BIG VOTE POLLED AT CHICAGO

Republican Dissensions Bring Defeat at Cleveland—Ex-Governor Altgeld Seems
Out of the Race for Mayor of Chicago.

ALTGELD NOT IN IT.

Chicago, April 4.—The spring-like weather brought voters to the polls with a rush. Thousands of Republicans voted for Mayor Harrison. On the other hand, many Democrats are supporting ex-Governor Altgeld. The race seems to be between Harrison and Carter.

With over two-thirds of the ballots cast this afternoon, indications are that Carter H. Harrison will be elected to succeed himself as mayor. The Republicans were making no claims.

REPUBLICANS CARRY MICHIGAN.

Detroit, Mich., April 4.—The revised estimates of the election results place Judge Grant's plurality for supreme court justice at 25,000. He probably runs a little behind the Republican candidates for university regents. In Detroit Grant ran heavily behind his ticket, and lost the city by nearly 7,000. The Union labor movement against Grant, however, gained little impetus in the smaller cities. Fully two-thirds of the circuit judges elected are Republicans.
Detroit and the larger cities, with Pin-tree features eliminated from the contests, show Democratic gains.

COLORADO POLITICS.

Denver, April 4.—Republicans are making a straight party fight against the divided opposition in most of the cities of Colorado where an election is being held today. Denver indications are that a heavy vote will be polled.
Republicans, Democrats and Teller Silver Republicans each have tickets in the field in opposition to Mayor McMurry, who is running independent.

KANSAS WOMEN SHY OF SNOW.

Kansas City, April 4.—Elections in third-class Kansas towns held yesterday were very quiet. The storm caused a light vote. Few women were out.
Elections are proceeding today in first and second class cities. In most towns
but one ticket was up.

McKISSON'S VERSION OF DEFEAT.

Cleveland, O., April 4.—The Democrats carried the city with 3,000 majority. Mayor McKisson made the following statement concerning the defeat:
"Hanna bolters and corporation influences, through lavish use of money, elected Farley and defeated the head of the Republican ticket yesterday. That is all I care to say at present."

Speedy Retribution.

Newkirk, O. T., April 4.—Clyde Mat-tox was shot and killed at 10 o'clock today by the sheriff of Kay county on the farm of Frank Lowry, near here.
Mattox last night killed Lincoln Swiney, a ranch man, in a saloon fight at Bonca City, and escaped. In 1891 he killed a negro in Oklahoma, O. T., for which he was sentenced to death. His mother, Mrs. S. W. Hatch, spent a fortune to save him, and succeeded in having President Cleveland commute his sentence to life imprisonment. Last year President McKinley pardoned Mattox.

Newkirk, O. T., April 4.—The reported killing of C. D. Mattox, the escaped murderer, is not believed here. The posse is said to be still in pursuit of him.

Virgie Fair Married.

New York, April 4.—Youth and beauty, with millions of money, were married at noon today, when Virginia Fair became the bride of William K. Vanderbilt, Jr. About one hundred and fifty guests were present at the ceremony, which took place at the residence of Herman Oelrichs, whose wife is a sister of the bride. Bridal gifts were numerous and very valuable.

Alaska Miners Starving.

Washington, April 4.—Acting Secretary Melickjohn received information that the miners on the Copper river are starving, although Captains Abercrombie and Glenn have full instructions to send relief to any who may be suffering along the route of their expedition to the Copper river and Cooks Inlet.
Mr. Melickjohn sent further instructions by telegraph to Captain Abercrombie to take medical and other supplies up the Copper river, and to make every effort to assist miners.

The Anti-Quay Fight.

Harrisburg, Pa., April 4.—At a meeting of anti-Quay Republican members of the legislature this morning it was agreed to support Judge John Stewart for senator. Today's ballot resulted as follows: Quay 55, Jenks 76, Stewart 51;
total 222; necessary to choice 112; paired or not voting 31.

A War Cloudlet.

Washington, April 4.—The navy department is prepared to render speedy assistance to American residents at Bluefields, Nicaragua, who are being subjected to pressure wrongfully by the authorities there. Acting Secretary Allen has ordered the gunboat Machias,
now on her way to Key West from Livington, Honduras, to proceed to Bluefields as soon as she can take coal.

No News from Otis.

Washington, April 4.—No disappointment was expressed at the war department today because Brigadier General Otis made no report. Officials are convinced that the backbone of the insurrection is broken. It is said that captured Filipinos who are well treated will be missionaries among their people in favor of the United States.

Will Settle Samoan Trouble.

Washington, April 4.—Lord Salisbury accepted the plan proposed by Germany
for the settlement of the Samoan trouble by the appointment of a tripartite commission. The United States has already accepted the proposition.

Crooked Legislative Work.

Denver, April 4.—The session of the 12th general assembly, which legally terminated at midnight, was prolonged until 1:30, the hands of the clock being set back.

D. P. Dickson, chief clerk of the house, disappeared near the end of the session. It was openly charged that he stole the public utilities bill to prevent it being signed. When found he was dragged to the senate chamber, where he was forced to deliver the missing
bill to the clerk.

The anti trust legislation urged by Governor Thomas failed.

Sale of Liquor at Janteons.

Washington, April 4.—The secretary of war recently requested the opinion of the attorney general as to whether section 17 of the act passed at the last session of congress "increasing the efficiency of the army," prohibits the continuance of the sale of intoxicating drinks by the government in canteen sections or post exchanges maintained at army posts and encampments throughout the United States. The attorney general replies that the section
does not prohibit the sale of intoxicating drinks through canteen sections, except that no officer or enlisted man can be detailed to do the selling.

President to the Philippines.

Manila, April 4.—The proclamation of the United States commission, published today, assures the people of the cordial good will and fraternal feeling of the president of the United States and the American people, and asserts that the object of the United States government, apart from the fulfillment of the solemn pledge it assumed toward the family of nations by acceptance of sovereignty over the islands, is the well being, prosperity and happiness of the Philippine people and their elevation and advancement to a position among the most civilized peoples of the world.

War on Whiskey Trust.

Frankfort, Ky., April 4.—In the state circuit court today Judge Cantrill gave instructions to indict all trusts operating in this district. The instructions were meant particularly to start a war against the Kentucky Distillery and Warehouse company, which bought up nearly all of the Kentucky distilleries.

Blizzard Still Raging.

St. Louis, April 4.—The blizzard raged all night. The ground is covered with five inches of snow.

Tampico Threatened by Forest Fires.

Tampico, Mexico, April 4.—The forests for miles around Tampico are a burning furnace. The streak of fire is apparently drawing nearer to the city.
Fears are entertained that the fire will reach the Waters Pierce oil depot, and thus endanger the lives of scores of people.

Source of Aguinaldo's Power.

Washington, April 4.—At today's cabinet meeting the principal subject under discussion was the long cablegram from Mr. Schurmann, the chairman of the Philippine commission at Manila.
The part of the message which attracted most attention was that which said Aguinaldo's power was largely based on coercion and the fear of violence.

To Protect Bona Fide Settlers.

Max Pracht, the United States land claim agent, went to Albuquerque this afternoon to investigate a large number of land claims of settlers whose means will not allow them to contest original claims upon the land, which are still in force, although the original claimants abandoned the land a considerable time ago. The new settlers have improved the land and are worthy people, and the United States government will, in their behalf, investigate the original claims, and if it is found they have really been abandoned will strike them from the books and enter the claims of the present settlers. Mr. Pracht will probably remain away from Santa Fe one week.

New Business Building for Lamy.

Michael Berardinelli, the well-known builder and stone mason, has received the contract for the rebuilding of the store building and saloon addition for Mr. John Pflueger at Lamy. The store house will be 75 by 30 feet and the saloon 18 by 30, all of stone and be put up in the most workman-like and substantial manner. The cost of the new buildings will be in the neighborhood of $3,000 and Mr. Berardinelli will be engaged fully two months in the work.
The plans and specifications are drawn and ready and work will commence at a very early date.

Question As to Survey.

Judge H. L. Warren, of Albuquerque, has been engaged in business at the land office for the last day or two. The Santa Fe Gold and Copper Mining company, operating at San Pedro, received patents a few days ago. Proceedings were based on a survey connected with the monument marking the boundary of the canon del Agua grant. As this monument is not on public land, it is a question whether the survey is to be accepted further by the government in acting on surveys of mining properties of San Pedro and vicinity.

Albuquerque Items.

In the divorce case in the Isaac family a decree was granted. Also, in a similar case in the Portigliatti household.

The cases of the Territory of New Mexico vs. the New Mexico Savings bank and Trust company at al., and the Albuquerque National bank et al.,
were dismissed by the territory.

Miss Ella Abrams has returned from Los Angeles, where she went to receive a vocal education.

Noa Hild's handsome residence is nearly completed. Louis Hild is having a fine conservatory built at his home.

"Smelt Like the Devil."

Washington, April 4.—Dr. William H.
Daly was the first witness before the beef inquiry court today. He took occasion to pay his respects to the war commission. He said the commission had given out the impression that the deterioration of the beef on the steamer Panama was due to a want of ice. This was contrary to his testimony. The truth could easily have been ascertained.
He also referred to a criticism of the war commission of his use of the expression in his report that the smelt about the beef was like the odor of boracic acid. "If the phrase was offensive," he said, "it might have adapted the language of the soldiers, some of whom said it smelt like the devil."

California Steamer Wrecked.

Eureka, Cal., April 4.—The steamer
Chilkat, which sailed today with 20 passengers, is up-side-down on the bar.
Her people can be seen struggling in the breakers. The life saving crew and steamers from Eureka have gone to their assistance.

Eureka, Cal., April 4.—There were 20 persons on the steamer. Two of the six passengers were saved, also seven of the crew of fourteen. The passengers saved are Howard Smith, of Scotia, Cal., and Mr. Moseley, of Oakland. Captain Anderson was drowned.

cantile paper, 3 1/2 @ 4 1/4. Silver, 59 1/4;

Ute Reservation to Be Opened.

Washington, April 4.—The president today signed a proclamation opening the southern Ute reservation to settlement May 4.

Fatal Explosion.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 4.—Three men were killed this afternoon by an explosion at the railroad car factory at Bradford, Pa.

Major General Andrews Dead.

Brookline, Mass., April 4.—George Leonard Andrews, brevet major general, United States army, retired, former professor of modern languages at West Point military academy, died of heart trouble today, 70 years old.

Strikers Losing Ground.

Ishpeming, Mich., April 4.—Nearly 800 strikers are marching the streets today, all the mines being idle. Applications from non-unionists for work are being made at the mine offices. The leaders of the strike have been restrained from trespassing on the mining company's property. Many miners are preparing to leave for other fields.

On Trial For Murder.

Canton, O., April 4.—The trial of Mrs.
Annie George on an indictment for the murder of George D. Saxton, brother of Mrs. McKinley, began today. Russell Hogan, a 12-year-old boy, a witness wanted by both sides, cannot be found.
Prosecutor Pomeroy said he was embarrassed by the absence of this witness, but would not ask continuance on that ground.

aches and I often feel dizzy.
I have no appetite for breakfast

TERRITORIAL TOPICS

EDDY COUNTY.

Hotel Schlitz is the name of the big hotel at Eddy, named for the brewer who is investing there. And yet he cannot sell his beer in the hotel in a temperance town.

George H. Webster, a cattle feeder, is putting 1,000 acres of the Greene
vineyard tract into alfalfa.

T. N. McElvain and W. R. Anderson
are planting extensive vineyards in La Huerta.

There is a great scarcity of dwelling houses in Eddy, and a loud call for men with means who will invest in that class of property.

Andy Crawford (colored), of Three Rivers, recently shot himself accidentally through the heart with a Winchester.

DONA ANA COUNTY.

Miller & Schumacher's flour mill at Anthony is now complete.

Major Llewellyn is now able to be on the street.

Township No. 16 south, range 9 east,

New Mexico meridian, will be filed in the Las Cruces land office April 30.
This township lies northwest of Alamogordo.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Morgan, of Las Cruces, have a new son, who was born on March 31.

Mrs. Albert J. Fountain has filed a suit in the Dona Ana county district court against Oliver Lee and William Gilliland, claiming $50,000 damages for the murder of her husband.

Las Cruces is to have a brass band of 30 pieces.

The board of regents of the agricultural college will meet at Las Cruces
April 10 to choose a corps of instructors
for the ensuing scholastic year.

There are 29 old soldiers buried at Las Cruces, and Major Van Patton is working to secure grave stones for the departed veterans.

GRANT COUNTY.

The office of the Silver City Reduction
works was burned on Sunday morning,
March 23, and the assayers instruments were all destroyed. The loss did not delay business one moment. Early Monday morning a new outfit was secured, and the buying of ores was continued as before. The company is building a new office and will have every branch of the business running smoothly again in a few days.

Lieutenant Bertram C. Gilbert, of Silver City, belongs to the 6th artillery, which has been ordered to the Philippines. He was recently promoted to be a first lieutenant, and the Silver City people are very proud of their only representative in the regular army.

On last Tuesday Silver City went back a few ages in the progress that place is making, and permitted a cock fight in which 26 fowls took part, 12 being killed in the contests. Judging from the account of the affair which appeared in the local papers, all the "leading citizens" were present.

COLFAX COUNTY.

From the amount of business on hand,
it is thought that the district court now in session at Raton will continue for another week.

George G. Mauck and Miss Myrtle E.

Ash were married in Raton last Monday by Rev. A. Hoffman.

Juan B. Arellano, who for many years was a respected citizen of Raton, died at his home in that city last week of bright's disease.

On Wednesday a train of five wagons passed through Raton from Southern Colorado for Alamogordo. The wagons bore the legend, "New Mexico or Bust,"
and carried the effects of three families, who will make their homes in Otero county.

The farmers of Johnson mesa are plowing for spring planting.

Ferdinand Brown, an old resident of Raton, is dead.

Springer is free from small pox.

Frank Atterberry and Victor Sanborn were arrested Friday on the charge of stealing goods from M. W. Mills' store at Springer. They waived examination and were taken to the county jail at Raton to await the action of the grand jury.

S. Floersheim, of the Floersheim Mercantile company at Springer, has returned from a trip to Germany.

SOCORRO COUNTY.

The San Marcial Bee is now under the control and management of Mr. H.
Howard, the interest of F. O. Blood in the paper having been bought by the former.

The fire ladders of San Marcial have gotten themselves new uniforms, and every one else in town gets out into the weeds when they pass by.

The people in the county along the Rio Grande are much encouraged over the stage of water in that stream, and believe that all danger from floods has passed. The recent cold weather in the northern part of the territory and Southern Colorado has checked the melting of the snow in the mountains, allowing the flood already under way to run out before another begins.

MISCELLANEOUS NOTES.

A gambler named Hall has been found guilty at Roswell of murder in the first degree for having killed a man
a few months ago in a house of ill-fame,
and then pounding his head to a pulp
with a gun.

Ramona Viacaras, of Albuquerque,
who was lately fatally wounded by her lover, Antonio Flores, is dead, and Flores is held on the charge of murder
at Albuquerque.

Las Cruces will shortly revel in the aesthetic glories of a cornet band.

Portales is the name of a new town out on the railway from Roswell, which will be a large cattle shipping point.

Elizabethtown reports that plans are known to be on foot for extending the Colorado & Southern by that town to the coal fields of Aragua Nesa and through Mora valley.

TUESDAY, APRIL 4.

Physicians say that the army has carried the grip all over the country. It was certainly the navy that fastened it upon Manila.

A 2-cent stamp will now take a letter to a soldier or sailor on any western island where our flag floats. It did not take a postal treaty to bring this about. Only a Dewey treaty, eh?

Jim Corbett is a strong man, but he is a coward nevertheless. Last week he cowardly threw his pretty wife until she had to call in a policeman to protect her. A man who lays forcible hands on a woman is a brute and a cur.

When Sherman was marching through Georgia he was on a mission of war. When McKinley and Reed marched through the goober state they appear to have been on peace intent, as all talk of their hostile attitude toward one another has ceased.

As there are only 34,000 Samoans on the little island, most of whom wish to be king, they should soon exterminate the race without British and American gun powder being wasted. However, the natives began to assault foreigners and a little lion-roaring and eagle-screaming was good for their ears.

Statisticians state that nearly one million more men are employed in the United States than were busy four years ago. And as wages are better in nearly all lines of industry, probably two million dollars daily has been added to the disbursements for daily wages. This sort of cross of gold will do to cling to.

Quite a large number of communities in the territory are active in securing new industries for their localities. Santa Fe, the capital of the territory, should be the leader in the industrial movement but thus far no sound of life has come from the local board of trade.

The Cuban assembly that sent a committee to Washington to ask for a donation of $40,000,000, was elected by the votes of a small portion of the insurgent army. The body was in no way chosen by the people of Cuba. If the army in any country elected the governing and legislative powers, government would be arbitrary and despotic.

Little Jamaica must be getting jaggy, or her people would not be stoning American sailors to death. The dusky islet was always a rum one anyway. A little American ginger may have to be shot into the natives by Dr. Sampson as an antidote for an excess of the native article. One dose generally kills or cures.

The New York Journal makes a feature of an announcement that Thomas Brackett Reed will not be a candidate against McKinley. Of course he will not. T. B. has no intention of being put upon a bracket among other has been political bric-a-brac. When the next Congress assemblies Reed will probably be found doing business at the same old stand, if he will be good until then.

The United States has been in charge of Cuba but three months, but in that time has lowered the tariff 60 per cent, and yet will have money enough from the revenue to carry on internal improvements not possible when Spanish officers were appropriating $6,000,000 annually. The Cubans will soon see that they get for half the price paid for the old government, a better one than they ever had. This will stimulate the growth of the annexation party.

The prohibitionists have made such a long and determined criticism of the army canteen that it has been abolished and now the happy soldier will be reinstated. The profits on soldiers' beer will not go to the mess, but sutlers will wax fat again. This is a case where the advocates of principle work the welfare of the post trader in grog.

The story that another national bond issue is in sight has been killed. There is more than money enough on hand and coming before the end of the fiscal year to meet the extraordinary expenses now running. In December congress will meet and arrange for the future. The government is in the hands of business men who know how to do business and avoid bankruptcy.

There will be 11,000 acres in alfalfa in Eddy county this year, when 3,000 acres now provided for shall be sown. A yield of 44,000 tons is expected. Cattle feeding will consume the product, now that the herdsmen of the plains are in touch with the valley by reason of the railway extension. The hard-times period Eddy farmers had when there was no market for alfalfa will not be repeated.

The Albuquerque Citizen sings as follows: "The times are getting better; the world is getting better; in fact, everything is getting better than it was. Man's inhumanity to man never caused so few to mourn as it does now." The ghost must have stalked from the business office into the sanctuary that day and shed a halo of rainbow Hughes as it passed.

Turkey and Bulgaria are preparing for war for the one hundred and twenty-second time within the last ten years. The majority of civilized people hope they will get at each other, as it will give the European nations another opportunity to get rid of the pesky Turk by driving him beyond the Bosphorus.

The czar of Russia and the emperor of China are in the same boat. Both are blessed with an ambitious mother, who as dowager empress seeks to take the life of their sons, and thus install themselves in power. Evidently, the modern woman is asserting her rights, even in mediaeval Russia and in ancient China.

A writer on the New York Press says that after a careful canvass, Republican leaders have concluded that the Democrats are going to nominate General Miles and Admiral Schley for president and vice-president. If these leaders can guess within miles of whom the Democrats will pick up for slaughter they should be Schley enough to solve the puzzle as to give the solar plexus to Billy Patterson.

American Manufactures Booming.

The locomotive orders for the week still hold up, and continue to make a highly respectable showing, the total for the week ending March 31 being 64. Of these, the Baldwins are building 29 for the Great Northern road of England, and the Rogers works will build eight 10-wheelers for the Illinois Central. The year 1899 promises to be the greatest year for locomotive and car building the world ever has seen, and what is being done in the way of car manufacturing is well illustrated in the recent order of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas road for 2,000 cars from the American Car and Foundry company, and the ordering of the same number by the Hocking Valley road.

The appearance of European buyers in the American locomotive markets is but a comparatively recent occurrence, but these new buyers have apparently come to stay; and this move has opened a way for further European patronage, as showing the striking appreciation of the rapid and excellent work of American manufacturers. The British war office was placed with the Penoyd Iron works of Philadelphia an order for a 1,100 foot railroad bridge, to be placed across a Soudan river to facilitate the operations of General Kitchener against the Mahdists. The best the British builders could do was to promise two spans of the bridge in seven months, and to complete it in a year. The Penoyd company promised the bridge in seven weeks, but managed to complete the order and ship the bridge in five weeks, instead of seven. At this rate, the United States will ere long be flooded by orders from all over the world, and the foreign manufacturers will be obliged either to adopt Yankee methods or else turn their capital into other channels.

The Political Situation in This City.

It is not to the credit of the Republicans of Santa Fe that they have allowed the choice of nominees for municipal offices to be made the occasion of playing even for old grievances, and of starting dissensions by allowing personal ambitions too much force. The necessity of maintaining an unbroken front to the enemy every day in the year calls for ignoring such petty matters. Party organization should never be weakened. The New Mexican is for a regular organization first, last and all the time. To abandon it is to invite political ills. Under our form of government party contests constitute the best method of getting the best officers. Only party organization and obedience to regular party authorities can maintain strength and bring success.

There have been local conventions which have acted in a manner that did not meet with the approval of this journal, and candidates nominated who were not pleasing to the New Mexican, but the paper has in such cases taken up the burden and done good service in carrying the ticket along the road to victory. Just so has the paper stood for regular methods of proceeding during the petty imbroglio preceding the election today. It cared little which of the aspirants were nominated for the local offices. That was a matter of minor importance. Fairness, however, called for support of the regular party organization. There was no shadow of an excuse for contesting delegations. They resulted from actions of men who, in some cases at least, were prompted by personal animosity or desire for revenge for bruises received in the last county campaign. Personal ambition led others to an improper course. In ward 4 it certainly looked as if the trouble was inspired to secure support for Democratic nominees. In this matter the New Mexican has no one to punish, no one to push. It stands for party control by party machinery. The ticket headed by Mr. I. Sparks was, without question, the only legitimate and regular one. Personal considerations should not blind any one to the fact in such a case, nor should other considerations outweigh in such affairs. This comment is written while the result of the squabble is yet unknown as to its final effect. Whatever the consequence of the division may be, this wrangle should have a salutary effect upon the Republican party of Santa Fe. Had there been a general attendance of the better element of the party at the primaries, as the New Mexican urged, the disturbers would have been silent.

The paper sought to have Republicans do their party duty, and worked for the nomination of the best men. It stood up for party regularity when the issue came; it advocated turning down the contesting delegations. The advice was heeded, and refusal to recognize the bolters followed. That point gained is important. The New Mexican proposes to hereafter have a good deal to say along this line, and when the next campaign comes will be found where it is now, on the side of regularity, discipline and party usage. It will ever be ready to point out renegades and party treachery in a way that will bring defeat to them. The New Mexican has long been on guard, and proposes to stay at its post through thick and thin.

Emperor William says that if John Bull and Uncle Sam are going to get up an Anglo-Saxon close corporation he wants to come in on the ground floor because of blood relationship. He might get in as an apprentice in national business if he would remember the adage that small boys should be seen and not heard.

According to the New Mexican's territorial exchanges small pox is still prevalent in a number of counties of New Mexico. Santa Fe is rid of the pest, after a small scare of its own. The small pox problem is a perennial one in the southwest, and some united effort should be made to stamp out the disease entirely.

The Cuban officials counted up 42,000 natives for pay roll purposes when Uncle Sam's paymaster went down to give them a lift. But when the paymaster counted he could find but one-third of that number who had been in service. If each Cuban soldier is a three-times repeater Croker will get them on his lists if Tammany ever annexes Havana.

In Scranton, Pa., the other day, a church was destroyed by fire. There is nothing remarkable in this, as other churches have met with the same mishap before this. The peculiar coincidence lies in the fact that the day before the pastor of the church had preached a sermon on the Chicago fire. Now, there are some people mean enough to say that a church whose minister can find no more appropriate topic than the Chicago fire to preach upon on Sunday should be burned. Hell fire would have been a more appropriate subject and might have saved the church.

Cy Warman has written a very interesting book describing his early railroad experiences in this country. It tells thrilling tales of the construction of the Santa Fe railroad, and of the Rio Grande railroad in Colorado and New Mexico. Such episodes as the race for the Raton Pass by the two railroads are interestingly described. It is a good book for the newcomers to New Mexico to read. It will give them a fair idea of the days when the west was still wild and woolly, days which were not so many years ago, but which have been almost forgotten by the present generation.

Everything depends on the point of view a man takes toward life. A secretary of a missionary society returned recently from Cuba and Porto Rico with a most doleful story about the illiteracy, the immorality and the irreligion of the residents of those islands. On the same ship returned a well-known correspondent of a New York newspaper. His impression of Cuba and Porto Rico was of the most rosy hue. He thinks that the Cuban soldiers are far better prepared for civil life than were our own soldiers, and he praises their peaceableness as being superior to that of the people of New York. And undoubtedly both men were telling the truth, at least as far as they discerned it.

Railroad Building in Siberia.

America's fame as a gigantic railroad builder is being eclipsed in Siberia, where a railroad from the Ural mountains to the Pacific ocean is nearing completion. When completed it will take but thirty days to travel around the earth. This will discount Jules Verne's novel "Around the World in Eighty Days." In connection with this railroad Russia has developed a gigantic colonization scheme. Two hundred thousand families, comprising a million people, will be transported from Russia and located at various points along the line. Each family will receive a present of fifty acres of arable land, with tools, seed and the requirements for cultivation thrown in. The Russian government will also support each family for the first year.

The palace cars now in use on the Trans-Siberian railroad as far as it is finished, surpass in convenience and splendor those of American railroads which were until the present esteemed the acme of elegance in railroad construction. To while away the time of the traveler on the six days' trip from Moscow to Irkutsk, a stationary bicycle with a pedometer attached has been placed in each car. A chirographer and barber will attend to the traveler's chin as well as to his indignation. A dark room is provided for the amateur photographer to develop plates en route, which he has taken from the observation car. Electricity provides the bells, the heat and the illumination, and even lights the wanderer's cigar after a seven-course dinner in the magnificent dining car. The London Sketch suggests that a small music hall, a polo ground, and a pair of prize fighters should be added to make the outfit complete.

WHEN THERE WILL BE A SURPLUS.
(Chamo Tribune.)

Not until the wise and beneficial provisions of the Duncan revenue law are faithfully carried out by the assessors and collectors of the territory will there be a surplus in the territorial treasury during the next fiscal year. When this law is enforced there will be no shortage in the different county treasuries, either.

WILL SUCCEED WITHOUT A BOUNTY.
(Pecos Valley Argus.)

It is to be regretted that the bill did not become a law, as the bounty would have stimulated the industry throughout the entire territory in a way nothing else could. However, the Pecos valley beet grower will go right along without a bounty, and this year will be recorded as the most successful one since the factory was built in Eddy.

Doctors Can't Cure It!

Contagious blood poison is absolutely beyond the skill of the doctors. They may dose a patient for years on their mercurial and potash remedies, but he will never be rid of the disease; on the other hand, his condition will grow steadily worse. S. S. S. is the only cure for this terrible affliction, because it is the only remedy which goes direct to the cause of the disease and forces it from the system.

I was afflicted with Blood Poison, and the best doctors did me no good, though I took their treatment faithfully. In fact, I seemed to get worse all the while. I took almost every so-called blood purifier, but they did not seem to reach the disease, and had no effect whatever. At the advice of a friend I then took S. S. S., and began to improve. I continued the medicine, and it cured me completely, building up my health and increasing my appetite. Although this was ten years ago, I have never yet had a sign of the disease to return.

It is like self-destruction to continue to take potash and mercury; besides totally destroying the digestion, they dry up the marrow in the bones, producing a stiffness and swelling of the joints, causing the hair to fall out, and completely wrecking the system.

S.S.S. For the Blood is guaranteed Purely Vegetable, and is the only blood remedy free from these dangerous minerals.

HOW THEY DO IT IN EFFETE EUROPE.
(New York Times.)

"The disciplinary court has sentenced Professor Delbrueck, of the Berlin university, to a reprimand and 500 marks fine for criticizing the expulsion of Danes from Schleswig-Holstein."—Berlin dispatch.

It is with extreme difficulty that an American or an Englishman can realize what this means, this survival of the barbaric practices of despotism in a land of civilization and enlightenment. If men were fined and imprisoned in this country for their political opinions and for criticizing the policy of the government, anybody who said "embalmed beef" would be instantly arrested and the anti-intellectuals would be in jail. The never-ceasing wonder, is why the German people don't make a sudden end of that sort of thing.

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY WILL DO IT.
(Chicago Times-Herald.)

Most certainly it should be the duty of congress, in both branches of which the Republicans have a majority, to abolish or suspend the protective duty on the products of any industry which has been organized into a trust and which has arbitrarily raised the prices of such products.

Whenever the protective tariff enhances the price of the product of a trust to the American consumer it should be reduced or removed entirely. That is a pretty safe proposition. Its adoption will remove the stigma of fostering trusts from the Republican party.

THE GOOD TIMES WILL LAST.
(Philadelphia Inquirer.)

As the result of a visit to this city a short time ago of an English railroad official the Baldwin Locomotive works received last week an order for twenty additional locomotives for England. About the same time the works received an order for twenty other locomotives from the Choctaw railroad, made necessary by the increasing business in Oklahoma and the Indian territory. The special correspondent of the London Statist writes in his paper from this country that never before have business conditions here been so sound as at present. He cites the abundance of money in circulation, the condition of the railroads, the iron and steel trades, and the expansion of cotton and wool industries as evidences of a prosperity that is certain to endure.

Future of the Bicycle.

It is agreed by all bicycle manufacturers that the 1899 models represent the perfect wheel. Improvement seems impossible. Precisely the same thing is true of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It represents the limit of science in overcoming disease, and it is impossible to make a better medicine for the stomach, liver, kidneys and blood. A few doses of the Bitters will start weak, nervous and bloodless people on the road to strength. A regular course of treatment will bring back the pink to the cheeks and sparkle to the eyes. Sleep will come naturally, and it will be refreshing and healthful. Dyspepsia, indigestion and constipation will be completely banished, and the blessings of true health bestowed. Never take a substitute for this perfect remedy.

THE TORPEDO BOAT.

She's a floating boiler crammed with fire and steam.
A toy, with dainty works like any watch.
A working, weaving basketful of tricks.
Eccentric, can and lever, cog and notch.
She's a dashing, lashing, tumbling shell of steel.
A headstrong, kicking, nervous, plunging beast.
A long, lean ocean liner—trimmed down small.
A bucking broncho harnessed for the east.
She can rear and toss and roll.
Your body from your soul.
And she's most unpleasant wet-to-the-skin least!

But see her slip in, sneaking down at night!
All a tremble, deadly, silent—satan slily!
Watch her gather for the rush and catch her breath!
See her dodge the wakeful cruiser's sweeping eye!
Hear her humming! Hear her coming, coming fast!
(That's the sound might make men wish they were at home.)
Hear the rattling Maxims, barking rapid fire!
See her loom out, towering the fog with bows afloat!
Then some will wish for land.
(They'd be sand fish in the sand.)
Or yellow grubs reposing in the loam!

She's a floating boiler crammed with fire and steam.
A dashing, toy, with works just like a watch.
A weaving, working basketful of tricks.
A pent volcano and stoppered at top notch.
She is death and swift destruction in a case.
Not the unseen, but the awful—plain in sight.
The dread that must be halted when afar.
She's a concentrated, fragile form of might!
She's a daring, vicious thing.
With a rattling, deadly sting.
And she asks no odds nor quarter in the fight!

THE LEG.

In the autumn of the year 1789 M. Louis Thevenet, one of the most eminent surgeons in Calais, received a written but unsigned request to come on the next day to a certain country house not far from the town on the road to Paris. He was asked to bring with him the instruments necessary for an amputation.

Thevenet was known far and wide for skill in his profession. It was indeed no uncommon thing for him to be called in consultation to England. He had served long in the army. There was something beaming in his manner, yet it was impossible not to love him for his goodness of heart.

He wondered a good deal over the letter. Time, place and hour were designated with the greatest exactness, but there was no sort of signature.

"Some fool is trying to send me on a wild goose chase," thought he and did not go.

Three days later he received the same request in yet more pressing terms, with the addition that at 9 o'clock the next day a carriage would stop for him at the door. And in fact at the stroke of 9 next morning there appeared at the door a handsome open carriage.

He made no further objection, but got into it, saying to the coachman, "To whom are you taking me?"

The man answered in English, "With things unknown to me I am not concerned."

"You are a rascal," retorted the surgeon. The carriage stopped at length before a country villa.

"Who lives here? Who is ill here?" Thevenet asked again, but he received the same answer.

At the house door he was met by a handsome young man, perhaps eight and twenty years of age, who conducted him up the stairway and into a large apartment. His every countenance in the house was turned toward him.

"It is you who have sent for me?" he said.

"I am very grateful for the trouble you have taken on my account," replied the young fellow. "Please be seated. Here are chocolate, coffee and wine in case you desire some refreshment before the operation."

"First show me the invalid, sir. I must examine the injury to see whether amputation is necessary."

It is necessary, M. Thevenet. Be seated. I have every confidence in you. Listen to me. Here is a purse containing 100 guineas. It is your payment for the operation you are about to undertake. If you accomplish it successfully, there is nothing more to be said. In the opposite case, or if you refuse, here is a loaded pistol. You are in my power, and, d—n me, but I'll shoot you down."

"Sir, I am not afraid of your pistol. But what do you want? Out with it without preface! What am I to do here?"

"You must out of my right leg!"

"With all my heart, sir, and your head, too, if you wish it. But if I am not mistaken the leg seems to be perfectly sound. You ran up the steps like a rope dancer. What ails your leg?"

"Nothing. But I wish to be rid of it." "Sir, you are a fool!"

"That need not trouble you, monsieur." "How has that handsome leg sinned against you?"

"In a way. But have you made up your mind to rid me of it?"

"Sir, I do not know you. At least bring me witnesses that you are otherwise of sound mind."

"Will you fulfill my request, M. Thevenet?"

"Yes, sir, as soon as you give me reasonable grounds for thus maiming you."

"I cannot now tell you the truth—perhaps after a year. But I will wager, sir, I will wager that at the end of that time you yourself will confess that my reasons were the noblest."

"I will wager nothing unless you tell me your name, your residence, your occupation."

"You shall know all hereafter. I beg you to believe me a man of honor."

"A man of honor does not threaten his physician with pistols. I have duties to ward even you, a stranger. I will not cripple you unnecessarily. If you wish to become the assassin of an innocent man, then shoot."

"Good, monsieur!" said the Briton, plucking up the pistol. "I will not shoot you, but I will force you nevertheless to take off my leg. What you will not do out of kindness for me or from desire of reward, or from fear of a bullet, you must do for me out of pity."

"How so, sir?"

"I will myself shatter it with a shot," and he seated himself and placed the muzzle of the pistol directly over his knee.

Thevenet sprang toward him to restrain him.

"Do not touch me," cried the young man, "or I will pull the trigger! Only answer me one question. Will you needlessly increase and lengthen my suffering?"

"Sir, you are a fool! But I will do your will. I will take your leg off."

DANGER AVERTED.

If a man should cross a deadly snake in his pathway, he would quickly crush it beneath his heel before it could sink its poisonous fangs into his flesh. He would not step out of the way and temporize with the dangerous reptile. And yet how many people are there who temporize with a still more deadly enemy—consumption. Like a silent serpent, it glides along almost unnoticed. First a cold, slight cough, then catarrh, then bronchitis, then bleeding from the lungs and finally death.

The way to crush out the threatening evil is to fortify the system and purify the blood with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Every weakness and abnormal condition proceeds from impure blood, and this non-alcoholic remedy. At the first sign of derangement of stomach, liver and blood, look out! It is only a question of time until the lungs will be attacked through the impure blood, and then the danger will be most deadly.

It should be known to every sick person that Dr. R. V. Pierce will give carefully considered, fatherly, professional advice by mail to all who write him at Buffalo, N. Y. No charge or fee of any nature is asked.

"I am a railroad agent," writes I. B. Staples, Reg. of Barclay, Dodge Co., Kan., "and four years ago, my work keeping me in a warm room and stepping out frequently into the cold air, gave me a cough, which became chronic and deep seated. Doctors failed to reach my case. A friend advised me to try Dr. Pierce's medicine. I commenced taking 'Golden Medical Discovery' and by the time I had taken the first bottle I was better and after taking four bottles my cough was entirely gone. This was a year ago last winter, and again last winter I took about three bottles to prevent a return of the trouble."

An honest dealer will not try to persuade you to take a worthless substitute in place of the "Golden Medical Discovery" for the sake of a little added profit.

It Didn't Work.
Whiffers—See here, Bluffers! You told me the way to win a girl was to devote myself to her mother.

Bluffers—Yes, sirree, that will do it every—Whiffers—Huh! I wanted to win Miss Deunt, and I took your advice and devoted myself to Mrs. Deunt, and now the old lady, who was widow, wants to marry me herself.—Nuggets.

Chance For Loving.
"I do so love babies," gurgled the young matron. "I could love one to die."

"Well," said the old bachelor lodger, "there is one in the room under mine that I wish you would concentrate your affections on. I'll pay for its funeral."
—Comic Cuts.

Sign of the Cross.
"I don't believe they have spoken for months, and I am sure it is because when they talked of taking the public house, and they were discussing a sign, he said, 'Well, have your portrait put up, my dear—just the bust, you know, and call it 'The Nag's Head.'"

THE CITY ELECTION

The Day Was Chilly and the Voters Apparently Sympathized with the Weather.

A VERY LIGHT LOCAL VOTE

Politicians Were Earnest in Trying to Fire the Local Electoral Heart, But Citizens Seemed Apathetic and Responded Tardily.

The familiar saying, "The election passed off quietly," will apply very well to the scenes around the polls in this city today. There were no disturbances up to noon, and no prospects of any in the afternoon, and in only one ward had there been any challenging, so that the "guards on the outer wall" had little to do. The campaign committees had waggonettes and hacks lying around from poll to poll, with legends painted on the backs of horses, urging the dear public in general and the voters in particular, to support this, that and the other candidate, and workers of the two parties were on the alert all day to catch all possible evasive and elusive voters. There was a cold, raw wind blowing nearly all day, which made overcoats a necessity, and kept people moving to keep warm. But in general, the day passed off peaceably enough, and there was no excitement worth mentioning.

At ward 1 the polling place was the residence of Juan Garcia, with Pablo Padilla, Severino Alarid and Daniel Lovato as election judges. The clerks were Miguel Gorman and Nicolas Sena, and the challengers were Frank Rivera y Gonzales and Blas Garcia. By noon 90 votes had been cast, and the situation was dullness itself. There was a fervent hope expressed that some one would contribute a barrel of agnoliente to quench the local thirst, but no barrel came.

At ward 2 the polls were in the grocery store northwest of the capitol, with Cosme Alarid, Julian Vigil and J. R. Ortiz as judges of election. The clerks were Benito Alarid and Miguel Ortiz, and the challengers were B. M. Read, Maximino Martinez and Frank Anaya. There was one man challenged, Roberto Armijo, for non-registration, and he was not allowed to vote. There had been cast 140 votes by noon, and although the street was well filled with people, there did not seem to be anything doing.

In ward 3 the polls were at the office of the justice of the peace on Water street. The judges of election were Ambrosio Ortiz, Albino Arias and Genovito Sandoval. The clerks were J. C. Conklin and Patricio Sandoval, and the challengers were Marcus Costillo and Francisco Gonzales y Baca. The vote was over 90 by noon, and there was not enough excitement to startle a chicken.

In ward 4 the election was held at the residence of Prudencia Garcia, and the judges of election were Antonio Borrego, Ascencion Guerrero and Simon Segura. The clerks were John D. Costillo and Robert Johnson. The challengers were Melion Costillo, Santa Ana Herrera and Apolonio Martinez. The situation at these polls was peaceful enough to please the most exacting policeman.

A round-up of the polls between 2:45 and 3:30 p. m. showed that in ward 1 there had been deposited 176 votes out of a registration of 325. In ward 2 the votes cast numbered 223, out of a registration of 333; in ward 3 the votes numbered 173 out of a registration of 298; in ward 4 there were 116 ballots cast, out of a registration of 338. This made a total of votes cast 688, out of a registration of 1,294; leaving 606 votes to be polled in two hours and a half, if all who were registered were to vote.

In ward 1 Jose Remedios was challenged, but finally was allowed to vote. This, presently, started a row, in which Joaquin Martinez punched Ignacio Sena and was arrested. He was, however, turned loose later. There were crowds about the polls, and in the vicinity all day, but everything was quiet, except in the little racket mentioned. The workers got to flying around town pretty lively by the afternoon, and were bringing in voters from all directions. But they made no particular noise about it. It was a day of ballot scratching, especially in ward 3, where it seemed as though every voter who could read his ballot would scratch it all up ere depositing it. Consequently, some time will be required to count the vote. Neither side appeared to do much in the claiming line, only the Democrats were sanguine that their candidate would be the next mayor of Santa Fe. The polls close at 6 p. m.

The accounts for the first quarter were approved.

The following resolution was passed: "Whereas, it appears to the board of county commissioners that in the year 1884, on the 5th day of October, R. Wagner was employed by a prior board of county commissioners as an expert accountant, in connection with the case of the Territory vs. Francisco Chavez et al., in the district court of Santa Fe county; and that under such employment he has rendered services in assisting the prosecution in said case, which are reasonably and justly worth $400; and whereas the board is unable, out of the current expense funds of this county, to discharge the said claim of R. Wagner or pay off the same; now, therefore be it

"Resolved, That the validity of said claim, the due performance of said labor, and the reasonable value thereof is said sum of $400, be, and the same is hereby recognized by this board, to be paid out of any funds recovered in the said case of the Territory vs. Francisco Chavez et al., on the final termination thereof."

Collector Fritz Miller filed a report of all taxes abated by county commissioners in 1898, etc., and the clerk was directed to credit Mr. Miller with all such abatements.

The board offered to pay $50 toward the proposed Palace avenue sewer in case connection be made with the court house.

SAN PEDRO BOOMING

The Santa Fe Gold & Copper Company Getting An Entirely New Plant.

THE MONTE CRISTO MINE

Gold and Lead Properties Showing Up Well, Real Estate Booming and a Railway a Probability.

County Commissioner J. T. McLaughlin, of San Pedro, spent yesterday and part of today in Santa Fe attending a meeting of the county commissioners and transacting other business in town. Mr. McLaughlin is a mining expert and manager of the Santa Fe Gold and Copper Mining company, which owns or controls all the copper claims in the San Pedro district. Mr. McLaughlin speaks very enthusiastically about the future of the mining interests in that part of Santa Fe county, and says that at present the conditions are very favorable and quite a boom has set in at San Pedro.

Mr. McLaughlin has about forty men at work developing the property of the Santa Fe Gold and Copper Mining company, and with good results. The force will probably be increased in the near future. Shafts 200 feet deep are now being sunk in the hillsides. All the old machinery of the company will be discarded and the most modern mining machinery put in its place. The ore will be treated as a whole, according to the method in vogue in the most successful mines in Montana. By that method the ore yields four and a half per cent of copper, besides a fair per cent of gold and silver. There is a full supply of good laborers in the district. The miners receive $2.50 a day and the shovelers $1.50 a day, and they will have work all the year around, as the mines very seldom close down, and are worked in summer as well as in winter. The Santa Fe Gold and Copper Mining company has plenty of capital back of it, and is controlled by Boston capitalists, mostly Standard Oil magnates.

The gold placer mines in the vicinity of Golden, Mr. McLaughlin said, are showing up well. The Monte Cristo mine, of which Colonel J. A. Wood is manager, is entering upon another prosperous year. The scarcity of water at the mine has been remedied by digging two new wells and the addition of new machinery, which is expected at Cerillos today, will enable a larger force to work day and night. A very large new pump will be put in by the company and a dynamo with a capacity for 200 sixteen candle power lights will be placed in position this month. Greater things are expected for the Monte Cristo, although it is paying handsomely already. It is owned mostly by Kansas City capitalists.

At the San Lazarus placers new hoisting machinery is being put in, and as soon as that work is finished the mill will be moved to the hoists, doing away with the necessity of a long trestling and the running of cars over a long distance.

Several lead mines in the vicinity of new San Pedro are also being developed, and are showing up well. The smelter at San Pedro is running to its fullest capacity, and there is every indication of continued prosperity at that stable mining town. A boom is driving upward the value of real estate, and handsome sums have been made by holders of land. Parties of newcomers arrive almost daily, and there is a scarcity of dwelling houses.

There is a fine wagon road from San Pedro to the Santa Fe railroad, but, nevertheless, Mr. McLaughlin thinks that a branch railroad to San Pedro may be a possibility of the near future. Of course, the construction of such a spur would be a great boon to San Pedro, Golden, the surrounding district and the south Santa Fe country generally.

MINOR CITY TOPICS.

The arrival of eight freight wagon loads of merchandise from Santa Fe in one day for Cochiti merchants is noted by the Herald of that place.

The plaza has been raked clean of the winter's accumulations, and now looks nice and fresh.

The city council tried real hard yesterday afternoon to hold a session, but only part of the finance committee managed to get together, and a few bills were added. It was intended to meet last night, but the excitement attending the eve of election was too much, and there was no session.

James Hackett, aged 30, of Sault Ste Marie, died of consumption at the hospital last evening, after a six weeks' stay in this city, and was buried this afternoon by Undertaker Wagner in Rosario.

The funeral of Harry Lewis was held this afternoon, as announced, under the direction of the Knights of Pythias, with burial at Odd Fellows' cemetery. Undertaker Wagner was the funeral director.

Mayor Frank W. Clancy of Albuquerque, as attorney for John Graas, Elizabeth Humphreys Savage, W. W. Allen, Orville B. Sander and Charles W. Lewis, of Albuquerque, this morning entered the Neustra Senora de los Milagros mining claim, situated in the Hell Canon Mining district, at the United States land office in this city.

Charles Russell, of Lamy, was in Santa Fe yesterday, engaging men to assist him in putting up a windmill at the goat ranch near Lamy. Mr. Russell has put up five wind mills already in this section this season.

Assistant Superintendent of Construction Prough, at the capitol, who was struck with paralysis yesterday, continues in about the same condition today.

Carmen Sanchez, sister of Jose Sanchez, janitor in Secretary Wallace's office, died at the orphanage on Sunday. She was aged 14 years. Her mother, two brothers and a sister reside in Santa Fe. The funeral took place yesterday forenoon. The interment was in Rosario cemetery.

Yesterday the thermometer at the local weather bureau registered as follows: Maximum temperature, 57 degrees, at 4:30 p. m.; minimum, 34 degrees, at 6:50 a. m. The mean temperature for the 24 hours was 46 degrees; mean daily humidity, 20 per cent.

U. S. weather bureau forecast for New Mexico: Partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday; warmer tonight.

PENITENTIARY MATTERS.

The New Warden's Plans to Profitably Employ Convicts.

Hon. H. O. Bursum, the new warden of the penitentiary, who has been in the city some days, has returned to Socorro temporarily. His bond has been prepared and will be submitted to Judge McFie at an early day. The property at the penitentiary is being inventoried, and the inventory will be verified at the next meeting of the commissioners. Mr. Bursum has not made an appointment of a deputy superintendent, and there is as yet no certainty as to whom he will name as his assistant. The statement to the effect that he had appointed Hon. W. E. Martin, of Socorro, to the position, is premature, and not based on fact. Mr. Martin may be appointed, but he has not yet been.

What changes Mr. Bursum contemplates when he takes charge are unknown. He stated to a representative of the New Mexican yesterday that he was considering all these matters, but thought it best to go slowly for the present. He has not yet quite arranged his private affairs preparatory to taking charge of the prison.

The New Mexican believes that the business ability, energy and honesty of Mr. Bursum will prove him the right man in the right place. There is a great deal of chance for improvement, and Mr. Bursum, it looks, will bring much improvement about.

The new warden is giving active thought to plans for making the institution less costly to the public, and some of his ideas are likely to develop good results.

It is his aim to employ as many of the convicts as possible at some labor that will bring financial returns, and thus offset part of the expense, and yet not involve an outlay of money for a working plant. One of the plans Mr. Bursum has in view contemplates the manufacturing of harness on an extensive scale. He believes that he can induce an eastern manufacturer, who has an extensive trade in the southwest, to put in a local branch, cheap labor being the inducement. There are now in use machines that cost but little that can sew all of the harness that six or eight cutters can supply. The saving to the manufacturer in wages and freight on the manufactured goods would be considerable. If some of the convicts could be leased at 50 cents per day, the compensation would go a long way to reduce the expenses of the institution.

The men could easily learn to do the work, and their labor would not be in competition with any considerable number of citizens of the territory. In the course of time a local tannery might treat the hides to be used, so that these would not have to be brought in from the east.

The Chamita Pilgrimage.

A number of Catholic priests went up to Chamita this morning on the annual pilgrimage. The party included Rev. Fathers Julliard and Martin, of Galveston; Fayet, of San Miguel; Oiler, of Tiptonville; Collier and Groom, of Socorro; Dilly, of Flagstaff; Ballard, of Chaparral; Mayeux, of Pecos; Alvernie, of Puerto de Luna; Gilbertson, Haeltermann, Deraches, Pryl, and Gutier, of Santa Fe. The vicar general was unable to get away. This pilgrimage is for all priests of this diocese, and is an annual meeting for general consultation and conference as to methods of administration and work generally. The pilgrimage will be of two days' duration.

Apt Quotations.

Proverbs, axioms and wise sayings have been uttered by Confucius and other wise men from time immemorial, but few people realize how many there are of them. C. I. Hood & Co., of Saparrilla fame, have over two thousand and they have originated the ingenious plan of serving them up in delectable shape in thousands of newspapers, with each one neatly turning a point as to the merit of their well known medicine. The extensive use of these proverbs is original and creditable to Hood & Co.

REMARKABLE CURE OF RHEUMATISM.

Kenna, Jackson Co., W. Va.

About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for over a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance, her limbs being swollen to double their normal size. Mr. S. Maddox insisted on my using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I purchased a fifty-cent bottle and used it according to the directions, and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has not had a similar attack since.—A. Mandell Bros Pay Up.

Clerk A. M. Bergere, of the district court, received this morning a check for $1,284 from Mandell Brothers, of Albuquerque, in payment of a judgment in a trespass suit brought some years ago by Louis Sugar. Interest to the amount of $300 is yet to be paid.

Reception of the Archbishop.

There was to have been a special reception committee appointed to go to Lamy to meet and escort the archbishop to Santa Fe, but owing to the election excitement there was no meeting, and the only reception committee will be the general excursion of good Catholics on the special train of Thursday morning. Work progresses actively in preparation of the archbishop's residence, and when he arrives he will find everything pleasing. Special services will be held next Sunday in the cathedral.
