ADDRESS BY MR. GARFIELD

Discusses Questions of Public Interest Here

EXPONENT OF SQUARE DEAL

Believes New Mexico Will Soon Have Statehood--Cab- inet Official Welcomed.

Notwithstanding the short notice and the hasty preparations several hundred people listened to the address delivered by Hon. James R. Garfield, secretary of the Department of the Interior, last evening in the chamber of the House of Representatives. It was a representative audience almost half of it being composed of women, who took as deep an interest in what the speaker had to say as the men.

Mr. Garfield in his speech discussed the policy of the national administration with reference to his particular department and which because of the present Territorial form of government here is of vital interest to New Mexicans. He touched upon the statehood question in the course of his remarks and stated that in his opinion New Mexico would be admitted to the sisterhood of states at a not far distant date.

Hon. T. B. Catron as mayor of the city, was called upon to introduce the secretary, and in his introductory speech put in some good words for New Mexico. He called the attention of the secretary to the fact that the impression prevails abroad that New Mexico people are not as good as the citizens of other commonwealths. He referred to the present investigation being made by special agents of the government into certain land transactions. There may have been frauds committed here he did not deny but he stated emphatically that there was less than in any other state or territory under similar circumstances. He said that the present investigation was welcomed and the federal officials would be given every assistance in their work. He also told with evident pride of the rapid strides New Mexico has been making within the past few years in the development of its resources.

Has Faith in New Mexico People.

Mr. Garfield when he arose to speak said that he had not intended saying anything about the land investigation now going on but since Mr. Catron had broached the subject he would talk briefly about it. He said that there never was any doubt so far as the national administration was concerned as to the honesty and integrity of the people of New Mexico. He assured his auditors that in dealing with the problems with which it was confronted the government would treat the people of this Territory as fairly and with as much consideration as in any other state or territory. If there has been any wrong doing here the people here would have them righted.

The secretary said that the principal object of his present tour of the Southwest was to study irrigation with a view to reclaiming the arid and semi-arid lands. Incidentally he is also visiting the various Indian agencies and institutions along the route. He spent over an hour yesterday afternoon in inspecting the U. S. Indian Industrial School near this city. In his speech he referred to this visit and paid a well deserved compliment to Superintendent Clinton J. Crandall for its efficient management.

Mr. Garfield's frankness made a favorable impression upon the audience and his address was frequently interrupted by applause. When he had concluded speaking the secretary shook hands with those who wished to meet him. His speech in part follows:

Secretary Garfield's Address.

"It is indeed with a great deal of pleasure that I have been able to come here and have the opportunity of meeting the people of New Mexico and discussing with them those matters that are of interest to them affecting as they do their lives and their property. As the mayor has said the people of New Mexico are of no different type than those of any other portion of the country.

"I am glad to say as I have said not only here but in the East where men have talked to me about the West that so many people there do not understand the West at all. I do not pretend to understand much about the West myself but I have been here for many years, coming through your Territory nearly twenty years ago and I have kept in touch with many of your men, and I know what they have done, and I know that what your mayor has said regarding the integrity of your people is true. I can state that this administration never has in the past, and does not intend in the future, to oppress the citizens of New Mexico. They stand in exactly the same position as the citizens of any other part of the Union, and if questions arise which involve an interpretation of law, or an interpretation of actions, the national administration will act in the light of the facts as presented to them.

"As the mayor has well stated the people of New Mexico are as honest and upright as those of any other commonwealth. There is no community in which wrong has not occurred. That is true. Yet the men who have done wrong are always in the minority in any American commonwealth. I do not intend to say much on this question (referring to the presence of special agents in the Territory) but I want to tell you exactly how this administration feels and what it intends to do in regard to these matters. It is true there have been complaints and charges have been filed but there is no presumption of guilt against any citizen of New Mexico.

"It is true that there are investigations now in progress but in every instance any man who is charged with any act will be given the fairest kind of hearing and will be given every opportunity to explain the act and no final action will be taken against any citizen of New Mexico until that kind of fair, square treatment has been given him that you are entitled to receive from this national administration. While wrong may have occurred in the community the men who have done wrong are in the great minority. Of course, if in any instance things have gone wrong those wrongs will be righted by you people and not by anybody outside. This is enough to say about any disagreeable subject.

"It is true that the Department of the Interior has a great deal to do with the people of the Territory, but both in the speech of your honorable mayor and the expressions that I have heard from your prominent citizens it is evident that you are all anxious to creep out from under the control of the Department of the Interior. Now whether you are in a position where you don't need to creep out but stand upon your own two feet and walk out is for the future to decide. But judging from the character of the people that you have here and the industries that have been developed I don't believe that it is going to be long before you can walk out on your own two feet without any assistance.

Studying Irrigation Problems.

"I have been going around the Great West for the last few months looking into mainly the matter of irrigation. I speak of the West and yet as I have stated in other places the West is not a definite location. A few years ago the people in Ohio were spoken of as being in the West. "It was the spirit of the West that finally pushed the line across the Alleghenies. It was the spirit of the West that developed the great Pacific Coast, that carried our commerce across the Pacific Ocean and finally took possession of the islands and taught to those people the ideals of liberty which they had never known. It is that spirit that we want to foster and engender not only in our own lives but in the lives of others. It is not the spirit of license. It is not the spirit of lawlessness, it is not the spirit of graft or land grabbing, but it is the spirit of our American citizenship.

"I am glad to see such an intelligent audience. I am glad to see so many ladies of this city present. I am glad that you have such a type of citizenship with you. We men call ourselves the lords of the universe. We only do that when we are in numbers and together. We never do that when we are alone. We know very well that we are not the lords of the universe. We know that there never was a man who made a success that it was not through the influence of some good woman who has saved him from trouble and who has brought out the best that is in him, who has lifted him up and given him the highest ideals of life. Now as to the things that the Interior Department is trying to do. One of the principal things that I am studying on this trip is that of irrigation and reclamation. I am going to visit the southern part of your Territory primarily for the purpose of studying more carefully the conditions as they actually exist. We have already made a start in the southeastern portion of the Territory and I very much regret that I can not have the pleasure of accepting their invitation to go down there and see what has been accomplished.

"There are some thirty thousand acres of splendidly fertile land that will be subject to irrigation. We will have hundreds of thousands of new acres of land open to irrigation in other portions of the Territory in the near future and as fast as the money is returned to us it will be turned over again to go ahead with new projects. All this means work,

CITIES BLOWN UP BY DYNAMITE

Boulder, Colorado and Essex, Ontario Wrecked

FIRE SET OFF EXPLOSIVE

Canadian City Completely Destroyed and Nine Per- sons Killed.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 10.—A car of dynamite intended for use in blasting at Lime Kilns Crossing at the mouth of the Detroit River, exploded today at Essex, Ontario, causing great destruction of property and the death of nine persons and injuring a score or more. The explosion destroyed every house in the town.

Terrific Explosion Wrecks Colorado Town.

Boulder, Colo., Aug. 10.—A fire which originated from an unknown source in the Colorado and Southern depot at 1 o'clock this morning destroyed the depot together with a great quantity of freight in half an hour and spreading one hundred feet, enveloped a powder house containing a thousand pounds of dynamite which exploded throwing the firemen and hundreds of spectators to the ground. Two men were fatally injured by the explosion, plate glass windows were broken in almost every business house in town as well as in hundreds of residences. The loss is estimated at $50,000.

The fire was reported under control at 8 o'clock. The Boulder police report hundreds of persons injured, twenty-five being cared for in local hospitals. The fatally injured are Roy LaFever, Clair LaFever and Ike O. Wilson, all volunteer firemen, who were nearest the scene of the explosion.

Fire Was Incendiary.

Denver, Colo., Aug. 10.—"We have positive proof that the fire which destroyed the Colorado and Southern depot at Boulder last night was of incendiary origin," said Vice President A. D. Parker, of the Colorado and Southern Railway today. "The miscreants may not have looked for such awful results as those which followed through the explosion of the dynamite, but upon their heads the blame of the catastrophe must rest. I will not say whom we suspect."

however. It means that as the water Indian Affairs in Splendid Shape.

is put on the land you must not expect to sit down and expect crops to grow merely because the water is there. It means that the farming class of men who is going to make the most of his opportunity in the irrigated district must work. Irrigation is not a simple matter. It means long hours of work and careful study to know how best to develop the land. It means that the farming class must use their brains as well as their hands.

"The administration contemplates the spending of millions upon millions for the development of the arid portions of the Southwest. All that will be done in an orderly fashion. All of it will be done as rapidly as we have the money to spend on it. You have also in your community here one of the problems that the Interior Department has to deal with, namely that of the Indian. I am pleased to find the Indian school here in the hands of a man, who understands what is expected to be done for the wards of the United States, who is doing his level best with the aid of his wife and employees to give those children the opportunities which you and I as American citizens are enjoying for ourselves. It is a problem not at all free from difficulties. There ought not to be a white man in this community who would in any way take advantage of these people, and I hope that I shall have the hearty co-operation of the people of New Mexico in working out this Indian question in a way that will be more than fair to them. They have a more serious proposition in the Indian Territory where I am going. Those people there are entirely different from the people that you have here and yet in view of the circumstances we should try to treat our Indian friend not only as we have been treating them but better. They have not had the advantages that we have and what we want to do is to give them an opportunity to have as many advantages as they can.

"It has been a great pleasure to learn the conditions that obtain in the Territory. As has been stated I shall take back a favorable report.

"And there is but one word of warning that I would like to give you. (Continued on Page Three).

SANTA FE HAS FINEST CLIMATE

Nothing to Compare With it in United States.

DATA TO PROVE CLAIM

U. S. Weather Reports Gra- phically Demonstrate Its Superiority.

Why Santa Fe is such a favored summer resort is demonstrated very graphically by the official weather bureau reports for the month of July. In Santa Fe, the very highest point reached by the thermometer during July was 84 degrees, July 19, on which day, however, the temperature during the night dropped to 56 degrees, while the day was partly cloudy and there was .06 of an inch of precipitation. The next coolest place in the Southwest was Durango, Colorado, with a maximum of 91 degrees. Denver had a maximum of 94 degrees, or in other words, was ten degrees hotter than Santa Fe, on its hottest July day. Pueblo had a maximum of 96 degrees; Roswell of 97 degrees, or 13 degrees hotter than Santa Fe; Amarillo, Texas, 99 degrees; El Paso, Texas, 101 degrees; Los Angeles, California, 103 degrees, or nineteen degrees hotter than Santa Fe, while the temperature during the night of the hottest day went down to only 76 degrees, so that even the night was sultry. Phoenix leads with a maximum temperature of 117 degrees, while some of its nights during July showed a maximum of 86 degrees or two degrees higher than any July "day" maximum in Santa Fe during the same month. And yet, 117 degrees at Phoenix is more bearable than 80 degrees at Chicago or Philadelphia, on account of the dryness of the atmosphere which prevails throughout the Southwest.

Nor does this record hold only for the extremes of temperature, but the average temperatures show Santa Fe to have been the most comfortable, the coolest place in July, without even considering that the dryness of the atmosphere, still further mitigates the oppressiveness of summer heat.

Temperature at Santa Fe Averaged 63 Degrees.

The temperature at Santa Fe averaged only 63 degrees; at Denver it averaged 72 degrees; at Los Angeles 73 degrees, at Pueblo 74 degrees, at Amarillo 76 degrees, at Roswell 78 degrees, at El Paso 81 degrees, and at Phoenix 89 degrees, or five degrees higher than the maximum at Santa Fe. The minimum temperature at Santa Fe was 50 degrees on July 15, and no other town except Durango experienced so low a temperature in July. In humidity, too, Santa Fe had a less average than the other towns of the Southwest, dry as their atmosphere is the year around. Santa Fe's average humidity was 51 per cent, Denver's 54 per cent; Durango's 52 per cent; Roswell's 61 per cent; Amarillo's 66 per cent; while for the other towns, the figures are not available.

Since New Year, there has been a deficiency in temperature from the average at Santa Fe of 72 degrees and of precipitation of .16 of an inch. Santa Fe during July had 1.46 inches of rain; Pueblo 1.30 inches; Denver, 1.52 inches; Durango 1.40 inches; Roswell 1.74 inches; Amarillo 2.49 inches; El Paso .35 of an inch; Los Angeles had no rainfall at all; while Phoenix had 2.18 inches. The greatest precipitation during any 24 hours in July was .32 of an inch at Santa Fe on July 3; at Pueblo .40 of an inch; at Denver, .97 of an inch; at Durango .79 of an inch; at Roswell 1.24 inches; at Amarillo .73 of an inch; at El Paso .10 of an inch; at Phoenix 1.10 inches.

Santa Fe during July had a total wind movement of 4,990 miles, an average of 6.7 miles per hour, blowing mostly from the snowcapped mountains to the northeast. Pueblo had a total wind movement of 5,146 miles; Denver 4,963 miles; Durango 5,026 miles; Amarillo 9,606 miles; El Paso 7,263 miles; Los Angeles 4,732 miles. The maximum velocity at Santa Fe was 33 miles per hour from the east on July 5. At Pueblo the maximum was 48 miles; Denver 33 miles; Amarillo 55 miles; El Paso 40 miles; Phoenix 36 miles.

Capital City Had But One Cloudy Day During Month.

Santa Fe during July had one cloudy day; Pueblo 1; Denver 3; Durango 3; Roswell 2; Amarillo 1; El Paso 2; Los Angeles 1; Phoenix 2.

Partly cloudy days, Santa Fe had 19, the cloudiness generally occurring during the warmest part of the day.

It had 11 clear days and not one day with less than 14 per cent of sunshine, while the sunshine average for the month was 73 per cent, four days making a record of 100 per cent of sunshine, and eight more of more than 80 per cent of sunshine. The mean maximum temperature at Santa Fe was 80.8 degrees, against 88.5 at Pueblo, 85.3 at Denver, 83.9 at Durango; 91.9 at Roswell; 88.7 at Amarillo; 93 at El Paso, 83.5 at Los Angeles, and 102.6 at Phoenix. The average minimum at Santa Fe was 55.3 degrees; Pueblo 60.3 degrees; Denver 58.4, Roswell 63.9; Amarillo 63.3; El Paso 69.9; Los Angeles 61; and Phoenix 76.3.

This extremely comfortable and salubrious climate of Santa Fe is the rule not only in July but in every month of the year, the variations in temperature, the wind velocity and the humidity being less at Santa Fe summer and winter than at any other town in the Southwest and that means in the United States, the winter months averaging warmer than they do in localities 300 miles farther south and 3,000 feet lower, and the summer months cooler than in places three hundred miles north or several thousand feet higher or swept by cool sea breezes. Certainly, climate is a great asset and Santa Fe should make more of it than it does at present.

GARFIELD PARTY OFF FOR SOUTH

Will Inspect Engle Dam Site While En Route to El Paso—Entertained at Prince Home.

Secretary James R. Garfield of the Department of the Interior and party, including F. H. Newell, director of the United States Reclamation Service, who arrived in the city yesterday and remained here until late last night, when they left for Southern New Mexico. Their next stop will be to inspect the Engle dam site, which is one of the projects taken up by the Reclamation Service. From New Mexico the Secretary and his party will proceed to Texas, Oklahoma and Indian Territory, after which they will return to Washington.

At the conclusion of the reception here yesterday at the Capitol, Secretary Garfield, accompanied by Governor Curry and Mr. Newell, proceeded with Hon. L. Bradford Prince to visit the rooms of the New Mexico Historical Society in the old Palace, and were much interested by the varied collections. The party then proceeded to the Prince residence, where they were received by Mrs. Prince. The Secretary expressed his delight at the interesting style of buildings surrounding the placita, which is now a bower of flowers, and at the remarkable collection of Southwestern antiquities with which the house abounds. After remaining until the last moment before the time fixed for the departure of the train, ex-Governor Prince escorted the party to the depot, where the final adieu were spoken.

MEETING CATTLE SANITARY BOARD

No Decision Reached as to Appointment of Mr. Barnes' Successor as Secretary.

A meeting of the Territorial Cattle Sanitary Board was held yesterday afternoon in the parlor of the Hotel Palace. All but one of the members were in attendance. Those present were E. G. Austen, of Las Vegas, president; Charles L. Ballard, of Roswell; E. R. Manning, of Maxwell City; George W. Baker, of Folsom, and W. C. McDonald, of Carrizozo. Secretary Will C. Barnes was also present. Victor Culbertson, of Fierro, was the only absentee.

Only routine business was transacted at the special session yesterday. Secretary Barnes tendered his resignation some time ago, to take effect this month, and the question of a successor was discussed, but no definite action was taken. Two or three candidates for the position, it is said, are being considered, but their names could not be learned.

New York, Aug. 10.—A strike of 3,000 telegraphers in New York in sympathy with the Chicago strikers is to be considered at a meeting called for tomorrow. According to the union officials the strike will become general throughout the country. The Western Union officials believe they will eventually break the strike should it be called within a short time. They say the union does not control over fifty per cent of the telegraphers here and they say the union treasury is empty. President Ahearn denied today that the local union was without funds and that the telegraphers could not finance a long strike.

OFFICIAL MATTERS.

Littrell Resignation Not Accepted. Yesterday Marion Littrell, superintendent of the Territorial penitentiary tendered his resignation to Governor George Curry. He took the position that when he was appointed by Acting Governor James W. Reynolds that he accepted the appointment subject to the desires of the new executive. Governor Curry declined to accept it, evidently being of the opinion that the appointment of Mr. Littrell was a very proper one. The citizens of Colfax County desired by a heavy majority that Mr. Littrell retain the office of sheriff, which he was elected last November, but it is very likely that he will remain in the position of superintendent of the penitentiary.

Judge Fall to Be Attorney General. It may be stated reliably that Judge A. B. Fall, of Otero County, will be named in the near future as Attorney General of New Mexico, to succeed Colonel George W. Prichard, resigned. The matter of the assistant attorney general to represent the attorney general in the Capital has not yet been definitely settled.

Vaughn to Remain as Treasurer. Treasurer J. H. Vaughn informed Governor Curry yesterday that if he desired his resignation as treasurer of the Territory, to which he was appointed by Acting Governor Reynolds that the same would be forthcoming promptly. Governor Curry indicated that he desired no such action on the part of Treasurer Vaughn and the chances are that Mr. Vaughn will remain in the position which he has so ably filled under the Republican administration.

May Be New Coal Oil Inspector. It is reported in the hotel lobbies and in the Capitol corridors that the appointment of Coal Oil Inspector of the Territory may go to Ralph F. Hunt, a well-known citizen of Albuquerque. However, the report could not be traced to any reliable source, but it is given simply as a rumor.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF SANTA FE COUNTY.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every postoffice in the Territory and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the southwest.

SECRETARY GARFIELD'S CAPTURE OF THE PEOPLE.

Secretary of the Interior James R. Garfield verily took Santa Fe by storm, and it is believed that the Secretary's feeling toward Santa Fe and its people is no less enthusiastic. No man, since President Roosevelt last visited Santa Fe, has been greeted with such enthusiasm and has left so good and pleasant an impression upon the people. It was not only because of his frank and hearty manner, his important official position, the love that this commonwealth bore for the father, but also because of the hearty assurance by Mr. Garfield that New Mexico would be given the "Square Deal"; that in all investigations now in progress or to be made in the future, every accused man would be given the amplest opportunity to explain his actions, to defend himself; that the question of his guilt or innocence would not be determined by outsiders but by the duly constituted authorities of the Territory. Mr. Garfield also acclaimed emphatically that he is positive that there is proportionately no more graft, no more wrong doing in New Mexico than in any other commonwealth; that New Mexico is a community of average American citizenship and no less, and intimated that before long the Territory will be given statehood. These and many more things Secretary Garfield said that were pleasant to New Mexican ears after having been informed again and again by lesser officials that New Mexico is graft ridden, its officials corrupt and that they would be summarily dealt with by agents of the government sent here from the outside to establish a sort of autocratic government. It is the general impression in New Mexico were directly with President Garfield and all the difficulties and hardships that have beset the Territory in the past.

A fog before the morning sun. As one man said in his homely way last evening: "Secretary Garfield does not put on one-tenth of the airs that mark the average bureau clerk from Washington that I have run against lately. One can readily understand after looking into Mr. Garfield's clear but kindly gray eyes, that whatever mistakes he makes will not be of the heart."

It looks indeed as if the cloud was lifting from the Territory through the better understanding that those high in authority at Washington are gaining of the temper of the people of the Southwest; their high ideals, and their unshaken determination not to be governed by an autocratic bureaucracy and by a system that smacks of Russia rather than of the United States. Secretary Garfield has learned that New Mexico courts an open investigation of every alleged wrong doing affecting the Federal government in any manner, but, like every high-spirited community, it will not buckle to star-chamber methods and high lord inquisitors who are swelled up with their own little importance and crack the whip whenever their dignity is ruffled. It is not investigation that New Mexico fears or criticizes, but the manner in which these investigations have been occasionally conducted.

It was good for Santa Fe people and the many visitors from other parts of New Mexico to come in close contact with officials like Secretary Garfield, First Assistant Postmaster General Hitchcock and heads of the Reclamation Service and to learn that none of these men approve, much less sanction any over-reaching in authority by subordinates; that they all look upon New Mexico, its people and their advancement in a light that is far more favorable than the people had been led to believe by interested parties who claimed to be representing the views of President Roosevelt and his cabinet.

MORE EVEN HANDED JUSTICE FOR RICH AND POOR.

Judges and juries are but human, and the laws of the land are made by human brains. What is called law and justice are administered by men and therefore there must be sins of omission and commission in the administration of justice as in everything else human. Nevertheless, as progress is attained in every condition in life such is also very marked as far as the carrying out of law and order and the enforcement of justice are concerned. That a great deal is yet to be desired in these directions is true and will likely be the case for many years to come, but upon the whole it must be conceded that the laws are more impartially and more firmly enforced and that the decisions of the courts are more even-handed and contain more equality for rich and poor than ever before in history, especially in the United States. Referring to this interesting condition at this time, taking as examples two of the most noted judicial trials within the last six weeks, in widely different parts of the country, the Pueblo Chieftain says that justice awaits the lawbreakers, high or low, rich or poor, in the courts of the United States. The events of the last week have brought this fact home to the American people with an emphasis that cannot be questioned. Two recent decisions by judge and jury have silenced effectively the rant of the demagogue regarding the immunity of wealth from adverse court action and the inability of poverty to secure justice at the hands of judicial authorities.

It was on Sunday, July 28, at the close of one of the most notable trials in the history of American courts, that the jury of Idaho farmers returned a verdict which set at liberty a prominent member of America's great working family, who had been charged with complicity in the murder of a state executive. It was less than a week thereafter that Judge Landis of the United States court in Chicago imposed the maximum penalty under the law upon the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, which was recently convicted and undoubtedly will retain this distinction for a considerable time.

These two instances show a healthy condition of the American courts and the ever growing demand of the American people that exact justice shall be done and the law's penalties exacted, regardless of the material standing of the defendant. It should be further noted that, in both cases, the presiding judges refused to allow technicalities to enter into their rulings. They exhibited a disposition to depart from the narrow path of mere legality to the broader course of common sense and justice.

PRICHARD'S RESIGNATION AS ATTORNEY GENERAL.

In resigning the office of attorney general of the Territory of New Mexico to which he was appointed two months ago by Territorial Secretary James W. Reynolds, Colonel George W. Prichard did the right thing at the proper time; he did it gracefully, promptly and courteously. Colonel Prichard understands the situation fully and believes that Governor Curry should have a legal adviser in his office of his own choosing. Hence, his prompt and speedy action in the case.

Colonel Prichard held the office for two and one-half years under the Otero administration. He has practiced law in New Mexico for twenty-seven years. He has served creditably four years as United States attorney of this district. Twice he represented the great county of San Miguel very acceptably and efficiently in the upper House of the Territorial Legislative Assembly. His record as an official is clean and honorable. He is considered an able lawyer, true to the best interests of his clients, and successful in his profession.

Colonel Prichard may properly be numbered among the "old timers" and he is entitled to great credit for having borne the great burden and heat of the day for the up-building of this Territory from the first day of his arrival here twenty-seven years ago. In politics he is a straight Republican, loyal to his party, true to his political convictions and a consistent supporter of his friends and the party.

He retires from office with the full consciousness of having done his duty to the best of his ability and to the satisfaction of the people. He carries with him into his private life the respect and esteem of the people generally and more especially of the Republicans of the Sunshine Territory. Colonel Prichard, as far as this world's goods are concerned, is fairly well fixed and enjoys a lucrative practice. He was not in office for the sake of making a living, but simply and solely in order to serve the people of New Mexico, and the Republican party, when such service was called for either by the people or by the Territorial authorities.

The filing of his resignation at this early date is a very graceful and considerate act, which, no doubt is fully appreciated in its delicacy and true courtesy by Governor Curry and by the many friends of the retiring official.

NECESSITY OF WORK ON THE SCENIC HIGHWAY.

The New Mexican would respectfully call the attention of Superintendent Marion Littrell of the penitentiary to the fact that a few days' work by twenty-five convicts will place the Scenic Highway from Santa Fe to the boundary of the Pecos National Forest in good and passable condition and will prevent its further deterioration; that a few days' more work will re-establish the splendid condition of the fine piece of roadway over the Dalton Divide to within a few miles of the Pecos River built under the supervision of former Superintendent H. O. Bursum and that if the work is done now it will save the Territory a large outlay later in repairing a road that should be the pride of the Southwest. Furthermore, it would be good policy to connect the two pieces of roadway on this side of the range so as to make a continuous and good wagon road from Santa Fe to the Pecos River. In the Santa Fe Canon, the work to be done is so slight that it would be poor business not to do it, while in the Macho Canon, the few miles to be built are more difficult, but should nevertheless be completed before next year. It is not likely that the Federal government will complete the road for many years, for a special agent has reported that it will take more than $100,000 to do it and that a special appropriation from Congress will be needed for that purpose. New Mexico can complete the road for less than one-fifth of that sum and after taking credit for building over one-half the road, some of it the most difficult of the entire survey, it should not halt at the boundaries of the Pecos National Forest and leave useless the work thus far done. The New Mexican is confident that Superintendent Littrell will look into this request without delay and will give Santa Fe and the Territory more of a square deal than was given them by his predecessor, who had evidently hoped to apply the road fund in other directions than had been intended by the legislators.

LITRELL TO REMAIN SUPERIN-competency and brutality, will meet with the approval of the fair-minded and decent citizens of the Territory, and will be especially commended by the many who are personally acquainted with Mr. Littrell's fine record as an official and as a citizen.

Mr. Littrell has served as sheriff of Colfax County, a difficult and responsible position, by election on the Republican ticket for four full terms and was re-elected last November upon the same ticket by a very large majority. This fact is proof positive of his standing, efficiency and ability as a peace officer, which, in a large measure goes to show that he is the right man as superintendent of the penitentiary. Since taking the office Mr. Littrell has brought order out of chaos, and in a great measure has already redeemed the Territorial penitentiary from the inefficient, chaotic, unsatisfactory and costly condition of affairs into which it was plunged during the one year of the Hagerman fake reform mal-administration of official affairs.

All indications point toward Colfax County's speedy growth in industrial and agricultural directions. The vast coal fields within its domain and the tens of thousands of acres of fine agricultural land that can be irrigated, its many miles of valuable timber lands and its great deposits of precious and base metals are bound to bring this county to the front of the many rich sub-divisions of the Sunshine Territory.

The good name and fair fame of the Sunshine Territory have been tarnished considerably of late. In fact the Territory has suffered a great deal from the publication of very unjust and very reprehensible newspaper lies and libels. It is time there was a stop to this in every direction if possible. There is no good reason why it should not be stopped.

The volume of the summer's business of the country and the outlook for the fall and winter business are not indications that hard times will visit this country within the near future. Great prosperity is still abroad in the land of Uncle Sam.

From every portion of the Territory come expressions of approval of the selection of Governor George Curry by the President of the United States as executive of New Mexico. The good fruits will soon be apparent.

If you suffer from backache—From urinary disorders—From any disease of the kidneys, Be cured to stay cured. Doan's Pills make lasting cures. Santa Fe people testify. Here's one case of it: Alberto Garcia, living on Gallisteo street, Santa Fe, New Mexico, says: The statement I gave some five years ago relating to my opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills was correct in every detail and now I can positively and emphatically say that my cure has been a permanent one. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at The Ireland Pharmacy and used them for backache and too frequent action of the kidney secretions, troubles which had annoyed me more or less for a couple of years. I used three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me absolutely and now I have a higher appreciation of the medicine that I formerly entertained for them.

ADDRESS OF SECRETARY GARFIELD

Be fair with the industries that are going to come into this Territory. Don't make the mistake of believing that all the great industries are bad because one has been bad; that all the railroads and the managers of those railroads are bad because some of them are bad. Don't suppose that because some mines have failed to obey the law that all mines will fail to obey the laws and in the legislation that may be made deal fairly with all these great industries. Let every class of this great commonwealth be fairly represented.

Give Everybody a "Square Deal."

"As you grow in importance grow in political right, let it be understood that every class in this great commonwealth is entitled to and receives equal fairness. If a law is good for labor it should be good for capital and if a law is good for capital it ought to be good for labor. This national administration has stood for doing away with class distinction but it is impossible to make all men equal. Men are born with great inequalities and when you say thus that men are equal you are stating a falsehood. Place two men together and the man who has a good character, who is God fearing and law abiding will forge ahead.

"I thank you again for this very cordial reception which you have given me and I feel that I never knew New Mexico as well before as I do today, and if any of you come to Washington you will find the door of the Secretary of the Interior's office wide open."

Mayor Catron Introduced Speaker.

Mayor T. B. Catron in behalf of the citizens of Santa Fe, welcomed Secretary Garfield to this Territory. His remarks were as follows:

"We have with us this evening the Secretary of the Interior of the government of the United States; Mr. Garfield, who has been moving around the country upon somewhat of an inspection tour and in doing so has reached our territory. He has come to our city for the purpose of seeing us, of meeting the people, of learning something about what we are, who we are and possibly what we ought to be.

"As Mayor of the City of Santa Fe, the only city in the United States, we say, and as a citizen of the Territory of New Mexico, I am charged to welcome Mr. Garfield to the Territory of New Mexico and to Santa Fe. We are glad he has come. We are glad that he has been able to reach our Territory and look into our resources, see what we possess, what can be brought out for the future, and we are glad that he is able to meet our people, to see them, talk with them, judge for himself of them, and determine whether or not we, as free born American citizens, are entitled to the full benefit of such citizenship.

"Since New Mexico has been a Territory of the United States, her people have been as loyal, as devoted, and as enthusiastic in behalf of that government as any people that live under the stars and stripes. Whenever the government has called upon them for aid and assistance, they have responded, and I understand that the records show that in the Spanish-American war more volunteers were received and taken in in New Mexico in proportion to the number of its population than was taken in or received from any other State or Territory in the Union. And in the Civil war the same record holds good for New Mexico. Over 6,000 volunteers were taken into the Union army in addition to nearly 3,000 militia, making almost 9,000, and with a population of a little over 60,000 people, so that we hold ourselves up as a people who have been devoted to the Union, who have been willing to come forward when necessary.

People Glad Secretary Came.

"We are glad that our fellow citizen has come amongst us. We are glad that he will be able to go back to Washington and tell what character of people he has met. We are glad to have the administration of President Roosevelt. We are glad to have that administration represented here today and represented in a capacity that will be able to take back to the head of the administration some word of praise, which I know he must take, and which he can sincerely take in behalf of the people of the Territory. During the last fourteen months there have been 15,000 land entries made in this Territory. Those 15,000 represent at least 14,000 non-residents of this Territory who have come in to make their homes with us, and assist us in becoming a State in its Union. Those 14,000 non-residents represent over 40,000 people; and nearly 50,000 that we have added to the people of this Territory during the last fourteen months. This does not represent the total in other professions, such as merchandising, sheep raising and so forth, which will make our numbers of increase in this territory in the last fourteen months not less than 65,000 to 75,000 people. We are growing greater every day.

"Our schools are in the best of condition, our schools are being filled up, our schools are being carried on in the English language, although they say we are foreigners; but I say that there is not a person in the sound of my voice here who does not understand the English language, and who cannot respond to you, Mr. Secretary, in that language if you wish him to. We claim that we stand upon an equal footing with any American citizen in any part of this broad land of the United States, and we ask when you go back to Washington, when you may come in contact with the President of the United States, to say what you have seen, to say what the developments are, to say what progress we are making, and to say what we are entitled to.

New Mexico Not Graft Ridden.

"Much of this development, much of this progress, is due to the department over which you preside. We have greater communication and greater business and much more to do with your department than with all the others placed together. Our Government comes from you, most all of the other local and federal officials come from your department. There are things which have been charged against our people. They say that there are people here who have not always been honest, that some of them took advantage of the Government. No more of them took advantage of the Government in this Territory than have in any other State or Territory under similar circumstances.

"It is true there have been frauds committed, but they have been committed everywhere. We invite you to examine into these frauds. We invite you to look into them in an honest and fair manner, and we believe that our people will be treated in a fair manner. We say that we welcome any investigation that may come with reference to any charge of frauds in this Territory. We will show you that we stand equal in integrity and honesty with that of any people in the United States. If you find frauds committed we will aid you to set them aside. If you find crimes we will aid you in the prosecution and punishment of the criminals.

"All we ask is to be treated as men, as citizens, and as free men in the United States. We believe you will do it. You belong to the administration which has done more to bring about the progress of the United States than all the others which have preceded it. We believe that administration is fair, we have always thought so. With these remarks, Mr. Secretary, I extend to you a hearty welcome to the City of Santa Fe, and to the Territory of New Mexico."

THE LARGEST AND MOST UP-TO-DATE DRY GOODS HOUSE IN THE CITY

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Santa Fe society was out in full force and its numbers were augmented by a large number of visitors, at the public reception and ball marking the closing festivities incident to the inauguration of Governor Curry. The function was perhaps the most brilliant and largest attended ever held in this city, and it certainly proved an epoch in the social history of the Territorial Capital. The Palace Hotel, in which the auspicious affair was held, was a scene of rare splendor, which was the more pronounced by reason of the fashionable assemblage. Seldom if ever anywhere are there entertainments at which are gathered more beautiful women, more handsomely gowned than were in attendance at the public reception and ball tendered to Governor Curry. Many of the ladies were from various parts of the United States as well as from all sections of New Mexico. Decollete gowns were the rule rather than the exception, and most of the men were attired in full evening dress. National Guard officers, cadets at military academies and members of the Governor's staff were present and in uniform.

Colonel Jose D. Sena, an aide de camp of Governor Curry, acted as master of ceremonies. He introduced the guests while the reception was in progress, and presented them to Governor Curry. In the receiving line besides the new executive were Secretary and Mrs. J. W. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Reilly, of Roswell, the latter being a cousin of Governor Curry, and ex-Governor M. A. Otero. From 8:30 to 9:30 o'clock there was a constant stream of people passing up one stairway and down the other to pay their respects to the new Governor. While the reception was in progress the Reyes Brothers' Orchestra, of El Paso, Texas, and the Capital City band discoursed exquisite music. The inaugural ball began at the conclusion of the reception. A grand march had been planned as the opening number, but this was dispensed with at the request of Governor Curry. Dancing was continued until the wee sma' hours. The ball room was crowded until midnight, after which the dancers began thinning out, but several hundred were still enjoying themselves when the "Home, Sweet Home" waltz was played. Morrison's Orchestra, which was augmented for the occasion, furnished the music for the ball and the dance program was stretched to almost twice its original length by repeated encores. The music comprised several new waltzes and two-step compositions, which were heard for the first time in this city at the ball.

Elaborate refreshments were served during the evening in an anteroom to the west of the ballroom. The collation consisted of chicken salad, cheese straws, ice cream, rolls, cake and mints. The ice cream was in bricks of various colors, and the mints were read, white and blue, carrying out the national color effect. The chicken salad was delicious. Mrs. John Walker served, assisted by Mrs. T. C. McConnell and Mrs. Henry Woodruff.

Owing to the large attendance and the presence of so many strangers, it was next to impossible to secure a complete list of the guests at the ball. Following is a brief description of the gowns worn by some of the matrons and maids:

Mrs. James W. Reynolds, white chiffon trimmed in real lace; Mrs. Max Frost, white embroidered chiffon; Mrs. Arthur Seliman, black velvet, princess, trimmed with venise lace; Mrs. L. Bradford Prince, white valenciennes lace; Mrs. William B. Prince, pale green crepe de chine; Mrs. George W. Prichard, imported lace robe over satin; Mrs. Paul A. F. Walter, white embroidered batiste; Mrs. A. B. Renahan, black net trimmed in black lace; Mrs. H. O. Bursum, of Socorro, embroidered robe; Mrs. W. E. Martin, of Socorro, white silk; Mrs. John R. McFie, Rajah silk; Mrs. A. B. Fall, of Las Cruces, gray silk; Mrs. Percy F. Knight, white crepe de chine; Mrs. W. E. Gortner, of Las Vegas, black net; Mrs. T.

Washington. Mr. Hitchcock came directly to Santa Fe from Washington where he left on last Saturday and while here was the guest of Internal Revenue Collector H. P. Bardshar and Assistant Attorney General Ormsby McHarg. He met a number of federal and Territorial officials and other citizens while here and participated in the inauguration of Governor George Curry. It is to be hoped that his impressions of Santa Fe and of New Mexico people are as pleasant as the impression he made upon those with whom he came in contact while here. Although originally a journalist, Mr. Hitchcock has been an official of the Postoffice Department for many years, no other man is versed quite so well in its details and its wider operations as he. As First Assistant Postmaster General he has charge of the Division of Appointments and in this capacity deals directly and intimately with every Congressional Representative, among whom he enjoys not only great popularity but also commands the esteem and confidence despite the fact that he must often make decisions that are not in accordance with the wishes of the Congressman. Mr. Hitchcock is Acting Postmaster General during the absence of that official from Washington and undoubtedly will sooner or later be called upon

Let me mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, the Heart, or the Kidneys. Address me, Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write for my free Book now. Dr. Shoop's Restoratives sold by the Fischer Drug Company.

BOILER OF SAW MILL BLOWS UP

Frightful Accident Near Ocate, Mora County, Results in One Death and Injury to Several.

Special to the New Mexican.
Mora, N. M., Aug. 10.—News has been received here that a large saw mill operated by Adolfo Sandoval and Esiquio Carrillo, about sixteen miles from here near Ocate, was blown up Thursday evening by the explosion of the boiler. A man by the name of Maximiano Martinez was instantly killed, his body being torn to pieces. Two others were badly hurt, one losing three fingers and another suffering a broken leg. The dead man was a resident of the Tulquillo Valley and leaves a family.

DRUNKEN MAN IS KILLED AT GLOBE, ARIZONA

Globe, Ariz., Aug. 10.—William Kenney, aged 39, a hoist engineer for the Old Dominion Company, was shot and instantly killed yesterday afternoon by Charles Davis, aged 21, in a saloon owned by Davis' father, north of Globe.

Kenney was drunk and, after words with Davis, went to his home near by, returning with a Winchester. Davis grabbed a revolver and ran outside, hoping to avoid trouble. He heard Kenney threaten to kill the bartender, an old man, and returned and ordered on Kenney, who was aiming the gun at William Sheldon, when Kenney turned the gun on Davis.

AGRICULTURAL EXPERT INVESTIGATING DEADLY WEED

Silver City, N. M., Aug. 10.—Dr. Marsh, a plant specialist, in the employ of the Department of Agriculture, at Washington, has been sent to Nogales, Arizona, to investigate the cause of an epidemic raging among horses and cattle there, due, it is thought, to eating some poisonous weed. The epidemic is very bad in places, as high as 40 per cent of some herds having died. Reports of the death of goats have been received from this section, which could only be attributed to some similar cause, but the cases reported are isolated ones. The deadly "loco" is not considered dangerous to goats since they seldom touch it and its effects are to well known to be confused with some other plant.

A well decorated window makes good showing to people taking in the sights, but advertising your wares in the New Mexican makes a better showing and attracts more attention.

SCHOOL OPENS SEPTEMBER 2

Fall Semester But Three Weeks Off—All Pupils Urged to Be on Hand at First Day's Session.

Superintendent J. A. Wood, of the Santa Fe schools, today announced that the fall semester would begin September 2, at 9 o'clock in the morning. The first day will be occupied making classifications and assigning text books. As that day is Labor Day the session will hold only long enough to assign the work for the next day, at which time the regular recitations will begin. As the Territorial Board of Education has made several changes in the text books it is very necessary that all pupils be on hand the first day of school.

Regarding the opening of schools, Superintendent Wood said:

"It is very necessary that the parents see that their children are at home and ready for the opening of school. It is poor policy for them to keep their children out of school the first two or three weeks and then expect the teachers to put them in the same classes with those who entered the first day. This is virtually saying that their children are smarter than other children and that they want favors shown them.

"Of course, there are cases when children cannot enter at the opening of school, but most of those who stay out and enter late could have entered on time had an extra effort been made. What is asked and what is very necessary is that parents and pupils make an extra effort to enter at the opening of school, but in cases where this is impossible, to enter them as early as possible."

Ten Years in Bed.

"For ten years I was confined to my bed with disease of my kidneys," writes R. A. Gray, J. P. of Oakville, Ind. "It was so severe that I could not move part of the time. I consulted the very best medical skill available, but could get no relief until Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me. It has been a Godsend to me." For sale at The Ireland Pharmacy.

SEARCH FOR MISSING MAN

Young Missourian Mysteriously Disappears After Reaching Estancia Valley.

The Moriarty Messenger has the following to say regarding the mysterious disappearance of William Phillips, a young man of Columbia, Missouri, who came to the Estancia Valley the first of July:

"A young man by the name of William Phillips, who came here the latter part of June with F. M. Castle's emigrant car from Columbia, Missouri, has been missing since about July 4. After arriving at Stanley with the car he came to Moriarty and engaged lodging for a few days at Mrs. Fogarty's boarding house, but that same evening he got a chance to go with some parties to the San Pedro mines, and that has been the last seen of him. He left his trunk, working clothes and belongings at the boarding house and has never written or sent for them. He has not written to his mother in Missouri since coming to New Mexico and she is greatly worried about her son. The young man is nearly twenty-one years of age, is of a quiet and steady disposition and always mingles with good company. An inquiry at the San Pedro mines by Mr. Castle failed to locate the young man. The superintendent said no such person was or had been employed there since July 1. Young Phillips is medium sized, dark complexioned and wore a dark suit."

Occupied as executive building by Governors under the Spanish, the Pueblo, the Mexican and American regime, last occupied as a residence by the present Acting Governor James Wallace Reynolds. SOCIAL AND PERSONAL to occupy a cabinet position, although newspaper reports have him slated as successor to Private Secretary William Loeb when the latter retires, which it is reported will be on New Year. Mr. Hitchcock also recently declined an assistant secretaryship in the Treasury Department under his former chief, Secretary George B. Cortelyou. Despite his attainments and high standing, Mr. Hitchcock is very unassuming and very easily approached by subordinates who idolize him for all employees of the Post-office Department recognize that it was through his lucid recommendations and work that the recent general salary raise for almost every clerk and employee was granted by Congress. It is also recognized that Mr. Hitchcock has done inestimable service in simplifying the details of the postoffice work, doing away with unnecessary red tape and making the service more attractive to those especially fitted for its work. Mr. Hitchcock this spring, made an extensive and fruitful tour of the south and later may visit the Pacific Coast in order to acquaint himself with the needs of the offices, especially of the rapidly growing cities, and upon that occasion will probably visit Santa Fe again, as he expressed himself greatly attracted by its climate, quaint beauty and magnificent scenic surroundings.

Miss Seligman Entertains.

Miss Richie Seligman entertained a large company of friends at her home Wednesday evening complimentary to her visiting guest, Miss Beulah Duncan, of Las Vegas. It was one of the most delightful social events of the season. "Five hundred" was the diversion of the hour and the popular card game was played at eleven tables. The refreshments, which were served after the cards were laid aside, were curtailed by the absence of ice cream, which had been stolen from the freezer by mischievous boys and it was too late to order a fresh supply. The hostess was not as appreciative of the joke as were the guests. The first prizes at cards were awarded to Miss Boyle and Mr. Faris, while the consolation trophies were borne off by Miss Spitz and Mr. Fassett, and the guest's prize went to Miss Duncan. The Seligman home was prettily decorated for the occasion in pink and white, with a profusion of sweet peas. Those present besides hostess and guest of honor were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bishop, Misses Beck, of Goshen, Indiana, Gray, of Ocean Park, California; Walsh, of Portsmouth, Ohio; Rickert, of Waterloo, Illinois; Dibert, Diberta Dibert, Laughlin, Spitz, Wiley, Cross, Dougherty, Newhall, Easley, Abbott, McFie, Wood, Moore, Boyle, Patterson, Bean, Morrison, Crandall, Weiss; Messrs. Dfield, of Albuquerque; Tom Catron, Fassett, Kelly, Marsh, Weltmer, Whitman, Keefe, Boyle, Grimschaw, Farris, Patterson, McFie, Stevenson, Dendahl, Newhall, Creamer, Stanton, Frost, Pierce, Dibert, Thomas and Fairfield.

Delightful Lawn Party.

An "at home" given this afternoon by Mrs. Renehan at her residence, on Palace avenue, characteristically named "The Willows," was given a distinctive air by its partially out-of-door character, to which the beautiful home, with its extensive lawn and spacious Mission veranda adapts itself so readily. The affair was in honor of Mrs. Charles C. Catron, one of Santa Fe's recent and charming brides; Mrs. W. E. Gortner, of Las Vegas, and Miss Jeanette Beck, of Goshen, Indiana, and these assisted in receiving. The veranda was enclosed at the ends by boughs from the drooping willows and throughout its breadth and length were massed asparagus vines, palms and ferns, while touches of color were introduced by stately hollyhock and other blossoms in profusion. The serving table on the veranda was covered with smilax and hollyhock and the punch table on the lawn almost completely hidden under fronds of asparagus. Indian blankets, rich in coloring and design, were the floor covering, and the house, with its roomy and cool apartments, was thrown wide open to the guests. Dainty gowns, artistic decorations, harmonious background formed an ensemble to delight the eye of the artist. Mrs. Thomas B. Catron presided over the serving table and Mrs. R. M. Farthing poured the coffee, they being assisted by the Misses Richie Seligman, Florence Spitz, Beulah Duncan, of Las Vegas, and Julia Christensen, of Los Angeles. The punch was served by Miss Baum, of Omaha, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Seligman and Mrs. Morgan O. Llewellyn.

The following guests were entertained by Colonel and Mrs. George W. Prichard at their Palace avenue home this week and are still with them: Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Watson, of Lincoln; and Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Blackington, of Socorro.

Mrs. E. C. Whitson, Miss Eugenia Millett and O. A. Burtner were among Albuquerque folks at the Capital for the purpose of attending the inaugural ceremonies and ball. Miss Millett is a school friend of Mrs. Frost and is a very charming and bright young woman. Her parents were former residents of Kansas City, Missouri. The members of the party were guests at an informal luncheon at the Frost residence yesterday. They agreed that Santa Fe was an ideal spot in summer and found the sights, scenery and historical places here very interesting. The inauguration ball they declared a grand success. Miss Millett's father owns a horse and cattle ranch south of Laguna.

George T. Nicholson, third vice president of the Santa Fe Railway System, was in town yesterday, a member of the party with President E. P. Ripley and Secretary James R. Garfield. Mr. Nicholson called at the office of the New Mexican Printing Company, where he met the editor, they being old and warm friends. He has not been in Santa Fe for ten years and expressed himself as highly pleased with the progress that has been made. Mr. Nicholson is one of the oldest officials of the Santa Fe Railway System and has worked himself up to the important office which he occupies by merit, efficiency and ability solely. He is one of the foremost railroad passenger officials in the country and has had remarkable success. He enjoyed his visit here very much and expects to come back next summer to spend his vacation in Santa Fe and on the Upper Pecos.

Mark B. Thompson, district attorney, with office at Las Cruces, who has been here during the week participating in the festivities, has returned home. Mr. Thompson is popular in Santa Fe, having been a resident here for sometime before moving to Las Cruces. He was a guest while here of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Renahan at their home "The Willows." Mayor J. W. Stockard and wife, of Roswell, who had a very pleasant visit in this city, and who were much interested in the inauguration ceremonies, left for their home yesterday via the Santa Fe Central and the automobile line. Mr. Stockard is the manager of the automobile line between Torrance and Roswell and reports fine business.

Charming in its every appointment was the card party yesterday afternoon of which Miss Florence Spitz was the hostess and Miss Beulah Duncan, of Las Vegas, the guest of honor. "Five hundred" was the amusement, and refreshments were served afterwards. The guests were Misses Duncan, of Las Vegas; Pain, of Kansas City; Christensen, of Los Angeles; Zane, of Philadelphia; Walsh, of Portsmouth, Ohio; Rickert, of Waterloo, Illinois; Beck, of Goshen, Indiana; Gray, of Ocean Park, California; Seligman, Lamy, McFie, Laughlin, Bean, Weltmer, Crandall, Cross, Dougherty, Weiss, Moore, Harding, Davenport, Dye, Easley, Mabel Easley, Newhall, Wiley, Dibert, Diberta Dibert.

Supervisor Ross McMillan left yesterday in company with Forest Inspector T. H. Sherrard for a three weeks' inspection trip of the Pecos, Taos and Jemez National Forests. Mrs. McMillan, wife of the supervisor, Miss Lewis, of New Jersey, a niece of Inspector Sherrard, and Miss Bennett, of Phoenix, Arizona, are accompanying them. The party is traveling on horseback and is carrying its camping equipment on pack animals. During the absence of Mr. and Mrs. McMillan their children are in care of Mrs. Bridgeman, Mrs. McMillan's mother, who is spending the summer at the McMillan home, on Upper Palace avenue.

Professor and Mrs. Robert P. Noble and son, of Socorro, are domiciled at the Sanitarium. Professor Noble is the efficient executive head of the New Mexico School of Mines at Socorro. He has held the position for a year and has made an enviable record. He has been re-elected for the coming year. He will leave this evening for his home to prepare for the coming term at the school. Mrs. Noble and son will remain here until the last of August for rest and recreation, as Mrs. Noble thinks Santa Fe is just the place for that purpose.

Major W. H. H. Llewellyn, U. S. attorney for New Mexico, was very noticeable among the throng in the Capital during the past few days. Naturally, Major Llewellyn could not stay away from the inauguration of Governor Curry, as they served together in the New Mexico squadron of the "Rough Riders" and were close friends for many years before that service and have been ever since. Major Llewellyn also had important legal business to look after while here.

Mrs. C. T. Brown, the charming wife of C. T.
