UNTERRIFIED NAME A COUNTY TICKET

Delegates Ratify Slate of Party Bosses

ENTHUSIASM WAS LACKING

Fiery Resolutions Fail to In- flame Conventions Was Expected.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

Candidates for Council and House from Santa Fe and Sandoval counties to be selected by central committees of the two counties.

Candidate for House from Santa Fe county—Wilbur F. Castle, of Stanley.

County Commissioner, Second District—A. H. Case, of San Pedro.

Commissioner, Third District—Cesarito Ortiz, of Pojoaque.

Sheriff—Frank Owen, of Santa Fe. (He declined.)

Probate Judge—Feliciano Lobato, of Lamy.

Probate Clerk—Alfredo Delgado, of Santa Fe.

Treasurer and Collector—Dr. J. H. Sloan, of Santa Fe.

Assessor—Carlos Abreu, of Santa Fe.

Superintendent of Schools—Marcelino Garcia, of Santa Fe.

County Surveyor—Hugh F. DuVal, of Santa Fe.

The "unterrified" of Santa Fe county have named a full county ticket, to be voted upon at the coming election. The disciples of Jefferson and Bryan after much persuasion managed to scrape up the semblance of a county ticket which was formally launched last night.

The Democrats met several weeks ago in this city, at the call of the county central committee, bent upon naming a ticket, but at that time the party leaders and delegates were unable to get together. There was a feeling that the Democrats should wait and see what the Republicans intended to do about naming a county ticket and hence an adjournment was taken for the time being.

When it became apparent that the Republicans with probably one or two exceptions would re-nominate the present county officials, the unterrified decided that it was time for them to get into the game. That they have gotten into the game with both feet, figuratively speaking, is attested by yesterday's convention.

Leaders Select Slate.

The convention met yesterday afternoon at the court house at 2:30 o'clock and after effecting temporary organization and naming committees on permanent organization, resolutions and credentials, adjourned until last night at 7:30 o'clock. During the recess intervening, the party bosses held several caucuses and framed a slate of candidates. When the convention met there was nothing for it to do but to ratify this slate, which the delegates did without a dissenting vote.

The convention was fairly well attended, most of the precincts being represented. While the court room was filled, this was due in a great measure to the presence of many interested Republicans, curious to witness the proceedings.

Band Played Dixie.

The Elks band had been engaged for the occasion to add a little life to the gathering and after it had played "Dixie," Chairman of the Democratic County Central Committee Charles F. Easley, called the convention to order at promptly 8 o'clock.

The first business in order was the report of the committee on permanent organization. It reported the following officers:

Chairman—Charles P. Fergusson, of Stanley.

Vice Presidents—Juan Jose Silva, of Galisteo, and Matias Dominguez, of Santa Fe.

Secretary—Alfredo Delgado, of Santa Fe.

The report of the committee was adopted and a committee appointed by the chair, escorted the officers to their seats.

"Sizzling" Resolutions.

When the report of the committee on resolutions was called for, Judge N. B. Laughlin, veteran of the "unterrified" and New Mexico lieutenant of the Peerless Bryan, advanced to the rostrum, struck a haughty Napoleon pose and opened fire. The resolutions, like all Democratic resolutions, consisted of a tirade against Republican party principles, leaders and officials. They opened up with an endorsement of the national Democratic party, its standard bearer and its platform; pledged allegiance to Candidate O. A. Larrazolo and the legislative candidates on the party ticket, declared in favor of the primary system and ended with a few "choice" remarks about certain county officials. With reference to Larrazolo, the resolutions said that if elected, he would try and get statehood. The Republicans no doubt will not deny that Larrazolo "would try." That is about as far as he would get. They claim and have every reason to believe that Delegate Andrews will not only try, but will get statehood for New Mexico. Despite their apparent fierceness, the resolutions, to the disappointment of the chairman of the committee, did not inflame the delegates, as he had expected they would. They were greeted with half-hearted applause here and there, but generally speaking were taken in a matter-of-fact way.

Ratify Larrazolo's Nomination.

Hoping to inject at least a little ginger in the convention, Charles F. Easley, after the report on resolutions had been adopted, took the floor and made a motion that the convention ratify the nomination of that noble man of all men, Octaviano A. Larrazolo, as Democratic candidate for delegate to Congress. In making his motion, Mr. Easley praised Larrazolo to the skies and predicted his election by an overwhelming majority on November 3rd. The convention took kindly to the motion and was willing to ratify the nomination. In fact the delegates acceded to every suggestion of the bosses, as kindergarten pupils would mind their teacher.

But One Candidate For Each Office.

When nominations were called for, it was suggested that the selection of joint candidates for the council and the House of the Thirty-eighth legislative assembly be left to the central committees of the counties of Santa Fe and Sandoval. The suggestion was satisfactory and the selection of these candidates will be made in this manner.

For the county of Santa Fe, the candidate for the House will be Wilbur Castle, a resident of Stanley, who is editor of the Stanley Index, a weekly paper.

A full county ticket was nominated, all the candidates but one graciously accepting. The one exception was Frank Owen, who was nominated for sheriff. In a burst of oratory, Mr. Owen said he was compelled to decline the honor because of pressing business, but pledged his support to the ticket because of his undying love for Democracy, particularly the Texas brand, where he said, he never saw a Republican in his life until after he was fifteen years old. He did not say, however, that he did not know one when he saw him nowadays. Despite his protest, Mr. Owen's name went on the ticket. However, if he refuses to make the race the central committee will supply a candidate, who rumor says, will be Marcelino Garcia, who was named for superintendent of county schools.

The convention then nominated the ticket which appears at the head of this article.

MEN OF THE HOUR IN NEW MEXICO

CAPTAIN JOHN W. POE, OF ROSWELL.
President of the Citizens' National Bank of the Pecos Valley Metropolis.

Among the honored members of the Grand Lodge of New Mexico Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons who are attending the 33rd annual grand communication of the Grand Lodge in Albuquerque, is noticed Captain John W. Poe, president of the Citizens' National Bank of Roswell, and a leading and wealthy citizen of that growing and important town. Captain Poe is a very busy man and at present in addition to his banking and Masonic duties is the president of the board of public works which has in charge the construction of an extensive water supply and sewer system in the Pecos Valley metropolis, the cost of which will amount to about $400,000.

He is a true and consistent Mason and in every respect a citizen of high reputation, great morality and intense public spirit.

Captain Poe is a native of the Blue Grass state, having been born in Mason county, Kentucky, October 17, 1850. His ancestors were early settlers of Kentucky, coming from Virginia, and his family is an old Virginia family. He was raised on a farm and attended country school until 18 years of age. His father and mother were highly respected in their vicinity. He went West as soon as he left school in order to make his own fortune. He had no other schooling except a common school education for the time being, but has educated himself since by constant reading and observation, until he is today a well educated man.

He entered into the business of stock raiser and farmer and came to Roswell in 1880 being one of the leading settlers in that section. His first place of settlement was on a ranch near Fort Stanton, Lincoln county. He was twice elected sheriff of Lincoln county by his fellow citizens by large majorities and made a splendid record as a fearless and efficient public officer during the stormy and turbulent days in what was then the great county of Lincoln, now cut into Lincoln, Otero, Chaves, Eddy and Roosevelt counties. He moved from Lincoln to Roswell in the early eighties, near which place he acquired a very fine orchard and farm. In the town government there he was elected as town trustee twice. He served as a member of the territorial board of equalization one term creditably and honorably. He has been happily married a good many years, Mrs. Poe being a very amiable and estimable woman.

In politics, Captain Poe is Democratic and a staunch and good Democrat at that, but always ready to support the best public measures for the good of his city, county and of the people. At present he is president of a flourishing institution in Roswell, namely, the Citizens' National Bank, which enjoys a fine reputation, has a solid foundation and does a splendid business.

Captain Poe lived in Texas from 1872 to 1880 and during his residence in that state, served for several years as deputy U. S. marshal and deputy sheriff. He was also elected city marshal and served for one year in that position at Fort Griffin in the times when that place was a flourishing cattle town and notorious as a rendezvous for tough characters, and he took an active part for years in ridding Texas as well as New Mexico of lawless characters. He did so only because it was necessary to the civilization and development of the country and not because he loved that kind of life.

Captain Poe was at one time captain of the New Mexico militia and saw considerable service. In all positions which he has filled, public and private, he has acquitted himself with remarkably good tact and success. He is a wealthy man today and is truly a self-made man, having made all of his property by personal energy, hard work and business ability.

were twelve Past Grand Masters present.

The Grand Masters address and the reports of the Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer were delivered and referred to the appropriate committees.

Tuesday Morning Session.

The Grand Lodge convened in regular order. Grand Master Willson presided. At 11 o'clock this forenoon the election of officers was held with the following result:

C. D. Stevens, of Raton, Grand Master; Frank Johnson, San Marcial, Deputy Grand Master; E. L. Medler, Albuquerque, Senior Grand Warden; W. B. Walton, Silver City, Junior Grand Warden; A. J. Malloy, Albuquerque, Grand Treasurer; A. A. Keen, Albuquerque, Grand Secretary.

The Grand Lodge then adjourned until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Duke Starts For U. S.

Turin, Italy, Oct. 20.—The Duke of Abruzzi has suddenly disappeared from Turin and a report has gained circulation that he has sailed for the United States under an assumed name for an audience with U. S. Senator Stephen B. Elkins.

Elkins Still Evasive.

Elkins, W. Va., Oct. 20.—When the cable dispatches from Turin and London, in connection with the alleged engagement of Miss Katherine Elkins and the Duke of Abruzzi were brought to the attention of U. S. Senator Elkins by the Associated Press here today, he said:

"The information is news to my family and myself. We cannot say anything, because we do not know anything about it."

The total death list is estimated at no less than 3,000.

WONDERFUL OVATION ACCORDED ANDREWS INSURES HIS ELECTION

Special to the New Mexican.

Carrizozo, N. M., Oct. 20.—The Republican campaign party consisting of Delegate W. H. Andrews, Governor George Curry, R. C. Ely, Jose D. Sena and R. H. Sims, arrived here Sunday morning. After a consultation with prominent business men, the party left for Lincoln, in carriages, accompanied by a large local contingent. Owing to it being Sunday, no speeches were made, but a general reception for Delegate Andrews and Governor Curry was held at the hotel at Lincoln and over three hundred voters shook hands with the governor and delegate.

Monday morning a big mass meeting was held in the court house, which was packed to the doors. The party then drove to Captain, where R. C. Ely addressed a large audience for twenty minutes. Another twenty-minute speech was made at Nogal.

Both Delegate Andrews and Governor Curry were simply overwhelmed by receptions in Lincoln county. Parents brought their whole families for miles to meet the party. Every por-

NEGROES COMMIT BRUTAL MURDERS

Assassinate Promi- nent Tennessee Lawyers

REVENGE WAS THE MOTIVE

Posses in Pursuit of Fiends and Lynching is Feared If They are Caught.

Union City, Tenn., Oct. 20.—Word comes from Reel Foot Lake that Hon. R. Z. Taylor and Captain Quinten Rankin, both prominent lawyers of Trenton, Tennessee, who were fishing on the lake, were assassinated by negroes sometime during last night.

Taylor's body was found hanging to a tree, literally riddled with bullets. Rankin, when found, was not dead, and it is not known here whether he still lives or not.

Rankin was one of the lawyers who recently instituted suit against people fishing at the lake and held stock in a former organization, which controlled the lake. It is reported that Taylor also held stock in the company.

Posses of infuriated citizens have gone in search of the fiends and should they be captured they will likely be lynched on the spot. So high is indignation at Trenton that a race war is not improbable.

EARTHQUAKES CAUSE UNEASINESS IN MANILA

Manila, P. I., Oct. 20.—Commencing at 1:40 o'clock yesterday morning, a series of slight earthquake shocks were felt in Manila at irregular intervals until 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Only four shocks were pronounced, the others numbering about a dozen, being merely recorded by the seismograph instruments which continued to vibrate for several hours. Two shocks were especially sharp but no damage was done in the city and none is reported in other places. Many persons fled from buildings during the more severe shocks, but the people generally were calm.

BOSTON WOOL MARKET CONTINUES TO IMPROVE

Boston, Oct. 20.—The improvement in the local wool market which began a month ago, continues with active demands. Prices are firm and there is an increased air of confidence in the situation. The inclinations apparently are to hold onto stock. Fine Montana clothing is selling freely at 17, Utah fine medium at 14 1-2, Oregon eastern staple at 13 1-2 and good northern California is quoted at 17. Other lines are also much in demand.

STRENUOUS DAY FOR CANDIDATE W. H. TAFT

Cumberland, Md., Oct. 20.—Fifteen speeches are on the itinerary of Judge Taft today. All but two are to be delivered in West Virginia along the line of the Baltimore and Ohio railway. The first speech of the day was made at Martinsburg, West Virginia, where a mammoth crowd greeted the candidate. Today's tour will end with a night meeting at Parkersburg.

tion of the territory so far visited has gone into holiday session to greet its old comrades, Governor Curry and Delegate Andrews. That Governor Curry is the most popular man ever calling Lincoln county his home, is enthusiastically declared by members of every political party.

Monday night Carrizozo had a record-breaking mass meeting for the delegate and his party. A big chorus of ladies sang national airs and a fine orchestra played selections. Speeches were made by the delegate, R. C. Ely and others. Mr. Ely aroused the greatest enthusiasm.

The political workers of both parties in the towns visited in the past two weeks in Mora, Guadalupe, Union, Eddy, Chaves and Lincoln counties, are astounded at the magnificent campaign Delegate Andrews is making. His speeches are clear, concise and convincing and his personal following in these counties is something very encouraging to his co-workers. His election seems to be assured, the only question now being how great his plurality will be.

At the opera house tonight the change of pictures will be the "Ess-nay" feature film, "A Gilded Fool," one of the best temperance stories since "Ten Nights in a Bar Room." The story shows the hero, being left a legacy, which he spends in carousing and gambling, at last becoming a common sot, leaving his family in want and misery. He steals the covers off the child's bed to get drunk, is later converted by a Salvation Army lassie, saves the life of a bank president and at last comes back to his high place in the world. The other films are an "Edison," a story of Life in a Side Show, called "Skinny's Finish" and a "Pathe," called "Dynamite." As usual the latter is very funny. The song

Why Colds Are Dangerous.

Because you have contracted ordinary colds and recovered from them without treatment of any kind, do not for a moment imagine that colds are not dangerous. Everyone knows that pneumonia and chronic catarrh have their origin in a common cold. Consumption is not caused by a cold but the cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the germs that would not otherwise have found lodgment. It is the same with all infectious disease, Diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles and whooping cough are much more likely to be contracted when the child has a cold. You will see from this that more real danger lurks in a cold than in any other of the common ailments. The easiest and quickest way to cure a cold is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The many remarkable cures effected by this preparation have made it a staple article of trade over a large part of the world. For sale by all druggists.

Kodol

For Dyspepsia and Indigestion.

If you suffer from Indigestion or Dyspepsia; if you are annoyed with gas on the stomach, fullness after eating, belching, sour stomach, heartburn, etc., a few doses of Kodol will relieve you.

If you knew as well as we do how good a preparation Kodol is for indigestion and dyspepsia it would be unnecessary for us to guarantee a single bottle.

But to get you to know how good it is as well as we know, we practically will purchase the first bottle for you.

You wonder, perhaps, how we can afford to make such an offer—it is because we have absolute confidence in the honesty and fairness of the public.

We know there are thousands of persons who suffer from indigestion and dyspepsia who would be grateful to us for putting them in touch with Kodol.

That is why.

Furthermore, we know that after you have used Kodol your faith in the preparation will be equal to ours.

This proposition we make is not altogether unselfish, but it is actuated by the knowledge that the use of Kodol by you will benefit you as well as ourselves.

How could we afford to make such an offer to the public, and how could we afford to spend thousands of dollars to tell you about it unless we positively knew and were sure of the merits of Kodol.

We couldn't—it would bankrupt us.

But we know the merits of Kodol and we want you to know.

A perfect digester must contain many ingredients each in proper proportion.

It must be a liquid, because all those ingredients cannot be put into dry form.

It must be able to digest any food, or any mixtures of food, and completely.

Kodol does that even in a glass test tube.

No other digester can.

Kodol alone does all of the work. It stops all irritation, and gives the stomach complete rest.

It has taken us years to get a perfect digester, but we certainly have it now.

Please try it today at our risk.

It means more than relief. It means that the stomach will do its own work far sooner than you'll expect.

Kodol digests all the food you eat.

Eat what you want and let Kodol digest it.

Our Guarantee

Get a dollar bottle of Kodol, and do it today. Don't delay. And if you can honestly say that you did not receive any benefits from it after you have used the entire bottle the druggist will refund your money to you without question or delay. We will pay the druggist the price of the bottle purchased by you.

Any druggist will give you Kodol on these terms, because he knows our guarantee is good.

The $1.00 bottle contains 2½ times as much as the 50c bottle.

Kodol is prepared at the laboratories of E. O. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

Stomach troubles would more quickly disappear if the idea of treating the cause, rather than the effect, would come into practice. A tiny, inside, hidden nerve, says Dr. Shoop, governs and gives strength to the stomach. A branch, also goes to the heart, and one to the kidneys. When these "inside nerves" fail, then the organs must falter. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is directed specifically to these failing nerves. Within 48 hours after starting the restorative treatment patients say they realize a gain. Sold by The Ireland Pharmacy.

HON. L. B. PRINCE AS A LEGISLATOR.

Ex-Governor Prince has held the highest judicial and executive offices in New Mexico but his legislative experience was in New York before he came to this territory. As he is now nominated for a legislative position here, it is of interest to see how successful his work in that line was in the East. It was in the legislature of New York that he made the reputation which caused the national administration to offer him various high positions and resulted in his appointment as chief justice here. The success of his legislative work can best be seen, perhaps, from the satisfaction which it gave to his constituents.

The section of country in which he lived was heavily Democratic. As a rule no Republican could possibly be elected there. But Mr. Prince overcame the Democratic majority and was elected to the New York assembly in 1870. From the first he took a prominent position, and the people were so well satisfied that he was re-elected by a large majority. The second year he became chairman of the judiciary committee and was the leader in the impeachment of the corrupt judges. So strong was his popularity then that at the next election no candidate was nominated against him and he was elected unanimously; and this was repeated at his fourth election in 1873. This was without parallel in New York, in a district strongly opposed politically. The next year the Democratic leaders made a determined effort to recover the district and nominated their strongest man in opposition, but again Mr. Prince was elected by a large majority, running over 1,000 ahead of the party ticket.

In 1875 he took the nomination for the Senate although the Senate district, which contained more inhabitants than New Mexico, was considered hopelessly Democratic. Mr. Prince made what in these days would be called a "whirlwind campaign" based on his legislative record, and while the district gave a Democratic majority of 2,700, he ran 3,500 ahead of the Republican ticket and was elected by 900; an extraordinary proof of personal popularity. At the end of two years he declined a re-election and was offered the governorship of Idaho and several other high official positions and finally came to New Mexico as chief justice. He has frequently said that he preferred legislative work to any other; and this territory will now have the benefit of his varied experience.

WHO DOES THE LYING?

The New Mexican is informed on reliable authority that H. B. Fergusson, former Democratic delegate to Congress from New Mexico, and who has been of late engaged in touring and campaigning in the eastern New Mexico counties for and on behalf of the grand old Spaniard who was born in Chihuahua, has stated in his public meetings that Delegate W. H. Andrews did not procure the appropriation of thirty thousand dollars for the Sixteenth National Irrigation Congress and owing to which appropriation the Sixteenth National Irrigation Congress was made a success. If Mr. Fergusson did not make the statements he had better come out before the people and state, if he made these assertions the question arises, who is the liar?

Representative C. A. Tawney, of Minnesota, chairman of the committee on appropriations of the present House of Congress, addressed a letter to Colonel R. E. Twitchell, secretary of the Board of Control of the Sixteenth National Irrigation Congress, stating in plain and unequivocal language that the credit for the appropriation is due simply and solely to Delegate Andrews and that his influence in Congress and his work procured it. Now, who is the liar, Representative Tawney or Mr. Fergusson? Governor George Curry has repeatedly stated that Delegate Andrews was entitled to the credit for the appropriation, and now who is the liar, Governor Curry or Mr. Fergusson? Chairman W. S. Hopewell of the Board of Control of the Sixteenth National Irrigation Congress has also asserted several times that Delegate Andrews had done splendid work and that his influence and friends in Congress procured the thirty thousand dollar appropriation. Now, who is the liar, Colonel Honewell or Mr. Fergusson? R. E. Twitchell, secretary of the Board of Control of the Congress, addressed a letter to the New Mexican, stating plain ly and fearlessly that had it not been for Delegate Andrews' endeavors and diplomatic work no appropriation of thirty thousand dollars would have been made. Now who is the liar? Let Mr. Fergusson come forth and declare himself. His assertions may have some believers in Albuquerque but if they have that would be a great shame and disgrace. If there is a town in New Mexico that is beholden to Delegate Andrews for many, many favors it certainly is the Duke City. This is plain language, but it should be read and heeded especially by the voters of Albuquerque and those of Bernalillo county, who certainly reaped great good and much money from the holding of the Sixteenth National Irrigation Congress and the International exposition owing primarily and surely to the splendid labors of Delegate Andrews in their behalf.

TAFT'S SOUTHERN TOUR DOING GOOD.

Judge Taft's campaign tour to some of the Southern states may prove of great benefit and bring one or two states into the Republican ranks. Wherever he has been, in Missouri, in Kentucky, in North Carolina, in Virginia, and in Maryland, he has been enthusiastically received and spoke to great audiences who cheered him loudly and applauded him sincerely. Although he evidently does not believe so himself he seems to have made strong gains for the Republican party in Kentucky and Virginia.

The Washington Post commenting on his tour editorially expresses the following views which seem to be well taken:

"Mr. Taft's statement that 'I am going South to make a few speeches in Kentucky, Tennessee, North Carolina, Virginia and Maryland, not so much with a view to carrying those states as to show their people that they are a part of the Union, and as such ought to vote for the party which will give them the influence in the nation to which they are entitled,' would seem to show that he is either careless or misinformed as to Republican possibilities in two of the states—Kentucky and Maryland.

"Both of these states have ever been of the Union and have recent election records which should encourage the candidate with expectation of at least a fighting chance. A careful look over the election returns of the two states in the past twelve years should certainly not cause despondency to the Republican party.

"Kentucky cast her electoral vote for McKinley in 1896—it is true that this was the result of a very small plurality—and Bryan and Parker won out in 1900 and 1904, respectively. But since then the commonwealth has elected a Republican governor by 18,000 plurality, and has chosen a Republican—Bradley—to succeed a Democrat in the United States Senate. There ought to be some hope from these figures for a man of Mr. Taft's disposition.

"Maryland's course in the last three presidential campaigns should give greater promise to the Republican leaders, for in 1896 Bryan lost the state by 32,332 and McKinley was again victorious in 1900 by 13,491, while in 1904 the electoral vote was divided.

"Cheer up and fight on, Mr. Taft! The states are all of the Union."

A poll of the voters of the territory shows that the Socialists who have nominated W. B. Metcalf of Albuquerque, as their candidate for delegate will poll about three thousands votes. They have put up county tickets in several of the counties and in two or three claim that they will poll two to three hundred votes. Also in 1912 they will prove a great factor in New Mexico politics. As it is but two weeks until election their claims will soon be shown correct or incorrect. The New Mexican is of the opinion that they are flying too high.

From every point in New Mexico come reports that the territory is growing in industries and that new ones are constantly springing up. A broom factory is about to be started in Texico, Roosevelt county, with plenty of business ahead. The citizen who five years ago would have predicted that brooms would be manufactured on the staked plains in prosperous towns, would have been laughed at as a dreamer and as a theorist.

VERY FAVORABLE REPUBLICAN ELECTION CONDITIONS.

With the election only two weeks away, events have shaped themselves sufficiently to justify a forecast of results both nationally and territorially. There is no longer any doubt of Taft carrying every state that was carried by Roosevelt four years ago, excepting, perhaps, Missouri, in the place of which, Maryland will probably go Republican. The New York World, which has been making a good fight for Bryan, on last Saturday conceded that Taft will carry the election and the New York Herald, also Democratic, and always exceptionally well posted on the trend of political events, gives New York to Taft by a plurality that reaches 100,000.

In the territory, it is certain that Andrews will have at least 3,500 plurality over Larrazolo. One of the astonishing features of the election returns will be the great increase in the socialist vote, which will probably exceed the vote cast for Delegate Rodey when he ran four years ago as an independent candidate. In the Andrews column will be found the counties of Bernalillo, Colfax, Dona Ana, Guadalupe, Lincoln, McKinley, Mora, Otero, Rio Arriba, Sandoval, San Miguel Santa Fe, Sierra, Socorro, Taos, Torrance, Union and Valencia. Larrazolo is certain of Chaves Eddy, Quay, Roosevelt and Luna counties, with the probability of carrying Grant and San Juan counties by a small margin. That the legislature will be two thirds Republican and that this party will elect three-fourths of the county officials, even Democrats who are frank, admit. Whatever changes occur between now and election day, must redound to the benefit of the Republican party, for the force of the Democratic arguments advanced so early in the campaign, has spent itself; and whatever effect they may have had upon the wavering, is being effaced rapidly by the truth. The people have decided, and all that remains is to record the verdict on Tuesday, November 3.

The New Mexican has been honored with a copy of the constitution of Oklahoma. It is a formidable document of 175 printed pages and it will take many leisure hours to study its many provisions. It certainly differs from the admirable constitution of the United States in respect to its extraordinary length. One of its main defects is that it embodies many matters that have no place in a fundamental law, in a constitution, and that should have been left to the legislators and the statute books. On the other hand, it also embodies the wisdom of the advocates of radical ideas. As a model for New Mexico's constitution makers, its chief value will be in demonstrating how not to write a constitution. There is no doubt, that Oklahoma has suffered industrially and financially from the impression that has gone abroad, whether justly or unjustly, that its constitution is unfair to capital and vested interests.

The report of publicity made by Treasurer Herman Ridder of the Democratic national committee, as to campaign contributions and expenses of that committee up to the 20th of October, can be justly considered more or less a great deal of a humbug and simply published to deceive and mislead the people of the country. The statement is ridiculous upon its face and those who are posted upon the present conditions of the campaign simply laugh at it and are asking if the man of "The Crown of Thorns and the Cross of Gold" and his running mate, John W. Kern, his chairman, Norman E. Mack, and his treasurer, Herman Ridder, believe that the people of the United States are believers in the old story that the moon is made of green cheese?

Much in the line of success on election day next will be brought about by the party workers who will be at the polls and who will help to bring the voters to the polls. It is therefore most important that Republican campaign chairmen and campaign managers should see to it that the proper kind of Republicans are chosen to bring out the Republican vote and to see that they go to the polls and cast their ballots for their party candidates and for statehood. In this county especially the voters should be told constantly that statehood means the greatest possible benefits for this city and county and to vote accordingly.

Most encouraging reports for Republican success, for statehood, and for Andrews come from southern Union and eastern Quay counties. The farmers and settlers there who have come to New Mexico during the past three years are an intelligent, moral and hardworking people who want statehood first, last and all the time and will vote accordingly. All appearances indicate that there will be a very large Republican vote in those sections.

Two weeks from today and about this hour, the elections will have been decided and the chances are twenty to one that the election results will show in favor of Taft and Sherman throughout the country and for statehood and Andrews in the Sunshine Territory. Speed the day.

Another sign of prosperity and advance in the Sunshine Territory. A new bank has been incorporated in the flourishing little town of San Marcial, in Socorro county. Everything counts and that in the right direction.

The Saving Habit

If you are thrifty, you have some of your money left over. The extra money is the foundation for future riches, if you will only persistently save it. What if it does only amount to a few dimes or nickels a day—there are going to be a great many days in your life! and these dimes and nickels will grow into a good large sum. The opportunity may come, when a few hundred dollars might change your whole financial condition; Might mean buying an interest in some growing business; Might give you a chance to grasp your next opportunity.

AND WHAT IS THE USE OF ALL THIS?

Why it just means making a man of you.
Making you free to do as you wish.
Making you and your family happy and contented.

TORNADO AT CLAYTON CLAIMED FOUR LIVES

Clayton, N. M., Oct. 20.—Four persons were killed in the vicinity of Clayton Sunday night as the result of a tornado and cloudburst. Twenty other persons were more or less injured, three of whom, it is believed, will die. The dead are: W. H. Haight, J. S. Fox, wife and daughter.

All of the dead were homesteaders, living on ranches several miles from town.

Among the injured are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bowen and their five children, Thomas Downs and John Byrne.

The new Union county court house, which cost $40,000, was wrecked, and a score of houses were also demolished. Telephone and telegraph wires were blown away and miles of poles leveled.

EMPEROR WILLIAM OPENS PRUSSIAN PARLIAMENT

Berlin, Oct. 20.—The Prussian Parliament was opened by Emperor William today. In his address the Emperor indicated the intention of his government to introduce a modification of the existing antiquated three class electoral system, which has been the object of much agitation in recent years. Alluding to the Balkans, the emperor said Germany was less interested there than any of the other powers, but that that country had worked with the others for a peaceful and satisfactory solution of the present difficulties.

MONTENEGRO GENERAL DETAINED BY AUSTRIA

Belgrade, Serbia, Oct. 20.—General Vuketics, an official of the Montenegrin government, was forcibly detained by the Austro-Hungarian authorities at Agram. The general left Cetinjo, October 17 for Belgrade on a special mission to the Serbian government. No reason for his detention can be obtained here.

It's local testimony and can be investigated: Manuel Delgado, living at 140 Canon St., Santa Fe, N. Before using them I suffered from kidney trouble in its worst form and all the medicines I tried did not give me relief. Doan's Kidney Pills procured at Ireland's Pharmacy quickly relieved me and there has not been any similar trouble since. A HINT WORTH TAKING.

Skirt Braid Put on in Fifteen Minutes by This Plan.

You can put a skirt braid on in fifteen minutes by this plan. Mark the line where your skirt is to be turned either by basting thread or use the line of chalk already marked if you have measured it by a skirt gauge. Put the bottom of your skirt into the machine, right side of goods up, before crossing the hem.

Lay the braid along on the part that is to be turned under, letting one edge always touch the marked line. Stitch it on the other edge, which you can do simply by holding it as you sew and without basting or pinning. When the hem is turned up the braid is in place and stitched at the top edge.

If liked better to be fastened at both edges stitch twice, once near the marked line.

A little more intricate is sewing braid on in a roll. Get a bit of goods and braid and mark the turning line with a pencil for a sample, as it will save the time needed to work it out later on to have both the sample and directions pinned to a blank page in your sewing book. Lay the braid along the marked line just opposite from the way you did before. It will lie up on the skirt this time instead of down. Stitch it along the marked line, slipping it down just a hairbreadth, so that your stitching will come just below the basting thread. When stitched turn the braid down, but not the cloth. You will have to baste it this time, as pressing it over would make it flat instead of in a "roll." Stitch it again at the bottom edge, and when the hem of the dress is turned up it leaves the roll at the bottom.

A TASTY SALAD.

Grape Fruit Mixed With Celery, Apple and Banana.

A delicious and unusual salad is made of celery and grape fruit.

Cut the inner and crispest stalks of celery into half inch lengths. Skin a banana and cut it into neat cubes. Do the same with a tender tart apple. (A "snow apple" would be good for this purpose.) Have ready a couple of halved grape fruit, from which you have removed all the pulp so carefully that you have not torn the skin of either half.

Cut the pulp taken from one of the halves into small pieces in size corresponding to the apple and banana dice. Put all these into a chilled bowl and set on the ice or in a very cold place for half an hour. You do not need to be reminded that the mayonnaise should be made first of all and left out in the cold while you are preparing the rest of the ingredients.

The emptied halves of the grape fruit should lie in ice (cracked) until you are ready to make ready for serving.

Then empty, wipe and fill them with the fruit mixture as soon as you have poured the mayonnaise into the bowl and tossed the contents up lightly with a silver fork to insure thorough incorporation of fruit and dressing. Put a half teaspoonful of the mayonnaise on the top of each portion of fruit and serve the filled skins upon small plates.

NURSERY NOTES.

Don't pick the baby up every time it cries.

Never force a baby to sit up. It will sit up of its own accord when its spine and muscles are strong enough.

The baby's stomach is intended for food and drink. Avoid therefore giving medicines unless they are actually needed.

Never lift a baby by its arms, but under the arms. A child's arm is very easily dislocated, and lifelong injury may result from its dislocation.

A prominent physician claims that there will be no diphtheria or scarlet fever for children if they eat plentifully of onions every day, especially when there is a scarcity of fresh fruit.

Among the various causes for crossness of children are some very common ones, such as hunger or thirst. Improper sleep, overeating, uncomfortable clothing and the pernicious feeding of sweets.

A very neat and useful powder puff is made in the following way: Cut a circular piece of flowered silk, run a casing near the edge and thread with ribbon. In the very center attach a small round puff that may be bought anywhere. Powder sprinkled on this now and then is all that is necessary, and the puff is washable.

What Not to Wear.

A poorly fitting corset under a well made dress.
White muslin petticoats for street wear.

Bordered lace veils unless they are worn below the chin and dotted veils with weak eyes.

Trailing skirts on a stormy day, ripped or torn kid gloves at any time.

Large buttons for fastening a waist over a stout figure.

Rose pink accessories under or over a wrinkled face or neck.

Gray or navy blue veils over a sal-low complexion.
Round hats with a full face and a peaked crown with sharp faced features.

Linen collars with a homely neck or linen cuffs with dark, thin or wrinkled hands.
Tightly drawn back hair with a thin face and a high coiffure with a long head.

Served as coffee, the new coffee substitute known to grocer's everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, will trick even a coffee expert. Not a grain of real coffee in it either. Pure, healthful toasted grains, malt, nuts, etc., have been so cleverly blended as to give a wonderfully satisfying coffee taste and flavor. And it is "made in a minute," too! No tedious 20 to 30 minutes boiling. Test it and see. Dr. Shoop created Health Coffee that the people might have a genuine coffee substitute, and one that would be thoroughly satisfying in every possible respect. Sold by Cartwright-Davis Co.

Kitty and The Cabinet.

By JOHN BEAUMONT.

Copyright, 1907, by Homer Sprague.

"See here," said Chester hotly, "if you think I stole the ring why don't you say so and search me?"

"Vincent," cried Elvia, "how can you say such a thing?"

"I'm simply putting into words what Miss Celeste has been hinting for the last ten minutes," he cried.

"Celeste may have been unfortunate in her remarks," said John Noailles soothingly, "but she meant nothing of that sort."

Vincent Chester laughed. Ever since Miss Celeste Noailles descended upon her brother's household at the death of his wife she had fought Vincent. He was a boy then, but even then in love with Elvia, and Miss Celeste had higher ideas of matrimony for her very attractive niece.

This evening the two had been examining a ring, and somehow, none knew how, it had disappeared. They had hunted all over for it, but it could not be found, and it was to be expected that Miss Celeste's acid tongue would but thinly veil her suspicious thoughts.

"If Mr. Chester's conscience is uneasy," chuckled Miss Celeste, "I can understand that he takes to himself purely impersonal speeches."

Vincent turned to Mr. Noailles. "Will you search me, sir?" he asked.

"Nonsense," cried his host. "Celeste, for heaven's sake keep still. My boy, no one believes that you would steal anything—except one thing."

He patted Elvia's shoulder meaningly to explain his last sentence and thereby added fuel to Miss Celeste's fame.

"I don't see why he should not be searched," she fumed. "The ring was here a moment ago, and now it is gone."

"You see," said Vincent. "Again I ask you to search me."

"My boy, you were not a day old when I first took you in my arms," said Mr. Noailles. "I would as soon accuse myself of crime as to believe it of you."

"Well, if you won't," said Vincent brisily, "I'll have to do it myself, I guess."

Rapidly he turned out the contents of his pockets, spreading them on the table. John Noailles sprang forward as though to stop him, but Elvia laid a detaining hand upon his shoulder.

"It is better so," she whispered. "It is the only way to convince auntie."

They stood silent until the things had been returned to Crawford's pockets; then Mr. Noailles stepped forward.

"This should satisfy you, Celeste," he said sternly. "I want to tell you that if you ever raise the question again I shall not condone your second offense."

"Very well," said Miss Celeste, with a shrug of her shoulders. "Since I seem to be so much in the way here I suppose that Mr. Crawford will permit me to retire."

She swept grandly from the room, leaving the three to face each other uncomfortably. All knew that Miss Celeste was not satisfied and were fearful of her next outbreak.

Each tried to appear at ease, but the pleasure of the visit was gone, and presently Crawford made an excuse for taking his departure. Elvia followed him to the door.

"Will you drop in tomorrow evening?" she asked. "We shall probably be able to tell you then where we found the ring."

"I am afraid that I cannot get around," he said uncomfortably. "If you find it, will you write?"

"Won't you come over?" pleaded Elvia, but Vincent shook his head. He had been shocked by the accusation, and not even the belief of Elvia and her father could save his wounded feelings yet. It seemed almost as though he were passing out of Elvia's life.

Up in her room Miss Celeste was sitting at her writing table while her busy pen covered sheet after sheet of note paper. Not until she had written a dozen pages did she cease her work, and then, going over to her bureau, she unlocked the upper drawer and drew therefrom a paper covered book with a gaudy title page. From the inside of this she clipped a coupon, which she attached to the letter before slipping it into an envelope.

A year before while visiting the city she had been tempted to visit a vaudeville theater at which a man and woman known as the X-Rays were creating a sensation with some mind reading accomplishments. Always inclined to the supernatural, she had been greatly interested by the Rays' accomplishment and had slipped back the next afternoon to purchase some of the books which gave her the right to ask questions by mail.

Once or twice since then she had consulted the oracle, and now she was writing for advice as to the whereabouts of the ring. It was well for her faith that she was not present at the answering of her question.

Two young men sat before a table in a cheap theatrical boarding house when a messenger entered with a package of letters to add to the pile on the table. One of them caught the thick blue envelope.

"Here's another whole book to be answered," he laughed as he slit open the cover. "Twelve pages," he gasped as he turned over the closely written pages.

"She must want her money's worth," "What's the question?" laughed the other. "Love or theft?"

"Something about a ring," chuckled the first as he read the first paragraph. "Listen. 'At several crises in my life,' he read, 'I have turned to you for advice, and you have never failed me. Now, in sore distress of mind, I come to you for advice as to a ring which I have reason to believe was stolen. I will acquaint you with the facts in the'—"

"Cut it," urged the other. "Just use the old standby. 'Your first suspicion was correct.' That'll do as well as anything."

The reader scribbled on the pad of paper before him and slipped it in the return envelope. A couple of days later Miss Celeste read the confirmation of her suspicion and bore it in triumph to her brother.

John Noailles came as close to swearing at a woman as he had ever done in his life, but he checked his temper and solemnly warned her of the folly of giving heed to the charlatans, but even as he spoke he knew that nothing would convince her of Vincent's innocence save the finding of the ring.

Gradually it became noised about the town that the spirits had told Miss Noailles that Crawford was a thief. Vincent had not been near the house since that night, and his apparent break verified the gossip. It began to look ugly for his prospects when Miss Noailles was moved to entertain a few friends.

Elvia sat apart from the rest trying to appear interested in the conversation while her thoughts were with Vincent when suddenly Miss Celeste sat up in her chair.

"That miserable kitten has brought a bone in here!" she cried as an irregular rattle on the hardwood floor broke upon their ears. "She is forever playing with bones."

Elvia sprang toward her aunt. The kitten was one Vincent had given her and for that reason disliked by Miss Celeste. Just as they turned to the heavy cabinet under which the kitten was playing Shah bounded out from under the low setting cabinet in pursuit of his plaything.

Elvia's startled cry scared him, and he scampered off, abandoning his toy. Elvia pounced upon it.

"Do you remember that Shah was playing in here that night?" she cried. "This is what he was playing with." She held up a jeweled circle. "The ring dropped on the floor, and the sparkle of the diamond attracted Shah. As long as he was on the rug we did not hear him. He must have knocked it under the cabinet. Nellie never sweeps under there. Look!" She caught up a light cane and poked under the cabinet. The dirt she swept out showed that the ring could easily have lain there since its loss.

"Perhaps you will believe the Rays now," laughed John Noailles, coming forward. "I guess I'll call up Vincent."

"I'll call him," volunteered Elvia.

"I guess that you had better, daughter," he laughed. "You can promise anything if he will come over."

Elvia's promise must have been attractive, for Crawford borrowed an automobile to come in, and after Miss Celeste had humbled herself to an apology John Noailles insisted that that ring be the engagement one.

Gallery Gods.

The gallery is blasé as compared with the rest of the house. It knows all the tricks of the craft. It does not give itself with quite the same abandon to the emotional moment, but it knows when a thing is done to its liking, and it expresses opinions with unmistakable directness.

It was in "The Queen of the White Slaves," I remember, that a scene occurred where the villain in a climax of insolence struck the unhappy brother of the heroine in the face with his gloves.

You could hear the blow to the top seat of the top gallery and the wicked laugh that accompanied it. The audience recoiled, caught its breath, and above the storm of hisses that ensued you heard a shrill shout from amid the gods, "Biff him back, George!"

As George had been previously drugged with opium by Lionel it was obviously impossible for him to take the hint, but the uproar continued until Lionel, with a leer and another fiendish laugh, left the stage.—Harry James Smith in Atlantic.

America's First Cannery.

The first man to introduce canning into the United States was an Englishman named Thomas Kensett, who learned the business in the old country from Peter Durant, who, in 1810, obtained a patent for putting up food in hermetically sealed vessels of glass, pottery or tin. In 1825 Kensett established a factory in Maryland, where fruits, vegetables and oysters were plentiful and cheap, and that state continued to be the center of the industry for many years, but it did not make much progress until the civil war, when there was a great demand for vegetables and fruits in the army. After the war the invasion of the mountains by miners and the settlement of the prairies by ranchmen and farmers kept up the demand.—W. E. Curtis in Chicago Record-Herald.

Minor City Topics.

Word has been received in this city from Las Cruces of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Nigel C. Flint on October 6th. Mr. Flint was formerly assistant territorial secretary and both he and Mrs. Flint are well known in the Capital.

The Denver and Rio Grande train from Antonio, is reported three hours late tonight. The New Mexico Central is reported on time. Santa Fe trains Nos. 9 of last evening, No. 3 due at noon, and tonight's trains, Nos. 1, 7 and 9 and 3 of tomorrow, are not expected until tomorrow noon.

Judge John R. McFie adjourned court until Thursday of this week. This was made necessary by the absence of lawyers interested in pending civil cases and the warming up of local politics, which occupied the attention of both attorneys and litigants. Tomorrow afternoon in chambers the application for a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Gus Hettling, the ball player, charged with attempted criminal assault, will come up for hearing.

REPUBLICANS HOLD CONVENTION TONIGHT

The Republicans of Santa Fe county met in convention at the court house this afternoon for the purpose of nominating candidates for county officers to be voted on at the coming election. Hon. T. B. Catron, chairman of the county central committee, called the convention to order. Colonel George W. Prichard was selected as temporary chairman, and after the appointment of the committees on permanent organization, credentials and resolutions, an adjournment was taken until 7:30 o'clock this evening.

With one exception, the present county officials will likely be renominated. The exception is the office of assessor, for which Trinidad Alarid and Telesforo Rivera are candidates. The convention is largely attended and great enthusiasm prevails.

HASKELL REPRESENTS BRYAN AT TEXAS FAIR

Dallas, Tex., Oct. 20.—Governor Charles N. Haskell, of Oklahoma, and his entire staff, arrived here today to take part in the exercises of Bryan day at the state fair. Governor Haskell was tendered an informal reception at his hotel at 9 o'clock. He spoke at the fair grounds this afternoon.

ENTHUSIASTIC PRIMARIES HELD AT ALBUQUERQUE

Albuquerque, N. M., Oct. 20.—The largest attended and most enthusiastic precinct primaries ever held in this city took place last evening when delegates to the Republican county convention which meets tomorrow, were elected. There was no opposition of any kind to the tickets put forth in the city precincts. The enthusiasm and attendance throughout the county was also greater than for many years. A harmonious and largely attended convention tomorrow is assured and any contests will be good natured ones and not marred by factionalism.
