On Jan. 29, Dayton Caldera, president of the National Public Administration Corporation (CORNAP), said the government plans to privatize another 160 state-run enterprises this year. In 1991, 120 of a total 351 government-owned companies were liquidated or privatized. The list of companies to be privatized this year includes the supermarket chain owned and operated by the People's Commercial Corporation (Corporacion Comercial del Pueblo- CORCOP). Earlier in January, the government sold a 49% stake in the state-run airline Aerolineas de Nicaragua (Aeronica) to the Salvadoran carrier TACA. (See Update 01/24/92 for report on recent developments concerning Aeronica.) (Basic data from ACAN-EFE, 01/29/92)
