

5-29-1992

E.e.c. Contribution Toward Reducing Crop Losses In Central America

Deborah Tyroler

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/noticen>

Recommended Citation

Tyroler, Deborah. "E.e.c. Contribution Toward Reducing Crop Losses In Central America." (1992).
<https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/noticen/7491>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Latin America Digital Beat (LADB) at UNM Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in NotiCen by an authorized administrator of UNM Digital Repository. For more information, please contact amywinter@unm.edu.

E.e.c. Contribution Toward Reducing Crop Losses In Central America

by Deborah Tyroler

Category/Department: General

Published: Friday, May 29, 1992

On May 27 in Mexico City, the Mexican agriculture ministry (SARH) reported that the European Economic Community (EEC) has agreed to contribute US$7.936 million toward identification and management of pests and plant disease affecting Central American agriculture. Experts estimate that 20% of the region's agricultural GDP is lost to insects and disease every year. (Basic data from Agence France-Presse, 05/27/92)

-- End --