DISASTROUS FIRE IN NEW ORLEANS

Loss Totals Two Millions of Dollars

FIREMEN WERE ON PICNIC

Flames Rage for Several Hours in Wholesale District of City.

New Orleans, Aug. 31.—Fire which broke out in the center of the commercial district here yesterday afternoon swept over portions of three blocks destroying a large number of wholesale houses, manufacturing houses and stores and causing a loss estimated at $2,000,000. Originating at Bienville and Charles streets, the flames worked their way north as far as Conti street before the flames were finally subdued.

At the time the alarm was turned in, shortly after 3 o'clock, the firemen of the city were in the midst of their annual picnic at a suburban park and the engines and patrols responded with a mere handful of men. It was fully an hour before the department was in position to make anything like a successful fight against the fire and even the handicap against it was added to by an inadequate supply of water.

Among the establishments burned were:

Central Glass company.
George D. Scott Lighting and Electrical Instrument company.
Heidenheim, Levy and Weiss, shirt manufacturers.

Hoon and Dietz, wholesale millinery.

Kost Commission company.

Paul Geipi and Sons, wholesale liquor dealers.

New Orleans Junk company.

Isidor Keffler and company, boots and shoes.

Thomas L. Harris, wholesale liquor dealer.

MUST HAVE PARTY OF TEN TO GET SPECIAL CAR.

Territorial Secretary Nathan Jaffa, who is arranging for a special car to Torrance and a special auto to Roswell from Torrance on Thursday next, desires to announce that unless he can get ten passengers altogether he will have to give up the trip, in which event Governor Curry and himself will have to travel on the regular train. He must know by ten o'clock tomorrow morning who will be the participants, so that he can make arrangements with the railroad company. If not he will have to forego the project. Secretary Jaffa is anxious to get a party of ten together as then there will be a special car furnished and the trip will be much easier and quicker than on the regular train.

HAWAIIAN ISLANDERS ARE MAKING RAPID PROGRESS

Washington, Aug. 31.—On his recent official trip to the Hawaiian islands, Secretary of the Interior James R. Garfield discovered what he regards as two very important indications of improved conditions in those islands. One of these is a growing disposition to accept the American laws and regulations restricting Oriental immigration and the other, a willingness on the part of the owners of large tracts of land to part with a portion of their holdings to those who may desire to purchase small areas. He also found a tendency toward more diversified farming than has characterized the Hawaiian planters in the past.

NEW MEXICO BAR ASSOCIATION CONVENES IN ANNUAL SESSION

Lawyers From Every Section of the Territory Gather in Capital for the Meeting

LARGEST ATTENDED AND MOST IMPORTANT EVER HELD

Scholarly Address By Attorney General Hadley, of Missouri, Feature of Program for Opening Day—Brilliant Reception Tonight.

The best attended, and in many respects the most important meeting of the New Mexico Bar Association, was called to order this morning at 11 o'clock by President A. B. McMillan, of Albuquerque, in the beautiful hall of the House of Representatives in the Capitol. Secretary K. K. Scott was at his desk, Charles G. Ward, of Las Vegas, was appointed chairman of a temporary committee on admissions which reported favorably upon the applications for membership in hand.

Hon. Thomas B. Catron made a scholarly address of welcome in which he extended the hospitality of the city in dignified and sincere terms. He reviewed briefly the important, in fact, the predominant influence of the Bar upon the history of the world from the day of Demosthenes to the present when an attempt is to be made to curtail the power of the courts in injunction, an attempt which for the sake of the nation and true liberty, should fail. The speaker dwelt especially upon the work of members of the Bar in formulating the constitution and all state constitutions and the lead they have taken in the cause of liberty at all times. The address was a classic and will be printed in the annual proceedings of the association.

The rest of the forenoon was devoted to balloting for new members and the following were elected to membership: Charles G. Bell, of Silver City; Clarence J. Roberts, of Raton; Nuna C. Frenger, of Las Cruces; George Hunker, of Las Vegas; Harvey DuVal, of Santa Fe; D. J. Leahy, of Raton; Elmer E. Studley, of Raton; Frances J. Wright, of Silver City; H. M. Roderick, of Raton; A number of other applications will be acted upon this afternoon.

Two Scholarly Addresses.

A recess was taken until 2 o'clock this afternoon, when President A. B. McMillan delivered a timely, well thought-out address upon: "The Encroachment of the Executive Departments of Government in America." He was followed by Hon. Herbert S. Hadley, who took for his subject: "The Law of Business and the Law of Man." The Hall of Representatives was crowded and many ladies of local society were present. Both addresses of the day will be printed in full in the official proceedings of the Association.

NOTES IN PASSING

Hon. Herbert S. Hadley, attorney general of Missouri, and Republican candidate for governor of that state, who addressed the New Mexico Bar association this afternoon, had an experience on his trip from Roswell to Santa Fe yesterday via the Automobile line and Santa Fe Central Railway, similar to that of the Santa Fe Bar who made the trip to the meeting of the association at Roswell last August. He left Roswell at four o'clock yesterday morning in company with Secretary K. K. Scott of the Bar Association and R. D. Bowers of Roswell. The special automobile they occupied broke down and so did a second automobile sent to its relief and several hours were spent on the plains, before a third automobile came up. The party arrived in Torrance thirty minutes too late to catch the Santa Fe Central train and therefore had to spend Sunday in that rather warm summer resort. The local entertainment committee being notified of the plight of Santa Fe's guest of honor, arranged for a special train which brought the visitors to Santa Fe at midnight. That Mr. Hadley took the disagreeable and tiresome features of his trip rather humorously is indicated by the following exchange of telegrams between himself and A. B. Renahan of this city:

"Hon. H. S. Hadley,
"Torrance, N. M.
"I congratulate you on having so pleasant a place to stay, pending the arrival of a special train which the Bar Association is sending for you, but that will be only a caboose for at least part of the way. Go out on the plains and pass the time dove shooting and we will appreciate the doves when you come."
"A. B. RENEHAN."

"Mr. A. B. Renahan,
"Santa Fe, N. M.
"The caboose is good enough for me. I appreciate your good wishes very much. I had a good ride on the auto. Left Roswell 1 p. m., yesterday. Machine broke down. Had good wait on prairie and if there were any shooting arms in the city, for there are none in the party, I might bag a few doves and spend the haggard hours."
"HERBERT S. HADLEY."

Three memorial addresses will be delivered tomorrow forenoon before the New Mexico Bar association, as follows:

The late Judge Daniel H. McMillan, by Chief Justice William J. Mills, of Las Vegas.

Former President of the Association, William C. Wrigley, by Hon. Jeremiah Leahy of Raton.

The late Hon. William Burr Childers, by Colonel E. W. Dobson, of Albuquerque.

The New Mexico Historical Society, through its president, Hon. L. Bradford Prince, extends the visiting lawyers a very cordial invitation to visit the rooms of the society in the Governor's Palace. The rooms are open from 10 to 12 a. m. and from 2 to 4 p. m. If these hours are not convenient the rooms will be opened at such times as are convenient.

The visitors to the Capital City this week, especially the lawyers, are invited to make themselves at home in the rooms of the Santa Fe Board of Trade on upper Palace avenue, adjoining the Prince residence. The rooms will be open all day.

The reception tonight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Renahan, will be a notable society event. The ball at the Palace hotel tomorrow evening, will be a brilliant affair. The ball room will be handsomely decorated by A. M. Bergere.

Mrs. J. W. Reynolds will tomorrow noon entertain the judges and the visiting members of the bar at an informal luncheon. No invitations have been issued and a general invitation is extended to all the visiting lawyers.

Hon. Harper L. Cunningham of Oklahoma, will tomorrow afternoon make an address on the interesting subject of the Oklahoma constitution, pointing out its incongruities and inconsistencies.

The presidency of the Bar association, goes this year, according to custom, to the Third judicial district. E. C. Wade, of Las Cruces, is most prominently mentioned for the honor.

Judge W. H. Pope, A. B. Renahan and Paul A. F. Walter, were at the Union depot to receive the association's distinguished guest who has quarters at the Palace hotel.

The election of officers of the Bar association will take place tomorrow, just before the close of the forenoon session.

VETERANS IN ANNUAL ENCAMPMENT AT TOLEDO

Toledo, O., Aug. 31.—The forty-second annual national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic began here today. During the day the program called for nothing save a renewal of old acquaintances. Tonight a formal reception to the visitors will take place and Mayor Brand Whitlock will deliver the address of welcome. Judge Taft and Senator Forsaker will be here Wednesday when the annual parade of the veterans is held.

BRYAN TO WRITE LETTERS TO PRECINCT LIEUTENANTS

New York, Aug. 31.—Mr. Bryan will write each week until election a letter to be sent to every precinct Democratic club in the country, giving advice and suggestions. This feature of the presidential struggle was made known today by John D. Tomlinson, head of the Bureau of Club Organization. The plan of organizing Democratic clubs in voting precincts was devised by Mr. Bryan.

STATE ELECTION IN VERMONT TOMORROW

Great Interest Centers in Result as it is Taken as Forecast of Victory Next November.

New York, Aug. 31.—The outcome of the election tomorrow in Vermont is awaited with keen interest at the headquarters of the Republican and Democratic national committees in this city. The showing made in this state in the matter of the number of voters who go to the polls and the gains or losses to either party in comparison with the vote of four years ago will influence in no small degree the shaping of the campaign in all of the eastern states. There is a tradition that when the Republican majority for Vermont falls below 25,000 in a presidential year the Democracy triumphs in the nation the following November.

It is conceded that the Republican party will win, but if the plurality is reduced by reason of Republican apathy, then it will stir that party to renewed energy in trying to arouse enthusiasm and interest in the east.

Overconfidence on the part of the Republicans in the east is the thing which the managers of the national committee are trying to guard against.

President Roosevelt is reported to have told the officials of the congressional committee who called on him at Oyster Bay a few days ago that the way to prevent political apathy from getting a hold on the voters is to keep it out of political headquarters. It is likely, therefore, that the campaign in the east will be every bit as energetic as in the western states where it is known that the race will be close.

The speaking campaign throughout the entire country will open about September 15.

Another test of sentiment will come with the Maine election on September 15. The Republicans don't expect to get as large a plurality as they did four years ago.

LID ON TIGHT AT ATLANTIC CITY

Governor's Threat Results in Closing of Every Cafe—Loss of Business Estimated at $150,000.

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 31.—But four times in fifty years has Atlantic City been as tightly closed and the liquor laws so closely observed as yesterday. Even the best known and most favored patrons of hostilities and cafes noted for their wide open methods could not secure the coveted liquor. A bulletin posted at police headquarters stated:

"Saloons closed; no troops in town."

Another bulletin officially signed by the chief of police, consisted of a card on which was printed:

"In 1861 it was 'Hold the Fort.' Today it is 'Fort Holds You.'"

Governor Fort in his proclamation of last week containing his threat to send troops to the seashore in the event of a further violation of the Sunday closing law, had its effect. Saloon-keepers and hotel men reluctantly accepted the advice of the mayor and of the more conservative members of the saloon men's organization and closed their places of business as tightly as they knew how. Screens came tumbling down at midnight Saturday and remained down all day Sunday.

Boardwalk cafes that on Sundays past have been thronged to their utmost capacity, serving liquor and food yesterday were all but deserted.

A spokesman for the effected liquor interests and one of the local political leaders declared that the loss yesterday to business would amount approximately to $150,000. He said that the saloons would close every Sunday in the future until some warrant of law will permit of their remaining open.

MINERS STRIKE IN ALABAMA CALLED OFF

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 31.—Official orders, calling off the strike of coal miners in the Birmingham district, was issued to all unions today. It was signed by President Lewis, of the United Mine Workers of America. The order says the strike must end regardless of the rights of the miners in the premises owing to the governor's determination not to permit the miners to live in tented camps or to hold public meetings.

FAMOUS RED SPECIAL STARTS FOR PACIFIC COAST

Chicago, Aug. 31.—The special train carrying E. V. Debs, Socialist candidate for president and other leaders of that party, left here today over the Chicago and Alton railroad on an educational campaign to the Pacific coast. Stops will be made at all the important cities and towns en route.

JUDGE W. H. TAFT ANGLING FOR THE ELUSIVE BASS.

Middle Bass Island, Ohio, Aug. 31.—Judge Taft went fishing today. There is a possibility that his stay here may be prolonged until September 9th.

REPUBLICAN PARTY TOO EXTRAVAGANT

Bryan Uses This as Theme for Speech at St. Paul

ADDRESSES BIG ASSEMBLAGE

Says the Farmers Have the Most Cause for Complaint on This Account

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 31.—William J. Bryan arrived here this morning. He was met at the station by Governor John A. Johnson and other prominent citizens, who escorted him to the Minnesota Club, where breakfast was served. During the forenoon Bryan was in conference with Governor Johnson and others on the political situation. At noon Bryan was a guest of National Committeeman Lynch at luncheon.

The feature of the day was the address delivered by Bryan at the state fair grounds. His theme was "Government Extravagance." A vast crowd heard the speech, cheering him continually. The extravagance of the Fifty-first Congress, commonly called the billion dollar congress, Bryan said, contributed to a Democratic victory in 1890. The last Congress made a new record in extravagance. The Republicans are more extravagant than the Democrats in the expenditure of public funds, because Republican leaders are more intimately associated with the tax eaters than with the tax payers and because they have taught the doctrine that high tariff, even when not needed for revenue, is of advantage to the whole country. The farmers have a special cause of complaint because of these high expenditures as they pay more than their share of taxes and receive less than their share of benefits.

BIG INCREASE IN POSTOFFICE RECEIPTS

Business of Past Two Months Largest in the History of the Local Office.

It is a significant commentary upon Santa Fe's growth, that although July and August are the dullest business months of the year, yet the receipts and the business transacted by the local postoffice during the past two months, exceeds the business of any two preceding consecutive months in the history of the office. The money order business of the office during July and August amounted to $50,328.02. There were issued 1,012 money orders amounting to $7,950.71; there were paid 1,459 orders amounting to $24,616.31; there were received $10,001 of money order surplus and $7,400 from money order drafts. The postal receipts amounted to $2,751.49. There were sold 22,858 one-cent stamps; 51,164 two-cent stamps; 4,097 stamps of higher denomination, due stamps and stamp books, and 45,285 stamped envelopes, wrappers and postal cards or a total of 123,404 pieces of stamped paper. There were handled 3,240 pieces of registered mail; 1,164 originating at Santa Fe; 1,620 being delivered locally and 456 recorded in transit. There were sent to the dead letter office during the months of July and August 158 pieces of mail.

MELBOURNE EXTENDS ENTHUSIASTIC WELCOME

Melbourne, Australia, Aug. 31.—The enormous crowd that turned out to witness the formal landing of the sailors and officers of the American battleship fleet this morning proved too much for the Princess bridge which spans the Yara river and forms the main approach to the city. The bridge barriers were overborne and several persons were slightly injured.

Prime Minister Alfred Deakin made a speech of welcome to the fleet. In reply, Admiral Sperry said the reception given the fleet in New Zealand seemed unsurpassable, in Sydney it was even better, but the climax had been reached in Melbourne.

MAN MYSTERIOUSLY SHOT WHILE CALLING ON WIDOW

Trinidad, Colo., Aug. 31.—Jack Strauss, a detective employed by the Santa Fe railway, was taken this morning to the San Rafael hospital, suffering from a wound which makes necessary the amputation of his left leg. He was wounded at the home of Mrs. F. H. Jones, a widow. Conflicting stories are told as to the manner in which Strauss was wounded, the last one being that he and Mrs. Jones was scuffling when his revolver accidentally dropped from his pocket and was discharged.

HOW IS THIS FOR JULY?

As far as moisture is concerned, New Mexico during the month of July offered a wonderful variety of climatic conditions. According to the monthly report of the Climatological Service of the U. S. Weather Bureau, just from the press, the rainfall varied in July from less than half an inch at Bloomfield, San Juan county, to 8.23 inches at Winsor's only twenty miles east of Santa Fe. A glance at the precipitation map of the territory reveals that the heaviest rainfall area was not in the mountains but on the plains of Eddy county, where over six inches fell in almost the entire county except in the Guadalupe mountains where from 3 to 5 inches fell, still enough to assure fine range conditions in fall. In contrast, less than an inch fell and drouth conditions prevailed in northern and central Union county, in northwestern San Juan, northwestern Rio Arriba, western McKinley counties and in the vicinity of Socorro.

Next to Winsor's, strange to say, Carlsbad was the wettest spot in New Mexico in July, for it reported 7.20 inches of rain, enough to satisfy any visitor from the eastern rainbelt. Fort Union and Monument reported more than six inches, and the Gallinas Planting Station more than five inches of rain. The following stations had between four and five inches: Alamogordo, Elk, Estancia, Hope, Los Alamos, Magdalena, Mimbres, Mineral Hill, Mountainair, San Rafael, Santa Rosa, Springer and Tremontina. Between three and four inches fell at: Elizabethtown, Laguna, Maxwell City, Melrose, Rosada, Rosedale and Tucumcari. The places which had between two and three inches, or ample for dry farming purposes were: Santa Fe, Bell Ranch, Carrizozo, Chama, Cimarron, Cliff, Clouderoft, Dorsey, Dulce, Fort Bayard, Fort Stanton, Hillsboro, Lagunita, Lake Valley, Las Vegas, Redrock, Orange, Roswell, San Marcial, Strauss, Sunnyside, Taos, Tres Piedras and Vermejo Park. The stations reporting less than an inch were: Albert, Bloomfield, Espanola, Manuelita, Rosa, Socorro and Valley, while all the other stations had between one and two inches of rainfall. Curious are the vagaries indeed of New Mexico's climate, when at Clouderoft, considered one of the wettest places of New Mexico only one-third as much rain fell as at Carlsbad, considered one of the driest points and only one half as much as at Alamogordo, a few miles away, and where it sometimes does not rain for several months at a stretch.

Other interesting data may be gathered from the report which speak eloquently of Santa Fe's summer climate. While Albuquerque, for instance, had 24 days on which the temperature exceeded 85 degrees, Santa Fe did not have a single day on which the thermometer passed the 85 mark. Las Vegas had fourteen such days, and even Taos, much farther north, had eight such days. The maximum temperature of Albuquerque was 14 degrees warmer than at Santa Fe, at Las Vegas 7 degrees, at Deming 19 degrees, at Mountainair 10 degrees, at Roswell 11 degrees, at Springer 14 degrees, and at Tucumcari 15 degrees. Yet, Santa Fe had 64 per cent of the possible sunshine and Roswell only 57 per cent. At Santa Fe, the maximum velocity of the wind was 57 miles an hour while at Roswell it was 62 miles and at El Paso 68 miles. At Santa Fe the relative humidity was 59 per cent, at Roswell, where it was also hotter, it was 70 per cent, and at Amarillo 71 per cent. Santa Fe had not a single day without sunshine in July and the greatest amount of rain during any 24 consecutive hours was less than half an inch.

Certainly, be it July, or June, January or December, March or October, or any other month of the year, Santa Fe's climate is the most salubrious and the most comfortable in the Southwest and that means in the United States.

HAIL TO SANTA FE, THE FAIR!

Santa Fe need not ask the fairies to give it the power to see itself as others see it. It need only pick up papers and magazines and it will find frequent descriptions of itself by visitors who come without prejudices or favoritism and who write their impressions truthfully and sometimes very entertainingly. Mrs. Foster, editor of the Raton Range, who is a poet of no mean ability, was in Santa Fe this month and although it was not her first visit nor her first description of the ancient city, gives her impressions in the last issue in the following poetic terms:

"A visit to Santa Fe last week showed us the old town buried not alone in antiquity but in flowers and green. Santa Fe is at its best in August and nothing could persuade us to the contrary. We have viewed it in May, December, January and June but this August visit quite outshone the others. From the site of Fort Marcy above the town, only the dome of the capitol and the many church steeples with a glimpse of red or white walls here and there can be seen. At closer range the first impression is of flowers and velvet sod. From these arise the many homes, modern and ancient. Trees, trees, most of them hundreds of years in age, with branches sweeping yards in length, draping the streets and approaches to public buildings in beauty. And the dear old fashioned flowers, in perfect keeping with the mingled age and present day perfection of Santa Fe, are favorites there—hollyhocks, larkspur, dahlias, coxcomb, rosemary and mignonette are thick and fragrant in yard and garden. Alley and street are alike beautiful and vie with each other in their floral adornments. Grass, greener than elsewhere in New Mexico, carpets and borders all the ways of the oldest town in America with its green softness. Climate whose balminess is only equalled in the territory at Raton, such as makes Italy renowned and California less attractive by comparison, blesses the visitor and the more fortunate resident in Santa Fe. To the abounding credit of the town it must be noted here that the citizens of Santa Fe are industrious and lovers of the beautiful as homes and surroundings attest. And the Plaza—ah, there is the tie that binds. There you may find the public from Governor Curry to the Spanish speaking people listening to the music of Lupita the sweet air that bore the busy convention of last week on its sweetness into the very realms of quiet and caused a smile to break across the faces of the listeners for Lupita was the convention's favorite and filled many a weary wait in the proceedings. But to the Plaza! It faces the ancient Governor's Palace and brings the people to the very front door of the executive's home daily. Innumerable seats are scattered about the walks and the trees lend their shadows as a screen for the always mellow sun of Santa Fe. Here the people gather from dawn till twilight—the one wholly public spot in Santa Fe. Here one may dream oblivious to everything or plan with his friends if he will, and a regret enters that all towns have not this public boon of a central park for a rest hour amid the hurry of the day; for a view spot for the visitor or the stranger. All hail to old Santa Fe, historic and well preserved, quiet and restful or pulsing with life when gathered there the representatives of all the territory in this center of the government of our state-to-be, with all her wealth of treasures, of antiquity, of present interest and of patriotic spirit. Hail to old Santa Fe!"

WE WILL ALL VOTE FOR ANDREWS.

The Standard, published at San Marcial, although new in the journalistic field in New Mexico, is a very readable and bright paper and hits the nail on the head quite often. Referring to the nomination of Delegate W. H. Andrews as the Republican candidate for delegate to the Sixty-first Congress the paper approves the same highly and gives its readers the following timely and good advice:

"That Delegate Andrews has the confidence of the Republican party was clearly demonstrated at Santa Fe on Tuesday, August 18th. That he has the confidence of all the people of New Mexico will be demonstrated in November at the polls. The people are for him because they believe he is the man to bring statehood to this territory. By sending a man of the caliber of Andrews to Washington we are demonstrating to the wise old heads there that we are ready for statehood. The Republican platform favors it to us. They are ready to give it to us because our able representative in Congress in the last two terms has shown that we are a people able to govern ourselves. Therefore on the eve of becoming a voice and a vote in the great national affairs we do not propose to run the risk of dashing our hopes against a stone by sending an experiment to Congress, and we will all vote for Andrews, 'the man who does things.'"

PUBLIC LAND IN NEW MEXICO.

If the General Land office is right in its calculations, then the area of the lands in New Mexico subject to public land entry is increasing from year to year. In accordance with a statement, just published, there are more than 59,000,000 acres of public land in New Mexico today, while ten years ago, this same authority said that there were only 52,000,000 acres. Since then 10,000,000 acres have been taken up under the homestead and desert land acts, 7,000,000 acres have been included in forest reserves and several million acres have been appropriated by the Territory. Evidently, the rubber plant is not in it when it comes to New Mexico's land surface, or else the mathematicians of the General Land office are a little careless about such small matters as ten or twenty million acres of land. The total area of New Mexico is a little over 78,000,000 acres. Fully 7,000,000 acres of that is included in forest reserves. About 3,000,000 acres are included in private land grants approved by the Court of Private Land Claims and 1,000,000 acres in grants validated by Congress, this including the Indian lands. The public land entries since the opening of the land offices in the Territory, aggregate almost 20,000,000 acres of which, however, one half have been restored to the public domain. Considerable area has been in private ownership from time immemorial, and titles dating back to the Republic of Spain. Substrating the total of the area which has passed from the United States to private ownership, there remain something between 40,000,000 and 42,000,000 acres of land subject to entry under the various public land acts. This is an enormous area but one-fourth less than the figures given out officially by the General Land office. At the present rate of settlement, in less than twenty years, every available acre of public land in the Territory will have passed into private or state ownership, and for every acre productive today there will be ten acres producing crops. This will mean no less than a million inhabitants for the commonwealth and an assessed valuation of more than $200,000,000.

LAWYERS AND JOURNALISTS IN EVIDENCE IN NEW MEXICO.

Observed a newspaper publisher who attended the Republican territorial convention in this city, recently: "The largest number of delegates were lawyers; next to them, journalism had more representatives in the Capital than any other profession." It is a fact that the United States is governed by lawyers and judges to a large extent and that no class of citizens has so great an influence upon public life, in the moulding of national character, as the members of the bar and writers for the press. Santa Fe has the honor this week of entertaining the judges and lawyers of the territory, and that means incidentally many of the leading men of New Mexico. Both the sessions of the Bar Association and of the territorial supreme court are serious, important business, but enough time will be spared for the enjoyment of Santa Fe's hospitality and to enable the visitors to obtain at least a glimpse of Santa Fe's manifold attractions. Of course, the popular, or rather the jocular conception of lawyers is embodied in the following joke:

"Judge: Remember, witness, you are sworn to tell the truth, and nothing but the truth.
"Witness: Judge, I am trying my dumbest to do it, but that pie faced sorb of a lawyer there won't let me!"

But the jocular conception of the lawyer is a gross slander. His ideal is not to help clients to evade the law, or to escape punishment for misdeeds, but to see to it that justice is done. Higher ideal no man can have. It is the very pillar of society and the mainstay of the Republican form of government.

REPUBLICAN PAPERS TOGETHER.

There is not a Republican newspaper now in New Mexico that is not supporting the election of W. H. Andrews as delegate from the territory to the Sixty-first Congress. This is certainly very gratifying and a splendid omen for victory. Referring to this satisfactory state of affairs the Albuquerque Sun, Democratic in politics but supporting statehood and Delegate Andrews makes the following editorial comment:

"Every newspaper seat in the Andrews band wagon is filled. The Las Vegas Optic, the Raton Range and the News and Press of Cimarron have taken up the last three seats.

"This makes about fifty Republican and several Democratic papers supporting the 'noblest Roman of them all.'"

"The papers referred to above were 'out and out' Spies organs. They now 'pro bono publico' declare that Andrews should be returned to Washington, in order to have the enabling act he introduced last session brought out of the committee rooms for passage.

"While we are on this point, we might ask how would Larrazolo get the bill out?
"He does not know a committee from a tug boat. He is not acquainted with one single solitary United States senator; his record of calling Teddy, Curry and Andrews liars would precede him.

"We trust the intelligence of the people too much to think that they would send such a messenger to Congress on such an important mission."

GRAND BARBECUE AT NARA VISA

Two Thousand People Participate in Festivities

PLENTY OF ENTERTAINMENT

Fine Speaking One of the Features—Horse Racing and Bronco Busting.

(Special Correspondence.)

Nara Visa, N. M., Aug. 31.—The grand barbecue at Nara Visa opened Thursday morning, August 27, on one of those characteristic New Mexico days, clear and pleasant. The speaking program, which was to have taken place in the morning, was adjourned until after dinner until more people arrived. Dinner was served promptly at 12:30 o'clock with barbecued beef, bread, pickles and coffee furnished by the association and was partaken of by about one thousand people who came in from the surrounding country. Six beaves were consumed. Following dinner came the address of welcome by Willard Belknap in which he compared conditions as he found them five years ago and even two years ago, for that matter, with the up-to-date town of nearly a thousand people and a well settled country surrounding that makes up Nara Visa and the Nara Visa country of today.

The reply to the address of welcome given by Levi Klienfelner, editor of the Perry Progress, was characteristic of him, he being in his usual jolly happy strain. However, Mr. Klienfelner grew serious for a time, while he compared the so-called drought of this section of the country this spring with the drought that had been experienced in other new countries and showed that people do not know what a drought is in this country. Mr. Klienfelner is an Ohio man, from the Nineteenth district that has furnished the country many good men, notably Garfield and McKinley, and the worthy editor of the Perry Progress certainly held up to the standard.

This address was followed by an address by Rev. Calhoun of Centerville, some twelve miles north of Nara Visa, and he certainly took the audience by storm and made an especial hit when he said that there was no one discouraged in this part of the country except a few who could not get along without going back to their wife's folks. He also compared the winds of Kansas, Nebraska and Oklahoma with the gentle zephyrs that characterize New Mexico. The Reverend certainly did credit to himself and made a fine impression on his hearers.

Typical Frontier Sports.
After the speaking the next feature was the cowboy quadrille on horseback made up of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Potter, Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, Jack Ellison and Bonnie Paxton, Lewis G. Purviance and Margaret King. This was a great treat to most of the settlers who came from the far East and have not been accustomed to seeing such a program as this put on practically impromptu. All of the four couples performed with great credit and the event passed off as though it had been practiced for months. Following this came the chase for the bride in which Louis G. Purviance won, neatly taking Mrs. Jack Ellison from her horse. This again was handled as though it had been drilled for many days, while in fact it was gotten up at the eleventh hour. Later in the evening of the first day the Amistad and Central City ball teams played a game of ball in which Amistad won.

The feature of the second morning was the baseball game played by the business men of Nara Visa, in which event all real ball players were barred. One of the features of this game was the remarkable catching of "Slim Gilbert," another feature of the game being the great base running of Uncle Sam Shider. Bill Harris with his six feet by six, umpired the game and in order to keep peace among the players carried a huge old fashioned buffalo gun and a six-shooter. The game passed off quietly until about the third inning when somebody called out "dinner." Shortly after dinner the tournament race came off and it was very interesting and resulted in a tie score between Ernest Rose and James Willard. These two riders seemed to be very evenly matched as they tied three times before finally deciding the score. In this Rose took first prize, James Willard second and N. M. Crain third.

Good Horse Races.
By special request of many of the visitors the cowboy quadrille and the chase for the bride were again put on the second day. Some of the features of the second day were the horse races won by J. D. Rose's horse, the Burro race won by Lester Gray first place, Luther Gray second place and Maurice Hagerman third place. In the bicycle race Walter Hillhouse won first prize and James Willard second. In the rooster race on bicycles Walter Hillhouse won first money; James Willard second and third places. The broncho busting was a grand success and was new to many of the visitors present.

PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets—coaxes blood pressure away from pain centers. Its effect is charming, pleasantly delightful. Gently though surely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure. If it's painful periods with women, same cause. If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 30 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the unnatural blood pressure.

Brush your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense.

We sell at 25 cents, and cheerfully recommend

Headache Tablets
The Ireland Pharmacy.

The attendance during the second day was generally estimated at two thousand people and everything passed off with success. There was not a dull moment during the whole of the two days. In fact the greatest trouble was to find time for the various entertainments that had been arranged. Especial credit should be given to the Nara Visa brass band for music furnished during the barbecue. The boys did credit to themselves and left the impression that they had been playing together for years instead of only a few months.

Splendid Exhibit of Products.

It had been generally reported that the worst drought known in thirty years had prevailed in northeastern New Mexico during this spring, but any one who visited the office of Stubbins and Snyder, the popular real estate men, and saw the fine exhibits of products of the Nara Visa country displayed there, could believe this section had had a drought at all. The writer went down to the office next morning concluding to make a list of the exhibits but found them literally too numerous to mention. If there is any product usually grown on the farm that is not present in this exhibit, the writer is unable to think of it. There is literally everything that is usually grown on the farm from Indian corn ten feet high, with good ears nearly ripened, to Irish potatoes and garden truck of different kinds. Melons and nearly every crop usually grown in the temperate zone are exhibited here and are of as fine quality as one could find at any fair in the older settled part of the East. When it is considered that this section had practically no rainfall during the spring months and that the larger portion of this growth was made on the moisture stored in the soil from the early spring rains, it is almost past belief that such crops can be grown in what has been termed the worst drought known in northeastern New Mexico. Mr. Stubbins reports that the price of land went up fifty per cent as a result of the exhibit from the Nara Visa section.

SEPTEMBER IDEAL MONTH IN SANTA FE

Capital City is Then the Most Beautiful and the Weather is Generally at its Best.

A writer giving his impressions of Santa Fe recently said that the best time to visit Santa Fe was in August. But the author had never been in Santa Fe during September. Every month has its beauties in this city; all of them are sunny, salubrious and comfortable, but if any month is to be chosen above all others it is September. Then Santa Fe is most beautiful and the weather generally at its best. During the past 34 years, according to the Weather Bureau Records, and they are accurate and official, the average temperature of September at Santa Fe has been 61 degrees. In 1892, however, it was as high as 65 degrees and in 1880 as low as 55 degrees. The warmest day was September 7, 1879, when the thermometer reached a maximum of 90 degrees. The coldest was September 27, 1880, when a minimum temperature of 27 degrees was recorded. The first killing frost occurred on September 25, 1889, but the average date of the first killing frost on October 19, and sometimes the first killing frost does not come until November. The average precipitation for the month has been 1.62 inches; the average number of days with .01 of an inch of precipitation 7; greatest monthly precipitation was 5.37 inches in September 1904, the year of the great flood. The least monthly precipitation was a trace in 1892. The greatest amount of precipitation in any 24 consecutive hours was 2.51 inches, September 29 and 30, the days of the great flood. The relative humidity for the month has been 46 per cent, at 6 p. m.; 34 per cent and 58 per cent at 6 a. m. The average number of cloudy days has been 3; partly cloudy days, 10; clear days 17. The prevailing winds have been from the southeast with an average hourly velocity of 5.8 miles and a maximum of 46 miles an hour, recorded on September 13, 1889.

The New Mexican Printing company will do your job work with neatness and dispatch.

GLOWING FUTURE OF TAOS COUNTY

W. D. Hayes Returns From Trip Over That Section—Astonished at Its Manifold Resources.

W. D. Hayes in charge of the government planting station on the upper Gallinas, returned Saturday evening from a ten days' trip over the Taos National Forest where he located sites upon which seedlings are to be planted each year for the next five years.

Mr. Hayes was much impressed with the fertility and the manifold resources of Taos county. He considered it the most fertile field for irrigation enterprises of account of the many flowing streams, the number of available natural reservoir sites and the fertile land tributary to them. Cabresto Lake, the Red River, and Moreno irrigation projects he deems feasible and especially the first named is a very promising undertaking. The famous Moreno ditch line is to be repaired and used for irrigation purposes in the near future. Mr. Hayes found that a great part of the reserve is being reforested by nature although not with merchantable timber.

He describes the view from Wheeler's Peak, 13,250 feet high, as one of wonderful magnificence and one well worthy the arduous climb. He also considers the chasm of the Rio Grande river in northern Taos county one of the great sights of the Southwest. With a railroad, he declares Taos county will develop into an empire of wealth and population.

PROPER DRAINAGE OF PUBLIC ROADS

Ridding Highways of Storm and Underground Water, Subject of Thoughtful Bulletin.

With an average of 27,000 tons of water falling in the form of rain on each mile of public road in the United States annually, it is scarcely to be marvelled at that the ten commandments of the road builder can be summed up succinctly in the word "drainage."

The saying has truth for a basis, as good drainage is the primary requisite to all roads. Even in sand roads this holds true, for there "good drainage" means such as will safely remove the storm water without erosion or gully-ing and still retain the surface moisture.

To secure good drainage one must take into consideration both the surface water and the underground water. The surface water must be removed quickly and completely and without subjecting the road to excessive scour or erosion. For this reason, the center of the road should be raised and the slope towards the side ditches should be from 1-2 to 1 inch to each foot distance, or so that the water will run freely to the side ditches and not flow down the road or remain in puddles on the roadway. The side ditches should be of ample size to care for the severest storms with a fall of not less than 6 inches to each 100 feet. Frequent and ample cross drains should be constructed and every opportunity taken to get the water away from the road as quickly as possible. Any road along which you see water standing in the side ditches or on which puddles of water have collected or which has been badly gullied and eroded by the rains has poor drainage and is in need of immediate attention. In fact earth roads nearly always require a little attention after each rain. The split-log drag is essentially a tool to maintain good drainage on all earth roads, and should be used after each rain. On a heavy clay or gumbo soil the drag when properly used tends to help the road surface, which prevails to some extent, that keep it free from ruts, and make it dense, smooth and hard, thus securing the best surface drainage possible.

But in many places the underground public roads tell how to make concrete drains. This bulletin will treat the subject fully, explaining carefully every point that may arise in making drain pipes and culverts.

SUNDAY'S GAMES.

National League.
Chicago, Aug. 31.—Chicago made it three straight by winning from New York yesterday 2 to 1. The game was the hardest fought and the best played of the series. Each team got five hits and played errorless ball. The champions scored their first run in the opening inning. Hoffman walked and took second on Schreckard's sacrifice, scoring on Chance's single over second base.
In the fifth inning Tinger singled and scored from second on Hoffman's single to center field.
New York scored its one run in the second inning. Donlin walked, took second on Seymour's single and scored on Devlin's slow bouncer to Evers.
Another record breaking crowd numbering in the neighborhood of 37,000 people witnessed yesterday's combat. When the gates opened at 10 o'clock in the morning thousands of persons were in line and the grandstand was soon filled. Many took their places at the entrance to the park as early as 7:30 and when the game was called every available space in the grandstand and on the field seemed to be occupied. The crowd overflowed the grounds and made ground rules necessary. A detail of policemen kept the crowd from encroaching on the playing field. By making a clean sweep of the series Chicago goes to second place in the great race for the National League pennant, New York holding the lead by the small margin of half a game. The score—

A party of new settlers composed of Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Berry, Ed Berry, Mrs. R. L. Porter and C. V. Harris, all of Ponca, Oklahoma, were in the city yesterday enroute to the Estancia valley, where they have located on claims.

Clay Willingham and wife and daughter, Miss Flutie, of Stanley, arrived in the city last evening and had rooms at the Normandie hotel. They came to the city to take advantage of the special sales of Capital City merchants.

Associate Justice Ira A. Abbott, of Albuquerque, reached the city last evening and will be present at the coming session of the territorial supreme court. The judge has just returned from a visit to his former home at Haverhill, Massachusetts.

J. F. Bonham, well known Las Cruces attorney and a resident of this city for a number of years, was among the arrivals yesterday at the Palace. The supreme court sessions and meeting of the Bar Association brought him to the city. He is well known among the old-timers here.

W. R. Forbes, editor of the Willard Record, one of the leading Republican weekly papers in Torrance county, was among the arrivals in the Capital City last evening. Editor Forbes, by the way is an attorney, and came to the city to be admitted to practice his profession in the territory.

Hon. H. B. Holt, one of the leading lawyers of Las Cruces, and who represented his district very creditably as floor leader in the House of Representatives of the Thirty-seventh Legislative Assembly, is a guest at the St. Vincent's Sanitarium. He came to participate in the Bar Association meeting and to attend to business before the Territorial Supreme court.

Professor James E. Clark, territorial superintendent of public instruction, returned yesterday from a ten days' trip on official business to Montalmar, Portales and Tucumcari. At Portales he visited the Roosevelt county teachers' institute and at Tucumcari the teachers' institute for Quay county. Professor Clark says that 157 teachers were in attendance at Portales.

Dr. D. W. White, was a visitor to the Capital City yesterday and today. He has been practicing his profession at Stanley for five weeks and is very much pleased with the outlook. He stated that crops are in good condition and claims which have been recently deeded are selling for fifteen hundred dollars. He said one was sold a few days ago for two thousand dollars.

Chief Justice William J. Mills and his son Wilson Mills, of Las Vegas, have apartments at the Palace hotel. Chief Justice Mills will preside over the sessions of the supreme court, court, over which he has presided with dignity and ability for eleven years. His son, Wilson, who is a student at the Sheffield Scientific School at Yale University, came to the city to take in the interesting sights and enjoy the splendid scenery and historical attractions.

Peter M. A. Lineau, deputy insurance commissioner, returned Saturday evening from Denver, where he went to inspect the condition of the Western Life Insurance company, previous to its admittance to do business in New Mexico. Mr. Lineau says that upon his arrival in Denver the various insurance men of that city sat up and took notice and spoke in very high terms of New Mexico as an insurance field both for life and fire. The insurance men of Denver also complimented the insurance department of New Mexico for being conservative and preventing wild cat companies doing business in the territory.

Attorney W. D. McBee, of Melrose, arrived in the city yesterday to be in attendance at the sessions of the supreme court. Mr. McBee is Democratic candidate for the council of the Thirty-eighth assembly from the district composed of Roosevelt, Chaves and Eddy counties. The district has been strongly Democratic in the past and Mr. McBee feels confident that he will be elected. Attorney McBee has been a resident of Melrose for six years or before there was a sign of a town there. He is a Texan by birth, but previous to coming to New Mexico he practiced his profession in Oklahoma.

Mrs. Max Schutz, wife of a leading capitalist and one of the liveliest, most modern and progressive citizens of the thriving town of Silver City, returned to the city this forenoon to attend the Bar Association dance to-morrow evening. Mr. Schutz is one of the oldest and best known, as well as one of the most successful merchants, of southwestern New Mexico. He is a very bright and keen business man although afflicted with deafness. He sold out his extensive mercantile establishment last year to Sam Schiff but is keeping actively at work building and renting houses, handling wagons and teams and the like. He is one of the busiest and most valuable citizens of Grant county's pretty county seat. Mrs. Schutz is a very amiable and popular lady in Silver City and wherever known.

Nestor Montoya, editor of an influential Spanish newspaper, La Banda Americana, published in the city of Albuquerque, and a former resident of this city, came to town today from the Duke City and brought with him five young men, sons of prominent residents and placed them in St. Michael's College for the coming scholastic term. Springer, of Albuquerque, and Nestor Montoya, Jr. The boys are bright looking and seem to be glad to attend St. Michael's College in which college Hon. Nestor Montoya was educated. Mr. Montoya learned his trade of printer with the New Mexican Printing company twenty-three years ago and became a skillful craftsman. He is one of the best interpreters in the Southwest. The boys are all Republicans, taking after their sires, and assert that they know the people of their county and city will give Delegate Andrews at least 2,000 majority November the third next. They are sorry they are not old enough to vote.

S.S.S. THE CURE FOR SCROFULA

Swollen glands about the neck, weak eyes, pale, waxy complexions, running sores and ulcers, skin diseases, and general poor health, are the usual ways in which Scrofula is manifested. The disease being deeply entrenched in the blood often attacks the bones, resulting in White Swelling, or hip disease, and the scrofulous and tubercular matter so thoroughly destroys the healthful properties of the blood that Scrofula sometimes terminates in consumption, an incurable disease. The entire circulation being contaminated, the only way to cure the trouble is to thoroughly purify the blood and restore the circulation to a strong, healthy state. S. S. S. is the very best treatment for Scrofula; it renovates the entire blood supply and drives out the scrofulous and tubercular deposits. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and it not only goes right down to the very bottom of the trouble and removes the cause, but it supplies the weak, diseased blood with the healthful properties it is in need of, and in this way builds up weak, frail, scrofulous persons and makes them strong and healthy. S. S. S. is a gentle, safe, vegetable preparation and is suited for persons of any age. Book on the blood containing information about Scrofula and any medical advice free.

TO SHEEPMEN.

Everyone knows that between the homesteads and reserves of various kinds, the open range has departed, and that every sheep owner, to be successful, must own his own land. Solid bodies of land with perfect title are very scarce, and there never can be any more. I can offer a solid tract of first class grazing land, mostly summer grazing, containing 25,000 acres, on the Cebolleta grant, 50 miles west of Albuquerque, with absolutely perfect title, at a moderate price and on easy terms—sheep dip within one-half mile.

Such tract and similar ones, if there are any, will be sure to sell at the Irrigation Congress if not sold before. Capitalists appreciate the solidity of such investments, with the certainty of increased value. If any one in New Mexico desires to own his range it must be bought before the Congress. This notice is inserted to draw attention to an opportunity.

L. BRADFORD PRINCE,
Santa Fe, N. M.
