ANNUAL REPORT ON EDUCATION IN TERRITORIAL INSTITUTIONS

Superintendent Clark Has Prepared Statement of Conditions for Publication for the Year Ending June 30th

SHOWS SPLENDID PROGRESS OF ALL SCHOOLS

College are Increasing Enrollment and Public Schools all Over the Territory are Growing in Number Importance and Usefulness.

The report of School Superintendent Clark for the school year ending June 30 is ready for publication, and gives interesting data as to the educational advance of the territory in the past year and in recent years. Summarized the report says:

"The advancement in school conditions in our territory during the past year has kept pace with our marvelous commercial and industrial growth. The large immigration of staunch pioneers has given strength to educational sentiment. Results are evident in longer school terms, better qualified teachers, higher wages for teachers, improved school buildings, and larger attendance of children, as well as in many other ways.

"During the summer of 1907, the institute attendance of teachers was the largest in the history of our public schools, six hundred and sixty-five teachers being enrolled (city teachers exempt). On January fifteenth, nineteen hundred and eight, two hundred five districts were reported as having had no school for the present year, but 28,704 children had been enrolled, 15,399 English speaking; 13,204 Spanish speaking; 101 negro, and 929 teachers were engaged in their instruction (685 in rural schools; 244 in town and city schools; 336 men, 533 women). Nearly all of these districts have since opened school and in many cases undoubtedly show a total enrollment for the year of fully 40,000 children.

Million in School Property.
Four hundred and ten of the 700 rural districts own their school buildings, 311 of which are in good condition. The total value of school property is $964,184 ($396,934 in rural districts; $567,250 in cities and towns). The total bonded indebtedness is $533,911.23, $169,762.23 in rural districts and $364,149 in cities and towns). The school census taken in August, 1907, enumerates 84,942 people from 5 to 21 years of age (78,360 in 1908). On January 15, 1908, 3,245 pupils had been enrolled in private and sectarian schools and 1726 had been enrolled in Indian schools. This indicates that about 60 per cent of those of school age have been enrolled in the schools. (For the United States as a whole, 70 per cent of the school population was enrolled in 1906.) New Mexico's per cent on this item is low because we enumerate for school purposes all children from five to twenty-one years of age. Only seven states enumerate children of so wide a range of ages. Texas, for instance, enumerates children from eight to eighteen.

Teachers Well Paid.
Of the 683 teachers engaged in the rural schools up to January 15, 1908, 170 held special permits; 193, third grade certificates; 155 second-grade certificates; 134 first grade certificates; 4 three-year professional certificates; 18 five-year professional certificates; 9, professional life certificates. All certificates above a county third grade are of a standard equivalent to those in the states. The average salary paid teachers in rural schools is $51.48. For the United States in 1906, the average salary was $50.04. In cities and towns, the average salary paid is $68.20, ranging from $56.87 at Las Vegas to $82.14 at Gallup. The enrollment in cities and towns during the first half year was 8497 English speaking children, 2700 Spanish speaking children, 78 negroes, total of 11,355, with 192 additional in private and sectarian schools.

School Publications.
"During the past year the Department of Education has published an Institute Course of Study of 130 pages for 1901, a Flag Day Program of 40 pages for 1908, and fifteen new circulars and blank forms for systematizing reports. Manuscripts are now being prepared for an institute manual of 20 pages for 1908, a common school course of study of 200 pages, and the first general elaborate report of the territorial board of education—a volume of 400 pages, well illustrated and bound.

The year just closed has been the banner year for the territorial educational institutions, as is shown by the following brief statements:

Agricultural College.
1906-7 1907-8
College students 98 159
Preparatory students 128 158

ANDREWS TO GET MOSHER PENSION

Other Bills Reported Favorably—Has About Fifty Such in Hand.

Despite the many duties devolving upon him Delegate W. H. Andrews finds time to look carefully and successfully after the wants and desires of the needy veterans of the Civil war in the territory. To no needy ex-soldier who applies to him for help does he say "No," but as soon as he receives his application for a pension he attends to it promptly.

The following letter to the editor of the New Mexican shows how this beneficial work is done. The letter reads:

December 11, 1908.
Editor New Mexican: I have just reported from the committee on Invalid Pension of the House the bill granting Cephus F. Mosher, College street, Santa Fe, a pension at the rate of $24 per month. Of course, this bill is only reported, and will have to pass the House, the Senate, and be signed by the President, but even so, when a bill is once reported it usually goes through. This Mr. Mosher is old, feeble, and decrepit, and this will be a God-send to him. It ought to come up before the House for action some time this week and will pass in very short order.

I also have reported a bill for Francisco Lacerro of Albuquerque, an old crippled up soldier. He used to come in and see me real often, and I know it will do him lots of good. His pension is for $12 per month. I also have had a bill reported for Wm. E. Blachard of Lincoln at $24 per month. He saw me when I was there during the campaign, and asked me to help him out.

I have about fifty other such bills that I am working on, trying to get reported, but I don't see how in the world I am going to do it.

With kind regards, I am,
Very truly yours,
W. H. ANDREWS.

P. S. Now I wish you would hunt up old Mosher of Santa Fe and give him the good news.

ASK PRESIDENT FOR PROOF OF STATEMENT

House Adopts Resolutions Demanding That Secret Service Be Vented.

Washington, Dec. 17.—Chairman Perkins of the House special committee appointed to recommend a course of action relative to suggestions in the president's message concerning the secret service to which members of congress have taken exception, presented a report at the beginning of today's session of the House. The report recommends the adoption of the resolution calling upon the president to supply the House with the evidence upon which he based his statement that a number of house members were principally concerned over the fact that secret service men have been investigating members themselves. The House adopted the Perkins resolution without a dissenting vote and after very little comment. Cohen of New York, suggested the resolution should be made applicable to congress as a whole and not merely to the House, but no change was made in the wording of it.

SULTAN CHEERED AS HE OPENS FIRST PARLIAMENT

Constantinople, Dec. 17.—With the first meeting of the Ottoman parliament today, Turkey formally breaks from the despotic rule of centuries. The Sultan who granted a constitution last July which provided for this assembly, paraded through the city at the head of an elaborate cortege to open the first session. Everywhere he was greeted with loud cheering and there was no semblance of disorder. The Sultan opened the parliament in person with elaborate ceremonies fashioned after the custom of older similar assemblies. The new legislative met in the same chamber where the short-lived parliament of 1876 assembled. The scene was perhaps the most remarkable in the political history of the world. All creeds and races of the Turkish Empire sent duly elected representatives.

APPOINTMENTS SENT IN AND CONFIRMED

Washington, Dec. 17.—The President today sent to the Senate the following nominations:
Collector of customs for the district of Brazos de Santiago, Texas, Rentro B. Creager of Texas.
Clyde M. Reed of Wichita, Kansas, has been appointed superintendent of the division railway adjustment post-office department, successor to Joseph Stewart, who recently was made second assistant postmaster general.

CONGRESSMAN BURTON WANTS SENATORSHIP

Columbus, Dec. 17.—Congressman Burton arrived here today to open his campaign for United States Senatorship. He said there has been no break between him and President-elect Taft. "I am in the race for Senatorship to stay," he said.

POPULAR VOTE AT THE LAST ELECTION

Exceeds all Previous Records by Over Million

POPULISM HEAVY LOSER

Taft's Majority Over Bryan Was About One and a Third Million

New York, Dec. 17.—The total popular vote of the principal presidential candidates at the last national election was made known in an official form by the filing of the last of the official vote, that of Michigan. The total vote as at first reported is much larger than the official count now shows:

Taft (Republican), 7,637,676.
Bryan (Democrat), 6,393,182.
Debs (Socialist), 447,651.
Chafin (Prohibitionist), 241,252.
Higgen (Independence), 83,186.
Watson (Populist), 33,871.
Gilhaus (Social Labor), 15,421.

Total for all candidates, 14,852,239.

This grand total exceeds by 1,341,531 the total number of votes cast in the Presidential election of 1904, when the grand total was 13,510,708.

Compared with that election, the candidates of the Republican, Democratic and Socialist parties increased their vote this year. The reverse is true of the candidates of the Prohibition, Populist and Social Labor parties. The Independence party did not figure in the Presidential election of four years ago.

The biggest difference in a party vote is shown in an increase for Bryan of 1,315,211 over the total vote cast in 1904 for Alton B. Parker, the Democratic candidate. Taft received 14,190 votes more than were polled in 1904 for President Roosevelt, and Debs ran 45,368 ahead of his predecessor on the Socialist ticket.

The heaviest loss is shown by the Populist party, who, with the same candidates, registered 83,312 votes less this year than in 1904, when their total vote was 117,783. The Prohibition candidate, Chafin, ran 17,284 votes behind the 1904 mark of his party, and Gilhaus, the Socialist Labor candidate, received only about 50 per cent of the vote given to Corrigan, which was 31,249 in the previous Presidential race.

Debs received his largest vote in Pennsylvania, 39,913; Illinois, 39,711, and New York, 38,451. Vermont was the only state in which not a single vote was cast for the Socialist candidate.

PRES. ELECT TAFT GOES FOR A REST

Will Remain at Augusta, Georgia, Until He Starts for the Canal Zone.

New York, Dec. 17.—After a stay of four days in this city President-elect Taft left this morning for Washington and Augusta, Ga., where he will have a last period rest and recreation before assuming the duties of chief executive. He will take luncheon with the President at Washington, and expects to reach Augusta tomorrow morning. If his present plans are adhered to Judge Taft will end his southern vacation about the last week in January, sailing at that time from Charleston on a three weeks' visit to the Panama Canal zone. He expects to reach the United States on his return trip February 15, and from that time, until the day of his inauguration, he will be busy filling a number of speaking engagements.

SNOW SLIDE FATAL IN COLO. MOUNTAINS

One Man Killed, and Traffic Tied Up By Heavy Snow Fall.

Durango, Colo., Dec. 17.—Wm. Mondell, foreman of the Tom Moore mine at Eureka, San Juan county, was killed by a snow slide yesterday, which destroyed a large boarding house. Damage is reported from other places. Also, but the wires are down and the reports cannot be confirmed. There have been many slides running in the county. Traffic is completely tied up by the heavy fall of snow.

HARRY K. THAW'S INSANE AUNT DEAD

Philadelphia, Dec. 17.—Harriet A. Thaw, aged 85 years, an aunt of Harry K. Thaw, died Tuesday night at the Friends Asylum for the Insane in Frankford. The aged woman has been an inmate of the asylum for several years, but the fact was concealed from the public until it was made known at Thaw's trial.

NO CHANGE IN CONTROL OF MEXICO CENTRAL

Reports to That Effect Untrue—Company is Building Extension to Coal Fields.

The reports which have emanated recently from Wall street, New York, to the effect that the New Mexico Central railroad has been sold to the Denver and Rio Grande are characterized as without any foundation by the officers at the general offices of the company in this city. There has been no sale, and there is no prospect of a sale being made of the New Mexico Central to the Rio Grande or to any other road, a prominent officer of the company said today.

The New Mexico Central is going ahead building its extension to the coal fields, and it is expected that this line will be completed and ready for operation by February or March. The line extends from Moriarty to Hagan which is to be the terminus, a distance of forty miles, and another extension is proposed branching off from this line at Frost, and running into Albuquerque. The line from Moriarty to Hagan has been completed for about seven miles and the work on the rest of the line is being pushed rapidly. The line from Frost to Albuquerque will not be built until the Hagan line is finished, but forces of workmen are now doing some grading and blasting in the Tierras canon. The cost of these extensions will aggregate about $1,000,000.

The company is preparing estimates of the new equipment that will be necessary when this coal line is completed, and will soon be ready to let contracts for additional coal and passenger cars which will be required to handle the traffic brought to the road by the new lines. It is estimated that the company will handle at least 500 tons of coal a day from the mines near Hagan as soon as the road there is opened, and this will be increased rapidly as new mines are opened and new spurs put in.

FABIAN POLICY HAS WORKED OUT WELL

Government Has Waited and Let Venezuela Worry Over Castro.

Washington, Dec. 17.—The demonstrations in Caracas against President Castro are a surprise to officials in Washington, who generally expected that any demonstration of hostile acts by a foreign power against Venezuela would result in solidifying the people and rally them to President Castro, and his government. The common belief here is that if the United States had taken forceful steps against Venezuela, Castro would have become strong with his people. Possibly for this reason the administration has been indifferent in pushing its demands for settlement. The state department felt that the Venezuelan situation would gradually work itself out. For this reason there has been a persistent determination to ignore Castro and look with equanimity upon the doings of foreign governments in their efforts to get satisfaction, so long as there was no interference with American interests and no violation of the Monroe doctrine.

ARIZONA RIVERS ARE SWOLLEN BY HEAVY RAINS

Phoenix, Dec. 17.—Two days of rain all over Arizona have swollen most of the rivers to alarming proportions. The Salt and Verde rivers are particularly high, the latter emptying into the former twenty-five miles above Phoenix. The Verde rose sixteen feet early this morning. During the afternoon water began flowing over the storage dam under construction at Roosevelt and which is now seventy feet high at the lowest end and eighty-five at the other. This evening water was within two feet of the highest point and was still rising being several points over the dam at the intake power canal at the head of the Roosevelt basin.

WANTS DUTY ON LEAD RETAINED TO HELP MINER

Washington, D. C., Dec. 17.—Edward Brush, vice president of the American Smelting and Refining company, testified before the house ways and means committee yesterday regarding the lead schedule of the tariff. He claimed that the duty on lead is for the benefit of the miner, but also said that there would not be any lead produced in this country if the tariff is taken off. He was questioned by Chairman Payne with regard to the cost of labor in Mexico and said peons are paid five cents an hour and mechanics ten cents an hour. He also said that the Mexican labor is as efficient as the American labor used in the lead mines.

NOT LIKE THIS IN SUNSHINE TERRITORY

Chicago, Dec. 17.—Telegraph companies today report rain and snow from the Colorado line eastward to Pittsburg. In Wisconsin a blizzard raged all last night doing great damage to telegraph and telephone lines in the state.

EVENTS AT UNIVERSITY.

Albuquerque, Dec. 17.—The following five states have three institutions, their University, their Agricultural college and their School of Mines, in different places, and the statistics of regular state appropriations for each affords some interesting study. The figures are for the year ending 1907, and are taken from a report of the Bureau of Education:

States.	Appropriation.	Prop. in State.
Colo.	$145,000	$1,207,542,107
Mich.	650,288	3,282,419,117
Montana	57,555	746,311,213
New Mexico	18,200	332,262,650
S. Dakota	54,750	679,840,939

From these figures it may be seen that Colorado, with an estimated true valuation of property less than four times that of New Mexico, gives to her university eight times the appropriation received by New Mexico's university. Michigan, whose estimated true valuation of property amounts to less than ten times that of New Mexico, gives thirty-six times as much to her university. Montana, whose estimated true valuation of property is two and a fourth times that of this territory, gives three and a sixth times as much to her university. South Dakota, whose estimated true valuation of property is barely two times that of New Mexico, gives a trifle over three times as much to her state university.

A close study of the figures given shows that the University of New Mexico, to keep the same ratio to the estimated true valuation of property in the territory, as in other states, should receive from twice to three times her present appropriation from the legislative assembly. In these figures no attention has been paid to special appropriations, though for the year 1907, while Colorado University received $100,000, and Michigan university $9,000 and South Dakota university $15,000, Montana and New Mexico received no special appropriation. Corresponding figures for the year ending June, 1908, will show about the same results.

The university will close Friday, December 18, the final examinations beginning on Thursday of this week. The second semester will open on Monday, January 4. Many new classes will be started and students will have no difficulty in finding such work as they may desire.

The New Mexico Educational association which will meet at Albuquerque December 28-30 promises to surpass in attendance all previous meetings. Bernalillo county alone will furnish one hundred teachers, and perhaps as many more laymen. The Pecos valley will come thirty-five strong, and other sections promise to send good delegations. Dr. George E. Vincent of the Chicago university will deliver two addresses at the Elks' Opera House. Another drawing card will be the oratorical contest to be held December 28, in which three higher institutions will have representatives in one division, and eight high schools will have contestants in another. Aside from the general sessions, there will be section meetings of elementary teachers, county superintendents, high school and college instructors and institute workers. The Educational council, of which Supt. J. E. Clark is chairman, will meet on Monday afternoon, December 28. Professor C. E. Hodgkin, Dean of the College of Letters and Sciences of the university, is very busy making the final arrangements for the meeting.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Good Cough Medicine for Children.

The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care cannot be used to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when he has a cold. The quicker you cure his cold the less the risk. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the sole reliance of many mothers, and few of those who have tried it are willing to use any other. Mrs. F. P. Starcher, of Ripley, W. Va., says: "I have never used anything other than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for my children and it has always given good satisfaction." This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. For sale by all druggists.

The Bon Ton restaurant is now under the management of Hugh F. DuVal, who has bought out the interest of John V. Conway. It will be known hereafter as the Capital Cafe and a specialty will be made of both short orders and regular meals. It is Mr. DuVal's intention to give Santa Fe a strictly first-class restaurant.

A Personal Appeal.

If we could talk to you personally about the great merit of Foley's Honey and Tar, for coughs, colds and lung trouble, you never could be induced to experiment with unknown preparations that may contain some harmful drugs. Foley's Honey and Tar costs you no more and has a record for forty years of cures. Sold by all druggists.

TERRITORIAL NEWS NOTES

A new 500-pound bell has been placed in the Duran school by the Duran dramatic club.

David B. Cole has been appointed justice of the peace in precinct No. 3, Colfax county, vice J. S. Wilson, who has moved from the territory.

Alfred T. Rogers, Jr., of Las Vegas, has resigned as referee in bankruptcy and Attorney Louis C. Hild has been appointed to that position in his stead. J. B. Lavin, formerly a window decorator in Cimarron, recently shot and killed a neighbor at his home in San Francisco, and then committed suicide. Lavin was a cripple and addicted to drink.

Juan B. Munis, aged 65 years, is dead at Trinidad, Colo. He was a member of Company A of the First New Mexico volunteers in the Civil War and enlisted when he was but 16 years of age.

According to reports, an additional division point is to be established on the Southern Pacific between Loringburg and Tucson. It is said to be necessary because of the 16-hour law. The present division is said to be too long.

An adjourned session of the November term of the territorial district court will convene in Las Vegas Thursday, December 24th, to consider a few small matters which will come up at that time before Judge William J. Mills.

The Santa Fe railroad has begun the transmitting of train orders between Newton and Emporia via telephone instead of telegraph. This is the first step, it is said, toward installing telephone service all along the line.

R. C. Hunter of Cimarron has been awarded the contract to paint some twenty houses which the St. Louis, Rocky Mountain and Pacific railway is building between Des Moines and Cimarron. The contract for the building and carpenter work was also secured by a Cimarron man, J. M. Pritchett.

An adjourned session of the fall term of the district court for Colfax county will convene Monday, December 21, at Raton, over which Judge William J. Mills will preside. Court will last for a day or two, as Judge Mills will only dispose of several motions which are pending before him.

Knowles, a rapidly growing town 70 miles to the northeast of Carlsbad, wants better communication facilities with the county seat. About 25 miles of the road is through heavy sand which makes freighting slow and expensive. The Carlsbad Commercial club is about to put the road in first-class condition.

The school directors of Tucumcari have called an election on January 11 for the purpose of voting $24,000 in bonds to erect additional school buildings for Tucumcari and furnishing them in a modern way. Two portable houses were erected last year, and still another this year, and yet everything is full to its utmost capacity.

B. B. Jones of El Paso has filed suit against the Santa Fe for damages amounting to $5,021.60, alleged to be due him for being ejected from a train of the defendant company between El Paso and Las Cruces. It is alleged in the plaintiff's petition that he arrived at the depot too late to get a ticket and that when he refused to pay more than the price of a ticket to his destination to the conductor, he was ejected from the train.

The old-fashioned way of dosing a weak stomach, or stimulating the heart or kidneys is all wrong. Dr. Shoop first pointed out this error. This is why his prescription—Dr. Shoop's Restorative—is directed entirely to the cause of these ailments—the weak inside or controlling nerves. It isn't so difficult, says Dr. Shoop, to strengthen a weak Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, if one goes at it correctly. Each inside organ has its controlling or inside nerve. When these nerves fail, then those organs must surely falter. These vital truths are leading druggists everywhere to dispense and recommend Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Test it a few days and see! Improvement will promptly and surely follow. Sold by Stripling, Burrows & Co.

TO AND FROM ROSWELL.

Collection made with Automobile line at Torrance for Roswell daily, automobile leaves Torrance for Roswell at 4 a. m., and arrives at Roswell at 12 noon. Automobile leaves Roswell for Torrance at 1 p. m., and arrives at Torrance at 10 p. m. The fare between Santa Fe and Torrance is $5.80 and between Torrance and Roswell, $10. Reserve seats on automobile by wire.—J. W. Stockard, manager Automobile Line.

Beware of Frequent Colds.

A succession of colds or a protracted cold is almost certain to end in chronic catarrh, from which few persons ever wholly recover. Give every cold the attention it deserves and you may avoid this disagreeable disease. How can you cure a cold? Why not try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended. Mrs. M. White, of Butler, Tenn., says: "Several years ago I was bothered with my throat and lungs. Someone told me of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I began using it and it relieved me at once. Now my throat and lungs are sound and well." For sale by all druggists.

If you want anything on earth—try a New Mexican want "ad."

NARA VISA HAPPENINGS.

The Nara Visa school will not be in session again until after the holidays. An election will be held on the 18th of this month to vote $4,500 in bonds to provide for building a new school house.

Farmers are very busy plowing, fencing and preparing for next year's crops. The indications are for a bumper crop, as there has been more than the usual amount of moisture this fall.

Hamrick Bros. have sold their butcher shop to Bell and Robinson.

The merchants of the town are much gratified at the recent growth of business. Two new dry lines have been started this month to haul goods. P. J. Murphy has sold his dry goods store to N. H. Frampton of Albuquerque, who has made a general overhauling of it, and ordered a larger stock. The appearance of the store is much improved, and Mr. Frampton has good prospects of creating a successful enterprise here.

Deputy Sheriff Henry Potter in an encounter with Bill Smith Friday night received an ugly wound on his hand. It required three stitches to close the wound, which is now healing nicely.

Jeff Alexander, living twelve miles southwest of this town, was accidentally poisoned Sunday by rat poison and Dr. Gaines was called in to attend him. After heroic treatment he was pronounced out of danger.

Mrs. R. E. Clonizer, wife of our prominent lumber merchant, has returned home from a visit to Southern Texas, and is now confined to her bed with fever.

Coughs that are tight, or distressing tickling coughs, get quick and certain help from Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. On this account Druggists everywhere are favoring Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. And it is entirely free from Opium, Chloroform, or any other stupefying drug. The tender leaves of a harmless lung-healing mountainous shrub give to Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy its curative properties. Those leaves have the power to calm the most distressing Cough, and to soothe and heal the most sensitive bronchial membrane. Mothers should, for safety's sake alone, always demand Dr. Shoop's. It can with perfect freedom be given to even the youngest babes. Test it once yourself, and see! Sold by Stripling, Burrows & Co.

Mrs. McRaney's Experience.

Mrs. M. McRaney, Prentiss, Miss., writes: "I was confined to my bed for three months with kidney and bladder trouble, and was treated by two physicians, but failed to get relief. No human tongue can tell how I suffered, and I had given up hope of ever getting well until I began taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. After taking two bottles I felt like a new person, and feel it my duty to tell suffering women what Foley's Kidney Remedy did for me." Sold by all druggists.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF SANTA FE COUNTY.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every postoffice in the Territory, and as a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the Southwest.

THE UNITED STATES WILL NEVER BE BANKRUPT.

Every year the United States is getting to be a greater country, although it has already attained the highest place on earth. Its income is immense and increasing, but its expenses are doing the same thing. This need not scare anybody. This country is so great, so powerful, and so rich in resources that, according to all human probability its expenditures, no matter how vast, can never become a burden as is taxation in Europe. Discussing this subject, the Washington Post, a well-informed and truthful newspaper, treats it in the following sensible manner.

"Secretary Cortelyou estimates the deficit in the revenues for the current fiscal year at $114,000,000, and for the next succeeding year at $143,916,796. Of course the Secretary bases his computation on the revenue laws now in force; but next spring there is to be a revision of the tariff, and probably a change in the laws relating to internal revenues.

"It is manifest that more revenues must be collected, or a rigid retrenchment of expenses will become imperative, unless there should be sales of bonds to meet appropriations, always an odious policy, even when absolutely necessary.

"We expect duties levied on coffee and tea that will yield $50,000,000, and incidentally it might result in the growing of tea on a large scale at the South. There is report that the President-elect favors an income tax, which he thinks can be drawn so as to evade the constitutional objections the Supreme court had to the act of 1894. These additional taxes, if levied and collected, would soon transform the deficit into a surplus.

"The secretary reports that the per capita circulation is $34.72. This is the largest volume of real money—every dollar equal to 100 cents in gold—in proportion to population, that any country under the sun ever had in the history of the world, and the fact that there is a frightful deficit, the abundance of money being so great, shows that it is not the quantum of money that makes business, for our taxation is based on consumption alone, and consumption depends on the activity of the currency, and not on its volume. Indeed, the report of Secretary Cortelyou explodes the perennial fallacy of the economic school that clamors for 'more money.' We have it now—more than this or any other country ever had before.

"The deficit is partly due to the falling off of the revenues derived from alcohol. Vast sections of the Union—entire states, in fact—have prohibited the saloon, and nobody knows where that movement will end. Another cause of the deficit is the hesitancy of the manufacturers to increase the volume of their output until they see what sort of revision of the tariff Congress is going to turn out.

"If the revision shall prove generally satisfactory, we expect to see a revival of business from ocean to ocean, such as will immediately cure the deficit, frightful as it is."

THE FUTURE OF VENEZUELA.

The situation in Venezuela is not of great interest to the people of the United States, and it is doubtful if there are many citizens of this country who care what happens to that country. This is a pity, as it is one of the richest on earth, and could be made to produce vastly, and to support millions of people in affluence and comfort. Reviewing the recent flight of the so-called President Castro of the alleged republic, who skipped by the light of the moon, but was careful and sensible enough to take a few millions of dollars which he had robbed from the people with him, the Denver News is of the following opinion in the case, saying that:

"After Castro, what?"

"That is the question just now of most interest in Venezuela; and no one seems to have found a satisfactory answer. Perhaps the vice president, Gomez, may step into the shoes of the absent dictator. Perhaps the leader of a band of insurgents—we forget his name—may carve his way to power, much as Castro did. Nothing, apparently, is being done to settle the question until the Dutch blockade has been lifted; and no one seems even to know how to get rid of the blockade. The only sure thing is that Castro is gone; and no doubt the Venezuelans feel that any change is for the better. As to his coming back, that is hardly worth considering. If Castro ever sets foot in Venezuela again, and lives forty-eight hours after his loving countrymen find he is there, the occurrence would deserve to be ranked among the modern miracles.

"The News wishes the time near at hand when Venezuela will recover from the revolutionary habit, and settle down to a life of national prosperity and usefulness. The resources of the country are enormous. Venezuela is about the size of the German empire and the British isles taken together. She has rich valleys, mountains packed with minerals, rivers opening an easy passage to the heart of the country. Her climate is tropical to a degree, but even so it is claimed that Sicilians and men from the south of Spain have little trouble in doing moderate work on the Caribbean coast. Venezuela could be a rich country, if she could only get a form of government that was not organized robbery.

"Some day she will get to a condition of fair stability. It may be through the rule of a beneficent dictator like Diaz in Mexico. It may be by the rise of a local aristocracy, as in Chile; a form of government to which the News is not at all partial, but which is yet immeasurably superior to Castroism. It may be by the working out of a fairly decent democracy, as seems to be the case in Argentina; though that is rather too much to hope for. Meanwhile, Castro is gone—and there is always the chance that that famous German specialist may rise to his opportunities. And Venezuela waits."

THE WASTE OF HUMAN LIFE IN THE UNITED STATES.

There is a great waste of money and resources in the United States, and much more than the country possibly can afford, but, unfortunately, there is a greater waste of human life and this is very detrimental. Under the theory upon which this government is based and upon which it is conducted, every human life within its confines should be protected by law and every man, woman and child should be given a good chance for a comfortable living.

It is a very, very hard problem, but it is gratifying to note that, although the waste of human life is still very great, conditions in that line are improving greatly. Says the Kansas City Times referring to the subject:

"A death list of more than 30,000 and a number of injured, exceeding two million in the industrial life of the nation the past year should afford an object lesson of sufficient importance to cause the American people to take notice of labor's toll of death. 'Fatalities by unavoidable accident' will continue, of course. But the federal Bureau of Labor which has compiled the statistics for the present year, declares that while many of our industrial accidents may be the result of ignorance, reckless indifference or carelessness, the fact remains that an immense amount of human life is wasted."

"Not to mention the hundreds of thousands whose physical impairment is needlessly occasioned, there is this one feature of the government report that should awaken national concern—the immense amount of wasted human life.

"The sacrifice to the nation's prosperity that cannot be avoided is quite sufficient to make the cost of no small moment, but the lives that are wasted as tribute to avarice and greed on the one hand and to the indifference of the public conscience on the other, make the cost of prosperity all too great. The statement that at least one-third and perhaps one-half the fatalities and injuries could be spared by intelligent and rational methods of inspection, legislation and control should awaken public sentiment to a demand that these rational methods be adopted.

"It is high time that the waste of human life should be eliminated.

It is reported in official circles that E. P. Davis, a well-known young lawyer residing at Willard in Torrance county, will be appointed territorial district attorney for Santa Fe and Taos counties, vice R. C. Gortner, who will resign, and move to Los Angeles to engage in the practice of the law there. Mr. Davis is one of the original settlers of Torrance county, and has achieved a good reputation as an attorney. He is an honorable young man, and although not having had great experience in the practice of law, it is said, by those who know him well, that he will fill the bill, and make an acceptable officer of the law.

"The United States Supreme Court has decided that the Interstate Commerce commission cannot force E. H. Harriman to answer questions. Is there anything on earth the Interstate Commerce commission has power to do—besides hold 'sittings'?"

A DASTARDLY SCHEME FORESTALLED.

Some evil disposed persons have made false reports to the supervising architect of the treasury who has charge of the Federal building and surrounding grounds here, and have stated that the grounds surrounding the building were entirely too extensive, that there was a lake on them, and that they should be sold for building purposes. The New Mexican does not know who the stupid scoundrel or scoundrels who made these false reports are, and does not care. They are not worth mentioning, whoever they are. The facts in the case are that the Federal building now is surrounded by a handsome and inviting park planted in grass and trees, and next spring, if kept and watered in good shape, will be one of the beauty spots of which the people of the capital will justly be proud and which will be frequented and enjoyed by hundreds of tourists, sojourners and homeseekers.

The loafers who were behind this attempt to injure the city should be tarred and feathered, and driven out of town. Fortunately for Santa Fe, Delegate Andrews and ex-Governor L. Bradford Prince, who are now in Washington, heard of the despicable scheme and knocked it into a cocked hat.

Judge E. H. Gary of the United States Steel corporation, in a recent meeting in New York city, saw over a thousand unemployed men waiting at one of the free-lunch houses for a sandwich and a cup of coffee. It struck him as being rather hard, and he told several of his rich friends that they should send these poor men out west, where there is lots of work for them. The people of the great West do not thank this millionaire for his alleged charity. They have plenty of poor people in their midst, and what they really want is men of the middle class who can work and obtain a competency by work; such as farmers, live stock raisers, fruit growers, mechanics of all kinds, engineers and business men. The idle poor men of the great East are generally worthless and valueless for the upbuilding of a country like the great arid West. They are not wanted here and will not be welcome. What the people do want from Judge Gary and his rich associates is the placing of capital with which to develop the unlimited natural resources of this region. He is very welcome to keep the scum of society in the great city of New York, where it belongs.

The New Mexican will continue to call the attention of the people to the fact that a stringent and fair law for the assessment and taxation of property must be enacted by the 38th legislative assembly. This does not mean that the New Mexican will insist on oppressive or heavy taxes on the poor people, but this paper will demand that the big corporations, the large land holders, the rich cattle and sheep growers, the wealthy merchants, the great coal corporations, the big lumber manufacturers, and wealthy citizens of all classes be compelled to pay just taxes on fair valuations and thus support the territorial or state government liberally and help the poor people to make a good and decent living and to educate their children.

The outlook for cattle growing and sheep raising for the coming season in the Sunshine Territory is very favorable and those interested in these industries, who have lost during the present year, will make good their losses and become again prosperous, especially if the duty on wool, on hides, on sheep and on cattle is not reduced. Range and water conditions are more favorable this year than they have been for a number of years past, and hence it is safe to assert that the year 1909 will be a prosperous one for the Sunshine Territory or Sunshine State.

After three centuries of constant fighting and killing Mexicans, the Yaqui Indians in the state of Sonora in the republic of Mexico have been subdued, and on the 20th of January will capitulate, surrender to the Mexican troops, will be disarmed, and put upon reservations as the Indians in the United States are. This will do away with many murders and assassinations by those Indians, and will bring peace to the people of Sonora, which state is certainly in great necessity of peace and order.

A new bank has been started in Cimarron, Colfax county, with a capital stock of $25,000. In an eastern state such an item would not attract the least attention as being so small. In New Mexico, however, it is a sign that business is improving and expanding in many directions. It is a very creditable fact that not a single bank in this territory of the forty now in existence showed the least sign of weakness during last year's panic.

Among the sections of the territory that have made great gains in the past few years is the fruitful Mesilla valley, where land under irrigation and cultivation has increased in some cases twenty times in value. The Mesilla valley is one of the most fruitful sections in the Southwest, and 40 acres of irrigated soil there will bring in a better and surer income than the average gold mine.

President Roosevelt during his administration has paid entirely too much attention to the muckraking articles of the yellow press throughout the country. He would have done much better had he absolutely ignored the slush.

The Saving Habit

If you are thrifty, you have some of your money left over. The extra money is the foundation for future riches, if you will only persistently save it. What if it does only amount to a few dimes or nickels a day—there are going to be a great many days in your life and these dimes and nickels will grow into a good large sum. The opportunity may come, when a few hundred dollars might change your whole financial condition; Might mean buying an interest in some growing business; Might give you a chance to grasp your next opportunity.

AND WHAT IS THE USE OF ALL THIS?

Why it just means making a man of you.
Making you free to do as you wish.
Making you and your family happy and contented.

One of Fate's Fancies

(Original.)

To one contemplating the strange occurrences flesh is heir to it would seem that there is a real personal fate that is constantly amusing himself with our destinies. For instance, at the end of the eighteenth century it showed a little Corsican the crown of France kicked about by a mob in Paris. He picked it up, put it on his head and then proceeded to make kings and queens of his family. Per contra, fate designated the monarch who lost the crown the Corsican appropriated to be the one of a long line of sovereigns to lose it and his head at the same time. He was the only one of the lot who in many years deserved to wear it.

In the case recited in this story it would seem that this inexorable fate took a cunning and malicious pleasure.

A party of American sightseers abroad were "doing" the gardens of Versailles. A middle aged couple strolled away from the others and sat themselves down to rest.

"At twenty," said the man, "I laid out a definite plan for my life which I have followed to the present moment. Having tastes which I had no means to gratify, I resolved to spend twenty years in accumulating a fortune where-with to spend another twenty years in an ideal life. Before leaving America a month ago I closed out my business, having accumulated the requisite amount. The first twenty years of my life have been passed as I intended. The second period is before me."

"Of that period I have spent but a month, and yet it is long enough to have taught me that to enjoy the world I must have some one to enjoy it with me. In you I have met that person—the only woman I have ever wished to make a life companion. It rests with you whether this second period shall be a success or a failure. Will you spend it with me as my wife?"

There was a long silence between them, at the end of which the woman said: "Unlike you, I laid no plan for my life. At eighteen I loved, married and was for ten years supremely happy with my husband and my children. Then within a few months they were all swept away by death. I cannot be happy without them, therefore it would be impossible for me to enable you as your companion to carry out the second part of your plan."

"Which means that this part has already failed?"

"If dependent upon me; not on another."

"Had I not fallen in with you I might possibly have been happy with another."

The woman was looking on the ground, making marks on it with the end of her parasol. Presently she looked up into the man's face to see there a bitter disappointment resting on every feature.

"In that case I will do my best for you, I consent," she said.

There was a wedding in the American Parisian colony, after which Walter Lanier and his bride spent (to him) six delightful months in a land where there is every opportunity for a cultivated man to enjoy himself. The only shadow falling upon him was that, despite a brave struggle on the part of his wife, she occasionally showed that her heart was with those who had gone from her. The husband, seeing that occupation would be better for her, proposed that they return to America, where she might have the care of a home. In reply to this proposition she told him that whatever he wished was her preference.

Lanier believed it would be better to take his wife where she would enjoy the companionship of those she had always known. He planned a surprise for her. He wrote a friend to buy a house for him in the neighborhood in which his wife had been born and reared, where her father and mother and a sister would be near her. It happened that just such a place was in the market, and it was purchased for Lanier. It needed no improvements, and as soon as Lanier was advised that the papers had passed he and his bride sailed for America.

By this time Mrs. Lanier had been weaned from a constant dwelling upon those she had lost. She had married a splendid man for her second husband and every day clung to him more and more. Indeed, she seemed to realize that a living with the dead is an abnormal condition and resolved to live for her husband.

On the day of their arrival at the place of their intended future residence the wife expected to be taken temporarily to a hotel. They were met at the station by a carriage and driven away. She did not know where and did not feel in a mood to ask. But presently she noticed that she was on familiar ground. She looked up at her husband inquiringly. He put his arm about her affectionately, but said nothing. When they reached the location of her old home Mrs. Lanier put her hands on her eyes as if to shut out memory. Then the carriage stopped, and her husband alighted. He had taken her hand to help her out, and her foot was on the step when she looked up at the house her husband had provided for her. With a cry, she drew back into the carriage, exclaiming:

"Take me away! It was my home!"

For a moment he stood appalled, then re-entered the carriage, closed the door and ordered the coachman to drive anywhere that would take them from the home he had intended for them.

Now, why did fate take them to that particular house?

THE BOTTLE TREE.

A Life Saver For Cattle During the Australian Droughts.

"It was like a real bottle, thirty feet high, covered with the bark of a box tree and with a gum tree growing out where the cork ought to be."

Such was the way in which an Englishman described the first bottle tree which came under his notice, and truly one who does not know the tree its sudden appearance in his pathway, often in the midst of dense scrub, must make a vivid impression.

The lower part of the trunk is thick and cylindrical, decreasing in size toward the top, its shape being that of a gigantic living bottle, from the neck of which spring the only branches and leaves that the tree possesses. In this respect it carries to an excess the peculiarity of most Australian trees—namely, their lack of branches for a considerable distance up the stem.

The bark is of grayish color and is very hard, says the Philadelphia Inquirer, but the wood inside is soft and moist. The latter can be chewed in the same way as sugar cane, but as it lacks its sweet, pleasant taste it is rarely used in this way. This peculiar characteristic of the tree, however, makes it a valuable food for cattle.

Indeed, during the long droughts which occasionally visit Australia hundreds of settlers have to thank the bottle tree for saving them from ruin. Sometimes for more than a year and in the inland districts for still longer periods scarcely a drop of rain falls.

Every blade of grass is dried, tanks become empty, creeks no longer run and in many cases dry up altogether, as do nearly all water holes and lagoons; cultivation is impossible, and fodder for cattle and horses is extremely difficult to procure. Then the bottle tree comes to the rescue. Every scrub is searched for these living bottles, and everywhere is heard the ringing of axes as the strange, attractive trees are laid low.

As soon as the trunk has been stripped of its bark the cattle are brought to it if within easy distance, and there they remain till neither leaves nor wood is left. In places where the settlers have no scrubs of their own they will drive many miles in order to obtain a wagon load of this great treasure.

Sometimes instead of allowing the animals free access to the tree the settlers cut the trunk into strips, put the strips through the cutter and thus make a substitute for proper chaff.

In many instances during a drought, except for prickly pears and the foliage of trees, cattle are fed on these living bottles alone, and they have been the means of saving large quantities of stock.

It seems strange that in the absence of rain these trees should retain their moist interior, as the majority of others look dry and drought stricken.

But throughout all the bottle tree flourishes, lifting its dark green leaves toward the sky, whither the farmers and squatters turn longing eyes in hopes of the wished for rain.

When the dry season ends and the land in a very few weeks is covered with fresh green grass, the work of the bottle tree is done. But, mindful of its past usefulness, no farmer unless under absolute necessity fells this tree, and it may often be seen standing in solitary grandeur, its strange shape outlined against the blue sky, while the land at its base has been put under cultivation or has been converted into grazing grounds for the cattle.

Homemade Barometer.

Those who love experimentation may try the following method of making a cheap barometer practiced in France:

Take eight grams of pulverized camphor, four grams of pulverized nitrate of potassium, two grams of pulverized nitrate of ammonia and dissolve in sixty grams of alcohol. Put the whole in a long, slender bottle closed at the top with a piece of bladder containing a pinhole to admit the air. When rain is coming the solid particles will tend gradually to mount, little star crystals forming in the liquid, which otherwise remains clear. If high winds are approaching the liquid will become thick, as if fermenting, while a film of solid particles forms on the surface. During fair weather the liquid will remain clear and the solid particles will rest at the bottom.

Rival Dignities.

An Englishman, fond of boasting of his ancestry, took a coin from his pocket and, pointing to the head engraved on it, said, "My great-great-grandfather was made a lord by the king whose picture you see on this shilling."

"What a coincidence," said his Yankee companion, who at once produced another coin. "My great-great-grandfather was made an angel by the Indian whose picture you see on this cent."

No Witnesses.

"You are charged with stealing nine of Colonel Henry's hens last night. Have you any witnesses?" asked the justice sternly.

"Nusselt," said Brother Jones humbly. "I s'pects I's sawtuh peculiar dat-uh-way, but it ain't never been mah custom to 'take witnesses along when I goes out chicken stealin', suh."

Never Touched Him.

Landlady (to new boarder, crushing-ly)—Mr. Newcome, that is the cream and not the milk you are pouring on your oatmeal. It was intended for the coffee. Mr. N.—Oh, never mind, Mrs. Balkins. I like it just as well.

Let those who would affect singularity with success first determine to be very virtuous, and they will be sure to be very singular.—Walter Colton.

Scioto.

Scioto means "hairy stream." In early days the waters of this and other streams often contained deer's hairs at the season when these animals were shedding and frequently took to the water.

Wooden Books.

Many Chinese books are made of wood, each page being cut from a block, after the manner of an engraving.

Petrarch's Narrow Escape.

Petrarch, the famous poet, during middle life lay in a trance at Ferrara for twenty hours and would have been buried in four more—the time specified by law in Italy—but a sudden change in temperature caused him to start up and reprimand his attendants, who had allowed a draft to blow over his bed.

The Arabs of Syria.

Among the Arabs of Syria a man changes his name after the birth of his first son. He calls himself by his son's name, with the prefix of "abu," or "father."

Battle of the Thirty.

The battle of the thirty was a duel fought in 1351 near Josselin, in France, by thirty English and thirty French knights to settle a boundary dispute. At first the English were successful, but the French rallied and finally won the day.

Buttons in England.

Buttons appear to have first come into use in England in the reign of Edward I. The first were made of wood.

The Yuma Desert.

The great Yuma desert was formerly a salt sea. Seashells and oysters fourteen inches in diameter have frequently been found at from ten inches to two feet in the sand in various parts of that desert.

Babylon.

Babylon was probably the first city to attain a population of a million. The area of the city was 225 square miles.

Paste Diamonds.

Imitation diamonds are called "paste" because most of them are made of a paste which is composed of red lead, rock crystal, carbonate of potash, borax and white arsenic. This substance is technically known as "straas."

day greens are making their appearance. Holly, mistletoe, wreaths, etc., are coming in and are being added to trees are also arriving.

was done yesterday afternoon by the city department cleaning the cross walks and flushing the streets with the fire hose and placing sand where the mud was bad.

doubtless be a game of football in the city Christmas day. The same teams that played Thanksgiving day are arranging a game for the 25th. The teams are the Peerless Giants and the Statehood aggregations.

Sheep Shipment—F. L. Marshal, for feeding, while the others went to Denver.

Statue for School—A fine piece of sculpture in the form of a statue of

of the parochial school.

in the evening when the electric lights glisten in the miniature fireplaces and on the Christmas trees in the windows.

Shop Lifting—Some of the local merchants roppin' off shoplifting during the holiday rush of business. On-in politics, morals and religion and that the United States has assumed a commanding position and is dictatupon W. H. Kerr, proprietor of the shop. Mr. Dockweiler said he would give Mr. Kerr one dollar if he would allow him to shave Mr. Kerr. Mr.

Kerr acquiesced, and had his hair cut in due form. Then Mr. Dockweiler said he would give a dollar to shave

as smooth as a billiard ball, but he was two dollars ahead.

CHILDREN'S HOME
SOCIETY'S ACTIVE

Demand for Children for Adoption
Cannot Be Met—Purchased Building.

Dr. C. E. Lukens, superintendent of the Children's Home Society of New Mexico was in the city today in consultation with Acting Governor Nathan Jaffa and other members of the board of directors of the society in regard to its work. Dr. Lukens speaking of the splendid results obtained by the society said that there is a greater demand for children for adoption today than the society can meet, although it is taking in and placing new children every week. The society is making a special care of delinquent children, such as are neglected in their homes and such as are vicious, or are made vicious by their surroundings, and is finding ranch homes and farm homes for all of these that are taken in charge. Some few of the boys who are beyond the age of reform in ordinary homes are sent to the reformatory at Golden, Colo.

Dr. Lukens believes that the territory should make provision for an industrial reformatory of its own for this class of boys. In one of the territorial courts recently, he says, he saw a boy of fourteen years sentenced to the penitentiary. This was a case, in his opinion, where the territory committed a greater crime than the boy had committed.

The society in the last few days has made arrangements for the purchase of a building at Albuquerque which will be used as a reception home for children. The society heretofore has made no attempt to take care of the children at all, devoting its efforts entirely to finding them and finding homes for them. But with the increase in the demand made upon it a receiving home has become necessary for their temporary care.

While no difficulty is found in placing very young children in good homes, the older ones, especially boys of from 12 years up, are a more difficult problem. The society requires that the young children be adopted legally, but as to the older ones it merely requires that they be given a home and educated in exchange for their services.

The society is maintained entirely by contributions from charitable people and has never asked for legislative aid.
