ZAMBOANGO QUIET

How a Native Mayor Squelched a Rebel Leader and Surrendered the City.

RIDDLED HIM WITH BULLETS

Dato Maridi Preserved Order Until the American Troops Arrived from Jolo and a Local Government Was Established.

Manila, December 1.—The steamer Salvador, from Zamboanga, island of Mindanao, brings details of the occupation of the town by Commander Very, of the United States gunboat Oatline. The revolutionists of Mindanao were led by Alvarez and Calixto, who left Luzon some time ago, and for the last seven months have been stirring up the people, winning a considerable following. The commercial depression and lack of food resulting from the island's blockade set the people against the revolutionists and culminated in the assassination on November 15 of Calixto, the real leader of the revolution, by Midel, the mayor of Tetuan. Midel, under a pretext, secured Calixto's presence in Tetuan, and the mayor's guards fired a volley, killing Calixto instantly. Midel at once arranged with Commander Very for the occupation of Zamboanga. Very asked that Dato Mandi, with 500 of his followers, stationed on a neighboring island, come to Zamboanga. The following morning Midel raised the American flag over Zamboanga, the insurgents evacuating. Commander Very landed 100 blue jackets and took possession of the town and fortifications. Dato Mandi's men arrived in the afternoon, and were used on picket duty. Commander Very dispatched the gunboat Manila, November 15, to Jolo to convey troops to re-enforce him. A company of the 23d regiment under Captain Nichols arrived November 17, and two more companies followed shortly. Mandi's followers then returned home. On the afternoon of November 20 Midel called a meeting of local chiefs, who formally deposed Alvarez as the leader of the revolutionists and elected Midel president of the new insular government established under American sovereignty and control. Commander Very then effected an apparent reconciliation between Alvarez and Midel and their followers, Alvarez signing a formal resignation of the position of revolutionary leader on November 22.

New York, December 2.—A dispatch to the Herald from Manila says: General Lawton is at Banbang, twenty miles south of Bayombong, in the Cagayan valley. He is in telegraphic communication with the insurgents over a wire in their possession, and the commanders of the opposing forces are considering propositions by telegraph looking to a surrender of the rebels to the Americans.

Washington, December 1.—General Otis today cabled the war department as follows:

Manila, December 1.—Hughes reports from Central Panay that Iloilo province, a third of the island, has been cleared of insurgents. By forced marches with two battalions from Labuano, by way of Calinaog, he obliged the enemy to engage at Passi on the 26th ult. and drove him with much loss to the mountains in detached bodies. Hughes' casualties were Captain Warwick, 18th infantry, and Private Daniel W. Humphreys, company K, 18th infantry, killed. He reports his troops in excellent health. He is now converting wheat into pack transportation for the purpose of entering the mountains. It is expected he will pass on to Capiz, on the northern coast of the island. Dispatches from Lawton indicate that Bayombong was captured on the 28th ult. The trails over the mountains are impracticable for wheel transportation of any kind. The troops subsisted on rice, and a scant supply at that. MacArthur's troops have had several minor engagements, capturing men and rifles. Bell's capture in the mountains includes fourteen modern guns, all in good condition. Over fifty pieces of artillery have been captured by the troops in the last three weeks. The Oregon brought in 106 Spanish prisoners from Vigan yesterday, and ninety-four were received by rail the previous evening. Young, with three troops of cavalry and March's battalion of the 33d infantry, should have reached Vigan yesterday. Conditions at Zamboanga are satisfactory. The 31st infantry leaves Manila this evening to garrison several stations on the Mindanao coast. No difficulties are anticipated.

A Kentucky Nomination.
Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 1.—June W. Gayle was nominated for congress by the seventh district democratic convention.

THE SAMOAN TREATY.

Senator Hoar Is Expected to Oppose Ratification.

New York, December 1.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: It is the expectation of the authorities that the treaty for the partition of Samoa will be signed at the state department Friday. It will be necessary to obtain ratification of the treaty by the United States senate, and the administration is preparing for a fight with the senators opposed to expansion, headed by Senator Hoar. The treaty will provide for abrogation of the treaty of Berlin, under which Samoa is governed at present, and for renunciation by Great Britain and Germany of all rights and claims to the islands of Tutuila, Ofu and Manua, eastward of the 171st degree of longitude. Similarly the United States relinquishes all rights and claims to the islands of Savai, Upolu and others west of the 171st degree of longitude, which are ceded to Germany. Great Britain concurring and withdrawing from the group. Free trade is authorized under another provision, under which the three powers shall continue to enjoy for commercial purposes all privileges enjoyed by the sovereign power in all ports opened to them.

Roberts to be Bounced.

New York, December 1.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: The Herald's canvass of the house shows an overwhelming sentiment in favor of unseating Roberts, the member elect from Utah.

Damage by the Gulf Storm.

Rockport, Tex., December 1.—Reports from points on the gulf in this section show the damage and loss of life by the recent severe storm was much greater than at first reported. A number of small fishing craft that were missing with crews have been found at the mouth of St. Charles bay. Several thousand head of sheep and hundreds of cattle were driven into the gulf by the storm and drowned. In Refugio and Aransas counties there was a terrible fall of hail. More than 700 head of cattle were killed by falling hail in the vicinity of Lamar. The wind blew several houses from their foundations.

The Financial Bill.

Washington, December 1.—Senator Platt, of Connecticut, a member of the finance committee of the senate, said the subcommittee at the meeting tomorrow would agree upon the terms of the financial bill to be presented to the senate. "Generally speaking," said he, "the senate bill will be an agreement with the house bill, and the two houses will get together without trouble." Platt thinks the passage of the financial bill by both houses is a foregone conclusion.

Macrum Wishes to Leave Pretoria.

Washington, December 1.—Mr. Macrum, United States consul at Pretoria, is renewing his appeals to the state department to be allowed to leave his post. The department is striving to find a consular officer near Pretoria who will undertake to relieve Macrum. Probably Mr. Hollis, consul at Lorenzo Marques, will be asked to undertake this important charge.

Vice President Hobart's Fortune.

Patterson, N. J., December 1.—The will of the late Vice President Hobart was filed in the surrogate's office today. The value of the estate is understood to be about $2,500,000. Mrs. Jennie Hobart, the widow, receives $1,000,000 and half of the remainder after a number of bequests are paid. The son, Garret A. Hobart, Jr., inherits the other half when he attains his majority.

SENATOR HANNA IS URGED.

Many Republicans Ask Him to Manage the Next Campaign.

Cleveland, Ohio, Dec. 1.—Concerning reports that Senator Hanna would succeed himself as chairman of the national Republican committee, it can be stated on authority of Hanna's most intimate friends, he has no desire to manage another campaign and unless very strong pressure is brought to bear upon him, he will probably decline to do so. He is almost daily receiving from influential party leaders, representing practically all sections of the country, letters to the effect that he has their fullest confidence and support, urging that he is the strongest man available for the place. Members of his family, believe however, the condition of his health is such that he should not under any circumstances assume the responsibility of managing another presidential campaign. It has been suggested that Hanna be made member of the executive committee having personal charge of the campaign finances.

Upholstery Weavers Strike.

Philadelphia, Dec. 1.—About 800 union upholstery weavers struck today closing twenty six mills and throwing out of employment nearly three thousand hands engaged in the various departments of the factories. The strikers demanded a working week of 55 hours and an increase of about 25 per cent wages.

RELIEF OF KIMBERLY

It Is Believed General Methuen May Have Saved the Beleaguered Town.

BUNCH OF BOERS KILLED

Probable That the Transvaal Troops May Be Planning to Attack Methuen from the Rear—The Fate of Lady-Smith Unknown.

London, December 1.—While rumors of the relief of Kimberly are current on the stock exchange to-day, they may be premature. There seems no doubt the pressure on the garrison has been much lightened by General Methuen's successes, and actual relief of the place is likely to be a fact very soon. The clew to the urgent reasons which dictated Methuen's hurried march may be found in Governor Milner's hint to the relief committee at Cape Town to be prepared for the reception of 10,000 refugees, indicating the garrison must have had reason to fear the reduction of Kimberly by starvation and disease. The most recent news from Kimberly comes by way of Pretoria, and almost seems to show that Kimberly and Mafeking are acting in concert with Gen. Methuen, for at the time the battle was raging at Gras Pan both Colonel Kekewich and Colonel Baden-Powell made sorties and assailed the beleaguers. Colonel Kekewich inflicted considerable loss on the Boers, two shells killing nine and wounding seventeen in a group. It is reported that Methuen resumed his north-west course Wednesday in order to form a junction with the Kimberly forces Saturday or Sunday. It is suggested that the Boers may be hurrying to attack General Methuen's rear, but as reinforcements have been pushed rapidly forward from the Orange river and Deonar, they ought to circumvent such designs. So far as known, the Lady-Smith relief force is still at Frere, though the bridge was perhaps sufficiently stable to permit its passage November 20, in which case the opposing forces may already have come in contact near Colenso, where apparently the Boers are strongly entrenched on the north side of the river.

London, December 1.—A special received to-day from Frere, dated November 28, says that while attempting to blow up a 500-foot bridge over the river at Colenso, the Boers were driven back by the British artillery and mounted infantry.

WRECKED AT ISLETA.

The Train from California Crashed Into a Caboose.

Albuquerque, December 1.—Passenger train No. 2, from California, ran into the caboose of a freight train at Isleta Junction last night. Roadmaster J. G. Hutchinson, of the Santa Fe-Pacific, who was in the caboose, was the only person seriously injured. He was brought here this morning and taken to the hospital. Several passengers received bruises and cuts, but none were seriously hurt. The passenger train was running at the rate of fifty miles an hour, the engineer and fireman saving themselves just before the crash came. Rumors that half a dozen persons were killed in the wreck are unfounded.

A Powder Works Explosion.

Wail City, Kans., Dec. 1.—A terrible explosion occurred at the Luffin-Rand powder works nine miles south of this city today. Direct communication with the works was cut off by the explosion and it is impossible to ascertain the extent of the damage. Buildings in this city were shaken and it is feared loss of life resulted.

The President's Message Nearly Ready.

Washington, Dec. 1.—The cabinet discussed briefly today the president's message on which the finishing touches have been placed except that portion relating to the Philippines. That section is being held up in the hope the president may be able to announce a complete collapse of the insurrection. Members of the cabinet are unanimously of the opinion that the rebellion is on its last legs. The "Philippine question is solving itself," is the way one member put it today. The president decided not to send the message to congress until Tuesday, as the immediate adjournment of the senate upon the announcement of the death of Vice President Hobart would preclude its being read Monday.

Shortage of Miners.

Deputy Internal Revenue Collector Loomis returned last evening from an official trip that included Gallup, Raton and Las Vegas. He says that at Gallup several hundred men are wanted in the mines. The coal companies are running far behind in their orders because they cannot secure miners in sufficient numbers.

THE LAWS ENFORCED

The Citizens of Rio Arriba County Do Their Duty in Court Matters.

ANCIENT MURDER AVENGED

The Sunday Law Observed and the Violators of the Gaming Laws Indicted—The First Court Term in Two Years.

The court officials returned last evening from Tierra Amarilla, where a successful two weeks' term of court was held. In the party were Judge John R. McFie, District Attorney R. C. Gortner, District Clerk A. J. Bergene, Court Interpreter Alexander Read, Attorneys B. M. Read and E. L. Solignac, besides Sheriff Augustin Martin and his deputy, Amado Ortiz, who had six prisoners in charge and delivered them to the penitentiary. While at Tierra Amarilla the court officials were entertained by Hon. and Mrs. T. D. Burns. Court stenographer W. J. McPherson went on to Taos to prepare for court there next week. The other court officials will leave for Taos to-morrow forenoon.

As a result of the two weeks' term of court the penitentiary gates last night opened to receive, for the terms of their natural lives, Anastacio Martinez and Ramon Patron, convicted of murder in the second degree; Desiderio Sandoval, for seven years for murder in the third degree; Manuel A. Martinez, for two years for assault to kill; Jose Yello Romero, for two years for obtaining money under false pretenses, and Juan Sanchez, for two years for burglary. It cannot longer be said that convictions are impossible in Rio Arriba county, or that juries there fail to do their duty. The court officers all unite in stating that the present juries, both grand and petit, were men of character and intelligence, and governed only by a strict sense of duty. The firm and fair administration of Judge McFie is largely responsible for the atmosphere of honor and justice that pervaded the business of the court. District Attorney Gortner is being congratulated very much on his vigorous and successful prosecutions.

Speaking of the business of the recent term, District Attorney Gortner said: "Two of the cases tried were almost dramatic in their material. Anastacio Martinez murdered his man in 1891, with a pistol shot, discharged after dark in the little plaza of Vallecito. He did not touch his victim, and slipped quietly away from the scene of the crime. Next morning his trail was followed. Murder will out, and a letter, received through the postoffice the day before and opened, was found in the trail, addressed to Anastacio Martinez. The footprints were found to be like his. Circumstances after circumstance came forth, making a close chain around the guilty man. At last, confident in the protection of the law, an old woman who had lived near by told that she had seen the shot fired. After nine years we were remarkably fortunate in uniting all these remote facts and bringing Martinez to justice. He was ably and strongly defended by Judge Laughlin, but the case was utterly beyond defense.

"Desiderio Sandoval's case is one that illustrates to a remarkable degree the steadfast regard of duty which our jurors had. Sandoval killed his wife and her paramour. The relations of the two were notorious in their community. Public sentiment sympathized with Sandoval. But the statute only justifies such homicide when the parties are found actually in the act of carnal intercourse. The direction of the bullets, the condition of the clothes, and the positions of the bodies when found showed that such was not the situation. The woman's hands and the middle of her face were powdered-burned by a shot through her forehead, which, entering the base of her brain, caused immediate paralysis. As if to testify eloquently to the deed, the woman's hands, therefore, were stiffened before her face; she was pleading for mercy when shot. Still, at the last term, on indictment for the killing of the woman, Sandoval was acquitted. That was the time when the court discharged the jurors without pay and the term broke up in an uproar. A conviction now for the murder of the man, certainly, to my mind, attests the character of the Rio Arriba county juror. No doubt was made that the murdered man had had illicit relations with Sandoval's wife; yet the jury, in the face of the former acquittal, stood squarely to the proposition that the homicide was not justifiable under the statute, and convicted him."

The grand jury report and some court terms furnished by mail by a correspondent before the court term ended are printed on the second page of this paper to-day.

MARRIED LAST NIGHT.

Miss Price and Mr. Orlinton United On Thanksgiving Day.

A pretty home wedding took place last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Price on Johnson street. The contracting parties were Miss Nellie Blanche Price and Robert Jocelyn Orlinton, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Orlinton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. Hayes Moore, of the Presbyterian church. The wedding march by Felix Mendelssohn was played by Mrs. W. Hayes Moore as the couple took their position. The bride was attended by Miss Marian Bishop. The bride was dressed in cream-colored gown, with chiffon and ribbon trimmings, and wore white carnations in her hair. The couple are among the most active of the younger members of the Presbyterian church, the bride being at present president of the Christian Endeavor society. They are popular in this city, and have a host of friends who wish them a long and happy married life. The bride received numerous presents in silver, cut-glass and linen. Mr. and Mrs. Orlinton have taken apartments at the home of the bride's parents, and will at once go to housekeeping. The guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Price, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Orlinton, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. McBride, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Bishop, Miss Marian Bishop, Carl Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hayes Moore, Misses Etta and Ruth Moore, Miss Annae Varnholt and Miss Sarah Varnholt.

THE COUNTY DEBT.

Final Report of the Committee in Favor of a Compromise.

The committee appointed by the board of county commissioners to recommend a plan for the adjustment and reduction of the debt of this county, held its final meeting Wednesday at the office of the bureau of immigration. There were present Major R. J. Polen, chairman; Messrs. Bartlett, Frost, Muller, Seligman, Fiske and George W. Knaebel, secretary. A majority report concurred in by Messrs. Polen, Bartlett, Frost, Muller, L. A. Hughes, Arthur Seligman and G. W. Knaebel, recommending an adjustment on the basis of 25 per cent of principal and interest was adopted. A minority report submitted by Mr. Fiske, recommending an adjustment on a basis of 15 per cent was also ordered transmitted with the majority report to the county commissioners. The secretary was directed to prepare the proceedings for publication and for transmission to the board of county commissioners, which body, it is understood, will meet in the near future for the consideration of this matter. The committee then adjourned sine die.

Mrs. Pinkham's Advice Saved Mrs. Hayes From an Operation.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 64,251]
"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—Words cannot express my thanks to you for your kind advice to me in regard to my health. I had been running down in health for about seven years. I had doctored with good doctors and taken a great many patent medicines. My trouble began when my first child was born. I had a very hard time and after its birth would have severe flooding spells. "After my second child, I had very good health until last winter when I again became pregnant and suffered very much and miscarried. I came very near dying, and the doctor said I must have an operation, which frightened me very much, and concluded to write to you for your advice, and take your medicine. Was troubled with the whites, great pain in back and hips, sometimes when lying down or sitting was unable to get up. Would have such pain in groins could hardly walk. "I can say I have never seen anything so wonderful as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sensitive Wash. Your remedies have done wonders for me. Hoping that many of my suffering sisters may be led to take your medicine from reading this letter, I remain, sincerely yours, MRS. MARY HAYES, HARDINSBURG, KY."
Letters like the foregoing should convince everyone that Mrs. Pinkham's advice is certain help.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 1.

There are dozens of people in this country who have joined in the sport of trying to catch a grasshopper. Why not send them to catch Aguinaldo?

In the Ohio election 5,000 more votes were cast for candidates for governor than for state officers. This showed that many Ohio men did not do their duty all along the line.

The silver Republican committee gives it out in advance that it will endorse the next national Democratic nominees, Goebel and Aguinaldo, will do likewise. The Populists may also, if they wake up in the next year.

It may be a surprise to those who think of Tucson only as a railway town, with only stock, lumber and mines in the outlying country as resources, to know that a flour mill is about to be built there to mill the wheat grown on the Raton mesa. But New Mexico will furnish many industrial surprises in the future.

The Democratic leaders disapprove of "government by injunction," but they may wish to avail themselves of that method to prevent the skeleton of the silver Republican organization holding a convention at the same time and place as the Democratic national gathering. Colorado Democracy shook the free silver Republicans and declined to consubstantiate with them in the recent campaign.

In Havana the British consul took care to protect American citizens in the enforced absence of the American consul general during the late war. In Proctoria the American consul is under orders to return the courtesy and distribute the money sent from England to support the sick and needy British non-combatants. President Kruger objects to this course, and the Dutch act so meanly about it that the consul has asked to be permitted to leave. The United States government has declined to grant the request, and will not permit Consul Macrum to leave, unless Kruger forbids him to do the customary acts of kindness.

Tired of Financial Fustian Quacks.

The Denver Times says that since Colorado people have for six years set themselves up as financial doctors of the nation the financial affairs of the state have got into a very sick condition. The paper says:

"During all these years in which we have been trying to reform the finances of the world, our own have been going from bad to worse. From the time Colorado voted for Weaver in 1892 to the present time we have been electing governors, legislators, sheriffs and constables for the sole purpose of impressing our own financial policy on the country. The progress we have made is not very flattering.

"Officers of the state institutions are going about the streets begging money with which to keep their places open. County warrants are being registered because of a lack of money to pay them. The city is struggling along under a load of debt, shifting what little money it gets into the treasury from one fund to another, and not one man, from governor to alderman, advancing a single idea worthy of a second thought for the betterment of our financial condition. All they seem able to do is to evade and postpone. They are simply laying up wrath for a day to come."

The paper then adds: "The Times would like to suggest that the best way out of the trouble in which the state finds itself would be to change doctors. We have tried these quacks about long enough. Let us go back to one of the physicians of the regular school for awhile. Elected officers who can handle our own financial problems successfully before we go any farther toward running the monetary affairs of the world."

How the War Goes.

The Transvaal has no sea-coast and no navy, but the British navy is doing deadly service against Oom Paul's army by shelling Boer trenches, having dismantled long-range guns and taken them to the interior. But the navy is losing many of its officers in this land fighting, for the Boer riflemen are good marksmen, and the gunners are their especial mark. The Boers make it a point to select good positions, and do the most of their fighting with rifles in the hands of sharpshooters. It is not their policy to rush upon the British, and when the latter crowd them they retreat only after killing many of the enemy. Rash pursuing parties are apt to fall into traps arranged for them by the Boers. The reports sent out after the battles to the effect that the Boers retreated in a panic are generally followed by evidences that they left their positions deliberately, if without military order, in which they do not excel, but soon got together again and were ready for another battle. So far it is not established that the Boers have had any severe losses, despite rumors immediately following engagements. That the British have lost more men in a few weeks than the entire number killed by Spanish and Filipinos in the wars with United States troops is admitted. While the Boer army may be considered as having attained its maximum strength, the British can continue to replenish their forces almost indefinitely, but if there be not some reason for discontinuing the war besides the attitude of the Boers it may drag along for many months before the British will be able to subdue the spirit of the Transvaal. The Transvaal exports the war to continue for six months, and that Great Britain will then be willing to give up the undertaking as she did in the war to subdue the American colonies. The Boers will take good care not to risk the destruction of their army in any one engagement, and so long as the residents are able to meet the enemy in detachments, upon ground chosen by themselves, the British will be unable to end the contest victoriously.

Harry's Button Business.

Former Chairman Harry, of the national Democratic committee, has organized a sort of button trust to accept it for campaign use. On the face of the button is a declaration against trusts and imperialism, but no indorsement of free silver. But perhaps it will be made in pocket form, with free silver inscribed inside, so that they who wish may still carry their hobby next their heart, though other sentiments may be exhibited to the shy gold Democrats, who would not march with free silver men did the latter exhibit their motto on the surface. The declaration against imperialism is rank demagoguery, because no one favors any such policy, and the fuss over this topic is intended only to make unthinking people believe the Republican party is desirous of materially changing the form of government. They who talk about imperialism are really the opponents of national expansion, but as there are strong men in the south who indorse extension of United States territory, the anti-expansionists conceal their antagonism to that policy by denouncing militarism, because without an army it is not so easy to carry out the plans of the government to restore order and establish a civil government later on in the islands when the people thereof are ready to have civil control instead of the military government to which they have been accustomed. As to trusts, such as need restraint and those which are unlawful, Republican and Democratic citizens are alike in opposition to them and in demanding of parties that resist it be put upon them. Both parties are desirous of pleasing the public in this respect. Certainly where there are trusts, rich Democrats as well as Republicans are members and beneficiaries. The campaign device of Button Harry can just as appropriately be worn by a conscientious Republican as it can by a follower of Colonel Bryan, so that it has no political significance whatever. It will be very strange if there is not a Bryan button with "16 to 1" blazoned upon it before the campaign is over, but this will be intended for circulation only in certain localities where gold Democrats are not numerous; for instance, in Maryland, where the party leaders never mention free silver in their platform and speeches.

Coming Back to First Principles.

Idaho silver Republicans are not ashamed to admit that as the conditions which caused them to break away from their allegiance to the Republican party and seek a remedy for depression no longer exist, the time has come for them to support the organization under whose management all things are well with the nation, rather than for contrariness to go finally into the camp of the Democracy, for whom they have been quasi allies for several years. M. Patrie, secretary of state for Idaho, one of the Republicans who seceded because of dissatisfaction with the St. Louis platform and voted for Colonel Bryan, says that the time has arrived to return to the party to which he belonged prior to the silver break.

G. M. Parsons, ex-attorney general of Idaho, who went astray as a follower of the silver champion, acknowledges that there is no reason for dissatisfaction now. "The conditions which caused us to leave the Republican party," says he, "no longer exist. Prosperity is strongly in evidence now throughout the nation. The cry of free silver has lost its force and power to rally men under strange political banners."

These men were counted as heroes by the Democratic party for adhering to the course dictated by their judgment in 1896. If they were entitled to credit for sincerity then in believing the country needed legislation in favor of silver, they are entitled to just as much credit when they conclude that such measures are not now needed. They live in the silver country, where local benefits were to be expected from the advancement of silver interests, and would be inclined to still demand legislation did they consider that their section would be ruined by not securing such action from the government. The Salt Lake Tribune, the ablest free silver paper in the west, and published in the great silver district of Utah and the center of the silver country, has announced that the best thing the free silver Republicans can do is to return to the old party, as fusion has in every instance been a failure and disastrous to public interests in states and cities.

Senator Teller, of Colorado, still holds out that he was right in leaving the party, but in the late Colorado election the Republicans elected more officers in the various counties than did the Democrats, and the silver Republicans scarcely secured a standing by results although for several years past the Republicans had in most cases no party organization nor candidates, so complete was the demoralization of the forces which free silver coinage was thought to be necessary for the prosperity of Colorado.

In New Mexico, although the people have no vote in the election of a national executive, yet the lines were pretty sharply drawn at one time, and the sentiment of the people was undoubtedly in favor of free silver because of local interests, and because the same idea as that in Colorado prevailed in the territory. Grant county, the banner silver district, then gave an immense majority for a Democratic delegate, but when the last election occurred the people of the territory had already become convinced that the Republican party was bringing prosperity to the whole country, regardless of silver legislation, and they gave a Republican majority as great for a candidate nominated on a gold standard as had previously been given to the Democracy and a free silver advocate. Even the silver stronghold of the territory reduced its recorded opposition to a gold nominee by one-half. New Mexico led the march in coming back into the Republican line. This silver states, headed by South Dakota, are following in good order. The indications are that next year no state west of the Mississippi river, with the exception of the Democratic quarter, Louisiana, Missouri, Arkansas and Texas, will give a majority to the Democratic nominee for president, although Nebraska, as a matter of state pride and for expected advantages, may support Colonel Bryan. Colorado may be considered doubtful, but should the silver issue be made secondary, or anybody other than Bryan be the nominee, the Republicans will carry this pair of states.

PRESS COMMENT.

ANTI-EXPANSION IN THE SOUTH.

(Washington Times.) The steady bombardment of anti-expansion rhetoric that has been hurled upon the south has up to this time apparently failed to cause southern self-indulgence to capitulate. Expansion and the prospect of markets in the orient are realities which seem to have opposed an insurmountable barrier to the success of the contractionist arguments, by means of which the southern states were to have been brought to fight for politics against their own well-being. In addition to the many senators in these states who have declared themselves for expansion, several others have of late shown decided leanings in that direction. Among these may be mentioned Daniel and Martin, of Virginia; both senators from Texas; Mallory of Florida and Pettus of Alabama. The signs of present and future prosperity have become so marked that even the most unthinking cannot much longer fail to believe in them, and each day it becomes more apparent that the whole south is awakening to the necessity for action in a direction which shall enable it to profit by the advantages that are being opened to it.

CONSUL MACRUM'S ADDED OFFICE.

(Pittsburg News.) It will be recalled that when United States Consul Fitzhugh Lee was recalled from Havana just before the outbreak of the war with Spain, the interests of the American citizens in Havana were turned over to the British representative there and were guarded with jealous care until General Lee returned to that city as the representative of the conquerors. What England did in Havana the United States will do in the Transvaal, whether it is pleasing or displeasing to the Boers. In discharging this plain duty complications may arise, but the possibility of a misunderstanding between President Kruger's government and the authorities at Washington is more or less remote.

KRUGER MUST GO ON RECORD.

(Washington Times.) In notwithstanding the protest of the American government, our consul is prevented from fulfilling the humane mission imposed upon him—a mission to which no civilized power ever objects—then Mr. Macrum's presence at Pretoria will be no longer useful, and he, as well as our other consular officers in the Transvaal, may as well be withdrawn. In the nature of things we are hardly in a position directly to punish any insolence from Pretoria, but we can at least furnish Kruger, if he wants it, with the opportunity to place himself and his government on record as desiring to be regarded as outlaws.

TIERRA AMARILLA

The Two Weeks of District Court Ends in a Number of Convictions.

THE GRAND JURY REPORT

Gamblers Who Delayed in Securing License Are Indicted—The Sunday Law Is Enforced and the People Are Pleased with the Court.

In the second week of court in Rio Arriba county Robert Baylor Bledsoe was given permission to change his name to Robert Baylor Bland. The murder case of Jose Lopez was continued until the next term. Decedero Sandoval was convicted of murder in the third degree, with a recommendation for clemency. Antonio Manzanares was acquitted of the charge of murder. Juan Sanchez pleaded guilty to a charge of burglary and was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. Jose Yollo Romero, obtaining money by false pretenses, pleaded guilty, two years. Other matters of a minor character were disposed of, and several cases remained to be settled with a recommendation for clemency. The charge against David Hersh for the alleged theft of $10 from the store of T. D. Burns while clerking there; also the rape case of Nicolas Gallegos. The grand jury found indictments as follows, some of the parties being indicted upon a number of charges of the same character: Violating gambling or liquor laws, Jose M. Archuleta, Antonio Guadalupe, Miguel Chavez, Santiago Candelario, W. H. McDaniel, Charles Webb, Antonio B. Blanco, A. L. Spiale, Fredrico Ortiz, William Kinderman, Leroy of cattle, Jose Plomono Valdez Arson, Jose D. Manzanares, Burglary, Savino Archuleta, Juan Sanchez. Obtaining money under false pretenses, Salvador Carrillo, Jose Yollo Romero, Assault to murder, Meliton Trujillo, Lareweny, David Hersh, Murder, Manuel Martinez and Nuan Gallegos. All these parties have been arrested except Trujillo.

The grand jury made the following report: To the Hon. John R. McFie, associate justice and judge of the district court in and for the county of Rio Arriba, in the said territory of New Mexico: We, the grand jury, duly empaneled, sworn and charged at the November term, 1899, of the said district court, beg leave to present ourselves before your honor for final discharge, and to report: We have been in session during the eleven days of the present term of court, and have held our sessions every morning and afternoon, and frequently in the evenings, endeavoring by every means to get through the immense amount of work before us in as short a time as possible. In order to save all the money possible in the funds of the county of Rio Arriba. Owing to the fact that no term of court has been held in this county for two years, there was a large amount of business before us, brought to our attention by the district attorney, and remanded to us by justices of the peace, and reported to us by members of our body. We have, during our sittings, examined forty-nine witnesses, and have reported to your honor in open court thirty-nine true bills. Mindful of your honor's instructions, we have paid no attention to petty matters, or to small neighborhood quarrels. We have undertaken to discriminate and select the crimes that most menace the peace and good order of our county, and those the punishment of which is most necessary for the protection of life and property in the county. We respectfully submit our work in this behalf, as showing the sincerity and earnestness of our labors throughout our session. We have taken up the matter of the unpaid licenses in this county, both for gaming and the selling of liquor, and finding that the school funds of this county are in great need of this license money, and that the parties who should pay these licenses neglect and refuse to pay them until the terms of court are at hand, and that they seek to protect themselves by paying in the money, we have considered it best to give them to understand that such a course is no protection against prosecution, and that the licenses must be paid when due, promptly, and before carrying on any of the said occupations for which license is required.

We beg to report to your honor that since the announcement by you that the Sunday observance law would be enforced in this and other counties of this district, there have been no violations thereof, and the entire people of this county rejoice at the fact that this law is now revived and enforced, giving them a day of rest, and preventing the association of the Sabbath day. On behalf of the people of the county we thank the court and the officers of the law for the enforcement of this beneficial law.

In the investigation of violations of the criminal code of this territory in our county, we beg to find and to report to your honor that the large amount of business done by us is due to the fact that so long a time has elapsed since a term of court was had here, and that the same is not due to lawlessness in general among our people. We believe a spirit of law and order is apparent all over this county; and that the time has come when the courts and juries of Rio Arriba county will speedily and sufficiently punish such crime as may occur within our borders. We call attention of your honor and of the general public to the present term of court here as a striking illustration of this sentiment which now prevails.

We have investigated the books of our county officers, and find the same to be neatly kept and apparently in proper shape and condition. Our officers are courteous and obliging, and seem to attend to their duties in excellent manner. A subcommittee appointed by us to examine the court house and jail reports to us that the court house is in bad condition; that in some of the rooms glass is wanting in the windows, and that there are serious defects in the roof, which should receive attention. The jail we find to be in excellent condition, very clean and very safe, and we have asked the prisoners how they are treated, and they answer that they are treated well.

A subcommittee appointed by us to examine into our financial condition reports that the total indebtedness of the county is $51,902.60, composed of the following amounts, viz: Funded indebtedness.....$45,749.00 Approved accounts outstanding.....5,015.80 Warrants outstanding.....1,137.80

The total assessed valuation of property for taxation in this county is as follows: Real property.....$456,664.00 Personal property.....596,515.00

1,053,179.00 In conclusion, we beg to thank your honor for your upright and fair administration of justice in this county at the present term of court, and to congratulate our district attorney, Mr. R. C. Gortner, for what he has accomplished on behalf of the prosecution of crime; we also thank you, the clerk of the court, Mr. Bergere, and the district attorney, Mr. Gortner, for their many courtesies and attentions to us during our labors.

And having now concluded our business, we beg most respectfully to be discharged by your honor.

JOSE A. VELASQUEZ, Foreman of Grand Jury.

THANKSGIVING DAY

The Occasion of National Thanks- giving Fittingly Celebrated by People of Santa Fe.

PENITENTIARY CELEBRATION

Services in the Cathedral and Other Sanctuaries—Even the Indians Entered Into the Spirit of the National Holiday.

The people of Santa Fe celebrated Thanksgiving day this year very appropriately and in a general manner.
The celebration commenced Wednesday afternoon, when in the public schools patriotic exercises were held which were a credit to the advancement being made by the city's schools, and taught 600 children and many of their friends that Thanksgiving day had a deeper significance than eating turkey or a day's justification.

Wednesday evening an entertainment of literary and musical merit was held at the government Indian school. The young Indians entered into the spirit of the occasion, and their exercises proved very interesting.

Yesterday morning the first church celebration was in the cathedral, where a song mass was held. The large edifice was filled with a devout and attentive audience. The older pupils of the Loretto academy sang the mass with great power and sweetness. Miss Nona Murphy, who possesses a splendid voice, rendered the leading soprano parts.
Archbishop Bourgade preached a touching Thanksgiving sermon, in which he referred to the great and tender mercies of God, prayed for the restoration of peace and the protection of the American men on foreign shores, and solace for those who have been bereaved of dear ones.

The Presbyterian church was crowded yesterday forenoon by a representative audience which went to attend the union Thanksgiving services of the Presbyterians and Methodists of the city. Rev. W. Hayes Moore led the service. Territorial Secretary Wallace read the president's Thanksgiving address very impressively. The choir sang several anthems, and Mrs. Hyde sang a solo very beautifully. Rev. A. A. Hyde, pastor of the Methodist church, presented a powerful Thanksgiving sermon. He recounted the blessings, mercies and forbearance that God bestows upon the world. He gave thanks because President McKinley is a God-fearing man and a Christian; because the causes of education and church work are advancing with wonderful strides, for while at the beginning of the republic only one in every seventeen people in this country was a church member, to-day more than one in three has signed his name to a church register. The collection at the services was donated to the Woman's Board of Trade.

In the church of the Holy Faith appropriate services were also held, and the choir rendered a well-prepared anthem.

The most touching Thanksgiving celebration, however, was held at the territorial penitentiary yesterday afternoon. Strong men and bad men were moved to tears by it and rose up to testify in eloquent words to God's mercies. The governor's Thanksgiving pardon to Francisco Villegas was read by Secretary Martin in English and in Spanish, and was greeted with overwhelming applause. The convicts rushed to where Villegas sat and hugged and kissed him or shook hands with him to congratulate him. The old man, who bears the marks of suffering in his face and has bright and intelligent features, was overcome, and seemed as happy as a child. He stammered a few words of praise to God, to the governor and to the officials and friends who secured his release. Secretary Martin made a telling address in Spanish, and Rev. W. H. Moore preached eloquently in English. A program of music and literary exercises was rendered by the convicts, which showed that there are men of eloquence, of talent, of refinement, behind the prison bars, even if they have broken the law. One notable feature was the praise that the convicts bestowed upon the present management, its firm discipline and yet just and kind treatment.

Last evening the firemen gave a successful ball in Gray's opera house. In the afternoon the regimental band rendered its usual Thursday afternoon concert in the plaza.

Wednesday afternoon the Woman's Board of Trade held a successful Thanksgiving sale that netted a neat sum for the worthy work which the board is doing. Yesterday noon a big Thanksgiving dinner was spread for the 350 Indian children at the government Indian school. The teachers and other employees of the school waited on the children, and the scene was a memorable one—a scene that should have been portrayed by some skillful master of the brush.

A general holiday air was noticeable throughout the city. Most of the stores were closed, and there were sounds of festivity all around. In many homes family reunions were held, and the festive turkey graced the board of the households. All together, it was a memorable Thanksgiving day, a reflection of

Cuticura SOAP
For Sanative Uses.

Its remarkable, emollient, cleansing, and purifying properties, derived from CUTICURA, the great skin cure, warrant the use of CUTICURA SOAP. In the form of baths for annoying irritations, inflammations, and chafing, for too free or offensive perspiration, and also in the form of internal washes and solutions for ulcerative weaknesses, and for many sensitive, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, and especially to mothers. The use of CUTICURA Ointment with CUTICURA SOAP will suggest itself in the severer cases.

the general prosperity and good-will reigning throughout the whole nation.

At St. Vincent's orphanage a pleasing Thanksgiving entertainment was presented last evening by the inmates to a select audience. An interesting program of exercises was rendered very creditably by the young folks. The following was the program: Thanksgiving Bells, "Holy God We Praise Thy Name," Thanksgiving at Grandma's, Fairly Wedding Waltz, Grandma's,
"Rock Me to Sleep, Mother," Sieghride Gallop, Sailor's Glee, Mother Goose Reception, Ball Tossing Chinaman, "Home, Sweet Home."

Nine jail inmates were given a turkey dinner yesterday which they greatly enjoyed. The menu consisted of a 22-pound turkey, cranberry sauce, fruit cake and mince pie.

The local lodge of Knights of Pythias enjoyed a Thanksgiving banquet in their hall Wednesday evening. Covers were laid for fifty, and a fine feast was served. Addresses were made by members, and the evening hours glided away swiftly in social intercourse and merril-ment.

Mrs. Jeremiah Quinn entertained four old veterans yesterday with a royal old-style Pennsylvania dinner. Upon comparing notes it was found that the aggregate term of service of these four veterans under Uncle Sam's flag was 77 years.

"THE LOSS OF GOLD IS GREAT:
The loss of health is more." Health is lost by neglecting to keep the blood pure, but it is regained by purifying, enriching and vitalizing the blood with the great health restorer, Hood's Sarhealth had been permanently lost have been made perfectly well by taking this great medicine. Your experience may be the same.

Death of Ex-Senator Tipton.

Hon. Thomas W. Tipton, father of W.
M. Tipton, special agent to the court of private land claims of the department of justice, died Wednesday afternoon at Washington, D. C. Mr. Tipton served in the United States senate, from Nebraska in 1868 but since his retirement from politics has lived in Washington.
His son, W. M. Tipton, with his wife, is at Tucson, Arizona, at present attending the court of private land claims.

Cartwright Mines Bonded.

A. A. Newberry and O. B. Steen went to Cerrillos this forenoon to begin work on the Cartwright group of lead and silver mines near Cerrillos. They are the property of H. B. Cartwright, of this city, and have been bonded to Messrs.
Newberry and Steen for one year. Some development work has been done on the group, and the ore is rich in lead and silver. A force of men will be put on the mines at once, and ore be shipped soon.

Located Land for the Territory.

D. M. White, locating agent of the land commission, left for Las Cruces this afternoon to enter 100,000 acres of land for educational institutions of the territory. Thus far almost a quarter of a million acres of land has been located and entered by the commission, which is doing well, considering the brief time it has been actively at work.

MINOR CITY TOPICS.

The band from the government Indian school will play in the plaza tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock as a compliment to the Woman's board of trade.

company in this city this week received a fine black horse from Denver for its delivery team.

Albino Medrano, who was arrested at Cerrillos by Sheriff H. C. Kinsell for beating his wife, refused to give a peace bond and was lodged in the county jail.
Pablo Martinez, of Cerrillos, was arrested yesterday by Deputy Sheriff R.
C. Huber to serve a term of 90 days in the county jail for assault. The crime was committed some time ago, but Martinez managed to evade the officers until now.

The household of Celso Lopez was cal fire department arrived yesterday.

The outfit is a complete and valuable one, and consists of three Pompiere ladders, one truss ladder, hatchets, ropes and belts.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Comments As to the Commendable Interest Shown by Citizens.

A visitor who witnessed the Thanksgiving exercises at the public schools writes the New Mexican as follows: At the kindergarten room it was a great pleasure to see how enthusiastically and earnestly the little folks went through with their exercises. If all parents knew the work done in this department, they would certainly want their little ones to receive the training given here. There were some sixty visitors at this school.

At the department near the high school, although the room was full of pupils, there were twenty-five visitors crowded in to witness the little songs and speeches which had been prepared for the occasion. This room is certainly overcrowded with pupils.

At the second ward school everything was moving in splendid order. Among the seventy-five visitors at this school was noticed Mr. Hogle, a member of the school board, who seemed to enjoy the exercises very much.

At the first ward it was a pleasure to note the orderly manner in which the exercises were being carried on, and to notice how plainly and distinctly the native pupils spoke English, and how well they expressed the sense. Here was Mr. Senn, another member of the board of education, who seemed to take much interest in the exercises and to be well pleased with the work being done in his ward. There were about twenty-five visitors, who were well entertained during the exercises.

At the sisters' school in the fourth ward the arrangement was well planned, the pupils being seated in one room and the visitors in the adjoining room, so the pupils made no interruption in taking their places before the large company of visitors who had assembled to witness the exercises. Here was noted the clear enunciation of the native children, who spoke in English. Among the 103 visitors here was General Bartlett, who seemed with the others to greatly enjoy the exercises, which went off like clockwork.

At the high school room the exercises continued later than at the other schools. From the large number of visitors and the comments heard at the close the exercises certainly were most excellent. It was remarked by several that they were surprised to see how well the pupils sang, as they had practiced the music only a short time. Superintendent Viets, of the Indian school, being present, made a few remarks at the close of the exercises, in which he stated that he had had much experience as a teacher in various parts of the United States, and had always made it a point to investigate the efficiency of the schools wherever he was, and he was glad to be able to say that in all his observations he had never seen so great improvement in schools anywhere in so short a time as he had seen in the public schools of Santa Fe. One of the parents stated that he had observed that much was being taught which was not found in the text-books. One thing was the improvement of the pupils in conduct at public meetings and other public places.

There were some sixty-five or seventy visitors at the high school room, making in all over 350 visitors who witnessed the exercises in the various wards.

Superintendent Wood stated that when he first came to Santa Fe last June many people told him that he would have a hard time, as the people took so little interest in the public schools, but he had never been in a city before where so much interest had been manifested by so many people, and where he had so many visit the schools to hear the Thanksgiving exercises of the pupils. He added that he saw no good reasons why Santa Fe should not have the best schools in New Mexico, or anywhere in the west.

PERSONAL MENTION.

J. E. Wood, manager of the Postal Telegraph company, made a trip to Lamy last evening.

Mrs. T. J. Helm left last evening for San Francisco to spend the winter. Mr.
Helm accompanied her to Lamy.

Hon. H. O. Bursum returned yesterday from a trip to Hanover and other mining camps in that vicinity.

D. F. Michael, proprietor of the Claire hotel, was at Albuquerque on Thanksgiving day. He is expected home tonight.

C. W. Goodman, superintendent of the government Indian school at Chilocco, Okla., arrived in this city last night, and is the guest of Superintendent Viets at the Indian school near this city. Mr.
Goodman will visit different pueblos in this territory to secure pupils for his school in Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Steven B. Weeks and three children arrived last night from Washington and took up their residence at the government Indian school. Mr.
Weeks, who has been employed in the bureau of education at Washington, will be principal and have charge of the normal department at the government Indian school near this city.

W. H. H. Woodward, clerk at the Indian agency, and J. M. Collins, Indian teacher at Tesque, enjoyed a trip to Lamy yesterday.

Hon. T. B. Catron returned home last evening from Tierra Amarilla, where he attended court.

A. Mennet, traveling for Browne & Mansaneros Co., of Las Vegas, called on local merchants to-day.

John H. Sargent, merchant at El Rito and collector and treasurer of Rio Ar-riba county, arrived in the capital last night.

J. H. Christ, superintendent of the coal mines at Monero, spent Thanksgiving day in the capital.

Penitentiary Surplus Fund Large.

To-morrow ends the fiscal year as far as the territorial treasurer's and auditor's offices are concerned. Treasurer Vaughn stated this afternoon that there is a balance of $8,600 in the penitentiary expense fund. Yet, despite this large balance, $15,000 was expended in improvements at the penitentiary during the year. This speaks volumes for the efficient management of the institution by Superintendent H. O. Bursum and his officials.
