Eighteen More Law- yers Admitted to Bar

A WOMAN AMONG THEM

Territorial Supreme Court Considering Opinions To be Handed Down.

The Territorial Supreme court continued in session today, reconvening this morning at 10 o'clock. There were present:

Chief Justice William J. Mills, Associate Justice John R. McFie, Associate Justice Frank W. Parker, Associate Justice William H. Pope, Associate Justice Edward A. Mann and Associate Justice Ira A. Abbott. Jose D. Sena, clerk of the court, was at his post. The United States was represented by U. S. District Attorney David J. Leahy, and Attorney General James M. Hervey appeared on behalf of the territory of New Mexico. Deputy U. S. Marshal Harry F. Bogh represented U. S. Marshal C. M. Foraker.

The only case before the court at its session today was that of the Eagle Mining and Improvement company, plaintiff in error, versus Robert E. Lund, defendant in error, from the district court of Chaves county. It was argued and submitted. Counsel for the defendant was given thirty days in which to file brief.

At noon the court adjourned until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, when it is expected several opinions will be rendered. It is understood that a number of opinions in cases which have been under advisement from last year have been written and will be ready to be handed down tomorrow.

Cases Before Court Yesterday Afternoon.
Arguments were finished yesterday afternoon in the case of the territory of New Mexico, appellee, versus C. C. Lotsepch, appellee, which came up on appeal from the district court of Bernalillo county. Attorney George S. Klock, of Albuquerque, appeared as counsel for the defendant while the territory was represented by Attorney General Hervey and District Attorney Frank W. Clancy of Albuquerque. The case has been taken under advisement.

The following cases were reset for the adjourned session in August:
No. 1055, Solomon Luna, plaintiff in error, versus Corrallos Coal Railroad company, defendant in error, appeal from district court of Santa Fe county.
No. 1194, Territory of New Mexico, appellee, versus Jessie Kimmick, appellant, appeal from district court of Sierra county.
No. 1198, Jessie Kimmick, plaintiff in error, versus Territory of New Mexico, defendant in error, appeal from district court of Sierra county.
No. 1207, Territory of New Mexico, appellee, versus Victor Telles, appellant, appeal from district court of Bernalillo county.

Another Big Batch of Lawyers Given Licenses.

Licenses to practice law in the territory were granted yesterday afternoon to seventeen applicants who were forced to take the examination, making a total of thirty-five attorneys admitted to the bar at the present session of the Territorial supreme court.

Over forty applicants presented themselves for examination but of this number eighteen had practiced in other states more than the required three years and were admitted without examination upon presentation of certificates and other credentials giving the prescribed qualifications.

Of the number who were forced to take the examination three failed to pass. Those who were successful and are now full-fledged lawyers were as follows:

Renzo D. Bowers, of Roswell; Miss Nellie C. Brewer, of Albuquerque; Robert H. Crews, of Albuquerque; W. A. Havener, of Clovis; G. Volney Howard, of Raton; Charles P. Johnson, of Hillsboro; Frederick C. Knollenberg, of Silver City; Lawson D. Lowe, of Santa Fe; T. C. Lyne, of Santa Fe; J. E. Matteson, of Tucumcari; William D. McBe, of Melrose; Harry H. McElroy, of Tucumcari; A. James McDonald, of Clayton; J. Benson Newell, of Albuquerque; George E. Remley, of Cimarron; Manuel U. Vigil, of Albuquerque; Frank W. Vellacott, of Silver City.

Frank A. Burdick, of Farmington was admitted yesterday on a certificate of previous practice, and subscribed his name to the roll. Temporary licenses which had been given to the following were revoked: George W. Belknap, John W. Callaghan, George W. Evans, William R. Kelly, F. D. Lawhead, E. A. Mayo, Thomas D. Perry, D. W. Puckett. One of these had died and the others failed to appear to take the examinations.

Only Woman Lawyer in Territory
Miss Nellie C. Brewer of Albuquerque who was admitted to the bar yesterday after having passed a very creditable examination, has the distinction of being the only woman lawyer in New Mexico and the second of her sex to receive a license to practice the legal profession in the territory. A Mrs. Pettijohn who was for some time located at Las Vegas, but has since removed from the territory was the first woman lawyer in New Mexico. Miss Brewer promises to make her mark as a disciple of Blackstone, and being a pretty young woman will not lack for clients. She has been a stenographer for several years in the law office of Colonel E. W. Dobson at Albuquerque, where she pursued her studies and acquired her legal training.

CONFIRMATION OF GOVERNOR CURRY AND SECRETARY JAFFA CERTAIN

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, Jan. 10.—The Senate Committee on Territories today passed favorably upon the nomination of George Curry to be governor of New Mexico; Nathan Jaffa to be secretary of New Mexico, and John Page, to be secretary of Arizona.

GENERAL SATISFACTION HERE OVER ACTION OF SENATE COMMITTEE

A feeling of general satisfaction akin to genuine rejoicing marks the receipt of the information brought over the wires from Washington today to the effect that the Senate Committee had reported favorably upon the nominations of Governor Curry and Secretary Jaffa.

The fact that the Senate committee has acted favorably on the nominations of the governor and secretary of New Mexico leaves no doubt as to their confirmation.

If charges had been filed against the governor, as was rumored when Congress adjourned for the holiday recess, this action of the Senate committee proves them to have been groundless.

Governor Curry and Secretary Jaffa are both very popular not only in the Capital, but throughout the entire length and breadth of New Mexico.

AMADOR TO HANG ON MONDAY NEXT

Murderer of Sweetheart Will Not Cheat Gallows—Has Only Three
More Days to Live.

Martin Amador who was found guilty of murder in the first degree for the killing of his sweetheart at a mining camp near Deming, will be hanged in the jail yard at that place next Monday. Governor Curry declined to extend further executive clemency to the condemned man, who according to the evidence adduced at the trial, shot the woman from ambush, because he was jealous of the attentions being paid her by a rival suitor, whom she evidently liked better than Amador.

Amador was to have been hanged on December 13 last, but was given a month's reprieve by Governor Curry. Magdalena Saballos who was also to have been hanged at the same time and was also given a reprieve for a similar length of time, has been saved from the gallows as stated in yesterday's New Mexican, the death sentence in this case being commuted to life imprisonment.

There were certain extenuating circumstances in Saballos' case which prompted the governor to temper mercy with justice.

PRUSSIANS DEMAND MANHOOD SUFFRAGE

Serious Disturbances Follow Refusal
of German Government to Grant Request.

Berlin, Jan. 10.—A demand in the Prussian Landtag today for manhood suffrage in Prussia, brought out a statement from Prince Von Buelow imperial chancellor that while the matter required some reform the German government did not consider manhood suffrage good for the state and that secret voting would not be permitted.

He said the reformers would have to take into consideration the position of the middle classes and that the qualifications of age, property and education must have some weight.

Von Buelow's statement was distinctly unpopular with the people who had gathered in large numbers outside the building. Rioting began and the demonstrations spread throughout the entire city. To control the people the police had to charge with drawn sabers. A number of rioters were injured and some of the policemen sustained serious wounds.

The crowd made its way in the direction of the imperial palace, but the police barred the way. The crowd was composed mostly of unemployed persons and it was estimated contained no less than 50,000. The entire police force of the city was called out.

WOULD REPEAL NEW MEXICO LAW

Statute Refers to Suits Against Railroads

STIGMATIZED AS MONSTROSITY

Representative Birdsall of Iowa Introduces Resolu- tion in Congress

Washington, Jan. 10.—The repeal of what is denominated by some jurists as the "most peculiar law in the United States" is the idea of a joint resolution introduced today by Representative Birdsall, of Iowa, in the House of Representatives.

The law in question is a New Mexico statute which has been in force five years and under which all damage suits against railroads in New Mexico for personal injuries must be brought in the courts of that territory and affidavits in support thereof must be made personally within the territory and before the expiration of ninety days from the date of the accident.

If the injured person fails to do this the railroad concerned may itself enter suit against the injured person and obtain judgement of non-liability.

Representative Birdsall stigmatized the law as the "strangest monstrosity on the American statute books."

HEART FAILURE CAUSES DEATH

Mrs. MacQuarie Ex- pires at Ripe Old Age

WAS NATIVE OF SCOTLAND

Came to Santa Fe Eight Years Ago From Canada—Wom- an of Noble Character.

Following an attack of la grippe from which she had apparently recovered but which left her heart weak, Mrs. Flora MacLeain MacQuarie died at 2:15 o'clock this morning at her home, 107 Palace avenue. Heart failure is ascribed as the direct cause of her death, although it was superinduced by her recent illness, and the general infirmities of advanced age. She was 83 years old.

Mrs. MacQuarie was perfectly conscious up to within ten minutes of the time of the dissolution and the transition from life to death was scarcely perceptible to those at her bedside. She dropped into a peaceful slumber just before the last vital spark fled and the end was absolutely painless. Her condition had been critical only for several days past when she was kept alive by heart stimulants.

The funeral services will take place on Monday from the family residence, followed by temporary interment in Fairview cemetery. Later the remains will be disinterred and forwarded to Guelph, Canada, where they will be re-buried alongside the grave of her husband, who preceded her in death. Rev. J. W. Purcell, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will conduct the obsequies here, the dead woman having been a member of the Presbyterian denomination over fifty years.

Emigrated From Scotland to England.
Mrs. MacQuarie was the widow of the late Hugh MacQuarie, of Guelph, Canada. She was born in 1825 on the Isle of Mull, Scotland. In 1863 she left her native country and emigrated to Canada, locating at the town of Guelph, at which place her husband's death occurred. She remained there until eight years ago, when she and other members of the family removed to Santa Fe, where she had resided ever since and which is still the home of three of her daughters.

The sturdy virtues so prominent in the life of Mrs. MacQuarie were the inheritance of a fine old Highland family from which she sprang, being the daughter of the late Hector Lochbair MacLeain Laird, of Gomeria, Scotland. A woman of beautiful character, strong personality, vigorous mentality and natural refinement, together with a sweet and gentle nature, she had endeared herself with all who knew her and was held in the warmest affection by her friends in this city. Notwithstanding her advanced age she was quite active until stricken with la grippe which was the beginning of the end. She was a great lover of good books and her fondness for a literary atmosphere manifested itself up to within a few days of her death.

Members of Family Surviving.
Four daughters and one son survive her, three of whom are residents of Santa Fe. They are: Mrs. S. B. Grimshaw, wife of the general manager of the Santa Fe Central Railway; Mrs. Flora Moore and Miss Marian MacQuarie, all of this city; Mrs. J. T. Brown, of Vancouver, British Columbia and Alexander MacQuarie, also of Vancouver.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF SANTA FE COUNTY.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every postoffice in the Territory, and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the Southwest.

ROOSEVELT THE REAL PRESIDENT.

The real president of the United States according to the Washington Post is Theodore Roosevelt and thoughtful and well posted citizens must admit that there is very much in the assertion. History in centuries to come will so declare and the administrative acts of the president are strong proof that the Post is correct in the premises and in the deductions which it uses editorially under the heading, "The Real President." The Post is published at the national capital and it is probably as well posted a newspaper on governmental affairs and the acts of the executive as well as of the executive departments and the proceedings of Congress as there is anywhere in the country.

The Post thinks that when the old year of 1907 passed into history it bequeathed not a few perplexing questions to its successor; it left behind it more than one vexatious problem which it had not solved, and there were many grave doubts of things social, political, economic, which it did not settle. But one question there was which the events of the year settled so completely that no room for doubt was left in any man's mind. That question was, Who is the real President of the United States?

Nobody needs more than one guess at the answer. But it is not the Senate; it is not the Republican national chairman; it is not even genial but autocratic "Uncle Joe," the boss of the House. It is neither Wall Street nor a kitchen cabinet, nor a tennis cabinet, nor any other kind of a cabinet. The very real president of the United States is Theodore Roosevelt.

In every matter of national concern that came about during the year, from the Brownsville incident, through the California-Japanese difficulty, and down to the last stir-up in the navy, Theodore Roosevelt showed that he knew very well who was President, and what were the powers residing in that office, and how to make every one of them count for something. Perhaps not in our history, and certainly not since Abraham Lincoln, have we had a President who, in himself, stood so nearly for the government. There are those, indeed, who assert that Mr. Roosevelt's whole attitude has appeared more forcefully than mere words possibly could, "I am the government."

This may be an overstatement of the President's view of his position in our national system, but those who make it fear a growing tendency toward a one-man power in our state, and blame Mr. Roosevelt for it. They claim that he has constantly striven to merge the legislative and judicial functions of our system into the executive functions and centralize the whole in the President. Whether this claim be a true one or not, it is certain that 1907 saw President Roosevelt asserting more and more the power of the executive and advancing further and further into what had always been popularly considered the functions of the national legislature. He was not alone the man on duty at the White House; he was equally the man in power at the Capitol.

But whatever mistakes the President has made, however radical his conclusions, there is one thing the historians of the future must say of him. He has done things. He has knifed precedents, bludgeoned popular idols, ridden rough-shod over the age-ridden obstacles that lay in his path. He has not swerved because his victim cried out their hurt. He has been and is now the President of these United States.

Delegate Mark Smith has introduced a bill for the admission of Arizona into the sisterhood of states. For the good of both territories, New Mexico and Arizona, it is hoped that this will not complicate matters for this territory. Neither New Mexico nor Arizona would be the gainer by it. Arizona exercised a good deal of influence in 1906 in defeating the joint statehood bill. The proposition now is entirely different. If New Mexico were to state the sister territory would be sure of two more votes in the senate and two more votes in the House of Representatives for statehood for it. To aid in defeating the ambitions and desires of the Sunshine Territory would be very silly, very prejudicial to Arizona's chances hereafter and in many other ways simply a great injury to New Mexico.

It is becoming more apparent daily that the people of New Mexico are in the statehood fight to stay.

SABALLOZ AND AMADOR CASES.

In commuting the sentence of Magdalen Sabaloz who was convicted of the murder of a child at Deming during the last term of the district court of Luna county and sentenced to be hanged, Governor Curry acted well and wisely. The circumstances of the case are peculiar and the governor gave the benefit of the doubt to the convicted man, which action on his part was fully justified, considering all matters connected with it. Sabaloz, who is an ignorant Mexican railroad laborer had a grievance against another Mexican railroad laborer, the latter having made alleged improper advances to a woman with whom the former lived. The evidence disclosed that on the eve of the killing of the child another Mexican railroad laborer came toward the house of Sabaloz carrying a child in his arms. Sabaloz thought he was the man against whom he had the grudge and, mistaking him thusly fired a Winchester rifle at him, the bullet hitting the child, killing it instantly. The case of Martin Amador, tried and convicted at the same term of court for the murder of a woman, is also peculiar as from the testimony it appeared that Amador wanted to kill a man whom he suspected of illicit relations with a woman with whom he lived. The evidence showed that this woman left Amador's house one evening and the latter followed her. She went to the house of the other man in the case and upon coming out of the house again Amador mistaking her for the man whom he was looking for, fired at her and killed her. In this case the evidence disclosed a strong motive and malice pretense to murder. The sentence imposed upon Amador will be executed. Considering the evidence and circumstances in the case the governor acted for the best interests of the commonwealth and the cause of stern justice.

NIGHT RAIDING IN KENTUCKY MUST STOP.

Governor Willson of Kentucky has placed himself on record as being determined to put a stop to the night raiding, the tobacco warehouse burning, the destruction of property and the endangering of lives of citizens, and proposes to clear the name of Kentucky from the fearful reputation of still being "the dark and bloody ground" which seems to have been very properly applied since the days of Daniel Boone. Governor Willson has a splendid chance to show that he is a man of metal, of nerve and that he will uphold the supremacy of the law and maintain protection to life and property in his state as did Governor Hanley a few days ago at Muncie in the adjoining state of Indiana. In discussing the situation the Kansas City Star says that the statement of Governor Willson of Kentucky on mob disturbances is that state has a ring that suggests the end of organized violence in a commonwealth that has maintained its disparaging characterization of "the dark and bloody ground." The election of this man meant something in Kentucky, and his voice is the voice of a person who recognizes his responsibilities. He is something more than the official head of the state; he represents a protest against armed politics, deadly feuds, mob intimidation. Kentucky has long needed a propagandist against the imperialism of the gun and the knife, and Governor Willson looks like the right sort of crusader.

The Albuquerque Citizen in its issue of Wednesday last reproduces a descriptive article on New Mexico four columns in length which appeared in the New Year's edition of the Denver Republican. In commenting on the article the Citizen very truthfully and very pertinently says:

"Paul A. F. Walter, of Santa Fe, one of the well known newspaper men of New Mexico, contributed a clever and well written article to the New Year's edition of the Denver Republican, on New Mexico.

"The article, which is one of the best in its line ever sent out from this territory, is advertising along the right line and will be of interest to every one desiring information about New Mexico."

The Taft supporters assert that their candidate is gaining steadily and daily in strength and that he will be nominated upon the first or second ballot at the Chicago convention. At the same time Secretary Taft's opponents are becoming more aggressive and yet it looks as if the big brainy man from the Buckeye state would win.

CARPET WEAVING TENT.

The territorial people perform a valuable service in the industry and in the occupation to introduce into the territory and road making. I would probably lead the men of the industry and then it could be the penitentiary, and taken up. Carpet weaving is a favorite industry and it is worthy of a recent writer has said commonwealth that other commonwealths can expect permanent growth." Judge by that standard, New Mexico imports too much and in consequence grows too little along industrial lines and no means that promise to change this untoward condition, should be neglected or deemed too visionary at least a trial.

CARLSBAD WILL.

The citizens of Carlsbad and of Eddy county support of the state and will do what they can for the success of the National Congress to be held this fall in Albuquerque. This is a very commendable spirit and should be followed by every other county and county seat in the territory. Referring to the public spirited and patriotic sentiments in that section the Roswell Register-Tribune, a weekly newspaper of large circulation and influence, reviews the situation editorially in the right line holding that Carlsbad, like a few other cities, may indulge in occasional scraps among its own people, just to keep things moving, but it is never behind when it comes to backing the territory at large. Its reception and promise to the boosters for the Irrigation Congress is proof of this, and it can well be afforded. In many respects Eddy county is an especially favored section of the territory, and it can well afford to dig up its share in money and can not afford to do without a proper exhibit at the great gathering at Albuquerque. It may be briefly remarked that Carlsbad will dig up and make the exhibit both.

MORE LAWYERS IN NEW MEXICO.

Another strong indication of the steady advancement in every material and business way and of the constant increase of population in the Sunshine Territory, thirty-five applicants to practice law in the territory were admitted yesterday by the Territorial supreme court. During the year 1907, over eighty attorneys were given licenses to practice their profession here. It is a well established fact that lawyers do not go to a country where there is no business for them but they do congregate and become citizens wherever there is business for them and plenty of money in sight. The fact that thirty-five attorneys have just been added to the number already here is a strong proof that people generally have attained the opinion that the Sunshine Territory is a very good place to come to and that the soon to become a state has a glorious future. In addition it is gratifying to note that among the number appear a female lawyer and this demonstrates that members of the fair sex here whenever they try attain what they desire.

The county of Torrance has sold bonds in the sum of $10,000, the proceeds of which will be used for the erection of a decent court house, at Estancia the county seat. The bonds were sold at par which shows well for New Mexico's credit in general and for that of Torrance county in particular. The site was donated by the New Mexico Fuel and Iron company and seems to suit the majority of the people. The building of this courthouse will prove of benefit to the county, as it will settle the location of the county seat. There has been considerable contention over the matter and this has been detrimental to the progress of the county.

The people of New Mexico are certainly getting together on the movement to secure statehood for the Sunshine Territory. A great many more letters from patriotic and influential citizens than were expected have been received by the officials of the statehood league offering to go to the national capital as delegates to work for the passage of the Andrews enabling act by the 60th Congress. The people are getting together in great shape and the knockers and back-biters are being compelled to take a back seat. This is as it should be.

Individual deposits in the national and private banks of New Mexico were scarcely diminished during the recent financial flurry. Rather good evidence that the depositors in the Sunshine Territory have faith and confidence in their financial institutions.

There was a decrease of over $5,000,000 in internal revenue receipts in November, 1907, as compared with November 1906. The prohibition movement is gaining ground not only in the states but also in internal revenue receipts.

SO DECEPTIVE.

Many Santa Fe People Fail to Realize the Seriousness

Backache is so deceptive.
It comes and goes—keeps you guessing.

Learn the cause—then cure it.
Nine times out of ten it comes from the kidneys.

That's why Doan's Kidney Pills
cure it.

Cure every kidney ill from backache
to diabetes.

Here's a Santa Fe case to prove it.
Pasquale Yanni, living on College street, Santa Fe, New Mexico, says:
"Some four years ago I gave a testimonial touching on the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills. I then stated that this remedy, which I procured at Ireland's Pharmacy, had positively relieved me of pain in the back which had troubled me to quite an extent for some time. If the primary cause of this annoyance was not from the nature of my work it was surely aggravated by sitting at the bench and being in a stooped position for at such times my back was especially painful.
The claims made for Doan's Kidney Pills were positively carried out in my case for not only did they give strength and tone to the kidneys, thus freeing me from the backache, but effected a cure that has been absolute and permanent up to date.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo,

States.

From a small beginning the sale and use of this preparation has extended to all parts of the United States and

MINES AND MINING

The Engineering and Mining Journal,
the most important publication on this subject, this week published two authoritative reviews of mining activities in New Mexico during 1907, one being on the coal mining industry by Hon. Jo E. Sheridan of Silver City, U.
S. Mine Inspector for New Mexico, and the best posted man on this industry in the Southwest today, and the other on mining in general by Professor Charles R. Keyes of Socorro, formerly president of the School of Mines at Socorro. The New Mexican reproduces
Mr. Sheridan's treatise today and Professor Keyes' article will follow tomorrow.

During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, the coal mining industry of New Mexico made greater progress than in any preceding year, both as to percentage of increase of production,
and by the installation of machinery and equipment of the latest and most improved type, of as great efficiency as is found in use upon any of the great coal producing properties of the eastern states or of Europe.

With the present equipment the coal mines of New Mexico can easily double the output of the past year, if a full quota of miners, and ample transportation facilities can be secured.
The shortage of these two factors of production has restricted the output of the mines fully 50 per cent, during the past fiscal year, as the demand far exceeded the production of the mines, while the competition of purchasers demanding the product caused a rise of prices which guaranteed a very big profit to the operators, and induced them to use every means to supply the demand, but without avail, hampered as they were by a dearth of miners and lack of transportation facilities, causing the shutting down of some of the principal mines from one to two days per week, which restricted the output fully fifteen per cent and probably more. In view of this shortage of cars in which to ship
the product it is doubtful that the production could have been increased even if a full force of miners had been available.

The gross production of the coal mines of New Mexico for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1907, was 2,302, 062 tons of 2,000 pounds; amount used in operating the mines, 80,678 tons; leaving the net product shipped from the mines, 2,221,384 tons, an increase of net production of 494,646 tons; or a percentage of increase of net production, 28.64; as against 17.29
percentage of increase for the preceding year. The estimated production of coke was 203,437 tons, valued at $3.50 per ton at the ovens.

It is safe to assume that the percentage of increase of coal production, shown above, has been maintained to the end of the calendar year 1907, as all of the coal mines have been flooded with orders for coal, and thus far have been unable to supply the demand. The domestic market of California would absorb fully double the production of the Gallup coal field, but there is always an unfilled demand from that quarter for New Mexico
coals, especially the coal of the Gallup field, which maintains a preference for domestic uses both at home and in distant markets.

Unfavorable Outlook.

The outlook for demand for coke is not so favorable during the ensuing year, as the shutting down of many large copper furnaces in the Southwest has lessened the need of coke among those principal consumers. These copper mining companies had very large stocks of coke on hand when the decrease in demand for copper came and caused shutting down of some of their furnaces. These stocks of coke are now being utilized, to some extent curtailing the demand for new product. But it is doubtful if the decreased demand will be materially felt by the coke producers of New Mexico
as the entire production of New Mexico has not been a tithe of the demand upon them for coke; a great deal of the coke for the southwestern markets having been shipped from Colorado, West Virginia, Pennsylvania and even from Germany and Australia, via San Francisco.

It is probable that the present stag-nation in the copper mining industry may rebound to the benefit of the New Mexico coal mines. Many of the men thus thrown out of employment are seeking work in the coal mines of the Territory, and the coal mines are nearly having a full complement of miners than at any time in the past four years.

During the past fiscal year there were 2,966 men and 93 boys employed in the coal mines, an increase of 676 men and 29 boys over the number employed during the preceding fiscal year.

The year was an exceedingly unfortunate one on account of fatalities in the mines, 31 men being killed, a percentage of 1.04 of the men employed, as against a percentage of 0.382 in the preceding year. Heretofore New Mexico has compared favorably with the large coal mining districts of the world as to the lives lost in the mines;
but during the past fiscal year two extraordinary accidents increased the ratio of fatalities beyond the usual degree, one, an explosion at the Dutchman mine, whereby 10 men were killed, and the other a mine fire in which three men lost their lives.

Coal mining in New Mexico is starting the new year most auspiciously. A larger force of miners, and equipment
of the most modern type and of sufficient capacity for greatly increased production would warrant the expectation of the most prosperous year

thus far for the coal mining industry
in New Mexico.

WORSE THAN ONIONS.

Bad Breath From Indigestion Cannot Be Overcome With Perfumes.

All of us suffer from bad breath—sometimes our own, but oftener of our friends.

Nine-tenths of this bad breath comes from some stomach trouble, and cannot be overcome by breath perfumes or any other palliative measures.

If you occasionally have a bad breath; if there is heart-burn, flatu-lence and acid gurglings of undigested food; if the stomach burns or smart-
s; if there is sleeplessness, nervousness, headaches or any other of the many symptoms of indigestion, use Mi-na stomach tablets and get well.

Mi-na is not a mere digestive nor a physic, but a tonic remedy that strengthens the muscles of the stomach and bowels so that the flow of gastric juices is increased, and the food is digested naturally and does not stay in the stomach to ferment and poison the breath.

The Ireland Pharmacy has seen so many cures made by Mi-na tablets that they give a guarantee with every 50-cent box that the money will be refunded if the remedy fails to give satisfaction. They take the whole risk, and a box of Mi-na will not cost you
a penny unless it cures you.

Lame Shoulder Cured.

Lame shoulder is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles and quickly yields to a few applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Mrs. F. H.
McElwee, of Bolstown, New Brunswick, writes: "Having been troubled for some time with a pain in my left shoulder, I decided to give Chamberlain's Pain Balm a trial, with the result that I got prompt relief." For sale

It is very important and in fact it is absolutely necessary to health that we give relief to the stomach promptly at the first signs of trouble. Take something once in a while; especially after meals; something like KODOL for dyspepsia and indigestion. It will enable your stomach to do its work properly. Sold by The Ireland Pharmacy.

HOT TAMALES.

Hot Tamales, Chile Verde, Chile
Colorado, Pozole with Cueritos, Me-nudo and Chicken Tamale are among the Mexican and Spanish dishes which are being served nightly at the up-to-date short order house, The Bon Ton Restaurant.

The Pure Food Law.

Secretary Wilson says, "One of the objects of the law is to inform the consumer of the presence of certain harmful drugs in medicines." The law requires that the amount of chloroform, opium, morphine, and other habit forming drugs be stated on the label of each bottle. The manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy have always claimed that their remedy did not contain any of these drugs, and the truth of this claim is now fully proven, as no mention of them is made on the label. This remedy is not only one of the safest, but one of the best in use for coughs and colds. Its value has been proven beyond question during the many years it has been in general use. For sale by all druggists.

"BOOTH'S FRESH OYSTERS."

Black Bass, Lake Trout, Perch,
Salmon, Silver Herring, Bullheads, Frog's Legs, Lake Trout, Lobsters and Shrimp can be found only at the Bon Ton Restaurant, where they can cook

today for dyspepsia, indigestion and all troubles arising from disordered stomach. It is pleasant, prompt and thorough. Sold by The Ireland Pharmacy.

SORES DISAPPEARED

"Our little girl, one year and a half old, was taken with eczema or that was what the doctor said it was. We called in the family doctor and he gave some tablets and said she would be all right in a few days. The eczema grew worse and we called in doctor No. 2. He said she was teething, as soon as the teeth were through she would be all right. But she still grew worse. Doctor No. 3 said it was eczema. By this time she was nothing but a yellow, greenish sore. Well, he said he could help her, so we let him try it about a week. One morning we discovered a little yellow pimple on one of her eyes. Of course we phoned for doctor No. 3. He came over and looked her over and said that he could not do anything more for her, that we had better take her to some eye specialist, since it was an ulcer. So we went to Oswego to doctor No. 4, and he said the eyesight was gone, but that he could help it. We thought we would try doctor No. 5. Well, that proved the same, only he charged $10 more than doctor No. 4. We were nearly discouraged. I saw one of the Cuticura advertisements in the paper and thought we would try the Cuticura Treatment, so I went and purchased a set of Cuticura Remedies, which cost me $1, and in three days our daughter, who had been sick about eight months, showed great improvement, and in one week all sores had disappeared. Of course I could not restore the eyesight, but if we had used Cuticura in time I am confident that it would have saved the eye. We think there is no remedy so good for any skin trouble or impurity of the blood as Cuticura. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Abbott, R. F. D. No. 9, Fulton, Oswego Co., N. Y., August 17, 1906."

The New Mexican's Daily Short Story

The Town Clock.

(Original.)

A group of citizens stood in the market place of Schramberg, in the Black forest, looking up at the clock in the church tower.

"It has stopped," said one.

"No, but the hands move at a snail's pace," said another.

"I have been standing here fully ten minutes," said a third, "and can't detect the slightest change."

"And I have watched it for an hour," said a fourth. "The long hand shows a gain of two and a half minutes."

"When was the change noticed?"

"At 12 o'clock midnight. It has not struck the hour since."

"Let me see—two and a half minutes to the hour. At that rate the minute hand would sweep the dial in twenty-four hours. The clock registers but an hour a day."

From a little shop near by old Rothholz, the watchmaker, glanced out of his window at the group, shook his head at them, then turned and resumed his work. The day before his son had come to him, wringing his hands.

"Oh, father," he exclaimed, "Cicely has been condemned! Old Mother Gault swore that she had seen her with her own eyes vomiting crooked pins."

"What! That innocent girl condemned for witchcraft on the testimony of that hag?"

"Yes, and she is to be burned at the stake in three days. Oh, father, help! We are betrothed!"

The youngster, still in his teens, had not ceased to rely on his father for everything. The old man scratched his head and gave himself up to deep thought. Presently he said, "I cannot prevent this tragedy, but I may delay it."

"How?" asked the boy eagerly.

"You know, my son, that the clock in the church tower, which I made and about which no one except myself knows anything, is the legal time in the village—that I, the town clerk as well as watchmaker, keep the legal calendar and keep it by the clock. If I stop the clock I stop the village time, but in that case they would adopt another standard. I will make the hands go very slowly. This will delay the execution, and something may happen to save the girl."

In the middle of the night the old man went up into the tower and changed the clock's rate to one hour in twenty-four. Cicely could not be legally burned for more than two months.

The group standing in the market place after further discussion moved together to old Rothholz's shop, told him that the clock had nearly stopped and he must fix it. "Don't bother your heads about the clock," he said; "it will go well enough in time."

"After the girl who was condemned yesterday has been burned," "What has that to do with it?" "I don't know. I only know that the clock, which has kept perfect time ever since it was set up in the tower, has suddenly gone wrong." "Nonsense!" exclaimed most of the party, and they went away.

The old man insisted that he could not fix the clock, though, to satisfy the authorities, he pretended to try. In a few days the burghers, finding a new subject of interest, ceased to talk about the clock. A week later Antoine Hecker presented a note that was due to Karl Becker for payment. Becker declared that he would pay it when the town clock should say the time for payment had expired. Hecker went to Rothholz and asked for a certificate to that effect. Hecker declared that by the village time the note was not due. The result was a quarrel between the debtor and the creditor.

Then came a widow who wished to marry again. By the terms of her late husband's will she would lose everything he had left her if she married before a certain date. The date had expired, but the legal town time said that it had not. The clerk said it was his duty to keep the calendar by the clock. He could do nothing. The judge ordered him before the court and to fix the clock or keep the calendar by another timepiece. The town clerk refused to break the law, and the judge had no power to compel him to do so.

As the days and weeks elapsed the condition of the people of the village became more irritating. They quarreled about the time to go to bed, to get up, for meals. The children would not go to school till the clock struck the hour. Nobody would go to church because there was no knowing when they should go. Those who had watches tyrannized over those who had not and quarreled among themselves as to whose watch was right. At last the hubbub was so great that it became intolerable. A committee waited on the town clerk and begged him to fix the clock or break the law, promising him immunity.

"Not I," he said. "I believe that heaven shows its displeasure through the clock for the condemnation of a pure young girl for witchcraft."

When this was repeated to the judge he called the court together and reopened the trial of the condemned Cicely. Antoine Hecker, who was anxious to get his money from his creditor, having heard that the clock would not go properly till Cicely was acquitted, swore that the night before he had seen her accuser sailing by moonlight on the river in a sieve. All the dissatisfied people in the village supported his testimony. Cicely was acquitted, and the old woman was condemned to be burned in her stead.

That night at midnight the old clock struck the hour and thenceforth recorded the time correctly.

NEW NATIONAL FOREST IN ARIZONA

Has an Area of 721,780 Acres—Located in Maricopa and Yavapai Counties.

Washington, Jan. 10.—The President has just signed a proclamation creating the Verde National Forest in Arizona. This new National Forest has an area of 721,780 acres and is located in Maricopa and Yavapai counties. It lies on the west side of the Verde river and includes a large portion of the watershed of this stream. Jerome, the headquarters of the United Verde Copper Mine, is situated in the northern part of this forest. West and southwest of Jerome are the Mingus mountains. There is a small area of commercial forest which has been badly abused in the past.

The forest service will by no means prohibit grazing on this new forest, but will endeavor so to regulate it that the watershed of the Verde river will not be injured. In this way an important source of water which converges toward Salt river and its tributaries will be protected for the ultimate development of the irrigated lands.

Heart Strength

Heart strength, or heart weakness, means nerve strength, or nerve weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds; it strengthens; it offers real, genuine heart help. If you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with

RAILROAD EMPLOYEE ARRESTED FOR THEFT

Handsomeness, Educated Englishman Is Taken From Santa Fe Train at Las Vegas.

East Las Vegas, N. M., Jan. 10.—Robert J. Poulton, a handsome, educated Englishman and a scion of one of the most aristocratic families in the British Isles, was taken from Santa Fe train No. 9 here night before last at the request of the authorities at Holly, Colorado, on a charge of embezzlement. Poulton offered no resistance and is now locked up in the city jail awaiting the arrival of an officer from Colorado.

The circumstances surrounding Poulton's case are extremely pathetic. While en route east from the Pacific with a sister who was going to England to adjust some business affairs, he ran short of money and was forced to stop off at Holly, Colorado, and go to work. He secured a position as assistant cashier to the agent of the Santa Fe railway there at $60 a month. According to his story the salary was not commensurate with his responsibilities nor could he live on it and he finally decided to leave. He took $103 of funds belonging to the railroad company and left. His arrest is the result.

SAYS HE HAS A SURE CURE FOR CONSUMPTION

Carlsbad, N. M., Jan. 10.—The committee having the matter in charge of raising the fund asked by Dr. J. C. Jones of Chicago, who announces that he has a positive cure for tuberculosis, have succeeded in securing the full amount and the doctor is now located in Carlsbad. Two car loads of furnishings have already been shipped and immediately upon their arrival they will be put in place. He has been given a two years' lease gratis, in one of the most commodious residence sections in La Huerta, a suburban residence district adjacent to the city.

All trains reported on time this evening.

An incipient blaze occurred about 11 o'clock this forenoon at the residence of Hon. and Mrs. Arthur Seligman on upper Palace avenue. A fire was blazing in the fire place in the reception room which flared up the chimney and ignited the shingles near it. Just as the blaze started it was noticed by Mrs. Seligman and Mrs. Townsend, the latter living in the next house. The alarm was given but the help of the fire department was unnecessary. The garden hose was secured and the water turned on the part ignited and the flames were speedily extinguished. It was very fortunate that this was the case as the height of the wind was strong at the time.

EASTERN ROOSEVELT COUNTY HAS FUTURE

Every Quarter Section for Miles Is Occupied—Texico a Bustling Little City.

Judge T. C. Taylor and R. E. Rowells, attorneys at Texico, a thriving town in eastern Roosevelt county, were in the city several days this week for the purpose of being admitted by the supreme court to practice law in the territory.

They appeared before the supreme court and were admitted upon certificate, as they had practiced in their former homes, Judge Taylor for nearly twenty-five years, and Mr. Rowells for nearly ten years.

In talking to a representative of the New Mexican concerning conditions in their town and surrounding country, Judge Taylor, who was spokesman, said:

"We are sure that we live in one of the best sections of New Mexico, situated as we are on the eastern border of the territory in a fine agricultural country. The oldest citizens acquainted with the country surrounding Texico may find it difficult to realize that our soil is of that quality to produce the best crops without irrigation. The soil is fertile and loamy and cultivates well, returning each year in its seasons bountiful harvest.

"The population in this section perhaps is more rapidly increasing than in other parts of New Mexico owing to the railroad facilities, good land and accessibility to market. Every quarter section for many miles around represents the home of a family who will make New Mexico their permanent home and the members of which will stand for the maintenance of her institutions.

"Texico and surrounding country has a population of refined and intelligent people who are anxious for the upbuilding of our little city and the development of the surrounding country. Recently the city voted and issued $6,000 in school bonds to supplement its school funds and erect suitable school buildings and this with its many churches representing a number of the denominations speaks well for a higher and better citizenship."

HOMESEEKERS TO ESTANCIA VALLEY

Santa Fe Central Carried Two Parties of Immigrants Yesterday From Santa Fe and Torrance.

Upwards of twenty-five homeseekers were passengers on Santa Fe Central trains yesterday bound for points in the Estancia valley. One party came to this city via the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railway and another went to Torrance over the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad. That practically all of the immigrants to the valley are making entries of homestead claims on the public land in that section is shown by the records of the local U. S. land office where the force is kept busy in spite of the lateness of the season. Most of the homeseekers settling in the valley are from Kansas and Oklahoma.

DECLINES TO SERVE ON COMMITTEE

Ex-Governor Otero Makes Statement Regarding His Appointment By County Board.

Ex-Governor Miguel A. Otero, who was appointed a few days ago by the Board of County Commissioners as one of a committee of three to go to Washington and assist Delegate Andrews in the passage of an act to relieve Santa Fe county of its bonded debt, has declined to serve on the committee. In a letter to the public he explains his action. The letter follows:

"Santa Fe, January 10, 1907.
To the Honorable Board of County Commissioners of Santa Fe County, Santa Fe, New Mexico.

"Gentlemen:
"Noticing from an article in the Santa Fe New Mexican that I had been appointed by your Honorable Board as a member of a committee to proceed to Washington and assist in the passage of an act to relieve Santa Fe county from the payment of a debt known as the 'Railroad bonding debt', and including the past, due interest and judgment and although not having received any official notice of the appointment, nevertheless I will take this opportunity of acknowledging the same and thanking you for the honor and confidence shown by your act and more so coming as it did, without any solicitation on my part.

"While appreciating your kindness in the highest terms, I feel that for numerous reasons, I must decline to serve on the committee or accept the appointment. In taking this action I do not wish to give the impression that I will not do all in my power in this matter as I realize fully that every citizen of Santa Fe county should constitute himself as a committee of one to aid in getting the relief desired which is of such great importance to every property owner in the county.

"It was indeed unfortunate that Santa Fe county was not properly represented at the time of the validation of the bonds by Congress as perhaps what is now sought might have been accomplished at that time.

"It is barely possible that I may visit Washington sometime this month and if so I will take great pleasure in doing all in my power to aid in any measure for the benefit of this county or what might be for the general good and best interests of the Territory as a whole. Again thanking you for your kindness, I have the honor, to be,

"Very respectfully yours,

"MIGUEL A. OTERO."
Hon. Arthur Seligman and Attorney Charles F. Easley, who were the other two members appointed, have written letters similar to the above which will be published tomorrow.

$7,000 FOR TRANSCRIBING RECORDS

For Sandoval County—$13,000 Originally Claimed, But Court Cut This Almost in Half.

District Attorney Alexander Read, of Tierra Amarilla, has been in Albuquerque and in this city for several days on legal business. He appeared before Judge Ira A. Abbott of the Second judicial district court in the case of the Administrators of the Summers estate vs. the County of Sandoval, a suit in assumpsit. The administrators claimed the sum of $13,000 for transcribing certain records of Bernalillo county pertaining to the county of Sandoval, when the latter was created by the 35th Legislative Assembly.

The administrators based their claim upon a statute passed in 1907 by the 37th Legislative Assembly, providing a fee of fifteen cents per folio for transcribing, and also claimed this fee for printed matter in five of the records transcribed. District Attorney Read contended that the county of Sandoval was liable only for folios actually transcribed at ten cents per folio under a section of the compiled laws of 1897 and the provisions of chapter 70, Laws of 1899, providing that ten cents per folio should be paid and that the statute of 1907 was not applicable to the case. The law of 1907 does not amend or repeal the previous statutes except by implication.

Colonel E. W. Dobson and District Attorney Clancy appeared for the plaintiffs. Judge Abbott has rendered a decision in favor of the defendant, holding that the fee of ten cents per folio be paid by the county of Sandoval for all matter actually transcribed. The county commissioners of Sandoval county have expressed their willingness to make a special levy to pay the sum of a little over $7,000 for the work actually done which under this decision will go to the plaintiffs.

NOTICE TO SANTA FE COUNTY TEACHERS.

A regular teachers' examination for applicants for first, second and third grade certificates will be held January 24th at 10 a. m., at the Santa Fe High School, and all those wishing to teach in Santa Fe county, who are not already holders of certificates must be passed by the board. All holders of special permits must also attend this examination as their permits expire on the 24th of January, 1908, and failure to attend and secure proper certificates will disqualify them as teachers.

I would be pleased to have a large attendance at this examination, as there are several school districts at present not supplied with teachers, and those securing certificates will be assured positions.

J. V. CONWAY,
County School Superintendent.
