ADDITION TO JEMEZ FOREST

Its Area Increased 197,120 Acres by Proclamation

INCLUDES VALUABLE TIMBER

Important Body of Yellow Pine Added to Already Extensive Reserve.

Washington, May 1.—The President has just signed a proclamation adding 197,120 acres of land to the Jemez National Forest in the north-central part of New Mexico. This addition is located in Sandoval county on the southwest side of the forest and covers a large part of the headwaters of the Rio Puerco river and the mesa country lying west of the stream and including the mesa De Cuba and portions of the Selita Blanca.

The addition puts an important body of yellow pine timber under forest management. Much of this timberland will average 4,000 feet per acre and it is estimated that the addition contains altogether approximately 35,000,000 board feet of saw timber. The remainder of the addition outside of the yellow pine area is covered with dense stands of juniper and pinon which will average 10 cords per acre. This pinon and cedar constitutes some of the best of its kind in the territory.

Protect Headwaters of Rio Puerco.

Besides its importance from a timber standpoint, this addition is also essential to the forest on account of the necessity of protecting the headwaters of the Rio Puerco. A reservoir has been proposed on the Rio Puerco, near Casa Salazar, which will bring under cultivation large areas of valuable agricultural land.

At the present time the watershed of the Rio Puerco has been badly injured by sheep, particularly on account of the migration of large bands up and down the valley, which has resulted in the country washing badly, with great damage to the fertile land in the valleys through the formation of deep arroyos. By the proper regulation of grazing, much of this harmful erosion could be prevented without any very great reduction in the number of sheep occupying the range, because most of the damage is done by improper handling of the stock, instead of by the presence of an excessive number. The interests of the stockmen will be given very careful consideration and a strong effort will be made to regulate the use of the range in a way which will be beneficial to them.

Barren of Settlement.
Because of an almost total lack of water through the greater part of this locality there is practically no settlement, except immediately along the Rio Puerco in the southern portion of the addition.

The chief industry in this locality consists of grazing sheep and goats both during the winter and summer. The numbers are largest when there is sufficient snow for watering purposes.

FIGHT OVER A LAND GRANT

Hearing Now in Progress at Las Cruces Before Special Commissioner From Washington.

Las Cruces, N. M., May 1.—A hearing has been begun here before W. M. The occasion for the hearing is the request of the owners of the Brazito tract for a patent on the land contained in it. A patent has already been issued on the territory known as the Santo Tomas grant.

Los Angeles, May 1.—O. A. Wideman, an attorney of this city and A. P. Sanger, also of this city, were arrested yesterday charged with attempted murder. The guests of the Hollenbeck Hotel were startled late in the afternoon by a pistol shot in one of the rooms of the hotel. Officers broke open the door and Dr. W. M. Bell, one of the occupants of the room was arrested. He explained, however, that two men had attempted to make him sign a deed giving his wife all his property, valued at $100,000, and upon his refusal they attempted to kill him. The alleged assailants were then arrested. Bell says that through the machinations of Sanger and Wideman he has been estranged from his wife. Bell owns much property in El Paso, Texas.

"FIRE EATER" DAVIS SPOUTS

Delivers Wild Harangue in U. S. Senate

ASSAILS TRUSTS AND PRESS

Speech of Arkansawian Puts Those of "Pitchfork Ben" in the Shade.

Washington, May 1.—In the Senate today Senator Jeff Davis of Arkansas moved to discharge the committee on judiciary from further consideration of his bill "for the suppression of trusts, pools and combinations of capital." He spoke for about two hours reading much from a typewritten copy which he said he had prepared in advance "that no intemperate language might escape his lips."

Senator Davis roundly denounced the trusts and said that Rockefeller and Morgan should be indicted for treason. He also paid his respects to the press saying: "Let the scavengers of plutocracy howl; truth, God's living truth, where are its defenders? The miserable travesties upon noble manhood, postgraduates in all the arts of slander and defamation, I challenge the subsidized press. The people know your designs and spurn your pretenses whether under show of argument or more servile hypocricies. Go you damnable lumps of pelf and greed, I defy your taunts. Tear to fragments my political career if it comport with your execrable will. Stifle and distort my every utterance. Not satisfied, if such be your brutal frenzy, lash my poor form into insensibility. Then if it be your further pleasure gnaw from my stiffening bones every vestige of quivering flesh. Drag then, if you want what remains of me into the filth and vermin of your foul dens and burn it upon the altar of Baal or better it before friendly winds of reason to your betters, the people of this land."

There a senator might have said with the people? es, man, illustrious servants of the people, have lifted up honest voices here and elsewhere against the march of plutocracy to fall ambushed and politically assassinated by whom? By the trusts wearing masks. Ah, sir, newspaper masks, but, Mr. President, insignificant as I am, if my political career be marked, let me sharpen their blade, for I will be there at the appointed hour, and while here only God can stay my voice in behalf of organized labor and the yeomanry of America."

QUIET MAY DAY IN NEW ENGLAND

Dull Conditions Responsible For Absence of Disorderly Demonstrations.

Boston, May 1.—May day in New England usually marked by industrial disturbances was this year one of the most peaceful on record. This was due in part to the dull conditions of business and the consequent over-supply in the labor market. The only strikes of magnitude in this section this spring, those in the granite industry during March and April, which involved nearly 10,000 men, have been adjusted in several places, the strikers returning to work today. In the textile industry in New England about 40 per cent of the machinery is idle which has the effect of keeping about 100,000 operatives idle or on short time. In the cotton goods and cotton yarn mills about 40 per cent of the spindles are stopped. The cotton cloth business continues poor and cotton yarn is in little demand. The indications point to a general curtailment during the summer months.

BATTLESHIP FLEET ANCHORS AT DELMONTE

Delmonte, Calif., May 1.—The Atlantic battleship fleet arrived at Monterey today and anchored off the city at six o'clock this morning. A great crowd gathered along the shore line even at this early hour but the misty atmosphere prevented a good view of the long line of war ships until they entered the anchorage ground. A varied program of field sports, boxing bouts, baseball games and dancing has been arranged for the enlisted men, while the officers will be lavishly entertained socially.

DOG HELPED MASTER SUICIDE

Attacked Men Who Attempted to Save Him

BIT WOULD-BE RESCUERS

When Owner Sought Death in Canal Canine Fought Off Those Who Interfered.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 1.—After two attempts early today to commit suicide Henry P. Turpin, aged 32 years, finally succeeded in drowning himself in the old Pennsylvania canal at Steelton, near here. He spent the night in drinking. Early this morning accompanied by a vicious bull terrier he went to the canal and plunged in. Two men saw him and made an attempt to rescue him but the dog sprang at them biting one man on the wrist. The dog was thrown aside and held by another man who appeared upon the scene while the other two men swam to Turpin and dragged him out.

Rescued a Second Time.
Later Turpin returned to the canal and again jumped in. Another attempt was made by two men to reach him but the dog attacked them and bit each severely. Once more Turpin was rescued and the men telephoned for the police. Before one arrived Turpin, with the assistance of his faithful bull dog, got away from his rescuers and made a third and successful attempt to end his life.

Finally Drowned Himself.
Once more the men attempted to follow him into the water but the dog chased them from the edge of the canal. One succeeded in jumping into the stream but the dog followed and attacked him in the water. Finally, several officers arrived and scared off the dog by shooting but in the meantime Turpin had drowned. His father committed suicide ten years ago.

FAVORABLE REPORT ON IMPORTANT BILL

Delegate Andrews Succeeds in Having Private Land Court Measure Amended.

Washington, May 1.—Delegate W. H. Andrews has secured a favorable report from the House committee on private land claims, on the Andrews bill amending the private land court bill which is generally known as the small holdings bill, with the following amendment:

Provided: That the extension hereinafter granted shall not apply to lands within the limits of a confirmed grant or embraced in any entry completed under the public land laws prior to filing of a claim hereunder; nor shall its provisions extend to persons holding under assignments made after March 3rd, 1901.

The committee in its report says: "The necessity for and advisability of legislation of this character is based upon representations by residents of New Mexico that in certain instances some of the poorer classes of people of New Mexico are residing upon small tracts of unsurveyed land which at the time of the application of the law of 1901, were included in land grants which have since been declared invalid, and these people find their homes to be upon public domain, and they have no way by which to acquire title except by application of the homestead laws which, in most cases, would involve a greater expense than would be justified by the small amount of land secured. These people are usually hard-working and frugal citizens and their homes are humble but they have come down to them by descent for generations, and as the law proposed to be enacted, provides that they must show continuous ownership by occupation for twenty years and as the title in the grant was not questioned at the time of the former application of this law it is believed that the extension of the provisions of this law for one year will be an act of justice to the beneficiaries."

This bill was referred to the secretary of the interior and he reported favorably on the legislation.

JAPANESE CRUISER MASS OF WRECKAGE

Divers Unable to Get Out Bodies of Ill-Fated Sailors Owing to the Weather.

Tokio, May 1.—An official report from the Japanese cruiser Matsushima sunk by an explosion in the harbor of Makang, Pescadoes Island, April 30, says that divers have discovered a huge rent on the port side. MISSOURI WILL BE FOR BRYAN

Representative De Armond Says That State Will Send Instructed Delegation to Denver.

Representative Hughes of New Jersey also spoke. He declared there are probably 1,000 Democratic voters in his state who would oppose Bryan if nominated. The uninstructed delegation he said may support the Nebraska in the Denver convention.

CONTEST ELECTION OF SCHOOL DIRECTORS

A contest suit has been filed in the district court for Rio Arriba county by Daniel Velarde, D. Martinez, Jr., and Eliseo Lujan, contestants, versus Hermenegildo Martinez, Gregorio Gutierrez and Daniel Romero. The contest is over the school election in school district No. 2.

The plaintiffs' grounds for contest as alleged in the petition are that at the election held in said district twenty-nine voters in all voted and that of said number of votes so cast only nine were legally qualified to vote at such election.

The contestants also claim that only nine votes as above mentioned were taxpayers in the school district at the time of the election and therefore they only had a right to vote.

Attorney Benjamin M. Read of this city is counsel for the contestants.

BANDITS LOOT EXPRESS CAR

Daring Hold-Up on Pennsylvania Road

SECURE LARGE SUM

Reports Says Booty Amounts to $80,000 But Officials Deny This.

Columbus, Ohio, May 1.—The St. Louis Express on the Pennsylvania railroad, which was held up last night ten miles west of Pittsburgh, arrived here early today only 40 minutes late. The train crew confirmed the story of a hold-up by two men at Walker's Mill and say the bandits escaped with four sealed bags containing mail. They state that a number of express packages and a large quantity of gold bullion were also taken but do not know the value of the property. The Adams Express company officials here refuse to make a statement.

Bound and Gagged Messenger.

Noah H. Roshon, the express messenger, stated that two men entered his car east of Walker's Mill and covered him with revolvers. Then they tied him with ropes brought with them and rifled the express car. As the train approached Walker's Mill they pulled the signal cord and stopped the train. They made their escape as the train slowed down.

Conductor L. L. Lafferty was attracted to the express car by the signal and found Roshon helpless. He learned that three bags had been rifled by the hold-ups. What the contents is a matter of course even to the officials of the express company at this time. It is believed, however, that the boxes are of great value. These are some of the details of the robbery.

Pittsburg, May 1.—Following the robbery of the express car last night the St. Louis Express of the Pennsylvania railroad which occurred about ten miles from this city. All efforts to locate the money so far has failed as neither the railroad or express company officials are inclined to enlighten the public regarding this fact. M. B. Slater, agent for the Adams Express company at the Union Station, said today that the amount taken is not near $80,000 as reported or even half that sum, although he stated it was not known exactly how much money was taken.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF SANTA FE COUNTY.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every postoffice in the Territory, and as a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the Southwest.

NEW MEXICO'S SPLENDID FINANCIAL RECORD.

Yesterday Territorial Treasurer J. Howard Vaughn received eleven bids from bankers in the largest cities of the country for the purchase of territorial bonds validated by act of Congress amounting to $75,000; namely, $25,000 for the New Mexico Military Institute at Roswell; $25,000 for the Territorial Insane Asylum at Las Vegas, and $25,000 for the College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts at Mesilla Park. This makes a premium of a little over 3 per cent on the bond issue.

The sale of the bonds was advertised in the Santa Fe Daily New Mexican and in financial papers in New York and in Chicago. From the number of the bids it is fair to presume that the banking fraternity was reached and that the advertisements

THE PEOPLE AND THE ROOSEVELT ADMINISTRATION.

The Washington Post in commenting upon the straw vote recently taken by the editor of the monthly magazine, "Success," on the ten questions of great moment and which are now discussed in the country at large, discusses this editorially in a most interesting and timely way.

Fair minded and well posted citizens all over the country should carefully study and heed the results arrived at by the plan of "Success." It is remarkable and a strong indication that the people at large approve of the policies of the Roosevelt administration and that regardless of politics Roosevelt is really the first choice for the nomination as the Republican candidate for the presidency next June; that Taft is the second; and that the other Republican candidates mentioned are way in the rear.

The vote has just closed and it therefore may be safely concluded that it shows public sentiment as it is now. The editorial is lengthy but in the very nature of the subject it must be. Says the Post:

The editor of Success recently submitted a set of current questions to 12,000 life subscribers to that magazine, and received about 10,000 answers. The opinions came from citizens of all ages and of many different walks of life, in every part of the United States, of all political ages. The questions were mailed January 25th, and the answers received up to March 1 have been tabulated and published.

"The first question was: 'Should the government exercise a stronger control over corporations doing an interstate business?' The affirmative votes on this question amounted to 9,146 and the negative to 209. The second question, relating to the reporting of interstate business to the government, was answered in about the same way, the vote standing 9,101 ayes and 244 noes.

"Do you believe that these reforms should be carried out, even if in doing this there should be a risk of temporarily unsettling business conditions?" This question was answered affirmatively by 9,007 persons, and negatively by 219. The next question was whether the subscribers would support the President and Congress in carrying out corporate reforms, even if it meant personal sacrifice in the form of money panics and restriction of bank credits. The answer to this was in the affirmative by 9,137 to 175.

"The greatest difference of opinion was on the fifth question: 'Do you believe in the policy of permanently retaining the Philippine Islands?' The ayes were 5,214, and the noes 3,394.

"The sixth question was: 'Would you approve liberal appropriations by Congress for the upbuilding of the American navy for the purpose solely of properly defending our present seacoast and island possessions and of increasing our prestige among nations?' The answer to this was 8,218 ayes and 1,083 noes.

"The seventh question asked the subscriber whether he approved the policy of expending vast sums for the development of national resources, such as the Panama Canal, improvement of waterways, irrigation of arid lands, etc. The affirmative votes were 9,050, and the negative 266.

"Do you, on the whole, approve the administration of President Roosevelt?" was the eighth question. On this side the vote stood: Ayes, 8,648; noes, 669. The writers did not state their political belief, and the editor remarks that he had no means of knowing the political affiliations of the subscribers.

"The ninth question was: 'Who would be your first and second choice for the presidency during the next four years?' The answers are tabulated as follows:

First Sec.

George Gray 13 4
"Two extraordinary facts," remarked the editor, "are indicated by these letters; one, that strict party lines are breaking down to an unprecedented extent, and another, that there is a strong feeling that President Roosevelt, as one writer has tersely and pointedly put it, 'has no right to desert us'."

"Another fact brought out by this inquiry confirms the statement repeatedly made by The Post: 'That the people as a whole are in favor of a big navy and the development of the national resources on a mighty scale, and are not in sympathy with legislators who fail to appreciate the immensity of this nation or to keep step with its swift progress.'"

"The political questions asked and answered by the magazine subscribers are subject to a thousand qualifications, and every person scanning the figures will have his own conclusions to draw. Assuming the count to have been fairly made, the result is worth the attention of the delegates to the Chicago convention."

BUSINESS CONDITIONS IMPROVING.

The business of the country is recovering and the outlook for a great volume of it for the summer and fall months is most encouraging. Hoarded money is being returned to the channels of trade and manufacturing establishments are assuming activity all over the country. It is apparent that the coming presidential campaign will have no destructive or evil influence, despite the political activity and campaign work that will be uppermost in the minds and actions of the citizens of the country. During the next six months business will improve and prosperity will again reign in Uncle Sam's dominions.

Discussing the favorable omens for great business activity this year the St. Louis Times says that the placing of orders for 45,000 tons of steel rails by the Eastern Vanderbilt line does not suggest that railroad improvement is to receive the usual setback of a presidential year. The uncertainties of politics no longer affect solid business interests. They know that the country is inherently all right and that no more presidents can upset it.

Prices, too, are stiffening. A fine indication. Money is coming out of its hiding place and is seeking investment. By the law of supply and demand prices go up, for the simple reason that if four men want a thing where but one wanted it there is sure to result the competition that is not only the life of trade, as the popular phrase has it, but the reason for higher prices.

So we find ourselves, on the eve of a presidential campaign with none of the misgivings of last fall, none of the uncertainties that so often precede the clarion call of the statesmen and the November poll.

BE JUST TO ANDREWS.

Should the appropriation of $30,000 additional in the public building appropriation bill now pending for the federal building at Albuquerque become law the appropriation for the public building there will be $130,000 which is certainly a very fine gift from Congress for any town. The credit for this will belong primarily to Delegate W. H. Andrews; the federal building after its erection will prove of much benefit to the town and aid its prosperity very much. The New Mexican hopes there are citizens in the Duke City who have sufficient fairness and justice to acknowledge the benefits secured by Delegate Andrews for their municipality. If there are such they should take time by the forelock and put a stop to the dirty libel the criminal slanders and the false charges for many months published in their city by the Albuquerque morning muckraker and circulated by the tax-dodging gang behind the sheet. If there are not sufficient good citizens who believe in fairness and justice to do so, the people of the Territory should know it and the fact should be cast broadcast over New Mexico that the people may know and act accordingly. The good people of Albuquerque will make prestige for their town and benefit it by following this suggestion. The people of the territory as a whole are friendly to them but they will not and cannot stand any more of the dirty, cowardly yellow sheet work that characterized the campaign of two years ago and that went on for a year afterwards and especially during the legislative session of 1907 and for another year.

The Clovis News discusses the forthcoming Republican nominations for candidate for delegate to the Sixty-first Congress and mentions two candidates should Delegate W. H. Andrews not be in the field. Right here it is well to say that the delegate is in the field first, last and all the time. Says the News:

"Charles A. Spies the 'war horse' from San Miguel has been freely spoken of by territorial papers as a probable candidate for delegate in the event that Andrews does not agree to again make the race.

"Republicans in many sections of the territory will strongly support Judge Edward A. Mann for the nomination as delegate to Congress in case that Andrews does not ask for a renomination. Judge Mann of the Sixth district is especially popular in eastern New Mexico."

The New Mexican Printing company will do your job work with neatness and dispatch.

RHEUMATISM

BLOOD FILLED WITH URIC ACID

Rheumatism comes from an excess of uric acid in the blood. This acid circulating through the system acts as an irritant to the different muscles, nerves, bones and tissues of the body, and produces the inflammation and swelling of the joints and the sharp, cutting pains characteristic of the disease. When the blood is overburdened with uric acid it continually grows weaker and more acid, and poorer in nourishing qualities. Then Rheumatism becomes chronic, and not only a painful, but a formidable and dangerous disease. Sometimes the heart is attacked, the general health is affected, and the oils and fluids which lubricate the muscles and joints are destroyed by the acid matter which the blood is constantly depositing in them; the muscles shrink and lose their elasticity, the coating of the joints becomes hard and thick, and often the sufferer is left a hopeless cripple. S. S. S. attacks the disease at its head, goes down into the circulation, and by neutralizing and removing the uric acid from the circulation and building up the thin, acid blood, cures Rheumatism permanently. S. S. S. changes the sour, acid-burdened blood to a rich, healthy stream which quiets the excited nerves, eases the throbbing, painful muscles and joints, and filters out of the system the irritating matter which is causing the pain and inflammation. Begin the use of S. S. S. now and get the cause out of your blood so that the cold and dampness of Winter will not keep you in constant pain and misery. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free.

TENTH ANNIVERSARY OF DEWEY'S VICTORY

Memorable Battle of Manila Bay,
Fought Just Exactly Ten Years Ago Today.

(By Judge A. L. Morrison.)
In his "History of Our Navy," John R. Spears gives the following description of the first naval victory of the recent war with Spain:

"The American squadron, consisting of the Olympia, the Baltimore, the Raleigh, the Boston, the Concord and the Petrel, at break of day lay seven miles due west from Manila city and perhaps an equal distance northwest of Cavite, a sandy hook which partly encloses a small light in the coast where were lying the ships of the Spanish admiral. Not a Spanish ship had steam up, why should a Spanish admiral doubt the ability of the men in the forts down the bay to stop any Yankee squadron? Moreover, there were the forts on Cavite point with their beautiful Krupp guns to aid the Spanish ships as well as to guard the naval arsenal behind them, while over to the east, seven miles away on the outskirts of Manila were still other forts with Krupp guns and the Yankee squadron must needs get within range if a fight were really intended. The Yankees had passed the forts below without doubt.

"It was Sunday morning, May 1st, 1898, at 5:15 o'clock, precisely, that the Spaniards opened fire with a big gun in a Manila city fort. Our sailors saw a huge puff of smoke and then a big projectile dropped into the water a mile or so from the flagship Olympia. At this moment Commodore Dewey was standing on the Olympia's bridge while Fleet Captain B. M. Lambert, Executive Officer C. P. Rees and the Navigator Lieutenant C. G. Calkins were with him. Captain Gridley was obliged to go into the armor-conning tower least a chance shell might sweep the bridge and leave the ship without an officer of high rank.

"The men had already cleared away the dishes used in their light repast and had returned to their guns. The rose-light of dawn had suffused the eastern sky but a faint haze in the air curtained off the Spaniards in the harbor of Cavite, so they were wholly invisible. But Dewey knew they were there (ten fighting ships besides transports and two torpedo boats) so hoisting the Old Flag to fore and main masts and the sparker-gaff or taffrail staff of every ship, he left the transports with the McCulloch in the middle of the bay, headed the Olympia off toward the northeasterly end of the bay, swung her around in a wide arc toward Manila on the east and with his fighting squadron following him, he steamed straight for his anchored prey. A signal at the yard-arm read: 'Fire as convenient.'

"While he was yet several miles away the Spanish squadron appeared with colors up and the gunners in the Cavite forts began to fire their big guns. The Spanish ships soon joined in, but Dewey held on his way into that hall of steel without reply while his crews at their guns with set teeth waited the word in silence. At last, when a little more than two miles from the forts and anchored squadron the Olympia swerved to the right, (west) so as to pass the Spaniards broadside and then turning to the captain of the ship, Dewey said quietly: 'When you are ready you may fire Gridley,' and Gridley passed the order to the eager gunners in the Olympia's forward turret. The two long eight-inch rifles there were already trained on the Spanish flagship, and as the order was read they made quick reply. Two darting flashes in the midst of a rolling cloud of smoke were seen and with a shivering roar the projectiles were hurled at the doomed Spaniards.

"Almost instantly, it seemed like an echo, came the sounds of the other ships of the Yankee squadron. It was at exactly 5:35 o'clock that the first guns on the Olympia were fired. Our ships were slowed down as they approached the enemy to give our gunners a better chance. The headway was just about right to carry the guns of the leader clear of the smoke they made and seeing this and that the Americans were now well within range, the Spaniards worked their guns with redoubled fury. Passing the anchored squadron at a range of a mile and a half, Dewey led his ships in front of the forts on Cavite point and then turning slowly about went back at them with the fresh batteries to starboard. He had given the Spaniards such punishment as they had never dreamed of but they were fighting with the desperation of cornered cats and their fire seemed undiminished.

"Indeed, as our squadron drew near once more, a huge mine-field was exploded a thousand yards or so in advance of the Olympia and then when it was seen that the mine had failed to do its work the flagship Reina Christina slipped her cable and steamed out to meet the Olympia rail against rail. But the guns of almost our entire squadron were turned upon her and no flesh and blood could face the hell of bursting steel that was at that moment hurled upon her. Her sides were crushed in, her men melted away from their guns and turning her about, Admiral Montojo headed her back to the shelter of the bay. But just as she turned her stern fairly toward our squadron one of the clear-eyed gunners in the Olympia's forward turret let drive his eight-inch rifle. It raked the Reina Christina from stern to bow, killing and wounding sixty men (her captain was among the killed,) and started a fire in her wood-work that could not be extinguished.

"She had come out to overwhelm the Olympia and within ten minutes was sent back a flaming wreck from which every man able to do so, was fleeing for his life. But although he had lost his best ship, Admiral Montojo would not yet surrender. Lowering a boat in the midst of the battle he rowed away with his flag to the Isla de Cuba. Reaching this ship in safety he signalled to two small torpedo boats to go out and do the work in which he had failed. A moment later they came flying at full speed straight for the Olympia. In spite of all that could be done, they arrived at a range of 800 yards. But there their career ended. The secondary batteries, the murderous rapid fire six-pounders, took up the fight, the surface of the ocean burst into foam under the hail of shot about the doomed boats and then a cloud of white smoke or steam arose suddenly from the leader and in an instant she sank out of sight with her entire crew. Steaming on to the east our squadron turned back to pass the enemy a third time. They found the Antonio de Ulloa in flames but her crew were still firing their guns; but she sank under the renewed fire of our ships.

"Stripped naked to the waist, bare-headed and barefooted, and with the perspiration streaking their bodies, our men were working their guns with regularity and precision, while the enemy fought back in a frenzy. The Castillo was now spouting flames from every hatch. Now the signal to cease firing fluttered aloft on the Olympia and she led the way out beyond the range of the big guns and stopped. The crews from below came up on deck, gasping for air, but with one glance at the burning wrecks off Cavite Point they forgot their trouble and with their hands in the air or clasping one another about the neck, they found time to cheer and shout for the Old Flag above them.

"Breakfast was served and partaken of as enjoyably as if they were engaged in a game of baseball. After three hours rest, the commodore concluded it was time to finish the morning's work and when that was done there was no Spanish fleet left."

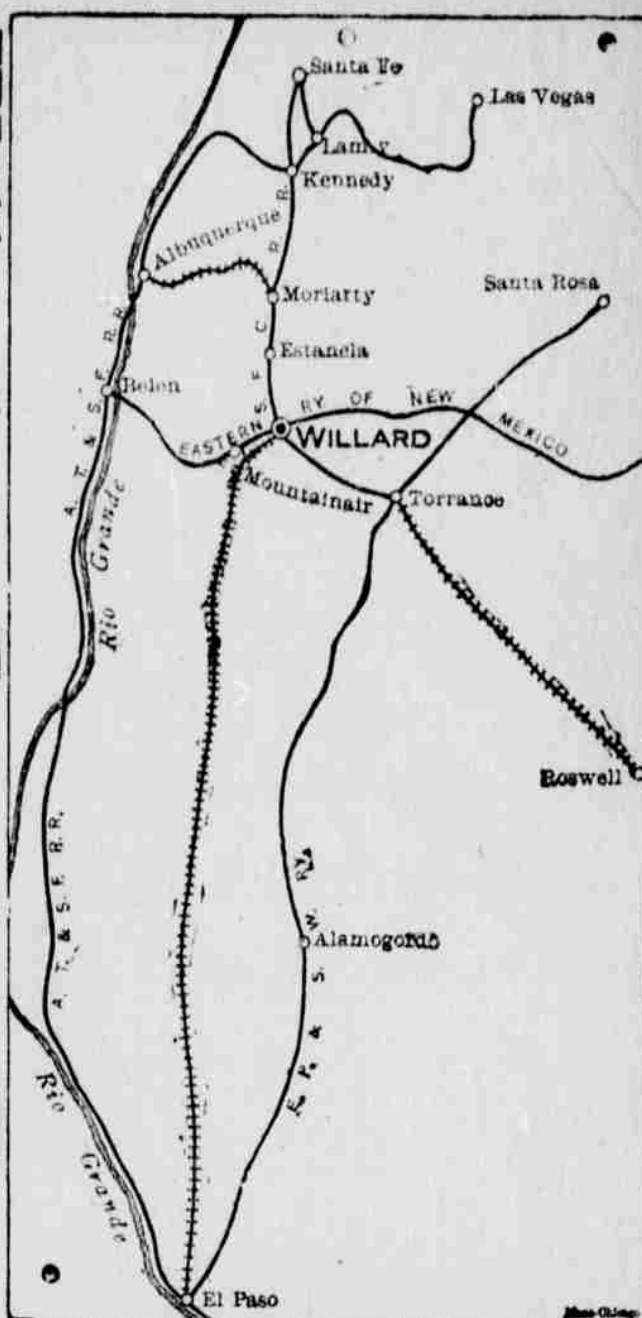

The Spaniards lost the following vessels: Sunk: Reina Christina, Castillo, Antonio de Ulloa; burned: Don Juan de Austria, Isla de Luzon, Isla de Cuba, General Lezo, Marquis del Duero, El Correo, Velasco and Isla de Mindinao; captured: Rapido and Hercules tugs and several small launches. The Spanish loss in men were 381 killed and wounded; the American loss was 8 men slightly wounded and no dead at all. One of the results of the battle was the loss of the entire Philippine Archipelago which had been in possession of Spain for over three hundred years. Surely this was enough glory for one day.

For a burn or scald apply Chamberlain's Salve. It will allay the pain almost instantly and quickly heal the injured parts. For sale by all druggists.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, I have found the cure for all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. These sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

The Saving Habit

If you are thrifty, you have some of your money left over. The extra money is the foundation for future riches, if you will only persistently save it. What if it does only amount to a few dimes or nickels a day—there are going to be a great many days in your life and these dimes and nickels will grow into a good large sum.

The opportunity may come, when a few hundred dollars might change your whole financial condition; Might mean buying an interest in some growing business; Might give you a chance to grasp your next opportunity.

AND WHAT IS THE USE OF ALL THIS?

Why it just means making a man of you.
Making you free to do as you wish.
Making you and your family happy and contented.

The Most Common Cause of Suffering Rheumatism causes more pain and suffering than any other disease for the reason that it is the most common of all ills, and it is certainly gratifying to sufferers to know that Chamberlain's Pain Balm will afford relief and make rest and sleep possible. In many cases the relief from pain which is at first temporary, has become permanent, while in old people subject to chronic rheumatism, often brought on by dampness or changes in the weather, a permanent cure cannot be expected; the relief from pain which this liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost. 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by all druggists.

FRUIT BLASTED IN ESPANOLA VALLEY

Temperature Sunday Last Dropped to 30 Degrees and Ice Formed—Loss Will Be Heavy.

(Special Correspondence of the New Mexican.)

Abiquiu, N. M., May 1.—On Sunday last the temperature dropped to thirty degrees in the Espanola and Chama valleys, freezing ice one-eighth of an inch in thickness. Apricots were as large as hazel nuts and the crop was completely destroyed. The early varieties of peaches, pears and plums were also blasted. The late varieties of fruit do not seem badly injured. Orchardists will suffer a heavy financial loss for these valleys supply yearly a vast quantity of fruit. Last year no crop was gathering owing to killing frosts late in the season.

Mr. John Riha of Vining, Ia., says, "I have been selling DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills for about a year and they give better satisfaction than any pill I ever sold." Sold by The Ireland Pharmacy.

WAYNE BRAZEL'S TRIAL POSTPONED

Slayer of "Pat" Garrett Will Not Be Tried Until the October Term of Court.

Las Cruces, N. M., May 1.—The trial of Wayne Brazel for the killing of "Pat" Garrett has been postponed to the October term of court.

The postponement was by consent of both the prosecution and defense, as it is not customary to try the defendant in a murder case at the same term in which he is indicted. Brazel is out on the $10,000 bond that was provided for at the preliminary trial. It is probable that Judge A. B. Fall will defend Brazel.

Bad Attack of Dysentery Cured. "An honored citizen of this town was suffering from a severe attack of dysentery. He told a friend if he could obtain a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, he felt confident of being cured, he having used this remedy in the West. He was told that I kept it in stock and lost no time in obtaining it, and was promptly cured," says M. J. Leach, druggist, of Wolcott, Vt. For sale by all druggists.

A WOMAN'S BACK.

The Aches and Pains Will Disappear if the Advice of This Santa Fe Citizen is Followed.

A woman's back has many aches and pains. Most times 'tis the kidneys' fault. Backache is really kidney ache; That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure it.

Many Santa Fe women know this. Read what one has to say about it: Miss Adela Arias, living at 106 Griffin street, Santa Fe, N. M., says: "The use of Doan's Kidney Pills in my case brought quick and thorough relief from kidney trouble, that has bothered me for some time. I suffered from a dull, aching in the small of my back, the attacks always being aggravated by colds. In addition to this I was often distressed by headaches and dizzy spells. My attention was called to Doan's Kidney Pills about three years ago and I procured a box at Ireland's Pharmacy. Their use proved all the claims made for them. Off and on since whenever occasion has required, I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and the quick and positive relief always obtained is what warrants my high appreciation of them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

FEARFUL TRAGEDY IN GRANT COUNTY

Jealous Husband Kills Unfaithful Wife, Fatally Shoots Her Lover Then Suicides.

Lordsburg, N. M., May 1.—Details have just reached here of a bloody tragedy at the Miser's Chest mine near Shakespeare, this county, in which two persons were killed and another probably mortally wounded. The dead are:

OLIVER GARRISON.
MRS. OLIVER GARRISON.
George Allen received two bullets from a 45-Caliber and is not expected to recover.

Jealousy and unfaithfulness appear to have been the cause of the trouble. Garrison suspecting that Allen was attempting to alienate the affections of his wife. Having apparent grounds for these suspicions, he had been keeping a careful watch on their actions for some time. Finally the crucial moment arrived, and Garrison decided that his suspicions were well founded when he discovered that his wife was making arrangements to elope with Allen. She had already packed her trunk, and as one of the ore wagons passed the house she hailed the driver and asked him to take it to Lordsburg for her.

Garrison overheard the request and was immediately seized with a fit of rage and jealousy. Frantic at the discovery of the plot, he hastily secured his 45 caliber Colt's and getting within close range of his wife he fired, the first shot killing her instantly. He then rushed into the room occupied by Allen and quickly fired two shots at him, both shots taking effect in the human target.

Seeing Allen fall over apparently in death's agony, he secured a piece of paper and pencil, sat down and calmly wrote a note stating the cause of the trouble. He took the note outside and handed it to a bystander with the request that it be given to the first officer who arrived. He then re-entered the house, gun in hand, and retiring to his own apartment he turned the weapon on himself, inflicting a wound from which death resulted in a very few moments.

Those who first brought word of the trouble were not aware of the exact state of affairs, as no one had the temerity to venture into the house after the first two shots were fired, and consequently it was not until after the arrival of Deputy Sheriff McGrath from this place that the full details became known. The deputy fearlessly entered the house and discovered the lifeless bodies of Garrison and his wife weltering in pools of blood in their room, while in another room lay Allen, mortally wounded.

Allen is still alive. Surgeons have succeeded in extracting one of the bullets but are unable to locate the other one. Latest reports are that (g)he is not expected to live.

Biliousness and Constipation.
For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feelings at once, strengthen the digestive functions, purify the stomach, liver and blood, helping the system to do its work naturally.—Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala. REV. E. W. MEANY DIES IN CALIFORNIA

Former Rector of Church of the Holy Faith in This City Succumbs to Stroke of Paralysis.

News has just been received of the death of Rev. E. W. Meany, who for eight years was rector of the Church of the Holy Faith in this city, which occurred on Monday last at his home in Ontario, California, a suburb of Los Angeles.

Rev. Meany's death was quite sudden. He assisted at the altar and preached a sermon on Easter Sunday in the Episcopal church at Ontario. Shortly afterwards he had a severe stroke of paralysis. He rallied from this, however, regained consciousness and the attending physicians had hopes of his ultimate recovery but on Monday morning of this week he suffered a second stroke which proved fatal.

When the end came he was surrounded by his beloved wife and family and death was peaceful and without pain. The funeral was held at Ontario on Wednesday and burial was in the cemetery there.

A Native of Florida. Edward Wilcox Meany was born in Tallahassee, Florida, about sixty-five years ago and was a descendant of one of the oldest families of the state. He received a public school education in his native state and also completed a course at the University of Oxford, England. He was ordained a rector of the Protestant Episcopal church. He came to Santa Fe twenty-six years ago as rector of the Church of Holy Faith and held that high and honorable position for eight years, thereafter going to Prescott, Arizona, and from Prescott to Los Angeles, California.

He was a very fluent and convincing preacher, a finely educated man, being a thorough Greek and Latin scholar and spoke French fluently. He was a conscientious, kind-hearted and true Christian gentleman.

He is survived by his widow, two sons and three daughters. Many members of the congregation of the Church of the Holy Faith who are still residents of Santa Fe and belonging to the church, as well as citizens generally who knew him and his family during their sojourn in this city, remember him most kindly and are greatly shocked at the news of his sudden demise.

ALL FOR BENEFIT OF NEW THRATER

"David Garrick" By Santa Fe Dramatic Club at Opera House Tonight Will Be Hit of the Season.

Tonight the theater-going people of Santa Fe are offered a rare treat by local talent. "David Garrick," a comedy in three acts, which will be presented at the opera house by the Santa Fe Dramatic Club for the benefit of the Elks opera house fund, promises to be the hit of the local theatrical season.

Last night the dramatic club attended the rehearsal in full costumes and the stage was arranged as it will be tonight when the curtain rises. The costumes are elaborate, the stage arrangement grand, the characters in the play know their parts perfectly and act almost as well as professionals.

The scene is laid in London, England. Ada Ingot, the only daughter of a rich London millionaire, falls in love with David Garrick, a noted actor; her father invites the actor to his house and proposes to pay him a large sum of money providing the actor will leave the stage and the country, but this Garrick refuses to do. Ingot desires Miss Ada to marry, Chivy, a rich cousin and who Ada despises, Garrick suggests that the father of the girl invite him to dinner, promising to cure Ada of her serious infatuation. After dinner the actor plays the part of a drunkard and a gambler and insults other guests in the house and the girl becomes disgusted with him. Later, Chivy appears intoxicated and reveals to Ingot, in Ada's presence, that Garrick had confessed to him the trick he had played, and had accepted a challenge to fight a duel with a duke, who had spoken disrespectfully of the merchant and his daughter. Convinced of the actor's love for her, Ada, hurries to his lodging to avert the duel and is surprised there by the arrival of her father and Chivy. David Garrick appears and illustrates the nobility of his character in such manner that the millionaire merchant discards Chivy as his son-in-law and gives his daughter's hand to the noble actor.

Mrs. H. D. Terrell as Ada Ingot, and A. B. Renahan as David Garrick have the leading parts. They are expected to capture the admiration of the audience tonight.

The show will be repeated tomorrow night.

LARGE FUNERAL AT ANTON CHICO

Obsequies of Late Roman Casaus Who Met Death in Accident, Attended By Hundreds.

Las Vegas, N. M., May 1.—The funeral of Roman Casaus, who fell from a wind mill at his home at Anton Chico and broke his neck, was the largest ever held in that town, friends and relatives attending for miles around. The father and brother of the deceased, Manuel and Pelagio Casaus, of Salado, were present.

The services were conducted by Rev. Gatignol, parish priest of Anton Chico. There were eighteen pallbearers. The deceased leaves a wife and five children, the oldest being twelve years.

Mr. Casaus climbed to the top of the wind mill, thirty feet above the ground, to oil the wheel. He was seized with a dizzy spell, while seated on the edge and slowly fell backward, lighting head first in a tank containing three feet of water.

He was taken from the water by Jose Sanchez and lived for an hour afterward, although his neck was broken and he was unconscious.

He was a wealthy sheepman and was 45 years of age at the time of his death.

Put This Stove in Your Kitchen

It is wonderfully convenient to do kitchen work on a stove that's ready at the instant wanted, and out of the way the moment you're done. Such a stove is the New Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove. By using it you avoid the continuous overpowering heat of a coal fire and cook with comfort, even in dog-days. The is so constructed that it cannot add perceptibly to the heat of a room; the flame being directed up a retaining chimney to the stove top where it is needed for cooking. You can see that a stove sending out heat in but one direction would be preferable on a hot day to a stove radiating heat in all directions. The "New Perfection" keeps a kitchen uniformly comfortable. Three sizes, fully warranted. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

The Rayo Lamp is the ideal lamp for family use—safe, convenient, economical and a great light giver. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.
