They Go Back and Consult the Island Dictator Who Sent Them.Manila, May 23.—The Filipino commissioners spent the day at the residence of the American commissioners.
They discussed from every point the scheme of government and peace proclamation details, asking information as to what personal rights would be guaranteed them. Colonel Charles Denby, of the American commission, explained that they would be the same as under the United States constitution. They chiefly objected to the scheme on the ground that it gave them personal liberty, which they knew they would have, but did not give them political liberty.
Finally, the Filipinos said they were personally pleased with the plan, but could not endorse it officially.GENERAL LUNA A DICTATOR.
Manila, May 23.—Rostario, a Filipino congressman, a wealthy resident, formerly Aguinaldo's commissary general, accompanied by an insurgent captain, called upon Major General Otis to-day and announced "we desire to surrender our persons and property into the hands of Americans." The surrender was arranged by Chaplain Pierce, of the 14th regiment.According to Rostario, General Luna is absolute dictator, and Aguinaldo fears him. Every Filipino leader, it is added, suspects others of treachery.
The recent meeting of the Filipino congress was to secure a new cabinet, and the question of peace was not formally considered, as the members feared Luna's displeasure.Major Bell, with two companies of the 4th cavalry, has been reconnoitering in the direction of Santa Anita. He found 100 Filipinos, and was driving them away, when large re-enforcements of rebels arrived, and he was obliged to withdraw with four men wounded.A raft carrying soldiers of the 14th regiment has been sunk at Pasig ferry and one man drowned. The wet season has begun.ELPHANT BUTTE DAM.Can Not Be Built If It Materially Injures Rio Grande Navigation.Denver, May 23.—The decision of the supreme court of New Mexico in the case of the Rio Grande Dam and Irrigation Company, at Elephant Butte, favorable to the company, was reversed by the United States supreme court. The case was remanded with instructions to order an inquiry into the question whether the intended acts of the defendants in constructing a dam and appropriating the waters of the Rio Grande will substantially diminish the navigability of the stream within the limits of its present navigability, and if so, to enter a decree restraining those acts to the extent that they will so diminish it. The opinion was by Justice Brewer.DEWEY IN CHINA.The Admiral Is in Ill Health and Needs His Rest.Hong Kong, May 23.—The Olympia, with Admiral Dewey on board, arrived here from Manila, and was saluted by ships of all nationalities. Admiral Dewey, Captain Lamberton, Lieutenant Brumby and United States Consul Wildman were received by a guard of honor of royal Welsh fusiliers when they landed to visit the governor of Hong Kong, Sir Henry A. Blake. The visit was returned by the officials mentioned. Admiral Dewey is in bad health, being too ill to attend the queen's birthday dinner. The Olympia is going into dock here, and will remain ten days.The Paris May Be Saved.Falmouth, England, May 23.—The weather is favorable to the stranded ship Paris, and soundings show the ship is resting more favorably owing to the fact that she has been considerably lightened. Should the steamer show signs of sinking when taken in tow, it is proposed to run her on a flat sandy bar adjoining the place where she struck. It is expected that the steamer, now being evenly balanced, will come off the rocks without sustaining further damage.Schley Received Joyfully.Omaha, Neb., May 23.—Admiral Schley was tendered a reception at Council Bluffs to-day. Several thousand people attended.CURRENCY REFORM.The Gold Standard Will Be Indorsed and Banking Privileges Enlarged.New York, May 23.—A special to the Herald from Washington says that the advocates of currency reform are somewhat disappointed with the results of deliberations of the Republican caucus committee, appointed to formulate a legislative program. It had been hoped the committee would agree upon a comprehensive scheme of currency and bank reform that would command the support of the majority of each house of congress. A very moderate scheme has been agreed upon by the committeemen, however, and is generally looked upon as a step in the right direction. It proposes to adopt definitely the gold standard, making all obligations of the country payable in gold on demand, to reissue greenbacks only in exchange for gold, to permit banks to issue notes up to the par value of their bonds, and permit the establishment of banks of $25,000 capital in small towns.
It is not improbable even moderate measure proposed by the committee will fail.MOBBED IN MEXICO.Georgia Methods of Treating Negroes in Vogue There.Diaz, Mexico, May 23.—There is great excitement at San Diaro, ten miles from here, over the lynching of seven colored laborers of the Mexican Central railroad.
Jose Santo, a Spanish negro, attempted to assault the wife of Senor Dupuy, a ranch owner, was tracked by blood-hounds and in company with nine others was captured. The regulators did not attempt to prove the guilt of the negroes but hung three and shot four who attempted to escape.HONOLULU NEWS.*A Transport Brings Sick Men—Civil Officer in Trouble.San Francisco, May 23.—The steamer Australia arrived from Honolulu to-day and brings word that the United States transport Solace arrived at Honolulu May 15 from Manila via Hongkong. She has on board a large number of soldiers and sailors whose time of service has expired and many invalids, including sick men. Among the passengers is General King.
Attorney A. S. Humphreys has filed information in the supreme court of Hawaii charging Attorney General Cooper with misconduct of office. Cooper has been cited to appear before the supreme court in June.The Buffalo Strike Settled.Buffalo, N. Y., May 23.—The grain shovelers' strike was settled this morning, when an agreement was signed by Contractor Connors to withdraw all men now employed by him as grain shovelers and submit names of old men to a committee, with President Keefe, of the Longshoremen's Association, as chairman, who shall decide the eligibility of such members to join the new local association. The agreement was accepted by President Keefe and Rev.
Mr. Albertson, representing the striking shovelers. It is expected that the freight handlers and others who struck out of sympathy for the shovelers will return to work.The marine firemen's sympathetic strike has been declared off.Lawton's Colonels Promoted.Washington, May 23.—General Otis cables as follows: "On the urgent recommendation of General Lawton, I recommend Colonel Owen Summers to be brigadier general of volunteers brevet, for conspicuous gallantry at Maasan, Bulac bridge and San Isidro, and Captain J. S. Case, major of volunteer brevet, for distinguished services and gallantry at the above places, while acting as division engineer officer. Colonel Summers is colonel of the 2d Oregon volunteers, and commanded the advance of a brigade of Lawton's division during his recent march northward to San Isidro."Lieutenant Died of Typhoid Fever.Washington, May 23.—General Otis today notified the War department of the death at Manila of Lieutenant Pierce C. Foster, 3d infantry, of typhoid fever.Did Not Sink the Gunboat.New York, May 23.—A dispatch to the Herald from Managua says: "The report that the cruiser Detroit fired upon the Nicaraguan gunboat San Jacinto and sunk her is untrue."Death of a Consul.New York, May 23.—Benjamin Franklin Clark, consul at Pernambuco, died on the steamer Hevelius May 19 of bright's disease and was buried at sea the same evening Mr. Clark, who had been ill some time was returning to his home at Manchester, N. H.Marauding Indians in Montana.Miles City, Mont., May 23.—There are indications of Cheyenne uprisings.
Armed Indians drove M. Loraine and children from their home and killed stock belonging to Henry Bailey, a deputy sheriff. Deputy Sheriff Smith and a posse have gone to arrest the Indians.Presbyterian Brethren Will Not Get Together.Minneapolis, Minn., May 23.—So far as official action is concerned, the union between the Presbyterian church north and south is as far off as ever. Taking up the proposition for the beginning of negotiations with a view to reconciliation favored by many, the committee on bills reported adversely to the general assembly to-day. It was held inexpedient to take any action this year.
Without a dissenting vote the general assembly of the Presbyterian church accepted the report of the committee on bills and overtures in favor of making no attempt this year at union with the "church south." It appears that the "church north" decided to hold back until the "church south" gives some signs of reciprocating the reunion sentiment.Ex-Governor Prince Will Speak.Wehlita, Kas., May 23.—Secretary McKnight, of the Transmississippi congress, has announced the list of speakers who have agreed to address the convention, which begins here May 31. Among them are Governor Sayres of Texas, Governor Murphy of Arizona, Governor Barnes of Oklahoma, Governor Stanley of Kansas, ex-Governor Fishback of Arkansas, and ex-Governor Prince of New Mexico.The Peace Conference.The Hague, May 23.—Chiefs of delegations at the peace conference held a private meeting this morning and afterwards informed their colleagues of arrangements made for a choice of presidents of various committees as agreed upon last evening. The conference held a plenary sitting at which the selections were ratified.No Guns—No Money.Havana, May 23.—Some late insurgents aver that they will not give up their arms. Governor General Brooke has no present intention of making a house to house search for arms. If the Cuban soldiers are not willing to bring in arms and there by get the $75 allotted each man as his share of the $3,000,000, the matter will be passed over.Two Foolish Frenchmen Fight.Paris, May 23.—A duel has been fought between Camille Mendes, the French author and dramatic critic, and M. Vanar. The quarrel which led to the meeting grew out of the discussion Saturday during the entire act at Theater de la Place du Chateau, where Sarah Bernhardt produced her version of "Hamlet," playing the title role. Mendes and Vanar engaged in a dispute as to whether Hamlet should be fat or thin. Mendes received an ugly wound in the abdomen.Are You sideration.Washington, May 23.—The main feature of the cabinet meeting to-day was a discussion of the detailed report from General Otis regarding military operations in the Philippines. The report is considered satisfactory.

Secretary Gage brought up the question of flags for Cuban shipping. About $6,000,000 worth of Cuban shipping is prevented from engaging in international trade because it has no flag to sail under. Owners have repeatedly appealed for relief. The matter was referred to Secretary Gage for solution.
If one could be found, Relief was ofered as far as coastwise trade is concerned by recognition of the Cuban flag for the purpose.Railway Telegraphers.Peoria, Ill., May 23.—The Order of Railway Telegraphers has decided to change the time of meeting from the third Monday in May to the third Monday in September. The grand chief has been given power to move his headquarters from Peoria. T. N. Pierson, formerly vice grand chief, has been reinstated in the order.
Grand Chief Powell has been authorized to investigate the affairs of railway telegraphers in Mexico, Cuba and Porto Rico, with a view to extending the order to those countries.Punished for Taking Tips.Washington, May 23.—In the cases of twenty-two customs inspectors at New York, recently suspended upon charges of neglect of duty and accepting tips from incoming steamship passengers, the collector and surveyor, who conducted the investigation, reported as to ten men that the charges were not sustained, and as to the remaining twelve, facts warranted suspension from duty and pay of thirty days. These recommendations have been approved by Assistant Secretary Spaulding.A MISSING MACHINIST.He Wanders Away from Cerrillos and Can Not Be Found.Special to the New Mexican.
Cerrillos, May 23.—Adolf J. Reigies, an engineer and machinist, formerly employed at the Cash Entry mine, lately of McAlester, I. T., returning to New Mexico a few months ago, has mysteriously disappeared. The last seen of him was at 8 o'clock Sunday morning.
He is known to have been somewhat dependent on account of ill-health and failure to receive funds due him from people in Indian Territory. Searching parties have been out from here, but so far without result.A Peace Jubilee.Washington, May 23.—The Washington peace jubilee was inaugurated today by a national salute of thirteen guns from the Dolphin, anchored off the navy yard. A half holiday was given in the departments. The day's festivities were marked by a parade com-of the secret service, announces the arrest in Chicago of William Coleman, silver teller of the subtreasury there, on a charge of having abstracted silver from bags received from banks. It is

He came to Santa Fe from Alamogordo, where he has property interests, and this morning left for Hooper. He said Alamogordo is a marvel and will be the largest and most prosperous town of southern New Mexico. With the old lumber mill and the new saw mill building, with railroad shops and machine shops to be built and a smelter as one of the possibilities, it is bound to grow to a large city, Mr. Cox asserts.THE CLAIRE.Under the management of Fred D. Mi-

TUESDAY, MAY 23.

What are the Bonitones going to do about it when Aguinaldo comes off?

The uselessness of temporizing with the Philippines should be manifest to all who have observed the course of affairs in Cuba, where the policy has proved a failure.

Colorado fruit experts report that while nearly all fruit was destroyed by a cold winter, fruit pests were generally exterminated by the same temperature. It's an ill wind that blows no one good.

None of the enterprising typewriter manufacturers have yet announced testimonials from Aguinaldo. Yet his machine certainly turns out a large amount of work in the way of reports and proclamations for foreign consumption.

There are but two admirals in all the world, one in the English navy, and the other is Dewey. Vice admiral is the highest rank in the French navy. Rear admirals are numerous, but they must always salute the great Dewey as a superior.

Andrew Carnegie announced that he retired from business to get a rest, and would give away his millions to worthy institutions. He has not had any rest since, and will not have if he reads the letters the promise has caused to be fired at him.

The Las Vegas people are not leaving to manana what may be done to-day in the way of preparations for the rough riders' reunion. If any of the eastern members of the regiment fail to attend they will miss the jolliest event they ever had the opportunity of attending.

The Princeton students who put a wild west show to flight are respectfully invited to come out to Las Vegas next month and try a round with the rough riders. The sight would be worth going miles to see. Princeton school might have to take a vacation after the show ended.

The real reason why the Cuban soldiers do not give up their guns is perhaps because when they do they must work. A Cuban soldier who has lived three years without work, at the expense of the farmers and the people, is not going to give up his snap so long as he can hang to it.

It is too bad that Admiral Dewey could not come across the continent and see the only town yet named for him. On the Santa Fe Pacific is a water tank station christened for the admiral. For this occasion the railway people would doubtless have been willing to fill it with anything the tired hero might have called for.

When there is anything to be done with the Cubans the right course to pursue is to do it without parleying. They always misconstrue the acts of a conciliatory government into a sign of weakness. The United States has the responsibility of making Cuba a peaceful country, well ruled, and there is little use to ask the Cubans whether they prefer this or that, while it is necessary to maintain a semi-military government there.

The Denver papers have been discussing real estate titles in Santa Fe. The methods for perfecting them have already been provided, and owners are not worried about the matter. In fact, they are, if anything, too indifferent, and should take quicker advantage of the offer of Surveyor General Vance to have surveys made free of charge while there is money available. While there is no danger of loss of property, if the real estate market should become active owners would wish they could read their titles clear.

Colorado is expecting more tourists next summer than have gone there in the last few seasons. If Colorado has a large crop Santa Fe will also reap, for very many who go to that state also visit the capital of New Mexico to see historic buildings and other attractions. Many of the tourists spend more time here than in Colorado, finding the summer climate exactly what they came forth to see. Santa Fe will some day be selected as a proper place for the investment of a large sum of money in providing attractions and methods of amusement for visitors.

There is a peculiar condition of affairs in the war department now. All orders go out with the name of General Miles attached, but he never sees them. They are issued by Secretary Alger under the direction of the president. The report of the beef inquiry committee recommended that no further proceedings be taken. This recommendation has been followed, but General Miles has no duty to perform, because he has been relieved of everything but signing the pay roll. All reports from the field go to the war department, and General Miles never sees them. He has not entered the office of Secretary Alger since returning from Porto Rico.

"Whatever is foremost before the people will be the dominant issue," said Candidate Bryan in his last interview. That means Bryan will be the issue, for he allows nothing to get before him. If an elephant shut out the view, Political Billy would certainly pack water to the animal in order to get in front.

There is going to be much more fruit in northern New Mexico than the statisticians believed there would be, after the last frost. There was general damage, but the severe loss was in spots. For instance, there are some apricot trees in Santa Fe that will yield fruit this year, although the apricot is usually quick to suffer.

Reporters are not admitted to sessions of the peace conference. Perhaps that is the reason they are telegraphing that the whole affair may break up in a row. It would be better to let them get the truth. No great purpose can be injured by permitting truth to be published. The people can be trusted to weigh facts and conditions properly.

The people of this country pay the president $50,000 per year, but they pay John W. Rockefeller $12,000,000 per annum. He does not earn more than a little bit of it, but having a monopoly, exacts the full sum. Perhaps the country should be grateful that he does not take more through the oil trust, but we may wish to leave a few dividends to be picked up when the copper trust gets in full swing.

The decrepit grannies of El Paso, who do not feel the warm blood of patriotism that flows from the throbbing heart of the nation, need something to vitalize them. An injection of a few ounces of goat lymph might do. Something is wrong with the liver or the brains of people who get together and mourn over the imaginary wrongs that might be put upon savages 6,000 miles away, when these savages are beginning to admit that this country offers liberality, while the Texas talkers resolute over the shackles that soldiers are alleged to carry for the island idols.

Aguinaldo is afraid that when he surrenders the American officer will have him shot. That shows how little he understands Americans. It also indicates that he knows he ought to be shot, according to his judgment of what should be done with one who has pursued the course that he adopted for his personal advancement. Aguinaldo may consider himself fortunate if some of the people whom he deceived, and whose homes he burned, do not destroy him when they learn that he was wronging instead of seeking to protect them. The Tagals are not over nice about doing things like that, and this fake George Washington may be made to feel their vengeance.

If anything were needed to kill Populism in Colorado advances like that announced yesterday of the increase of the wages of men employed by the Bessemer steel works at Pueblo, would soon put theism to sleep. An advance of 10 per cent in the earnings of so many men, the second advance made voluntarily by this corporation since the panic passed, is a result that followed the defeat of political agitators who frightened business. The advance is only in keeping with similar advances made all over the United States in all lines, and most of the increase has come about without labor strikes, showing that the manufacturers are willing to share prosperity with employees.

When Fight on Trusts Was Begun.
Democrats who think their party first took up the fight against trusts are going as usual. The earliest regularly organized trust that put in an appearance was that of the sugar refiners in 1887. The very next year the Republican national convention in its platform said: "We declare our opposition to all combinations of capital, organized in trusts or otherwise, to control arbitrarily the condition of trade among our citizens, and we recommend to congress and the state legislatures, in their respective jurisdictions, such legislation as will prevent the execution of all schemes to oppress the people by undue charges on their supplies, or by unjust rates for the transportation of their products to market."

The president nominated by that convention signed an anti-trust law enacted by a Republican congress. This national law has not proved very effective, because, it is claimed, the power of the government, in such matters, is not as absolute as that of the states. What can be done by congress to restrict trusts will be done, however, by the Republicans. Some of the state legislation has been more defective than the national law. When the Republican party passes further legislation on this subject it will be intelligent legislation that will not do more harm than good.

Developing a Water Supply.
Southern California has long supposed that the limited flow of water in her mountains was the main supply available for irrigation. Although there were a few artesian wells, it was not considered that artesian water could be had over any great area. The two dry years threatening ruin to hundreds of orchards because streams and reservoirs failed, made experiments necessary. As a result wells have been bored and up-to-date water has been found sufficient to irrigate 500,000 acres. As only 100,000 acres of land has been under ditch, the importance of this discovery can be imagined. The development continues, and much of southern California can step out of the arid classification. In most cases the water has to be pumped, but more science has made it possible to do this with cheap machinery at little expense. New Mexico will some time utilize the water supply that is to be found at no great depth generally in the valleys and on the mesas. The unsalted sea that shoots aqueous columns from springs and wells over the sixty miles of territory between Roswell and Seven Rivers, and again bursts forth 100 miles down the valley, may prove sufficient for all of the Pecos country.

The Dona Ana County Republican says that the Shalem colony, north of Las Cruces, is successfully cultivating an extensive tract of land there by the pumping water for irrigation. The colony manager says the method is preferable to depending on supply canals from the river.

CANCER IS DEADLY!

Results Fatally in Nine Cases Out of Ten—A Cure Found at Last.

This fearful disease often first appears as a mere scratch, a pimple, or lump in the breast, too small to attract any notice, until, in many cases, the deadly disease is fully developed.

Cancer can not be cured by a surgical operation, because the disease is a virulent poison in the blood, circulating throughout the system, and although the sore or ulcer—known as the Cancer—may be cut away, the poison remains in the blood, and promptly breaks out afresh, with renewed violence.

The wonderful success of S. S. S. in curing obstinate, deep-seated blood diseases which were considered incurable, induced a few despairing sufferers to try it for Cancer, after exhausting the skill of the physicians without a cure. Much to their delight S. S. S. proved equal to the disease and promptly effected a cure. The glad news spread rapidly, and it was soon demonstrated beyond doubt that a cure had at last been found for deadly Cancer. Evidence has accumulated which is incontrovertible, of which the following is a specimen:

"Cancer is hereditary in our family, my father, a sister and an aunt having died from this dreadful disease. My feelings may be imagined when the horrible disease made its appearance on my side. It was a malignant Cancer, eating inwardly in such a way as to cause great alarm. The disease seemed beyond the skill of the doctors, for their treatment did no good whatever, the Cancer growing worse all the while. Numerous remedies were used for it, but the Cancer grew steadily worse, until it seemed that I was doomed to follow the others of the family, for I know how deadly Cancer is, especially when inherited. I was advised to try Swift's Specific (S. S. S.), which, from the first day, forced out the poison. I continued its use until I had taken eighteen boxes, when I was cured sound and well, and have had no symptoms of the dreadful affliction, though many years have elapsed. S. S. S. is the only cure for Cancer.—Mrs. S. M. Idol, Winston, N. C.

PRESS COMMENTS.

NOT BORNE OUT BY FACTS.

(New York Mail and Express.)

In the course of a discussion of naval affairs in England, some of the London papers have criticized the Naval Academy at Annapolis, saying that it turned out "young pigs utterly unable to understand and command men," who are "so filled with their own importance as to treat the old officers in the most insubordinate manner." The behavior of these young officers in the war with Spain failed to furnish any grounds for such assertions.

ARBITRATION OF DISPUTES.

(New York Tribune.)

The principle of arbitration has been much discussed in the last few years; not always with favor, though, we are convinced, with, on the whole, an increase of favor. Nations are not yet ready to abdicate their sovereignty, and so are not inclined to bind themselves to hard-and-fast invariable and universal schemes of arbitration. They retain the belief that arbitration, to be morally effective, must be voluntary and not coercive.

THE OLIVE BRANCH CONVENTION.

(Philadelphia Record.)

If the peace conference at The Hague should evolve an acceptance scheme to limit armaments, or should induce the governments represented at the gathering to obligate themselves to resort to arbitration or accept the mediation of friendly powers before making an appeal to arms, the waiting nations would be agreeably surprised. The well-nigh universal pessimism which prevails regarding the results of the conference, however, is more likely to be justified. The world can not be purged of militarism by the resolutions of a conference any more than men can be made virtuous by legislative enactment.

ARBITRATION.

(Chicago Chronicle.)

Our recent difficulty with Spain furnishes an instance of the impossibility of accomplishing anything more such a system. Does any one believe that, after the Maine had been blown up, the national administration would have dared to submit the matter to arbitration? Would congress have accepted a decision which put Spain in the right, and would the people have rested quiet under such a decision? Unquestionably no. In the first place, the president would not have risked political annihilation by arbitrating the Maine affair. In the next place, congress would have precipitated war in spite of him. Nations, like individuals, are not fond of leaving their disputes to a referee when they believe they can maintain their arguments by the strong arm.

THE ABUSE OF KINGS.

(St. Louis Globe-Democrat.)

The German-American who has just got himself into prison in Germany for applying an offensive epithet in that country to the Kaiser will hardly arouse much sympathy in the United States. This person ought to have known, and doubtless did know, that no such liberty to abuse the head of the state is allowed in Germany as there is in this country. A resident or visitor in a country must obey that country's laws and regulations or take the consequences. The German-American, Italian-American, Russian-American, or American-American who supposes he can abuse Kaisers, kings and czars in their own country with the same impunity with which he can denounce or lampoon presidents in the United States must be a very innocent or a very ignorant individual.

OUR PRESENT TARIFF.

(Baltimore Sun.)

The fact that we export in competition with foreign manufacturers, and even sell our wares in the competing countries, proves that our manufacturers no longer need protection, and that the only purpose now served by our high tariff is to enable them to pluck the home consumer. The tariff enables the manufacturers to put up and keep up prices, and now that nearly all industries have been consolidated into trusts, there is no doubt that competition, which formerly regulated prices somewhat in the home market, will be more or less throttled. The trusts are meant to kill competition—the only hope consumers had. This is becoming plain to everybody, so that the next movement for tariff reform ought to have increased strength.

CONSPIRACY CASES

The Defense Has the Floor and Brings Out Stories of Smuggling.

MERRILL MAKES DENIALS

Allegations That Garner Had Hallucinations and the Prison People Did Not Believe His First Story.

Yesterday afternoon Detective Cook completed his testimony in the conspiracy cases. He had learned in Missouri that various crimes of the gang Garner said he belonged to were really committed.

Bernard Spears, former penitentiary yardmaster, was put upon the stand. He told how every few weeks Garner gave him a small package of strychnine, and said he had found it in the garden, where a guard named Burns had dropped it. At one time, when a whole bottle of strychnine was handed to Spears, Garner said a small quantity had been taken out and tried on a dog. When the last package was received Garner said: "This is the last; the gang says that they have done their part, and they will be raising the devil with me for not doing mine."

Mr. Spears testified that several times he, Colonel Bergmann and O. L. Merrill held meetings to discuss the Garner story and the source from whence came the poison. There was hardly a week during the eight years, under the four superintendents he served at the penitentiary, that something was not smuggled in by convicts. Acids, knives, files, paper, lead pencils and other articles were constantly found, and there was always mystery as to the methods.

The witness, Colonel Bergmann, O. L. Merrill and a guard named Kelly constantly watched Burns and Garner. Burns' conduct was above suspicion. For four weeks Garner was sick, and one week he was entirely out of his head. For two months he had been working at the capitol, and it might have been comparatively easy for him to smuggle in the poison, hide it, for instance, in the hollow iron of the bedsteads, or in the ventilators.

Colonel Bergmann and the prison officials ate the same food that was prepared for the convicts. Orders were given not to allow Garner in the kitchen. The prison officials never believed what Garner said of alleged plotters. Garner was not placed in a dark cell or punished for infraction of the rules, because in that manner prison authorities never succeed in getting a true statement out of a convict.

When the Borregos were in the penitentiary three bottles of acid, files, two saws and other matter were smuggled in, and it was never discovered how they were taken in. The Borregos were punished by never being allowed outside, and, after they saved their door, by being kept in a blind cell.

William Cole, ex-night cell-house keeper, caused much laughter by his quaint and naive answers. He caught Francisco Borrego after the prisoner cut his way out of the cell door. The witness found an ax smuggled into a dark cell.

Spears was recalled, and said that any prisoner was at liberty to complain to the warden. Garner had said to Spears: "I do not want my three months for good behavior, as I would rather stay at the penitentiary. The gang will murder me when I get out."

Henry Bergmann, son of Colonel Bergmann, was the last person on the stand, but produced no material new evidence. He contradicted himself in an obvious manner several times.

TO-DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

O. L. Merrill, one of the accused, was on the stand all morning. He declared that he never called upon Mr. Catron, as the latter testified, to get the attorney to secure a pardon for Garner, nor did he tell the attorney that Garner had $375, and would pay $250 to get a pardon; he had not called upon Mr. Catron since Garner was sent to the penitentiary; that, to his knowledge, Garner had not a cent when he came to the prison, and that he had never mentioned Catron's name in the presence of Garner, nor did Garner ever mention it to him. Eight or ten times on the stand Merrill stated emphatically that the assertion about his calling upon Mr. Catron was untrue. Merrill told the story of the finding of poison; of Garner's treatment after he had made a statement, and of the prison discipline and rules. When Merrill told Colonel Bergmann the first time about Garner's talk with Catron, Bergmann answered, "it is all confounded nonsense." They did not make the matter public, for the reason that if everything that prisoners said were made public innocent persons outside of the penitentiary would constantly be involved in scandal, and if notice were taken of every accusation of convicts against penitentiary employees not a single person would remain in the penitentiary's employ. Mr. Merrill said he was a friend of Mr. Fornoff for many years, and they had intended to have Mr. Fornoff investigate the finding of the poison, but after they sent Garner to prison, Garner made the statement that Fornoff had sent the poison into the prison. That put the penitentiary authorities in a delicate position, and they wired Fornoff not to come. Mr. Merrill denied ever having bought any strychnine or having suggested to Garner any statement or part of a statement. Two bottles of strychnine were kept at the penitentiary; one in the safe and the other in the medicine chest. Garner was demoted last July, the witness said, and imagined some one had hit him across the head with a bottle, and danced on him, breaking all of his ribs. When Merrill told Garner that the governor had cut off his good time allowance, Garner said he was glad, for he was afraid the gang would murder him when he got out. Merrill said he had very little conversation with Garner. He testified that in all prisons convicts succeed in smuggling in prohibited substances. The Borregos smuggled in all sorts of files, saws, acids and other material. At one time an apple was given to them that had a pen point concealed in it so skillfully that one of the Borregos bit into the apple and painfully lacerated the roof of his mouth. The court adjourned, with Merrill on the stand, until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Merrill was cross-examined minutely at the afternoon session, but with the exception of a defective memory as to dates and several other matters his testimony remained practically unchanged. He said that the penitentiary management at first deemed that Garner was working under a hallucination, and called in Dr. Harroun twice to examine into the sanity of the prisoner. Colonel Bergmann at one time fired Garner out of his office, saying that the man was telling a pack of lies. Merrill deemed the greater part of Garner's statement lies, but marked no demerits against him for it.

Merrill tried Garner's strychnine on two cats; they were killed. He also made two corrections in Garner's statement made to Judge McLaughlin. The corrections were minor ones, and made at the request of General Charles F. Easley. The bottle in which some of the strychnine was turned over by Garner bears the label of a Philadelphia firm. Merrill some years ago used strychnine belonging to the penitentiary to kill gophers, and carried the key to the medicine chest.

Merrill was still under cross-examination when the New Mexican report closed.

Local businessmen complain that a large number of mutilated Mexican coins are in circulation.

Undertaker Charles Wagner yesterday bought a 7,000 pound safe that is a monster. Its original cost was $1,300.

Some of the young people of town are preparing an amateur play which they intend to give this summer at the opera house.

To-night, Santa Fe lodge No. 2, K. of P., will hold its regular weekly meeting at Castle hall. Visiting knights given a most cordial and fraternal welcome.

Insurance Agent Paul Wunschmann had the misfortune last evening to fall down a flight of stairs at his residence. Mr. Wunschmann has almost recovered from his fall.

The meeting of the board of fire commissioners was not held last evening on account of the electric light giving out suddenly and leaving the fire station in darkness. The lights were turned on a few minutes after the board adjourned.

There will be a very important meeting tonight of the trustees of the Santa Fe university at the house of Hon. L. B. Prince. No meeting has been held for a considerable time and much important business is to be acted upon. This is the board which holds the Whittin Hall and Ramona properties.

About twelve Indian girls of the Presbyterian mission school were sent home to Embudo and Antonito Monday over the D. & R. G. railroad. Four wagonloads of pupils left for their homes at Salazar and other Indian pueblos, about four days' journey to the west of Santa Fe.

The postoffice at Santa Fe has received official notice that the Santa Fe limited trains Nos. 3 and 4 will be discontinued with west bound train leaving La Junta May 27, and with the east bound train leaving Albuquerque, June 1. The mail and express pouches by those trains will of course be discontinued.

Mauricio Gonzales was arrested Monday evening for attempting to break into the house of Mrs. Lopez on lower San Francisco street. Justice Garcia sent him to jail for 60 days. An Italian named Yanni and Candelario Tomez were arrested for drunkenness and Justice Garcia fined them $5 each. The mayor remitted the fine and the men paid the costs and were discharged.

S. E. Lankard says that the statements made against him at the school board meeting Saturday evening were false, unjust and the result of a conspiracy. He had not asked to be elected superintendent, but members of the school board begged him to be a candidate. He is in possession of a teacher's certificate awarded in Pennsylvania and also has recommendations and he will probably publish a statement in a few days, he says.

It is better to preserve health than to cure disease. Therefore, keep your blood pure with Hood's Sarsaparilla and be always well.

Court Notes.

Judge John R. McFie this morning entered a decree foreclosing the mortgage held by John G. Schuman against Lizette Gold, Jake Gold et al. The amount is $1,104.32 with interest at 12 per cent, costs and attorney's fees. Ernest A. Johnston was appointed master to sell the real estate, which is situated at the corner of San Francisco street and Burr alley. Eugene A. Fiske was the attorney for the plaintiff.

Hon. Thomas B. Catron this morning asked for an execution against the New Mexico Mining company which operates near Cerrillos. The judgment was awarded to Mr. Catron in 1902 for $1,500 and costs, amounting to $11. This had grown with interest to $2,145.62.

Capitol Custodians.

The Capitol Custodian Committee met yesterday and organized. Hon. Sol Spiegelberg was chosen president, Hon. Geo. H. Wallace, custodian, and Alfred H. Hinojos, secretary. It was decided to meet the second Monday in July, 1909, and thereafter on the second Monday in each quarter.

SCHOOL TROUBLES.

A Mission Superintendent Opposes Superintendent Breen.

A communication in the Denver News from Taos says: "Some weeks ago Dr. Thomas H. Breen, superintendent of the United States Indian school at Fort Lewis, Colo., secured from this place forty-seven pupils, most of them of Mexican parentage. This addition was made possible by the decreased attendance and increased capacity of the school. The parents of the children gladly accepted the opportunity offered them, and the Americans of the town were equally in sympathy with the movement. The parents in each case certified that the children have enough Indian blood to make them eligible as students in the school, and these statements are probably easily within the truth. To Dr. Breen's action, however, Rev. Mr. Craig, of Canada, recently appointed superintendent of Presbyterian missions in Arizona and New Mexico, takes exception. He has secured protesting resolutions from the presbytery, and the matter has been referred to Washington. Loss of students from the mission school is said to be the cause of the opposition."

Virtuti Corona.

"The President's Cup, awarded by the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, Richard A. McCurdy, president, to Paul Wunschmann, of Santa Fe, N. M., the successful soliciting agent in the competition for new business in the company's New Mexico and Arizona general agency during the year 1908."

The foregoing is engraved on a beautiful silver cup received by Paul Wunschmann from the Mutual Life Insurance Company, of New York, through Messrs. Hathaway & Newhall, general agents, at Albuquerque.

Mr. Wunschmann, while doubtless appreciating the intrinsic value of the gift, seems to be more especially gratified over the letter of congratulation received by him from the company, saying: "It is no small honor to carry off such a prize, when the contestants are all good men and true."

The cup is much admired by those passing Mr. Spitz's jewelry store, where it stands in the show window. Mr. Wunschmann certainly has every reason to feel quite proud.

Army Promotions.

Colonel E. P. Pearson, of the 10th infantry, serving in Cuba, and Major Hugh Brown, of the 12th infantry, serving in the Philippines, were placed on the retired list of the army on their own applications, after thirty years' service. These retirements have resulted in the following promotions: Lieutenant Colonel E. P. Ewers, of the 9th infantry, to be colonel of the 10th infantry; Major Charles A. Coolidge, of the 7th infantry, to be lieutenant colonel of the 9th infantry; and Captains Willis Wittich, of the 21st infantry, and W. H. W. James, of the 24th infantry, to be majors.

A Rio Grande Trestle Burned.

The Denver & Rio Grande approach to the bridge across the Chama between Espanola and Chamita was burned last evening. The trestling is 288 feet long and about ten feet high. A cattle train of 32 cars from Santa Fe passed over the bridge just before the fire started. The bridge crew which is at Embudo at present, was ordered to build a temporary trestling at once and will have it completed in a few days. In the meanwhile passengers will be transferred across the river. Today traffic will be delayed somewhat on account of the accident.

THE EDISON MILL.

Its Erection Will Stimulate Mining—A Rich Strike.

To the New Mexican. Red River, N. M., May 19, 1899.—We are glad to report another rich strike on upper Bitter creek. This time about a mile below the Edison and just within the boundaries of the Sangu de Cristo grant.

D. O. Dillon and Mrs. D. O. Dillon recently located the Old Timer ledge claim, and in doing location work have cut into a 3½-foot vein of quartz, carrying considerable free gold, as well as hematite. A single panning made by your correspondent yesterday showed a string of coarse gold, indicating a value well up into the hundreds of dollars.

Development will be pushed, and we hope the Old Timer will prove the bonanza that its present showing promises.

The machinery for the Edison mill began arriving on last Wednesday, and will be delivered on the ground as fast as possible. Mr. Perkins, the machinist in charge of erection of the plant, will arrive June 1, and at once begin placing the machinery. This work will be pushed with energy until the plant is ready for operation. A force of miners will be put to work June 1, taking out ore to supply the mill.

The successful operation of this mill means a great deal to this region, as it will accelerate energy and increase activity in all surrounding camps. A small force of men is at work on the Nadoch placers on upper Bitter creek, and some very pure coarse gold is being washed.

George H. Brown and son have resumed work on the Maine Central tunnel, and will rush it during the season. Bitter creek is muy bueno.

Smallpox at Bland.

The New Mexican stated that smallpox prevailed in Bland, and there are indignant denials, with the foolish charge by an Albuquerque paper that the New Mexican sought to injure the place. The statement that any New Mexico village has smallpox should not arouse resentment. Scarcely one has entirely escaped. In the case of Bland, the facts seem to be that J. B. Boland, a freighter from Santa Fe, contracted the disease, or carried infection, and his wife died. A physician is reported to have said death was due to Bright's disease and the townspeople attended the funeral. Afterward the family was quarantined and another member died last week. Vaccination may prevent the spread of the disease in Bland.
