WHERE NOW IS AGGY

The Sprinting Dictator Has Pulled His Freight And His Capital To Another Place.

INSURGENTS WERE FOILED

They Must Move Their Capital Once Or Twice a Month—The Cruiser Charleston Aground On a Hidden Reef Near Vigan.

Manila, Nov. 14.—The whereabouts of Aguinaldo and his army and cabinet is a perfect enigma. General Otis has learned that Aguinaldo recently issued a proclamation transferring the capital to Bongabong giving as a reason the unsatisfactory condition of Tarlac. It is supposed the leaders of the insurrection not already at Bongabong are retreating to that place.

With the Americans advancing at the present rate they could drive the insurgents from Bongabong in a fortnight. It is impossible for the rebels to establish another capital in Luzon which can not be captured within a month.

The insurgents have resumed activity in Cavite province, threatening an attack on Imus. Yesterday they attacked Calamba in the usual fashion, a nighty fusillade between marines and 100 insurgents, who again intrenched themselves on the isthmus between Cavite and Novleta.

Saturday the Filipinos attempted to entrap the marines by landing a force from canoes behind them. Searchlights from the Petrel discovered the preparations to embark and a few shots from the Monardnock's and Petrel's guns spoiled the game.

The United States cruiser Charleston ran aground near Vigan on a hidden reef in 25 fathoms of water. She worked her machinery two days and nights trying to get afloat but a typhoon arising, the crew were compelled to take refuge on a small island. The gunboat Helena has been dispatched to bring away the crew.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Admiral Watson cables the Navy department confirming the loss of the cruiser Charleston.

New York, Nov. 14.—Admiral Dewey was today shown a copy of a dispatch announcing the loss of the Charleston. He said: "The Charleston was a good ship but if she had to be lost, I am glad at least one of her gallant officers and crew shared her fate. It is a treacherous coast where the Charleston met her doom, one of the most treacherous in the whole island of Luzon."

Washington, Nov. 14.—Experienced wreckers will be sent from Hong Kong to try to save the cruiser Charleston.

Lieutenant Hobson may be placed in charge of the wrecking operations.

Washington, Nov. 14.—The following has been received by the Navy department from Admiral Watson:

"Manila, Nov. 14.—Escaped Spanish prisoners at San Fabian report seeing Gilmore on November 11 in Tarlac with five men, all well. He crossed the mountains from Balern in May with 13 men. The location of the other eight is unknown."

Youngstown, O., Nov. 14.—A private dispatch received from Manila this morning announces the death of Major John A. Logan, Jr. No details have been received.

Washington, Nov. 14.—The following dispatches have been received from General Otis under date of Manila, today, confirming the report of the death of Major Logan:

"Wheaton reports under date of Nov. 12.—There was an engagement near San Jacinto between the 33d volunteers and 1,200 entrenched insurgents. Our loss was, Major Logan, gallantly leading the battalion, and six enlisted men killed. Captain Greene and eleven men were wounded, and a large quantity of rice. The cavalry is still actively engaged and the infantry is pressing on from San Jose and Aragi roads.

The roads are impracticable for any wheel transportation and the horses are foraged on rice and growing rice straw.

Major Logan was the son of the late General John A. Logan. His mother lives in Washington. He leaves a widow and two children in Youngstown, O.

News of her son's death was conveyed to Mrs. Logan by a personal note from Secretary Root sent by Major Johnson, assistant adjutant general. Mrs. Logan

CABINET MEETING.

Important Questions Were Discussed By The President And His Cabinet.

Washington, November 14.—The cabinet meeting today was uneventful. The wreck of the Charleston was discussed and the general situation in the Philippines was gone over, but to no particular purpose. Secretary Gage continued the discussion of the money situation in New York, and went over the ground which he will cover in his annual report. The report is confirmed that the secretary has no idea of buying government bonds at this time, except in some unlooked-for contingency.

Dreyfus Aftermath.

Paris, Nov. 14.—Colonel Picquart has written to Premier Waldeck Rousseau asking a judicial inquiry into the proceedings of General Gonse and M. Griblin of the archives bureau in connection with the Dreyfus case.

THE KENTUCKY MUDDLE.

Republicans Are Confident, Democrats Contentious.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 14.—The official count of the election vote is progressing slowly throughout the state and although it has been prosecuted with as much speed as possible, it will be several days before it is completed in all counties and even then it may not be sufficient to determine the result, for many notices of contests will be filed before the board of election commissioners. At Bardonia a suit was filed by the Republicans today in which the court was asked that the election board be compelled to issue new certificates to the W. S. Taylor ballots having been printed "W. P. Taylor." The Democrats contend that 1,098 votes cast for W. P. Taylor are invalid. At the Republican headquarters it is claimed Taylor is elected by a plurality of 3,134. These figures are based upon the official returns from every county except five. The Democrats still claim Goebel's election, but are not giving any figures.

The Star Showers.

New York, November 14.—With a brilliant swish that lighted up the heavens for quite fifteen seconds, the first of the Leonides announced its arrival just before midnight. Following were others of equal intensity. However, the meteoric shower will not appear at its greatest brilliancy until Thursday morning after midnight. During the next forty-eight hours this earth will have such a meteoric pelting as it has not enjoyed since 1866, when the heavy belt of Leonides was last penetrated.

More War Ships.

Washington, November 14.—The project for a further naval increase, which congress will be asked to authorize at the next session, for immediate construction, involves eighteen war-ships—three armored cruisers of improved Brooklyn type, but double the size and formidability of that vessel; three improved Olympia's, one-third larger and proportionately more powerful, and twelve gunboats of the type recommended by Admiral Dewey as essential for an effective patrol of the Philippine archipelago.

TRIPLED IN VALUE.

The Santa Rita Copper Mines Said To Be Worth Over $3,000,000.

W. H. Burrage, a mining engineer, representing the Amalgamated Copper Company at Santa Rita, in an interview talked concerning the great Santa Rita mines which were purchased by the Amalgamated Copper Company upon his recommendation last summer for $1,200,000 in a cash deal. When he made his first report to the company he said the property would double in value when an adequate amount of water was developed. There is now all the water necessary, and otherwise the property has turned out so favorably that it could not be purchased for three times the sum paid for it a few months ago. The Santa Rita people, says Mr. Burrage, are looking into the advisability of treating the ores by the leaching process. There was encountered recently a large body of sulphide rock which does not carry copper, but contains more than 50 per cent sulphur. This is important, because material is furnished from the mine for the manufacture of acids used in leaching. Mr. Burrage says the Santa Rita group is not dependent for its ores on the erratic bodies of secondary ore near the surface. High-grade copper ore in sulphide formation has been uncovered and the base deposits are extensive.

Evidence In The Cebolleta Grant Case About Finished And The Masters Report Will Soon Be Made.

Ex-Governor L. Bradford Prince returned this morning from Albuquerque where he attended a hearing before Judge W. D. Lee, master, to hear testimony in the partition suit of the Cebolleta land grant, located in Valencia and Bernalillo counties. The governor closed the case for his clients, who are eastern people, who claim a large interest in the grant bought in under a decree of foreclosure of mortgage, and Hon. Frank W. Clancy of Albuquerque, closed his side of the case, representing many heirs and assigns. Hon. B. S. Rodey, who also represents several heirs, was granted time until December the 10th, for the purpose of introducing additional proof for his clients, if he so desired. The grant contains about 100,000 acres of magnificent timber and grazing lands and was confirmed by the congress of the United States and is patented. The litigation for the partition of the grant has been going on for about three years. Judge Lee, the master in the case, expects to submit his report and findings to the district court of the 2nd judicial district by the end of this year.

The low line canal is now under construction. The engineers and outfit are camped just below Algodones.

Mrs. Fanny M. Ross, wife of ex-Governor Edmund G. Ross, died Sunday. Mrs. Ross was born in New York January 31, 1838, was married in Ohio in 1848, came to New Mexico in 1854 with her husband, who had served as United States senator from Kansas, and who was afterward governor of New Mexico.

General Manager Frey, of the Santa Fe railway, says a hotel and depot will be built at Albuquerque next year.

Deputy Sheriff George Sanders of Socorro county, last Tuesday shot and killed Luke Flanagan of the W. S. cattle outfit. Flanagan rode into Mocillon in the afternoon and entered a saloon, carrying a six-shooter in his pocket. Deputy Sheriff Sanders told Flanagan to remove the revolver and gave him five minutes in which to do so. Later Sanders saw Flanagan drinking with a friend in another saloon, drew his gun and shot him in the head killing him instantly. Sanders was arrested and said that he shot Flanagan in self-defense as Flanagan had made a move as if to draw his weapon.

C. Armory Stevens of Newark, N. J., purchased eight claims at Paschal owned by Amos Wynaugh and Thomas Bolton for $1,200. The claims make a good showing in copper ore. Mr. Stevens is otherwise heavily interested in Grant county mines.

Copper Flat, which a few weeks ago was without a single inhabitant, has taken a new lease of life. Peter Henderson has put a force of men to work on the old Cumberland and now ships three carloads of ore a week. Eck Bennett, of Central, has also commenced operations at Copper Flat. His ore runs well in copper. P. H. Snyder is working up old No. 2 shaft. A test shipment at the mill showed returns of 20 per cent in copper.

A rich gold and copper strike is reported from Carlisle. Specimens show the richest ore yet found in that section. All the mills and mines at Pinos Altos and vicinity are running full blast and many a man who desires to work is idle.

Over 40 leasers are working in the camp at Florio.

SOCORRO COUNTY.

Items Of Interest Gathered In Socorro Towns.

Frank Brainard of Albuquerque, was married at San Marcel to Mrs. Viola Kuhn of San Marcel, Justice McQuillan performed the ceremony.

The Best Medical Advice Free!

We now have some of the most eminent physicians in the United States. Usual opportunities and long experience enable them for giving you medical advice. Write freely all the particulars in your case.

Address, Dr. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

When the children get their feet wet and take cold give them a hot foot bath, a bowl of hot drink, a dose of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and put them to bed. The chances are they will be all right in the morning. Continue the Cherry Pectoral a few days, until all cough has disappeared.

Old coughs are also cured; we mean the coughs of bronchitis, weak throats and irritable lungs. Even the hard coughs of consumption are always made easy and frequently cured by the continued use of

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 14.

A pro-Boer critic who has kept count says that the London telegram yesterday is the tenth one in succession that has alleged that the Dutch cannon have been knocked out. But like prize fighters the cannon will not stay out.

The papers that roasted Secretary of State Hay for writing a political letter for publication in Ohio during the recent campaign, can now see that the secretary's letter had a fine effect in arousing the party. Perhaps they knew in advance that it would, and thought to discount it by criticism.

There is somewhere within the realm of poetry a verse that reads, "I know you lawyers can with ease twist words and meanings as you please." But when it comes to bending figures the Democratic editors could give points to the lawyers, judging by the manner in which they show that the recent elections indicate a gain of strength for the Democrats.

Santa Fe is pretty sure to catch the most of the travel to Bland when a first-class stage line is in operation at the end of ten days. There is a better road from this point than from Thornton, and every one who comes to New Mexico wishes to see the capital. The hotel facilities of the city are better than those at Thornton and the city is reached by two railways that give better connections at this point.

The New York banks have for many years paid 2 per cent interest on deposits from outside points and have drawn considerable sums from western men who had idle money. In some instances a higher rate has been paid. Money that might have been kept by local banks had they been willing to pay any interest has thus gone away from home. In one case a man who has made immense wealth in New Mexico and Arizona mines has been keeping his funds in New York on 3 per cent interest. No New Mexico bank was willing to pay interest, presumably, although the funds could have been released profitably.

The raid of a posse in Arizona that went to arrest Indians, had about the same result as pursuit of negroes in the south, six Indians killed and one wounded, with but one white man killed and another wounded. The white men allege that the Indians opened fire. An officer who had no more sense than to take as his posse cowboys who had been fighting these Indians, should not have been allowed to go after the band, who expected to be shot when they saw their pursuers. There is, of course, room for doubt as to how the tragedy began, for dead savages tell no tales and the one who was not killed will have only his own statement to place against that of the white men.

Albuquerque is calling aloud for a smelter, for which the location is most excellent, being situated at the forks of the road where it could draw from both New Mexico and Arizona. It would be an advantage to all of northern New Mexico to have an enterprise of this character at Albuquerque. Three-fourths of the prosperity and mining now reported from Grant county is due to the smelter at that point being in operation and backed by enough capital to enable the output of the mines to be purchased in any quantity that may be offered. And while the miners have found profit in dealing with the smelter it is a pretty safe guess that the smelter owners have made a fortune by the plant since they purchased it several years ago.

Why South Dakota Switched.

Early in the summer South Dakota banks reported $13,745,036.26 on deposit. The banks made a statement at the same time of the various classes of depositors and the amount of their holdings, as follows: Merchants and business men, $4,659,922.74; farmers and stockmen, $3,838,979.24; laboring men and women, $1,134,002.47; miners, $935,004.82; capitalists and those retired, $906,352.15; professional men (lawyers, doctors, etc.), $217,634.89; churches and societies, $201,758.79; public funds (state, county and municipal), $1,033,567.49. Of course not all of the money of the people was in the banks, but the report showed per capita $31.80, on a basis of 400,000 population. The merchants and business men had 38.80 per cent; the farmers, 32.08 per cent; the laboring people, 9.47 per cent; the miners, 7.80 per cent; capitalists, 8.56 per cent; the professional men, 1.75 per cent; churches, etc., had 1.37 per cent.

The figures were made up in June, just before crops were sold and after the farmers had expended funds for months without returns. Yet the laboring people, farmers, stockmen and miners had more money on deposit than merchants, capitalists and professional men, by $64,936.75. With the people so prosperous as this bank showing proved them to be, they were not inclined to follow in the days of plenty the Moses who sought to lead them in 1896. And that is one reason why South Dakota went Republican last week, although in 1896 she gave a majority for Bryan and free silver.

Trade and the Flag.

Certainly the war with Spain unlocked the treasures that come from trade with rich tropical islands. The United States built better than she knew in acquiring the new possessions and becoming guardian of Cuba. As the years roll on this will become more evident. The sale to those islands of cotton goods have greatly increased and is largely responsible for the increased price cotton growers receive. But the prospect of future sales is the principal stimulant.

Of other manufactures of cotton, exclusive of cotton cloth, the exports to Cuba in nine months of 1899 are $146,181, against $12,024 last year, while to Porto Rico they are $39,403 against $831. Of builders' hardware the exports to Cuba are $213,822 against $34,794, and to Porto Rico, $23,471 against $4,337. Of sewing machines the exports to Cuba are $332,593 against $270, while to Porto Rico the total is $3,875 against $41,050.

Of refined mineral oils, chiefly illuminating oil, the exports to Cuba are $90,038 against $32,908, while to Porto Rico they are $41,775 against $16,304. Of bacon the exports to Cuba are 12,322,868 pounds against 7,721,228 pounds, and to Porto Rico 860,414 pounds against 422,718 pounds.

Of hams the exports to Cuba are 6,277,305 pounds against 2,147,235 pounds. Exports of implements to Cuba amount to $79,226 against $2,550, and to Porto Rico $4,382 against $426.

Under the head of carriages, cars and other vehicles, the exports to Cuba are $113,739 against $19,561, while to Porto Rico they are $8,671 against $1,145.

Of coal the exports to Cuba are 280,243 tons against 162,049 tons; to Porto Rico the coal exports are 19,682 tons against 7,783 tons, and to the Philippine Islands 42,389 tons against 11,085 tons in 1899.

The "International" Dam.

The El Paso Times is the author of a fresh story that the Mexican government now proposes to have its congress vote $1,000,000 to the construction of the "international" dam if the United States should but supply the balance of the cost should it be decided to erect such a dam. The estimated cost is $3,000,000. Of this it is said Mexico would pay about one-sixth, considering depreciated currency. It has not been so long since the Mexican government with the endorsement of a United States officer of the boundary commission was seeking to have this government hear all the expense and the Times was the able boomer for the project. The scheme was worked for all it was worth by the promoters but committees of the senate of the United States never gave much encouragement to the plan. It has been dormant ever since the anxiety of the El Paso parties to prevent a New Mexico irrigation enterprise from getting any of the river water resulted in a decision that Mexico had no claim on the upper river, through the treaty upon which the promoters relied, and it became clear that if a dam in New Mexico would interfere with navigation of the Rio Grande even near its mouth, none could be built. Of course the El Paso parties never dreamed that in making the absurd plea that navigability in New Mexico would be destroyed, it would react upon their scheme. They did not expect the lower river to be considered when they called attention only to the portion which would be above a so-called international dam that was to be built entirely upon American soil and by this country alone, which was to make a donation to a foreign country of half of the stored water, of the prior use of which New Mexico was to be deprived.

The scheme has been lobbied for in Washington for many years by foreign diplomats and the influence of a United States officer has long been used to secure the aid of departments in the national capital in favor of the proposition. It was this influence that secured an injunction and stopped the work upon a bona fide irrigation enterprise in New Mexico after the right to construct a reservoir in such matters, and after much money had been expended in construction work. The proposition was favored at one time by President Cleveland but was voted down in senate committees to which it had been submitted. The rank scheme of trumping up damage claims was resorted to upon the other side of the river, the Mexican courts there, with the encouragement of the El Paso men, taking one-sided testimony to show that had the river continued to supply water for the farmers, damages to the extent of from $10,000,000 to $30,000,000 would not have resulted. This vast sum, it was hinted, was to be asked of this country in case the dam should not be built, but in its excess of generosity the Mexican government would waive the damages caused to its citizens in past decades if this country would build a dam and store water for Mexico. The damage bill was trumped up for no other purpose than to furnish the lobbyists and the diplomatists a lever with which to pry open the United States treasury. It was not for a moment expected to press any such absurd claims, but they were intended as a bluff, or to serve as an excuse to secure the passage of the treaty the schemers framed. The workers may or may not have been kept going with funds secured from Mexico under the representation that such a job could be worked to a finish in Washington. But there is a well defined suspicion in El Paso that some of the chief promoters on this side of the river had interests in lands that were to be condemned for use of the reservoir, and in fact about one-third of the $3,000,000 was to be expended for such purposes, according to the engineer's figures.

As to the promoters on the Mexican side of the river, one of them, a Mexican federal official, in a burst of confidence, admitted that he and several citizens whom he named, and one American, an ex-officer of the United States, owned or would secure a concession to several millions acres of land which partly bordered the big reservoir and that while this was ever before worthless it would be made of immense value by such reservoir. The masses of the people of El Paso never took much interest in the plans of the promoters, so general was the belief that they constituted an interested ring, and so little confidence existed that the United States would expend millions upon a proposition of this character.

It appears to be equally improbable that Mexico will expend money upon a dam outside of her borders, though lobbyists may succeed there, and the report is probably started as a feeler.

The international dam promoters fear the decision of the courts they invoked will stop the building of any dam, and may hope to save their scheme at this late day by promising a prospective offer by Mexico to help bear the expense of building.

PRESS COMMENT.

PECOS VALLEY STOCK.

(Kansas City Packer.)
The Pecos valley is fast becoming a factor in the Kansas City cattle market, for fat cattle. Up to September 15, 79,131 head, mostly feeders and stock cattle were shipped to Kansas City from the valley, since that time nearly 10,000 head of beef cattle have been shipped. About 55,000 head are in sight nearly all of which will reach the Kansas City market. This is a splendid showing for a section that a few years ago was regarded as an arid region. Irrigation has done wonders for it, and it is now one of the most productive sections of New Mexico.

PHILIPPINES IN FIVE YEARS.

(Kansas City Star.)
Within five years from the present time the Philippine islands will have the best government of any land in the orient—a government that will give the strongest protection to life and property, that will develop to its utmost the capabilities of the natives, not only for self government, but also for the acquisition of wealth, and that will accomplish more in 30 years than has been done in the past 400 years to make the islands a prosperous archipelago, filled with a happy and prosperous people.

Yet there are some foolish persons in this country who have wrought themselves up to the incomprehensible belief that the extension of the principles of the American government to this rich Pacific archipelago is a menace to the stability of free government on this continent.

BRYAN GOES TO THE REAR.

(New York Times, Ind. Dem.)
The country is going forward, Bryan has gone backward. In a campaign that resounded with speeches he has not caught the ear or won the confidence of the American people. They have turned away from him. They reject his views, they will have nothing to do with his platform. The three structural principles of his political creed are opposition to trusts, opposition to expansion, and the free coinage of silver. The people understand these questions intuitively, and far better than Mr. Bryan understands them.

HE'S ALL THEIR OWN.

(Brooklyn Standard Union.)
Mr. Bryan modestly disclaims all personality in the result in Nebraska, and says the campaign "was fought on national issues, and the result is a protest against the policy of the Republican administration." It was an unholy alliance of Democrats and Populists, and already the latter are disaffected and show a tendency to pull away from the former. And the funniest thing about it is that expansion, or "imperialism," as the cranks call it, is still popular in Nebraska.

The only reason for Nebraska supporting Bryan in the last election is that given by "Touchstone" to explain his preference for "Audrey." "She's a poor wench, but she's all my own." The colonel is a Nebraska, and state pride is responsible for some queer whims.

Sacrificed to Blood Poison.

Those who have never had Blood Poison can not know what a desperate condition it can produce. This terrible disease which the doctors are totally unable to cure, is communicated from one generation to another, inflicting its taint upon countless innocent ones.

Some years ago I was inoculated with poison by a nurse who infected my babe with blood. The little one was unequal to the struggle, and his life was yielded up to the fearful poison. For six long years I suffered untold misery. I was covered with sores and ulcers from head to foot, and no language can express my feelings of woe during those long years. I had the best medical treatment, several physicians successively treated me, but all to no purpose. The mercury and potash seemed to add fuel to the awful flame which was devouring me. I was advised by friends who had seen wonderful cures made by it, to try S. S. S. I bought a bottle, and to my great surprise my breast-hope for health and happiness again. I improved from the start, and a complete and perfect cure was the result. S. S. S. is the only blood remedy which releases desperate cases.

Of the many blood remedies, S. S. S. is the only one which can reach deep-seated, violent cases. It never fails to cure perfectly and permanently the most desperate cases which are beyond the reach of other remedies.

S. S. S. For the Blood

is PURELY VEGETABLE, and is the only blood remedy guaranteed to contain no mercury, potash, or other mineral. Valuable books mailed free by Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

NEW YORK STATE REPUBLICAN.

(New York Sun.)
That this state outside of the greater New York is as solidly and surely Republican as is Vermont, is indicated by the circumstance that of the 57 Democratic assemblymen elected on Tuesday, only eleven were elected elsewhere than in New York City districts, and that only 9 of 60 outside counties elected any Democratic assemblymen. Of the 93 Republicans elected, on the other hand, only 14 were from districts comprised in the greater New York.

PEOPLE UPHOLD GOVERNMENT.

(Tribune, Rep.)
The one issue in the elections 1899 which directly affect the welfare and honor of the country has been conclusively settled. Many times it has been said that capacity for self-government was shown in nothing else so surely as in knowing what issue was at a given time of the highest actual importance and how to meet it. Not for the first time, nor for the fiftieth, Americans have shown precisely that capacity. Many blundered, but the majority proved its right to rule. The majority saw that all else was of secondary importance compared with the support of the national government in its suppression of an armed rebellion. Whatever else the elections proved, or failed to prove, they show beyond question that a large majority of the voters mean to uphold the government in its dealings with the Philippine islands, and to give to it at home and in all foreign lands the prestige and power which come from the support of a great self-governing nation.

DIAMONDS DISCOVERED IN WISCONSIN.

The report that diamonds have been found in Wisconsin will draw thousands to that state. How madly we rush after riches, and how little we treasure the only true wealth—Health. All of the diamonds and money in the world cannot bring happiness without health. Because of its mad rush for wealth, America has become a nation of dyspeptics. No other people abuses its stomachs as we do, and therefore no other nation is so subject to nervousness, insomnia, indigestion, biliousness and torpid liver. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has restored more weak stomachs to health than can be counted. Its results have been phenomenal. To avoid imitations, be sure that a private Revenue Stamp covers the neck of the bottle.

His Serious Studies.

What studies are you pursuing? asked the landlady of the new boarder, who had told her that he was a student. I am studying psychology, he answered. I'm delving into unstrayed fields, I'm studying the— Just then some one passed him the dish of hash. I am, he continued, fathoming the mysterious and unknown. And the landlady never knew why all the people around the table smiled audibly.—Baltimore News.

Race Question.

What are the most important races that have gone to make up the great American people? asked the visiting inspector in one of the East Side schools of New York.

For the first time since school had opened, Sportyboy's hand was eagerly lifted, and the teacher tremblingly gave him his chance.

The Brooklyn Handicap, the Brighton Beach races, Guttenberg, Saratoga and those at Morris Park, proudly answered the young hopeful.—Collier's Weekly.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D.: "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God, I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Fischer & Co.'s drug store. Regular size, 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded.

The Danger of "Equal" Education.

Aunt Martha—For mercy's sake what are you talking about, Carrie? Carrie—Harry called me dearest today. Aunt Martha—I'm sure that was nice. Carrie—Why, Auntie, don't you see, if I am dearest somebody else must be dearest. If there is, it will surely break my heart.—Boston Transcript.

STORY OF A SLAVE.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife had been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work. This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by Fischer & Co., druggists.

Where the Down-trodden Slept.

The Wife—I wonder why little Ethel is so disobedient, John? The Husband—I don't know my dear, unless your marrying me against your parent's wishes has something to do with it.—Puck.

REMARKABLE RESCUE.

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption, and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle, and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use, and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was. This Great Discovery at Fischer & Co.'s drug store. Only 50 cents and $1; every bottle guaranteed.

Needed at Home.

Little Wife—Dear, you ought to take some cod liver oil. Don't you think it is good thing? The usual reply—Yes—for the cod.—New York Press.

VOLCANIC ERUPTIONS.

Are grand, but Skin Eruptions rob life of joy. Buckle's Arnica Salve cures them. Also Old, Running and Fever Sores, Ulcers, Bolls, Felons, Corns, Warts, Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Chapped Hands, Chilblains. Best Pile cure on earth. Drives out Pains and Aches. Only 25c. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by Fischer & Co., druggists.

Each to His Craft.

Plumber—So long! I'm off to lay a pipe. Post—Well, goodbye! I'm off to pipe a lay.—Syracuse Herald.

How She Discouraged Him.

She—What a good picture! He—No it isn't. I was not well, and I looked like an idiot that morning. She (intently studying the photograph)—Well it looks exactly like you, any way.—Judge.

BISMARCK'S IRON NERVE.

Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. They develop every power of brain and body. Only 25c. at Fischer & Co.'s drug store.

IN GREEN CATHEDRAL AISLES.

Within the green cathedral aisles The winds are whispering "among the leaves," And nature's face is wreathed in smiles. The sunlight in mosaic waves A gorgeous pattern "neath our feet," And summer days are fair and sweet. No pride or pomp in Mammion's piles Can reach these old cathedral aisles.

The birds are chanting songs of praise, And music murmurs in the trees, For in these quiet woodland ways The choristers are birds and bees; The flowers with incense fill the air, And nature's priests her vestments wear. In forest, free from human gulls, Are read these grand cathedral aisles.

The city teems with restless life, And tapering steeples bear the cross— A symbol of the Christian's strife Through all the years of gain and loss. So ever upward point the trees And wave their plumes in every breeze, To lure the wanderer miles and miles Within the green cathedral aisles.

ILLEGAL PRIZES.

One morning in May, 1804, a small brig named the Harrington, commanded by Mr. William Campbell, sailed out between Sydney heads before a stiff westerly breeze bound to the island of Masafuera, in the South Pacific, to procure sealskins. Although so small, the vessel carried a crew of about five and twenty men, and being a letter of marque, was armed in the usual manner of the Australian whalers and south sea traders of those days—half a dozen 9 pounders and plenty of muskets and cutlasses. The Harrington had for some time been employed by her owners—Chace & Co. of Madras—in trading between Madras, the South American ports and Sydney. On the last occasion of her leaving Madras Campbell had taken care to provide himself with a letter of marque from the presidency of Fort St. George against France and Holland.

The result of the sealing expedition was fairly successful, but Campbell himself was not satisfied. At least he found he was not satisfied when he one day fell in with an American whaler, the captain of which told him that war had been declared between England and Spain. How the American captain had learned the news Campbell did not inquire. He quickly returned on board the Harrington, held a brief consultation with his mate, and altered the ship's course from west by north for Sydney to due east for the South American coast.

"I don't want to waste much time," he said, "but there is no harm in our running along the coast for a week or two. We are pretty sure to pick up something." The mate concurred, so did the crew, and a week later Campbell did pick up something—to wit, two Spanish prizes, a merchantman and a man-of-war. From the Sydney Gazette we learn that the merchantman was named St. Francisco and St. Paulo. She was being conveyed by the cruiser, which was named the Estremina, commanded by Don Antonio Jose del Campo, ensign in the Spanish navy, out of the ports of Cuzco and Caldera on the coast of Peru.

In spite of his long name and title and the traditional bravery of his race the don does not shine to advantage in this affair, for as soon as the plucky little Harrington bore down upon him and his convoy he put his helm down and steered for the shore, then but a few miles distant. Campbell, burning to bring him to, crowded on all sail in pursuit, but was unable to prevent both the Estremina—a brig of four guns—and the convoy from running aground. Then, setting fire to both vessels, Don Antonio and his gallant men ran away inland with great unanimity. But the Harrington was so close that Campbell, lowering his boats, soon boarded both ships, and his men extinguished the flames before any material damage was done, and in a few hours he had succeeded in floating both vessels again. After putting prize crews on board, the industrious Campbell went on shore to see if there was anything else "worth picking up," and discovered a quantity of copper bars—a very valuable commodity. These he secured without firing a shot, and then he and his merry men said goodbye to the Spaniards, and with the two prizes in company set sail for Sydney, highly pleased at the result of their adventure.

In due course the Harrington sailed into Port Jackson, but the level headed Scotch captain came in alone—the prizes were not visible. The following day he was requested by Governor King to produce his log, and appeared greatly shocked when the irate governor told him that he had committed a breach of neutrality. War with Spain was not declared until Dec. 13, 1804, and it was not till January, 1805, that the British government granted a letter of marque to any ship, and yet here was this daring merchant skipper committing an act of war on his own account in October!

Now, singular to relate, Campbell had only been doing on a very minor scale the same thing as had been done by the orders of the British cabinet on a very large scale in the same fashion in another part of the world, though, of course, neither he nor the angry governor knew it. The incident is a notable one in naval story: Admiral Cornwallis (the government having at last awakened to the veiled hostility of Spain, and the energetic Pitt having succeeded the peaceful Addington) was directed to dispatch some frigates to intercept and detain until further orders the Spanish treasure squadron on its way from Montevideo to Cadiz. The indefatigable 44, the Lively, 38, Medusa, 40, and Amphion, 40 guns, were sent away as quickly as possible, and, cruising near Cape St. Vincent, fell in with the Spanish fleet on Oct. 5 and ordered them to bring to. Of course the Spanish admiral (Bustamente) would not submit to be detained and cleared for action. The battle lasted barely 20 minutes and resulted in the blowing up of one Spanish ship and the capture of the rest. The English fleet lost two men killed and half a dozen wounded. The Spaniards lost nearly the whole of one ship's company, besides about 100 killed and wounded on the other vessels. Then Spain declared war.

But King, knowing nothing of this and feeling very wroth with Mr. Campbell, called upon him to furnish satisfactory replies to the following queries: First—Whether he had any knowledge of war with Spain at the time of capture? Second—Where were the two prizes he had taken? Third—What letters of marque did he possess? To the questions Campbell replied that he had been informed by an American whaler that England and Spain were at war; that he had sent his prizes off on their way to India after refreshing at Norfolk island, and that his authority to privateer was his commission in the East India company as a captain of marines.

Governor King said he did not consider this satisfactory, and after taking counsel with other officers of the settlement decided to detain the Harrington until the home government could be communicated with. So Campbell was ordered to unbend his sails, strike his topmasts and lower yards and unship his rudder.

Campbell protested, saying that his case had been considered without call upon him to be present. This, as a matter of fact, was correct, for while some of his sailors gave evidence at the inquiry he was not allowed to meet them in open court. His protest is very properly worded, and he undoubtedly has the best of the argument: "I was not apprised of the intention of the governor to hold an inquiry. Such method is irregular and calculated to prejudice my case. No adverse evidence should be taken without giving me an opportunity to refute it. Further, the detention of my ship is a serious loss to my owners, who will have no redress if even later on my innocence is proved, and my commission in the East India company's service makes me answerable to them for any improper conduct. Anyhow, according to British jurisprudence, you ought to hold me innocent until you can prove the contrary. Yet you seize my ship."

King curtly answered that an East India company's commission did not authorize people to seize the vessels of friendly powers; that there was no evidence of war existing between England and Spain, and even if war did exist, since the Harrington had no proper letter of marque, the prizes must become a spoil of admiralty.

Poor Campbell had to submit, though he manfully resented King's action, but the latter was acting conscientiously. So when Campbell offered substantial security and some leading Sydney merchants backed him with money Governor King consented to the Harrington's cargo being discharged and to her captain proceeding on his voyage to Madras. But, alas for Campbell, just as the affair was on the point of being settled in this way the San Francisco y San Paulo and Estremina were discovered hovering about the coast of New South Wales, apparently waiting for Campbell. The two ships were at once captured by the government brig and brought into Port Jackson.

Naturally King lost his temper, and again placed Campbell under detention. Meanwhile dispatches had gone home, and all parties resigned themselves for the long, weary wait that was to follow before an answering dispatch came from the home government. At last, however, it came, in the early months of 1806, when Viscount Castlereagh wrote, telling King to instantly release Campbell, the ship and crew and the prize crews of the two Spanish vessels, which could be sold as lawful prizes. This snub for the good hearted and conscientious governor was softened by the profoundly wise observation that "the spirit and principle (sic) on which you acted is approved."

—the which, considering the affair of the Spanish treasure ships off Cape St. Vincent, is very pretty.—Pall Mall Magazine.

Too Rapid For the Sultan.

Hiram Maxim, the inventor of the Maxim gun, tells an amusing story of an experience with the sultan of Turkey. The sultan had witnessed a test of the wonderful shooting of the rapid fire arm and was duly impressed with seeing the small weapon deliver itself of 600 shots a minute without being touched by human hand save the first pull of the trigger.

"Wonderful, wonderful!" he exclaimed in amazement. "I must have some of those arms." Some time later Mr. Maxim received an order for an expensive pattern of small field arm. He made two, beautifully chased in gold and of marvellous workmanship. What the sultan could want of such expensive outside trappings he did not know, but they were duly sent to Turkey, where they now rest in the royal museum.

"Ah! They shoot too well," the sultan is reported to have said when asked why they were not used in the field. "They are better where they are." It was afterward said that the sultan, having a superstitious regard for their shooting power, thought they were better off where they could be seen instead of being handled by his troops in times of peace.

Women Barberers. In Gay's "Journey to Exeter," published in 1718, it is told how after passing "Morcombe's lake" the travelers reach Axminster, where they sleep. The next morning

We rise, our beards demand the barber's art: A female enters and performs the part. The wealthy golden chain adorns her neck, And three gold rings her skillful hands deck; Smooth o'er our chin her easy fingers move, Soft as when Venus stroked the beard of Jove.

—Notes and Queries.

As you travel through southeastern Kansas about one hundred and twenty-five miles south of Topeka and eighty-five miles east of Wichita, the brakeman sticks his head in the doorway and yells: "Yrecky! Yrecky!" and a couple of minutes later the train pulls into Eureka, the prosperous county seat of Greenwood County.

One of the happy inhabitants of Eureka is Mrs. Sarah E. Taylor, and the reasons for her present happiness are set forth in the following letter addressed to Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the "Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute," of Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. Taylor says: "I had been a sufferer for fifteen years and in August 1896 was taken with severe cramping pains in my stomach. A hard lump about the size of a goose egg formed in my right side. It became so sore I could scarcely walk about the house, and I had no appetite. I began to do my work."

"I consulted two of the best doctors and 'Pleasant Pills' were given me. I took each when I began to feel better, and my appetite came back, and for a little over a year I began to do my work."

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a medicine that cures on rational, scientific principles. It is the discovery of a regularly graduated, practicing physician of high standing. It tones up the stomach, stimulates the liver and regulates the bowels. It brings all the digestive organs into healthy activity. It neutralizes and eradicates all poisonous, effete matter in the blood and fills it with the rich, vital, red corpuscles of health and vigor. "The Discovery" is a temperance medicine. It contains no alcohol in any form.

A friend in need is a friend indeed. That is exactly what Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is. It is the mother's help when she is suddenly awakened in the night by the ominous husky cough, and labored breathing, of her babe. It is the safe resort of the youth or adult when he has "caught cold" and there is coughing and irritation of the mucous membrane of the throat. It allays the irritation and cures the cold. It will not be a surprise to any who are at all familiar with the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, to know that people everywhere take pleasure in relating their experience in the use of that splendid medicine and in telling of the benefit they have received from it, of bad colds it has cured, of threatened attacks of pneumonia it has averted, and of the children it has saved from attacks of croup and whooping cough. It is a grand, good medicine. For sale by A. C. Ireland.

THE COAL FAMINE.

Fuel in Great Demand All Over The Western Country.

C. W. Dudrow, the coal dealer of this city, has sent in orders for 1,100 tons of Cerrillos coal, and does not expect all orders filled for weeks.

The coal famine still continues, it is said, from Chicago to San Francisco. This statement refers particularly to manufacturing and railway interests. The smelters are short of coal and coke all the time, and the manufacturing interests keep fighting to get more fuel all the time.

In this connection it is asserted that as much as 50,000 tons of coal is mined at some of the Colorado mines, but the equipment cannot be had to get it on the road. The railway shortage on coal is quite serious at times, and it is said that one of the companies recently "stole" forty car loads shipped to a smelter. The Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, that now controls the mines at Madrid, has sought to acquire the output of all of the coal mines in New Mexico.

Everything new, neat and clean at the Bon-Ton.

Confirmation Exercises.

Last Sunday at Albuquerque Archbishop Bourgade confirmed a large class. He also said mass and had communion service, and attended a reception in the morning in the school building. The archbishop delivered an informal address. In the evening after services a welcome was extended to the archbishop by the congregation, when Mayor Marron delivered an address. P. Massetti, president of the Christopher Columbus society, was present, and on behalf of that society and the Italian colony, also extended a hearty welcome to the archbishop.

Corns, bunions, etc., cured free of pain. Dr. W. Bernard Kelley, Chiropractor, Palace hotel.

MINOR CITY TOPICS.

The train from the south on the Santa Fe railroad did not arrive here until 4 o'clock this morning, being several hours late.

The fire department is arranging a ball to be held Saturday evening of Thanksgiving week. R. C. Huber, Thomas Duffin and Juan Sandoval have been appointed a committee of arrangements.

Pablo Martinez was arrested yesterday by Constable Francisco Anya on a charge of discharging fire arms. Justice J. M. Garcia fined him $50 and costs. Martinez has appealed to the district court.

The delinquent tax list of this county will be published in the New Mexican Review on Thursday. There are a good many tax payers and property owners interested in this list and it behooves them to examine it carefully.

Santa Fe lodge No. 2, Knights of Pythias, will hold its regular meeting this evening at 7:30 o'clock at its Castle hall. Matters of great importance to every knight will be presented. Officers and members are requested to make a special effort to attend. Visiting knights given a cordial and fraternal welcome.

The work at the new capitol is being delayed by the non-arrival of several car-loads of wood finishing. The material, expected two months ago, has not yet arrived. Had it not been for this delay, the capitol would have been ready for the furniture by January 1, and the supreme court could have held its session there in January.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. T. B. Catron has wired to friends at Santa Fe that she will go to New York from Chicago where she is visiting at present.

Professor J. C. Carrera, one of the New Mexico delegates to the world's exposition at Paris next year, is in the capital on a visit. He resides at Las Cruces.

Milo G. Hill has resigned as clerk in the store of H. S. Kaune & Co., and will go to Bland as bookkeeper in the store of J. C. Creager.

Hon. Samuel Eldott, who spent several days in the capital, returned home this morning to Chamita. Mrs. Eldott will for the time being remain in the capital as the guest of Mrs. S. Spitz.

G. W. Jones and family of Spivey, Kas., and Mr. and Mrs. John Arrington, Kas., returned to this city last evening from Ojo Caliente. They will leave for their home in Kansas this evening.

Mrs. Peregrina White and daughters, Mrs. DuChemin and Miss White, left yesterday for El Paso, Texas, on a visit, for the benefit of Mrs. White's health. They will be absent several days.

Archbishop Peter Bourgade returned home this forenoon from an extensive trip through the southern part of the territory. He confirmed a large number of children and officiated in a large number of churches. He looks hale and hearty and his trip seems to have done him much good.

F. W. Barton, a traveling man from Las Vegas, arrived this forenoon from Albuquerque.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Brady arrived today from a visit to El Paso. They intend to leave for their home at Brazos tomorrow forenoon.

COL. MARION DEAD.

An Old Timer in New Mexico Dies At Ramah, Bernalillo County.

Another of the historic pioneers of New Mexico has passed away. Last Saturday Colonel Walter Gunn Marmon died suddenly at Ramah, Bernalillo county, while on a surveying trip. No one, perhaps, more than Colonel Marmon did more in early days to assist preserving the observance of law and order in New Mexico. Deceased was born in Logan county, Ohio, March 12, 1842. He came to New Mexico in 1868 attached to a surveying corps that surveyed the Navajo reservation. He made a preliminary survey of the Atlantic and Pacific railway. In 1871 he established the first government school among the Pueblos at Laguna. In 1878 he married Miss Mary Sarracino, an educated Pueblo woman whose father was Spanish and became the wise governor of the pueblo of Laguna and did much for the advancement of the pueblo and sent a family that is highly esteemed, and several of his children are at eastern educational institutions.

The military record of Colonel Marmon shows that he enlisted May 27, 1862, at the age of 17 years as a private in Company D, 1st Cavalry, and served three months. From Camp Chase, Ohio, his regiment was ordered to Baltimore and from there to Harper's Ferry, where his regiment was on duty at the time General Miles surrendered that post to the enemy, September 16, 1862. Colonel Marmon was promoted to second lieutenant in 1863, and to first lieutenant in 1865. From Camp Delaware, Ohio, where he was mustered out with his company as second sergeant in October, 1862. He was exchanged in March, 1863, and re-enlisted June 5, 1863, as first sergeant of Company L, 3d Ohio heavy artillery, was promoted to second lieutenant in 1865, and to first lieutenant in 1867. He was appointed captain of Company I, 3d New Mexico infantry in 1882, major of the same regiment in 1883, lieutenant colonel 1st cavalry battalion in 1883; colonel 3d regiment cavalry in 1885, and colonel of the 1st regiment of infantry December 24, 1890. He joined J. K. Warren post, G. A. R., of Albuquerque, and was a member in good standing at the time of his death. By permission of the government he organized the Indian scouts for service in the campaign against Geronimo, and in 1885 commanded four companies of territorial militia in the Geronimo campaign.

"Better do it than wish it done." Better cure catarrh by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla than complain because you suffer from it.

Major Logan Killed.

The dispatches today announce the death in the Philippine army of Major John A. Logan, Jr. Major Logan will be remembered by many people in Santa Fe, where he spent the summer of 1883, with his father, General John A. Logan and Mrs. Logan, visiting their daughter Mrs. Major W. F. Tucker.

Try a good broiled steak or quail at the Bon-Ton.

THE SAME STORY.

Rev. G. S. Madden Confirms The News Of Prosperity At Bland.

Rev. G. S. Madden of Bland, is a visitor in the capital today. Mr. Madden says that at least a dozen dwelling and store buildings are under construction at Bland. He is building a dwelling for himself, and expects to move into it next week. J. W. Akers is another Santa Fe man building at Bland. He is putting up a large store building which will be occupied by C. A. Scheurich with a flour, grain and feed business. F. H. Mitchell of Cerrillos, intends to erect a large sawmilling shop and the Flouring & Pickard company, who bought out H. L. Finch, have purchased the Wood's building and intend to also do a banking business. M. F. Flourney will erect a cottage on lots recently purchased from S. W. Young. J. C. Cloutier will also erect a residence for himself on lots purchased from W. F. Powars. Among others who will erect residences are J. May, Warren Graham, Louis Graham and Isaac Graham of Albuquerque. A large building is being erected on the property of Dr. Stope and will serve as headquarters for the new stage and express line between Santa Fe and Bland. Mr. Madden says that two important deals have been closed but the particulars are still being kept quiet.

H. L. Finch, the well known Bland business man, is very low with lung trouble and is not expected to live.

Office For Census Supervisor.

Through the application and urgent recommendation of Judge A. L. Morrison, the secretary of the treasury department has reconsidered his ruling that the census supervisor could not have an office in the federal building. It will be a convenience to the officials and the public to have the office located in the federal building, and the credit is due to Judge Morrison, who is custodian of the property.

Killed With His Own Knife.

A tragedy is reported just across the Arizona side of the territorial line at Springerville, Saturday, in which Pablo Corralis was killed. Corralis and several boys had attended a dance and during the evening a quantity of wine was consumed. A row was started between Corralis and a much smaller man. Pablo pulled out a knife and made a pass at Antonio Dominguez, his assailant, who struck the uplifted arm and in some manner forced the knife into Pablo's neck, cutting the jugular vein. The victim died in a few minutes. Dominguez was arrested.

Territorial Funds.

Territorial Treasurer J. H. Vaughn today received from Abran Abeyta, collector of Socorro county, $279.52, of which $164.86 is for territorial purposes and $44.28 for territorial institutions.

Burglars at Magdalena.

Burglars have been raiding in Magdalena, Socorro county. They first entered the store of W. M. Borrowdale and stole a large quantity of firearms and a big supply of ammunition. After a rest of two nights the gang entered the store of Becker, Blackwell & Co. and stole enough flour and provisions to run a small camp for months. Next night they visited Dunagan Co.'s store and made a most successful haul.
