VOL. 44.

SANTA FE, NEW MEXICO, MONDAY JANUARY 6, 1908.

NO. 275

THAW'S SECOND TRIAL IS BEGUN

To Rely on Insanity Plea for Acquittal

PRISONER IN GOOD SPIRITS

Court Will Not Allow Women to Attend Second Hearing of Case.

New York, Jan. 6.—Harry K. Thaw, the young millionaire, today, for the second time faces trial on a charge of wilful murder of Stanford White, the famous architect, which occurred more than a year ago in Madison Square Garden. Compared with his former trial, interest in the case is at low ebb. It is probable that many tedious days will be spent before a jury is finally through with the case. District Attorney Jerome, with his assistants, will represent the state. Martin W. Littleton replaces Delphin M. Delmas as Thaw's chief counsel.

Women Barred From Court Room.

The usual curious crowd was gathered about the criminal court's building this morning in the hope of catching a glimpse of Thaw as he crossed the bridge of sighs. A squad of fifty policemen kept the passageways clear. Women were barred from the court room, none of the feminine sex except those who were newspaper writers being admitted. Thaw was greatly elated over the fact that the day of his second trial had arrived.

Plea of Not Guilty Changed.

Thaw was called to the bar at 11:27 o'clock. His appearance showed very little change from what it did last year. As soon as Thaw appeared, Attorney Littleton announced that the former plea of not guilty, which was entered by his client, would be amended to read: "that the defendant was insane at the time the deed was committed."

Mrs. Evelyn Thaw Present.

Mrs. Evelyn Thaw, the prisoner's wife, attired in a blue school girl dress which became quite familiar at the first trial, was in the court room when the trial began. She was accompanied by Mrs. Carnegie and Josiah Thaw, brother and sister respectively of the prisoner.

Judge Dowling announced that until further notice, three sessions would be held each day from 10:15 o'clock to 1 p. m., from 2 to 6 o'clock and from 8 to 10 o'clock.

One Juror Accepted.

Just before the noon recess, Charles E. Cremmels, a ship broker, was accepted as a juror. He was not sworn, however, as it was decided not to administer the oath until after the jury box is full. All of the jurors will therefore, be subject to a pre-emptory challenge up to the last minute.

CARS RUNNING AGAIN IN MUNCIE

Presence of Soldiers and Hundreds of Special Deputies Hold Strikers in Check.

Muncie, Ind., Jan. 6.—Cars on the local street railway lines began running today on regular schedule, manned by local men and without guards. There were no disturbances of any kind. Twelve companies of infantry and one battery of the Indiana National Guard are resting in quarters and the streets are being patrolled by five hundred business and professional men who have been sworn in as deputies. The strained situation is becoming irksome to the better element and it is believed steps will be taken looking towards a settlement soon.

EMPLOYERS' LIABILITY LAW UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Washington, Jan. 6.—In an opinion rendered by Justice White of the Supreme Court of the United States today, he holds unconstitutional the congressional enactment of June 11, 1907, known as the "Employers' Liability Law," making the railroads and other common carriers responsible to employees in accidents due to the negligence of fellow servants or ineffective appliances. The decisions of the lower courts are affirmed.

WELL KNOWN ACTRESS IS ASPHYXIATED.

New York, Jan. 6.—Catherine Devine, known as "Little Egypt" a dancer, who was found dead in her apartment yesterday, died from gas asphyxiation, according to a report submitted by a physician who performed an autopsy today. Several marks on her body which led to a suspicion of foul play the autopsy disclosed were due to post mortem tissue changes.

COUNTY BOARD IN REGULAR MEETING

Refuses to Recind Action Relative to Ousting of Assessor Ortiz—Petition is Presented.

The board of county commissioners of Santa Fe county met in regular quarterly session at 10 o'clock this morning in the office of Probate Clerk George W. Armijo. Chairman I. Sparks presided and the two other members were present, Jose L. Madrid of Galisteo, and Jose I. Robal, of Nambe. Probate Clerk Armijo was at his post and Sheriff Charles C. Closson was also in attendance.

Commissioner Madrid objected to the approval of the minutes of the previous meeting owing to the resolution adopted at that time declaring that Marcelino A. Ortiz had vacated the office of county assessor and appointing in his stead David M. White. Mr. Madrid's motion was lost, however, by a vote of two to one and the minutes were ordered approved as read.

Mr. Ortiz who the board ousted as county assessor but who is still in possession of the office and refuses to abide by the decision of the board was an interested spectator at the meeting of the board today. Mr. Ortiz as has been previously stated declares the board had no legal authority to remove him and proposes to continue in the office of assessor. A petition signed by a number of taxpayers and citizens of the county protesting against the removal of Mr. Ortiz was presented and ordered placed on file.

Previous to the reading of the minutes of the special session on December 23, last, Ireneo L. Chaves was nominated as official interpreter of the board on motion of Commissioner Robal. The motion carried and Mr. Chaves entered upon the discharge of his duties at once.

Henry C. Tarr, James A. Tarr, and S. M. Douglas, composed a delegation of citizens who appeared before the board in support of petitions praying for the creation of a new precinct embracing Stanley and Otto, two new towns in southern Santa Fe county. The matter was taken under advisement.

At noon the board took a recess until 1:30 p. m. when it reconvened with all members present as before. District Attorney Robert C. Gortner was in attendance at the afternoon session, having been asked for a legal opinion relative to certain matters before the board.

JAFFA CUP FOR NATIONAL GUARD

Territorial Secretary Donates Silver Trophy to Be Competed For Annually By Militiamen.

A handsome silver loving cup has been donated by Territorial Secretary Nathan Jaffa as a trophy to be shot for annually in mid-range competition by rifle teams embracing the various companies of the New Mexico National Guard. The first competitive shoot for the prize will be held at the next camp of instruction, in which most of the time is devoted to target practice.

Adjutant General A. P. Tarkington is well pleased with the records made at target practice during the past season by the territorial militia and hopes to see even these records broken during the coming season. The New Mexico guardsmen have some crack shots among its officers and enlisted men and the competitive contests for the Jaffa cup promises to have a stimulating effect in increasing the marksmanship.

Company F, First Infantry, which is stationed in this city, is the possessor of the silver loving cup put up two years ago by ex-Governor Hagerman. It is now its permanent property, having won it twice in succession. Photographer Carlos Viera has taken a picture of the champion rifle team and the trophy which will be placed on exhibition when finished.

The Jaffa cup, which is a two-handled silver affair on an ebony base is being exhibited in the show windows of the Fischer Drug Company. It bears the inscription neatly engraved "Mid-range trophy presented to the National Guard of New Mexico by Nathan Jaffa, secretary of New Mexico, 1908, to be contested for annually by teams from the national guard."

San Francisco, Calif., Jan. 6.—Former Supervisor Thomas F. Lonegan dropped dead at his home here this morning. He was one of the members of the board of supervisors who confessed to receiving bribes from the United Railroads, Pacific States Telephone company and other large corporations.

PIONEER RAILROAD MAN DEAD AT 81.

Chicago, Jan. 6.—John E. Fanning, well known among railroad men as a pioneer railroad man, died yesterday at his home in this city, aged 81 years. He came to Chicago from Ireland in 1844.

TAFT URGES MANY REFORMS

Strongly Advocates Increased Pay for Army

SENDS REPORT TO CONGRESS

War Secretary Would Make Life of Soldier Pleasant and Attractive.

Washington, Jan. 6.—Secretary of War William H. Taft is a strong advocate of increased pay for the army and his annual report just sent to congress completely dispels any doubt as to the secretary's position. The report shows a rapid decrease in the strength of the regular army in recent years, (the loss last year being 1,428 men) and for the pressing need of officers to replace those now detailed on receiving duty as military instructors in educational institutions. Secretary Taft declares while many reasons have been advanced to explain the present difficulty a sufficient one is to be found in the inadequacy of army pay.

Recommends General Service Corps.

The secretary also recommends the creation of a general service corps to relieve the soldiers of a vast amount of unimportant work they are now called upon to perform. He believes the military service should be so attractive and desirable that it will not be difficult to get hold of the right class of men needed for the enlisted personnel and to make army service life agreeable work as it used to be by offering rewards for proficiency and greater increase in pay for length of service.

GOVERNOR BACK AT WORK AGAIN

Feeling Better, But is Still Suffering From Cold—Expects to Leave Soon For Washington

Governor Curry was at the executive office early this morning and put in a busy day attending to official business connected with the running of the territorial government and this afternoon presided over the meeting of the U. S. land commission. He is feeling a great deal better after his respite from work Saturday and yesterday during which time he remained at home although he is still suffering from the effects of the tenacious cold he contracted two weeks ago. The governor is making preparations for leaving for Washington within a few days but will not start on the trip until after his appointment as executive of the territory has been confirmed by the senate owing to the rumor that charges have been filed against him. Governor Curry is still as optimistic as ever over the statehood situation and believes if the enabling act comes up for action it will be passed by both houses of Congress by a good majority.

CONGRESS MEETS AND ADJOURNS

Short Sessions of Both Houses Held Today—Recess Out of Respect to Late Senator Mallory.

Washington, Jan. 6.—The senate was in session only four minutes today adjourning after the adoption of resolutions on the death of Secretary of Florida.

With its organization House of Representatives adjourned at noon today. Almost was present. After session the house adjourned in row out of respect for the memory of the late Senator Mallory.

SPECIAL WRITE-UP OF CAPITAL CITY

Today's issue of the Albuquerque Morning Journal contains a page write-up of Santa Fe and its merchants. VANCOUVER HEARS ALARMING REPORT

Understands Japan Has Recalled Army Reserve

RUMOR PROMPTLY DENIED

Mikado's Envoy at Washington Says It is Absurd and False.

Washington, Jan. 6.—Nika Oka, in charge of the Japanese embassy here, today authorized a formal denial of the report from Vancouver, British Columbia, that the Japanese government was recalling its army reserve men in the United States. He said such action could not be taken without the knowledge of the local embassy and that there was not the least intimation of it here. Moreover the call for the return of the reservists would necessarily take considerable time as action for the mobilization of the reserves in Japan would first have to be taken which order has not been issued.

WOULD REDUCE STANDING ARMY

Bill Introduced in Congress For That Purpose—Much Opposition To It.

Washington, Jan. 6.—A bill reducing the regular army after the first day of December, 1908, to 35,000 men, 10,000 of whom shall constitute the artillery force for coast defense, was introduced today by Representative John Sharp Williams of Mississippi. The standing army as now composed, embraces forty odd thousand officers and men.

In view of Secretary of War William Taft's recommendations made in his annual report, to Congress it is unlikely that Representative Williams' bill will be passed. Already considerable opposition has developed to it and an attempt will be made to table the measure when it is called up for consideration.

The disposition seems to be to increase the standing army of the United States instead of cutting it down.

DEATH OF MRS. EMMA DENISON

Expires on Homestead Claim Near Moriarty After Brief Illness—Remains Taken to Kansas.

Inflammation of the bowels after a brief illness caused the death of Mrs. Emma Denison, who passed away on Saturday last at her home near Moriarty. The deceased was a widow, fifty years of age. She lived on a homestead claim to which it is understood she secured title only a short time before her fatal illness.

The remains were brought to this city last night to be prepared for burial, and this evening will be shipped to Harper, Kansas, where the interment will take place. Accompanying the body is Harry Kelly, a brother of the deceased, who took up a homestead claim adjoining the one occupied by Mrs. Denison.

It is reported that Ormsby McHarg, special assistant to Attorney General Bonaparte, who had charge of investigations into alleged land frauds in New Mexico, has been assigned to similar work in Oklahoma, and will leave to take up his new work within a few days. Mr. McHarg could not be seen today to verify the rumor, but the information is believed to be reliable.

INTRODUCES BIG BATCH OF BILLS

Delegate Andrews Gets Busy Immediately Upon Reconvening of Congress.

Special to the New Mexican.

Washington, Jan. 6.—Delegate W. H. Andrews today introduced the following bills in the House of Representatives:

A bill to amend the pension act so as to include officers and soldiers who served in the Indian wars in New Mexico. A bill to amend the Indian depredation law excluding the words "in amity" in the present statute and which if passed would have the effect of making the government responsible for all losses incurred by Indians who committed these depredations were at the time hostile or in friendly relations with the government. A bill to validate certain acts of the New Mexico legislative assembly authorizing the issue of bonds by the territory for the purpose of erecting armories in Santa Fe, Albuquerque, Silver City and Roswell and for the extension of the capitol building in Santa Fe. An act amending the homestead law so as to favor western homestead settlers to a greater degree. An act appropriating the sum of $25,000, for expenses of the Sixteenth National Irrigation Congress at Albuquerque. An act to increase the compensation of the U. S. land commission of New Mexico. An act appropriating the sum of $10,000 for the construction of a reservoir in the Manzano mountains. An act to create a national battle ground at Glorieta and also bills to grant pensions to the following:

Mrs. A. J. Fountain, Nicanor Quintana, Antonio Bendon, Simon Arlas, J. N. Warner, Miguel Romero, George R. Watt, Mary J. Martin, Maria S. B. Sanchez, Gottlieb Honzaker, Francisco Salazar, and Samuel Barbeau.

MORE GOOD WORK BY DELEGATE ANDREWS

Secures Establishment of Regular Mail Service Over Eastern Railway of New Mexico.

Another instance of the good work being done by Delegate to Congress William H. Andrews is the announcement from Washington that regular mail service will be established on the Eastern Railway of New Mexico, commonly called the Belen cut-off, beginning January 13th. Waiver service, pending the establishment of the regular service, has already been authorized. The prompt action of the postoffice department in this instance was due to representations made by New Mexico's energetic and hard-working delegate. The following letter with reference to this subject is self explanatory. It reads:

"December 31, 1907.
"My Dear Mr. Andrews—Referring to the matter of proposed establishment of railroad mail service over the line of the Eastern Railway Company of New Mexico, between Texico Junction (n. o.) and Belen, New Mexico, via Melrose and Sunnyside, I have to state, that, under date of November 22, 1907, waiver service, pending establishment, of regular railroad service, was authorized over this line, and that regular service has been authorized to begin January 13, 1908.
"Sincerely yours,
"J. F. D. CLEARY,
"Second Assistant Postmaster General.
"Hon. W. H. Andrews, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C."

SUPREME COURT MEETS TOMORROW

Will Clean Up Business of Old Term Prior to Opening of New Term Wednesday.

The territorial supreme court will convene at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning in chambers at the capitol building pursuant to adjournment and will close up the docket prior to the opening of the new term beginning Wednesday. It is probable that several opinions in cases which have been under advisement will be handed down tomorrow. Tomorrow's session will be brief, no cases being set for hearing.

POOR COAL LAND WILL BE RESTORED TO ENTRY.

Washington, Jan. 6.—Land Commissioner Ballinger has called upon the geological survey to expedite reports upon various areas of land withdrawn from settlement in Western states on account of their supposed coal bearing character.

Examinations have shown in many instances that the lands withdrawn from settlement do not contain coal of marketable value and some of these lands have been restored to entry.

It is Commissioner Ballinger's intention to obtain, if possible, early reports upon all areas withdrawn as coal lands with a view to having them permanently classified and restored to entry if found to be without marketable coal.

STREAM SYSTEMS BEING SURVEYED

Territorial Engineer Has Charge of Work

INITIATIVE ON BLACK RIVER

Will Effectually Settle All Disputes Arising Over Water Rights.

Territorial Engineer Vernon L. Sullivan will have his hands full for some time to come making hydrographic surveys of several rivers in the territory for the purpose of adjudicating water rights which are in dispute in compliance with a law enacted by the legislature last year. He returned yesterday after an absence of two weeks during part of which time he was engaged in making a survey of the Black river which has its source in the Guadalupe mountains. Speaking of this work he said:

"Under the new irrigation law when water rights are in litigation all parties having any water rights on the stream system, in which said water rights are in dispute, are made parties to the suit. This is done to avoid any injustice that might be done in adjusting rights of two or more without considering all of the rights that receive their supply of water from the same stream system.

First Survey on Black River.

"In order that the court may have sufficient data to adjust all the rights equitably, the law provides that the territorial engineer shall make a complete hydrographic survey of the stream system where suits are pending and I am now engaged in making the first of such survey of Black river."

"Black river heads in the south central part of the territory in the Guadalupe mountains near the Texas line and flows northeasterly emptying into the Pecos river near Malaga, New Mexico. The survey of this stream is progressing very satisfactory. Wells and measuring stations have been installed on all the main ditches, springs and the river at different places and daily measurements have been taken for months past and will continue for some time to come.

The topographic land survey is nearly completed and will include all old ditches as well as those that are in use at present and the size and alignment of same, all ground that has ever been irrigated and the amount of same. The fields in use now will have the kind of crop raised and the number of acres in each.

Hondo River to Be Surveyed Next.

"The relative elevation of all fields, ditches, springs, rivers, etc., are indicated, thus by comparison of the time and amount of water in the ditches for irrigation and the discharge of the springs and the river at the different periods of the year, one can calculate what relation the irrigation of the land has to the flow of the springs or the river, hence, the return water from the irrigation of the land, if any, can be ascertained. All wells, measuring stations, buildings, springs, creeks, draws, etc., are also upon the maps.

The next hydrographic survey will be on the Hondo river, as these surveys are taken up in routine as they are ordered by the courts. The Hondo survey will commence very soon and will take a year or two to complete as there are very little records of water supply on this stream and the yearly fluctuations of the flow of the river has to be considered as well as the fluctuations during the different seasons."

125,000 MEN OUT OF WORK IN NEW YORK.

New York, Jan. 6.—Organized labor has taken up the problem of finding relief for 125,000 persons said to be out of work in New York City. The meeting will be held Wednesday at which plans to assist the unemployed will be discussed. It is expected that an appeal will be made to the city, state and national governments to assist with a special emergency fund and by giving work to some of the thousands out of employment.

HARTJE REFUSED APPEAL TO THE SUPREME COURT

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 6.—The Pennsylvania Supreme Court today refused to permit an appeal to be taken to that tribunal from the Superior Court in the famous Hartje divorce case. Augustus Hartje was refused a divorce by the Pittsburg court and this decision was affirmed by the superior court. The highest court in the state having refused to hear the case, it was that Hartje may take his case to United States Supreme Court.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF SANTA FE COUNTY.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every postoffice in the Territory, and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the Southwest.

"THE LAW AND ITS OFFICERS."

The special assistants to the attorney general and the special agents of various government departments who have been much in the public eye and in the newspapers of late are not as prominent at present as they were a few months ago, especially in the great Southwest and more particularly in New Mexico. This is a condition that is received by the people with great equanimity and for that matter with profit and pleasure. There are many of these officials who are fair-minded and who are endeavoring to do their duty as it ought to be done. On the other hand there is a proportion that hankers after cheap notoriety in yellow sheets and endeavors to make official reputations at the expense of the people in the sections in which its members operate and to the injury of citizens who are interested in affairs which come under the direction of these officials.

Under the caption, "The Law and Its Officers" the Denver Republican presents this matter clearly and tersely and voices the sentiment of 95 per cent at least of the people of the Rocky Mountain states and territories. The Republican avers that times appear to be badly out of joint for the special agent, the over-zealous prosecutor of violations of government laws. There have been several raps across the knuckles administered in recent months and the signs indicate a falling off in enthusiasm. The last rebuke grew out of a case wherein the court found that the special agents had been guilty of instigating some reservation Indians to act as a decoy and trap a Mexican into selling them liquor in order that criminal action might be brought.

Too often those whose business it is to enforce the laws feel that they are earning their money only when about so often they find it possible to make arrests. Unless they can keep the calendar full, the idea of many who have to do with criminal courts is that they will be accountable for neglect of duty. So each peace officer must make about so many arrests and file a regular number of suits a year or be subject to his own suspicion that he is not doing his part in keeping the community free from criminals.

It is working backward, this idea of their responsibility held by many officers. Laws are intended to guide the people, to tell them what to avoid doing. It might be quite possible to have a community in which for many years there was not a law broken or cause for arrest given. Some officers have small understanding of the part they play in communal affairs. They would have it that the enactment of a law presupposes its violation whereas the "thou shalt not" springs out of a kindly spirit and presupposes that all citizens are anxious to conform to it as soon as it is declared.

It must be granted that the man who does not want to be guided by the law will resort to any subterfuge to shield himself from detection and punishment. The law-breaker, therefore, matches his ingenuity to escape against that of the peace officer to detect. The man whose duty it is to see that all obey the law has the right to resort to almost any expedient, but clearly his obligation stops long before it gives him the right to conspire to have the law violated. Usually a violation of the law such as justice demands be punished has been sufficiently flagrant to make evidence easily procurable and if it has not progressed to that point where the community knows that it is being harmed by the transgressor, then the law is scarcely called upon to interfere.

Antelope hunting will be good sport on the plains of New Mexico in two years more unless these graceful and beautiful animals are driven out by the homestead settlers who have come and are coming into New Mexico in great numbers. It is unlawful at present to kill antelope and the statute protecting them will be in effect until March, 1910. Travelers over the Eastern Railway of New Mexico in Guadalupe, Lincoln and Torrance counties, have noticed several herds of the fleet creatures, and their numbers were estimated at several hundred.

Should Governor Johnson of Minnesota become the Democratic nominee for the presidency next year and should all of the Johnsons in the country conclude to vote for him, he would certainly prove a formidable candidate. Fortunately, however, it is not likely that all of the Johnsons will be of one mind in this regard.

LAND VALUES SHOULD BE ADJUSTED.

The Eaton land grant in the southern part of this county contains over 80,000 acres of land confirmed and patented. According to the latest and best advices the grant will be made valuable and a producer. About five thousand improved cattle are to be placed on it and fed. A commencement has been made and among other experiments oil cake is used to feed a herd of 350 white faces now on the grant. The experiment is proving satisfactory.

The example set by the owners of this property should be followed by other land grant owners in this county. Spanish and Mexican land grants with good titles are becoming valuable and right here the New Mexican desires to call the attention of the Territorial Board of Equalization which meets in this city soon to this very patent and obvious fact. There are thousands and thousands of acres of land that ten years ago could not have been sold at 50 cents an acre that are now worth all the way from $3 to $10 per acre.

Of course discretion must be used. Land grants located a distance from railroad communication are not as valuable especially for taxable purposes as are those near railroads. Conditions of soil, existence of water, of timber, of reservoir sites, and other favorable items, must also be taken into consideration. The time however has come when New Mexico land values should be more properly and more equitably and more fairly adjusted.

FRIENDLY TO THE IRRIGATION CONGRESS.

The good will of the people of New Mexico toward the coming National Irrigation Congress is expressed right uniformly by the newspapers of the territory. Their comments show that they are willing and ready to help Albuquerque provided the people there and the newspapers do what is right by other sections of the territory. The press of the territory generally is very friendly to the Duke City, and this feeling would be still greater had it not been for the uncalled for and venomous conduct of the New Mexican's Albuquerque morning yellow contemporary, which has assailed many leading citizens especially Republican officials and ex-officials in other towns and that unjustly and unfairly. The Deming Graphic, a lively weekly newspaper published at Deming, the growing county seat of Luna county, prints the following neat editorial on the irrigation congress question:

"The next National Irrigation Congress will be held in Albuquerque next summer. This is a boon to the country and should be pushed for all it is worth. Albuquerque is the largest city in New Mexico and in the very heart of the irrigated world. But as yet irrigation is in its infancy. Let the citizens of New Mexico do all they can to forward the possibilities that lie untouched."

In another column the New Mexican today publishes a resume of the mining operations during the past year in the Magdalena mining district in Socorro county. The mines there during the past two years have become great producers of zinc and copper, and the shipments have been large. The recent decline in the price of copper has curtailed production to a small extent. However, the zinc output is not only holding its own but is constantly on the increase. The Magdalena district today is one of the busiest and most prosperous of the Southwest. With systematic development it is being established that the zinc and copper ore deposits there are of very great and permanent extent. The district is not at all a new one. Its properties have been worked for many years and some of them, like Graphic, the Kelly, and others have made lots of money for their owners.

If a Republican Congress will give New Mexico statehood this year such action will help the Republican party here very much. This is understood by citizens of New Mexico regardless of party and nevertheless they are getting together on the issue and are working hand in hand for the speedy admission of the territory. The people want a state government and self government, and will settle the question of the political complexion of the new state at the polls at the proper time.

The Los Angeles Evening News says "Next year at this time it will be President-elect Taft." And there are others.

SERIOUS HINT TO SANTA FE.

The Roswell Register-Tribune takes the right view in asserting that no city ever secured anything of benefit except by special effort and by the work of its citizens and property owners, no matter how otherwise favorable were or are conditions. The people of the city must help themselves and must do everything possible for the progress well being, business and health conditions of their town. What applies to Roswell, a very wealthy and growing town of 8,000 people, applies to Santa Fe in a much stronger degree and to a greater extent. The property owners, the tax payers, the business men of this city should heed the following advice from the paper:

"From every standpoint, Roswell is wise in sending that boosting delegation to Washington to work for statehood, and to look out for the interests of the city and of the Pecos valley. Even granting the impossibility of statehood at this term, which we are not yet ready to do, the help of the delegation will be priceless, and will contribute to the opening of a certainty at the subsequent sitting. No city ever yet got anything by sitting with folded arms and asking for nothing, and Roswell is acting the part of good sense entirely in using modern methods in making its wants known. Every public spirited citizen of Roswell should contribute to the expense fund, no matter how small the amount may be, and knowing the people we feel sure that they will."

The great Richmond Pearson Hobson captain on the retired list of the U. S. navy, and a member of the House of Representatives from one of the Alabama districts, wants the government to publish a newspaper giving minutely the news of all the government doings and actions by officials and containing the reports of department officials. This publication is to be sent free to all citizens who may apply for it. The principal object the gallant captain has in view is evidently the reduction of a possible surplus in the U. S. treasury. His views in this matter also prove rather conclusively that he knows precious little about printing and publishing, just about as much as he does about hundreds of other matters about business and administration.

Well posted newspapers in various sections of the country have no doubt of Governor Curry's speedy confirmation when the U. S. Senate meets again this week. The Bisbee Review remarks upon it as follows:

"The reported charges against Governor Curry of New Mexico will hardly have any effect on the Senate and the confirmation of the New Mexico governor is expected soon after the Senate convenes next week. All will agree that George Curry is giving our sister territory a clean administration."

Looking carefully into political conditions of Ohio, New York, Indiana, Wisconsin and Illinois on the Republican side, and Nebraska on the Democratic side they do not impress the average observer that the "favorite sons" are exactly favorites just now. They all seem to have opposition in their own backyards but the situation will clear before long, and the favorite sons will know more about the situation by the first of May.

The Steeple Rock mining district in Grant county is again a producer. For many years the properties there paid very handsomely, but of late there has been something of a slump which is now disappearing. The gold and copper mines of Grant county as well as its silver deposits were great money-makers and since 1872 at various times were worked to the fullest extent. Another era of activity seems to be setting in there.

"W. H. Andrews has made a fine record as representative of New Mexico. He has done more for the Territory than any of his predecessors and is entitled to another term."—Las Cruces Citizen.

True, every word of it, despite the mouthings and libels by a few venomous yellow sheets against Delegate Andrews.

The year 1907 has a fearful record for deaths caused by accidents and disasters on railroads, in coal mines, in fires and in wrecks on the seas. Evidently while wars in the very nature of things must be the cause of many deaths, peace conditions are also fatal to many people.

Evidently Secretary of War Taft is not bidding for the support of the sugar and tobacco trusts in his campaign for the Republican nomination for the presidency. He is advocating strongly the entry into the country of Philippine sugar and tobacco free of duty.

Another Thaw trial has begun. There will be great drawbacks during the year 1908 to the public peace of mind and contentment. The Thaw trial will be one of them.

Public gambling has ceased in the Sunshine Territory and yet everything goes well. In fact, the people are remarkably well satisfied and are wondering why it did not happen before.

They are already having bloody race wars in Oklahoma. That state is something like Chicago. It must be in the public eye, even if it takes race wars.

DANGER IN DELAY.

Kidney Diseases are too Dangerous for Santa Fe People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health is gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, sore-ness, lumbago urinary troubles, dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease follow in merciless succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Cure the kidneys with the certain and safe remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills, which has cured people right here in Santa Fe.

Eusebio Escudero, living at 106
Griffin Street, Santa Fe, N. M., says:
"Some five years ago I made a statement for publication referring to my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills.
This remedy rid me of kidney trouble causing backache with which I had been annoyed off and on for two or three years. Besides this trouble other symptoms of kidney complaint existed evidenced chiefly by retention of the kidney secretions. It is a matter of fact that my condition caused me considerable worry as I feared more serious results. It was only a short time after beginning with Doan's Kidney Pills which I procured at Ireland's drug store that I felt great relief and now that about five years have passed without a sign or symptom of kidney trouble, it is a pleasure to confirm my former statement. I believe Doan's Kidney Pills are the best remedy in the world for any disorder of the kidneys."

THE MAGDALENA MINING DISTRICT

Important Develop- ment Work Dur- ing 1907

NEW MINERAL RESOURCE

Tri-Bullion Company Instals
250 Ton Concentrating Plant.

The developments in the Magdalena mining district in Socorro county during the year 1907 were of more importance than in any five years of its previous history, notwithstanding the fact that the tonnage shipped was smaller than in 1906.

The Graphic, Tri Bullion, Mine Development, Mistletoe, Capital and Germany companies confined their principal operations to development work.

The Graphic Company has pushed an extensive system of development during the year, exposing ore on the seventh, eighth and ninth levels—the latter being the lowest workings in the mine.

The levels are connected by several raises with the sixth level, which was the deepest workings before the Waldo tunnel (ninth level) was run.

The ore shoot is about 400 feet long,
which has been cross-cut several times on each level; one cross-cut on the ninth level shows 105 feet of ore, horizontally across the ore body, the dip of the strata being about 45 degrees.

The ore is principally zinc sulphide, occasionally merging into zinc-lead sulphide, which requires some mechanical separation. A portion of the zinc sulphide contains as high as 40 per cent metallic zinc; the greater portion, however, is lower in grade and will require concentration.

The company has been experimenting on several milling processes, and it is generally understood that they will soon install a concentrating plant.
There is abundant water in the mine for milling purposes.

The Tri Bullion company is confining its development to the Nit shift.
They have a large tonnage of both sulphide and carbonate ore (zinc) in the Kelly mine. They have just installed a 250-ton concentrating plant.

The Mine Development company commenced shipping oxidized lead ore in September, after connecting the Tip Top and Key mines with the tunnel that starts on the west side of the mountains, known as the "Tip Top Tunnel." The output was about 15 cars per month until the decline in the price of lead on the first of December, making it necessary to suspend shipments from the Key and Tip Top mines until the price of metal advances to a normal basis.

In the meantime, the company is pushing development for the economic operation of the several mines along the line of the Tip Top Tunnel, which work was necessarily delayed on account of ventilation until the mines were connected.

The workings are all being driven in oxidized lead ore, which contains about $1 gold per ton. The amount of gold has been increasing during the past month.

The Stonewall, a property of the Mine Development company, operated under lease by William Martin, has been shipping carbonate of lead ore similar to the ore shipped by the company from the Key and Tip Top mines but running higher in gold, the average of the last five cars shipped being eight ounces of gold per ton.

Considerable work has been done on the South Juanita during the year.

A large force of men under the management of William F. Gordon, was employed on the Mistletoe Group, the most of the year. A large body of zinc lead sulphide was developed.

Hill Brothers, owners of the Capital Group, are driving a tunnel (day and night shifts) to cut a shoot of ore developed by a shaft above.

The Germany company is working the largest force in the camp, developing the Alhambra and Germany mines, both by tunnels, which will be extended to develop and operate properties lying east and above the Alhambra and Germany mines.

Both tunnels are cross-cutting the formation, the Alhambra is now in 300 feet and will soon reach the crystalline limestone—the lead and zinc ore bearing formation.

The Germany will reach the horizon in two or three months, about 600 feet south of the Alhambra and 100 feet deeper. The two tunnels will then be connected for ventilation.

The Germany Tunnel has developed the most persistent shoot of gold ore in the district. It shows 6 feet in width for 100 feet and was still continuing when the course of the tunnel was changed to cross-cut the formation.

The discovery of gold is a new and valuable mineral resource for the Magdalena district, its commercial occurrence, as far as known, being confined to the Germany and Mine Development groups, adding great value to those properties.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best pills known. Sold by The Ireland

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine scalds, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggists recommend and sell.

The Pure Food Law.

Secretary Wilson says, "One of the objects of the law is to inform the consumer of the presence of certain harmful drugs in medicines." The law requires that the amount of chloroform, opium, morphine, and other habitforming drugs be stated on the label of each bottle. The manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy have always claimed that their remedy did not contain any of these drugs, and the truth of this claim is now fully proven, as no mention of them is made on the label. This remedy is not only one of the safest, but one of the best in use for coughs and colds. Its value has been proven beyond question during the many years it has been in general use. For sale by all druggists.

To rest, recuperate, hunt, fish, breathe fresh, pure air, see mountain scenery, get a change, live a new and fascinating life under new conditions, and get food that needs no pure food law.

That's why you came west!

There is a beautiful little valley that nestles between the highest mountains of the Rockies on the upper Pecos river; ideal altitude, 7,000 feet, and temperature identical with Santa Fe. Its streams swarm with trout and the woods and ranges are filled with game large and small. The ranchers live the life of the west. There are mountain lion, bears, deer and wolves for the hunter. There are saddle ponies to be had for the asking, rooms in a big, rambling ranch house with wide verandas, tent rooms or a cabin if you want it. The days are never dull. You see a great ranch and the genuine western life. Fresh milk, butter and eggs—all you can drink and eat. Sleep in blankets at night—fish in your shirt sleeves during the day. You couldn't spend more than $9 a week if you tried. It's the place you are looking for. Accommodations for both men

The New Mexican's Daily Short Story

SWIFT JUSTICE

(Original.)

"Will your excellency have a boat?" asked a soft voiced, soft eyed Italian of an Englishman on the bay of Naples.

The hour was sunset, the air balmy and the waters smooth. The Englishman hired the boat and was pulled out into the bay till the island of Ischia stood on the one hand and Capri on the other, while the broad Mediterranean stretched before him. He was thinking what a beautiful region and what a degraded people. Cavour had not at that time by statecraft welded the Italian states. Garibaldi had not risen like a rocket with his military achievements. The government of Naples was especially despicable. The Englishman, being too warm, took off his coat, laying it on a seat. When he had gone as far as he wished he directed the boatman to turn about and pull back. Then, when the shore was reached, he took up his coat and went his way.

An hour later he missed his purse. Certain that it had dropped from his coat pocket when he had laid it on the seat, he went to the shore. The boatman had just come in from another trip on the bay. He looked very much hurt out of his soft eyes when the Englishman told him that he had dropped his purse in the boat, saying that he had found no purse.

The Englishman did not doubt that the boatman had appropriated his purse and its contents, but had no proof of the theft and would not have proceeded against him in any event. What could be expected of a people living under such a government? He went to his hotel angry with himself at his carelessness and angry with the despotism that prevented the Neapolitans from getting an honest living. Meeting some countrymen of his own in the cafe where he dined, he told them of the circumstance of the loss of his purse, inveighing bitterly against the government.

"In a land oppressed by tyranny," he said, "it is impossible to have a prosperous people. A people who are not permitted to keep what they earn must steal. Here all they earn must go to the government. In our country our workmen are lightly taxed, and when crime is committed there is a police force to ferret out the criminal and courts to administer punishment." He spoke in English, not supposing that he was understood at any one of the neighboring tables even if overheard.

"Softly," interrupted one of his companions in an undertone. "That well dressed, gentlemanly Italian over there is listening, I'm sure."

"What makes you think so?" "I have seen the color rise to his cheeks and his nostrils dilate. He is suppressing wrath. Look out for yourself during the rest of your stay here. Don't go through the narrow streets lest you get a stiletto in your back."

"They dare not murder an Englishman. At this time they don't wish to make an enemy of a powerful nation." "Not openly. You will be missing. That is all."

The Englishman visited the buried cities near Naples and the volcano that buried them; then, the evening before his departure being fair, he took boat and visited Capri. When on returning he stepped ashore he was accosted by a gentleman whom he recognized as the one who had been suspected of listening to his conversation at dinner a few evenings before. The man spoke in English, with an Italian accent.

"You are Lord B., I believe," said the Italian.

The Englishman, who was traveling incognito, was surprised. He inclined his head in assent.

"And leader of the opposition in the British house of commons?"

Again the Englishman nodded his head.

"You lost a sum of money a few days ago?"

"I did."

"How much?"

"Eighty pounds."

"You are mistaken. There were £80 and 2 napoleons."

"I believe you are right."

"In what did you keep them?"

"In a silk purse."

"Of what color?"

"Different colors."

"The rings were—"

"Of gold."

"Where do you think you lost your purse?"

"In one of these boats while out on the bay."

"Do you suspect any one of taking it?"

"Possibly the boatman."

"Should you recognize him?"

"Certainly."

"Please step this way."

The Italian led the Englishman to one of the boats that lined the shore. It bore the name of the one in which he had lost his purse. Something lay in the bottom. It was covered with a dirty cloak. The Italian lifted the cloak, and there lay the man who had rowed Lord B. on the bay, dead. In his hand was the purse. The Italian took it from the cold fingers and handed it to the owner.

"Will you count it?"

"No," said Lord B., at last rebellious.

"Very well. I trust that when you return to your country, where you boast of your justice, you will not malign the government of Naples, where you have seen how swiftly punishment is meted out for crime. His majesty the king directs me to give you his compliments and say that, though so important a man, it would not be wise for you to again criticize his rule in his dominions."

WATER USERS GOING TO WASHINGTON

Members of Elephant Butte and El Paso Associations Decide to Send Delegation to National Capital.

(Special Correspondence of the New Mexican.)

Las Cruces, N. M., Jan. 6.—The executive committee of the Elephant Butte Water Users' Association and the El Paso Water Users' Association met at El Paso last week for the purpose of discussing the best ways and means for getting an appropriation from the Sixtieth congress of $2,000,000 for the beginning of construction of the Elephant Butte project. It was decided to send a delegation to Washington about the first of February consisting of six members, three from New Mexico and three from Texas. The Fifty-ninth congress appropriated one million dollars to be applied on the Elephant Butte project to take care of the water to be given to Mexico in accordance with the treaty entered into last spring but the engineers of the Reclamation Service do not want to begin work on the big project without at least three millions in sight. They think with this amount they can get well along with the work and then it will be an easy matter to get the balance. If at the end of that time there is not enough in the reclamation fund then it will be a small matter to ask congress for the two millions in the nature of a loan to the reclamation fund to be paid back to the U. S. treasury when the money returns to the fund.

The two water users associations have had a great fight to get what they have already accomplished and they deserve the fullest credit for their work but now comes the time when it is necessary to make one more heroic effort and get the actual cash and when this is accomplished then the great project will have become an actual certainty and the people will get the water from this, the greatest reservoir in the world just as soon as the work can be done. There is little doubt but that the appropriation will be made, but it was developed at the meeting that such an important matter cannot be neglected and no chance is to be taken for a slip.

At the meeting last week the Sixteenth National Irrigation Congress to be held at Albuquerque next fall was discussed at some length with the result that the El Paso people declared that they will do everything possible to make this congress the greatest success in the history of the irrigation congresses. They are figuring on making some elaborate exhibits befitting with the supremacy of El Paso as a big commercial center. They will go to Albuquerque with fifteen Pullmans loaded to the guards and with red light enough on board to illuminate the whole country. They do not know just yet what exhibits will be made but it is almost certain that J. A. Smith of the El Paso dairy will have an exhibit of Jersey cows, of which he has one of the finest herds in the country as well as an exhibit of dairy products. There will also be exhibits of fruit and vegetables. El Paso will also do everything possible in the way of assisting New Mexico in the entertainment of the delegates and visitors to the congress and will show these people, who will be gathered from all parts of the country, what a great country the great southwest is. RECEIVER FOR IRRIGATION CONCERN

Sacramento Valley Company Proposed to Found a City in Opposition to Alamogordo.

Alamogordo, N. M., Jan. 6.—J. W. Thompson, an attorney of Alamogordo, has been appointed by Judge Mann as receiver for the Sacramento Valley Irrigation company, which concern for some time has been carrying on preliminary work on an irrigation project 30 miles south of Alamogordo, which at different times was stated would irrigate 20,000 to 100,000 acres of land and which also included the building of a town which had long been laid out and which was to have been called Sacramento City.

For several months the irrigation company has rocked between a receivership and success, part of the officers and directors pulling one way, while the remainder pulled the other way. A short time ago a directors' meeting was held in Alamogordo at which time some stories of mismanagement and extravagance were circulated, and as a result work on the project was suspended and the company reorganized.

Later, Dr. Bullis, of Topeka, Kansas, who was president, tendered his resignation and R. G. Mullen, who is a well known Alamogordo promoter, was selected to fill the vacancy.

Secrecy has surrounded the affairs of this company for some time, it being impossible to ascertain the amount of work completed on the project and at no time have some locally connected with the project been willing to discuss the proceedings of the recent stormy meeting.

This company was organized with a capital of $1,000,000 and over $200,000 has been sunk already. The stockholders are composed of investors from Missouri, Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska, Texas and a few in New Mexico.

The present officers of the company are R. G. Mullen, president; R. R. Wade, of Orogrande, secretary and treasurer, and Oliver Lee, Charles Mitchell and W. F. Corp, directors, the latter acting as general manager and consulting engineer.

VALUABLE ACQUISITION
BY HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

The Historical Society has just added to its library a very valuable and interesting book called "Diccionario de Aztequismos," being a full account of all words which have been incorporated into the language of Mexico from any of the American native tongues. It is the result of thirty years of labor by the learned Doctor Cecilio A. Robelo, who has devoted his life to this work. The original edition consisted of 712 pages and to this there are three editions, containing 73 more; bringing the work down to 1906 when the appendix was printed at Cuernavaca. The number of Indian words thus incorporated into the language and literature of Mexico is much larger than one would imagine. Among some that are quite familiar here are Amole, Analeco, Chalchuite, Atole, Gachupin, Capulin, Copal, Coyote, Chocolate, Zacate, Metate, Macana, Tequesquite, Tamale and Quelite.

DECEMBER WAS A MILD MONTH

Summary Issued By Local U. S. Weather Bureau Contains Some Interesting Data.

KANSAS CITY EXPLOSION
FAR FROM BEING SOLVED.

Kansas City, Jan. 6.—No motive for the dynamiting of the First National Bank building in the basement, of which a terrific explosion occurred on Saturday noon of last week, had been found up to this morning and the matter may always remain a mystery. Several experts still insist that some high explosive was set off, while others are of the opinion that the explosion was from natural causes, probably an accumulation of gas. No arrests have as yet been made. None of the injured are in a serious condition.
