HIGHWAY ACROSS THE SACRAMENTOS

Otero County Citizen Makes Plea for Such a Road

WOULD OPEN RICH VALLEY

Prolific Agricultural Section Now Shut Off From World By Mountain Range.

Frank W. Beach, ex-member of the House of Representatives of the Thirty-seventh legislative assembly, who is largely interested in land and mining in this territory, arrived here Monday and registered at the Claire hotel. He will remain here three or four days on personal business. Mr. Beach's headquarters are at Orogordo, Otero county, and it was for the district composed of Otero, Grant, Luna and Dona Ana counties, that he was elected to the House of Representatives.

During the past few months, however, he has been traveling extensively in the East, North and Northwest on business. When seen at the Claire hotel last night, Mr. Beach was asked to tell about conditions as he found them in the country in general and in Otero county in particular, but it was hard to get him to digress from the subject of a road between the eastern and western sections of Otero county, which are separated by the Sacramento mountain range. This is a project which is dearest to his heart, and for which he labored almost successfully in the Thirty-seventh legislative assembly. He had a bill passed by the assembly appropriating $10,000 for the road, which was to be built by convict labor, but it was vetoed by Governor Hagerman. It was afterwards passed over the governor's veto by the house, but failed of passage in the council. He is a staunch Republican.

"Of course, the assembly is going to be overwhelmingly Republican this year," said Mr. Beach at the Claire last night to a representative of the New Mexican, and a Republican representative from my district will therefore be able to do considerably more than any Democrat would be. The campaign is on and I firmly believe that Otero county could be easily carried for the entire Republican ticket, if the matter of this road between the fertile valley on the west of the Sacramento range and Alamogordo and the other towns on the east, was taken up and definite promises made that it would be built without any unnecessary delay.

Prolific Valley Needs an Outlet.

"The valley on the west of the range in Otero county is one of the most fertile and prolific in Otero county, and I might say in the territory of New Mexico, but at the present time it is practically inaccessible from a commercial standpoint and the thousands of people who reside in it are shut off from the rest of the world, because of lack of transportation facilities. The entire vast Pecos country to the west of Alamogordo, could be easily made one of the garden spots of the territory if it had means of communication with the other parts of the territory.

"With convict labor it would cost only about $10,000 to build the road which would connect this wonderfully fertile valley, which is watered by the Sacramento river, with the rest of the territory. The people of Otero county are always active and alive to their own as well as to territorial interests, and they would throw party lines aside with a zeal that would astonish party bound men, if this project were taken up by the Republican party during the present campaign.

Have to Travel Long Distance.

"They now have to travel long distances either north or south in order to turn the flank of the mountain range and this has kept them from entering into any important commercial communication with the rest of the territory. There is in that valley as good and, as well watered land, as can be found under the sun, and all that is needed to develop it is a road over the crest of the range, which will allow the farmers to haul their products to market.

There is a road now, which hardly deserves the name of highway. Its grades are too severe, its bed is filled with boulders and ruts and it is worth almost as much as a man's life to traverse it in any other manner than on foot. Ten thousand dollars and the work of a few convicts would reduce the grades, eliminate the ruts and boulders and make a fine highway which in a short time would increase the wealth of Otero county and New Mexico by no small amount. I took a trip over the range some time ago, and I certainly was thankful when it ended. With a light wagon, we found it necessary to tie the wheels with heavy rope on many of the grades, and for three or four of us to pull backward on another rope, lest the entire outfit go down the hill, like greased lightning.

"You could fill that valley with homesteaders, if there was only a road over the crest of the range. Without means of transporting their products, homesteaders, who would otherwise settle there and cultivate the land, have passed the valley by.

Rainfall is Plentiful.

"Plenty of rain falls in that section and it would be necessary to provide a good hard surface for the road. The county of Otero would be only too glad to look after its maintenance and this factor would not bother the territorial government at all. Give those people of Otero county, which was lost to Delegate Andrews and myself, a road, and you would not only win their votes but their hearts.

"Cloudcroft is on the crest of the mountains, but it is practically impossible today, for the farmers on the west slope to reach even that place, not to mention Alamogordo. A good road would be only about thirty miles long, and would prove of incalculable benefit."

Mr. Beach, when asked to discuss business and political conditions, as viewed from his observations on his recent trips said:

Election of Taft Certain.

"The entire country with the exception of the Solid South is for Taft and Sherman. The West has recuperated from the recent financial flurry more easily and sooner than the East. Money is easier and business brisker in the West than in the East, although all over the country conditions are steadily improving."

JAILED FOR ATTEMPTED CRIMINAL ASSAULT

Gus Hettling, Baseball Player, Brought Here From Raton to Face Serious Charge.

Gus Hettling, who claims to hail from Wichita and to be a professional baseball player, was brought to Santa Fe yesterday from Raton by Special Officer J. H. Green of the Santa Fe railway detective force and placed in the county jail here where he now is held upon a charge of criminal assault. The charge is that on Monday night last he attempted to assault a young married woman in a Pullman sleeping car. She screamed and Hettling was scared away but he came very near accomplishing the assault. Hettling was given a preliminary hearing last night on the charge before Justice of the Peace Jose Ma. Garcia and was bound over to appear before the grand jury of Santa Fe county under a bond of $1,000, which he was unable to furnish.

CHAMPIONSHIP IS WON BY CHICAGO

Cubs Shut Out Detroit in Final Game

OVERALL WAS INVINCIBLE

Tiger's Heavy Hitters Could Not Find Him—Score 2 to 0

FINAL SCORE.
R. H. E.
Chicago 2 10 0
Detroit 0 3 0
Batteries: Overall and Kling; Donovan and Schmidt.

Detroit, Oct. 14.—Local interest in the world's championship baseball contest between the Chicago and Detroit clubs was perceptibly on the wane when today's crowd began to turn its face toward Bennett's Park. Yesterday the possibility of Detroit winning and making the series a tie brought out the banner attendance of the series, but today's chances for Chicago winning the final and deciding game of the series was too evident and as a result the attendance was smaller, although running into the thousands. The weather conditions were fair.

Game By Innings.

First Inning—Chicago took no chance of losing the game, but from the very start played whirlwind baseball. The Cubs scored their first run on a single by Evers, a single by Schulte and a single by Chance.

Second Inning—Donovan for Detroit steadied down in the second and like his rival, Overall, began pitching superb ball. Neither club scored in this inning.

Third Inning—No scores.

Fourth Inning—No scores.

Fifth Inning—Chicago tallied its second run in this inning. Tinker flied out. Kling was given a base on balls. Overall sacrificed. Kling going to second. Scheckard walked and Evers hit to deep center for two bases, scoring Kling. Scheckard went to third. Schulte was thrown out at first, retiring the side. The score at the end of this inning was, Chicago 2; Detroit 0.

Sixth Inning—No scores.

Seventh Inning—No scores.

Eighth Inning—No scores.

Ninth Inning—Neither club scored in the last inning and the game ended 2 to 0 in favor of Chicago, that club winning the world's championship of 1908, taking four to Detroit's one game. The features of the game were the magnificent pitching of Overall, who allowed but three hits and the superb fielding of his teammates. Donovan pitched fine ball, also, except for the first and fifth innings, when Chicago's heavy hitters bunched their hits on him. Both teams played an errorless game.

ORGANIZE AN ANDREWS CLUB

The Republicans of Town of Clovis Get Busy

ROUSING MASS MEETING

G. O. P. Members in Roosevelt County to Work Hard for Delegate's Election.

(Special Correspondence.)

Clovis, N. M., Oct. 14.—Republicans of Eastern New Mexico, especially in Roosevelt county, are organizing for the purpose of polling more than the party strength in November. Republicans here are alive to the fact that statehood, that coveted prize, depends entirely on the re-election of William H. Andrews, as delegate to Congress.

A rousing Republican meeting was held in Clovis, last Friday night, at which time a Taft-Andrews Republican Club was organized with an initial membership of thirty-five. While it is true that there is some dissatisfaction over postoffice matters in this town, yet the members of this new organization feel that all differences of this character should be laid aside until after the Republican ticket has been successfully elected. It is safe to say that much good and energetic work will be done between now and election day.

Men of long years of experience in political warfare participated in the organization of the new Republican Club. There were men present who fought side by side with U. S. Senator Robert M. LaFollette of Wisconsin. There are Republican members who have been in the thick of the fight with Vice-President Fairbanks, Senator Beveridge and other noted men. Men who worked under the leadership of the Claytons, of Arkansas and old Indian Territory, were present and gave their advice to the younger men of New Mexico, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and Tennessee. Republicans were represented and each man has had the experience one receives in the states where political fights are episodes that demand time, brains and attention.

Temporary and Permanent Organization.

The temporary organization consisted of the following persons: Chairman, Dr. A. H. Faith; secretary, Thomas H. Jones. Dr. Faith is formerly of Indiana and number among his close personal friends many of those prominent in national affairs. Mr. Jones has resided in New Mexico fourteen years and has a large acquaintance among the men who do things in this territory.

The permanent organization of the club is as follows: President, R. E. Rowells; vice-president, John T. Adams; secretary, Dr. A. H. Faith. President Rowells is a well known member of the bar of Eastern New Mexico, being a member of the law firm of Rowells, Haverer and Reid, of Clovis. Mr. Rowells is formerly from Wisconsin, where he was prominently identified in Republican politics. Vice-President Adams came from Oklahoma to New Mexico, having resided in the Indian Territory before statehood. He was closely associated with the Claytons, having been commissioned to hold various offices under Judge William H. Clayton.

The Resolutions.

"Resolved: That we, the members of the Taft-Andrews Republican Club of Clovis, New Mexico, heartily approve of and endorse the policies of the administration of Theodore Roosevelt, Republican President of the great United States of America; that we believe in the principles and the carrying out of the same and by the Republican party and the cardinal feature by which every man, high or low of ranks, is accorded a 'square deal.' We are proud of the achievements of our party and such is our enthusiasm in the same that we cordially invite every Republican to join with us in our organization and we further appeal to every thinking man to join the ranks of those who believe in the right principles of good government as such principles have been carried out by our party.

"And be it further resolved: That we are in accord with the public utterances of our candidate for the great office of President, William Howard Taft, that we honor him as a private citizen, as a man of splendid attainments and that we believe him capable in every way of carrying out the policies of our party. We most heartily approve and support the various provisions of the Republican national platform, in its entirety and heartily commend it to thinking voters.

"Be it further resolved: That we hereby pledge ourselves to actively support the candidacy of William H. Andrews for election to be delegate to Congress. That we believe in him as a man; that we are proud of the results of his labors for the Sunshine Territory, while in the National Congress. We believe him to be a man of deeds as his record shows and it is our desire that he hold his present position until statehood shall have been achieved.

"And it is further resolved: That we approve of and commend the administration of Governor George Curry and those officials who serve under him. We hereby express our pleasure in the prosperity which has spread over this territory and we ask for a continuance of the present business administration, to be replaced only by the admission of New Mexico into the Union.

"It is further resolved: That we hereby place ourselves on record as being in favor of statehood for this territory. We believe that it is our right as free born American citizens. We are convinced that we have the necessary development and resources for such admission into the Union and as individual members of this organization we pledge ourselves to give every assistance possible to obtain an equal footing with adjoining states.

"And be it further resolved: That we approve and commend the candidacy of C. F. Copeland for territorial councilman.

"Be it resolved: That all persons residing in Clovis and vicinity, whether residents of precinct No. 13 or not, declaring themselves to be Republicans, are hereby declared eligible to membership in the Taft-Andrews Republican Club of Clovis, New Mexico.

UP FOR SELLING LIQUOR TO INDIANS

Three Men Are Held Upon This Charge in Santa Fe and One in Albuquerque.

A. G. Pollock, special officer of the Indian office in the matter of the detection of persons who are charged with illegally selling liquor to Indians, has been attending to cases before U. S. Commissioner, J. P. Victory, in which Laurano Montano of Lumberton, Pablo Rivas, of Park View and Tomas Quisido were charged with unlawfully selling liquor to Indians and unlawfully introducing liquor on the Jicarilla-Apache reservation in Rio Arriba county.

These three men, after examination by U. S. Commissioner Victory, were bound over to appear at the next term of the U. S. district court in this city. The bonds in each case were fixed at two hundred dollars which were provided and the defendants were released until the March, 1909 term of the district court.

At Albuquerque on Monday last Juan Montoya, of Barea, was arrested for illegally selling whiskey to the Navajo Indians who were at the territorial fair performing the fire dance. Montoya was examined before U. S. Commissioner Harry R. Whiting and was bound over in the sum of $200 bonds to appear at the next term of the district court. The Indians whom he had furnished whiskey got drunk and were jailed.

DYNAMITE EXPLOSION CHARGED TO STRIKERS

New York Oct. 14.—An explosion of dynamite occurred early today in the big enclosure on Eighth avenue between 56th and 57th streets where 250 taxicabs belonging to the New York Taxicab company were stored for the night. The explosion shook buildings for blocks and the neighborhood was thrown into wild excitement. The explosion tore a great hole in the ground. One special policeman on guard declares the bomb was thrown over the fence and the company believes a deliberate attempt was made by strikers to wreck their property. Some strike leaders expressed the belief that not a bomb but an explosion of gasoline due to inexperienced men who took the places of the strikers, caused the explosion.

MINES AND MINING.

The Mining World in a recent issue had the following notes on the Orogande mining district in Otero county, which the New Mexican reprints as they are of interest to its readers. Says the Mining World:

After a summer of idleness among the greater part of the mining companies of this district there is a general increase of activity all over the district and with the new strikes which have been made during the past few weeks the outlook for next year is most encouraging.

An important strike has just been made by W. B. Bates of a silver-lead true fissure vein. Mr. Bates now has the vein opened up for some distance, and has traced the lead for over half a mile. The vein outcrops well up on the side of the mountain. It shows at the surface from 18 to 24 in. of quartz filled with galena carrying silver values. An assay taken from an average surface sample returned $50.95. Mr. Bates has an option on this property which is included in the Alabama group, composed of five patented claims. At other points on the group large bodies of copper and gold ore have been opened up. The old Tiffany turquoise workings are also located on this group.

Joe Knecker recently made a rich gold strike on the Mamie lode. The vein is about 4 ft. wide, about 1 ft. of which pans gold.

The Wauchsett Mining company, under the management of Charles H. Knibbs, of Worcester, Massachusetts, has just let a 60-foot contract in its main drift being run from the 143-foot level. It had already been driven 55 ft. towards the main dike before the present contract was let. It is expected by Mr. Knibbs that by the time this contract is finished the main dike will have been cut and the body of ore should begin to show up. This property is located just west of the Nannie Beard. The company also has a lease and bond on the War Dog and Evening Sun, all three claims lying in one group.

The First National Mining company is doing work on its placer ground and is also preparing to begin the permanent development work on its copper properties on the K. C. group.

Culver and Downs are pushing Development work on the Jem and the Alice properties.

E. G. Moffett is doing work on the Monarch property.

The Copper Hill Mines company, with John Christ as local manager, is arranging to increase its working force and to sink the shaft to a lower level.

The Southwest Smelting and Refining company is making some repairs and changes preparatory, it is understood, to resuming operations in the mines and later blowing in the smelter.

The Monte Carlo company announces that it will be ready to resume operations about the first of the year and will sink the shaft a few hundred feet deeper where it is believed, a large copper-silver ore body will be reached.

W. M. Bartlett is arranging his affairs with the view of beginning the work on his El Paso group.

ONLY ONE "BEST."

Santa Fe People Give Credit Where Credit is Due.

People of Santa Fe who suffer with sick kidneys and bad backs want a kidney remedy that can be depended upon. The best is Doan's Kidney Pills, a medicine for the kidneys only, made from pure roots and herbs, and the only one that is backed by cures in Santa Fe. Here's Santa Fe testimony:

Tomas Baca, living on Cerillos street, Santa Fe, N. M., says: "Five years ago Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Ireland's Pharmacy brought me such great relief that I was pleased to tell people of Santa Fe what means to employ if they suffered from backache or any of the troubles which arise from weak and inactive kidneys. Prior to using Doan's Kidney Pills backache had been a source of annoyance to me for about three years. Though I was never laid up on account of it there were days when I did not feel able to work. The use of one box of Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me and I was well for six months, but hard labor brought on a return of the trouble. This attack, like the former was quickly and thoroughly dispelled by Doan's Kidney Pills. I have no desire to retract anything stated in my original endorsement and would like it understood that I still as heartily recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as when they first came to my notice."

Why Colds Are Dangerous.

Because you have contracted ordinary colds and recovered from them without treatment of any kind, do not for a moment imagine that colds are not dangerous. Everyone knows that pneumonia and chronic catarrh have their origin in a common cold. Consumption is not caused by a cold but the cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the germs that would not otherwise have found lodgment. It is the same with all infectious disease. Diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles and whooping cough are much more likely to be contracted when the child has a cold. You will see from this that more real danger lurks in a cold than in any other of the common ailments. The easiest and quickest way to cure a cold is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The many remarkable cures effected by this preparation have made it a staple article of trade over a large part of the world. For sale by all druggists.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF SANTA FE COUNTY.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every postoffice in the Territory, and as a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the Southwest.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President—William Howard Taft, of Ohio For Vice-President—James Schoolcraft Sherman, of New York For Delegate to Sixty-first Congress—W. H. Andrews. For Member of Council From Santa Fe and Sandoval Counties—T. B. Catron For Member of the House From Santa Fe and Sandoval Counties—E. A. Miera

ANDREWS VS. LARRAZOLO.

About as straightforward and clean cut a Republican newspaper as there is in the territory is the Times under the able editorship of George V. Johnson, published at Portales the prosperous county seat of the rapidly growing county of Roosevelt.

Larrazolo and the Democratic bosses claim the county and the county towns as strongly Democratic but certainly there are several papers located there which are making a splendid fight for statehood and for the election of Delegate Andrews whose election will bring about statehood.

The New Mexican takes great pleasure in reproducing a very sound and able editorial under the head, "Andrews vs. Larrazolo," which appeared recently in the columns of the Times. It does not mince matters, but gives the situation clearly and convincingly. The editorial reads:

"The campaign by O. A. Larrazolo is proving a flat failure as far as Democratic success is concerned, but of great benefit to the Republican candidate, Hon. W. H. Andrews, the man who does things for New Mexico.

"One of the principal points in Mr. Larrazolo's campaign and speeches is the preaching in the New Mexican native precincts to the voters to cast their votes against Delegate Andrews because he is an American and born in Pennsylvania, and to vote for him, (Larrazolo) because he is a Mexican, one of their own blood and race, because he will protect their interests if elected.

"He does not say to these citizens that he is not a native New Mexican, that he was born in Chihuahua, that he simply wants the office to get a fat salary and, if Bryan is elected, to put his New Mexican friends into office and get the Gringos out.

"In the counties where the Spanish language is spoken and where little English is heard, he tells his audience that the Gringos came here and robbed the natives out of their heritage, their live stock, their homes, and want to drive them out of the Sunshine Territory, that this is the object of Delegate Andrews, Governor Curry, Chairman Bursum, Solomon Luna and other Republican leaders.

"He tells his listeners in the Spanish speaking precincts that what he tells his hearers in the precincts where only English is spoken—in Union, in Quay, in Roosevelt and in Eddy counties—is told simply to bamble them and get their votes. Then when he is elected he will see that the native New Mexicans, whose fathers came here hundreds and hundreds of years ago, will govern this territory to suit themselves.

"The Gringos," said he, "came to this territory to suppress the natives. They have already taken much of our heritage and much of our property and it is time to stop them. You can do this by defeating Andrews, who is a Pennsylvanian, not born here, speaks no Spanish, and by electing me who will turn out to be the sovereign of the Spanish people."

"He also tells them that Bryan is sure of election and if so Larrazolo will put them into office, and will insist that all office holders are native born and raised in this territory, and that no man who is not born and raised in this territory and who does not speak the Spanish language will be recognized.

"In a few precincts it seems his misrepresentations have had some effect, but the Republicans are undoing the harm he has done and by election day it will be found that he has been defeated. There are many citizens of our territory of Mexican decent and Spanish lineage who are loyal citizens and desire statehood and independence for the territory and who will not support Mr. Larrazolo.

"In comparison with the campaign being made by Mr. Larrazolo let us take a look at the career of Delegate Andrews. It is well established and every intelligent citizen knows it to be a fact that Delegate Andrews makes no distinction in his official duties and in the treatment of our citizens, as to where they were born, where they came from or whether they are rich or poor. He treats all alike and does all that he possibly can do to help them in their desires or needs in the national capital.

"Mr. Andrews has succeeded in doing great things for the territory and has brought in more federal cash and has secured more buildings and more appropriations than all the delegates before him. He is a genial, kind-hearted courteous man alike to all his constituents and attends to their wishes promptly and without delay.

"Mr. Andrews will succeed in securing statehood if any delegate can. He has strong influence with President Roosevelt, with the national administration and with congressmen and will surely secure the passage of a statehood bill and our admission into the sisterhood of states, which our people want.

"We think it proper to state right here that Governor Curry has lately returned from Washington, having made a visit with President Roosevelt who assured him that he would do all that he could properly and honorably do for the admission of New Mexico as a state that he would make such a recommendation in his message and that he would be highly pleased and greatly gratified to sign the enabling act.

"In our territory it is not so much a matter of politics as our citizens cannot vote for Bryan. It is a matter of statehood and benefit to the territory. Let our citizens consider the conditions and take their choice."

THEY WILL VOTE FOR TAFT AND SHERMAN ON NOVEMBER 3RD.

From all points in the United States, except the Solid South, come reports that the best citizens, the business men, those who carry on the active and growing industries of this great country and also many labor organizations whose members are finding that with Taft and Sherman as President and Vice-President and a Republican Congress, stability and increase in business, will be experienced, will cast their ballots for the Republican nominees on November the third. Thousands are turning towards Taft and Sherman and the election of these two Republican candidates is as sure as anything can be.

The Pueblo Chieftain voices the opinion of the leading business men very well and timely when it says that there is much talk about the effect that Democratic success in the national election this year would have upon business, and naturally there is a wide difference of opinion between the advocates of Bryan and those of Taft.

The following statement was made by a delegate to the National Bankers' convention in Denver, and is reprinted from the New York Post. It seems to be a very fair, reasonable and conservative statement of the matter:

"Bryan in the White House would not send the country to the dogs, but it would give us a terrific shock. Think of the 'Trust-busting' lawyers who would be available for the Department of Justice, and of the flat money man who would stand a chance of succeeding Cortelyou! The Bryan of 1908 could not afford, under such conditions, to go back on the handful of financiers who stood by him in 1896, and the result would be, I think, anything but reassuring to those who are familiar with the tremendous power which goes with the treasury portfolio. However much I dislike Roosevelt and the methods which he used to force Taft upon the public, I must not forget that Bryan will always be Bryan. It is folly to believe otherwise, for he never stood for anything stable, and the best that he could do for us in this campaign has been the impossible proposal for a government guarantee of bank deposits.

"It is true that a Republican Senate might limit Bryan's power to work mischief. But the presidency is a high office, and to advertise to the world our willingness to place such a man as Bryan in it would be a sure way to continue the period of unsettlement."

Despite falsehoods and venomous lies by the Democratic campaign speakers and their yellow sheets, for boodle, the strength of Delegate Andrews for re-election to Congress is daily increasing. Truly, the dirty and foul abuse of the delegate by his opponents, is reacting like a boomerang and aiding the Republican cause.

REPUBLICAN SUCCESS WILL DO SANTA FE THE MOST GOOD.

The Republicans of Santa Fe county will hold their primaries next Friday and their county convention next Tuesday, October 20, for the nomination of one candidate for the house of representatives and county officials. The campaign will be found long enough, and with good nominations, conditions today are very favorable to Republican success. The opposition, Democratic and otherwise, is not at all organized, and has not much to go on except wind and fog, and neither of these will impress the voters of this city and county.

The New Mexican believes, and bases its belief on the reports of politicians, that the Republicans of Santa Fe will be successful and that the property owners, the business men, and all those who have the advance and prosperity of the capital, city and the county at heart, will unite in voting a straight Republican ticket from Andrews down.

It has been duly demonstrated that nothing can be won by scratching Andrews and voting for Larrazolo, but that much great and lasting harm to this city and county will be done by such a course.

On the other hand if Andrews is re-elected there is every hope and indication that statehood will come to the Sunshine Territory next year, that this city will be the capital, that this county's very burdensome railroad debt will be removed, that every piece of property, real or live stock, residence or agricultural, will increase 50 per cent in value and the taxes of this county will be cut down to a very low standard.

This is the situation in a nutshell. It is well known to every man and voter who knows anything or desires to know anything concerning conditions, for his own fortune, for increasing values of his own property, and for the benefit especially of this city and county.

The New Mexican urges all voters to register and on Tuesday, November the third, to proceed to the polls and to vote for the ticket which will do them the most good in every possible direction and the candidates on which if elected, will give them a straightforward, honest, efficient and fair county government.

LARRAZOLO HAS THE GIFT OF GAB.

The Carrizozo Outlook prints a very interesting and unique pen picture of O. A. Larrazolo, candidate of the "unfettered" Democracy for delegate to the Sixty-first Congress, which is very readable and timely. The readers of the New Mexican will enjoy it and hence it is republished herewith:

"It is strange how much fuss some men can make over nothing. To read the Democratic press of the territory a person would be led to believe that Larrazolo was a wonder. They have him labeled as the real thing. They purport him to be just about the real thing—a yard wide, all wool and warranted. He is an ideal, immune to any evil thoughts, absolutely devoid of anything akin to shady methods, in fact, only needing a pair of wings to make him an angel. Now if the Noisy Spaniard had ever done anything to justify this opinion it would be a far different matter. But he hasn't. If the Democrats had not nominated him he would never have been known outside his own county. He has never done the first thing to attract an atom of attention his way. He has never done anything brilliant or the least bit unusual in his life. Positively the only distinguished feature about him—the only way in which he differs from any other ordinary man—is his gift of speech. He has what is probably a much better flow of language than have most men but that is all. And yet all this hubbub about his qualifications for higher office are built on this one accomplishment. We are implored to give heed to his many commendable features and sterling worth, but as yet nothing plausible in the way of demonstrating that worth has ever evidenced itself, and the only excuse for his candidacy (save that he is a Democrat) is the fact that he has good lungs and a gift of gab. Its such a case of 'much ado about nothing.'"

REPUBLICAN NEWSPAPERS IN DEMOCRATIC COUNTRIES

It is a singular fact in this present campaign that many newspapers published in Democratic towns and counties are strongly and unequivocally supporting Delegate Andrews and the Republican party. Here, for instance, is the Deming Graphic, which has done fine work for the Republican campaign and for the Republican cause, making the following vigorous comment:

"Inasmuch as the return of Delegate Andrews to Congress means the securing of statehood for New Mexico, for which men now old began to battle for in their youth, is it not up to every voter in the territory to extend him his loyal support regardless of any party connection? We think it is. The future of the Territory hangs in the balance; men like Patrick Henry and those other grand old patriots of old, would vote for the man 'who does things' were they alive to day, and we can't believe otherwise than that the sturdy sons of New Mexico will on November 3rd, show that that pioneer spirit, which has as its guiding star the love of liberty and freedom is as much within their souls as it ever was, by giving the greatest delegate New Mexico ever had in Congress a majority between eight and ten thousand."

The Saving Habit

If you are thrifty, you have some of your money left over. The extra money is the foundation for future riches, if you will only persistently save it. What if it does only amount to a few dimes or nickels a day—there are going to be a great many days in your life! and these dimes and nickels will grow into a good large sum. The opportunity may come, when a few hundred dollars might change your whole financial condition; Might mean buying an interest in some growing business; Might give you a chance to grasp your next opportunity.

AND WHAT IS THE USE OF ALL THIS?

Why it just means making a man of you.
Making you free to do as you wish.
Making you and your family happy and contented.

J. G. Skinner, the new special agent appointed by the local United States land office, has arrived in this city from Minnesota and taken up the duties of his new position. Mr. Skinner was a practicing lawyer in Minnesota where he was held in high esteem by his fellow members of the bar.

Colonel Venecio Jaramillo, leading citizen of Rio Arriba county and prominent merchant and sheep raiser at El Rito, who spent the past several days here visiting relatives and consulting with Governor Curry and Republican officials on political affairs in his county, returned home this morning. Colonel Jaramillo will do yeoman work from now until election day for the Republican ticket in his county.

General H. F. Robinson, superintendent of construction of the Zuni Dam and Reservoir system on the Zuni reservation, is in the city on official business. The work is nearly completed and the system will irrigate a good many thousand acres of land to be cultivated by the colony of Indians there. It is one of the most scientific irrigation works undertaken by the government under the direction of the Indian office.

J. L. Robb, of Amistad, a surveyor and engineer, and who is candidate on the Republican ticket for surveyor of Union county reached the city last evening and registered at the Claire. Mr. Robb is also chief engineer of the new Mountain Valley and Plains Railway which is projected from Cimarron in Colfax county to Amistad, southern Union county, and came to the city to make memorandum and data of the field notes of the townships through which the proposed line is to pass. Stop That Cold

To check early colds or Grippe with "Preventics" means sure defeat for Pneumonia. To stop a cold with Preventics is safer than to let it run and be obliged to cure it afterwards. To be sure, Preventics will cure even a deeply seated cold, but taken early—as the sneeze stage—they break, or head off these early colds. That's surely better. That's why they are called Preventics. Preventics are little Candy Cold Cures. No Quinine, no physic, nothing sickening. Nice for the children—and thoroughly safe too. If you feel chilly, if you sneeze, if you ache all over, think of Preventics. Promptness may also save half your usual sickness. And don't forget your child, if there is feverishness, night-day. Herein probably lies Preventics' greatest efficiency. Sold in 5c boxes for the pocket, also in 25c boxes of 48 Preventics. Insist on your druggists giving you

THE WORD PARLOR GOES.

Living Room Takes the Place of Old Time Parlor.

"If I had my way," remarked the motherly looking woman, with conviction, "I should eliminate the word 'parlor' from the dictionary. Why, I know ever so many good women, well intentioned, hardworking and self sacrificing, who run this parlor idea into the ground and are so uncomfortable to live with that their children and husbands go out to spend the evenings to get away from the stiffness and discomfort of their own homes."

"I have a family in mind right now who only heat their parlor on Sundays. The furniture is too good for everyday use. The daughter can't practice on the piano because the glorious sunshine would fade the carpet, even supposing she wouldn't take her death of cold. Why, if they have evening callers, they have to take them into the dining room until the parlor's heated."

"I have another friend with a genius for creating the true home spirit. Her big front room is warm and comfortable all the time. A large table in the center, around which the family sit, is provided with a drop light, soft and brilliant. Magazines in abundance are ready to the hand, and a soft couch with innumerable pillows—not very ornamental, but, oh, so comfortable—occupies a cozy corner. Everything is gracious and homelike, and the faces are all so happy and contented."

"The average household in moderate circumstances is sufficiently limited for room without reserving the largest and airiest apartment for company use. 'Nothing too good for the family is my motto,' finished the comfortable looking woman."

FOR THE HALL.

A Flower Stand and How It is Easily Constructed.

A flower pedestal suitable for a hall or spacious landing on a stairway is illustrated. It should be about four and a half feet high and the four uprights made from good pine one inch and a half square. The base must be made as heavy and solid as possible, and can best be built up of inch boards, with the edges neatly beveled to form a molding. It should be eighteen inches square, and the four uprights must be firmly screwed through from underneath and further strengthened by four pieces of inch material six inches wide, as shown in the illustration. The shelves, top and brackets are also of inch wood. After it has been sandpapered smooth a suitable finish would be to paint it ivory white, with an egg-shell finish. Two or three coats must be given, and the sandpaper should be again used before the final coat. Five glazed earthenware pots will be required of a pale peacock blue color, and thick felt mats of the same color should be placed on the shelves for them to stand on. The result will be a most pleasing color scheme, the ivory white and pale blue well setting off the delicate green foliage of ferns and perhaps some dainty pale blossoms.

Place For Post Cards.

After every ardent collector of post cards has filled a few albums she begins to yearn for another mode of classifying and arranging her still growing fund. And, knowing this, a clever person has evolved the charming idea of utilizing these decorative cards in house decorating purposes with amazingly artistic results.

One has a chance for great ingenuity and originality in the making of screens, panels or boxes—small ones for gloves and handkerchiefs and large ones for one's delicate blouses, pretty corner cupboards, mirror frames, friezes for the nursery, with appropriate cards, or for one's own dainty bedroom with quite another sort of cards, or still another kind for a billiard room or a man's small library.

Hair on the Arms.

By using depilatories for removing a growth of soft hairs from the arms you will create for yourself a fine output of bristles. It is absolutely impossible for any external application to actually kill a hair growth, for the hair creating papilla is often a fourth of an inch below the surface of the skin, and this papilla goes on creating a hair until the papilla itself is destroyed.

The Man Who Murdered Himself.

(Original.)

One morning a man stepped into the office of the chief of police of Wendgate and said:

"A murder has been committed about a mile from this town. I saw the murderer ride the body and come in this direction. I followed him and saw him go into a restaurant."

An officer was sent to where the murder had been committed to bring in the body. Another went with the informant to the restaurant, where the murderer was found and arrested. He was taken to the police office, and the dead man soon arrived at the same place. An examination showed that the man had been killed by a blow from some iron or wooden substance. In the pockets was no money, but a pocketbook containing cards on which were printed the name Russell Rowe. The prisoner was searched, but no valuables or papers were found on him. He was a well dressed man of respectable appearance. The murdered man was quite the reverse. His clothes were shabby, and the body gave evidence that he drank.

When the prisoner was asked for his name, he gave it as Russell Rowe, the name on the cards in the dead man's pockets. The chief of police looked at him scrutinizingly, wondering what this statement would have to do with his line of defense. Then he asked the man for his story. It was this:

He had been walking along the road when he was overtaken by a man, who asked him for money. He was uncertain of the man's intentions and hoped to get off by giving him something. He took out his pocketbook, and the man caught sight of a large roll of bills.

After that the prisoner remembered nothing till he came to himself some time later. He was lying in the road, with a terrible pain in the back of his head. Feeling in his pockets, he found his money gone. With difficulty he arose and tottered on. He had gone but a short distance when he came upon a dead body, which he recognized at once as that of the man who had robbed him. He searched the clothes for his money, but, not finding it, went on to the town, where he could get a stimulant to brace him up. He was arrested while drinking a glass of whisky.

"That," said the chief, "is one of the most ingenious yarns I have ever heard from a criminal, but when you made it up you forgot one important part—the money he took from you."

The prisoner stuck to his story, and the indictment against him read that

Russell Rowe was indicted for killing an unknown man, supposed to have been Russell Rowe. In other words, he was indicted for killing himself. He brought witnesses from a distant city, where he belonged, to identify him, but the prosecuting attorney badgered them so with questions as to whether they were perfectly certain and how they knew they were certain and whether they might not possibly be mistaken that they broke down and couldn't swear positively that the man was Russell Rowe, whom some of them had known for years.

The attorney for the defense got up a theory to account for the disappearance of the money, but there was nothing probable in it. Even if the disappearance were satisfactorily explained there were the visiting cards to establish the identity of the real Russell Rowe. The attorney's explanation fell flat, being unsupported by the least evidence.

The prosecuting attorney in summing up explained the nature of circumstantial evidence to the jury—that would be weak, what strong, evidence. He reviewed the evidence against the prisoner. He had been discovered rifling the pockets. If he had found anything, it had been easy to get rid of it before his arrest. This proof he contrasted with the prisoner's improbable story. Thus he made it clear to the jury, and the judge charged them in accordance with the evidence. They were but half an hour bringing in a verdict of guilty.

Notwithstanding the plainness of the case there were some who felt that a mistake was being made. The prisoner's lawyer was in an agony at the result. He fought the case with delays, but they were of no avail. Nothing but new evidence could save the prisoner, and new evidence was not forthcoming. The prisoner was finally hanged, protesting his innocence of the crime and declaring that he was the man who had been murdered.

The Russell Rowe case, which had attracted much attention, had come to be a thing of the past and was gradually being forgotten except by Rowe's attorney and the chaplain who attended him in his last moments, who could never forget it. Years after the tragedy a man named Hardy was convicted of murder and robbery. Immediately before his execution he made a confession of another murder of which he had never been suspected. He and a man named James Skilling had been companions in crime. One day they saw a man display a large roll of bills. Afterward he started to walk to Windgate. They followed him, Hardy going around and ahead of him. Skilling met Hardy. Skilling came up with the man and did the job. When Skilling met Hardy he claimed there was no money in the case. Hardy did not believe him. They quarreled, and Hardy killed Skilling, took the money and went away, leaving the body in the road. It is easy to complete the chain of events—Hardy took the money, leaving Russell Rowe's pocketbook and cards on the body.

ANOTHER LARGE BEARKILLED ON UPPER PECOS

Gregorio Bustos, an employe of the Tabor-Vogt Mercantile company at Glorieta, shot and killed a large black bear, three miles west of the Valley Ranch on the upper Pecos a few days ago.

Bustos found fresh bear tracks early one morning while searching for strayed stock. He followed them for several hours and was rewarded by overtaking bruin. He succeeded in wounding the bear but it led him an all day chase. While following the wounded bear he managed to kill another bear which he jumped. The wounded bear made good its escape.

This is the second bear that has been killed within the past ten days on the upper Pecos. The grizzlies are reported to be unusually plentiful in that section this season, several old bears and half a dozen cubs being seen by ranchmen living there.

TOURISTS ENJOYING SIGHT-SEEING TRIP ON HORSEBACK

James F. Miller of the Valley Ranch, on the upper Pecos, left the ranch yesterday morning with a horseback party on an extensive sight-seeing trip. The route includes Windsor's Ranch, Spirit Lake, Pecos Baldy, the city of Santa Fe, and if accommodations can be secured, the Cliff Dwellings in Pajarito Park. The following compose the party:

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Miller, of the Valley Ranch; Dr. and Mrs. Oscar Johnson, Mrs. Herbert J. Allen, Miss Marcia Kettelle, T. P. Hodge, H. John Prendergast and H. D. Webster, all of Chicago.

The trip will consume about a week and the party is due to arrive in Santa Fe on next Wednesday evening, where they will be guests at the Claire hotel.

BRYAN NOT FATIGUED BY STRENUOUS TOUR

Columbus, Neb. Oct. 14.—W. J. Bryan began his second day's tour of Nebraska today without showing any signs of fatigue from the ten hours of actual talking and fifteen hours of traveling yesterday. He made the first speech of the day at North Bend at 8 o'clock. At Schuyler he said he resented what he termed the unfair attitude of President Roosevelt in taking part in the campaign. He had supposed he was running against one Republican, but it seems he is pitted against two.

S.S.S. NATURE'S PERFECT TONIC

There is scarcely any one, no matter how vigorous and healthy, who does not need a tonic sometimes. Little physical irregularities upset the system, the appetite fails, digestion is poor, the body feels tired and worn out, and other unpleasant symptoms give warning that the system is disordered and needs assistance to ward off, perhaps, some serious sickness or ailment. S. S. S. is recognized everywhere as the best of all tonics, nature's medicine, made entirely of healing, cleansing, invigorating roots and herbs, a systemic remedy without an equal. S. S. S. has the additional value of being the greatest of all blood purifiers. It re-establishes the healthy circulation of the blood, rids the body of that tired, worn-out feeling, improves the appetite and digestion, and brings about a return of health to those whose systems have been weakened or depleted. S. S. S. acts more promptly and pleasantly than any other medicine, and those who are run down in health should commence its use at once. It will thoroughly purify the blood and tone up the system. S. S. S. is admirably suited for a systemic remedy because it is free from minerals; it may be used without harmful results by persons of any age, and no unpleasant effects ever follow.
