CHINESE TROUBLE

Russia Will Give the Other Powers Notice That Their Task Is Done.

JAPANESE MOVING FORWARD

They Intend to Occupy the Capital of Chi Li—Railroad Trouble Between Yang Tsun and Tien Tsin—French Aggression.

Berlin, August 29.—According to a despatch from Tien Tsin, Japanese forces are now on the way from Taku to Poo Ting Fu the capital of the Province of Chi Li with the direct object of occupying the latter place. The German vice admiral at Taku reports the arrival at Peking on August 25th of the German convoy with provisions. The railroad from Tien Tsin to Yang Tsun is working but from the latter place to Peking the road is in bad shape.

A FRENCH GUNBOAT'S MISSION.
Paris, August 29.—Admiral Courtes, who is sending a gunboat from Shanghai to ascend the Yang Tze River.

RUSSIA'S NEW MOVE.

London, August 29.—A special from St. Petersburg contains the assertion that Russia, almost immediately, will notify the powers that she considers the relief at Peking of the legations as the final accomplishment of the military task of the allied forces. Nothing however in the afternoon papers here confirms this.

WORRYING ABOUT CHINA.

Washington, D. C., August 29.—The calling of a special cabinet meeting for this morning to consider the latest developments of the Chinese situation, following a midnight conference last night and several similar conferences with Secretary Root and Adee within the last two days, emphasizes the amount of attention that the president is devoting to this troublesome topic. It is understood that the government is better advised than yesterday as to certain important elements in the Peking muddle. Baron Speck von Sternburg, the German charge, saw the acting secretary this morning, and it is understood the purpose was to talk over the question of Li Hung Chang's credentials. On Germany's refusal to accept Li as plenipotentiary will be to delay the peace negotiations at least until Field Marshal Waldersee's arrival in China, several weeks hence.

This fact is not contemplated with equanimity by our government, the president being desirous of terminating the present unsatisfactory state of affairs in China as soon as this can be done with honor and security and providing the objects laid down in his various notes can be attained. The cabinet meeting today was devoted entirely to the discussion of the diplomatic phases of the situation. No definite conclusion was reached on any point. No statement as to any questions discussed were made public. It is stated by the war department that preparations are being made for wintering 5,000 U. S. troops in China.

LI HUNG CHANG TO BE DETAINED

Paris, Aug. 29.—The officials of the ministry of marine here were shown today a despatch from Washington in which it is declared that the opinion prevails there that the dispatch from Admiral Courtes, announcing the intention of the admirals to detain Li Hung Chang until the diplomats have consented to open negotiations with the Chinese, referred to the situation which existed some time ago. The French officials declare that the government is not old and there is no question as to the correctness of the wording of the dispatch, but they themselves were unable to say from the dispatch what the present position of Li Hung Chang is whether he is detained on board of a ship or whether the admirals intend to detain him when he arrives at Taku.

BRESCHI SENTENCED.

He Must Serve a Life Sentence—His Trial Was Brief.

Milan, Aug. 29.—The trial of Breschi, the anarchist, who on July 29 shot and killed King Humbert of Italy at Monza, while his majesty was returning from a gymnastic exhibition, opened here today. An immense crowd of people gathered about the court from early morning, seeking admission to the court room where only a few places were reserved for the ticket-holding public. The hearing began at 9 o'clock. Breschi was calm and almost indifferent. His counsel, Signor Martelli, head of the Milan bar and an anarchist writer, and Signor Morlino, made requests on various grounds for adjournment, which was refused. It is said that Breschi wrote the judges declaring that he would not reply to the interrogatory.

The indictment showed that the assassin indulged in people gathering practices and that he prepared the bullets so as to render them more dangerous. The witnesses were then introduced, eleven for the prosecution and five for the defense. The examination of Breschi followed. He declared that he decided to kill King Humbert after the events in Milan and in Italy, "to avenge the mystery of the people and my own." He added: "I acted without advice or accomplices." The prisoner admitted target practice and preparation of the bullets. He spoke in a low, firm voice and said he fired three shots at three yards with a revolver. Breschi, at the close of the trial, was pronounced guilty and was sentenced to imprisonment for life.

A NEW TRAIN TO CALIFORNIA.

The Santa Fe Will Inaugurate a New Service on October 1.
In all probability an additional train will be put on by the Santa Fe route October 1 to make four trips a week between Chicago and San Francisco before an equipment and in a time never before witnessed west of Chicago. At railroad headquarters a new schedule for this "California limited" is now being worked out. There will be seven trains and for them an entirely new equipment has been built by the Pullman company, the finest ever run in the west for the limited, 50 new engines, costing nearly $250,000, have been built. They are now being worked on the road. The new machines will pull the train the entire distance from Chicago to San Francisco.

A ST. LOUIS CONNECTION.

The Santa Fe Railroad Will Soon Have Its Own Line into St. Louis.

Fort Scott, Aug. 29.—The railroad now being built out of St. Louis across the state of Missouri, known as the St. Louis Kansas City & Colorado, is a Santa Fe line, which will absorb the charter of the Jefferson City, Fort Scott & Southwestern company, and build to Chanute, Kas., via this city, and connect there with the Santa Fe Southwestern line.

This will give the Santa Fe the St. Louis connection which it has so long wanted, and at the same time open up to St. Louis a direct connection with the big southwestern territory of the Santa Fe lines.

NEW YORK PRIMARIES.

The Organization of Both Parties Was Successful at the Polls.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 29.—Returns from yesterday's Democratic primaries in Erie county show that Wm. F. Mackey for governor, and the organization headed by Norman E. New York, Aug. 29.—Full returns from yesterday's primaries in greater New York show that the New York county Republican organization is successful in all except the 21st assembly district, where Abraham Gruber, who opposes the county committee, was successful. Tammany hall held control of the Democratic organization in all the districts.

The sessions of the Supreme Lodge K. of P. was resumed today and some reports of committee were heard. It was agreed to be conceded that Vice Supreme Chancellor Wethers, of Wisconsin, will be elected supreme chancellor according to previous custom, instead of the re-election of Supreme Chancellor Sample.

Twenty-four past grand chiefs of the Balthore lodge were today admitted to the sessions of the supreme body of the women's order, but without the right to vote. The reports of officers were read and referred.

RAILROAD BUILDING IN COLORADO.

One Hundred and Fifty Men Leave the County to Work on the Railroad.

M. W. McGrath, representing Orman & Creek, railroad builders, left via the D. & R. G. this morning for that firm's Texas Creek construction camp with another crowd of working men. About fifty went from this point and a dozen or so boarded the train at Espanola. Thus far some 150 men have gone from Santa Fe county to work on the Texas Creek extension of the D. & R. G. road. The new branch leaves the main Arkansas valley line of the road at Texas Creek junction some 60 miles east of Salda and bears south through the rich and prolific Wet mountain valley. To connect there with the Baca grant people are fostering a new railway enterprise of their own. D. & R. G. engineers are now surveying a line from Moffat across the Sangre de Cristo range through the Crestone gold mining district to a connection with the Texas Creek branch. It is said that the grant people have an arrangement with the D. & R. G. in the nature of a traffic guarantee that will result in the immediate completion of this line. Mr. McGrath says that probably 2,500 men will be employed on this work this fall and winter.

A SWINDLE EXPOSED

Claimants to an Old Grant That Had Been Rejected Try a New Game.

CLAIMED 60,000,000 ACRES

A Bold Attempt to Lease It to Eddy County Cattle Men Was Frustrated by a Number of Carlsbad Attorneys.

Another swindling land grant scheme has been punctured and exposed in New Mexico. This time it is in the southeastern quarter of the territory. Last week Charles Goodnight, the well known Pan Handle cattleman, accompanied by his lawyer one Alex Graves, of Kansas City, came to Carlsbad and immediately set to work to lease all the government lands in that section of the universe to cowmen able to pay one cent per acre. The first lease recorded was for 297,000 acres from what purported to be the Interstate Land company to the San Simon Cattle & Canal Co. of Arizona, the tract embracing nearly all of the southeast corner of Eddy county. Mr. Goodnight and his attorney claimed verbally that they had a right to lease the land and receive payment therefor because of a Mexican grant which they averred was recorded in Austin, Texas, about 1840. Iron clad leases were drawn up for other signers, and in such a cool and business-like manner did the principals in the scheme about that they challenged the admiration of many.

When it became known that land in any quantity could be leased at the low rate of 1 cent per acre the rush to obtain leases was immense and several people were employed to write leases. The services of three firms of attorneys were engaged by Mr. Goodnight on a contract agreeing to pay Gatewood & Bateman $1,800, Freeman & Cameron $1,800 and G. A. Richardson, of Roswell, $1,800. The contract was signed Monday afternoon and the attorneys were supposed to commence work writing leases at once. The first draft of Goodnight and Graves, representing the so-called Interstate Land company, was to have the attorneys sign an agreement tooust by legal process all squatters and nesters from all government lands in the county, but this the attorneys refused to attempt and it was cut out of the contract. After the contract was signed and the attorneys duly employed they set to work to investigate the rights of their clients to lease to people the government lands, the first payment for which would amount to some $40,000. After learning as much as possible from Graves, who seems to be the party who has been the prime mover in the scheme, the attorneys found out that the sole remaining claimant to the shadowy and absolutely void title to an old forfeited Mexican grant, the attorneys found a decision in the U. S. Supreme Court Reporter of 1891 describing the grant claimed by Graves and known as the Beales and Royuela grant.

Graves appears to have brought suit against the Maxwell grant people claiming that the Maxwell grant conflicted or lapped over on his grant. The decision of the supreme court on the subject, written by Justice Lamar, of the U. S. supreme court, was very complete and concise, declaring the grant void and forfeited and fully confirming the title of the Maxwell grant.

The claim of the Interstate Land company rests upon an alleged grant to John Charles Beales and Jose Manuel Royuela, made in 1832, by the government of Coahuila and Texas, then two Mexican states under one provisional administration in which was included New Mexico and a portion of Colorado and also a portion of Texas. The parties, Beales and Royuela, entered into an agreement with the Mexican government to settle 200 families upon lands selected by the colonists, each family being entitled to one league or about nine sections, the excess of land within the limits after supplying the colonists remained to the government. The Mexican court declared the grant of no value because the original conditions, the colonization thereof, were never complied with. The amount claimed was 60,000,000 acres.

When this decision was found the attorneys Messrs Gatewood, Bateman, Cameron, Freeman and Richardson held a conference and decided that if they assisted Graves, Goodnight and others interested, that they would be aiding and abetting a swindle of their own friends in Eddy county. It was then three o'clock Tuesday morning. Knowing that many of the stock men had already bargained for leases and had given checks for large sums to Goodnight and his pals, the attorneys hastened to have payment on the checks stopped and notified the banks at once. Besides this, Mr. Gatewood went at three a. m., to a room of the hotel where he found the representatives of the cattlemen. There he threw up the case for himself and associates and next morning he and his associates and others that he or his associate attorneys would not be parties to any transaction which favored so strong of a gold brick swindle, then and there destroying the contract. All checks given were returned and the promoters of the scheme gave up the task of fleecing Eddy county cattlemen. Had it not been for the fact that Carlsbad contained reliable attorneys, who, having their homes and their all there, the swindle might have been worked and a number of most worthy and industrious citizens fleeced on worthless leases.

A FIND OF MOLYBDENUM.

There Are No Works to Treat It in the United States.

Arthur N. Jordan, at Las Vegas, has found a mine and he doesn't know what to do with it. In fact, the proposition of handling his ore is about as tough as the ore itself, which is molybdenum, one of the toughest elements in the mineral kingdom. He has a big body of the ore running a heavy per cent in the mineral, and if he can get his stuff handled he has a neat fortune in his hands.

Under the circumstances he wrote a letter to the Colorado State Commissioner of Mines Lee, asking for information as to the whereabouts of a reduction works, the nature of the ore and its usefulness in the world. As it now stands, so far as he is concerned, his rich deposit of mineral is not doing him any more good than Robinson Crusoe's bar of gold. He wants to know how to get his ore into the world, how many and where are the reduction works, what is the ore wanted for and how badly per ton it is wanted. Commissioner Lee's letter is not calculated to fill the heart of the inquirer with much joy so far as the handling of the ore is concerned. There is not only no reduction works for that kind of mineral in Colorado, but not in the United States. The only place for treating the intractable stuff is in Germany, and thither he must send his ore. When treated, it is worth $35 a ton, and even twice as much at times, because a new kind of product is so few that they can be counted on the fingers of one's hands. Its use is in the alloy of steel, and hence it has high importance for a base metal.

Mr. Lee says that he knows of only one big mine in the west, and that is in Oregon, and hence the opening up of a new property of the kind will be of the greatest importance.

Must Report at Fort McDowell.

Private William L. Ford, of Fort Bayard, has been ordered to Fort McDowell, for assignment to the 34th infantry.

ANOTHER PROJECTED RAILROAD.

A Line from Stamford, Tex., to Santa Fe Is Spoken Of.

Charles Hamilton and family and a party of friends from Waco, Texas, spent yesterday in Santa Fe and left this morning for Las Vegas, traveling in the special coach Marian of the Texas Central road. It is not altogether pleasurable and sentiment that brought Mr. Hamilton here. He is the progressive head and front of the Texas central line and as its general manager comes here to look into the business and railway situation in the Texas central territory. People have long cherished a proposition to build a direct line of road from the Gulf of Mexico to the heart of the Rocky Mountains, and a part of General Manager Hamilton's business here, it is said, was to study the railroad maps and seek into the situation with a point view to a connection at this point between the Gulf route and the D. & R. G. system. The Texas Central now operates 250 miles of road from Waco northwest via Albany to Stamford, Texas, and has a line projected from Waco to Sabine Pass harbor on the Gulf, and from Stamford northward into New Mexico. By such a direct route the distance from this section of the Rocky Mountains to Gulf tide water would be only a little more than 700 miles, a vast saving over any existing route.

DRILLING FOR COAL

The Colorado Fuel & Iron Company Looking for Coal Three Miles North of Gibson.

A CEMETERY OF 400 ACRES

It Is Situated at Gallup—Investigations to Find Evidence of Civilization Beneath a Lava Flow—Prosperity in San Juan County.

BERNALILLO COUNTY.

W. F. Kuchenecker, of Gallup, has gone on a jaunt to Las Cruces and El Paso.

On account of poor feed in the mountains, Mr. Boon has made arrangements to move his sheep to the San Juan country.

Rev. P. A. Simpkin, of Gallup, has been exploiting the petrified forests, and brought home a number of fine specimens.

E. L. Denmore, of Gallup, bought a car load of Indian ponies, broke them to ride and work and shipped them to Philadelphia.

John D. Boone and family have moved from Gallup to San Juan county.

Gallup boasts the ownership of a cemetery comprising 400 acres that has just been fenced.

The parties who are running a diamond drill for the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, three miles north of Gibson, have reached a depth of 700 feet. The drill passes through several veins of coal. The lower vein will be reached at about 1,000 feet.

In the district court judgment was rendered for $442.30 in favor of Grunfeld Bros., of Albuquerque, against J. R. Rivera. Spence Bros. also secured judgment for $10.76 against Arthur Stinson. Ramon Chavez was granted a divorce from Eloesa Chavez on the grounds of desertion and adultery.

The railroad men of Gallup are to be favored by the establishment of a first class reading room. Rev. S. E. Busser, the superintendent of the reading rooms of the Santa Fe system, reports that his plans have been approved, and that a suitable building will be erected east of the Harvey house. It will contain two bath rooms and a billiard table. All the latest magazines and newspapers will be kept on hand.

In the district court the case of Catharina Cole vs. Myrtle L. Cole, divorce, was heard. The plaintiff was granted an absolute divorce on the ground of desertion. The defendant was one of the original owners of mines in the Cochiti district, and is said to have left a number of unpaid bills when he went to Mexico. At one time he lived in Gallup, and was employed as an engineer on the old Atlantic & Pacific.

Two wagon loads of sheep were brought into Gallup from the Ramah range. Ready sale was found for the lot.

J. R. Brown and Borden Mitchell made a trip to the old ruined tower twelve miles south of Gallup. The tower was originally three stories high and about 14 feet in diameter, built of sandstone and mud. It extends 7 feet below the surface. There is no evidence of civilization. It has a place with the balance of the prehistoric ruins in this section.

Rev. S. E. Busser, who has charge of the Santa Fe railroad reading rooms, and A. M. Swan are engaged with George Pradt in exploring the lava country south of McIntyre. They are confident of finding evidence of civilization prior to the time of the lava flow. They are well equipped with cameras and surveying instruments to make a thorough investigation into the subject.

C. S. Cameron has bought forty acres of the Colorado State Bank land near Aztec, adjoining the recently purchased by A. Villman. Consideration, $800.

J. W. Springer, formerly of Silverton, has purchased the Captain Hart ranch north of Aztec. The ranch contains sixty acres, and the price stated is $50 per acre.

Brigham Young, Jr., and President Hammond, of the Mormon church, with twelve musicians, passed through Aztec a few days ago on the way to Mancos, where a general conference was held.

A deep interest is being taken in the queen of the fair contest. Each lady has numerous admirers, and the contest promises to be of unusual spirit. There are three leading candidates in the field.

Uncle Jimmy Jarvis, of Aztec, was 100 years old Wednesday, August 15, and he celebrated the occasion with as much enthusiasm, activity and energy as many younger men could muster. Uncle Jimmy is a centenarian, but he refuses to be classed as such at any age.

W. S. Weichtman, of M. A. Brachvogel & Co., Durango's leading commission firm, is interviewing the orchardists throughout the county. He declares the present year's fruit crop is the greatest San Juan county has ever produced.

A meeting of the Democratic county central committee of San Juan county is called, to be held at Aztec on the 3d day of September, for the purpose of issuing a call for the county convention, the filling of any vacancies, etc.

Mrs. Rosa S. Howes, a lady who has had considerable experience as a director of sanitariums, is in Aztec investigating the possibilities, and advantages for the location of such an institution here.

A steady stream of freight wagons from lower valley points issues Aztec on the road to Durango these days. Flora Vista sends her quota daily—in fact, Flora Vista this year has bigger crops of all kinds than any previous year. The freight season is fairly on.

The enemy made a poor stand and retired northward, followed by Dundonald's mounted troops, who could not proceed beyond Helyetta on account of the difficult nature of the country and the enemy taking up a position too strong to be dislodged by the mounted troops. It appears that Buller's casualties were very few."

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY.
For Vice President,
THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

We favor home rule for and early admission to statehood of the territories of New Mexico, Arizona and Oklahoma. —National Republican Platform.

Call for a Republican Territorial Convention.

A delegate convention of the Republican voters of the Territory of New Mexico is hereby called to meet in the city of Santa Fe at ten o'clock in the morning on Wednesday, the third of October, 1900, for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate from New Mexico to the 57th Congress, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the said convention.

The Republican electors of this territory and all those who believe in the principles of the Republican party and in its policies as announced in the National Republican platform adopted by the Republican National Convention held in the City of Philadelphia, June 19, 1900, who believe in and endorse statehood for the Territory of New Mexico and favor an honest, fair and just administration of public affairs in this territory, are respectfully and cordially asked to unite under this call to take part in the selection of delegates to the Territorial Convention.

County conventions must be held on or before Saturday, September 29, 1900. County committees will take proper action and call county conventions at such times and places as they may deem best before or on that date.

The chairmen and secretaries of the county conventions are earnestly requested to forward true notice of the proceedings of such names of the delegates elected to the Republican county convention to the secretary of this committee by the next mail after the call of such conventions.

Where there are no regularly organized county committees the members of this committee are authorized and directed to perform the duties of the county committee and act accordingly. JOHN S. CLARK, Chairman of the Republican Territorial Central Committee. MAX FROST, Secretary.

In a recent speech Colonel Bryan asks why the United States does not keep the stars and stripes flying over Pekin. The answer is easy enough. The United States has not entered a sacred treaty obligation to do so. Pekin is not United States territory. It is not the law of this land to keep the flag floating over cities belonging to foreign nations.

Bear stories seem to be in season, and in number are making up for the lack of deer stories this summer.

The fact that Gallup has a 400 acre graveyard is not a sign that the people of Gallup intend to give up living, but that they look forward to the time when Gallup will be so large that a 400 acre graveyard will not seem any too large.

By this time the Democrats must believe that Governor Otero has joined a "Don't Worry" club, for all the hate-inspired attacks of the Democratic press cannot prevent him from pursuing the even tenor of his way and continuing to give this territory an economical, honest and efficient administration.

With several million dollars worth of gold arriving from Alaska every month, with Colorado, California, New Mexico and other commonwealths producing the precious metals steadily, with ten million American workmen producing material wealth, it is no wonder that this nation has some money to spare to lend to Great Britain, Russia and Japan.

Hillsboro not to be outdone by Socorro has secured a ghost too to mystify its people. The Hillsboro ghost, however, differs from the Socorro spectre. It consists of a light moving about in a mysterious manner in unoccupied houses, while the Socorro buganoo shows himself covered in a white sheet and prefers the open air to the interior of houses. But it is no wonder that people see visions while the Democrats are rattling the dry bones of dead issues and conjure up bugaboos which they have labeled imperialism and militarism.

The United States has more cities with a million inhabitants than any other country in the world. New York is the second largest city, being exceeded in population only by London. Paris is the third largest city of the world, and then comes Berlin fourth, Chicago fifth, Canton sixth, Philadelphia seventh, Vienna eighth, Tokio ninth and St. Petersburg tenth. Pekin probably follows, and that winds up the number of cities that today have over a million inhabitants although there are a number approaching that point.

The Democratic party in the territory is in hard luck as far as the efficiency of its press is concerned. Its main reliance are two daily newspapers in El Paso, for the assistance of the Populist daily at Las Vegas is probably more of a hurt than a gain, two good weeklies in the south and one strong weekly in the north with a very limited local circulation. The Republicans on the other hand have three daily papers within the territory and a strong weekly press, with good representatives in Democratic strongholds, where they can do the most effective work.

The Independent party clubs which are being organized in several towns in the territory lay themselves open to the suspicion that they are out for the wool rather than fighting for any principle. There is no party in existence today that calls itself an "Independent party." The 11 or 12 parties in the field have all announced the stand they are taking on national questions, and the man who can not choose from among them and starts an independent movement of some sort or the other of his own, is either an irretrievable crank or he is expecting to be paid to espouse one party or the other or perhaps two or three parties who may want his vote very badly.

Denver grew 170 per cent in population from 1880 to 1890 and only 25 per cent from 1890 to 1900. That is quite a blow to the pride of that city, which was certain to be credited with 170,000 inhabitants. Pueblo at the same time shows a much greater increase in population, which is adding another proof to the fact that those cities grow most rapidly which have large industrial enterprises to depend upon. It is a lesson New Mexico cities must take to heart if they want to attain a rapid growth and greater prosperity. There is one consolation to Denver, that there are few large cities in the country which show a greater per cent of growth in population during the past ten years.

The El Paso papers are slowly beginning to see that the Elephant Butte dam controversy has reached a stage at which it would be very convenient to drop all opposition to the project. El Paso has stood in its own light by opposing the Elephant Butte dam, for the Mesilla valley is tributary to the Pasa city. Professor Arthur Goss, of the agricultural college, in a recent pamphlet, intimates that the lower Rio Grande valley will have to be largely abandoned as an agricultural region unless the Elephant Butte dam project proves a success or means are devised to pump water from wells more cheaply than is done at the present time. What would it profit El Paso if the valley to the north of it becomes a desert?

Colorado promises or rather threatens to become an Adames Eden. The Colorado state board of health has just published statistics which show that many more females than males were born last year and that for every woman who died last year two men went to the great beyond. The school statistics show that far more girls than boys attend the public schools and the graduates of high schools are two girls to every boy. If this sort of a thing keeps up, Colorado will soon be a state with 16 men to every woman and with women as the educated class and the few remaining men as their menial servants. The cause for this state of affairs is difficult to find, for it cannot be blamed upon the high altitude nor is woman's suffrage the fault of it, although some mean men might be disposed to say so.

The tramp fraternity intends to publish a newspaper of its own. But who will do the work?

The New Mexico Military Institute is growing and prospering. It has been found necessary to build another barracks building to accommodate the large increase of students for the coming school year.

It is to be hoped that the prophecies of a long, severe winter in the northern counties will not come true. The people in many sections of that part of the territory have had a scant harvest and a severe winter would be felt doubly by them.

Hon. Charles Denby, life-long Democrat, is not far from wrong when he says that every speech by Bryan costs the lives of a hundred Filipinos, not to mention the lives of American soldiers, the grief of bereaved families and the destruction of property.

Now the anti-imperialists earnestly assert that American aggression in the Philippines caused the uprising of the Boxers in China. Next they will announce that last year's eclipse of the moon caused the race riots at New York, Akron and New Orleans. The logic of the anti-imperialists is simply unanswerable.

The Italians of this country are still holding funeral services for the recently assassinated king of Italy and by present indications appear to be in a humor to keep them up for another year or two. There are evidently few things that an Italian enjoys as much as a first-class funeral sermon and service.

Hon. Charles Denby, of Indiana, a life-long Democrat, minister to China under President Cleveland, and one of the brightest men in Democratic ranks, is out in an open letter urging Democrats to vote for President McKinley. Mr. Denby cannot acquiesce in the Philippine policy as outlined by Colonel Bryan. He studied the problems in the far east from a closer view point than Lincoln, Neb., and therefore knows that all of Colonel Bryan's talk on the subject is simply fudge.

The fact that the Cerrillos smelter intends to double its capacity is an indication that southern Santa Fe county will loom up more prominently as a wealth producer and a taxpayer than in the past few years. The population of that part of the county should show a decided increase in the next few months when the big copper smelter at San Pedro and the smelter at Cerrillos get down to steady work and the other improvements which are contemplated are put through. As the population increases new improvements and greater development will come, and then southern Santa Fe county is bound to make a big name for itself.

Why New Mexico Should Go Republican.

New Mexico has received its full share of the prosperity brought to this nation by the Republican administration. Its wool growers and its cattlemen have been among the chief beneficiaries of the advance in prices on wool, cattle and sheep. Four years ago the sheep in New Mexico were worth only $2,732,504, today they are worth $8,622,362, or almost $6,000,000 more. The 12,000,000 pounds of wool shipped out of the territory last year were worth almost $2,000,000, while under the Cleveland administration they would have been worth only $600,000. The cattle of New Mexico in 1896 were worth $8,478,878, today they are worth $13,000,000. In these three items alone the people of New Mexico are worth $12,000,000 more than they were in 1896, which is an average increase in wealth for every man, woman and child in the territory of $60. But for its agricultural and horticultural products New Mexico has also found more and better markets owing to the prevailing prosperity. Capitalists have invested freely in New Mexico mines, new railroads were constructed, new districts have been opened, new towns have been built, all because of the confidence inspired by the administration. The territory is in better financial shape than ever; its revenues are increasing greatly; it has a most efficient administration and is forging ahead rapidly in political, social, moral and material matters. All this came under a national administration controlled by the Republicans. Those are certainly reasons sufficient to convince every unprejudiced citizen that New Mexico should give an overwhelming majority for the Republican party. Such a majority will insure the continuance of the blessings of the past four years and some new advantages in addition, such as statehood, liberal expenditures for irrigation works and appropriations for New Mexico institutions of learning.

TO FIGHT TUBERCULOSIS.

Suggestions Made at a Medical Congress Held at Naples, Italy.

Some very novel suggestions in regard to consumption were made at the medical congress which met at Naples. The physicians were unanimously of opinion that the various governments ought to take some steps to ward off the evil, and Dr. Callivares, of Athens, even maintained that no one should be employed in a public or private capacity who was not absolutely free from the disease, and that any persons who are now employed and who have in their systems the germs of consumption should at once be dismissed. The exact physical condition of each employee, he pointed out, could be thoroughly ascertained by making a thorough medical examination, which should be compulsory.

Dr. Ausset, of Lille, said that it would be well if every house owner were obliged, before he rented his property, to make a full statement, not only in regard to its sanitary condition, but also in regard to all cases of infectious diseases, which may have occurred in it, as well as the number of times that it was necessary to disinfect it. He also maintained that the laws of hygiene should be clearly taught both to children and to soldiers.

Attention was then called to the fact that in several government offices in Italy consumptive employees are now assigned to work which does not bring them into contact with the public, and that the women employed in the national cigar factories are now regularly examined by government physicians, with the result that those who are found to be consumptive are discharged, but receive a small pension for life. The question of contagion on railroads was also discussed, and Dr. Sanarelli said that the evil would doubtless be lessened if the companies would only substitute linoleum for the customary carpets in the carriages, and if, instead of the velvet and other heavy stuffs on the seats and cushions, they would use some light material, which could be easily washed.

At present, he pointed out, tuberculosis is not officially classified among the infectious diseases, and therefore, railroad companies are not bound to disinfect the carriages in which consumptives have traveled. In any case, on account of the tapestry, curtains, velvet and decorations of such carriages, it would be very difficult to disinfect them thoroughly. Finally, Dr. Sanarelli maintained that on every railroad there should be special carriages for consumptives, but he did not explain how consumptive passengers could be ejected or coerced into occupying these carriages during their journeys. That they would occupy them of their own volition, and thus publicly exhibit themselves as the victims of a contagious disease is not likely.

"My baby was terribly sick with the diarrhoea," says J. H. Doak, of Williams, Oregon. "We were unable to cure him with the doctor's assistance, and as a last resort we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I am happy to say it gave immediate relief and a competent cure." For sale by A. C. Ireland.

RAVING OVER IMPERIALISM.

The Case of the Territories of New Mexico and Arizona.

(Baltimore American.) Imperialism is a cry raised to delude the ignorant and the unthinking—those who do not take the trouble to study a political question, but leave others to do the work. With such as these it is a plausible cry. The conditions attending the occupation of the Philippines seem strange and unusual. The islands are many thousands of miles from the United States, and inhabited by an alien race. It looks like a venturesome enterprise to accustom these people to American institutions and make good citizens of them, and unless this can be done they must be governed indefinitely without their consent. This is about the gist of all the arguments against the further occupation of the Philippines, whether Mr. Bryan be the speaker or some of his subordinates.

They act and talk as if the United States had never acquired territory under similar conditions before. They know, of course, that it has, but it would be awkward to say so. The territory ceded by Mexico under the treaty of 1853 came to this country under substantially similar conditions, with the exception of distance. The Mexicans who inhabited the territory were transferred without their consent, and it is impossible to believe that they were willing as the territory was wrung from their country as the fruits of victory in war. The ordinary Mexican is by no means superior to the ordinary Filipino. There were large numbers in the new territory may easily be gathered from the fact that the principal town in Arizona to-day has a population of 3,000 Americans and 3,000 Mexicans. A large proportion will be found in many of the leading towns of the southwest, especially in New Mexico and parts of Texas.

The Americans found in these towns now have gone there since 1853, and the majority of them in the past twenty years. Arizona and New Mexico are still under a territorial form of government, the same which congress will probably grant to the Philippines when they stop fighting and submit to the authority of the government. Arizona did not get any sort of civil government until ten years after the territory was ceded by Mexico, and it has scarcely been eighteen months since the Philippines were ceded by Spain. The Mexican war was fought by a Democratic administration, the territory was ceded to a Democratic government, and during the following eight years of Democratic administration Arizona had no government but that of the military. This raving over imperialism is out of place. It should have begun at the close of the Mexican war and continued until the present time.

News About Stamps.

An innovation in the postal service which is sure to be of great convenience is a plan lately adopted of furnishing stamps in little books, with wax sheets between them. The government is to charge one cent additional to the amount of stamps contained therein, and it is now estimated that the profit on these books will amount to $200,000 per annum. It is also estimated that the sum paid for the Private Revenue Stamps placed over the top of the bottles containing Hostetter's Stomach Bitters very nearly equals this. The Bitters is a reliable remedy for constipation, indigestion, dyspepsia, biliousness, liver and kidney trouble. It may be depended upon to cure stomach disorders, having done so for the past fifty years.

Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boecher's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. For sale by Ireland's Pharmacy.

TRADE IN ANIMALS.

Many Queer Species Listed as Live Material.

Shipped Alive From All Parts of the World—Prices Paid for Bullfrogs, Turtles, Snakes and Bugs.

There is no branch of the animal kingdom, not any corner of the world, that is not ransacked and explored nowadays for the purpose of collecting natural history curiosities to supply the commercial demand. Special expeditions are sent to remote and almost inaccessible regions to gather strange and rare animals, for which the market is as unfailing as for any staple product of the soil or the factory. Firms dealing in such merchandise in all parts of this country and abroad, and, judging from the comprehensiveness of their catalogues, it would seem as if there was nothing that flies or walks or swims that they are not prepared to furnish on short notice at list prices, says Rene Bache, in the Philadelphia Saturday Evening Post.

One of these catalogues advertises a large assortment of "live material," as it is termed. From this document one learns that he can obtain large bullfrogs at three dollars a dozen, alive and kicking; medium-sized bullfrogs are cheaper, costing only $1.75 for 12. Turtles are two dollars a dozen for "adults," and small ones for aquaria are offered at 15 cents each. Pond snails, "in assorted lots," are listed at 25 cents a dozen; crayfish cost one dollar a dozen, and newts are 15 cents each. In ordering crayfish, it is requested that a few days' notice be given in which to secure them in case the stock should be low. No such reservation, however, is made in the case of earthworms, which come at 60 cents a dozen. It is safe to say that any small boy will furnish earthworms under this rate.

It will be understood that all the above animals are shipped alive. The catalogue quotes small alligators at 50 to 75 cents apiece. Live rattlesnakes come higher—especially the diamond rattlesnake, which costs from five to twelve dollars. Economical persons, however, may prefer a ground rattlesnake at one dollar. The copperhead is supposed to be about as deadly as the rattlesnake, and may be obtained for two dollars, while chicken snakes, king snakes and garter snakes sell as low as 50 cents each.

Crabs are not offered alive, but in alcohol, and in this shape one can buy sand crabs, blue crabs, spider crabs, fiddler crabs, mud crabs and hermit crabs at prices running from ten to seventy-five cents apiece, spider crabs being the dearest. Insects, similarly preserved, are so cheap as to tempt purchase. Squash-bugs cost only 50 cents a dozen, while giant water bugs come at only half that price. Earwigs are quoted at 50 cents a dozen, ant lions at ten cents each, crickets at 50 cents a dozen, 17-year locusts at ten cents apiece and June bugs at 50 cents a dozen. Horace invites the buyer at only ten cents the fly, "true wasps" may be obtained for the same price, and bumblebees foot the list at six cents.

In London, which is the great market of the world, auctions of insects are held every year, and startling prices are paid sometimes for rare specimens. As much as $800 has been brought by a single butterfly, while an out-of-the-way beetle may be valued at many times its weight in gold.

Hamburg is a great market for wild animals, largely from Africa, that city having an important trade with the Dark Continent. To London comes much material of the same sort from Australia and New Zealand, and many rare creatures are obtained from sailors who fetch them from various parts of the world. An American dealer, not very long ago, made a special trip to White Bay, New Zealand, for the purpose of procuring a kind of lizard called the "aphelion," which is regarded by scientists as a wonderful survivor of an entire order of reptiles, all the other genera and species having long since become extinct. This lizard, which is known to the native Maoris as the "tuatara," is about a foot and a half long and, oddly enough, seems to have affinities with the crocodile. Of course, all the kangaroos, wombats and flightless birds come from Australia or New Zealand. While ago the American dealer above referred to made a special trip to South America for the purpose of obtaining guanaco skeletons and steamer ducks. The guanaco is chiefly interesting because, like the llama, it is a representative of the camel tribe on this continent. The steamer duck is particularly odd, inasmuch as it flies when it is young, but cannot do so after it has matured. The adult bird beats the water with its wings as it swims, and this suggested the name given to the species at a period when all steamers were sidewheelers. It cannot rise in flight, for the reason that, as it gets older, its wings do not develop in proportion to its increase in weight.

Her Own Selection.
"Harry," she said, as she watched him adjust his collar, "there is one thing about you that I like."

"What is it, dear?" he questioned.
"Why, your necktie," and as she had selected it only that morning, he had no cause to be happy.—Chicago Evening News.

Sure Sign.
"That horrid Maud has been gossiping about me."
"How do you know?"
"She kissed me twice when we met to-day."—Stray Stories.

PLAYED OUT.

Dull Headache, Pains in various parts of the body, Sinking at the pit of the stomach, Loss of appetite, Feverishness, Pimples or Sores are all positive evidences of impure blood. No matter how it became so, it must be purified in order to obtain good health. Acker's Blood Elixir has never failed to cure Scrofulous or Syphilitic poisons or any other blood diseases. It is certainly a wonderful remedy, and we sell every bottle on a positive guarantee.

For sale at Fischer's drug store.

If coming events cast their shadows before, those shadows on the blind presage a wedding in the near future. The young lady may even be "all ready" to marry that is, she thinks she's "all ready" for her trousseau's prepared, the "trip" has been planned, and the house picked out and "everything."

When we see a young woman go out to meet fate that way it brings to mind the Frenchman's saying of the Charge of the Light Brigade. "It was magnificent but it was not war." It is magnificent to see the young girl face the future so fearlessly, but it is not life. No young woman is ready for married life unless her physical condition is up to the standard of marriage, in the health of all the delicate womanly organs, and rarely is that the case.

Young women entering upon the state of marriage will find no friend so helpful as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It gives vigor and elasticity to the organs peculiarly feminine, prevents the drains that ruin the health, and makes the ordeal of motherhood so easy that it is practically almost painless.

"At an early stage of married life," writes Mrs. Mrs. Ann of Dallas, Jackson Co., Mo., "I was greatly bothered with painful periods, also a troublesome drain which rendered me very weak and unfit for any kind of work, so this there was nothing left of me but skin and bone. My husband became alarmed and got me a bottle of Favorite Prescription. After he saw the wonderful effects of that one he got me two more, and after I used those up there was no more pain, and I began to gain in flesh very rapidly."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser answers every question. It is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay the cost of mailing only. For the cloth-bound edition send 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Very Difficult.
Washington Star. "The Chinese language is a very difficult study."
"It is," answered the distinguished Oriental, with large round spectacles. "You have to be very careful in translating it, as the slightest difference may wholly change the meaning of a phrase. You must study for many years before you can hope to make even an approximate translation."

"Yes," was the answer with a sigh, "and after that you've got to know all about the personal and political history of the man who sends it, together with his present ambition and motives, before you can tell whether to believe a word of it."

SICK HEADACHE ABSOLUTELY AND PERMANENTLY CURED BY USING MOKI TEA.
A pleasant herb drink. Cures constipation and indigestion, makes you eat, sleep, work and happy. Satisfaction guaranteed or money back. 25 cts. and 50 cts. For sale at Fischer's drug store.

How It Was.
Did he marry her for her money?
No, he married her money in spite of it.—Detroit Free Press.

Millions will be spent in politics this year. We can't keep the campaign going without money any more than we can keep the body vigorous without food. Dr. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and allows you to eat all the good food you want. It radically cures stomach troubles. Ireland's Pharmacy.

His Liberal Policy.
I believe in taking some things for granted.
Yes; when you lent me the novel you said was so delightful I noticed that the leaves were not cut.—Chicago Record.

The wolf in the fable puts on sheep's clothing because if he traveled on his own reputation he couldn't accomplish his purpose. Counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve couldn't sell their worthless selves on their merits, so they put them in boxes and wrappers like DeWitt's. Look out for them. Take only DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It cures piles and all skin diseases. Ireland's Pharmacy.

Perishable.
What ails Mrs. Miggs?
She says she spent the whole afternoon making that cake and the family gobbled it up in fifteen minutes.—Chicago Record.

Chinese are dangerous enemies, for they are treacherous. That's why all counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve are dangerous. They look like DeWitt's, but instead of the all-healing witch hazen they all contain ingredients liable to irritate the skin and cause blood-poisoning. For piles, injuries and skin diseases use the original and genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Ireland's Pharmacy.

A Cautious Verdict.
Do you consider conversation a lost art?
Well, there's too much talking done by talkative people, and to little talking done by people who don't talk.—Chicago Record.

QUESTION ANSWERED.
Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers' and grandmothers' never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of indigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by Ireland's Pharmacy.

His Blank Despair.
Speaking of the race, wasn't it the two-mile dash, free-for-all, that Binks lost all his money on?
Yes, Why?
Nothing, only I remember he used about a two-mile dash in expressing himself after it was over.—Chicago Tribune.

"Through the months of June and July our baby was teething, and took a running off of the bowels and sickness of the stomach," says O. P. M. Holliday, of Deming, Ind. "His bowels would move from five to eight times a day. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house, and gave him four drops in a teaspoonful of water, and he got better at once." Sold by A. C. Ireland.

Most Considerate Man.
"Yes; I think his marriage showed him to be a most considerate and kind-hearted man."
"Considerate and kindhearted! Well, I admit that she's not beautiful, but she's worth a mint of money, and wouldn't have suffered for a husband if he had never seen her."
"Oh, I don't mean that he showed consideration for her, but for his creditors."—Chicago Post.

It Looks Suspicious.
"I believe you have been secretly married to young Mr. Noodle," cried the irate father.
"How ridiculous!" replied his daughter.
"Well," said her sire, "he used to come here at eight o'clock and stay till 11:30, and now he doesn't get here until nine o'clock and leaves at 10:15."—Tit-Bits.

Busy.
It is first a nomination over which he has to fret, and next it's an election that his ardor hopes are set.
And when he gets elected and there's no doubt he hustles to be chosen for the place another time.
In the midst of all these duties which a statesman cannot shirk, you wonder where he gets the time to do his office work.
—Washington Star.

TRUTH DEARER THAN GLORY.
"Ah, so you're name is Gawge; named after Gawge Washington, I suppose."
"Yes, a long time after."—Chicago Inter Ocean.

The Mystery Solved.
She never smiles. Has frowning grief with bonds of iron bound her?
Has care a long, lean finger raised.
To cast some spell around her?
Has one so young the lesson learned?
That true love is oft betrayed?
Ah, no! She never smiles because—
Her front teeth are decayed.
—Chicago Daily News.

A Great Saving.
Aunt Dinah—Whatfoah you weahs brack, Deacon Ebony? You am not a widower.
Deacon Ebony—I is economical, honey. One brush do me foah a hat brush, ha'r brush, clothes brush, shoe brush and flesh brush.—N. Y. Weekly.

Why He Was Proud.
Magistrate (to prisoner)—You are charged with beating your wife.
Prisoner—Yes, yer honor, an' I'm proud of it.
Magistrate—Proud of it?
Prisoner—Because, yer honor, she weighs 20 pound more'n me.—Tit-Bits.

Unnecessary.
Mrs. Hiram Offen—Dinah, I hope you didn't forget to wash the fish before you put it in to bake.
New Servant—Mah Lan! 'Whut fur Ah gwine wash a fish dat's alibin' in de wahtah all his life?—Catholic Standard and Times.

He Did Not Count.
"How many free lunches have you had this week, Snodgrass?" asked Skidmore.
"Sir," replied Skidmore, "I am a lunch eater, not a lunch counter."—Town Topics.

Poor Woman!
"Mrs. Jones has become an infidel—an unbeliever."
"Yes, she listened to so many stories from her husband, explaining his late hours, that she lost faith in everything."—N. Y. World.

Not Just What He Meant.
"Her face," he said, desiring to voice his admiration of her frankness and honesty, "is like an open book."
"Yes," replied her dearest friend, "she does talk a good deal."—Chicago Post.

Fond of Music.
Patrice—I told Will if he kissed me I'd scream.
Patience—And what did he say?
"Oh, he said he thought I had a very musical scream."—Yonkers Statesman.

Reversing the Process.
"He might have been drunk or just having a fit," said the copper.
"I own to a doubt and couldn't determine the least little bit, though I nudged his brains to find out."—Chicago Record.

Quicker.
He—Now, if you want money while you are away, dear, just write for it.
She—What's the matter with telegraphing?—N. Y. World.

You will never find any other pills so prompt and so pleasant as DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Ireland's Pharmacy.

Little Too Rare.
Guest (in cheap restaurant)—Here waiter! What kind of soup is this?
Waiter—Dat am chicken soup, sah.
Guest—Well, take it back and ask the cook to coax the chicken to wade through it just once more.—Chicago News.

Concise of Man.
We women, this psychologist says, remember our dreams more vividly than men remember theirs.
Of course, my dear. You know you have us men to dream about.—Chicago Record.

"I had a severe attack of bilious colic, got a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, took two doses and was entirely cured," says Rev. A. A. Power, of Emporia, Kan. "My neighbor across the street was sick for over a week, had two or three bottles of medicine from the doctor. He used them for three or four days without relief, then called in another doctor, who treated him for some days and gave him no relief, so discharged him. I went over to see him the next morning. He said his bowels were in a terrible fix, that they had been running off so long that it was almost bloody flux. I asked him if he had tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and he said 'No.' I went home and brought him my bottle and gave him one dose; told him to take another dose in fifteen or twenty minutes if he did not find relief, but he took no more, and was entirely cured." Sir, said the Lord Haired One indignantly to the editor, the poet is born. Oh, is he? retorted the editor. Well, I'm darned sorry he is. But this isn't the place where they take in the fifth notices. You go on down stairs to the business office.—Detroit Free Press.

SANTA FE COUNTY POLITICS.

Candidates for Office Who Are Talked Of—Many Good Men Mentioned.

Nicanor Baca, clerk of the city board of education, it is said desires the Democratic nomination for county clerk. He would not stand much show for election against either Atanasio Romero or Ambrosio Ortiz. Should he run he will be defeated.

The friends of ex-Probate Judge Antonio J. Ortiz, of Galisteo, are talking of him for the Republican nomination for county commissioner from his district, and it is said that A. Prisco Garcia, of Santa Fe, will likely be a candidate for probate judge.

It is said that Hon. T. B. Catron will accept the nomination for the council from this county on the Republican ticket, and of course if he does so there can be no question from past indications that he will make a strong fight and a good race. His nomination would carry his election alone.

Among the names mentioned for candidates for probate clerk on the Republican ticket the New Mexican hears those of Atanasio Romero, the present efficient clerk, and Ambrosio Ortiz, also of this city. Either of these gentlemen is competent and would fill the position creditably and satisfactorily.

For the shrewdly on the Republican ticket the following are mentioned: H. C. Kinsell, the present sheriff, who has made a good record, J. W. Akers and J. E. Lacombe. The fight for this position in the Republican convention promises to be quite lively and spirited. On the Democratic side the name of Marcelino Garcia is the only one mentioned so far.

It is evidently the intention of the Republican county committee in this county to have a short campaign and not call the county convention for the nomination of a county ticket until the second week in October. This they claim will prove good politics. The county is not very large and the candidates could make their campaign trips in two weeks and do it easily and satisfactorily.

On the Democratic side the candidates for nomination for county officers have not yet announced themselves. On the other hand on the Republican side for some of the county offices there will be a spirited contention. It is universally admitted that with a good, strong ticket and loyal support thereof the Republicans will carry the county by from 400 to 600 majority; hence the reluctance of the Democratic office seekers to announce themselves candidates for office.

A great many citizens, solid tax payers and property-owners have called at the office of the New Mexican and have expressed themselves as remarkably well satisfied with the administration of the office of collector and treasurer of Santa Fe county during the past four years by Major E. C. Muller. The New Mexican understands that tax-payers and property-holders generally desire the renomination of Major Muller to that office on the Republican ticket. There can be no doubt, judging from the past two elections and taking into consideration Major Muller's excellent record as a citizen, official and soldier, that he would be elected by a very large majority should he be renominated. The office is a very responsible one and a large bond must be given. It is a very important office and the Republican party of this county would do mighty well to put the right thing in heading public sentiment and renominating Major Muller for the office.

Presbyterian Mission School.

The Presbyterian mission school will open its fall term on the 13th of September. Miss Allison, the superintendent, says that she scarcely expected to live long enough to see such an awakening in the cause of education and proper training among the native population of New Mexico as has come under her observation within the past year. At the head of this large and well conducted institution Miss Allison has opportunities peculiarly her own for judging the temperament of the masses on this subject, and her chief regret just now is that she has not accommodations enough for thrice the number of pupils now provided for.
