A BRILLIANT CHARGE

Anglo-American Troops Stormed a Battery at Tien Tsin Against Great Odds.

CONTRADICTORY REPORTS

One Rumor Has It That All the Foreigners at Peking Were Massacred on July 12, But the Chinese Authorities Report Them Safe.

New York, July 23.—A dispatch to the Journal-Advertiser from Che Foo, July 20, says: A brilliant dash against the large force of Chinese at Tien Tsin was made this morning by a detachment of American troops assisted by some English fusiliers. The object was to capture a battery of large caliber cannon which has been doing great damage. The Anglo-American troops charged across an open space, dashed into the fort, and after engaging the Chinese in a hand-to-hand fight put them to flight. Eight large modern guns were captured, together with carts and all accessories. The battery was immediately turned upon the fleeing enemy, who, under a well directed fire, suffered heavily. The victory was won in an incredibly short time against an overwhelmingly superior force. Neither Americans nor British lost a single man. The Chinese army is retreating toward Peking.

TAKE YOUR CHOICE.

New York, July 23.—A dispatch to the Herald from Che Foo, July 21, says that the captain of a British steamer, who just arrived from New Chung, reports that there arrived there on Thursday a Chinaman professing to be a foreigner's servant, who escaped from Peking on July 12, on which day the British legation was destroyed and the foreigners butchered. The story is credited at New Chung.

Another telegram came from the governor of Shan Tung, Yuan Shi Kai, last night, saying: "I received definite information from Peking that all the ministers are well, and there is no illness among them. The proper Chinese authorities are devising means for their rescue and protection."

MANY DOUBTERS.

Washington, July 23.—The state department received a number of dispatches from foreign governments relative to the Conger dispatch, and also from our officials in China, including Consul General Goodnow. Without exception they discredit the accuracy of the dispatch, and advance various theories to show its lack of genuineness. The entire burden of the answers indicates a disposition not to move the relief expedition on the evidence furnished by the Conger dispatch. Notwithstanding these messages Secretary Hay personally continues to credit the Conger dispatch, although he says there is a possibility of deception.

BATTLES AT WEI-HAI-WEI.

St. Petersburg, July 23.—Two encounters are reported to have taken place between the British and the Chinese forces near Wei-Hai-Wei. The latter, it was reported, were repulsed after a stubborn encounter. No dates are given.

CHINESE ON RUSSIAN TERRITORY.

M. Krutskii, engineer of the eastern Chinese railway, telegraphs from Aligatchi, in trans-Baikal territory, under date of July 20, that Chailar has been occupied by Chinese troops. The Russians continued to concentrate at Chailar.

GERMANS LEAVE TIEN TSIN.

Berlin, July 23.—A dispatch from Taku, dated July 20, says that the German force at Tien Tsin has been reduced to 300 men.

DIRECT TO CHINA.

Washington, July 23.—The war department is considering the advisability of sending the Hancock, which sails from San Francisco on July 23 with four batteries of artillery and 500 marines, direct to Taku instead of to Nagasaki. These troops were to have gone on the Meade, which sails on August 1, but it has been decided that, owing to the urgent necessity of getting reinforcements to China, to have the Hancock make a special trip.

FROM CUBA TO CHINA.

New York, July 23.—The United States army transport Crook, having on board a detachment of the 8th United States Infantry from Havana, arrived here this morning. They will proceed probably to Fort Snelling, where the regiment will be recruited to full strength for service in China.

REPORTS DO NOT AGREE.

Washington, July 23.—The state department received a dispatch from Mr. Goodnow, consul general at Shanghai, dated to-day, saying that Prince Tuan wires that an officer of the Tzuang Li Yamen saw all the ministers on the 18th; that none are injured, and that no attack was at that time being made. He does not say to whom the dispatch of Prince Tuan was addressed. It is to a certain extent at variance with the dispatch of Conger of that date describing the legations as being under fire at that time.

A CHINESE EDICT.

Washington, July 23.—The state department makes public the following text of an edict delivered to-day by Minister Wu to Secretary Hay: "The Imperial edict issued on the first day of the sixth moon (July 17), transmitted by Viceroy Liu Kun Yih on the 20th of July, and received by Minister Wu on the 21st day of July: The present conflict between China and the foreign powers had its origin in the long-standing antagonism between the people and the Christian missions. The subsequent fall of the Taku forts precipitated the meeting of force with force. The imperial government having due regard to the importance of international intercourse, will refrain to go so far as to interrupt existing relations. We have already repeatedly issued decrees providing protection to the foreign legations, and also commanded the provincial authorities to protect the missionaries. Inasmuch as there is still no cessation of the employment of force, the foreign merchants and subjects residing in China, who form a numerous body in the country, should be protected without distinction. We hereby command all Tartar generals, governors general and governors of provinces to look after the foreign merchants and missionaries living in open ports, prefectures, departments and districts under their respective jurisdiction, and to afford them due protection in accordance with the treaty stipulations, without fail.

MURDERERS TO BE PUNISHED.

"Last month we heard with profound astonishment and regret of the killing of the chancellor of the Japanese legation, Mr. Akira, and the same fate befell the German minister shortly afterwards. The violent removal of the German minister, whose residence in the capital was necessary to the transaction of business between the two countries, affected us very deeply. It is the duty of the authorities concerned to cause stringent orders for the speedy arrest and punishment of the murderers to be carried out.

FOREIGN CLAIMS.

"Since the commencement of the attack on Tien Tsin, there are foreign subjects and missionaries who have, on account of local disturbances, suffered death or loss of property through no fault of their own. We hereby command the governor of Peking and the viceroy of Chi Li to cause investigations to be made by their respective subordinates of all such claims except those arising directly from the said attack, with a view of their ultimate settlement.

RESTORATION OF PEACE.

"Moreover, the local outlaws and rebellious subjects have of late given themselves up to burning, killing and plundering to the great disquiet of our loyal subjects. This is in utter defiance of law. We hereby command all governors general, governors and commanders of our forces to investigate the situation and to take such measures for the punishment of offenders and the restoration of order as the necessities of the case demand. We hereby command this, our general edict, to be made known for the information of all whom it may concern. Respect this."

CHINESE EVASION.

This makes plain that the Chinese government will settle all claims for actual losses, but has formally decreed exception to the claims arising directly from the attack on Tien Tsin, which indicates that the Chinese government holds that the attack was unwarranted.

MISTAKES IN NAMES.

Washington, July 23.—The officials of the state department, after considering Consul General Goodnow's dispatch, express a belief that a mistake has been made in the transmission of the message, and that the name Tuan should have been Yuan, governor of the province of Shan Tung.

A BRITISH QUERY.

London, July 23.—In the house of commons to-day the parliamentary secretary of the foreign office, William St. John Broderick, communicated certain statements of the Chinese authorities with regard to the safety of the legations at Peking, and said that he Chinese minister declared them unharmed. Broderick read the text of several edicts of July 18, and commented on Minister Conger's dispatch. Broderick said that although the dispatch was of the same date as the edict of the assurance of safety, yet the latter was not borne out by Conger. Consul Warren had telegraphed to the governor of Shan Tung to know how the message from Peking reached him in two days, and why there was no message from their foreign minister, Sir Claude MacDonald.

NO TELEGRAPHIC COMMUNICATION.

London, July 23.—The governor had replied to the United States minister's message that was sent by the Tzuang Li Yamen by messenger, traveling 60 leagues (roughly 300 miles) a day. "I assure you," the governor of Shan Tung had added, "that there is no telegraphic communication. I cannot explain why MacDonald has not telegraphed, but I beg you not to be anxious about the ministers, for they and others are all living and unharmed. Of this I have already several messages."

Broderick continued: "Seeing that over a month elapsed since any communication reached the government from the British legation, and that the Tzuang Li Yamen is communicating by messenger with various Chinese authorities, her majesty's government feels that they cannot give credence to any statement or any decrees attributed to the emperor or the Chinese government until they are fortified by letters signed and dated by Sir Claude MacDonald or other British officials, or by some cablegram in our cipher."

PERSECUTING CHINESE.

Obeyenne, Wyo., Fanatics Imitate the Tactics of the Boxers. Cheyenne, Wyo., July 23.—A number of outrages have been committed by foreigners upon the Chinese residents of Rockspings, a coal mining town 300 miles west of here, during the past few days. The state authorities, fearing a general movement against Chinatown, where more than 500 Chinamen reside, ordered several companies of troops in readiness to move to the scene.

STFAMER COLLISION

The Campania in a Dense Fog Cuts a Merchant Vessel in Two.

SEVEN SAILORS DROWNED

The Merchant Vessel Was a Liverpool Bark Bound for New Zealand and Sank Immediately—The Campania Was Somewhat Damaged.

London, July 23.—In a fog in the Irish channel the Cunard line steamer Campania, en route from New York for Liverpool, struck the Liverpool bark Embledon, bound for New Zealand, amidships, cutting her in two. The Embledon sank immediately. Seven of the crew were rescued, but it is believed that the other eleven, including the captain, were drowned. The Campania had her bows stove in, but arrived safely at Liverpool.

THE POWERS' TRIAL.

Some Damaging But Improbable Testimony Against Youtsey.

Georgetown, Ky., July 23.—In the Powers trial to-day Lieutenant John Ricketts, officer of the Barboursville militia, of which John Powers was captain, testified that he arrived at Frankfort on January 25 with a train load of mountaineers. Each morning from 300 to 600 mountain men occupied the yard in front of the legislative building. Youtsey, the day before the assassination, said that Goebel had to be put out of the way, and he (Youtsey) had $100 he would give for that purpose, and knew ten or twelve others who would also contribute to such a fund. Youtsey also said that Goebel could be killed from the executive building. The assassin could escape through the basement and never be detected. He said that his job depended on Goebel being killed. Fifteen minutes before the assassination Youtsey told the witness he wanted twenty-five or thirty men to accompany him to the executive building. The witness continued: "Youtsey put us inside the executive building near the stairs. He told us that something was going to happen, and we must remain there. When he started through the hall I left and went into a private residence across the street from the building. I had been there but a few minutes when I heard shots. I did not know any of the men whom I left at the foot of the stairs of the executive building."

When cross-examined the witness said that when Youtsey placed the men in the hall he told them as soon as "something happened" a man would come down the steps to go away with them.

Col. S. H. Spooner, special government attorney, is taking testimony in the case of Romulo Martinez vs. the United States, an Indian depredation claim for some $7,000. The account grows out of the loss of a caravan in the Panhandle of Texas in 1867. Mr. Martinez, his brother Teodoro, and a large party were on a buffalo hunting and trading expedition, having with them a large freighting outfit drawn by oxen and mules, and while in camp north of the Canadian river they were attacked by Arapahoe, Comanche and Kiowa Indians, who culled out four best mules and oxen and drove them off, hence this claim against the government.

MONDAY, JULY 31.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY.
For Vice President,
THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

We favor home rule for and early admission to statehood of the territories of New Mexico, Arizona and Oklahoma.—National Republican Platform.

The Stillwell railroad is not coming through New Mexico after all. It is to be built to Mexico by way of Presidio del Norte. Well, New Mexico has railroad projects to spare at present.

Chairman Jones now claims Minnesota's electoral vote for Bryan. While Minnesota's electoral vote could not elect Bryan to the presidency, yet the Republicans most emphatically dispute that Minnesota is in any way doubtful. In 1896 it gave President McKinley a popular plurality of over 50,000, and it never has given an electoral vote to a Democratic candidate for the presidency. Why it should do so this year the Democrats themselves will find hard to explain. Chairman Jones should claim states that have less than a normal Republican majority of 50,000.

The talk of taking revenge on the Chinese in the United States for the atrocities committed by the Boxers in China is a kind of anarchy that should be stopped before it takes any tangible form. The United States cannot allow itself to be disgraced by any fanatics who may develop a desire to get even with China by murdering the Celestials in this country. The present administration, as strong and vigorous as it is in protecting American rights in China, will not for a moment allow to go unpunished any ill-treatment that may be put upon the Chinese in this country on account of brutalities committed by their brethren in China.

The Denver Republican makes the startling announcement that 200 women in Denver make their living by larceny. Whether these facts were gathered from advance copies of the census bulletins or not is not stated, but as reliable a paper as the Republican would hardly make an assertion of that kind without having good grounds for it. Now, if New Mexico would admit having 200 female thieves at work within its confines the Washington Post, the Chicago Chronicle and others would find that a text for another sermon on the unfitness of New Mexico to be admitted to statehood.

Seventy-four per cent of the fruit shipped from California is controlled by the California Fruit Growers' Association. The grading, packing and selling are entirely under the control of the association. The fruit raisers deliver the fruit at a central point, where skilled workmen take charge of it. It is this that has given California fruit such a strong hold upon the eastern markets, and that enables California horticulturists to ship their product 3,000 miles at a profit. The association has agents in the large eastern cities, where a California label is regarded as a guarantee of the good quality of the fruit. Why not have a New Mexico fruit growers' association?

It's hot over in old England. For the first time in the history of parliament one of the front bench members, Herbert Gladstone, has appeared wearing a straw hat, to the amazement of the other members. The Times last Thursday contained an edict "that the tall hat and frock coat, which had hitherto been recognized as the costume for Sunday park, on the occasion of the Royal visit, may be dispensed with in favor of the straw hat and other costume more suited to tropical weather." As England is a good deal further north than the United States, the torrid wave is something extraordinary, and as England has no New Mexico, there is no escape from the torrid heat unless it be a trip to Iceland, and even there the mosquitoes are said to make life a burden.

The convicts at the Colorado penitentiary are compelled to live exclusively on vegetables on account of lack of funds to buy other food. New Mexico convicts are a good deal better off, for the finances of the territory under the present administration are so well managed that there are funds on hand to keep the territorial institutions in business. Under the present superintendent of the penitentiary affairs are so economically administered that the penitentiary appropriation is amply sufficient to run the institution, despite the fact that new machinery is being bought constantly and improvements are being added continually.

A Political Comedy.

The formal notification of candidates that they have been nominated to this or that office is a farce which ought to appeal to the humor of the American people. Imagine Col. W. J. Bryan going all the way to New York and there being unexpectedly confronted by a committee of Democratic leaders to be told that he had been nominated for the presidency. The colonel will blush like a school girl to be told that this "unexpected" honor had come to him. Then imagine him going back as far as Indianapolis, there to be waylaid by a committee of Populists, who will tell him in all seriousness that he had been nominated for the presidency at Sioux Falls several months ago by the Populist hordes. How surprised the genial Democratic candidate will feel, and how eloquent his oratory will be under the exhilarating effect of the unexpected honor having come to him! It is enough to make the whole nation laugh, and yet the day seems far off when the nonsense of the official notification of candidates several months after they are nominated is done away with.

The Tax Rate.

The White Oaks Eagle complains that the rate of taxation in Lincoln county, 3.52 cents on the dollar, is too high. Upon first sight the complaint seems justified, but when it is remembered that property in New Mexico is generally assessed at less than one-quarter or one-half of its true value, and that much property escapes taxation altogether, then the wonder is that Lincoln county can get along with a rate of 3.52 cents. New Mexico counties have much smaller expenses than have the majority of counties in eastern states, where most counties maintain a poor house or poor farm, a county court, expensive jails, build macadamized roads and keep schools open ten months instead of only three months a year. If assessors throughout the territory were to assess all property at one-half of its true value the tax rate in Lincoln county and in other counties would be only one-half of what it is at present. The assessors of New Mexico return the value of taxable property in New Mexico at $40,000,000, while in reality it couldn't be bought for five times as much. The Albuquerque Citizen, speaking upon the same subject, says:

"The recent action of the commissioners of Bernalillo county in paying creditors only 25 per cent of the amount of their claims and prorating all available funds among the officers and creditors of the county on that basis has created so much comment that the Citizens deem it not inappropriate to make some comments thereon, and also to take advantage of this occasion to say something of tax matters generally in this county and territory.

"Many residents of this city seem impressed with the idea that all taxes levied by the commissioners and collected by the treasurer of this county go into the pockets of the officers and to pay the comparatively few creditors of the county; and, taking this view of the matter, it is not surprising that so many people feel sure that the officers of the county are growing rapidly rich at the expense of the general public. When an investigation is made, and it is ascertained for what purposes taxes are levied by the commissioners, a very different case is presented.

"An inspection of the tax rolls of Bernalillo county by one familiar with the values of property in the city of Albuquerque, the town of Gallup, and throughout the county generally, will disclose the fact that property is generally assessed at from one-third to one-fifth, and sometimes as low as one-fifth to one-tenth of its actual value.

"Notwithstanding that the statutes of New Mexico require property to be returned for taxation at its actual cash value, and people who swear to a return, putting their property at less than its cash value, are guilty of perjury and subject themselves to all the punishments which might be inflicted for the commission of that crime, very few people return their property for more than one-third of its actual value. This desire on the part of our people to return their property at less than its value naturally results in increasing the rate of taxation. To realize the amount of money required, on a valuation of $5,000,000, would require a rate three times as high as would be necessary to raise the required amount on a valuation of $15,000,000. So that by swearing to a low valuation for the evident purpose of decreasing the amount of taxes they should pay, our citizens only accomplish one thing—the raising of the rate. As they all play at the same game, they gain no advantage one over the other, for the increase in the rate makes up for the corresponding diminution of the value they all place upon their property. The direct result of this system is seen in the hue and cry which is annually raised against the high rate of taxation in this city, which would not be heard if the people generally would return their property as by law provided, or place a fair valuation thereon, which would result in decreasing the rate in this city from 1 1/2 to 1/3 per cent, and in the precincts outside of the city to from 1/2 to 1 per cent.

"Another fact that should be borne in mind is that it is the interest paid on the already large debt of this city and county which at the present time so increases the rate of taxation. Bernalillo county pays interest on $347,500 in bonds, and the city of Albuquerque pays interest on about $150,000.

"Isn't the situation the same in almost every other county in the territory, and isn't it time that the remedy be applied by the boards of county commissioners and the territorial board of equalization?

SCROFULA The Blighting Disease of Heredity.

In many respects Scrofula and Consumption are alike; they develop from the same general causes, both are hereditary and dependent upon an impure and impoverished blood supply. In consumption the disease fastens itself upon the lungs; in Scrofula the glands of the neck and throat swell and suppurate, causing ugly running sores; the eyes are inflamed and weak; there is an almost constant discharge from the ears, the limbs swell, bones ache, and white swelling is frequently a result, causing the diseased bones to work out through the skin, producing indescribable pain and suffering. Cutting away a sore or diseased gland does no good; the blood is poisoned. The old scrofulous taint which has probably come down through several generations has polluted every drop of blood. Scrofula requires vigorous, persistent treatment. The blood must be brought back to a healthy condition before the terrible disease can be stopped in its work of destruction. Mercury, potash and other poisonous minerals usually given in such cases do more harm than good; they ruin the digestion and leave the system in a worse condition than before.

S. S. S. is the only medicine that can reach deep-seated blood troubles like Scrofula. It goes down to the very roots of the disease and forces every vestige of poison out of the blood. S. S. S. is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known. The roots and herbs from which it is made contain wonderful blood purifying properties, which no poison, however powerful, can long resist. S. S. S. stimulates and purifies the blood, increases the appetite, aids the digestion and restores health and strength to the enfeebled body. If you have reason to think you have Scrofula, or your child has inherited any blood taint, don't wait for it to develop, but begin at once the use of S. S. S. It is a fine tonic and the best blood purifier and blood builder known, as it contains no poisonous minerals. S. S. S. is pre-eminently a remedy for children.

When my daughter was an infant she had a severe case of Scrofula, for which she was under the constant care of physicians for more than two years. She was worse at the end of that time, however, and we almost despaired of her life. A few bottles of Swift's Specific cured her completely, as it seemed to go to the cause of the trouble. I do not know of a single equal for children cases of blood diseases who are beyond the power of other so-called blood remedies. S. I. Brooks, Monticello, Ca.

Our medical department is in charge of experienced physicians who have made Scrofula and other blood diseases a life study. Write them about your case, or any one you are interested in. Your letter will receive prompt and careful attention. We make no charge whatever for this.

RECIPE FOR MAKING ICE.

Any housewife by following the new recipe just discovered will be able to make ice easily. This new ice is cheap and quickly prepared, being composed of a kind of ammonia salt. With it, ice cream may be frozen in a few minutes. So many wonderful improvements are being discovered that it brings into prominence any institution that remains unchanged. Such an example is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the well-known remedy for weak stomachs. Fifty years has seen no change in it. While many imitations have risen and fallen, this excellent medicine has remained unchanged—as a cure for indigestion, constipation, dyspepsia and biliousness, it is unequalled. See that our private revenue stamp covers the neck of the bottle.

Mails Too Slow.

Scribbler—I suppose young Soleful is still busy on that poem of his. Wright—No. He finished it last night and he thinks it's great. Scribbler—Does he? Wright—I should say. He rushed right off and telegraphed it to the Hicult Quarterly.—Philadelphia Press.

THE BEST REMEDY FOR STOMACH AND BOWEL TROUBLES.

"I have been in the drug business for twenty years and have sold most of all the proprietary medicines of any note. Among the entire list I have never found anything to equal Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for all stomach and bowel troubles," says O. W. Wakefield, of Columbus, Ga. "This remedy cured two severe cases of cholera morbus in my family, and I have recommended and sold hundreds of bottles of it to my customers to their entire satisfaction. It affords a quick and sure cure in a pleasant form." For sale by A. C. Ireland.

A Regular Blowhard.

Mr. Dinwiddle—Who was that man who boasted so egregiously? Mr. Van Broom—I don't know his name, but he is in the glass business. Mr. Dinwiddle—See; a glass blower.—Pittsburgh Chronicle Telegraph.

A GOOD COUGH MEDICINE.

Many thousands have been restored to health and happiness by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. If afflicted with any throat or lung trouble, give it a trial, for it is certain to prove beneficial. Coughs that have resisted all other treatment for years have yielded to this remedy and perfect health has been restored. Cases that seemed hopeless, that the climate of famous health resorts failed to benefit, have been permanently cured by its use. For sale by A. C. Ireland.

HEARTBURN.

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich heartburn is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masses elapse between meals and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, indicating that you have eaten too much, take one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the heartburn may be avoided. For sale by A. C. Ireland.

You cannot trust him. DeWitt's is the only genuine cure for piles and all skin diseases. See that your dealer gives you DeWitt's Salve. Ireland's Pharmacy.

His All Round Wardrobe.

Hodge—I've got a suit of clothes for every day in the week. Podge (suspiciously)—I never see you wear any but the one you have on now. Hodge (cheerfully)—That's the suit.—Town Topics.

It has been demonstrated by experience that consumption can be prevented by the early use of One Minute Cough Cure. This is the favorite remedy for coughs, colds, croup, asthma, grippe and all throat and lung troubles. Cures quickly. Ireland's Pharmacy.

One of the First.

Yes, he is one of our first citizens. He doesn't look it. I should judge from his appearance that he is a very ordinary person. He is so far as that's concerned, but his name is Abner Aaron, and it's mighty seldom that anybody comes before him in the directory.—Chicago Times Herald.

Quite Properly Fined.

After many intricate experiments, scientists have discovered methods for obtaining all the natural digestants. These have been combined in the proportion found in the human body and united with substances that build up the digestive organs, making a compound called Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and allows all dyspepsia to eat plenty of nourishing food while the stomach troubles are being radically cured by the medicinal agents it contains. It is pleasant to take, and will give quick relief. Ireland's Pharmacy.

WOMEN'S SECRETS.

There is one man in the United States who has perhaps heard more women secrets than any other man or woman in the country. These secrets are not secrets of guilt or shame, but the secrets of suffering, and they have been confided to Dr. R. V. Pierce in the hope and expectation of advice and help. That few of these women have been disappointed in their expectations is proved by the fact that ninety-eight per cent. of all women treated by Dr. Pierce have been absolutely and altogether cured. Such a record would be remarkable if the cases treated were numbered by hundreds only. But when that record applies to the treatment of more than half-a-million women, in a practice of over thirty years, it is phenomenal, and entitles Dr. Pierce to the gratitude accorded him by women, and the honor paid him by the profession as the first of specialists in the treatment of women's diseases.

Every sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, absolutely without charge. Every woman's letter which contains her secret remains her secret. It is read in private, answered in private, and its contents guarded as a sacred confidence. That no third party should enter into this secret, all replies are mailed, sealed in perfectly plain envelopes, with any printing or advertising whatever, upon them. Write without fear as with-out fee, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A New Railroad to San Francisco.

The newly completed extension of the Santa Fe Route through the San Joaquin valley to San Francisco was opened for passenger business on July 1, 1900.

The Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway has heretofore possessed the distinction of being the only line with its own track and trains all the way from Chicago to Los Angeles and San Diego. San Francisco and the important cities of the San Joaquin valley are now added to the vast territory served by this great transportation system under one management, which territory also includes a large part of the region between Denver on the north and Galveston on the south.

Stress is laid upon single ownership and management, which insure uniform excellence of service. Overland trains by this route do not miss connection, because they run through. The eating house and dining car service is of the same superior quality throughout, under management of Mr. Fred Harvey. The best equipment is provided. Employees are everywhere solicitous and courteous. Responsibility for the comfort of passengers is not divided.

No other transcontinental route offers so great a number of attractions to the tourist. Among these are mountain altitudes and scenery, extinct volcanoes, petrified forests, prehistoric ruins, Indian pueblos, the Yosemite, and the Grand Canon of Arizona, which is the greatest scenic wonder of the world. Every characteristic phase of industrial life in the west is traversed en route.

The Santa Fe has long been the favorite route between the east and southern California. By virtue of the same high-grade service and unexcelled attractions it hopes to win equal favor with travelers to and from San Francisco and intermediate cities of the Golden State.

The service will consist at first of Pullman and tourist sleepers and chair cars daily. The early resumption of the California Limited is contemplated.

Proposals for wood and hay—U. S. Indian School Service, Santa Fe, N. M., July 3, 1900. Wood and hay offered for delivery under contract will be subject to a rigid inspection before acceptance or rejection thereof. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids or any part of any bid, if deemed for the best interest of the service. Certified checks: Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check or draft upon some United States depository or solvent national bank made payable to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, for at least five per cent of the amount of the proposal, which check or draft will be forfeited if the bidder fails to execute a contract with good and sufficient sureties, otherwise to be returned to the bidder. WINE OF CARDUI

WOMEN WHO WORK.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 12.

Though only 19 years old, I suffered from pains and female troubles two years. Last spring I got so bad I had to quit work. I had to support myself, and could not afford a high-priced doctor. I got one bottle of Wine of Cardui and that made me feel better. Have now used several bottles and am well. My mother used the Wine for Change of Life and was greatly relieved.

MISS MARGARET WALSH.

Wine of Cardui

Many girls and women find it necessary to earn their own living in various kinds of employment. Their work is often so hard and confining that the health breaks down. Their delicate constitutions are unfitness for tireless tasks. Weakness nearly always makes its appearance in the peculiarly delicate womanly organs. Constant standing on the feet, and coming and going at the beck of a superintendent or foreman, induces falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, headache and backache. The pay of women workers is often so notoriously small that when sickness comes they have no money to engage skillful physicians. To them Wine of Cardui is truly a blessing. It cures them of their ills at a small cost, and they can act as their own physicians. No doctor can do as much for "female troubles" as Wine of Cardui.

The Largest Endowment ever paid.

Fifteen years ago Mr. George Gooderham, of Toronto, took out 15-Year Endowment Policy No. 289,421 for $100,000, in the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, paying an annual premium of $5.32. Now his policy has matured and shows the following results:

1 Cash	$150,847
2 Paid-up Assurance	$210,000
3 Annuity for Life	$ 20,320

At the same time Mr. Gooderham took out a policy of the same kind for the same amount and with the same premium in another company; the cash return on which was $15,000 less than on the Equitable policy.

Here is what Mr. Gooderham says of his results:

"I have always been a strong advocate of Endowment Insurance, and about the time I took your policy for $100,000 I placed $400,000 of Endowment policies on my life in eight different companies. Of this amount $310,000 has already matured. I have lived to see the result and to know what it means."

"These results realized by the Equitable are" "larger and more satisfactory than any result" "ever realized by me on any of my policies which" "have matured to date. I may say they are quite" "satisfactory, and that no company has ever done" "so well for me"

TIMELY ADVICE.

Fruit Trees Should Be Sprayed and Insect Pests Destroyed.

To the Editor of the New Mexican.

Santa Fe, July 20.—As you invariably display the greatest interest in everything which affects the welfare of Santa Fe, or which threatens its prosperity, it would be well through your columns to draw the attention of owners of gardens and orchards to the fact that our pear and cherry trees are again infested with the cherry slug (celandria cerasi), which did so much damage two and three years ago. This insect comes from an egg deposited upon the surface of the leaf in the latter part of June to the middle of July by a small black fly, and the grub, which resembles an almost black slug about a half inch long when fully grown, feeds upon the upper surface of the leaf and reduces the foliage of the tree to mere skeletonized leaves. The lungs of the tree are thus destroyed, the fruit never attains maturity, and repeated attacks of this pest kill the tree in a very short time. Our cherry and pear trees are now infested with this pest, and strenuous effort should be at once made to destroy it. There are many ways of killing the slug, but the best method is to spray the trees with a solution of kerosene emulsion and some London purple, or with concentrated lye and London purple, the proportions being 3 ounces purple and three-fourths of a tin of lye (the ordinary size sold in the stores). I think this latter better than the kerosene, because it will wash off ripening fruit with the first shower of rain, while the coal oil clings for a long time. Small trees that are easily reached can be dusted with air-slacked lime or unleached wood ashes, but several applications are necessary, as the eggs do not all hatch at once. It would be well also to remind growers of fruit that the first batch of the crawling moth grubs are now matured, which are falling to the ground. These grubs, if not trapped or in some way destroyed, will in about ten days to two weeks emerge from their cocoon as moths, and will lay their eggs upon the winter pears and apples and make the late crop wormy as usual. The best way to prevent this is to band all the trees with strips of gunny sack or bating and to examine these bands every week and crush the worms found spun up in the sacking, then replace the band to catch more; the trees must also be again sprayed with London purple or paris green (proportion 1 pound to 200 gallons of water) and lime. Every one is well aware that the season of 1899 was an almost total failure for fruit, and therefore there are fewer insects to fight this year than usual; a little extra exertion and expense this year will be most effective, and will go a long way toward checking the apple grub and cherry slug, but the work must be done at once and not neglected until it is too late. Trusting that I have not trespassed too much upon your valuable space, the great importance of this matter to the fruit industry of Santa Fe being my excuse.
