11-8-1991

El Salvador: 28 U.S. Senators Ask Cristiani To Reject Amnesty Offer For Officers Convicted In Jesuit Murder Case

Deborah Tyroler

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/noticen

Recommended Citation

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Latin America Digital Beat (LADB) at UNM Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in NotiCen by an authorized administrator of UNM Digital Repository. For more information, please contact amywinter@unm.edu.
El Salvador: 28 U.S. Senators Ask Cristiani To Reject Amnesty Offer For Officers Convicted In Jesuit Murder Case

by Deborah Tyroler
Category/Department: General
Published: Friday, November 8, 1991

In an Oct. 31 letter to President Alfredo Cristiani, 28 US senators requested that the president refrain from granting amnesty to the two military officers convicted in the Jesuit murder case. According to the senators, absolving "the perpetrators in this shocking crime would do nothing to promote justice or peace in El Salvador; on the contrary, it would demonstrate the failure of justice in one of the most notorious crimes of the decade." (Basic data from Agence France-Presse, 10/31/91)

-- End --