DARROW OUTLINES CASE OF DEFENSE

Members of Western Federation Not Angels

A FIGHTING ORGANIZATION

It Has Had a Troublous Career Owing to War Made on It By Enemies.

Boise, Idaho, June 24.—A great crowd gathered this morning in the court room where William D. Haywood is on trial for murder to hear the speech of Clarence Darrow, chief counsel in outlining the purposes of the defense in combating the evidence put in by the state. Darrow began in a slow, mellow drawl, characteristic of him, to state the theory and plans of defense.

"The state's attorney has told you," said Darrow, "that the murder of Governor Steunenberg was but an incident. They have told you that the Western Federation of Miners was an organization whose purpose was to commit murder, to control politics to hire lawyers and to do their criminal things. Part of this is true, part of it is not true."

Darrow then mentioned the fact that State's Attorney Hawley was the first lawyer employed by the Western Federation and that he laid out the plan of organization.

"Angels Do Not Work in Mines." "The Western Federation of Miners," said Darrow, "is an industrial and not a murderous organization. It has from time to time taken a hand in politics but we are not going to hang every organization which has done such a thing. If we did then no corporation would be safe."

Darrow said that there was no claim made that the Western Federation was an organization of angels. "Angels do not work in mines," declared the attorney, for the defense, "they are mine owners."

Has No Apologies to Make. "We are not here to apologize for anything the Western Federation of Miners has done. It has been a fighting organization from the first and if it dies it will die a fighting organization. It has had a troublous career, it has been opposed by every device known to the mine owners but it has prospered."

Darrow detailed the benefits the organization had brought to the miners and said that the Butte, Montana, Union alone has paid more than a million dollars to the widows and orphans of its members.

Blames All on Pinkerton Agency. Darrow said that as soon as the mine owners set about to destroy it and employed as its chief means Pinkerton detectives with Chief McPartland at its head.

"We will show you," he said, "that they have hired detectives and placed them in positions of responsibility, such as secretaries and presidents of local unions, that these hired men constantly advised the miners to strike and that when a strike was on they counselled violence, dynamite and murder. They did it at Telluride, they did it at Cripple Creek and at many other places. We will show that the Pinkerton agency has been the chief factor in this case from the very beginning."

Alleges Orchard is King of Liars.

"I do not like to take any bloom off a peach like that, but while we will show that he is not the murderer he boasts himself to be, we will compensate him by proving him to be the most monumental liar that ever existed. Before our first witness takes the stand gentlemen, we will convince you and we will convince Hawley, himself, that this man Orchard has lied in the most essential points of his story. We believe we have from twenty-five to thirty witnesses who will take the stand and contradict this man absolutely. Some of these witnesses will be miners, but others will be eminently respectable people who have never done a day's work in their lives."

Darrow then took up the career of Haywood, Moyer and Pettibone. He declared that all three were Americans and "plain, honest men." Haywood, he declared, is a plain, blunt, courageous, fighting man, even fighting the militia when necessary, and fighting for the protection of the widows and orphans.

"Moyer, as the head of the Western Federation," he said, "fought every conceivable fight as men like him born of such stock will always fight."

"Pettibone," he said, "was a happy, careless, sunny man with a laugh and a joke for everyone."

THREE CYCLONES VISIT KANSAS TOWN

One Follows Other Within Few Hours—Many Houses Wrecked and a Number Injured.

Medicine Lodge, Kan., June 24.—Three distinct tornadoes struck Medicine Lodge last night, destroying twenty-five houses in the northern part of town. Six persons were injured seriously, one is missing, but so far as known no lives were lost.

The most seriously injured person is Mrs. May Lyle. She is injured internally and may die.

The first tornado struck here shortly after 7 o'clock Sunday evening, destroying telegraph and telephone wires and cutting off all communication.

The second storm approached shortly before midnight and the third early this morning.

All three storms came from the northwest and were accompanied by a terrific fall of rain and hail which greatly damaged crops.

PECOS RANCHER UNDER ARREST

Lyttleton Lewis Accused of Having Shot and Killed Cattle Not His Own.

Charged with having shot and killed cattle belonging to others, Lyttleton Lewis, who has a small ranch in the upper Pecos region, just across the river in San Miguel County, was arrested by Lieutenant John W. Collier of the Territorial Mounted Police. Lewis was arraigned before the justice of the peace at Pecos and bound over to await the action of the grand jury. Being unable to furnish bail which was placed at $500, Lewis was brought to his city last night and will be turned over to the authorities of San Miguel County. An officer is expected to arrive here tonight. Lewis was placed under arrest on information furnished by Anthony Dockweiler.

JUDGE PLEADS UNWRITTEN LAW

Killed Man Who Ruined His Daughter

A VIRGINIA TRAGEDY

Culminates in Trial of Slayer on Charge of Murder—Story of Crime.

Houston, Virginia, June 24.—Empanelling of a jury for the trial of former Judge W. G. Loving for the murder of Theodore Estes, son of Sheriff M. K. Estes, of Nelson County, began here today. This trial promises to eclipse in sensational interest the recent McCue and Strothers-Bywater's case at Culpepper. Judge Loving, armed with a double-barreled shot gun, shot and instantly killed Estes while he was unloading a car of fertilizer in Oak Ridge on April 22d last.

The shooting was a sequel to a bumpy ride taken on the evening prior to the homicide by young Estes with Elizabeth Loving, the 19-year-old daughter of Judge Loving. The girl when brought home, it developed, had been drinking and it is alleged her escort had maltreated her. Acting under the impulse that his daughter had been drugged and assaulted, Judge Loving immediately searched out Estes and killed him.

The plea of the defense will be emotional insanity and the "unwritten law."

WAS IT CONSPIRACY TO RUIN BURSUM?

Facts and Figures Before Referee Safford in Investigation of Penitentiary Accounts Strongly Lead to Such Conclusion.

Was there a conspiracy to ruin H. O. Bursum former superintendent of the Territorial penitentiary and chairman of the Republican Territorial Central Committee, officially, personally and in business, to blacken his reputation and good name and to place him before the people of the Territory as an embezzler and as a man recreant to the public trust reposed in him, by Territorial officials, by the Albuquerque Morning Journal and other yellow sheets in their pay and a few New Mexico fake reformers?

In view of recent investigations and events connected with the case of H. O. Bursum vs. the Territory of New Mexico pending in the Third Judicial District Court for the county of Socorro in which Mr. Bursum petitioned for a full judicial investigation into the accounts and financial transactions of the Territorial prison during the term for which he was its superintendent and in which case Traveling Auditor Charles V. Safford is the referee, the opinion is gaining ground that there was a cowardly and infamous conspiracy against Mr. Bursum and with a view to discredit him in every possible way and present him to the people as an embezzler and as a boodler.

Expert's Report Full of Errors. While but little has been ascertained so far concerning the official investigation, which has been in progress before Referee Safford for some weeks, sufficient has been learned to make the plain and unequivocal statement that numerous errors both on the debit and credit side, arithmetical and otherwise, omissions and clerical inaccuracies have been discovered to prove that the report made by one Francis M. McMahon then secretary of the Colorado Title and Trust Company for and on behalf of the Territory and by employment of ex-Governor Herbert J. Hagerman is partially incorrect, partially incomplete and in many items unreliable and not such a document as would establish the criminality, malfeasance or misfeasance in office of any official. In short, it is not a report that sustains in any manner the charges made by the Hagerman administration against Mr. Bursum. In this respect more cannot be said until the investigation is finished and the report submitted to the court.

Refused to Commit Himself.

In the proceedings on Saturday last in which Referee Safford endeavored to procure testimony as to the correctness or incorrectness of certain portions of the so-called expert's report the following very singular facts were demonstrated:

1st. The expert who, after several months' labor made this report, could not and would not remember anything about it, although one of the copies of the report signed by himself was submitted to him for reference and although one of the carbon copies of the report made by him, but not signed was also ready for inspection by him. The carbon copy submitted to McMahon was the same copy which, by the way, was served on Mr. Bursum a number of weeks after the report was published and which up to the time of this hearing was deemed sufficiently good for ex-Attorney General Reid to base his demand on Mr. Bursum for the repayment of monies claimed to be due the Territory.

2d. On Saturday last Referee Safford learned of the visit of this expert to this city. Mr. Safford deemed it proper to call on McMahon and informed him in the presence of witnesses that as there were a number of discrepancies, between his, the expert's report and items both of credit and debit so far ascertained by the referee, that he felt it his duty to request McMahon to appear before him to make reconciliation if possible between figures and amounts of the referee and those shown in the expert's report. This McMahon declined flatly. Thereupon the referee in performance of his duty and in order to get all possible testimony for a full and fair investigation and report issued a subpoena for McMahon and compelled him to appear before him. Now, why this reluctance and holding back on the part of McMahon? Why would he not voluntarily give the testimony requested as nothing but the truth and facts were desired.

3d. At the hearing a carbon copy of his report was shown him and McMahon asked to identify the same. This he refused to do on the ground that it was not signed by him and without a comparison of a signed copy, he could not say whether it was correct or not. Whereupon the referee sent to the Governor's office for the official, signed report, which could not be found and as a further effort to satisfy the demand of Mr. McMahon the referee sent to the penitentiary and secured from Captain Trelford a signed copy which was complete with the exception that certain exhibits were not attached. In addition to the reports the referee had also ready for the inspection of Mr. McMahon, all the original books, papers and data used by McMahon in compiling his report, also a portion of the original work of McMahon from which certain exhibits were compiled. With all this data McMahon still refused to testify or even look at or consider any of the data submitted and absolutely refused to attempt to reconcile any differences with the referee.

Strange Loss of Memory.

It is certainly passing strange that this expert could not even remember the amount of money paid him for his services to the Colorado Title and Trust Company, although he was its secretary at the time being and all financial transactions had to pass through his hands. It is also strange that this expert holding the confidential position of secretary of the said company could not or would not remember the agreement between ex-Governor Hagerman and the company in this matter, when it is a well known fact that a secretary of any corporation must, perforce, be as well acquainted with its business as the president thereof.

Where is the Official Report?

Why was the officially signed report of this expert submitted to ex-Governor Hagerman and which was the basis for the slanders, the libels, and the falsehoods published by the Albuquerque Morning Coyote Journal and other Democratic yellow sheets in New Mexico and which should have been on file in the executive office, not there and in whose possession is it? This report is an important official document which cost the people of the Territory about $1,250. If it is in the possession of ex-Governor Hagerman it is plain that he had no more right or power to take it with him than he had to take a desk or other property of the Territory from the executive office. What is behind this and what is the explanation?

In the investigation by this expert why did ex-Governor Herbert J. Hagerman ignore and set aside the request of Mr. Bursum to be represented by an expert bookkeeper and by reliable accountants at the investigation? This was so fair and just a request that its denial by ex-Governor Hagerman certainly indicates great hostility to Mr. Bursum and shows that he acted without the least desire to give Mr. Bursum a chance to be heard, to satisfy himself of the correctness of the statements by the expert, to give him a fair hearing so as to establish his innocence or to make settlement of any amounts that might be found justly due to the Territory.

Wasn't It a Conspiracy?

Again the fact that the original report of this expert has disappeared from the files of the executive office and that this expert when within the jurisdiction of the referee absolutely declined for most trivial and silly reasons to give testimony which would enable the referee to insure accuracy in the preparation of his report to the court the appearance of a lying and false special dispatch in the Albuquerque Morning Coyote Journal in this matter, certainly are more than sufficient to ask, "Was there not a venomous and cowardly conspiracy in this whole affair and a dastardly attempt for the undoing and destruction of H. O. Bursum as an official, as a citizen and as a man?" Certainly so far a good deal has appeared to give strong rise to such opinion and to such belief.

When the referee's report shall be published and the investigation by the referee closed, it is more than likely that this seemingly very grounded suspicion and opinion may develop into stern and absolute fact.

SLUMGULLION IS FED TO CONVICTS

Jap Clark Testifies as to Cruelty and Brutality

LOSES THIRTY-SIX POUNDS

In One Year's Confinement—Convict Forced to Work With Broken Arm.

Taking of testimony was resumed this afternoon by Attorney General George W. Prichard in the investigation of charges of inhuman treatment of convicts in the penitentiary filed against Superintendent Arthur Trelford. Jap L. Clark, who was confined in the prison there as a jail prisoner awaiting trial from February 5, 1906 to February 12, 1907, was placed upon the stand and related instances of abuse to convicts, and also testified as to the poor quality of the food served to inmates of the penal institution.

Shovels Coal With Broken Arm.

Clark told of a case of a convict named Clarence Hamilton, who had been put to work shoveling coal, who had met with an accident about three months previous in which he sustained a fracture of the right arm. The witness stated that this convict's arm had apparently not yet healed, as it was still kept tightly bandaged. Upon cross-examination later by Attorney R. H. Hanna, counsel for Superintendent Trelford, Clark stated that Dr. David Knapp who had been treating Hamilton, said the latter would not be able to perform manual labor or use the injured arm for at least six months. Clark testified that he had occasion to examine Hamilton's injured arm one day in the bath room after he had been compelled to go to work shoveling coal and he said that it appeared to him that it was still broken.

Sixteen Days Strung Up in Dark Cell.

Another instance was related of punishment of a convict by the name of Claude Doan. Witness said he saw the assistant superintendent Samuel Sample taking this convict Doan to a dark cell where he was confined for sixteen days. When Clark saw the prisoner after the latter had been released from solitary confinement, Doan looked awful poor and seemed awfully weak he said. Clark said the convict told him his hands had been chained so high in a dark cell that it almost broke his back. "He seemed weak. Knight had to hold him for support. It was told they fed him on bread and water and I saw them taking bread and water down to the cell several times."

Club to Revive Fainting Negro.

Clark told of still another instance of cruelty to a negro convict called Tony. He said he heard water thrown one day and asked Knight who had

PREFERRED DEATH TO LIFE TERM

Olguin Wanted 99 Feet of Rope Instead 99 Years

MURDERERS INCARCERATED

Prisoners Convicted at Recent Term of Rio Arriba Court.

Seven prisoners and five of them convicted of murder in the second degree were lodged in the Territorial penitentiary Saturday evening by Sheriff Narciso Sanchez and two deputies of Rio Arriba County. Four of the men found guilty of homicide were sentenced to terms of ninety-nine years which is equivalent to life imprisonment. The other man was given the minimum sentence of five years on account of mitigating circumstances connected with his crime.

Trinidad Olguin and Henry Romero, two of the life term convicts sentenced at the recent term of the district court of Rio Arriba County, were convicted of the murder of a man named Archuleta which occurred about three months ago at Chama. Archuleta it will be remembered, was lured from a saloon for the purpose of robbery and was struck over the head with a rock which resulted in his death almost instantly. Olguin and Romero fled but were later arrested and the latter confessed his part in the crime.

When Romero was arraigned he agreed to plead guilty and give the details of the killing and the plot to rob Archuleta if he was let off with a life sentence. Inasmuch as it would have been difficult to have secured a conviction of Olguin without the testimony of Romero and for the further reason that Romero insisted that he had been an unwilling accomplice the plea of guilty in the second degree, was finally accepted by the court, and a sentence of ninety-nine years in prison imposed.

Begged to Be Hung.

Olguin who is the older of the two men and has served a term in the penitentiary once before, was tried by a jury and was found guilty on the evidence furnished by Romero. Olguin was also given a sentence of ninety-nine years. Olguin protested his innocence and when he was before the court for sentence he begged to be hung rather than sent to the prison for the rest of his natural life. He said he would rather the judge would give him ninety-nine feet of rope than ninety-nine years in the penitentiary but the court was unable to accommodate the prisoner owing to the verdict of the jury.

Crescencio Gonzales, who was another of the prisoners sentenced to ninety-nine years imprisonment was convicted of the murder of his wife which occurred last year at his home in Rio Arriba County. There was no eye witness to the tragedy aside from Gonzales but suspicion pointed strongly to him as being the perpetrator and he finally confessed. Gonzales is said to have acted peculiarly on the night before the murder was committed and some of the people in his home community are of the opinion that he was mentally unbalanced at the time. Gonzales had been away from home working for about a year and killed his wife shortly after his return. When arraigned a plea of guilty to murder in the second degree was accepted by the court.

Carlos Valdez, who was the fourth man who received a life term in prison entered a plea of guilty to murder in the second degree which was accepted. He was arrested for killing one man and wounding another while on a drunken debauch lasting four days. The wounded man has since recovered. Valdez is married and has a wife and five children.

Indian Gets Five Years for Murder.

Antonio Trujillo who was sentenced to five years in prison for second degree murder is a Pueblo Indian who killed a fellow tribesman in a fist fight at Santa Clara. Trujillo offered to plead guilty to murder in the second degree which was accepted. Superintendent Clinton J. Crandall of the U. S. Indian agency informed the court that the Indians had been on a general drunk at the pueblo at the time the killing occurred when saloons were selling liquor to them in the belief that there was no law under which the proprietors could be punished after the Territorial Supreme Court had decided the United States law inapplicable to the Pueblo Indians and before the present law forbidding the sale of intoxicants was enacted by the Legislative Assembly. The Indians involved in the fight

WAS THERE A CONSPIRACY TO DESTROY BURSUM?

In April a year ago a star chamber inquisition was commenced under and by direction of ex-Governor Herbert J. Hagerman, at Territorial expense into the financial administration of the Territorial penitentiary by former Superintendent H. O. Bursum of that institution. This lasted some time and one Francis M. McMahon, a confidential expert of the Colorado Title and Trust Company, at Colorado Springs, was employed to conduct it. This so-called expert appeared upon the scene and with several assistants, ostensibly examined the accounts, vouchers, and books of the penitentiary, and was paid for this work exclusive of the expenses of his assistants the neat little sum of $1,250.

Former Superintendent H. O. Bursum addressed a request to the then Governor to the effect that he be permitted to have an expert bookkeeper and competent accountant present at the investigation and that this representative should be permitted to check off accounts, vouchers, debits and credits, with the expert. This very reasonable and just request was treated by the fake reform governor with contempt and ignored.

After a while one fine summer's morning the yellow sheets of the Territory published this so called expert's exparte report simultaneously, in which it was charged that the former superintendent was short and delinquent in his accounts to at least $5,000 during the seven years' administration of the prison. Whether or not the tax payers of New Mexico paid for these simultaneous published reports printed in supplemental form and furnished by the Albuquerque Morning Coyote or whether they were paid for by the fake reform governor is not yet known. At any rate they appeared and all of the yellow sheets and fake reformers in New Mexico howled in unison "We told you so," "Bursum is an embezzler," "All the Republican leaders are hoodlums," "The dear tax payers have been robbed for ten years," etc.

In the meantime and since then Mr. Bursum under protest and discerning that the so-called expert's report was false, incorrect and full of errors paid into the Territorial treasury something like $5,000 and then instituted a suit for a full accounting and adjustment of his accounts and financial transactions as superintendent of the prison. Traveling Auditor Charles V. Safford than whom no man in the Southwest has a higher reputation for honesty, efficiency and ability as an accountant was appointed referee by Judge Frank W. Parker. The referee has been busy for some weeks making a thorough examination and taking testimony. Saturday it happened that Francis M. McMahon, the expert came to Santa Fe. Referee Safford had been puzzled for some time how to procure this man's evidence, as he was a citizen of Colorado and not within the confines of the Territory. He wanted McMahon's testimony and acceded it to clear up and explain certain discrepancies and errors he had found in the so-called expert's report. Evidently fortune and good fortune at that favored the cause of justice and placed this so-called expert within his jurisdiction. The referee called upon the so-called expert and that high-toned accountant flatly declined to give testimony, or evidence, or explanations voluntarily. Promptly the majesty of the law was invoked and Sheriff Closson served a subpoenae after some search, upon the so-called expert with information that he had best attend the referee's court. Thus being confronted by the strong arm of the law the expert with bad grace consented. However, he declined to testify upon the ground that he wanted to examine the three reports originally signed by him before giving testimony. Upon request being made at the executive office for one of these originals which had been filed there it was found that this document was not in the files of the executive office but was supposed to be in the possession of the ex-Governor, probably reposing side by side with those celebrated vouchers for contingent expenses amounting to $3,750, in the coffers of the ex-executive residence. This was passing strange as this report was official and the property of the Territory of New Mexico. Why the ex-Governor thought it had better remain with him is not yet clear. This may be made so before long.

At 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon a copy of the report signed by Mr. McMahon was procured from the files of the penitentiary; the expert "declined to testify and to refer to the document because certain exhibits belonging to it were missing." Thereupon he averred that in order to protect the company which he represented at the time of the investigation he could not and would not give testimony except after reference to his report filed in the office of the company. Referee Safford after securing legal advice closed the matter temporarily by allowing Mr. McMahon to depart, the latter having promised to return to New Mexico when required by the referee. The questions of interest to the people are: Where is the official document, namely, the original report of this expert signed by him and filed in the executive office and why can it not be found there? Where are the documents pertaining to the second copy of this report filed with the penitentiary authorities? Why was not Mr. Bursum allowed a representative during the inquisition and investigation by the ex-Governor?

Why had the memory of this "expert" so failed that he could not even remember the amount of compensation paid by the Territory?

Why could this "expert" not make use of the copy of his report signed by him and obtained from the Penitentiary files for reference in giving testimony asked of him in a case in which even handed justice was sought and only that?

If the entire proceeding had been fair and honestly conducted why did this "expert" decline to give voluntary evidence and why had he to be brought before the referee by legal process? Certainly no possible harm could have been done and the "expert" knew very well that nothing except the truth was required of him. Another question:

Does it not look as if a dirty and cowardly conspiracy between Territorial officials, enemies of former Superintendent H. O. Bursum, the Albuquerque Morning Coyote Journal and fake reformers is about to be uncovered and unearthed? The end is not yet and truth, crushed to earth heretofore by a venomous and unscrupulous combine will rise and the vindication of Mr. Bursum will come in due time and be complete.

THE IMPORTANCE OF THE NATIONAL GUARD.

Of late Uncle Sam has been more carefully attending to various governmental affairs which have been sorely neglected to the detriment of the country. For instance among them is the very important question of the naturalization of foreigners. This has been tended to and much of the crime, the evil and the corruption that have heretofore characterized the naturalization of foreigners to become citizens especially during the last thirty-five years has been stopped.

Another very important subject has been properly attended to by legislation had during the Fifty-eighth and Fifty-ninth Congress. It is the proper state of efficiency of the National Guard of the several states and territories. Discussing this the Pueblo Chieftain says that the National Guard of the several states is to be materially improved in organization and equipment. An order just promulgated from the Secretary of War's office provides that after January 1, next, the National Guard must be maintained on a footing approximating a war basis; that the equipment must be equal in efficiency to that of the regular army and must be so maintained that the regiments can take the field on telegraphic orders and become a part of the United States army in the shortest possible time. These requirements are made necessary if the militia of the various states expect to receive a portion of the government's funds appropriated under the Dick bill for the use of the National Guard.

Throughout the history of this country its military force has been essentially volunteer; the well trained and disciplined regular army forming a nucleus around which the National Guard of the various states has been gathered in times of national peril. And because of our form of government and the temperament of the people we must always expect to depend in a very large measure on this volunteer defense.

But this should not keep us from making all possible improvement in the equipment and efficiency of the National Guard, which must ever form the basis of our volunteer armies. The experiences of 1861 were repeated in 1898. Through the thirty years of peace that followed the Civil War the nation had become disinterested in military matters, with the result that the National Guard of the various states possessed equipment greatly inferior to the regular army. In point of numbers the National Guard regiments were far below the war footing, thus increasing the time necessary to put them in the field ready for actual service.

These are shortcomings that are to be rectified under the new ruling of the department, and will add materially to the efficiency of the Guard in case it should be needed for national defense. But the improvement will extend further. The guardsmen will not only be equipped and drilled according to regular army standards, but attention will be given to their instruction in matters that are vitally important to the health of troops in camp. One of the most important lessons the American volunteer has to learn is how to take care of himself in camp. Matters of camp routine will be emphasized. Sanitation of the camp is placed as the most important while attention will also be given to the care and preparation of food, and the proper care of bedding and clothing.

No longer is war the showy undertaking it once was. The battlefield of today does not present the spectacular features it once possessed. Armies are moved and campaigns are planned with a mathematical accuracy. To achieve the best results it is absolutely necessary that the men who are to participate in a campaign must be so familiar with the simpler details that their performance will be unconscious. They must be veterans in all but the actual facing of an enemy's bullets. This is what the new order proposes to accomplish.

ALREADY IMPROVEMENT AT THE PENITENTIARY.

Governor Buchtel, of Colorado, in an address made to the convicts in the penitentiary at Canon City on Thursday of this week, announced officially that he would continue the practice of his predecessors of pardoning one convict on each holiday, ten in all each year, selecting the names of those to be pardoned from a list submitted by the warden of the penitentiary who will choose from among those prisoners whose prison conduct shows that they are making an effort to lead a correct, orderly life. This custom of holiday pardons is a beneficial one and is observed in many jurisdictions. It holds out hope to convicts and is an incentive to them to fit themselves to become useful citizens. It is in line with the indeterminate sentence law which prevails in the more progressive states. However, in New Mexico, there are a few rabid yellow sheets which have been denouncing the holiday pardon practice and which insist that convicts should be hanged on iron chains by their wrists for seventeen days at a time and if they survive this treatment, be thrust into dark cells and kept on bread and water, and struck with fists in the face until the blood runs. They believe in "socking" it to penitentiary inmates so that when these leave prison, they will be physical and mental wrecks who will be unable to earn an honest living and must return to crime if they wish to keep body and soul together. According to them, every man who enters the Territorial penitentiary should leave hope behind and throttle whatever good may still remain in him. This, it is claimed, is in accordance with principles instilled at the Leavenworth, Kansas, prison, and for that reason they induced former Governor Hagerman to add to his monumental mistakes and import a well trained martinet from Leavenworth, who is carrying out to the letter these inhuman and Medieval ideas. Fortunately for the inmates of the Territorial prison, the recent investigation of charges of cruelty has already brought about a change for the better and report has it that compared with conditions a short time ago, the treatment of the prisoners is much more humane and that even at the imminent risk of increasing prison expenses during the next few months, the discarded leavings on prisoner's plates are no longer served to them meal after meal. It is wonderful what the light of publicity let in upon dark corners will do even to alleged reform administrations.

PERTINENT QUESTIONS.

"What has become of the Territorial Bureau of Immigration and the big things it means to Albuquerque? Has any one noticed the large influx of homeseekers to this or any other vicinity through the kind ministrings of the Bureau of Immigration? Where is H. B. Henning, secretary of the Bureau of Immigration and how about those semi-occasional sessions of the board? How much have the local postoffice receipts been increased by the addition of the Bureau? In fact, is there a Bureau of Immigration at all, and if so did it really come to Albuquerque? Quilen sabe?"—Albuquerque Citizen.

Pertinent questions these. H. B. Henning, employee of the Albuquerque Morning Coyote, managed by Boss Danny Macpherson, receives a monthly salary of $133 from the Territorial treasury; how much the Albuquerque Morning Coyote benefits by this is not exactly known, but the impression that it is quite considerable is strong and cannot and will not be eradicated by Coyote howls, denials and disavowals. So far the good done by the Bureau of Immigration to the city of Albuquerque consists mainly in the benefits derived from its maintenance by the Albuquerque Morning Coyote, which yellow sheet instead of being a benefit to the Duke City is an injury and makes the town more enemies in a day than the good citizens thereof make friends in a month. As for the immense immigration the Bureau has brought to Albuquerque it can be found compressed in the editorial office of the Morning Coyote. The immigrants, investors and tourists who have come to New Mexico during the past three years and recently, in fact up to date, would pay no attention to the present officials of the Bureau if they could and could not if they would, as it is well understood that the Bureau is simply here now for the glory use and exaltation of a few men who were appointed as members and its officers as rewards for the low and despicable work they had performed for the fake reform administration and the fake reform ex-Governor.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend Examinations for the position of forest ranger will be held at the supervisor's headquarters of every national forest on July 23 and 24. Forest supervisors will conduct the examinations. The civil service commission at Washington, D. C., is sending specific information on the examination to all who write in and request it.

The little son of J. J. Brown, of Estancia, came near being killed one day last week while playing with a dynamite cap. An elder brother gave the little fellow the cartridge to play with and the child threw it into the fire. In an instant it exploded and pieces of it were imbedded in his anatomy causing painful but not dangerous wounds.

Judge F. S. Nave in the Gila County district court at Globe, Arizona, has rendered a decision in the incorporation case in which he decides in favor of the city. Judge Nave held that there was no jurisdiction in reviewing the action of the board of supervisors in creating the town of Globe on a petition of a majority of property owners. Counsel for the plaintiffs will carry the case to the Arizona supreme court.

J. R. Munder, a prominent business man of Dallas, Texas, accompanied by his wife and son are making an automobile trip from their Texas home to Denver. A few days ago their large touring car became fast in the quicksands of the Pecos River near Santa Rosa, and it required the work of several hours and the assistance of a team of mules to get the big machine out of the water. They will return to Dallas in the fall, going to Colorado only to spend the summer.

H. Morgan, of El Paso; C. B. Bosworth, of Deming, and W. E. Baker, of Las Cruces, who are interested in the proposed telephone system between El Paso and Silver City—the Southwestern Telephone Company—have been spending the past few days in Silver City conferring with W. D. Murray and Clyde Smith, of the Grant County Telephone Company and making the final arrangements for the successful finishing of this enterprise.

A destructive hail storm visited Gallup, McKinley County, last week. The storm came on about four o'clock in the afternoon and for twenty minutes tons of ice fell. The damage done in the town will amount to hundreds of dollars. Tin roofs were punctured as if they were paper, sky lights and window panes were shattered, allowing water to leak through on stocks of goods. The hail was followed by a downpour of rain and the greatest damage was done by water leaking through the penetrated places.

A mammoth topographical map of some 900 square miles of that section of New Mexico with Silver City as its center is the big undertaking now under way by the United States geological survey. A topographical corps of the survey has arrived at Silver City, consisting of A. B. Searle and five or six assistants. The men are camped just north of that city and are getting busy on the work. The map will be one of the most complete and valuable to mining men, ranchmen, forestry men and others ever attempted.

The committee having in charge the big celebration at Carlsbad on July 3d, 4th and 5th has closed a contract with the famous Caman Band of Winfield, Kansas, to furnish music during the celebration. The band is composed of thirty pieces and has furnished music at many notable gatherings including the Winfield Chautauque assembly, at which it has been engaged during the past eleven years; official band on Kansas day at the Omaha exposition in 1898; at the Priests of Pallas parade at Kansas City, in 1886, 1897, 1899 and 1903; official band of the Kansas G. A. R., at the national encampment at Washington in 1902, and at other notable gatherings both in its native state and Oklahoma and Indian Territory. This band is to be one of the main attractions at the three days' merrymaking.

U. S. RECRUITING STATION FOR ALBUQUERQUE.

El Paso, Texas, June 24.—Captain E. S. Wright, in charge of the local recruiting station, has requested the war department to establish an auxiliary recruiting station at Albuquerque.

C. H. Hinderer, of Alamogordo, supervisor of the Sacramento National Forest, is a visitor in the Capital. He is here on official business.

F. C. Wesley, pressman of the El Paso Herald, El Paso, is in Santa Fe on a vacation of several weeks. He was formerly employed by the New Mexican Printing Company.

Mrs. Cornell and son, Herbert of 397 Palace Avenue, this forenoon left for the Pajarito Cliff Dwellings where they will be the guests until Thursday of B. S. Phillips at the camp of the Ramon Lumber Company.

Mrs. H. C. Luckenbach and daughter Florence of 397 Palace Avenue, will return this week from Bethlehem and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Zane and Miss Zane, relatives, who expect to remain here for the summer.

Judge A. L. Morrison, of this city, one of the finest speakers in the Southwest and an especially eloquent Fourth of July orator, has been invited to address the people at Estancia at the coming Fourth of July celebration and has accepted. It is understood that this celebration will be the best and largest ever held in the county seat of Torrance and that people from all over the county will be in attendance.

John L. Cowan, a journalist of ability and a feature story writer whose stories are much in demand, has returned to Albuquerque from Denver, to which city he went to attend the Public Lands Convention. He was in the wreck on the Santa Fe near Trinidad last Monday and received some bruises and injuries to one arm. While these injuries are not serious, nevertheless, they disabled him so that he could not attend the convention.

Lauren W. Case, of Las Cruces, who some time since was employed on the editorial staff of the Daily New Mexican, is now assistant cashier of the Bowman Bank at Las Cruces. This is one of the oldest financial institutions in the Territory and hence he has secured a very good position in which he is giving full satisfaction. He is a young man of exemplary character and habits and has much adaptability and liking for the banking business in which he will doubtless be successful.

MURDERER GIVES HIMSELF UP

Antone Pettine Who Killed Benedetto Berardinelli Surrenders and is Released on Bond.

After eluding the officers of the law almost five months, during which time he has been in hiding in the mountains near this city, Antone Pettine, the Italian who shot and killed Benedetto Berardinelli, a stonemason, at Albuquerque, as was anticipated in the New Mexican Saturday, gave himself up to Sheriff Armijo of Bernalillo County, Saturday afternoon.

The surrender of Pettine was not unexpected, as it has been generally known for several weeks past that he was negotiating through his attorney, T. B. Catron, of this city, for a surrender providing he would be released on bond. These negotiations were concluded on Saturday in the office of Mr. Catron, when he formally surrendered to Sheriff Armijo and was at once released on a $10,000 bond signed by Rafael Pettine, Cruz Gallos and T. B. Catron in the sums of $1,500, $7,000 and $1,500 respectively. Rafael Pettine is a stone cutter of this city and a brother of the murderer.

Pettine will remain in Santa Fe until his case is called for trial which will probably be at the September term of court for Bernalillo County. He will plead self defense.

THIS MAN DESERVES CARNEGIE HERO MEDAL.

Orogrande, N. M., June 24.—Amado Sanchez, employed in sinking a shaft on the Copper Hill property in this camp, proved himself a real hero a few days ago and fully deserving of a Carnegie hero medal and a share of the hero fund.

Sanchez descended a sixty foot shaft on a rope in the face of almost certain death and rescued his foreman, E. Rengal, who had fallen unconscious immediately after touching off the fuses of five shots. The two men had no sooner been pulled out of the shaft than the shots exploded, hurling tons of rock skyward. Han Sanchez been a second slower in rescuing Rengal, both men would have been blown to atoms.

TO HAVE DANCE AT PLAZA FETE

Woman's Board of Trade Reconsiders Decision to Abandon This Feature of Entertainment.

Mrs. R. L. Baca and Mrs. Arthur Seligman, on behalf of the Woman's Board of Trade, have decided to take charge of the dance to be given at the Palace Hotel tomorrow evening in conjunction with the Plaza Fete. Saturday it was announced that this feature of the entertainment would be abandoned, whereupon local devotees of the light fantastic got busy circulating a petition to have the dance matter reconsidered with the result that it will be held as originally planned.

Mesdames Baca and Seligman were to have had charge of a Japanese tea garden at the fete proper, but this attraction will be disposed of owing to the fact that they are planning to have another and more elaborate entertainment at the opera house in July. They have taken hold of the dance with the assurances that it will be well patronized.

The dance will begin at 9 o'clock and the admission will be 75 cents. There will be no additional charges for refreshments. Tickets are now on sale at the Ireland and Fischer drug stores.

The indications are that the weather will be favorable for the fete tomorrow and preparations for the event have all been made. The "rummage sale" will begin in the afternoon at 4 o'clock, but the other attractions will not be thrown open until the evening at 7:30.

EXCURSION TO SAN JUAN PUEBLO

Two Hundred People Go From Santa Fe on Special Train—Indian Dances and Festivities.

Close to two hundred people left Santa Fe this morning on the excursion to San Juan Pueblo via the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad to witness the annual fiesta of the local Indians.

The special train pulled out at 7:30 o'clock and was due to arrive at Chamita which is the nearest railroad station to the Indian pueblo at 9:45 o'clock. Returning it will leave Chamita this evening at 5:30 o'clock and is scheduled to reach here at 8:15 o'clock. The excursion train consists of four coaches and a baggage car. The celebration is in commemoration of the feast of St. John the Baptist after whom the pueblo was named. Indian dances, games, races and various other amusements form part of the annual observance and the fiesta attracts large crowds of sightseers every year. Many healthseekers and tourists in the city were among the excursionists who went from here this morning on the special train.

These examinations will take place in New Mexico at Alamogordo, Albuquerque, Capitan, Carlsbad, Magdalena, Santa Fe and Silver City. REPRESENTATIVE RUPPE BREAKS SPRINTING RECORD.

Special to the New Mexican.

Albuquerque, N. M., June 24.—Captain B. Ruppe, a local druggist and a member of the House of Representatives in the recent Legislative Assembly, had a narrow escape from death yesterday and incidentally broke the sprinting record for a hundred yards. While inspecting his mining claims in the Sandia Mountains one of his horses packing a load of dynamite slipped and rolled down the side of the canon. The dynamite can burst open but the contents did not explode. Ruppe broke all records in his attempt to get out of range.

SLUMGULLION IS FED TO CONVICTS.

charge of the kitchen, what was the matter?

Knight told him, he said, by way of explanation that "that damned nigger down there had fainted." Knight said when asked if the water revived the colored man Clark declared that it did not, but that when Mr. Treford got after the negro with a big stick which was standing nearby that usually brought the colored man around. The stick referred to he said was larger around than a broom stick and about thirty inches in length.

Dainty Dish Called Slumgullion.

When questioned about the quality of food served to the inmates Clark stated that it was often unfit to eat. He said that a mixture called slumgullion was fed to the jail prisoners and convicts sometimes which consisted of pieces of meat, bread and vegetables left over from other meals. He said that once or twice this slumgullion was sour. He said that the meat one day last summer was rotten. Asked how he knew this, he stated by the smell.

Witness said that when he was sent to the penitentiary for safekeeping pending his trial he weighed 197 pounds in shirt sleeves and when he left it he weighed 161 pounds with all of his clothes on.

Fed Three Times Instead of Three Meals.

"You were fed three meals a day, weren't you, Mr. Clark?" Attorney Hanna inquired, while cross-examining the prisoner. "We were fed three times," was the prompt reply.

This slumgullion, the witness said, was usually served at supper time. He stated that at other times corn bread and molasses generally constituted the evening meal. When asked what was served for breakfast he said most of the time bologna sausage and bread or verner wursts and bread. He said soup was served as part of the noonday meal as usually.

He said he was not the only one to complain about the food. He stated that there were at least a hundred who were kicking about the grub.

JAP COMMERCIAL BODIES GET BUSY

Chambers of Commerce of Principal Cities Resolute on San Francisco Riots.

Tokio, Japan, June 24.—An informal meeting this afternoon of delegates from the Chambers of Commerce of Tokio, Osaka, Kobe, Kyoto and Yokohama, a resolution was drafted indicating the grave danger facing the commercial relations of the United States and Japan, owing to the anti-Japanese sentiment on the Pacific coast.

At the next meeting to be held within a few days, this resolution will be given official form and then wired to the principal chambers of commerce in the United States, asking cooperation.

BOLD ATTEMPT AT INCENDIARISM.

Special to the New Mexican.

Albuquerque, June 24.—A bold attempt to burn the home of Peter Baradocco, an Italian here, was made last night. The house was set on fire and two five gallon cans of coal oil were blazing. It was discovered and extinguished just before the cans exploded. The police believe that secret enemies of the man were trying to drive him from the neighborhood. Several arrests and soon expected.

CORPORATIONS WERE NEVER MORE PROSPEROUS

New York, June 24.—The July dividend and interest disbursement this year by the corporations of this city will reach the grand total of $182,881.849, eclipsing the total of any previous year in July and being over eighteen millions greater than the aggregate last year.

HOTTEST DAY OF SEASON KILLS FOUR NEW YORKERS.

New York, June 24.—Four deaths and a dozen prostrations mark the record for the hottest day so far this summer in New York. Street thermometers registered as high as 93 shortly after noon.

TRAIN BULLETIN.

Train report at 3 p. m.—Denver & Rio Grande two and a half hours late; Santa Fe Central an hour and a half late; Santa Fe train No. 3, due at 10:40 o'clock this morning and No. 2 will arrive at 7 o'clock this evening. PREFERRED DEATH TO LIFE SENTENCE.

were both drunk it appears and no weapons of any kind were used except their bare fists. However, a chance blow proved fatal. The Indian killed is said to have been of a quarrelsome disposition and the slayer a peaceable one, a member of whose family it was alleged having been wronged on a previous occasion by the murdered man. In view of all facts the court imposed a light sentence of five years in this case as the death seemed to have been the result of an accident more than of intention to murder.

Three Years for Would-be Bad Man.

Jose Martinez y Blea was sentenced to three years' imprisonment for "shooting up" the peaceful little town of Park View. It developed at his trial that he fired in the neighborhood of thirty-five shots and while he did not kill or wound anybody he might have done so. The court imposed the full penalty inscribed by the statute. A woman companion was arrested at the same time but it developed that while she had a pistol in her hand she did not discharge it and she could only be indicted for carrying a deadly weapon which is not a penitentiary offense. When before the court for sentence she asked to be sent to the penitentiary with Blea.

However, the judge imposed a fine with costs and ordered that she be committed to jail until paid. The court in imposing sentence expressed regret that he was not able to comply with her request by sending her to prison in view of the circumstances.

Juan Mestas was sentenced to the penitentiary for one year for discharging a gun in a settlement. When tried he claimed that he had only fired two shots into the air but this was a direct violation of the deadly weapon act governing settlements.

Sheriff Sanchez and his deputies brought the prisoners overland from Tierra Amarilla to Espanola and thence to this city via the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad.

EXCITING EXPERIENCE OF PICNIC PARTY

A coterie of seventeen girls and young women had an exciting experience last evening while returning after a day's outing at Monument Rock. While the wagonette, which was conveying them homeward, was being driven a short distance through the bed of the river some part of the harness broke and the horses lunged and pranced about, but the driver soon brought them under control. Meanwhile the feminine occupants became frightened, thinking there would be a runaway and they all jumped into the water, notwithstanding it was about ankle deep. Despite this little adventure they had a good time. Those in the party were Misses Dolores Delgado, Mary Sena, Lucia Delgado, Margaret Berardinelli, Maria Alderete, Lucy Sena, Fannie Abreu, Lettie Napoleone, Julia Napoleone, Mary Gormely, Nora Wagner, Genevieve Morrison, Juanita Sena, Pilar Delgado, Sophie Creamer, Amelia Sena and Blanche Roberts.
