SERIES OF BAD WRECKS IN EAST

On Pennsylvania,
Albany and Wash-
ash Railroads

ONE KILLED; MANY HURT

Trolley Car Hits Fire Truck
Responding to Alarm
-- Two May Die.

Pittsburg, Nov. 9.—The Atlantic Express from Chicago to Pittsburg on the Pennsylvania Railroad, became derailed today while the train was running at a fair speed through Allegheny. Many passengers were bruised but none were seriously injured.

Express Side-Swipes Freight.
West Brookfield, Mass., Nov. 9.—The Boston and Albany express from Albany, for Boston struck a freight which was backing into a siding near this city, causing a bad wreck and killing Charles Hurd, brakeman of the express. Several passengers were cut and bruised but none seriously injured.

Bad Wreck on the Wabash.
Ft. Wayne, Nov. 9.—East bound Detroit and Buffalo passenger train on the Wabash railroad collided with a freight train near the entrance to the Port Wayne yards today, wrecking both engines and a number of freight cars. Several trainmen and a score or more of passengers were severely shaken up and bruised, but nobody was seriously injured.

Trolley Car Hits Fire Truck.
Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 9.—Five firemen were seriously hurt today in a collision between a hose wagon, and a trolley car while they were responding to an alarm. John J. O'Brien, the driver, died of his injuries, and George Peartree may not survive.

ENGINEER GIVES LIFE FOR OTHERS

Stays at Throttle of Engine Heaving
Burning Train of Dynamite and Saves City From Destruction

Douglas, Ariz., Nov. 9.—The death list, as the result of the Nacoziari explosion, is now placed at fourteen or fifteen, all Mexicans, besides John Christolm, aged 13, who was riding on the train when the explosion occurred.

A train on the narrow gauge railroad to the Pilares mine, in some way caught fire. In the train were two open cars, heavily loaded with explosives, and the fact that the conductor and a good part of the town of Nacoziari was saved from ruin was due to the bravery of the Mexican engineer of the train, Jesus Garcia. Realizing that to cut out the burning cars and escape on the engine would expose the town to probable destruction, he called to the rest of the crew to jump and he started to run the train away from the town. He had taken it about half a mile when it was blown to atoms. It is reported that another member of the crew stayed with him and was killed. The heavy death list is due to the fact that the explosion occurred just as the train was passing a section house in which there were a number of section men.

GRAND JURY IS STILL IN SESSION

San Juan County District Court Will Open Two Days Later Than Usual—More Indictments.

Contrary to expectations the United States grand jury which has been in session here during the past week did not adjourn today but will continue its deliberations until Monday. Whether any more indictments will be returned before final adjournment of course is a matter of conjecture but it is believed at least one more true bill will be presented.

Judge John R. McFie and other court officials had intended leaving this morning for Aztec to be there in time to open the district court of San Juan county on Monday morning but the plans were changed last night. Accordingly Judge McFie will not leave for Aztec until Monday which means that the term of court in San Juan county will be delayed in opening.

It is reported that the action in holding the grand jury together until Monday was taken upon instructions received in a telegram from Special Assistant Attorney General Ormsby McHarg who is still in Washington.

EMPEROR WILLIAM APPROVES APPOINTMENT.

Berlin, Nov. 9.—Emperor William has signified his approval of the appointment of David J. Hill as American ambassador to Germany.

TAFT SAILS FOR VLADIVOSTOCK

Secretary Given
Great Send-Off by Filipinos

SCHOOL BOYS HONOR HIM

Detach Horses From His Carriage and Pull It to Dock Themselves.

Manila, Nov. 9.—The departure of Secretary of War Taft of the United States from this city today on the cruiser Rainbow for Vladivostock, was attended by a most remarkable demonstration on the part of the Filipinos. The horses were taken from the secretary's carriage and it was pulled by school boys from Luneta to the dock through cheering crowds. Before embarking Secretary Taft reviewed a long parade and made a brief address in which he thanked the people for their reception, praised the course of the Philippine assembly and expressed great confidence in the future of the island.

Secretary Taft expects to arrive at Vladivostock November 18 and to leave there the next day for his trip across the continent.

CONFESSES TO STABBING GIRLS

Identity of Berlin's "Jack the Ripper"
Discovered—Insane Youth Admits Committing Crimes.

Berlin, Nov. 9.—The series of crimes resembling the "Jack the Ripper," murders in London in 1888-89, only that here the victims were little girls instead of women, has been cleared up, through the confession of a printers' apprentice named Paul Minow, an epileptic, 22 years of age, who recently was confined in an asylum for the insane at Hersberg. The authorities of the institution were informed that Minow had been talking in a rambling manner of the murders. They suspected him of having committed the crimes, and encouraged him to talk, with the result that he freely related in an artless fashion how he had been taunted by his mother and sister with laziness, had gone out into the streets in a rage and had vented his feelings by stabbing four little girls, one after the other. He then rambled about the city for a while and eventually returned home. It does not appear whether the mother and sister of Minow were aware of what he had done, but his mind became so disordered that they sent him to the asylum a week later. The police have confirmed Minow's confession.

JEALOUSUITOR COMMITTS MURDER

After Pursuing Woman For Ten Years
Cabinet-Maker of Cleveland, Kills Her.

New York, Nov. 9.—After pursuing her with unwelcome attentions for the past ten years, Joseph Schmloffitz, a cabinet-maker of Cleveland, Ohio, today shot and killed Mrs. Dora Stobel, in the presence of her two children in the woman's apartments in Brooklyn. Before her marriage Mrs. Stobel is said to have accepted his attentions as a suitor. For the past ten years he has been constantly awaiting her and had been so persistent that the woman in company with her husband, had been compelled to flee from Philadelphia to Boston, and thence to Brooklyn in the hope of eluding him.

Schmloffitz submitted to arrest, saying: "It is a life for a life with me. I do not care what happens to me now."

BOOSTERS' ARRIVE HOME SAFELY

El Paso Trade Excursion Completes
Most Successful Trip—Had Fine
Time in Santa Fe.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 9.—The El Paso trade excursion arrived home today after a four days' trip through New Mexico. The excursion returned home direct from Santa Fe, where it spent several hours last evening. Every one was enthusiastic about the reception accorded the "Boosters" by the citizens of Santa Fe and resolutions were passed thanking Governor George Curry of the territory, other officials and the citizens for the cordial hospitality extended.

HEARTY WELCOME OF EL PASO BOOSTERS IN CAPITAL CITY

Banquet at Palace Hotel Largely Attended and Feeling of Good Fellowship Prevailed--Impromptu Speeches
by Prominent Men of El Paso and Santa Fe.

Informal Reception at Capitol Tendered by Governor
Curry and Territorial Officials--Visitors Shown Sights of Interest About City--Also Visit Indian School and Penitentiary.

"Boosters, Boosters, Boosters,
From El Paso.
"Statehood, Statehood, Statehood
For New Mexico."

With this slogan shouted lustily from fifty throats and amid the playing of a lively tune by their crack band, the El Paso trade emissaries bade adieu last night to Santa Fe and their magnificent special train pulled out on the homeward trip to the Pass City. The El Paso "Boosters" figuratively speaking owned the town during their halt of four and one-half hours within the gates of the Capital City. Their stay here was made one continual round of pleasure and the friendly feeling that was engendered as a result of the visit will doubtless redound to the mutual benefit of the business interests of both communities.

The El Pasoans were received with open handed hospitality at every place they stopped in their pilgrimage through New Mexico but it is doubtful if they were accorded a more enthusiastic or more spontaneous welcome than marked their short visit to the ancient capital of the Sunshine Territory. The Santa Fe merchants, territorial officials and business men generally did themselves proud in entertaining the visitors from the Texas town which, from a geographical standpoint, really belongs in New Mexico. The spirit of good fellowship was particularly in evidence at the banquet tendered by the El Pasoans to the local merchants and business men at the Palace Hotel which resolved itself into a genuine love feast. Business cares were forgotten for the nonce and all joined in a general jollification.

Major Palen as Toastmaster and His Address of Welcome.

Major Rufus J. Palen, president of the First National bank, presided as toastmaster at the banquet, in the absence of Mayor T. B. Catron and President L. Bradford Prince of the Santa Fe Board of Trade. He made a very happy address of welcome in which he said it was with a feeling akin to embarrassment that he was invited to make the welcoming address to the visitors at their own entertainment in which the local citizens were present as guests instead of hosts. He referred to the friendly relations both social and in business that have always existed between Santa Fe and El Paso, even into the dark, dim past. He recalled one occasion when an excursion of Texans who made an invasion into New Mexico were not extended such a cordial welcome, however, but on the contrary were greeted with a display of arms when the Confederate troops attempted to conquer the territory and were dissuaded as a result of the memorable battle of Golieta.

Judge Harper Responded in Brilliant Speech.

Judge A. M. Harper of El Paso, who is one of the most brilliant lawyers in the Southwest and a silver tongued orator, responded to the address of welcome in an eloquent manner. "When I say we are glad to be here I am not expressing half of what these gentlemen feel over the cordiality of their reception," he said in acting as spokesman for his fellow "Boosters." Continuing, he said that to his mind Santa Fe was not only the oldest city in the United States but it was also the greatest and most noted on the American continent, and he referred to El Paso as being the great great daughter of the first settlement of the newer civilization. He said he felt as if he were treading on sacred ground because Santa Fe was the birthplace of American liberty. "El Paso, it is true, is in Texas," he said, "but if there ever was a time when we wish it was in New Mexico, it is now."

Judge Harper then dealt at length upon the homogenous character of the people of his section and of New Mexico and the friendly kindly spirit that has prevailed from time immemorial. El Paso Will Do Her Share in Developing New Mexico.

"We stand allied with every interest with that of New Mexico, not only in our personal relations and business, but in that great Western spirit which if you please is the very essence of Americanism." He said he and his fellows from El Paso had had the pleasure only a few hours before of traveling through the finest stretch of land that the sun ever shined upon and it behooved the people of New Mexico and of El Paso as well to aid in the development of this section for the common good of both Santa Fe and El Paso. He said he heard the voice of the prophet predicting many things that would come to pass in the not far distant future which would enable New Mexico to take her place in the sisterhood of states and as one of the richest commonwealths in the United States.

Judge Harper's only grievance which he had to find with the people of New Mexico was that they had made Judge Albert B. Fall attorney general of the territory when he rightfully belonged to El Paso. He said he could forgive them for this, however, and closed his brilliant speech with another commentary of the vast resources of the territory.

Should Have Brought Their Wives Along.

Ex-Governor M. A. Otero was next called upon for a few words of greeting and he preached the gospel of a get-together spirit of the people of New Mexico with the citizens of El Paso. He touched upon the statehood question during the course of his remarks and said he hoped that when New Mexico did become a state its territory could be extended to take in El Paso. Former Governor Otero admonished the visitors for not bringing their ladies along with them on this trip and felt that they would take the hint on their next trade excursion. He said the women folks could do more "boosting" any day than the men as was evidenced by the good work done in this direction by the bevy of ladies who accompanied the excursion to this city from Estancia.

G. J. King, the general agent of the El Paso and Southwestern railroad, with headquarters at El Paso, was the next speaker and he made a very interesting short address. Mr. King was introduced by Major Palen as the Harriman of railroads in the Southwest, but denied the soft impeachment. He said he was but a cog in the big wheel representing the railroad system of which he was a component part. He compared his position to that of the appendix of the human system. He said as long as the appendix behaved itself it was allowed to remain but when it became obstreperous it was removed and its absence was not even missed. He told a couple of funny stories and wound up by saying how grateful he and his comrades felt over the enthusiastic reception which they had been accorded here.

Colonel George W. Prichard was the next speaker. He said he felt like the artist who could not improve upon a finished picture but he made a very pleasing address nevertheless and his word painting put on a few more finishing touches. He told the El Pasoans that they need not fear freezing to death as long as the enormous coal supply of New Mexico has not been exhausted. He then presented some statistics that fairly astounded his au-

PRISON YAWNS FOR WEALTHY WOMAN

Mrs. Evelyn Romadka, Wife of Mil-lonaire, Self-Confessed Thief, to Stand By Plea of Guilty.

Chicago, Nov. 9.—Mrs. Evelyn Romadka, the wealthy Milwaukee woman who informally pleaded guilty to thievery in this city, must go to the penitentiary, according to a declaration made today by State's Attorney Healy.

Counsel for Mrs. Romadka announced to the court today that when the trial comes up next week, he would permit the plea of guilty by the woman when first arraigned, to stand.

"If she pleads guilty," said State Attorney Healy, "she will undoubtedly be sentenced to a term of from one to fourteen years in the penitentiary. This office would oppose any attempt to have her sent to an asylum. Our information is that she was sane when the theft was committed and is sane now."

RELEASED ON $20,000 BAIL

Claim Self-Defense.

Durango, Nov. 9.—William R. Mason and Joseph Vanderweide, accused of the murder of Joseph Walker, the secret service agent of the government who was shot and killed by Vanderweide at the Hesperus coal mine near Durango, Sunday, were today admitted to bail in the sum of twenty thousand dollars each by Judge Pike in the district court, over the protest of District Attorney Pulliam. In support of the motion for bail affidavits were submitted from Mason and Vanderweide, affirming that Walker fired first and that the shooting was done in self defense.

NEW SCOTTISH RITE BODIES

Thirtieth and Thirty-Second Degrees to Be Instituted at Tucson, Ariz.,
November 11th.

On Monday next, November 11th, the Santa Cruz Council of the Kadosh No. 1, 30th degree, and Arizona Consistory No. 1 of Masters of the Royal Secret, 32nd degree, will be instituted at the Masonic Temple at Tucson, Arizona, by Sovereign Grand Inspector General W. Frank Pierce, 33, of San Francisco. A large concourse of Masons is expected.

A Lodge of Perfection of the 14th degree and Chapter of Rose Croix, 18th degree, are in operation and have been at work in the Arizona city the former for some years and the latter about a year. The increase in the membership of these bodies and of Scottish Rite Masons generally in Arizona has led to the institution of the bodies of the higher degrees, namely, the Council of the Kadosh and the Consistory.

ATTENDED FIRST REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Colorado Springs, Nov. 9.—W. A. Conant, who was a delegate from New York with Horace Greeley to the national convention at Jackson, Michigan, in 1852, which gave birth to the Republican party, is celebrating his 91st birthday here today. He is still hale and hearty. He has been a staunch Republican all his life.

CONDITIONS ABOUT NORMAL

Money Stringency
Gradually Relaxing.

AGAIN SHIPPING CURRENCY

Chicago Merchants and Railroad Men Ask for Clearing House Checks.

Washington, Nov. 9.—A prominent treasury official said today that he had been in communication by telephone with several New York bankers and that they reported the situation very noticeably improved. The money stringency he said, was gradually but certainly relaxing and the banks were resuming the shipments of considerable amounts of currency into the interior. The demand of the banks for additional circulation continues unabated and the amounts already taken out are said to have had a marked effect towards relieving the stringency.

Gold Imports Reach Enormous Total.
New York, Nov. 9.—The total known gold engagements were increased today to $50,630,000. The statement of the clearing house banks for the week shows that the banks hold $51,944,625 less than the legal requirements, 25 per cent of the reserve being the rule. This is a decrease in the cash reserve of $13,085,500 as compared with last week.

Chicago Merchants Issue Appeal.
Chicago, Nov. 9.—The merchants and railroad men have joined in an appeal to the Clearing House for checks as the only means of offering immediate relief in the close market. Not only Chicago merchants, but bankers outside of Chicago are asking for such checks to meet the various demands. The recent tying-up of currency is beginning to have a marked effect upon bank dealings and is resulting in restricted trade. At some of the big stores trade has fallen off to such an extent that travelling salesmen have been called in.

Local bank clearings dropped from a daily average of forty-six million dollars in checks to thirty-four million dollars.

Denver Banks Issue Checks.
Denver, Colo., Nov. 9.—Hundreds of new cashiers checks in denominations of five, ten and twenty dollars were passed out by the paying tellers of Denver banks today and were accepted without question. Merchants will accept these the same as currency. The building trades council agreed last night that the members of the unions affiliated with the council should accept these checks as wages unless they had personal reasons for refusing.

HUGE SWINDLE NIPPED IN BUD

Police Seize $10,000 Worth of Forged Clearing House Certificates in El Paso.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 9.—By the arrest of Hayes Wimberley and Otis Mayes yesterday, Chief of Detective Billy Smith has frustrated a plan to flood the town with forged clearing house certificates. Wimberley has confessed the plan to the police, by which the two expected to flat $10,000 in false certificates at one time.

The order for the printing had been given to a local printing establishment and about $9,000 worth of the bad paper had just come from the press when the detectives arrested Wimberley. In the rooms of the men were found slips where forgeries of signatures of a number of bank cashiers had been made, and they found the order given for rubber stamps of other bankers' signatures.

The false signatures were cleverly done, and have deceived even the men whose names were imitated. Mayes claims to come from Fort Worth Texas, and Wimberley, who confessed, says he is a miner from Cananea, Mexico.

NEW COUNTERFEIT TEN DOLLAR BILL DISCOVERED.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Chief Wilkie, of the secret service, reports the discovery of a new counterfeit $10 national bank note. The counterfeit is on the Wells Fargo Nevada National Bank, of San Francisco, and is a poor photographic reproduction printed on heavy bond paper, with no silk fibre. The treasury numbers have been traced over with red ink. The back of the note is better than the front, being a fair imitation of the genuine, excepting the coloring around the charter number, which is a muddy green.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF SANTA FE COUNTY.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every postoffice in the Territory, and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the Southwest.

THE EL PASO TRADE EXCURSION A SUCCESS.

The fourth annual trade excursion of the bright, energetic and plucky business men of the growing and enterprising city of El Paso has been a great success and will certainly help the Pass City and its business interests in many ways and in many material aspects. The delegates were received with enthusiasm and extreme cordiality by the citizens of every place in the Sunshine Territory which they visited and left behind them a most favorable impression. In this city where unfortunately their stay was too short they were received by the territorial officials and the business men generally in a most hearty and friendly manner, treated with the greatest courtesy and attention, and made to feel in every way that they were honored and welcome guests. What they saw here, pleased them greatly and it was so different from what they had experienced so far on their trip. They saw mingled here the modern and the ancient, the new and the old, buildings that were erected three hundred years ago and edifices of the most modern kinds and types, the handsome Capitol, the extensive Indian Training school, the well kept penitentiary, the magnificent High School building, the pretty institute for the deaf and dumb, the grand Cathedral, the inviting Loretto academy, the imposing St. Michael's College, ancient Guadalupe and still more ancient San Miguel church, the Presbyterian Allison and Mary E. James Mission schools, the public library erected by Santa Fe's noble women, composing the Woman's Board of Trade and without the help of Carnegie, the ancient palace, built 300 years ago, the St. Vincent's Sanitarium, the ward schools, St. Katherine's Indian school, and the first Protestant churches, namely, Episcopal, Presbyterian and Methodist in all this Sunshine Territory, the historic Plaza with the monument dedicated to the soldiers of New Mexico who served their country during the Civil war, the Federal building and the monument of the Pathfinder, "Kit" Carson, the modern and safe county jail, and many other places of great interest. The contrast was great and therefore very impressive. The evening was all that could be desired from a climatological standpoint in November and last, but not least the banquet served at the Palace Hotel by Mine Host Vaughn, was in all respects of the very kind that would appeal to the inner man strongly and invitingly, and was just what a lot of hale hearty hungry men after a long days' journey desired for refreshment and satisfaction. There was little speech making at the banquet which was another good thing although there were many talkers and good talkers at that, among the delegates and territorial officials and local business men who received them. If the delegates are as well pleased with the people of New Mexico and the business men whom they met on their journey, as are the latter with the former all will certainly be well and the friendships and acquaintances established, the knowledge of New Mexico's resources and advantages gained and the very pleasant and pleasing experience of the trip, the good fellowship and genial sentiments given and extended are bound to establish a strong bond of friendship and union within all concerned. Of course business is business and there can be no doubt if the business men of El Paso reach out for the business of the southern half of New Mexico in the right way, energetically, and properly they will gain much of it, which the New Mexican hopes will be for the profit and benefit of all concerned. The excursion was a success, a great success, in every way, and reflects credit upon its managers, and on the railroad officials who had it in charge.

LAST TUESDAY'S ELECTIONS.

The result of last Tuesday's elections is well summed up by the Denver Republican editorially and the opinions of the paper expressed thereon are evidently those of many of the people of this section of the country. In some directions the Republicans made great gains. In the Ohio towns where majority contests took place in which more or less national politics were injected calculations of well posted politicians were about correct. In Massachusetts, in Pennsylvania, in New Jersey, they held more than their own and regained prestige. In Kentucky they made very large and satisfactory gains. Says the Republican:

"The results of Tuesday's elections go to show that on the whole the electors used fairly good judgment. They exhibited not a little individualism, which is always to be commended. A state or a city gets what it votes for; its government seldom rises higher than its source, never to remain long away from the law of gravitation. "New York is content with Tammany. An 'unholy alliance' between Hearst's Independence league and the Republican party organization went to grief, as might have been foreseen. The Republican party in that city with the record of its chief executive and the national executive to go upon, could have gone alone and fought for principle's sake with better results. A year ago that party and its leader fought to the bitter end the aspirations of Hearst, and in the year Hearst has not changed—he was by this alliance seeking revenge on Tammany which defeated him the year before for governor.

"Congressman Burton in Cleveland went to honorable defeat. He sought to wrest that city from Mayor Johnson, a composite character—boss, reformer, millionaire, 'three-cent-fare' man, 'single-taxer' and sometimes a Democrat. It is true that Johnson has done good in his city. He has given it a progressive though quite an expensive government, but in the years he has been in power he has been 'doing things.'

"San Francisco has saved itself. A determined effort had been made to bring it back to the bonds of so-called union labor, with a follower of Schmitz and Ruet as candidate for mayor; but the good people of that remarkable city by the Golden Gate determined to stay free, the emergency mayor was maintained in office, and the district attorney who made the cleansing of that city possible was given a great big plurality. Now if the professional muckrakers would quit and give the city opportunity to manage itself there would be hope and opportunity.

In the state elections Kentucky went out of the column again. There is national significance in this. Democracy in that state had become degenerate. It was fighting an old battle with barbaric weapons. Although the Democratic party seemed to be on the surface, harmonious, there was no enthusiasm. Mr. Watterson was 'regular' but indifferent.

"A seer would be necessary to bring comfort or chagrin from Tuesday's returns to the national parties or their candidates. The Democracy may see signs and portents in Ohio and in New Jersey and the Republicans may feel from the Kentucky result and the sweeping victories in one or two Republican bulwarks, that victory is forecast for 1908, but national issues were sadly lacking all over. It was again the play of 'Hamlet' without the prince."

A PAPER MILL IN TEXAS.

The El Paso Herald and it can be truthfully said that it is the most widely circulated paper in western Texas, New Mexico and Arizona, discusses the question of the organization of a company for the purpose of erecting a paper mill and manufacturing white news paper and other classes of paper in the state of Texas. That such a proposition would pay the Herald pretty well proves. That the time and place for it have come in Texas is also shown. There certainly ought to be plenty of money for the plan and a corporation with sufficient capital stock could be organized promptly in the Lone Star State. In considering the matter, the Herald says:

"Texas papers are seriously discussing the matter of a paper mill for this state, and are unanimously of the opinion that it could be operated successfully. They declare that there is an ample timber supply and that the consumption is far greater than one mill could produce, so that there would be no lack of a market for the output, but on the contrary a greater demand than it could meet. "As there is money in papermaking in the north and east, even after shipping the product to the west, there should be more money in it for a mill in Texas with the entire product consumed in the state, and if a corporation could be organized to promote the project it would be a success from its inception. There is no question about this and capitalists should be interested if the newspapers cannot get together and form a stock company for the purpose of promoting a mill. This might be feasible and either plan would certainly be a great relief to the present situation."

Carrying the project into actuality would in some respects benefit the newspapers of New Mexico. If the paper mill were established in Fort Worth or in Dallas, and if a decent freight rate could be secured New Mexico newspapers might be able to procure the paper which they need and this need is constantly on the increase from the Texas paper mill. The exactions and impositions by the American paper trust are certainly becoming very irksome, very burdensome and very costly to the newspapers all over the country excepting to those that are big enough or fortunate enough to manufacture the paper which they require.

KIND WORDS FOR NEW MEXICO.

The Sunshine Territory is again in the public eye and the New Mexican is glad to announce that this time this is in a favorable way, and many of the newspapers of the country are now saying kind words for New Mexico and are urging the recognition of the claim of its people for sovereignty and for statehood at the coming session of the 60th Congress in strong and well written editorial opinions. The New Mexican takes pleasure in reproducing one of these editorials, this appearing recently in the Daily News, an influential and widely circulated paper published at Des Moines, the capital of the great and rich state of Iowa. The News says:

"The loyal citizens of New Mexico will knock at the doors of the Congress this winter asking to be admitted to the sisterhood of states.

"Let New Mexico in. "The first settlements in the United States were in New Mexico and Santa Fe was a thriving city before the Pilgrim Fathers landed on the bleak New England shore or John Smith treated with the Indians at Jamestown.

"With a desire to please President Roosevelt, New Mexico voted for joint statehood with Arizona a year ago but the Congress would not admit the new state. It is probably better that this was done for New Mexico is entitled to statehood by herself. Her broad acres are covered with herds of cattle and flocks of sheep, her irrigated valleys produce the best crops and fruits in the country, and her mines produce almost unlimited wealth. New Mexico has the healthiest climate in the country and will, within a few years double in population.

"Aside from logical reasons the politicians will desire to see her star added to the flag. The admission of Oklahoma will give the Democrats two more United States senators, New Mexico is Republican and her admission would give two more Republican senators retaining the present balance of power for the administration.

"Roosevelt has endorsed the admission of New Mexico and his followers will rally to the cause. "Let New Mexico in."

Governor Curry left last evening for the national capital in accordance with the desire expressed by the president that he should do so for consultation with the executive on territorial affairs and statehood matters. Governor Curry is more enthusiastic than ever to carry into effect the desire of the people of the Sunshine Territory for speedy admission into the Union and can be depended upon to do his level best with the president and members of Congress to induce them to favor the passage of a bill for an enabling act within the first two months of the coming session. Here are God-speed and success for the errand of Governor Curry and ninety-five per cent of the people of New Mexico will anxiously await the result of his work and the labor so far done in the national capital for statehood by Delegate W. H. Andrews.

It will be remembered that a few days ago Cudahy, Armour, Morris and other meat packers assured the dear people that the reduction in the price and other necessities in the line of provisions handled by them would be speedily announced. They may have made the announcement and the reductions may have taken place but out in this neck of the woods it seems that they must be coming by very, very slow freight by Christmas, 1908, provided Congress and the National administration take another turn at anti-trust legislation.

The people of New Mexico can not possibly lose anything and may gain statehood within the next six months by giving the movement in favor of statehood united, loyal, energetic and genuine support. No half way business is wanted or encouraged. Open opposition if there is any, would be much more welcome.

The promoters of the Jamestown exposition desire to have it re-opened next year. They evidently want more appropriations. The exposition was no success this year and why should it do better in 1908?

New York people are proverbially fast and this characteristic may have induced a good many of them to make a run on the banks during the past three weeks.

CURE YOUR KIDNEYS.

Do Not Endanger Life When a Santa Fe Citizen Shows You the Cure. Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, back ache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, languor, why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a certain cure is offered them? Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use, because it gives to the kidneys the help they need to perform their work.

If you have any, even one, of the symptoms of kidney diseases, cure yourself now, before diabetes, dropsy or Bright's disease sets in. Read this Santa Fe testimony:

Mrs. Bernarda Rivers de Escudero, living at 106 Griffin St., says: "As a good general tonic and in all cases of trouble arising from the kidneys and in the back, I know of no remedy more worthy of confidence than Doan's Kidney Pills. For about a year I was bothered with a weakness and a dull aching across my loins and kidneys. I tired easily from any exertion and the pains were very distressing. Using nearly two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills which I procured at the Ireland Pharmacy, the pains were relieved, my back was strengthened and my health better in every way. I am indeed grateful to Doan's Kidney Pills for the great benefit I have received from them."

EMINENT MASON
CALLED HOMEFrederick Webber
Died in Washington
November 4SECRETARY-GENERAL
SUPREME COUNCILOf Scottish Rite Southern Jurisdiction—Glowing Tribute to His Memory.

On November 4th, there died in the City of Washington, at his home, Frederick Webber, Secretary General of the Supreme Council of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Free Masonry for the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States, after several weeks of illness. The deceased had been for many years a prominent figure in the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, especially in the Southern Jurisdiction and was well known and highly respected by thousands and thousands of his Masonic brethren throughout the United States. He was gathered to his Father's at the full, ripe age of eighty years. His life was pure and simple. He was a loyal and true husband, a kind, loving and generous father, an exemplary citizen, a gallant soldier in his country's need, a true and loyal soldier of Scottish Rite Freemasonry and a most efficient and honorable official in the Rite. By disposition he was charitable and generous and never allowed his right hand to know what his left hand did, although he was constantly doing acts of true benevolence and genuine charity. He was also a true friend and was especially noted for standing by his friends in the hour of their need.

The following beautiful and touching tribute written by George D. Kimball, Knight Commander of the Court of Honor, Master of Kadosh and of the Consistory, of Colorado No. 1, at Denver, to the memory of this deceased eminent Mason and truly good man, is so much in point, so well written and so truly applicable that it will be of particular interest to thousands of Masons and readers of the New Mexican in this Territory and elsewhere:

The Tribute.
"When one who has been a leader in our Mystic Craft lays down life's working tools, it is fitting for us who remain to review the record of his life and work. It opens up and reveals somewhat the secret of his moral worth and incites us to a higher ambition, a loftier ideal; it inspires us to wage a stronger, steadier fight for truth and right."

"Our illustrious Brother was born in the city of Cork, Ireland, on June 1, 1827; was educated in the schools of his native land, and came to America in 1843, reaching Louisville, Kentucky in October of that year."

"When the Civil War began he resided in Louisville, Kentucky, and from that city he entered the United States army, serving from October, 1861, to July 11, 1865, under Generals Anderson, Sherman, Rosecrans and Buell. An appointment as assistant adjutant general was offered him, but he declined it. In 1878 he went to Washington City, and held a position in the adjutant general's office (war department), and afterwards was employed in the treasury department."

On his twenty-first birthday, i. e., June 1, 1848, he was made a Mason in Antiquity Lodge, Louisville, Kentucky, and was created a Knight Templar on February 28, 1851. He was a charter member of all the subordinate Masonic bodies to which he belonged, viz: of Compass Lodge, chartered in 1851; of King Solomon Royal Arch Chapter (reorganized), chartered in 1858; of De Molay Commandery No. 12, chartered in 1867, and of the Grand Consistory of Kentucky, chartered in 1852. He received the degrees of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite up to and including the Thirty-Second Degree on August 16, 1852. He received the Thirty-Third Degree, and was crowned an Active Member of the Supreme Council on March 28, 1859, and was, in length of service, the oldest member of the oldest Supreme Council in the world."

"In his Blue Lodge, he filled all the stations except that of Tiler."

"He was Sovereign Grand Inspector General for the state of Kentucky, his legal residence being at Louisville, in that state."

"He enjoyed the distinction of having been elected an Honorary Member of the Rose Croix Chapter of Ireland, and was also an Honorary Member of the Supreme Council of the Republic of Mexico."

"He was elected Treasurer General of the Supreme Council in 1872, and held the place until he was elected Secretary General in October, 1886, and filled that position continuously up to the day of his death, devoting his time and talents exclusively to the upbuilding of the Rite he loved so well."

"During the dark days of the Civil War, he fought bravely, gallantly, for the land of his adoption; in the records, in the archives of our country, no name shines with a brighter, purer luster for unselfish patriotism than his."

"The height, the depth, the breadth of his services and usefulness to Masonry, and through Masonry to mankind, can not be measured or computed."

"The wise and great who die leave everywhere the influences of their sweet and unselfish lives, in noble thoughts to be remembered, in brave deeds to be imitated, and though no costly marble is erected over their dust, yet they are not forgotten, but live and shall live throughout the coming years in the grateful love and veneration of men."

"Those who knew him—and few there are of the members of the Rite in the Southern Jurisdiction who did not—felt that in Brother Webber—'Fred', they lovingly called him—they had a friend, a brother, in all that these words imply—kind, gentle, sympathetic, courteous and true; a knight and gentleman sans peur, et sans reproche."

"To his stricken family who are left behind for a little while, we offer the deep and tender consolation, the love and sympathy of every Masonic heart in Colorado. He was our Brethren, loved, revered, honored. Our hearts are heavy. We mingle our tears with theirs as, with bowed heads, we humbly say, 'Thy will be done, O Father.'"

"He has not left to them wealth in gold and broad acres, but he has left to them something far better, grander, more enduring—a name unblemished, a character unspotted, an honor pure as the dew of Heaven. May God have them, one and all, in His holy keeping. 'Sleep on, Companion, sleep and take your rest."

"Until the shadows from this earth are cast;

"Until the Lord gathers in His sheaves at last,

"Until the twilight gloom is overpassed,

"Until we meet before the throne—

"Clothed in the spotless robes He gives His own;

"Until we know, even as we are known,

"Good night! Good night! Good night!"

Mr. Slater is tall, slender, rather young in years for the important position which he holds and a quick observer. He is highly educated, very intelligent and an entertaining talker. He enjoyed the trip through New Mexico and his visit to this city very much. He was very agreeably impressed with the fine public buildings here and especially complimented the Capitol and the high school. The U. S. Indian Training school and its dusky pupils attracted him very much. In company with Governor Curry he paid a short visit to the public buildings, went into the rooms of the Historical Society and also called at the residences of several acquaintances. He expects to return during the coming summer with Mrs. Slater to enjoy the cool, fine climate and the many attractions of New Mexico's Capital.

WHY DID YOU COME WEST?

To rest, recuperate, hunt, fish, breathe fresh, pure air, see mountain scenery, get a change, live a new and fascinating life under new conditions, and get food that needs no pure food law.

That's why you came west!

There is a beautiful little valley that nestles between the highest mountains of the Rockies on the upper Pecos river; ideal altitude, 7,000 feet, and temperature identical with Santa Fe. Its streams swarm with trout and the woods and ranges are filled with game large and small. The ranchers live the life of the west. There are mountain lion, bears, deer and wolves for the hunter. There are saddle ponies to be had for the asking, rooms in a big, rambling ranch house with wide verandas, tent rooms or a cabin if you want it. The days are never dull. You see a great ranch and the genuine western life. Fresh milk, butter and eggs—all you can drink and eat. Sleep in blankets at night—fish in your shirt sleeves during the day. You couldn't spend more than $9 a week if you tried. It's the place you are looking for. Accommodations for both men and women.

The New Mexican's Daily Short Story

ADAM AND EVE.

The Forbidden Fruit, the Fall and the Three Mystic Gifts.

Many are the attempts to identify the forbidden fruit. Some say it was the fig, others the grape, others, again, the pomegranate, but the most "Arabian Nights" description paints it as an ear of wheat which looked like a ruby and was as big as an ostrich egg and grew on a tree whose trunk was like gold, its branches like silver and its leaves emerald.

Our first parents were expelled about 3 o'clock of the afternoon of Friday, the 10th of May, having resided in Eden seven years, two months, two weeks and three days. Adam was banished to Ceylon and Eve to Mecca, and they remained apart for 200 years. Adam, according to some accounts spent half his time weeping, with his face to the earth. Others less charitable aver that his solitude was cheered by Lilith, who resumed her former relations with him.

When he repented and rejoined Eve, he begged that something might be given him from the happy garden of innocence which he had forfeited, and, lo, in answer to his prayer three mighty archangels were sent to him, Michael bringing gold, Gabriel frankincense and Raphael myrrh—mystic gifts in after years associated with the offering of the magi, whom early Christian tradition identified with Enoch, Melchisedek and Elias.

FLY FISHING RODS.

It is the Weight Outboard From the Hand That Tells.

Much pleasure will be found in buying rods and tackle. If inexperienced, any old angler will rather enjoy helping you out, or you can go to a first class shop, ask for a salesman who is an angler and tell him where you propose to fish. If economy is an object to you, very fair working tools can be had for a little money. It is surprising to handle some of the rods that are priced at $5 to $10. I do not consider weight in the scales of great importance, as I like a good sized, comfortable handle. It is the weight outboard from the handle that tells. One of the lightest rods I ever saw weighed eight ounces on the scales. It had a big, fat wooden handle and substantial fittings, but the rod proper was very light. My individual preference is for a rod of ten feet, but lots of men prefer something shorter. I have seen good work done with an eight foot rod, but there is a great difference in the power of rods of the same length. A tall, strong man can handle a rod of great power and with a suitable line bring out all there is in it. He may be able to do this all day long without great fatigue, while a weaker person would be heavily handicapped and tired to death—Forest and Stream.

Strange Freak of Memory.

There is a strange story of how Sir Walter Scott, producing "The Bride of Lammermoor" during illness, was afterward found to have forgotten entirely what he had thus created. According to James Ballantyne, "the book was written and published before Mr. Scott was able to rise from his bed, and he assured me when it was first put into his hands in a complete shape that he did not recollect a single incident, character or conversation it contained. The original incidents of the story, which he had known from boyhood, he still remembered, but he knew no more about the story he had written than he did before he began to write or even think about writing it." These facts were corroborated by Mr. Lockhart, Sir Walter Scott's son-in-law and biographer, so that they are placed beyond question.

An Earthquake in Persia.

Professor Vambury, the Hungarian orientalist, was in Shiraz, Persia, at the time of one of its devastating earthquakes. The shock was terrible, throwing great houses about like shuttlecocks and splitting the hills beyond the town. When the very earth seemed in process of disruption and men and women were weeping and tearing themselves in agonies of fear two mad fanatic priests stalked through the tottering city crying aloud that the foreigners sojourning in the place had brought on the calamity. And the people took up the cry "The Frangis are unclean!" and made a rush for the house in which the professor had been staying. Only the entire collapse of the property adjoining beat off their attack and enabled him to make his escape from the city.

Dress Millennium.

When the dress millennium arrives and every woman finds herself a thing of joy to look at, able to walk in comfort and with a pocket for her purse, it will be the result of an elementary training in dignity, comeliness and common sense.—Reader.

He Did Not Need It.

Buskin—I can't go on. I haven't any makeup. Manager—What are you playing tonight? Buskin—The fool in Manager—Go right on. Never mind the makeup.

Liberal.

The new pastor of a country church said to one of his deacons, "I find that Brother Linkum has very liberal religious views."
"Yes," replied the deacon, "Brother Linkum is more liberal in his views than in his contributions."

DONA ANA COUNTY FOR STATEHOOD

League Will Be Organized in Near Future at Las Cruces—That Section Never More Prosperous.

(Special Correspondence.)

Las Cruces, N. M., Nov. 9.—Statehood enthusiasm in Dona Ana county is at high pitch. A statehood league will soon be organized at Las Cruces. The city has recently been incorporated and the next thing is statehood. Las Cruces and the Mesilla valley are enjoying great prosperity on account of the large crops and the high price they are bringing. Plenty of water during the past season is the whole cause for the good crops and now that the Leasburg diversion dam will furnish the valley permanently with water, so long as there is water in the river, the valley farmers are beginning to realize the possibilities of the valley and the necessity for statehood.

So far the Mesilla valley has practically taken no notice of the money shortage. El Paso clearing house certificates pass the same as currency. Instead of the recent flurry in any way injuring the valley it will probably be a benefit because money invested in income producing lands, is safe.

This week the Mesilla valley has had some frost but not enough to do any particular harm. The fifth cutting of alfalfa will soon be ready for harvesting. Some farmers have already made their fifth cutting, averaging all the way from a half to a ton to the acre. First class alfalfa hay is now selling at $17 on board cars and has never been below $11 this year. It was thought a couple of weeks ago that the decline of copper causing the shutting down of several of the big mines in the southwest would lessen the demand for alfalfa, but the price is still advancing.

Las Cruces is experiencing a remarkable building boom. There are at present over forty residences under construction. Besides the regular winter visitors to the valley there are many investors, being induced to come here on account of the government work going on at the Leasburg dam, which is practically completed.

There have been many real estate sales made this fall. J. S. McClure, the liveryman, has just purchased the French ranch north of Las Cruces, comprising 20 acres for $7,000.

J. H. Nesbit of Shreveport, Louisiana is in the Mesilla valley looking for a ranch. He has been engaged in the wholesale grocery business at Shreveport for many years and will now make the Land of Sunshine his future home.

H. C. Strong, the undertaker, is at present building a beautiful residence west of the court house near the depot. It will be ready for occupancy about December 1.

Darry Peacock, the real estate man, for many years engaged in the meat and cattle business at Las Cruces, is building a handsome residence on Young avenue, on the west side.

FIVE INJURED IN RIO GRANDE WRECK

Freight Brakeman Has Arm Broken and Four Japs Sustain Severe Injuries.

Antonito, Colo., Nov. 9.—Brakeman John Thompson had his arm broken and four Japs were seriously hurt in a collision between a Denver and Rio Grande freight train and a work train on Cumbres mountain. One Jap had his skull crushed, another his eye put out, one internally injured, and the fourth sustained several bones broken. The men were taken to the Durango hospital.

Coroner Swanson went over to Cumbres at the first report of the wreck and a wrecker was sent out from here. Only a few feet of the track were torn up, but the engine left the rails and skidded down the hill for several hundred feet. The engine crew of the freight train jumped, and were uninjured. The freight crashed into the caboose of the work train.

"Last winter she had a severe spell and a terrible cough but I cured her with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without the aid of a doctor, and my little boy has been prevented many times from having the croup by the timely use of this syrup." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Cured of Bright's Disease.

Mr. Robert O. Burke, Elnora, N. Y., writes:

"Before I started to use Foley's Kidney Cure I had to get up from twelve to twenty times a night, and I was all bloated up with dropsy and my eyesight was so impaired I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. I had given up hope of living, when a friend recommended Foley's Kidney Cure. One 50 cent bottle worked wonders and before I had taken the third bottle the dropsy had gone, as well as all other symptoms of Bright's disease." Sold by The Ireland Pharmacy.

"WHY WOMEN SIN."

This delightful pastoral society drama, which enlists the interests of its auditors from beginning to end is a fascinating story, skillfully portrayed and embellished with bright comedy and one that cannot fail to be enjoyed. The story is that of an artist's daughter, Diana Balfour, who lives in rustic simplicity with a maiden aunt. She receives a proposal of marriage from her guardian, Bruno Severns, and not realizing what marriage really means, accepts, and the ceremony takes place at once. Diana is taken to live with her husband and a sister who treat her almost inhuman. The companionship of her child is even denied her, and she finally curses them and runs away, believing that they have killed her babe. Years after she hears of Bruno Severns' death. She meets Lord Kurston, and eventually weds him. After nine years of matrimonial bliss, Bruno Severns, who was not really dead, turns up and accuses her of being his faithless wife. She denies the accusation until it is proven conclusively. But this does not alter Lord Kurston's love for her. Severns expires in a fit of apoplexy. Her son is restored to her and all is well that ends well. The comedy is supplied by Elam Washington Panache, J. P. Martha, Ann Hopton and Pepitan. This will be the opening play of the Wolford Stock Company at the opera house Monday night, November 11. Seats now on sale at The Ireland Pharmacy.

MAKING SUCCESS
AS A FARMER

George C. Atkinson, Formerly of Santa Fe, Raises Fine Crops on Homestead Near Moriarty.

George C. Atkinson, for a number of years a resident of this city and since April last a homestead settler residing about one mile from Moriarty, in north Torrance county, spent yesterday in the city visiting friends. Mr. Atkinson tells an interesting story of his experiences as a homestead settler and farmer and brought with him a sugar beet which weighed exactly five pounds, one of the many nice beets which he raised on three-fourths of an acre of land this season without irrigation; also about a bushel of as fine onions as ever grew out of doors, some of them being from twelve to fourteen inches in circumference. These were also raised without irrigation. He had three acres in potatoes, making a crop of about one hundred bushels raised on sod that had never been broken before and which was cultivated by him for the first time. He sold these to the Hughes mercantile company at Moriarty at $1.50 per bushel. He also tried sweet potatoes and was successful. His planting yielded several hundred pounds, enough for home consumption.

Mr. Atkinson has improved his place nicely, has built a house and fenced part of his land. He intends to put in eighty acres of spring wheat and will commence this work about December 15th. He is sanguine that he will raise a fine crop next year. He is also preparing to plant ten acres in Mexican beans and has no doubt of being successful. He will put in five acres more in potatoes and five acres in corn. He will also plant a small area in sugar beets and about five acres in vegetables. This will keep him busy as he has learned that it takes cultivation, the breaking of land and close attention in order to make crops. The rainfall last year was more than sufficient and if it is anything this coming year to what it was last, a heavy yield will be the result.

Water in the vicinity of his farm is plentiful and can be had by drilling or digging wells. It is of fine quality. He has a well forty feet deep in which the water stands to a depth of twelve feet. To give an example of what the land in the vicinity of Moriarty will produce, Mr. Atkinson said that this past year Judge M. T. Moriarty cut about 175 tons of gramma hay on the pasture owned by him, which is all fenced. The hay now commands $17 per ton and Mr. Atkinson himself bought several tons of it recently for home feed. This was raised without irrigation or attention. Judge Moriarty had leased this tract upon which the hay was raised to William Hughes McCawley on shares and therefore made a very nice profit out of it. Every bit of farm produce that was raised last year about Moriarty found a ready sale at good prices. New settlers are coming in constantly. Good government land is getting scarce there.

Met at Depot by Reception Committee.

The "Boosters" special train reached this city from its trip through the Estancia valley at 4:30 o'clock yesterday evening, and as it drew up at the station the Mexican band aboard played a lively air. A large crowd was at the depot to greet the visitors and as they alighted a general hand shaking bee was inaugurated which lasted ten or fifteen minutes. The excursionists were escorted by members of the reception committee to omnibuses and carriages which were in waiting for them, and with the band leading the procession, marched up Garfield avenue to the Capitol grounds.

Half an hour or more was consumed in an informal reception at the Capitol tendered by Governor Curry and other territorial officials, which gave the visitors an opportunity of inspecting the building. Many El Pasoans who had never been in the city before expressed surprise at finding such a modern and magnificent structure as the seat of government of the territory.

Everybody improved the time spent there in becoming acquainted and conversations were then re-entered and the next stopping place was at San Miguel church, which is the oldest house of worship still in actual use in the United States. Other points of interest in the city were visited afterwards, including the museum of the New Mexico Historical Society, which is located in the eastern end of the Old Palace, which has been occupied as a governor's abode dating back to 1604 under the Spanish regime.

Before arriving in the city proper the excursion train was halted in front of the territorial penitentiary while the visitors inspected the prison and also visited the U. S. Indian industrial school nearby. The Indian boys and girls were lined up in front ditors when he said there is within the confines of this territory 1,500,000 acres of known coal bearing lands, which, at the modest price of $1.25 per ton, it is estimated would be worth $10,000,000, or more than the combined value of all of the railroads of the United States.

Band Discoursing Music During Banquet.

Dr. S. T. Turner, a prominent physician of El Paso, was called upon for an impromptu speech, but begged to be excused, owing to the lateness of the hour, as it was then nearly time for the visitors to take their departure. The remarks of the speakers struck responsive chords and all were warmly applauded.

During the intervals between the speech making and while justice was being done to the gastronomic treat, Professor Concha's Mexican band which accompanied the trade excursion and was stationed in one corner of the big dining room discoursed sweet music. Over 150 people were seated at the banquet table which was in the shape of a horse shoe and symbolic of good luck. Mein Host Vaughn had augmented his staff of waiters for the occasion and the service was all that could have been expected. Roast turkey with chestnut dressing, was the piece de resistance of the menu and the other items on the bill of fare consisted of soup, celery, olives, salted almonds, oyster patties, potato salad, sweet potatoes, assorted pies, ice cream, cake and coffee. The table was decorated with big bunches of chrysanthemums.

At 9 o'clock the toastmaster announced that the time had come now for parting and thus ended a notable gathering which will long be remembered by the participants, be they residents of El Paso or of Santa Fe. A few minutes later the visitors were being whisked to the depot in carriages and boarded their special train which landed them this morning back in El Paso.

Met at Depot by Reception Committee.

The "Boosters" special train reached this city from its trip through the Estancia valley at 4:30 o'clock yesterday evening, and as it drew up at the station the Mexican band aboard played a lively air. A large crowd was at the depot to greet the visitors and as they alighted a general hand shaking bee was inaugurated which lasted ten or fifteen minutes. The excursionists were escorted by members of the reception committee to omnibuses and carriages which were in waiting for them, and with the band leading the procession, marched up Garfield avenue to the Capitol grounds.

Half an hour or more was consumed in an informal reception at the Capitol tendered by Governor Curry and other territorial officials, which gave the visitors an opportunity of inspecting the building. Many El Pasoans who had never been in the city before expressed surprise at finding such a modern and magnificent structure as the seat of government of the territory.

Everybody improved the time spent there in becoming acquainted and conversations were then re-entered and the next stopping place was at San Miguel church, which is the oldest house of worship still in actual use in the United States. Other points of interest in the city were visited afterwards, including the museum of the New Mexico Historical Society, which is located in the eastern end of the Old Palace, which has been occupied as a governor's abode dating back to 1604 under the Spanish regime.

Before arriving in the city proper the excursion train was halted in front of the territorial penitentiary while the visitors inspected the prison and also visited the U. S. Indian industrial school nearby. The Indian boys and girls were lined up in front of the latter institution and the Indian band composed of students played.

Leading Business Men of the Pass City.

Among the El Pasoans who were on the fourth annual trade excursion given under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce of their town were many of the most prominent citizens of the Pass City who have been largely instrumental in making it the thriving municipality it is today. The gospel they preached on their 1,300 mile trip through New Mexico is worthy of emulation in this city as well as in El Paso. If their present trip results in no other benefits than the advertisement El Paso has secured they will feel amply repaid for the time and money spent not to mention the pleasures the journey afforded and the new acquaintances formed.
