BOLD FRAUD IS UNEARTHED

By U. S. Revenue Officers at Albuquerque

WHOLESALE ARRESTS LIKELY

Brewery Employees and Saloonists Implicated in Systematic Scheme of Pillage

Albuquerque, N. M., March 14.—Upon complaint of F. P. Blandy, deputy collector of internal revenue for New Mexico, United States Marshal C. M. Foraker yesterday placed under arrest Charles Webb, proprietor of a road house and saloon west of Albuquerque, and R. A. Miller, of this city, who until a few days ago was an employee of the Southwestern Brewery and Ice company, upon charges of violation of the United States revenue laws.

The two men were given a hearing late yesterday afternoon before United States Commissioner H. R. Whiting, and were bound over to await the action of the United States grand jury under $5,000 bonds each.

In the work leading up to these two arrests the United States revenue officers believe they have uncovered a scheme of systematic pillage, from which the Southwestern Brewery and Ice company has been the chief sufferer, and which has extended over two years or more. Men who are interested in the brewery and who are in a position to speak for the management, agree with this belief and say that it will probably be shown that the brewery has suffered a direct loss of thousands of dollars through the robbery.

In addition to the arrests made yesterday, revenue officers in Cincinnati have been advised to arrest two brewers now in that city and recently discharged from the plant were on suspicion that they had some connection with the steady losses which it has been known were being suffered.

Further Arrests Probable. In addition to these arrests it is intimated that other saloon owners in Albuquerque, believed to have had a part in the system, will shortly be called to account. The name of the suspects can not be obtained from either the revenue officers or the management of the brewery, but it is known that investigations were under way yesterday and today in several places from which results are expected to follow immediately.

For some time the brewery management has known that it was suffering losses in some way, its revenue accounts failing repeatedly to balance, and this had gone to such an extent that there was serious danger of complications with the government.

Some ten days ago Mr. Blandy and his associates came to Albuquerque from Santa Fe and went to work on the case. They have unearthed a scheme so bold and yet so simple that it is difficult to see how it could have been carried on successfully for so long. The brazenness with which one of the men under arrest attempted to carry on the system after he knew that robbery was suspected, indicates that the scheme had been working long enough to cause the plotters to become careless and that detection was not feared. It was this carelessness born of long security which brought about the discovery of the scheme and the schemers.

Scheme Bold Yet Simple. The scheme was not a complicated one at all. The saloon man, as in the case of Webb, who is under arrest, purchased a properly stamped barrel of beer from the brewery for the usual price, $10. Over the cork of each barrel is placed the revenue stamp, so that when the spigot is inserted, or driven in, it passes through the stamp, making a hole in it and effecting cancellation. The rim of the cancelled stamp, a round circle, is left around the hole. The saloon man first soaked from an empty barrel one of these cancelled stamps. He then bought his barrel of properly stamped beer from the brewery at the regular price, but before opening it, he soaked off the uncanceled stamp, saving it intact, and placed in its stead around the cork or spigot the old stamp with the hole in it.

Possibility That It May Reach Ogden By Tomorrow and Overtake the Latter.

Ogden, Utah, March 14.—The American car departed from Evanston, Wyoming, 87 miles east of here at 7:55 a. m., six miles out it went into a mud hole where it has been stalled all day. The car was due to reach here at 3 p. m. barring accident. The Italian car is gaining on the American car and may reach Ogden tomorrow.

Italian Car Runs All Night. Medicine Bow, Wyo., March 14.—The Italian car reached here at 4 o'clock this morning after an all night's run from Rockriver, making only seventeen miles in that time. The car took the wrong road and got stuck in snow drifts in the mountains. The car left here at 9 o'clock for Ogden.

ALIA ATTEMPTS TO ESCAPE FROM JAIL.

Condemned Murderer of Priest Slashes Throat of "Trusty" With Razor—Quickly Overpowered.

Denver, Colo., March 14.—An attempt was made this morning by Giuseppe Alia, the condemned murderer of Father Leo Heinrichs, to escape from the county jail. He used a razor blade with which he slashed the throat of a "trusty" who was cleaning his cell and then made a dash to get away. Despite a cut two and one-half inches in his neck, the "trusty" ran after Alia and pinioned him and he was quickly overpowered with the help of Deputy Jailer Carpen.

The cell in which Alia was placed after his conviction Thursday, had previously been occupied by Michael Bernati, the Italian, who accompanied Alia from New York to Denver and who had been held since the assassination of Father Leo as a suspect and possible witness.

Bernati was released from jail last night. As he passed Alia's cell he spoke to him in Italian. It is surmised he placed the razor in the bowl of the closet and when leaving the jail, told Alia where to look for the weapon.

FINALLY FIND MISSING HORSES

Jacobo Chaves and R. C. Gortner Recover Animals Which Strayed Away Two Months Ago

While Peter M. A. Lienau was returning on horseback from Los Lunas he located the two horses belonging to Territorial Insurance Commissioner Jacobo Chaves and District Attorney Robert C. Gortner, which had strayed away from this city early last January. Mr. Lienau found them at La Bajada, about thirty miles south of Santa Fe.

It seems that the horses had wandered away together and were picked up as strays by a rancher at La Bajada. He put them in his pasture thinking the owners would be coming along soon hunting the animals and when nobody came in search for them he concluded to put an advertisement in the New Mexican the next time he came to town on business.

Mr. Lienau learned that two stray horses had been found when he was riding through La Bajada and it was believed they had wandered from Santa Fe as both of the horses were city shod. He identified the animals as belonging to Mr. Chaves, his father-in-law, and Mr. Gortner. He accordingly brought the two animals back with him. The rancher refused to accept any reward or pay for pasturing during the two months.

WAR IS COMING

Chief Forester Springs Sensation at Dinner Party—Forest Rangers Would Serve as Scouts.

New York, March 14.—Declaring it is only from the forest rangers in the service of the United States that scouts can be recruited for the "war that is coming," Clifford Pinchot, chief forester, startled his hearers at a dinner here last evening by discussing the possibility of war as if an early conflict was inevitable. He said there is in this country timber enough for less than thirty years and coal enough to last less than one hundred years.

ELEVATOR BOY PROVES A HERO

Saves Many Lives When Candy Factory Burns

BRAVED DEATH TO DO SO

Ran Cage Up and Down Shaft Until Flames Stopped Him.

New York, March 14.—A hundred girls were working today in the candy factory of Arthur Essing at 362 Pearl street, on the fourth and fifth floors when a fire was discovered at the bottom of the elevator shaft, preventing their exit by the stairways.

Henry Koch, an elevator boy, coolly took five elevator loads down before the flames had reached such a height in the shaft that he was compelled to abandon the car. The girls not taken out by this means succeeded in reaching the ground safely by fire escapes from the roof.

The factory was totally destroyed, entailing a heavy loss.

EX-DELEGATE PEREA HURT IN ACCIDENT

Traction Car at Albuquerque Strikes Vehicle in Which He is Riding Throwing Him Out.

Albuquerque, N. M., March 14.—Colonel Francisco Perea, aged 75 years, who was delegate to Congress from New Mexico at the time President Lincoln was assassinated, was painfully injured in a collision with a westbound Central avenue electric car about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Colonel Perea was driving south on Fourth street and evidently did not see or hear the car coming. The wagon in which Mr. Perea was riding was demolished and he was thrown to the ground. The horses attached to the vehicle became frightened and ran away. They were stopped near Third street. Dr. P. G. Cornish was called to the scene of the accident and after making a hasty examination of the injured man had him removed to St. Joseph's hospital. He was later taken to his home at 1209 South Broadway. It is believed that Mr. Perea will soon recover from his injuries, as he was not hurt seriously. Colonel Perea was at one time one of the most prominent politicians in New Mexico and well known throughout the territory.

GENERAL OFFICE IN CAPITAL CITY

Hughes Mercantile Company to Have Headquarters in Santa Fe With G. H. Van Stone as Manager.

Preparations are being made by the Hughes Mercantile company to open a general office in Santa Fe to keep pace with its increasing business. George H. Van Stone will continue to serve in the capacity of general manager of the firm's stores and the establishing of headquarters in this city will necessitate the removal of himself and family here from Estancia.

The Hughes Mercantile company at the present time is operating large stores at Estancia and Moriarty. Levi A. Hughes who is at the head of the corporation stated today that as the company proposes to establish additional stores at other towns it was deemed advantageous to have the general office of the firm in Santa Fe. Mr. Hughes said he was not in a position to say definitely in just what towns the other branch stores would be opened but the firm would be governed largely by the construction of the Albuquerque Eastern railway which it is proposed to build from Moriarty to Albuquerque.

STEAMER HITS REEF IN FOG

British Vessel Wrecked on Massachusetts Coast

ALL ON BOARD RESCUED

Accident Due to Similarity of Danger Signals It is Believed.

Wood Hoe, Mass., March 14.—The British steamer Silvia which left New York yesterday with passengers and freight for Halifax, Nova Scotia, and St. John's New Foundland, ran upon Sow and Pigs reef off Gutterhunk this morning during a heavy fog. Her compartments are filled with water. Before striking the Silvia had picked up two shipwrecked crews, but whether from schooners or barges could not be learned. A life-saving crew has gone out to the Silvia.

The similarity of fog signals at the different lightships is said to have been the cause for the grounding of the vessel. This afternoon arrangements were made to take off the passengers and send them by rail to Boston.

Regular Red Cross Line Steamer

New York, March 14.—The Silvia, which sailed from here yesterday carrying about thirty-five passengers, among whom were a number of shipwrecked seamen bound to their homes in Nova Scotia and New Foundland. The Silvia is a regular steamer of the Red Cross line plying between New York and Halifax and St. Johns.

YOUNG GIRL TELLS STARTLING STORY

After Unsuccessful Attempt at Suicide New York Miss Bares Her Troubles to Police.

New York, March 14.—A startling story of how five young girls who came to New York from St. Paul, Minnesota, a little over a year ago, died each by her own hand, was told to the police today by seventeen-year-old Helen Baxter, after she had made a vain attempt to end her life. She turned on the gas in her room last night, but was found this morning in time to save her life.

The girl's story is a pitiful one. She said that she was one of a party of six girls who came to New York to make their way, after receiving a course of training in a business college at St. Paul. The other five, she declared, all committed suicide in consequence of disappointments in love and work.

Her own reason for wanting to die was her desertion by a man representing himself to be wealthy who had come into her life and who had left her and sailed for Europe.

BANDITS HOLD-UP KANSAS BANK

Stand Off Citizens in Daring Daylight Raid and Escape Across Line Into Oklahoma.

Coffeyville, Kans., March 14.—Several posers from this city are today searching in the Osage hills just across the line in Oklahoma for three bandits who late yesterday afternoon held up and robbed the Tyro State bank at Tyro, Kansas, and escaped after an exciting fight with the town officers. City Marshal Lee of Wann, Oklahoma, was shot in the hand and the horses of two of the pursuers were shot under them. Not since the famous raid made here some years ago by the Dalton gang has the excitement been so intense. A battle with the bandits may occur at any moment as the posers are close on their trail.

Not Unlike Dalton Raid.

There were three persons in the Tyro bank when two masked men of rough appearance entered. A third man remained on guard outside. The two men inside ordered the bank's president, Joseph Lenhart, the bookkeeper, Miss Grace Dodson, and the Missouri Pacific agent, Frank Alexander, who happened to be in the bank, to throw up their hands. All did so at once. One of the bandits then leveled a pistol at the three while the other secured all the available money in sight, amounting to about $2,500. The robbers then retreated out of the front door, joined the third bandit and the three rode away toward the south. As soon as they left the bank an alarm was sounded and soon several posers were in pursuit.

REPUBLICANS OF SAN JUAN MEET

Hold Enthusiastic Convention at Farmington

SELECT STRONG DELEGATION

To Represent the County at Silver City—Adopt Stirling Resolutions.

Special to the New Mexican. Farmington, N. M., March 14.—The Republicans of San Juan county held their convention here on Tuesday at which time delegates were elected to represent the county at the convention to be held at Silver City on March 21 to elect delegates to represent New Mexico at the national Republican convention at Chicago on June 16.

The meeting was harmonious and enthusiastic and a representative delegation was chosen. The delegates were instructed to vote for a resident of San Juan county as a delegate to the national convention.

The convention adopted a strong set of resolutions endorsing the policies of President Theodore Roosevelt, the candidacy of Secretary of War William Howard Taft, the administration of Governor George Curry, the good work accomplished in Congress by Delegate William H. Andrews, the success of the New Mexico Statehood League, and urging that the people of San Juan county lend every aid within their power towards making the Sixteenth National Irrigation Congress at Albuquerque, a success. The resolutions condemn Democratic policies throughout the nation and especially in the territory. The resolutions follow:

Resolutions.
"We, the Republican party of San Juan county, in convention assembled, this 10th day of March, 1908, reaffirm our allegiance to the principles of the party of progress and prosperity.

"We endorse President Theodore Roosevelt, his purposes and policies, in general, and particularly the stand he has taken and the good he has accomplished by curbing the powers of corporate wealth and greed.

"We endorse Delegate W. H. Andrews and recognize in him the most influential and effective delegate we have ever had as shown by many measures of importance to our territory which he has succeeded in passing through the national Congress.

"We endorse Governor George Curry and pledge to him and his administration our loyal support in carrying out his plans for the proper external recognition of the rights of our citizens.

"We endorse Representative Price Walters and Treasurer W. E. Williams and hope and fully expect to be able to have more local Republicans in office to endorse after the coming general election.

"We approve the candidacy of Secretary W. H. Taft for the presidency of the United States, considering him the embodiment of ability, fairness, justice and consistency, and the logical and proper successor and perpetuator of the policies now being carried into effect by the administration of which he is an important factor.

"We approve the work and course of the members of the New Mexico Statehood League who recently visited the national capital and through their zealous efforts have practically assured the passage of a New Mexico statehood bill before the fourth day of March, 1909.

"We condemn the Democratic policies throughout the nation for criticizing the national administration in its straightforward course in making effective reforms in the control of corporations, their present action in this direction thoroughly demonstrating their insincerity of purpose by showing that it was not the curbing of corporations they really desired, but the political capital which they were able to make out of such an issue and we find their course within our territory one of equal insincerity, their declarations unsupported, their charges against Republicans unfounded and their policies in general a propaganda of obstruction to natural and wholesome progress and improvement.

"We recommend that this convention appoint a committee of three, one from each commissioner district, to consider and carry out plans for a more effective county organization and to report their work and progress to the next county convention, and to the county central committee from time to time as that committee may require.

"We recommend our delegates to the Silver City convention to support and use their influence for the election of one of our fellow citizens as one of

OFFICIAL PAPER OF SANTA FE COUNTY.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every postoffice in the Territory, and as a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the Southwest.

TRADE OF THE UNITED STATES WITH ITS NON-CONTIGUOUS TERRITORIES.

The figures which the New Mexican presents herewith utterly confute the assertions of the pessimists, to the effect, that the non-contiguous territories of the United States are deteriorating under American rule; this is untrue, and it is also untrue that this country is a financial loser, by those transactions. The plain, undeniable facts are that even the existing status, to say nothing of the future, is mutually profitable, as these statistics abundantly prove. The term "non-contiguous territories," include Porto Rico, Alaska, the Hawaiian Islands, the Philippine Islands, the Midway Islands, Guam and Tutuila. To those territories was sent from the United States in the calendar year 1907, $70,000,000 worth of merchandise, and from them was sent to the United States $78,000,000 worth of merchandise and $12,000,000 worth of gold produced in Alaska, making in all $90,000,000. Now how does this prove that these connections are mutually profitable? In this way. In the calendar year 1897, when all of this area except Alaska, was foreign territory, the value of exports to the Philippine Islands was $64,459, against $10,926,071 in 1907; to the Hawaiian Islands, $5,478,224 in 1897, against $15,732,074 in 1907, and to Porto Rico in 1897, $2,023,751, against $25,225,184 in 1907. The imports from the Philippine Islands in 1897 were $4,352,181, against $12,264,478 in 1907, from Porto Rico in 1897 $1,943,251, against $22,806,047 in 1907, and from the Hawaiian Islands in 1897 $15,311,685, against $32,017,054 in 1907. In the case of Alaska, there is no opportunity to compare the figures of 1897 with those of 1907, as no record of the trade with Alaska was made prior to 1903, in which year the merchandise sent there from the United States was a little less than $10,000,000, against $17,500,000 in 1907, and the merchandise received therefrom about $10,000,000 in merchandise and $12,000,000 worth of gold in 1907. A glance at the Alaska purchase will be instructive. On July 27, 1868, the treaty between Russia and the United States for the purchase of Alaska was signed by President Johnson—the area thus added to the United States was 590,777,290 square miles, and the purchase money paid was $7,200,000. To show what blunders public men make at times—it may be stated that the treaty was bitterly fought in both branches of Congress; one distinguished statesman said, "If Russia wants to be paid for her friendship during the Civil war, let us pay her the amount of money asked for Alaska, and keep her icebergs to herself." Now the statistics show that nearly three times the amount of the purchase money has been received from the "Russian icebergs" during the year last past, and there is no doubt that the commerce between all the non-contiguous territories will go on increasing as the years go by.

Complaint has been made at the street corners by two or three reformers that some twenty citizens employed or otherwise connected with the New Mexican Printing company took an active part in the precinct primaries and the county convention held in this city within the past few days. Rather than being a subject for blame, it ought to be one for praise. The employees of the New Mexican are good citizens, many of them own real estate and pay taxes, they are permanent residents, spend their earnings with local business men, induce others to settle here and whenever opportunity offers, seek to advance the real interests of the community. The New Mexican Printing company maintains the largest manufacturing industry in Santa Fe and as a matter of course, those who "knock" the New Mexican, "knock" Santa Fe and those who "knock" Santa Fe must be classed as undesirable citizens and should be given the cold shoulder socially, politically and in business.

About as big a booster of the Sixteenth National Irrigation Congress and Interstate Industrial exposition as can be found in ten states and two territories is Governor George Curry. When the governor undertakes to make a success of any public movement he goes there with both feet. What is more, he does his valuable work in a very unassuming and plain way. Great and good reasons for his popularity.

A TRIBUTE TO TAFT FROM THE BAR.

The American Lawyer, published at Boston, Massachusetts, is an open antagonist of the so-called Roosevelt policies, and yet, it is constrained in its most recent issue, to speak of Secretary of War William H. Taft, as follows, even though it knows that Taft will carry to their logical conclusion the Republican principles which have been put into practice by President Roosevelt:

"The claims of William H. Taft to the nomination of the Republican party for the office of President are so well founded that even those who are advocating 'favored sons' and particular favorites are compelled to bear witness to his qualifications for the highest position within the people's gift."

"There is a breadth, a catholicity in the scope of the education, experience and character of Secretary Taft that enables the businessman as well as the members of the professions to feel a sense of security in the thought of the attainment by him of the Presidential office."

"Dignity, poise and the ability to carefully weigh adverse interests and claims, are his by reason of his extended service upon the bench."

"The responsibility, the power and the executive duties in the successful government of our possessions in the Far East, have had their part in the development of the character we admire in him today; while his career in the cabinet as secretary of war displays his tact and energy in the management of large affairs, and indicates the qualities we may expect to see continued in the higher office to which he aspires."

"Only the display of superior qualities on the part of his opponent or a supreme political exigency should prevent his adding to his other honors, the right to guide the affairs of the nation for the ensuing four years."

THE TIME FOR MUNICIPAL IMPROVEMENTS.

The city council should pass and enforce a sidewalk ordinance for upper Palace avenue. At the same time, it should pass an ordinance widening the street from ten to twenty feet and to straighten out its kinks. This can be done at present, before the sidewalks are built, at hardly any expense to the city except setting back a few fences. It is quite certain that viewers appointed for the purpose of condemning the needed strips of land would find that the widening of the street would enhance real estate values in that section to such an extent as to exceed the market price of the strips of ground that would have to be taken. In fact, several of the larger property owners on the street have offered to deed voluntarily without compensation, a ten foot or twenty foot strip of land for the purpose named. Santa Fe has but few straight and wide streets and as it expands into a modern city the need of such will become more apparent, and sooner or later will be met, but at a far greater expenditure than would be necessary now to accomplish the same object. With the city election approaching, these are questions that should be fully considered so as to result in the election of men to municipal offices who will expend the city revenues for the greatest permanent good to the community.

THE MOSQUITO PEST AT ALBUQUERQUE.

The Albuquerque Citizen is wide-awake to the municipal needs of the Duke City. It is quite right when it says:

"Albuquerque should not suffer from the mosquito pest, which spreads all sorts of fevers, but so long as pools of water and swampy tracts of land are allowed to remain within the city limits, there are sure to be thousands of mosquitoes breeding there day and night."

Fortunately, Santa Fe has no mosquitoes, and is blessed with a water supply that in its source, is absolutely free from contamination, being supplied from the snow and ice on the lofty Sangre de Cristo range, but despite these advantages and its acknowledged climate superiority, Santa Fe can still further improve its healthfulness by building a modern sewer system, enforcing rules of sanitation and by greater cleanliness. Santa Fe's destiny is that of a climatic health resort and tourist center and this destiny should be kept in mind by the authorities at all times.

ELECT PROGRESSIVE MEN TO CITY OFFICE.

Energetic citizens and who have the advancement of this city at heart and who are property owners and therefore will feel more interested in the performance of their duties, should be elected as city officials at the coming city election here. Politics ought not to cut much ice in this election.

The history of the municipality of Santa Fe is not at all complimentary to the officials who have been elected on political lines although in all justice and fairness the facts prove that the records made by Republican mayors and Republican city councils have been better, more honest and more beneficial in many respects than those made by such officials of the Democratic faith. Still, on the Republican side, there have been laches and manana policy. This ought to be changed.

Every other town in New Mexico is progressing rapidly and Santa Fe must not be left behind. It has lost too much time already. The grandest climatic advantages on this American continent are found right here and not excelled anywhere when an all the year around climate is considered. The scenic attractions within a radius of fifty miles are the grandest and most magnificent of those of any mountain region on earth. From a historical archaeological and ethnological standpoint there is not a place under Uncle Sam's flag or in Canada that can beat Santa Fe. The origin of the water supply is of the purest and its location from a health standpoint is of the very best.

What is needed now are the energetic and intelligently directed efforts of its citizens to make Santa Fe the greatest tourist and health resort on this continent. All other necessary advantages are here. Progressive and modern men in the city offices can materially assist in making Santa Fe what it ought to be—one of the healthiest, prettiest, most attractive and most comfortable health and tourist resorts for thousands of miles. The few knackers, tax-dodgers and back-biters should be given a back seat and that away to the rear. The progressive and patriotic citizenship should assert itself. It is never too late to mend.

BUILD A BRIDGE ON DELGADO STREET.

The board of county commissioners as at present constituted is nearing within ten months its official end and thus far it has not a single monument to its progressiveness such as were erected by its predecessor in the shape of bridges and county buildings. Of course, there is still time, but some action ought to be taken soon, for instance, to place the county roads in better condition, to co-operate with the penitentiary authorities in completing and repairing the Scenic Highway from Santa Fe to the Pecos River and in building a bridge across the Santa Fe river on Delgado street. There is no bridge over the river for the distance of a mile from College street to the junction of Palace avenue and Canon road. Delgado street is midway between these two points and up to a few years ago had a substantial bridge which, however, was washed away by floods and has not been replaced. Palace avenue and Canon road are the main east and west streets and it is important that they be connected by at least one bridge. The steep banks of the Santa Fe river on Delgado street also make a new bridge a necessity from the standpoint of safety. Money spent for good roads and bridges is well spent and taxes levied for that purpose are paid without murmur by every good citizen.

NEW MEXICO IS RAPIDLY COMING INTO ITS OWN.

The press of the country is keeping New Mexico to the front and that in the right light. A great change for the better has taken place in this respect within the past two years. Up to that time New Mexico was kept in the public eye, but in a very damaging and poor light. All this has changed, greatly for the better. Says the El Paso Herald of recent date:

"New Mexico breaks another record."

"The report of the congressional committee which recommended establishing a government land office at Tucumcari, New Mexico, says:

"Into this district there has been within the last eighteen months a greater influx of immigration than into any other land district in the United States."

"In 1906, there were 3,500 entries covering 400,000 acres; in 1907 there were 11,000 entries covering 1,560,000 acres; in the first six months of the fiscal year there were 4,600 entries covering 600,000 acres."

"And yet there is room. Almost 50,000,000 acres of public land await the entryman in New Mexico, and a great part of it can be farmed. New Mexico has the area of Italy, and less than 1-100th of Italy's population, though the natural resources of New Mexico far exceed those of Italy."

The "Black Hand" should be shaken but not with the white hand of good fellowship. Quite the reverse. The hand of justice should shake the Black Hand under the gallows.

The Nebraska Republicans have declared for the nomination of Secretary of War William H. Taft. They want to be on the right side and have a front seat in the victorious band wagon.

If you want anything on earth—try a New Mexican "ad."

MOTHER'S

IN TIME OF PEACE PREPARE FOR WAR

The New Mexican publishes herewith a timely communication addressed to the editor of this paper by Judge
A. L. Morrison. In view of recent events the article is especially interesting and worthy of careful perusal.
Judge Morrison does not mince words in demanding a larger navy, more efficient army and a well disciplined militia. His communication follows:

"Editor New Mexican:
"I have read with pleasure your recent article under the caption, 'For a Larger Navy,' and ask your permission to supplement it with a few additional observations. In time of peace, prepare for war, may seem a backneyed phrase, but like all the maxims of the Father of His Country, it will never lose its significance; its wisdom will be as apparent to future generations as it is today. Visionary idealists may waste reams of paper in attempts to prove that we are nearing a millennial period when wars will cease and all international dissensions will be amicably settled by arbitration, but men of plain, common sense
who have carefully studied the history of the nations and accept human nature for what it is, not for what it ought to be, will square their actions
by the knowledge thus acquired.

"Experience teaches us that inadequately armed nations simply invite attack by any enemy they may have;
our own history, short as it is, has furnished abundant proofs of this assertion; when in the presence of British insults repeated for many years the administrations of Jefferson and Madison absolutely refused to increase either army or navy. Of course this stupid policy was regarded by the English as cowardly and their insolence finally became so intolerable as to force an unwilling declaration of war
by America with the result that we may well desire to draw the veil of oblivion over the mis-called war along the Canadian frontier. But it may be objected, this statement, that we defeated the English army in that war.
Well we did, but how?

"The hardy mariners on our Atlantic seaboard took the matter into their own hands and without any aid from the government, struck the British in their most vulnerable point, viz. at sea. Five hundred and seventeen privateers, aggregating two thousand,
eight hundred and ninety-three guns,
captured or destroyed one thousand three hundred British ships; while the national navy numbering twenty-three vessels captured two hundred and fifty-four of the enemy's craft. Seeing themselves helpless to protect their commerce the English shipowners made such a fuss over the loss of their trade that they compelled their government to sue for peace; but it would take a powerful microscope to discover what America gained by the war. All that might have been gained was lost by the imbecility of the Democratic diplomats. Well after that expensive experience the navy, such as it was, was permitted to rot in the navy yards, and when the Civil war came, all kinds of craft had to be purchased, in a hurry, and improvised into war vessels to maintain some kind of a blockade along our southern seaboard.

"All good citizens will rejoice in the fact that creditable efforts are being made to build up and maintain a navy which will be honorable to the republic. The magnificent battleship fleet which has received such enthusiastic welcome by the Latin Republics fronting both oceans is the most powerful argument in favor of peace that this generation has witnessed. It is an object lesson that Japan will do well to take serious notice of, it will pay her to do so, besides that all the other naval powers will learn to respect it not fear the mighty sea power of America.
But we must not stop here, the good work must go on until we have a navy equal to any other power on earth.

"So much for the navy, now what of the army? That is a different question. To maintain an army comparable with the great nations of the world is neither possible nor desirable. Those nations have various kinds of conscription laws which would not be tolerated in America so it is fast becoming a very serious question how to maintain the small army (about 50, 000 men) now authorized by law. In a prosperous country like ours it is extremely difficult to induce desirable men to enlist in the army where the pay is so small when compared with that in civil life. A step in the right direction has just been made by the Congress in increasing the pay of private soldier 40 per cent. So far, so good, but that is very far from sufficient.

"General Frederick D. Grant recently gave it as his deliberate opinion,
"that 500,000 troops would not properly garrison the Pacific coast in case of a war with Japan. That war may or may not come, but it is well to be prepared for all contingencies. No doubt the patriotism of the people can be implicitly relied on at all times and under all circumstances to defend the country but the great majority of them would be what is known as 'raw recruits,' utterly ignorant of military tactics. The militia is doing good work as far as it goes, but here in Santa Fe there should be a battalion instead of a small company. It has been suggested recently that a system of military education should be instituted in the schools of the country. The mental and physical condition of the boys would be much improved thereby. Military training inculcates habits of order and obedience to the laws, it teaches men to carry themselves like gentlemen
and best of all, it fills their minds with love of country and readiness to defend the glorious banner of the Stars and Stripes in life and if necessary in death. Such a system as this would tend to rear up generations of young patriots who, when called on by the government in times of need would be able to render efficient service immediately, instead of passing through months of monotonous labor in the 'awkward squad.' This idea is well worthy of serious consideration. It would add lustre to New Mexico's name to lead the way.

"Very respectfully,
"A. L. MORRISON."

Prof. H. A. Howell, of Havana, Cuba, Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"As long ago as I can remember my mother was a faithful user and friend of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, but never in my life have I realized its true value until now," writes Prof. H.
A. Howell, of Howell's American school, Havana, Cuba. "On the night of February 3rd our baby was taken sick with a very severe cold, the next day was worse and the following night his condition was desperate. He could not lie down and it was necessary to have him in the arms every moment.
Even then his breathing was difficult.
I did not think he would live until morning. At last I thought of my mother's remedy, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which we gave, and it afforded prompt relief, and now, three days later, he has fully recovered. Under the circumstances I would not hesitate a moment in saying that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and that only, saved the life of our dear little boy." For sale by all druggists.

WHY DID YOU COME WEST?

To rest, recuperate, hunt, fish, breathe fresh, pure air, see mountain scenery, get a change, live a new and and fascinating life under conditions, and get food that needs no pur food law.

That's why you came west!

There is a beautiful little valley that nestles between the highest mountains of the Rockies on the upper Pecos river; ideal altitude, 7,000 feet, and temperature identical with Santa Fe. Its streams swarm with trout and the woods and ranges are filled with game large and small. The ranchers live the life of the west. There are mountain lion, bears, deer, and wolves for the hunter. There are saddle ponies to be had for the asking, rooms in a big rambling ranch house with wide verandas, tent rooms or a cabin if you want it. The days are never dull. You see a great ranch and the genuine western life. Fresh milk, butter and eggs—all you can drink and eat. Sleep in blankets at night—fish in your shirt sleeves during the day. You couldn't spend more than $9 a week if you tried. Its the place you are looking for. Accommodations for both men and women.

SCHOOLS MUST OBSERVE ARBOR DAY

Superintendent of Public Instruction in Circular Letter to Teachers, Calls Attention to Statute.

Superintendent of Public Instruction J. E. Clark has issued a circular letter to the county superintendents of the territory calling their attention to the Arbor Day proclamation recently issued by Governor Curry designating Friday, March 27th, as Arbor Day, and urging that steps be taken for a proper observance of the day. Superintendent Clark quotes a section from the Compiled Laws of 1897, which provides that the day shall be observed as a holiday in all public schools of the territory and requiring all officers and teachers to observe the day with proper exercises. While in some schools the preparation of suitable programs will be difficult a number of the classes will plant trees on the school grounds. This is perhaps the most important part of the ceremony in New Mexico at least, where there are such vast tracts of treeless plains. It is desired to inculcate in the minds of the pupils the necessity for reforestation and preservation of the forests. The circular of the superintendent of public instruction follows:

Arbor Day Circular.

"Friday, March 27th, has been designated by proclamation from the office of Governor Curry as Arbor Day. You will note that Sec. 1625 A. of the Compiled Laws of 1897, provides that the day shall be a holiday in all public schools of the territory, and school officers and teachers are required to have the schools under their respective charge observe the day by planting of trees or other appropriate exercises. The day, then, is a holiday provided it is properly observed, otherwise, it is not to be so regarded. "You will note that the actual planting of trees may be done on the day designated, or at such other most convenient time as may best conform to local climatic conditions, such other time to be designated and due notice thereof given by the several county superintendents of schools for their respective counties.

"In addition, I would respectfully call your attention to the fact that, the respective county superintendents of schools shall also promote by all proper means the observance of the day, and the said county superintendents of schools shall make annual reports to the governor of the territory of the action taken in this behalf in their respective counties.

"Trusting that through your efforts on Arbor Day, 1908, may bring real improvement to every school site in New Mexico, and that the growing generation may give serious consideration to the value of our forests, I am,

"Yours sincerely,

"(Signed) J. E. CLARK,

"Superintendent of Public Instruction,

"Santa Fe, New Mexico,

"March 12, 1908.

"P. S.—We fully realize that it is difficult for the great majority of our teachers in the outlying districts to collect sufficient, satisfactory literary material for this occasion, and it is a matter of regret to this department that the funds of our office are not sufficient to warrant the publication of a manual for use by the teachers in the exercises of Arbor Day."

YAQUIS COMMIT FRESH OUTRAGE

Section Heretofore Free of Indian Trouble Scene of Revolving Murder of Timber Cutters.

Douglas, Ariz., March 14.—The discovering recently by Mexican prospectors of the horribly mutilated bodies of two Mexican timber cutters at a point ten miles out of Oputo, a town on the Yaqui river within ten miles of the well known Tabatacochi mine, in the state of Sonora, tells the grim story of another Yaqui outrage.

The bodies, dead several days before the prospectors came across them, gave shocking evidence of having been outraged, before the fatal bullets had been pumped into them.

The finding of a dog shot through one of the legs, but lying beside the bodies of his former masters, where he must have been as long as twelve days, also tells the story of the fidelity of a dumb brute.

This Yaqui outrage was almost incredible to the people about Oputo as they have never, in recent years, at least, been bothered by Indians. All the country through there has been prospected by Americans and no one ever gave thought of the Indian. At first the people of Oputo did not believe the report but upon examining the bodies and inspecting the scene of the grim tragedy the conclusion became inevitable that it was the work of Yaquis. Subsequent to this the band was seen in that section. They were about twenty-five in number.

Killed After Struggle.

The Mexicans who were killed left Oputo about fifteen days ago to cut timber out in the mountains, and it was while engaged in that work that the Indians came upon them. The Mexicans were armed and it is evident from the appearance of the spot where they were killed that they did not give up their lives without a fierce struggle. Some of the chambers of their pistols had been emptied and shells were found on the ground. One of their pistols had been broken in the struggle, which probably ended hand to hand. After mutilating the victims bodies in an indescribably horrible manner the Indians shot them, three bullets being sent into each body at the same identical spot. There on the mountain side their bodies were left to the scavengers of the wilderness, and the Indians went their way.

The fate of the two men did not become known until Mexican prospectors searching for mineral, came upon them. The bodies then were fearfully decomposed. Lying beside them was the dog. The animal had been shot by the Indians but not killed.

Soldiers After Them.

When the outrage became known at Monteruma the prefect at once took active measures against the Indians. Soldiers were ordered into the Oputo country to the number of 125 and under the personal command of the prefect have begun a campaign against all the Yaquis in that section, bellicent or otherwise. The Yaquis in that country have in the main been employed at the pulque distilleries. All these will be rounded up if possible and deported from the country.

A Yaqui outrage in a section of Sonora that heretofore has been free of such trouble has naturally caused great uneasiness and hundreds of Mexican farmers and prospectors have flocked into Oputo within the last few days.

The story of the murder is confirmed here by Dr. E. J. Ackerman, who practices at Oputo and at the mining camps through that section.

The governor is taking a rest this afternoon and will be ready for business bright and early Monday next.

Miss Edna Condon and Miss Edna Boyd entertained a party of young lady friends at their residence on Griffin street last evening. Music was the principal amusement of the evening and dainty refreshments were served. Those present in addition to the hostesses were Mrs. Estelle Carrier, Mrs. A. S. Moore, and the Misses Pettit, Hughes, Gibson, Jacobs, Hildreth, Linbeck, Walker and Alonzo.

COUNTY BOARDIS EXONERATED

By Territorial Grand Jury of Wrongdoing

FEDERAL COURT ADJOURNS

Territorial Grand Jury is Discharged After Being in Session 11 Days.

United States and territorial district courts reconvened today, Judge John R. McFie, presiding.

At 3 p. m. the territorial grand jury made its final report and was discharged. It returned 21 indictments and six no true bills today making a total of 31 indictments and 11 no true bills during the eleven days the grand jury was in session. The indictments found today were of a minor character as were those previously reported.

Exonerates County Commissioners.

In its final report the grand jury stated that it had made an investigation into the charges filed by an organization styled the Commercial Club of Santa Fe county alleging that the statutes of the territory had been wilfully violated by the board of county commissioners in the payment of certain unsworn accounts. The grand jury found that after due investigation while there may have been technical violations of the law in not having the accounts verified there was no intent to defraud and that the accounts so paid were just debts. This, it would seem is a complete vindication of the board of county commissioners and the probate clerk who is ex-officio clerk of the board.

The grand jury specified in its final report several of the accounts in which it is alleged overcharges had been made which, on the contrary, were found to be less than the amount actually permissible by law.

Among the accounts investigated and which it was claimed were overpaid were those of ex-Commissioner Jose Leon Madril, since deceased, and Commissioner Jose I. Rolbal. The grand jury found that Commissioner Madril instead of charging mileage at the rate of thirty miles from Gallup to this city had returned the mileage at 25 miles, and further that five cents per mile was paid instead of six cents as is allowed by law. It also found that these two commissioners had not charged any mileage at all for some of the meetings of the board which they had attended.

The reports of the various sub-committees which examined the several county offices and buildings were submitted in connection with the general report. The sub-committees reported that they found the county records in excellent condition. A previous grand jury having recommended that certain improvements be made to the court house, this recommendation was incurred in and it was suggested that the improvements be made as soon as practicable.

Sheriff Clossen was commended for the splendid condition of the county jail, inquiry of the prisoners having revealed the fact that they were well cared for. The offices of the county treasurer and probate clerk were found to be in first class shape. The grand jury recommended that the vault in the probate clerk's office be enlarged so that all of the county records might be kept inside, and also made the suggestion that a ledger typewriter be purchased for this office such as is in use in the office of the district clerk.

The grand jury in referring to its deliberations while in secret session stated that it found the county unusually free from the greater class of crime. Judge McFie in discharging the grand jurors complimented them on the thoroughness of their work.

Aurant Sentenced to One Year.

The federal district court adjourned late this afternoon until June 5. Prior to adjournment Judge McFie sentenced Jacob Aurant who had been convicted of the larceny of a letter from the United States mails, to serve one year in the territorial penitentiary. The petit jury which sat in the trial of Aurant in returning a verdict of guilty recommended clemency, which actuated the court in imposing the minimum sentence. Attorney A. B. Renehan as counsel for the defendant filed a motion for a new trial which was overruled this afternoon and to which ruling he took exception.

Testimony was heard in the territorial district court this morning in the cases of George M. Block versus the board of county commissioners of Santa Fe county, and additional evidence will be taken Monday. The defendant is suing for judgments on defaulted coupons and bonds.

The New Mexican Printing company has ready and for sale up-to-date and correct compilations of the territorial incorporation laws, price 75 cents, of the territorial road laws, price 50 cents, and of the territorial mining laws, price 50 cents per copy. Our Lumber Upholds Us in the way of reputation, for we take care that every foot of timber that we sell is strictly as represented. Carpenters and builders come to us in the fullest confidence that our name and reputation is behind every single sale of Lumber, and that our prices are strictly honest in every particular. We are content to have our future business ruled by our past reputation
