RIDING SKYWARD

That Was the Experience of Street
Car Passengers in Cleveland
Last Night.

ONE CAR WAS BLOWN UP

The People Now Ride in Omnibuses and
the Cars Go Empty—Wild Scenes of Disorder at Night and Quiet in the Daytime.

Cleveland, July 24.—Scenes of wild disorder and violence were witnessed last night in connection with the street car strike. One car was blown up and five passengers injured.

The cars are running to-day, but carry few passengers, most people patronizing the bus line.

All the available military force in Cleveland is now under arms. Early this morning a call was issued for battery A, 1st Ohio artillery; three companies of the 4th Ohio infantry, and L'Overture rifles. The military force to cope with the street car strike now numbers 800. Mob violence will be suppressed at any cost. If 800 troops are not sufficient the governor will be asked for more. Last night a suburban car was blown up between Wycliffe and Wiloughby, fifteen miles east of Cleveland. It was filled with passengers, but none were seriously injured. This is the second car blown up.

The state board of arbitration decided it cannot bring about a settlement of the strike by bringing the officials of the Big Consolidated and strikers together to talk over grievances, and will either abandon all efforts toward a settlement or order a public investigation of the strike.

President Everett to-day emphasized
a written statement given to the state board of arbitration Saturday by declaring the company would refuse to receive a committee of former employees.

A 15-year-old boy named Cornwich was shot and instantly killed by a non-union conductor on Orange street this afternoon. Cornwich was a passenger on a Broadway car, and made a remark
to Conductor Ralph Hawley, No. 103 Bollivar street. Cornwich then alighted from the car, and the conductor got off and followed him. Near Perry street the lad looked around at Hawley, and the latter pulled a revolver and shot Cornwich. He died almost instantly.
Patrolman Hellman, riding up on a car, placed Hawley under arrest. He was taken to the central police station. An immense mob of people, enraged at the shooting, quickly gathered at the scene,
and the police charged upon the crowd and made several arrests. The mob was partially dispersed, but another congregated.

Another car came down the avenue and was stoned at Perry street. The police again charged the mob and dispersed it.

ton 6; Louisville 3, Brooklyn 5; Chicago

The Kentucky Killers.
London, Ky., July 24.—The trial of Philpotts for killing Griffins on Little Goose creek last Monday, was called today at Manchester. The factions were on hand, the Philpotts outnumbering the Griffins and Chadwells by one-third,
and all are armed, and insist on remaining armed.

They will not be shot down while prisoners, as was Tom Baker. The trial is being held twenty-six miles from railway, telegraph and telephone communication.

GOING TO GENOA.

Admiral Dewey Declines to Make Interior
Trips.

Trieste, Austria, July 24.—Admiral
Dewey formally declined United States Minister Harris' invitation to visit several interesting points in interior Austria. He said: "I expect to remain here two weeks, and will stay aboard the Olympia. This air is doing me a world of good already, and will soon restore officers and men. From here we go to Genoa."

New York, July 24.—Mayor Van Wyck
to-day received the following cablegram from Dewey:

"Trieste, July 24.—Letters received.
Invitation accepted. Expect to arrive about October 1. Will cable definitely from Gibraltar. Have written."

"DEWEY."
Dewey's cablegram is in response to an invitation from the mayor, asking him to be the guest of the city upon in-arrival in New York, and requesting him to express any desires he may have in connection with the program for the reception.

The committee on land parade and decorations for the Dewey reception has decided to invite the governor of each state to send a portion or whole of the national guard to take part in the land parade.

ROOSEVELT'S AID

to Make Car Companies
Obey the Law.

ORDERS AN INVESTIGATION

The New York and Brooklyn Companies Are Charged with Completely Ignoring the Ten Hour Law of the Great State.

New York, July 24.—Governor Roosevelt, it is said, is taking personal cognizance of complaints made by street car employees about alleged wholesale violation of the ten-hour law by the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company and the Metropolitan Street Railway.

The governor has requested the board of mediation and arbitration to investigate the alleged violation.

A MORPHINE DOCTOR.

Found Dead in a Chicago House from Use
of the Drug.

Chicago, July 24.—Dr. A. Allerdyce, formerly of Prescott, Ariz., was found dead in bed at the home of Charles Burton, 328 West Monroe street. In the room was a bottle of morphine and a hypo-dermic syringe, while on the dead man's arms were numerous syringe abrasions.
It is not known whether the doctor committed suicide or took an accidental overdose of the drug.

An Elevator Fire.

Toledo, O., July 24.—The Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton elevator, containing 1,000,000 bushels of wheat, was burned last night. Loss, $1,000,000.

Killed in a Corn Field.

Wilmet, Ark., July 24.—Chick Davis,
the negro murderer of William Grin, a respected farmer, was overtaken in a cornfield to-day. He snapped both barrels of a gun at the pursuing party, and was then fired upon and instantly killed.

A WOMAN SHOT.

A City Marshal Who Feared a Knife Held
by a Dame.

Emporia, Kan., July 24.—City Marshal
John Gates, of Strong City, twenty miles from here, shot and almost instantly killed Mrs. Johnson on the Santa Fe depot platform here. He ordered her off the platform, whereupon she attacked him with a knife, and to save his life the officer fired. Immediately a crowd of colored people threatened to lynch Gates, who went away. The woman's husband was later arrested for declaring he would kill Gates.

Opera House.

The Rose Stillman company arrived on the last train from Albuquerque last night, and will open their season tonight in the great comedy, "Comforts of Home," or "A Crazy Idea." Rose Still-

enne. She is accompanied by Ralph Riggs, an exceptionally clever young actor, and a good comedy company.

KILLED BY GAS.

Everybody is talking of going to the concert at the A. M. E. church on Johnson street tomorrow night.

Two Men Die in a Mine at the Jarilla Camp.

Filomeno Hernandez and Ben Montoya
of Las Cruces, were killed a few days ago in the Jarilla mining camp. The accident took place in the Lucky mine.
The night shift had exploded a shot
before going home and the day foreman went partly down the shaft and discovered gas and that the bottom shift ladder had been blown away. Filomeno Hernandez, who was with him, volunteered to go and fix it, but was advised not to do so until the air pumps had worked awhile. But against all advice he went down to the broken ladder and after several minutes had elapsed he was heard to fall. His friend, Ben Montoya, also against advice, jumped into the skip and run to be lowered, which was done, but he was overcome
before he could recover the former.
Their bodies were taken out as soon as it was safe to go down the shaft, but all efforts to resuscitate them were futile.
Their bodies were brought to Las Cruces.

Captured a Dangerous Character.

J. D. Christopher, special deputy for Sheriff Stewart, of Eddy county arrested
Thomas Weatherby at Weed recently.
The man is wanted at Stephensonville Texas, for assault to murder. On the way to Carlsbad Weatherby attempted to escape but had not gone far when he fell head over heels into a ditch and was recaptured. Sheriff R. T. Hume came to Carlsbad from Texas to take Weatherby to Stephensonville. The prisoner has already served a term of eight years
for murder.

He Will Worry the Natives of the Islands No Longer—General
Otis Reports.

Washington, July 24.—The war department to-day made public a cablegram received yesterday from General Otis, giving fuller details of the fight with a robber band on the island of Negros. Its text is as follows:
"The campaign against mountain robber bands in Negros was more successful than reported. Byrne, with seventy men, killed a third of the 450 assembled, including their leader, a Spaniard, or Spanish Mestizo. Pursuit was then made by Lieutenant Evans and a detachment of the 6th infantry, who killed three and captured one robber. He captured 100 head of stock, many spears
and bolos, and a large quantity of pro-

A Story of Sterility, SUFFERING AND RELIEF.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 69,185]

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—Two years ago I began having such dull, heavy dragging pains in my back, menses were profuse and painful, and was troubled with leucorrhoea. I took patent medicines and consulted a physician, but received no benefit and could not become pregnant. Seeing one of your books, I wrote to you telling you my troubles and asking for advice. You answered my letter promptly and I followed the directions faithfully, and derived so much benefit that I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough.
I now find myself pregnant and have begun its use again. I cannot praise
it enough."—MRS. CORA GILSON, YATES, MANISTEE, MICH.

"Your Medicine Worked Wonders."

"I had been sick ever since my marriage, seven years ago; have given birth to four children, and had two miscarriages. I had falling of womb, leucorrhoea, pains in back and legs;
dyspepsia and a nervous trembling of the stomach. Now I have none of these troubles and can enjoy my life. Your medicine has worked wonders for me."
—MRS. S. BARNHART, NEW CASTLE,
PA.

NEWS FROM MANILA

Two Prisoners Who Are Well Treated, But Eager for Their Liberty.

A WATERSPOUT AT SEA

Friars Who Are Said to Be Spies with Messages for Aguinaldo Arrive
from China and Are Taken Into Custody.

Manila, July 24.—The transport Sheridan, which sailed from San Francisco June 25 with re-enforcements for Otis, arrived to-day. July 16 a great waterspout was discovered directly in the course of the ship, and to avoid it, it was necessary to make a detour of several miles.

General Otis has received a letter dated July 2, signed by Charles Blanford and Fred Heppie, respectively assistant engineer and third officer of the hospital ship Relief, who were captured by the Filipinos off Paranaque May 30.
The letter says the prisoners are in the hands of insurgents, receiving excellent treatment, but the suspense is terrible. The writers beg Otis to intercede for their release.

Two Augustinian friars, who landed from a Hong Kong ship have been arrested here. It is said they had documents showing they were agents of the Filipino Junta at Hong Kong, with messages to Aguinaldo.

John L. Moore, first lieutenant of company L, 51st Iowa, has committed suicide.

Seven Thousand Are Idle and More Who Are Dependent Upon Them.

New York, July 24.—It was said at headquarters of the brotherhood of tailors to-day that between 5,000 and 7,000 coatmakers in Greater New York are in the strike to-day. The strike has necessarily thrown out basters, trimmers, etc. The strike seems to have been precipitated by 100 pressers, who made a demand for piece work, ten hours a day, and 20 per cent increase in the scale. The coatmakers are opposed to the piece-work system. By striking they expect to force the pressers to desist
from the demands for piece work.

ed as to whether the negotiations could be satisfactorily concluded. The two-year period allowed by the Dingley tariff law expires to-day, so unless the signing occurs before midnight to-day negotiations will have failed.

IS IT RIGHT
For An Editor to Recommend Patent Medicines?
From Sylvan Valley News, Brevar, N. C.
It may be a question whether the editor of a newspaper has the right to publicly recommend any of the various proprietary medicines which flood the market, yet as a preventive of suffering we feel it a duty to say a good word for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. We have known and used this medicine in our family for 20 years and have always found it reliable. In many cases a dose of this remedy would save hours of suffering while a physician is awaited. We do not believe in depending implicitly on any medicine for a cure, but we do believe that if a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy were kept on hand and administered at the inception of an attack much suffering might be avoided and in very many cases the presence of a physician would not be required. At least this has been our experience during the past 20 years. For sale by A. C. Ireland.

SOCORRO---SIERRA

Lead in Magdalena Range---Building of New Railroads and Commercial Centers Distracts from Mining Interests.
UNDEVELOPED COAL FIELD

Socorro is an old-time mining center, and still holds its own in a business way better than some of the "mining centers" that sprang up as the great Santa Fe route was building westward. The Billings smelter was here, and while now only the ruins remain, might still be here and running were its owners still living.

The deposits of lead in the Magdalena mountains make this a desirable point for a smelter. But the building of new railroads and commercial centers have given Socorro a rest, and an opportunity to build up for orchard and other agricultural possibilities, and the constant opening up of new mining camps in the west keeps the floating investor as well as the population on the move. But when everything gets down to business, Socorro will get what she desires of both, and will be looked to.

Besides Kelley and other mining camps in the Magdalena and the mountains west of us, there is the new and certainly promising camps of Rosedale to the southwest, and the north end of Sierra county is particularly tributary to Socorro.

Sierra county, just now, or at least the northern portion, is a neglected section. It cannot long remain so. There are genuine mines there that can be bought for the ore that shows on the dumps. That is all, but are really on a direct line from here to Lake Valley, Lake Valley itself, with its one group of mines, had attraction enough in the way of ore production to draw a branch railroad from the Santa Fe. But instead of building from here direct to that point and gathering in all the mining camps of Sierra county west of the Rio Grande river, they run over the Jornada del Muerto (Journey of death) desert, past General Alger's cattle camp, leaving the mining camps of Chloride, Fairview, Hermosa, Hillsboro, Faulkner, Kingston, North Percha and others lying in the foothills and slopes of the Black range, to dig their way out as best they could.

These camps have produced millions in gold and silver, and show up well in copper, lead, zinc and some fine iron deposits, all of which are now being looked up, since the new developments at Hinojosa and Santa Rita. These, with Pinos Altos, are old "abandoned mines," which are now sufficiently attractive to run railroads to in place of away from to get an easy grade for a through line. Chicago parties are now developing the copper deposits in the Cabello mountains between Engle on the Jornada cut-off and the Rio Grande.

Pennsylvania capital is working on the slope of the Black range, opposite Kingston, where is known to exist rich deposits of lead, zinc, copper and silver in combination, when really all the development that is needed is a road to them. The ores, in large deposits of vein, blanket on them.

The Santa Fe railroad of course passes or goes through the place. A little further down they have a branch to some undeveloped coal fields. Note how far west these lie, and what possibilities this section has for the investor and settler.—Denver Mining Record.

OLD LAND DEEDS.
Certificate Issued Before Texas Was a Republic.
Tom Richardson, secretary of the Houston Business League, has received from ex-Governor Prince, of New Mexico, some very interesting Texas land certificates issued early in the 30s. Whether they are of any more than historic value is a difficult question to determine at this late date, but they certainly record the dealing of 4,428 acres of land in the neighborhood of Houston and Galveston to the parties named in the contract.

Mr. L. Bradford Prince, who sent these documents to Secretary Richardson for his examination, is president of the bureau of immigration of the Territory of New Mexico, and is also distinguished by the fact that he has never missed a meeting of the Transmississippi congress.

The first paper he inclosed is a deed from the New Arkansas and Texas Land Company to Sylvester Davis, certifying that on the 29th day of April, 1835, he was entitled to one share, estimated as equal to 4,017 acres, of a tract of land situated in Texas. This tract was granted to John Charles Beale and Jose Manuel Regueta, as empresarios for the colonizing the same, and was then held for the benefit of the land company named.

The second certificate was from the Galveston Bay and Texas Land Company, and dated on October 16, 1830, to Rodman Moulton, 4,428 acres from a tract granted to Lorenzo de Zavalla, Joseph Vehl and David G. Burnett, as empresarios for colonizing the same. This tract began at the Gulf of Mexico, and included all that section of East Texas between the Sabine and Trinity rivers, besides most of what are now Harris and Galveston counties.

Besides these certificates the documents included two shares in the estate and funds of the Rio Grande and Texas Land Company, and five shares in the Colorado and Red River Land Company, being issued in 1835.—Houston Post.

FOR CONSUMPTIVES

Regulations Written by the Heir Apparent to the Russian Throne.
TO BE PUBLISHED BROADCAST

Czarowitz George, Who Died of Tuberculosis, Leaves a Fortune to Benefit Humankind in Future.
(St. Louis Republic.)
Almost the last act performed by the late Czarowitz George, who died last Monday of consumption, after a long and terrible suffering, was to appropriate 10,000 roubles for the publication of a set of rules and regulations for the benefit of consumptives.

Some ten days ago he called Naval Lieutenant G. A. Boltsmann, his adjutant, to his bedside in the castle of Albas Tuman, Caucasus, where he had been established for the last year. "George Alexandrovitch," he said, send this paper to the Imperial Publication Office. Order 1,000,000 copies to be printed and distributed among all the governments of Russia. One shall be hung up in each townhouse, city hall, church, chapel, railway station and in every other place of public resort, and the elders, councilmen and Hetmen must be asked to read the paper once a week to those unable to read themselves.

"In my cabinet you will find a draft for 10,000 roubles on the administrator of Apanages in St. Petersburg. This I am informed, will suffice for the printing."

"In my will I have set aside a sum that will pay for the publication of these rules in more permanent form—enamel on iron shields, but we can't wait for that. Delay may mean loss of life to many."

"If some minute tuberculosis bacilli creep into their systems while waiting upon me, or among me, he used to say, it must be expelled by the quickest possible method."

The rules which the Czarowitz left behind him as a legacy for other sufferers are as follows:
Remember that everything calculated to tax a person's physical strength beyond the average has a tendency to develop the seeds of consumption that may be in the system. If consumption has already begun its ravages, each act of overstraining tends to increase the danger.

Remember that personal intercourse between consumptives and healthy people does more to spread the disease than any other agency.

Remember that squalid surroundings, narrow, dirty living rooms, hard labor and cares generally have a tendency to develop consumption.

Remember that a husband inclining to consumption is very liable to become a physical wreck through his wife's while child-bearing and other motherly duties may develop consumption in her system. If the disease has manifested itself before marriage, marital relations will increase its ravages.

In places where the consumptive husband will make his wife a co-sufferer and vice versa; very frequently the children are also affected and sometimes the servants and others living in the family.

No consumptives should marry during the period when the lungs are affected. Permission to marry should be withheld for two years after the above symptoms have ceased.

Furthermore, each afflicted person should have his or her own bed, towels, knives and forks, etc.

The body and other linen of the consumptive should not be put in a general wash unless previously disinfected. Disinfecting of his or her bed, bedroom, clothes, books, etc., is likewise imperative once per week.

For a consumptive to neglect bodily cleanliness is nothing short of crime. Daily baths or washings from head to foot must never be dispensed with under any circumstances.

The home of a consumptive, be it ever so poor, should offer free access to light and air. The more sun the better. Persons forced to live with consumptives have themselves to protect—by frequent washing and baths. Children of consumptives should be taught the virtue of cleanliness at the earliest possible moment.

Mrs. Alfred Clarke, of Hite, Manoir Co., Iowa, has been the mother of four children. Now she says: "I am about to become a mother again, and I have been troubled with morning sickness and vomiting. I could not get out any breakfast, but two days ago I began taking your Favorite Prescription twice a day, and I am pleased to say that I have not had a vomiting spell for two mornings."

The "Favorite Prescription" relieves morning sickness and the other discomforts of the period preceding motherhood by purifying the whole system and by strengthening the special organs involved. Morning sickness is due to the efforts of the invigorating system of nature to remove from the body every bit of impurity which might offend the health of the future mother.

The direct cause of the nausea is an irritation of the nerves of the stomach. The "Favorite Prescription" goes directly to the seat of the trouble, soothes the ruffled nerves and brings comfort at once. It is a safe medicine to take. It contains no alcohol, opium or other dangerous drug. It aids the digestion and is a general tonic, and acts directly and strongly on the

THE SNAKE DANCE.
The Santa Fe Railroad Will Run An Excursion Train.

Poor Lo, it is true, indeed, that the sun is setting on thy mighty deeds with the jaguar, the grizzly and the jabberwock, and that thy race is disappearing even as the vikings trooped to the shining, unknown shores! And the last indignity heaped upon them by the wan pale face is such that it will hasten thy departure, mocked by the ghosts of the advertising advance man. The curtains of thy mysterious rites are to be torn apart, torn and ruthlessly advertised.

The Colorado schoolma'ams are at the bottom of it, aided and abetted by the Santa Fe railroad. And a strange sight it will be at the Canyon Diablo on the morning of August 13, when the sickle, flower-crowned priests chanting in the opening games of the Moqui snake dance, face a thousand schoolma'ams and other excursionists seated in an amphitheater-like arrangement above the place of the snake dance, with kodaks and parasols even as the gaily-appeared wives of the traditional Solomon.

When the school teachers went west over the Santa Fe they saw the purplish mesas of the Moqui Indians off in the distance of the plains. They were told the dances were given August 13 to 19, and were immediately filled with a desire to go and see them. They were told, too, of the horrible dances with writhing rattlesnakes, hideously painted and bell-jangling performers, and flower sprigged, poetical beautiful ceremonies of the women and young men in connection with the priests.

When they reached Los Angeles they wrote east to General Agent Hall and the officers of the Santa Fe in Topeka, asking if an excursion could not be arranged.

The suggestion has borne fruit. This morning the announcement was made that excursions will be run from points all over the country by the Santa Fe to the Moqui snake dances. From New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, New Orleans, Denver and San Francisco special excursion trains will be run to the Canyon Diablo, the nearest point to the dances. The trip will also include the Grand Canyon of the Colorado.

It is estimated the smallest crowd carried will be 1,000. "It is an experiment," said General Agent Hall, "and if successful the excursions will be made an annual feature. Extensive advertising will be done, and the east will be given an opportunity to see the weird performances of the wildest tribes in the southwest."

"Yes," said another railroad man, in a dubious voice, "but can the Indian stand it?"—Denver Post.

A BLOAT-PROOF LAMB.
Information About Losses from Bloat on Alfalfa.
"Mr. Ogilvy, of Weld county, Colo., has practical ideas regarding the better class of sheep, and believes in time he can develop a breed of alfalfa-proof lambs which will not die from bloat or bloat. He would do this by training very young lambs on green alfalfa so that in acquiring growth they shall develop abnormal stomach expansion and take on a condition naturally in sympathy with tympany. It can probably be done in eight or ten generations, just as horns are bred out of animals in that time, thus evolving a poiled type. At present the best we can count upon in running sheep on alfalfa meadow is a 5 per cent loss during the course of a year, and if this could be overcome it would be an end well worth attaining," says the Denver Field and Farm.

A Long Lived Plant.
(Carlsbad Argus.)
When properly cared for there is almost no limit to the life of an alfalfa field. The plants may die out in spots here and there, but if fresh seed is scattered and the ground is thoroughly harrowed or cultivated, new plants will take the place of the old, and the life of the field as a whole will be indefinitely extended. There are alfalfa fields in New Mexico and other sections inhabited by the Spanish that are older than the memory of living man, and bid fair to outlast even the next generation. One reason for the tenacity of life exhibited by this plant is that it is a greedy consumer of water, and the chemical elements held in solution are liberated in the soil and made to do duty as fertilizing agents as well as concentrating nitrogen from the air in and about the roots. Thus without the direct application of manures immense crops are produced throughout a long series of years in apparent violation of the laws of nature—a violation, however, which is only apparent and not real.—Carlsbad Argus.

DOING GOOD WORK

Col. J. G. Meadors, Superintendent of New Mexico Military Institute Visits Santa Fe.

A MODEL PLACE FOR BOYS

The Institute at Roswell Is a Credit to the Territory—Splendid Results Have Been Attained Under the Present Superintendency.

Colonel J. G. Meadors, superintendent of the New Mexico Military Institute at Roswell, is making a tour of the northern counties in the interests of that school. At Raton, Las Vegas, Taos and other places he succeeded in awakening great interest in the military institute, which, although it is one of the youngest of the territorial institutions of learning, is yet the most successful and most representative school in the territory. This is due to its praiseworthy object, its fine curriculum, its wise management, its able instructors, and, above all, the executive ability and devoted work of its superintendent, who is a man of both culture and of practical ideas.

Colonel Meadors arrived in Santa Fe Friday night, and left for Gallup last evening. During his brief stay he renewed old friendships, made many new friends, and devoted every minute of time while here to talking the New Mexico Military Institute, as he says he talks "no politics except military institute, and no religion except military institute." Every word he speaks bears with it the impression of honest and enthusiastic conviction. He is a man who keeps his promises, much to the astonishment of some of his advisers, who told him when he first came to the territory, "you must make lots of promises to the people, but never mind about keeping them." But Colonel Meadors kept his promises, and as a result has gained the confidence not only of the Anglo-Saxon but also of the Spanish-speaking part of the population of the territory. Some of the most manly and most promising cadets at the institute are of the latter, and they are equal in English scholarship to some of the cadets of Anglo-Saxon parentage.

Colonel Meadors carries with him several portfolios of fine photographs of the military institute, its attendants and surroundings. They tell more eloquently than words of the great things that have been accomplished at the institute in one year.

The $20,000 building is of brick, trimmed with red sandstone, three stories high, with additional basement storage of gray limestone. In the basement are the armory, bath, dining room, laundry and kitchen. On the first floor are school rooms, on the second floor living rooms and offices, and on the third floor reading rooms and offices. The building contains forty-five bed rooms and four large section rooms and study halls, divided by movable partitions.

The system of water works and sewerage is very complete, affording hot water and cold water on every floor, plunge and shower baths and complete drainage. The water closets are the best obtainable, and the 10,000-gallon tank, 52 feet from the ground, gives pressure sufficient to throw water over the main floor and to sweep the main sewer whenever desired. This sewer ends at a much lower level, 500 yards away. The entire building is piped for gas, and every room, hall and stairway is so lighted. The acetylene gas plant is cheap, safe and very effective; the generators are placed 100 feet from the building, and give a total of 2,500 candle power at a cost of about $1 a night. The building is heated by steam, a large boiler being located in the basement near the closets. Considering the construction price, the building is one of the best and most thoroughly equipped school houses in the west. In fact, it is said that the contractor who erected the building not only lost over $1,000 on it, but received not a cent for the time he devoted to it.

The school is completely furnished with the best equipments obtainable for a first-class boarding school, and the school rooms with the best desks and seats now in use in schools. The furniture, bedding, laundry, kitchen and dining-room equipments are the best obtainable by the regents for the money. One of the regents, an experienced merchant, was sent east and gave fifteen days of his time to the purchase of furnishings. Everything in the school is kept scrupulously clean and in first-class order.

The school is surrounded by a large area of land belonging to the school, and part of it is sodded and fenced in. The barrack grounds cover ten acres, and are well adapted for drilling. A cottage for the superintendent and his family has been erected at a cost of $2,000.

The school is very proud of its commissary department, which Colonel Meadors claims is the best possessed by any school in the west. The amount of provisions used is very large, and only the best and purest that the market affords is bought. The fare is plain, substantial and healthful. Dessert is served every day, because, as Colonel Meadors says, when he was a boy at school he had it so seldom that he vowed that if he should ever have charge of a school his pupils should have dessert every day.

Under the management of Fred D. Michael, will be kept strictly first-class. It is the only brick hotel in the city, absolutely fireproof, most centrally located, new building, elegantly furnished, free sample rooms, and rates moderate. When in Santa Fe stop at the Claire.

day. For Sunday the cadets are allowed to choose their own dessert, and they invariably ask for ice cream.

The health of the cadets is carefully attended to, a regular surgeon being employed, and $1,000 is expended annually on the hospital. Bathing and exercise at stated intervals are compulsory. With salubrious surroundings, an altitude of 3,700 feet, giving a delightful climate, and it is no wonder that the average gain in weight of each cadet during the first four months at school was 15 pounds. No labor nor expense has been spared to make every cadet in the school healthy, vigorous and able-bodied. The boys have foot ball, base ball and tennis grounds, a large parade ground, military drill one hour and a half daily, as well as regular study, sleep, meals, diet and exercise.

The last year as many students as could be accommodated attended the school. Each county in the territory and quite a number of other states and territories were represented at the institute. Each county in the territory is entitled to send one cadet to the school, whose tuition and board are free. Candidates for the free cadetship must be 15 years of age, and be able to pass into the fourth grade of the school. Judging by photographs, the cadets of the upper classes are tall, handsome, manly and intelligent looking young men. Of those who attended last year fourteen were over 6 feet tall. It may be of interest to state that Cadet Otero, of Santa Fe county, son of Hon. M. R. Otero, United States land register, was considered the handsomest cadet at the school last year. In the preparatory department younger pupils are admitted. In order to augment the inadequate appropriation of the legislature, a limited number of boys and girls from Roswell are allowed to attend the institute.

The curriculum of the institute is a very comprehensive one. In the first place, the school aims to give the cadets a thorough military training. They are taught modern tactics adapted to the Krag-Jorgenson rifle, although at present the school is equipped with Springfield rifles. As soon as sabers and artillery are procured by the territory, cavalry and artillery tactics will be taught. The uniforms of the cadets are handsome, and the officers from captain down are chosen from among the cadets. The cadets form two companies, which are recruited in from four to six preparatory squads. Each cadet is given a liberal college education, including four years in English, three years in Spanish and Latin, two years in German or French, mathematics, natural sciences, bookkeeping, typewriting and stenography, both in English and in Spanish. No politics, no sectarianism, no extravagance are tolerated at the school. Students must remain within the closed limits day and night under the personal supervision of the superintendent and instructors. The school prides itself upon its excellent discipline and moral training. Colonel Meadors relates how at first students would quarrel and instinctively reach in their pockets for weapons or stoop to pick up a stone. This was strictly forbidden. Boxing lessons were given, and whenever two students quarreled they were sent out in the field to fight it out with their fists. This method has stopped quarreling altogether, and has developed in the students manly self-reliance.

The corps of instructors is a cosmopolitan and cultured one. It consists of vigorous, active men, who carry out in practice what they teach. Colonel Meadors and Captain Davis are graduates of the Washington and Lee University. Major Wilson is a graduate of a Virginia military institute. Captain Fitzgerald, who will be married next month to one of Tennessee's most charming daughters, was considered the handsomest man and best all-round athlete that ever graduated from the Vanderbilt University. Captain Martini-Mancini is a graduate of a school of arms of Italy. He served in the Italian army, and is a count in his own right, being the son of a well-known marquis of Spanish extraction.

The surroundings of the school are ideal ones. Roswell is one of the prettiest towns and most prosperous communities in New Mexico. Round about and near by are pretty rivers and placid lakes for boating and fishing, and extensive hunting grounds, abounding with small and large game.

The tuition and board at the school are remarkably low, as $200 will cover all necessary expenses, including tuition, board and lodging, laundry and medical attendance, for the ten-month term. In addition, the uniform and cap cost $12.50 to $15, and books and stationery from $5 to $10. There is an iron bed and mattress in each student's room. Each is expected to provide himself with one pair of good shoes, four sheets for a single bed, two pillow cases, one pair of blankets, one comfort or spread, two clothes bags, six towels, six napkins, six handkerchiefs, four shirts, six white standing collars, two suits of underclothing, one tooth brush, one brush and comb, one blacking brush, one napkin ring, and one clothes brush.

Without undertaking to institute any sort of comparison, the fact remains that, up to now, no school in New Mexico or the entire southwest ever did so much with so little within so short a time, or took so commanding a position among the people to whom it looks for support, as the military institute. The school is wasting no money nor time on superficial fads. Impossible ambitions or impractical schemes are tabooed, and the school compares in every respect with any other school of its class in the United States.

Colonel Meadors believes thoroughly in the printer's ink, and is friend of the newspaper. When he attended Washington and Lee University his ambition was to become a journalist, but fate decreed otherwise, and he made teaching his profession, but he still retains a warm heart for the newspapers, and gratefully acknowledges that to the friendliness of the press of New Mexico is due part of the success of the New Mexico Military Institute.

School House Consultation.

This evening the school board and a committee of citizens will meet at the office of B. M. Read to discuss plans for a new school house. The meeting is called for 8 o'clock. ### ATTENDED THE CHICAGO MEETING.

Hon. H. B. Fergusson Thinks Free Silver and Several "Antis" Will Go in the Platform.

Hon. H. B. Fergusson, ex-delegate to congress, returned yesterday from Chicago where he had been in attendance at the meeting of the Democratic national committee as the member from New Mexico. He voted to elect ex-Governor Stone of Missouri, vice-chairman of the committee. Mr. Fergusson thinks the Democratic platform will be free silver, anti-trust and anti-expansion, and that Col. William J. Bryan is sure of the Democratic nomination for the presidency. He characterizes all talk about the dissensions said to exist among the leaders of the Democracy as mere moonshine, but cannot help admitting that the Albiged and Harrison factions in Chicago may become troublesome, and that the Kentucky political fight is overcast with shadows during the present campaign.

On New Mexico politics Mr. Fergusson expressed himself very guardedly, but hope for Democratic success in the territory in the next campaign seems to be strongly implanted in his breast. He thinks that Albuquerque will within two years have railroad connection with the El Paso and Northeastern to the south and with Durango to the north, and is very enthusiastic as to New Mexico's advancement within the next three years.

He is President of the New Mexico College of Mechanic Arts and Agriculture.

Professor Frederick W. Sanders, president of the New Mexico College of Mechanic Arts and Agriculture, is a visitor in the city and with Judge McFie had a conference with Governor Otero this morning.

This afternoon Professor Sanders attended the teachers' institute being held on the south side, and later enjoyed a carriage ride with Judge and Mrs. McFie. He is a man of culture, who, although a native of New York City, has resided in almost every section of the United States, his father having been an army surgeon, who often changed posts.

Professor Sanders took the degree of A. M. at the University of New York, the degree of B. A. at Harvard University, and the degree of Ph.D. at the University of Chicago. He is a fellow of Columbia University, lectured one year on economics at the University of Chicago, and the last two years was professor of European history at the Western University, the state university of West Virginia.

He will leave this evening for Las Vegas, and from there to Mesilla Park to consult with the regents of the college and prepare for the work of the next term. Professor Sanders does not speak Spanish, but will make every effort to learn the language as soon as possible. He is delighted with New Mexico, its climate, its scenic beauties and its people.

RECRUITING SERVICE.

New Mexico's Two Lieutenants Detailed for the Territory.

First Lieut. Max Luna, 34th United States infantry, was a visitor in Santa Fe Sunday, but left for Albuquerque, where he will open a recruiting station. He has been detailed to recruit for southern New Mexico and Arizona. With him are H. F. Walters and A. L. Perry, of the 34th infantry, as assistants.

First Lieutenant Sherrard Coleman is here for recruiting purposes, accompanied by F. A. Hagen and A. Levenson, of the 34th United States volunteer infantry, and has opened an office for that purpose.

The lieutenant has established headquarters in the old armory hall on the Fort Marcy reservation, facing Palace avenue. Lieutenant Coleman says that recruits are arriving on almost every train at Fort Logan, but the government is especially anxious to get as many recruits from New Mexico as possible, because many of them are able to speak Spanish. This will be a great advantage to the regiment when in the Philippines. At noon fifteen applications had been received by Lieutenant Coleman.

Among the applicants are a number who have seen service and several riders who went through the Cuban campaign. Two men enlisted this afternoon. They are Frank L. Downie and Vernon R. Short, both of Santa Fe. They are strong, stalwart, intelligent looking young men.

Dr. J. A. Massie has been appointed examining surgeon for the recruiting station here. Lieutenant Coleman intends to go to Las Vegas and Raton in a day or two to open recruiting stations.

This evening Lieutenant Luna will leave Albuquerque for Phoenix, and after establishing a recruiting station there he will go to Prescott, Ariz., on a similar errand.

The term of service for which recruits are wanted continues to June 30, 1901. Applicants for enlistment must be between the ages of 18 and 35 years, of good character and habits, able-bodied and free from disease. Persons who are not physically perfect will be rejected, and it will be a waste of time for those who know themselves unsound to apply. Married men will not be enlisted except upon approval of a regimental commander. No person under 18 years of age will be enlisted or re-enlisted; and minors between the ages of 18 and 21 will not be enlisted or re-enlisted without the written consent of father, only surviving parent or legally appointed guardian. All soldiers receive from the government, in addition to their pay, rations, clothing, bedding, medicines and medical attendance. Whenever a soldier is honorably discharged at the expiration of his enlistment, or on account of disability not caused by his own misconduct, his travel pay is ample to carry him to the place of enlistment.

Two small boys were arrested last evening on the Plaza for fighting during the band concert. After a few hours in jail they were released.

Considerable comment is being made upon the action of city council at its last meeting ordering a voucher for $2,100 to be drawn in favor of the mayor, he to pay all the bills in full that were due and accepted by the finance committee. The action may have been a time-saver but it is regarded as establishing a bad precedent and as a poor business method.

A heavy freight train came down the Denver & Rio Grande railway yesterday. It was drawn by engines 234 and 235.

Alexander, the pretty 4-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Baca, died yesterday forenoon. The funeral took place in the afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment was in Rosario cemetery.

The Rose Stillman opera company arrived in Santa Fe from Albuquerque last evening. The following are in the company: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Riggs, Mr. and Mrs. W. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Claire Commons, Walter Maurice, W. S. Hammer, Ralph Riggs and Bernie Riggs.

F. F. Pino, superintendent of public schools of the county, arrived in Santa Fe from Galisteo last evening to attend the teachers' institute, which commenced its sessions to-day, with Professor J. A. Wood as instructor.

The board of trustees of the asylum for the deaf and dumb, at its meeting on Saturday afternoon, transacted some routine business. The president was authorized to make arrangements for having the school rooms lighted by electricity furnished by the penitentiary electric plant.

Juan Anaya was arrested Saturday evening for drunkenness and lodged in jail.

The district clerk's office looks very attractive now. It has been given a general clean up, new linoleum of a pretty pattern has been laid on the floor, three beautiful rugs give color to the office, and the desks have been newly painted and varnished. An extra desk has been provided for the accommodation of attorneys and newspaper men.

A miniature tornado was witnessed by a number of persons at noon. A funnel-shaped dust cloud, reaching from the clouds to the ground, was seen to develop at the base of the mountains to the east, and a few minutes later swept rapidly in a southward direction.

The Santa Fe Mercantile Company has taken charge of the business of the Santa Fe Merchant Tailoring Company on the west side of the plaza.

A new Chinaman arrived in Santa Fe from San Francisco last week to take charge of the laundry of San Francisco street. He is a jolly and intelligent sort of a coxistal, but has refused to give his name, saying that he has three names, and doesn't know which one to give.

The county teachers' institute was opened this morning at the second ward school house on the south side. Ten teachers were enrolled, and a number more signified their intention to attend to-morrow. Professor Wood is the instructor of the institute, and the teachers are greatly interested in the work as outlined by him.
