Category/Department: General

Published: Friday, February 14, 1992

On Feb. 2, spokespersons for the Mexican Attorney General's Office (PGR) told reporters that 12 Salvadoran nationals en route to the US were detained in Hermosillo, Sonora state. The Salvadorans said each of them had paid US$500 to an individual who was to transport them from Hermosillo to the Mexico-US border. (Basic data from Spanish news service EFE, 02/02/92)
