to the disease being so insidious that it gets a good hold on the system before it is recognized. Foley's Kidney Cure will prevent the development of fatal disease if taken in time. For sale at The Ireland Pharmacy.

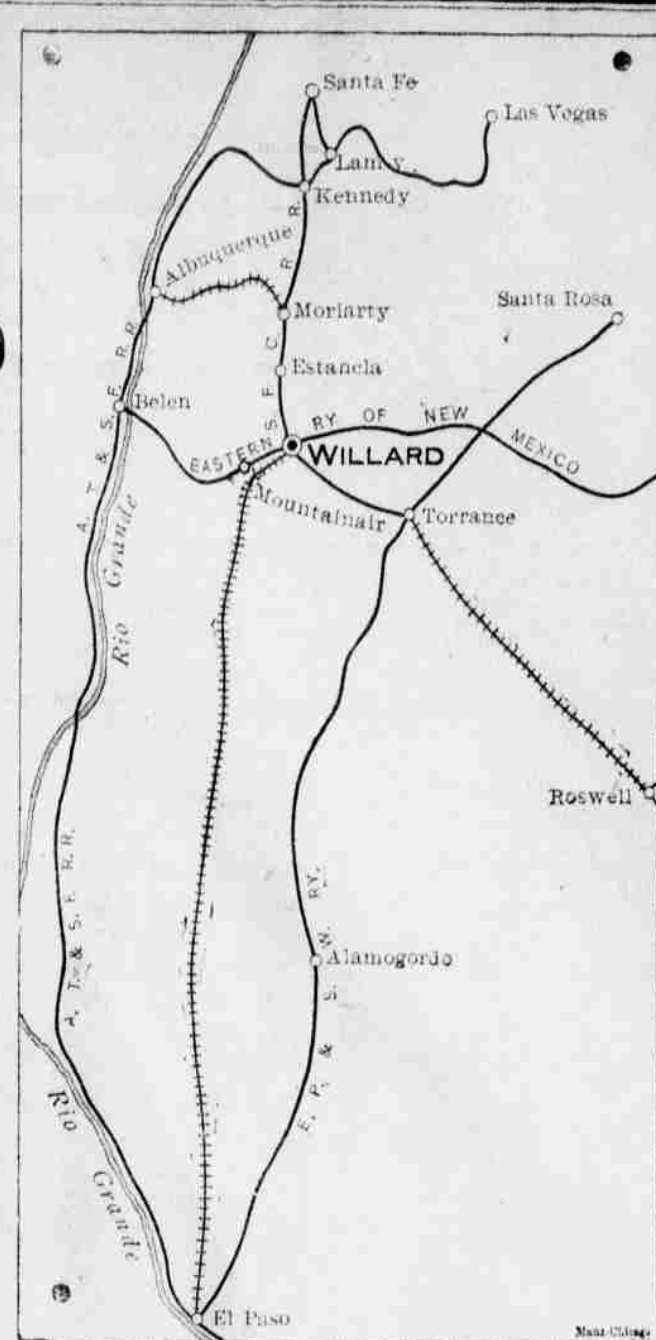

Call at our store, please, for a free sample of Dr. Shoop's "Health Coffee." If real coffee disturbs your Stomach, your Heart, or Kidneys, then try this Clever Coffee Imitation. While Dr. Shoop has very closely matched Old Java and Mocha Coffee in flavor and taste, yet he has not even a single grain of real Coffee in it. Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted grains or cereals, with Malt, Nuts, etc. You will surely like Health Coffee. Sold by the Cartwright-Davis Company.

Mrs. S. Joyce, 180 Sullivan St., Claremont, N. H., writes: "About a year ago I bought two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It cured me of a severe case of kidney trouble of several years standing. It certainly is a grand, good medicine, and I heartily endorse it." For sale at The Ireland Pharmacy.

If you have any spare cash lying around, make haste to place it in the bank where it is not only safe from burglars and fire, but where it also draws interest.

Bury seeds in the grounds and they grow and increase; but cash is apt to decrease very quickly if treated in the same manner. Plant your money in a safe bank and watch it grow.

It gives a comfortable feeling to know that you have a crop of money coming on. Start a savings account and feel that way.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of Santa Fe Chapter No. 19, Order of the Eastern Star, will take place this evening at Masonic hall.

Santa Fe Lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., will hold its regular weekly meeting at its hall on lower San Francisco Street at 7:30 o'clock this evening.

The Guild of the Church of the Holy Faith will meet at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Robert M. Harding, at the residence of Mrs. R. J. Palen.

Funeral services were held this morning over the remains of the late Atalino Gold who was frozen to death during the recent snow storm at Galisteo. Requiem mass was said at 7 o'clock at the Cathedral followed by interment in Rosario cemetery.

Certificates of births and deaths required to be furnished to the probate clerk of each county by physicians, mid-wives, attendants and nurses under the new law for sale in quantities to suit by the New Mexican Printing Company.

The post card department of the Fischer Drug Company experienced a run last evening on account of a desire on the part of the visiting Shriners to procure souvenirs of Santa Fe. Several clerks were kept busy selling post cards on which were printed scenes in and about this city.

Up to date seven certificates of birth and two certificates of death have been filed in the probate clerk's office here since the enactment of the law requiring this to be done by the Thirty-seventh Legislative Assembly. If this percentage obtains throughout the year the natural increase in population will be quite large to say nothing of residents locating here from other places.

What is promised as the first real big moving picture exhibition ever in Santa Fe will be the attraction at the opera house during the week beginning May 6. Fashionable vaudeville so popular all over the country will be introduced between the animated pictures and also the newest illustrated songs. The prices will be 10, 20, and 30 cents with ladies free on the opening night.

"Randolph's moving picture and vaudeville show, best we have had for years. You can guarantee satisfaction." The foregoing is a telegram received by Manager A. M. Dettelbach of the local opera house from the manager of the theatre at Las Vegas where the attraction is appearing this week. The show is booked here for all next week at popular prices—10, 20 and 30 cents.

A gun club is being organized in Santa Fe. Local sportsmen interested in the movement held a meeting a few evenings ago at which a committee of three was named to solicit members. Chief of Police James McHughes, who is one of the prime movers, was elected chairman of the meeting, and A. J. Fischer as secretary. The membership fee has been placed at $5 per year. The committee named to secure subscribers consists of Messrs. Fischer, King and Lopez.

LIVE STOCK

Supply of Cattle Continues Liberal—Market Holds Up Fairly Well.

Special to the New Mexican.

Kansas City Stock Yards, April 29—The cattle supply continues liberal with 45,000 head last week, an increase of 12,000 head over corresponding week last year, and the market held up about steady all week, except on stockers and feeders, which broke 25 to 40 cents. Today's supply is 11,000 head, market a shade lower on killing steers, steady on others, stockers and feeders stronger than the close of last week. Country grades sold slowly last week, account of absence of buyers, and prices closed the week 35 to 60 cents below the best time two or three weeks ago. Shipments from the range country have been limited during the last week, and sales of Colorado cattle were at $5.15 for 1122-pound killers, $4.25 to $4.60 for heifers, a few canner cows at $3.00, stockers and feeders $3.90 to $4.80, bulls $3.85, stags $4.00. Calves broke 75 cents to $1.00 last week, now selling at $3.50 to $5.50. Good rains have fallen over Kansas City territory during the last two days, which will give new life to the grass, and will further improve the demand for country grades of cattle. Total cattle receipts for the month of April show a gain of 20 per cent over April last year, and set a new high mark for April cattle receipts at this market.

The high prices that have recently been paid for sheep and lambs have attracted fairly good receipts, and the demand is not so urgent as it was a week ago. Prices declined slightly last week on receipts of 31,000 head for the week, and the market is 10 lower today, run 10,000 head. Bulk of lambs sold today at $8.20 to $8.40, a few spring lambs at $10.00 per hundred, clipped lambs $7.00 to $7.25, clipped ewes $5.25 to $5.50, wethers $5.85 to $6.10, woolled ewes $6.35. Shipments from Texas will have to be depended on for the supply within a short time, as fed stuff is nearly all in, and as no great run from the south is looked for, the market is likely to remain firm.

The New Mexican Printing Company has the largest, most modern and best arranged book bindery in the Southwest. The best kind of work only turned out. Prices very low and satisfaction guaranteed. If you have books to bind, whether the largest ledger or journal, or magazines and pamphlets or need any other binding call for figures, samples and prices of the New Mexican Printing Company. The company is anxious to serve you and will give you satisfactory rates.

The New Mexican Printing Company is prepared to do the best of brief work in short order and at very reasonable rates. Lawyers who desire to have their briefs printed rapidly and correctly and to present them to the Supreme Court now in session here on time, should call on the New Mexican Printing Company and leave their orders.

Marmalade.

Marmalade, then made only of quinces, was known in Henry VIII's reign. The word is derived from "mer melo," a quince.

Rubies and Emeralds.

The ruby is found in Burma, Siam and Ceylon, those of the first named country being the finest, the so called "pigeon blood." Emeralds are found in the Ural mountains of Russia, in Peru and in Colombia, the latter—in the Andean region—producing the finest, that termed "Spanish emerald."

Belgium's Fruit.

In ordinary seasons the kingdom of Belgium, which is not larger than the state of Maryland, after supplying a population of 500 to the square mile, exports 105,000,000 pounds of fruit.

Telegraphy.

A telegraphic line consisting of twenty-four wires, each representing a letter, was established by Lesage at Geneva in 1774, and in the same year Bishop Watson made experiments over 10,000 feet of wire near London. In Germany the invention is credited to Sommering—1809.

Meyerbeer.

Meyerbeer's happiest inspirations came when the thunder roared, the winds howled and the rain dashed in deluging sheets down the window panes of his study.

The Automobile.

The theory of the automobile was known to Solomon de Coste of Normandy in 1641. He wrote a book on the propulsion of carriages by steam power and was cast into a Paris madhouse for it by Cardinal Richelieu.

A Recipe For Kisses.

Take a bit of dark piazza. Add some moonlight—not too much—Press in two strong hands a small one. Add of eye reserve a touch; Sift in just a pinch of folly. Mixed with softly whispered sighs; Of romance add two small teacups And the starlight of her eyes.

Then dissolve some pure emotion In a longing and a laugh; Mix a grain of deep affection With a bit of merry chaff; Add an ounce of mild resistance, Two of yielding—then in mute, Inexpressible enjoyment Serve in quantities to suit. —Nixon Waterman in St. Louis Republic.

MALT NUTRINE.

For that tired feeling, for lack of appetite, during convalescence and as a general tonic you can do no better than to take Malt Nutrine. It is prepared by the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association after the most improved methods. It contains less alcohol, (less than 2 per cent), than any malt tonic on the market. In addition it contains more solids than any other extract. It is thus a food and not a stimulant.

Per bottle, 25c; per dozen, $2.50.

HONEY.

We have a supply of Honey in glass which we wish to dispose of quickly. Each jar contains a piece of comb and a quantity of extracted honey.

Per jar, 15c and 20c. Old price, 20c and 25c.

Native Comb Honey, very fine, two for 35c.

SEAL BRAND COFFEE.

The finest Coffee grown is put into one-pound and two-pound tins by Chase & Sanborn of Boston and Chicago, and sold by us at 40c per pound. It has a richness and piquancy of flavor and aroma that no other coffee even approximates. Its blending is a fine art, known only to members of the firm. It is freshly roasted, as we buy in small quantities and it is roasted in Chicago the day of shipment.

FRESH VEGETABLES.

Our Vegetable Fountain is a source of much pleasure to our customers. Vegetables are always crisp and cold when coming from our fountain.

MEXICAN CHOCOLATE.

We now have in stock Mexican Chocolate imported directly from Old Mexico, and prepared according to the Old Mexican processes and formulas which are somewhat different from those of American manufacturers. Cocoa and Chocolate have been the national beverages of the Mexican people since long before the conquest by Cortez, so they may be presumed to know more about their preparation than others.

Two qualities at 20c and 35c per cake, weighing about one-half pound.

SEEDS.

About time to plant that garden and those flower seeds. We have the seeds, you must do the rest. All the varieties in packages and the more common sorts in bulk. Our assortment of Sweet Pea Seeds is very good, there being seven distinct separate colors as well as Eckford's mixture. This mixture is made by blending separate varieties together in proper proportions and is very satisfactory. We will order for you any thing not in stock at catalogue prices. We can also get plants and bulbs for any desiring them.

The case was tried by jury at the recent term of court and the judge held that he could not set aside the verdict of the jury in a simple question of fact.

nehaha, a lovely Cochiti maiden, whose demure appearance captured not only Hiawatha's heart, but every heart of her audience.

Hiawatha's Fasting.

Most graphic, perhaps, of all, was the representation of Hiawatha's seven days' fast and his repeated wrestling with Mondamin, the spirit of the Indian corn. A sturdy Moqui represented Hiawatha and his delineation of the character was intensely realistic. "Thrice they wrestled there together," says the poet, but the fourth time the hungry, weary and dazed Hiawatha overcome Mondamin.

"And before him, breathless, lifeless, Lay the youth, with hair disheveled, Plumage torn, and garments scattered Dead he lay there in the sunset."

Hiawatha buried Mondamin according to the directions the latter had given before his death, watered and watched the grave until there grew from it the tall stalk of Indian corn. Hiawatha's joy was unbounded and he called in his friends and "gave the first Feast of Mondamin."

Minnehaha's Wedding Feast.

This was the most joyous scene of all. The friends of Iltie and brave Hiawatha and his lovely bride, with her hair as dark as the night, her eyes large and luminous, her skin almost olive and her cheeks blushing red, had gathered in a semicircle on the stage and sat down to the feast prepared by old Nokomis.

"First they ate the sturgeon, Nahma, And the pike, the Maskenozha, Then on pemmican they feasted, Pemmican and buffalo marrow, Haunch of deer and hump of bison, Yellow cakes of the Mondamin, And the wild rice of the river."

and many more delicacies that tempt the Indian epicure, including real strawberries. Lagoo told stories and the handsome, Pau-Puk-Keewis, the Storm Fool, danced his Beggar's Dance to the mournful beating of a tom-tom. Shouts of laughter and applause from the audience, were his reward, with which the stolid countenances and demeanor of the bridal couple and wedding guests on the stage, formed a characteristic contrast.

The Famine.

Then came the tragedy, the great famine and fever which claimed Minnehaha as their victim. The snow in descending was blown in eddies by the draft that swept across the platform.

"Ever deeper, deeper, deeper

Fell the snow o'er all the landscape," and upon the lonely wigwam in which lay Minnehaha, watched over by the faithful old Nokomis while Hiawatha was out upon the bleak plain and in the dreary forest vainly hunting for game. There appeared to Minnehaha the twin spirits of Famine and Fever, and held converse with her. "And the lovely Minnehaha shuddered as they looked upon her, shuddered at the words they uttered." Hiawatha poured out his terrible anguish to the Great Spirit in prayer, but without avail: "Give your children food, O Father! Give us food or we must perish! Through the forest vast and vacant Rang that cry of desolation."

The Death of Minnehaha. As Minnehaha dies she cries aloud for "Hiawatha!"

"And the desolate Hiawatha, Far away amid the forest, Miles away among the mountains, Heard that sudden cry of anguish, Heard the voice of Minnehaha Calling to him in the darkness." He rushed back to the wigwam only to find Minnehaha lying dead and cold before him.

"And his bursting heart within him Uttered such a cry of anguish, That the forest moaned and shuddered Shook and trembled with his anguish."

The curtain fell upon the final scene of Hiawatha mourning over the newly-made grave in the snow and bidding a farewell with the prophecy "Soon your footsteps I shall follow to the Islands of the Blessed."

An Appropriate Setting. The words of the poem were read with admirable expression by Professor Hammitt as each scene passed before the eye. The stage appointments were excellent, both as to lighting and as to the scenery, as well as to the costumes and the arrangement. Even the snow storm was more vivid than the customary stage blizzard. The participants carried to their parts not only the evidence of innate sympathy, but also of careful training. The hall in the chapel is well adapted to presentations of this kind and was crowded last evening from the last seat in the gallery to the beautifully painted curtain of the stage, the work of an eastern artist of renown. The Indian boys, in their natty dark blue uniforms, and the girls in the lighter blue of their dress, occupied the tiers of seats on each side of the auditorium, while the visitors occupied the center tiers. It is worthy of remark, that although the Indian pupils range in age from six to twenty years, their behavior during the entire evening was praiseworthy and would have put to shame the conduct of the average school crowd of white children.

Even to those who know their Longfellow by heart, his Hiawatha has taken on a new meaning after seeing last evening's pantomimes. To those who have never read this poem, last evening's performance must have brought a desire to do so immediately, while to the visiting Indians, scattered throughout the audience, one could see by the tense watchfulness with which they followed every move of the performers, the presentation of the epic was a miracle.

NEW MINISTER OF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Congregation Elects Rev. J. W. Purcell of Keyser, West Virginia, as Pastor.

Following the regular prayer service last evening at the First Presbyterian Church, a congregational meeting was held at which Rev. J. W. Purcell, Ph. D., of Keyser, West Virginia, was elected as pastor, vice Rev. George F. Sevier, resigned. The selection of the new minister was unanimous, indicating that he has preached himself into the hearts of his parishioners by his sermons during the past few Sundays when he was temporarily filling the vacated pulpit.

Rev. Purcell has been engaged at an annual salary of $1,200 and, in addition to this, monetary remuneration will have the occupancy of the Presbyterian manse rent free and is entitled to a four weeks' vacation. His family will probably arrive here in the course of a few weeks.

Rev. Purcell's name was placed in nomination for election as pastor by Charles F. Linney, who spoke at some length upon the qualifications of a clergyman. Mr. Linney's nominating speech was promptly seconded by Alan G. McCord who also made a few remarks. Other addresses were made by Judge R. McFie, Judge A. J. Abbott and Prof. J. A. Wood.
