DEFYING GERMANY

Prince Tuan Has Been Appointed Grand Secretary to the Emperor of China.

FRIENDLY OFFICIAL REMOVED

He Is Succeeded by a Strongly Anti-Foreign Official—United States Consul Goodnow Protests—The Present Situation in China.

New York, September 24.—A dispatch to the Herald from Shanghai says: Prince Tuan is declared by Taotai Sheng to have been appointed grand secretary to the emperor, a position to enable him to control all communications to and from the throne. This constitutes a defiance of Germany's demands. The Taotai of Shanghai, who signed for the viceroy's friendly agreement with the foreign consuls, has been removed by imperial edict, his successor being strongly anti-foreign. Unofficial protest was made by United States Consul Goodnow to the viceroy. These facts are considered a defiance of Germany's demand for the punishment of Prince Tuan, as head of the Boxers.

BRITISH SARCASM

London, September 24.—This afternoon's newspapers comment on the American reply to the German note to attribute it to "political exigencies."

ENDURED TERRIBLE HARDSHIPS

London, September 24.—The American missionaries, J. Roberts, Miss Williams, William Sprague, Mrs. Sprague, Miss Virginia Murdock, who escaped from Kalgan, province of Chi-Li, China, in June, were chased across the Gobi desert, and thence by way of Siberia have just reached London in good health, although they endured terrible hardships.

THE POSITION OF FRANCE

Paris, September 24.—France's reply to Germany's note making the punishment of the instigators of the Chinese troubles a preliminary to peace negotiations is not an entirely acceptable proposition. France argues that punishment is necessary, but would negotiate under certain conditions without first punishing the guilty officials. The foreign office informs the Associated Press that M. Pichon, French minister at Pekin will pass the winter at the Chinese capital, as Tien Tsin is considered uninhabitable after the sacking of that city.

FRANCE NOT INCLINED TO INCREASE ITS ASIAN FLEET

Paris, September 24.—The French government is not inclined to increase its Asiatic fleet, but possibly some gunboats will be sent to navigate the small streams.

THE HOWARD CASE.

Judge Cantrell Gave Brief Instructions to the Jury.

Frankfort, Ky., September 24.—The defense closed in the sur-rebuttal testimony in the Howard case at 10 o'clock today. Judge Cantrell gave only two instructions to the jury substantially as follows: "First, to be found guilty if the jury believed Howard fired the shot, or if he were present when Youtsey, Berry, Howard or others fired the shot. Second, the defendant cannot be convicted on the testimony of an accomplice."

ACTIVITY AT GALVESTON.

Twice as Many People Coming into the Town as Are Leaving.

Galveston, Texas, September 24th.—The wharf front again shows signs of activity. Plenty of freight is arriving. Half a dozen steamships are to be loaded this week though one of the great troubles is scarcity of labor. The trains are arriving on time. Twice as many people are coming as are leaving.

Yellow Fever at Havana.

Washington, September 24.—Private advices from Havana indicate that the yellow fever outbreak is serious. Fever exists in the best parts of the city, and among Americans who have gone there.

A Wage Schedule Signed.

Cincinnati, Sept. 24.—The amalgamated wage schedule at $4.15 per ton based on a 1 cent rate, was signed by both sides on Sunday and the mills started today.

Marshal Campos Dead.

Madrid, Sept. 24.—Marshal Martinez de Campos, at one time governor general of Cuba, died on Sunday.

Baseball.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—National league: Cincinnati 4, Chicago 6; Cincinnati 4, Chicago 8; St. Louis 1, Pittsburgh 3.

Senator Hanna in New York.

New York, September 24.—Senator Hanna reached this city this morning direct from Cleveland.

SUPPLIES ARE CAPTURED

The British Occupied Komatiport and Captured Erasmus Camp with 3,000 Cattle and 8,000 Sheep.

MERCENARIES START FOR HOME

London, Sept. 24.—Lord Roberts reports from Pretoria under date of September 24 that the guards under Pole-Carew occupied Komatiport this morning and the bridge was found intact. Much rolling stock and truck loads of "long ton" ammunition were captured. Only a few rifle shots were fired. Roberts adds: "I have captured Erasmus camp, 3,000 cattle, 8,000 sheep and 23 prisoners. Methuen made another big haul of stock." Roberts also reports that the few Boer troops remaining in the eastern Transvaal are completely "out of hand," and says that they are mostly bagmen, the foreign mercenaries having gone to Lorenzo Marques owing to the Portuguese government promising to maintain them while there and to give them passage to their respective countries.

MORE FLOODS IN TEXAS.

The Colorado, Pecos, Concho and Other Rivers on a Rampage.

Dallas, Texas, September 24.—City Marshal Deaton, of Dublin, Texas, at 1 p. m. today telephoned as follows: The disaster at Brownwood is reported here today as being very serious. Eight persons were drowned and part of the town was badly wrecked by water. The town is entirely cut off by wire and rail. The Fort Worth & Rio Grande railway west of Dublin is crippled by washouts. As the wires are down the trains laid out cannot be heard from. No lives are lost near Dublin but the property damage is large. The Leon river and branches swept over an immense area of country around Dublin. Further west, in the Brownwood section, the Colorado, the Concho, the Pecos and other rivers and tributaries made wide spread damage.

TRAFFIC SUSPENDED.

Temple, Sept. 24, 1 p. m.—Can't hear a word from the Brownwood country. Wires are gone and traffic is suspended by the immense damage to the road.

A VILLAGE SWEEPED AWAY.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 24.—Dispatches from the river valley in Texas say that in the little Mexican village of Algaio on Gallardo creek, a branch of the Nueces, not a house is left standing as a result of the flood. A Mexican family of four and two American campers, supposed to have been deer hunters from Eagle Pass, perished. Efforts to get word from Brackettville which was wrecked by a flood a year ago failed owing to the washing away of the telegraph wires.

TWO STRIKES.

One in Chicago and the Other at Victor, Colorado.

Chicago, September 24.—Two hundred and seventy-five ornamental glass workers went to work today because the local firms refused to sign an agreement calling for an increase of pay of certain classes of work and a reduction of hours from ten to nine a day.

INDEPENDENCE MINE CLOSED.

Victor, Colo., September 24.—Stratton's Independence mine closed. The miners refused to work on account of an order requiring them to strip and change their clothing before a watchman before leaving the mine. The object of the order is to stop thefts of ore said to amount to thousands of dollars worth every month. It is said that a half dozen large mines agreed to the same regulations.

THE GALVESTON STORM SUFFERERS.

The Response Made by Santa Fe People to Appeals for Aid.

Major R. J. Palen has received from the Presbyterian church of this city the sum of $24.30, which was taken up at the services yesterday for the relief of the Galveston sufferers. This makes a total of $193.30 thus far received.

The Rev. Father Gray is sending off today his last shipment of clothing, etc., for the Galveston storm sufferers. He has gathered and sent altogether six large sacks full. He does not attempt to fix accurately the money value of what has been sent, but as much of it was drawn by the donors from the stores, as well as from the merchants themselves, and all was nice and serviceable, he ventures to think that it was worth $100 at the very least. Mr. Gray returns thanks to all those who so generously responded to his appeal for these gifts, and to the Wells Fargo Express company for carrying them free of charge.

STRIKE SITUATION

More Troops Are Demanded in the Anthracite Coal Region to Keep Strikers from Violence.

BOTH SIDES ARE STILL FIRM

An Attack on the President of a Colliery—Less Coal Is Being Shipped Now Than Ever Before—Demonstrations by the Militia.

Shenandoah, Pa., September 24.—The strikers attacked the president of Colliery No. 3, at Girardville, near here. General Gobin, commander of the National Guard, has been asked for troops.

FUNERAL OF JOHN OHOMITZKI.

Shenandoah, Pa., September 24.—John Ohomitzki, a Polisher killed during the riot on Friday, was buried today. Fully 5,000 mine workers attended the funeral. They stood in line and as the hearse, the only vehicle in the procession, passed every hat was raised.

A DEAD LOCK.

Philadelphia, September 24.—Contrary to the expectations of the mine operators, the lines of strikers remained unbroken today. The second week of the anthracite coal strike opened with the tie-up of the mines as complete as at any time since the strike began, with no great gains or losses on either side. Demonstrations were made by the troops in various parts of Schuylkill county this morning. The striking mine owners passed the marching militiamen. The Reading company, which practically controls the market now, is shipping less coal today than ever.

OBJECTION TO TROOPS.

Pottsville, September 24.—Every organization of the Mahanoy valley and the St. Lawrence colliery at Mahanoy is shut down completely. At Gilberton the mine workers to-day resolved to quit because the appearance of an armed force is a reflection upon those who are peaceable and law abiding. The statement was made that the men are willing to work if the troops are recalled.

DISTURBANCES EXPECTED.

Shenandoah, September 24.—The peace which pervades the entire coal field is in danger of being disturbed, General Gobin thinks. He received information that an attack is to be made at Girardville, about eight miles from here. The troops have been ordered there. A disturbance is also expected at the Cambridge colliery, operated by the Cambridge Coal Company, south of here. Of the 140 employed at the mine, 130 went to work to-day, and every man is to be armed. J. C. McGinnis, an official of the company, addressed the men this afternoon and said: "Fight, if you must; retreat when attacked. I will fire the first shot. When I fire, fight for your lives. Don't shoot until I do; then shoot to kill."

IN DISTRICT COURT.

The Santa Fe County Bond Case on Trial Today.

Very little business was transacted in the district court this morning. Owing to the continued absence of Hon. T. B. Catron in the east several cases in which he is to appear had to be passed over until later. This afternoon the case of B. S. Coler vs. the board of county commissioners of Santa Fe county comes up for hearing. This suit was brought to collect the payments due on certain coupons and is chiefly a matter of calculation as to the amount. C. W. Waterman, Esq., of Denver, and Judge N. B. Laughlin, of this city, represent the plaintiff and District Attorney Gortner the defendants.

Judge McFie overruled a demurrer in the case of Guadalupe Perea de Harrison vs. Perea et al. This is a chancery suit.

JUDGMENT AGAINST THE COUNTY.

The two suits of Bird S. Coler vs. Santa Fe county were heard this afternoon. This consisted merely in the presentation of the coupons and judgment was entered upon them by Judge McFie for the amount of the coupons and interest amounting to about $134,000. All the defenses that could be made on behalf of the county had already been made in the pleadings and had been overruled by Judge McFie.

WANTED IN NEW MEXICO.

Three Men Arrested in California Suspected of Being Implicated in a Murder.

A dispatch from Salinas, Cal., says that three men have been arrested at San Lucas on suspicion of being implicated in the murder of Deputy Sheriff Chaves, of Socorro county, N. M., about seven months ago. They have been identified by an officer from this territory, and will be held to await extradition proceedings. Two of them are Daniel Johnson and Timothy Taylor.

The men referred to are evidently those who held up the lumber company's mill at Magdalena and escaped across the country in the direction of Utah. A posse headed by Sheriff C. F. Blackington pursued them with two Indian trappers and came up with them in a canon in the western part of the county, where a fight ensued, in which Chaves was killed.

Fulfillment of Prophecy.

When the masters of immortal name, Wagner, Mendelssohn, Schumann, Liszt, and Joachim, foreshadowed that the tendencies of improvement in modern pianos must be toward the restoration of tonal beauties, approximating in volume and quality the human voice, they could not foresee that professional opinions of the greatest living artists indicate that their prophecy finds its fulfillment in the product of a Chicago factory—the Kimball. This piano bears the proud distinction of being used at the present day as the artistic supplement to the human voice in the home studies of Patti, Eames, Nordica, and other artists of the highest rank.—Chicago Tribune.

Las Cruces, N. M., Sept. 24, 1900.—The Republican county convention which met here today was a strong and big convention and the utmost harmony prevailed. The national and territorial administrations were strongly endorsed and the delegates were instructed to vote for Pat F. Garrett for the nomination for delegate to congress. The delegates are: Eugene Van Fatten, Patrick F. Garrett, C. Valdez, Henry D. Bowman, Preciliano Moreno and W. H. H. Llewellyn.

A QUEER CUSTOM.

Ralph McFie Tells How the Igorrotes Catch Thieves in the Philippines.

In a recent letter to his father, Judge John R. McFie, Ralph McFie makes some interesting references to customs which prevail in some portions of the Philippine Islands, as follows:

"I will give you a few pointers on catching thieves, taken from the latest improved methods in vogue in certain parts of this island. The Igorrotes are a semi-wild tribe up in the northern provinces of the island of Luzon, and are to be found in the provinces of Lepanto, Baguay and several others, and the few items I give you below were given me by a mining man who has mines up there and lives among them. He is an American and a man who may be believed implicitly.

"Here is a test for catching a thief. Upon a person reporting to the head man of a pueblo that something has been stolen, the following proceedings are had to determine who is the thief, and it is claimed they are most just and less mistakes are made than by our own rules of justice and equity. All of the natives of the section are called together and seated in a circle; then the head man goes around and gives each a spoonful of dry rice; at a signal from the head man they all put the rice in their mouths and masticate it until upon another signal from the head man they spit it upon the ground in front of them.

"The head man then goes around, examines the substance, which has been partly masticated, and then he pounces upon some one as the guilty party, and no matter how much he may deny it he is held and if he persists in denying his guilt, he is whipped until he confesses. Whereupon he is ordered to return the stolen article and an equal amount in damages, and also furnish a hog for a feast, as no public function is complete without roast hog. He refuses to pay the penalty, he is whipped until he consents with the order. However, as a matter of certainty, the judge usually gives two tests of the rice trial, each one being allowed so much time, and it is said the judge rarely makes a mistake.

"The explanation is this: the thief, knowing he is guilty, is nervous, and when given his rice is unable to masticate well, in fact can scarcely moisten it, as under his excitement the flow of saliva stops, but with the innocent parties the flow of saliva is not stopped and they are able to completely masticate the rice. So you see it is not so bad as it looks. Try it at your next term of court, thus dispensing with juries and save expense."

A SMELTER FOR ALGODONES.

A Company Incorporated at Denver to Operate in New Mexico.

An extensive investment of Denver and St. Louis capital in New Mexico is projected in the incorporation of the New Mexico Smelting and Refining Co. at Denver on Saturday. The company, which is capitalized at $1,000,000, will operate at Algodones, twenty-five miles north of Albuquerque, where a smelter and refinery with a daily capacity of 200 tons will be at once erected. A water plant, electric light plant and brick works will also be built, the company purposing to expend $300,000 within the next six months. The smelter will use the silver-lead process. The incorporators of the company are A. J. Frank, J. W. Howard, J. S. Risdon, Benjamin H. Charles and E. Meyersburg. The two last named are St. Louis parties. Mr. Frank, the promoter of the company, is well known in Colorado mining circles.

THE JOHNSON MURDER CASE.

No Arrest Has Been Made—The Killing Was Justifiable.

Sheriff H. C. Kinsell has returned from Cerrillos, and reports that no arrest has been made or any further action taken in the Edward Johnson killing case. Mrs. Johnson's own statement is the only direct evidence, although there is considerable circumstantial evidence to show that the killing was justifiable, and that the woman had lived in daily fear of her life for some time. The general opinion among the people at Cerrillos seems to be that Johnson, had he lived, would have attempted to carry out his previous threat to murder Foreman and Mrs. Williams, as well as his own wife. The fact that not a soul attended his funeral is cited as an evidence of how little Johnson was thought of in the community. Mr. Kinsell is of the opinion that his wife would be easily acquitted.

The woman, whose name is Etolia Johnson, was brought before the justice of the peace at Cerrillos for a preliminary trial. Nine witnesses were heard, who testified that the woman's act was in self-defense. The magistrate thereupon discharged the woman.

THE POLITICAL FIELD

An Open Letter to the New Mexican by Captain A. B. Fall on the Delegateship Nomination.

COUNTY CONVENTIONS HELD

Chaves County Republicans Instruct for Hon. Solomon Luna for Delegate to Congress—Union County Democrats for Larrasola.

To the Editor of the New Mexican.

Las Cruces, N. M., September 23, 1900.

Sir: Through your columns I desire to thank many friends throughout the territory for the kindness which has manifested expressions favorable to my candidacy upon the Democratic ticket for delegate at the approaching election. In the enthusiasm of personal friendship, many have assured me that, if consenting to accept the nomination, I would not only receive that honor, but would be elected.

I am too old in politics not to know that to secure a nomination it is necessary to do as Paul Jones did when he wanted a ship, that is, to "go after it."

I have been accused, in the past, of being too aggressive, too partisan, too uncompromising, in politics. While flatter myself that I was influenced somewhat by patriotic motives in desiring to assist in freeing a suffering and down-trodden people, I entered the army influenced largely by a desire to free myself entirely from politics which had caused me loss of money, time and friends.

My service gave me much time for thought, and I returned to rebuild my law practice, fully determined not to take part in politics again to the extent of holding office.

Personal friends having insisted that I accept the Democratic nomination: offers of support, hearty and sincere, having been extended me from various portions of the territory; financial assistance of a substantial character having been offered from divers sources; and being assured by many staunch and life-long Republicans in Santa Fe, Bernadillo, Grant, San Miguel, Otero, and particularly in my own county, that I should also have their support and votes, I finally agreed that while I would not antagonize any candidate, and make no fight for it, if the nomination was tendered me, I would accept. This was "not politics," but it was only with reluctance that I brought myself even to this decision.

Much to my surprise—and to my no little amusement—it has been reported by friends of other candidates that I, who had in the past been declared (in many instances by the same parties) to be too partisan, aggressive and uncompromising a Democrat, am now said to be too friendly with the territorial Republicans—and not a good Democrat!

Much to my surprise, and to my regret, jealousies have been aroused in quarters to me most unexpected.

I, who imagined that I knew something of politics in New Mexico, have learned something more.

My ambition, if I had any, was to secure assistance for New Mexico in the way of appropriations for reservoirs, canals and water depositories; to assist in securing statehood; and my desire would have been, if nominated, to make a campaign along these lines and embracing such questions.

I can safely say that I had no ambition to go to the United States senate, nor to make a reputation for eloquence in a Democratic caucus in exposing the many shortcomings of a Republican administration to Democratic representatives who, with votes can, I imagine, attend to that part of the business; nor did I have any desire to dictate to Mr. Bryan, in event of his election, the nomination of territorial office-holders; neither do I imagine, nor have I claimed, that I could so dictate or secure these appointments.

I am yet assured that I might secure the Democratic nomination, but being without ambition, I will not stand in the way of that of others far more deserving, and I will not be the cause of any jealousies or heart burnings, and I therefore decline to be a candidate.

In this I am simply following out my course of conduct of the last twelve years—I have never been a candidate before the territorial Democracy for delegate to a convention, or even national committee-man. My time, money and efforts have been used upon all occasions for some one else.

Other letters have been written or interviews have been published in connection with the prospective nomination for delegate by the respective parties; there are no "strings" to this.

I have had as much honor out of this matter in the cordial, hearty and sincere assurances of support to be rendered as if it had been rendered and to a successful issue. I desire to thank the Republican press of the territory for the courtesy which it has extended me, and the uniform kindness with which my supposed candidacy has been treated by these political opponents. Respectfully,

ALBERT B. FALL.

CHAVES COUNTY REPUBLICANS.

The Republicans of Chaves county held their county convention at Roswell last Wednesday evening, and it was an enthusiastic and well attended gathering. Col. I. H. Elliott was chosen chairman and James M. Harvey secretary. Col. I. H. Elliott and W. S. Prager were elected delegates to the territorial convention at Santa Fe on October 3. The following county ticket was nominated: Sheriff, John Shaw; probate clerk, C. W. Johnson; assessor, E. M. Smith; treasurer and collector, S. T. Sack; probate judge, Karl A. Snyder; superintendent of schools, A. H. Rockefeller; surveyor, W. A. Wilson; commissioner of district No. 1, William Benson; district No. 2, W. M. Reed; district No. 3, H. F. Smith.

A MYSTERIOUS MURDER

The Wife of an Alamogordo Barber Is Found Dead with a Bullet Hole Through Her Body.

A MAN ARRESTED ON SUSPICION

Last Friday afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock the town of Alamogordo was surprised by the discovery of the murder of Mrs. Catherine Harper, wife of a colored barber, John Harper. The woman was found murdered in her own bed room. She had been shot with a 38-caliber revolver, as an examination of the wounds showed. The bullet had entered 3 inches to the right of the left breast and passed clear through the body. There were no signs of a struggle. There was a spot of blood on the bed pillow, but none on the floor, although the body lay some 3 feet away from the bed. The imprint of the barrel was plainly marked on her breast, showing that the murderer had pressed the revolver close against her body. Her left hand was blackened by powder, showing that she had grasped the barrel in an effort to defend herself.

Mrs. Harper was a half-breed Indian, and was married last winter in Albuquerque. From all accounts she was a woman of good character, and lived happily with her husband, who was a quiet, inoffensive working man. Motives for the crime can only be conjectured, but the fact that her watch and jewelry was lying undisturbed on a table near by when she was found showed that robbery had nothing to do with it. Some of the neighbors report having heard a muffled shot shortly after 4 o'clock, and unconfirmed rumor says that a strange man was seen leaving the house a little later.

Her husband was at his shop, and learned of his wife's death only when called by the neighbors. A 38-caliber pistol was found in the room, but examination showed that it had not been fired for a long time.

James Stockton was arrested at Alamogordo Saturday night, charged with the murder. A letter taken from the postoffice by Mr. Harper, directed to his wife and requesting her to leave her husband and go away with Stockton furnished the clew which led to the arrest.

RESIDED FORMERLY IN SANTA FE

John Harper, the husband of the deceased, is very well known in Santa Fe, where he resided for about twelve years and was employed as a porter at the Palace hotel. He was married here to a young woman from whom he was subsequently divorced, and who is now residing here. The news of his second wife's tragic death has attracted considerable attention among the colored people in this city. It is said that she was an orphan girl whom he and his former wife had adopted and raised in this city, and subsequently sent to school at Albuquerque.

NEW BUNK HOUSES AT ALBEMARLE.

George W. Kephart Goes to Denver to Buy Furnishings for Them.

George W. Kephart, manager of the great general merchandising establishment of the Cochiti Gold Mining Company at the Albemarle mine in the golden Cochiti, left Santa Fe over the Denver & Rio Grande railroad this forenoon en route to his former home in Denver, where his wife is at present sojourning and his children are at school. Mr. Kephart goes to Denver for the purpose of buying iron bedsteads, springs, mattresses, blankets and other articles needed to furnish two new bunk houses for the men employed by the company in the great Albemarle mine and mill. He says the company has decided hereafter to provide all its men with the very best kind of clean and comfortable beds, and to place the bunk houses in charge of competent persons, who will see that the beds are always made up and ready for the men when they quit work and want to rest, whether employed on the day or night shifts. The company is at present employing about 250 men, and the operations of both its mill and mine are proceeding smoothly.

MAX. FROST, Secretary.
JOHN S. CLARK, Chairman.

"The harder the task the greater will be the result, the benefit and the honor. To doubt our power to accomplish it is to lose faith in the soundness and strength of our popular institutions."—Wm. McKinley.

New Mexico lies off the highway of the national campaigns, but it will manage to raise some campaign excitement of its own before the sixth of November rolls around.

A freight train in Indiana was wrecked by a broom handle. It had been wedged in a frog by mischievous boys. This is a new role for broom handles, which up to this time were known occasionally to wreck domestic happiness but never freight trains.

An Illinois farmer spent $7,000 to get a divorce from his wife. She must have been a terror indeed if it was worth that much to get rid of her, for the average Illinois farmer for the sake of $7,000 would do up with almost anything from this side of the Styx.

The Chinese minister at Washington subscribed $100 to the Galveston relief fund and the Chinese merchants of New York City gave liberally to the same cause. This charitable act shows that a Chinaman in decent surroundings is not such a bad fellow after all.

It is rather a paradox to have a fusion party split into three parties but that is what has happened in Montana, and the Republicans now have a good chance to come to their own and to redeem the state from the offensive notoriety it gained by the Clark senatorial affair.

The Russians drove 5,000 Chinese non-combatants into the Amur river and clubbed them back into the stream as they attempted to land. The Russians are not gaining respect in the eyes of the world by deeds of cruelty such as have been charged against them since the beginning of the Boxer troubles in China.

The Boer forces have been scattered so often and the war in the Transvaal has been pronounced on its last legs so frequently that it becomes sort of monotonous to read that the Boers have been routed again after a stubborn battle. The jig is up for the Transvaal republic, but it seems strange that big battles should be fought and the Boers routed after the British have taken possession of the whole country, with all its cities and railroads and after the Boer president has fled. The British generals who have gotten little glory out of the war are undoubtedly magnifying skirmishes into battles and the chasing of a guerrilla band into a rout for the enemy.

"The party which will not allow the constitution to follow the flag through the Carolinas, through Mississippi and Texas, has no occasion to distress itself about the constitution's journey 4,000 miles across the sea."—Republican State Platform, New York.

Las Vegas prides itself upon having made the largest contribution to the Galveston relief fund of any town in New Mexico, but Santa Fe and Albuquerque did equally as well, and other towns in the territory are still to be heard from. This rivalry for the sake of humanity is a noble one and a credit to New Mexico.

The Denver Post has become so disgusted with the shameless antics of the anti in Arapahoe county, Colorado, that it has declared vigorously against the county ticket nominated by the fusionists. The Post is not the only newspaper that has turned its back on the Bryanite followers who stoop to the lowest depths of political infamy in order to get into office.

Over 96,000 visitors passed through Cheyenne canon, near Colorado Springs, this year, which is 10,000 more than last year. This is an indication of the many tourists that Colorado Springs attracts annually. Santa Fe should strive to be the Colorado Springs of New Mexico. It has a finer climate, more historic attractions and fully as many scenic beauties as the favored Colorado resort.

El Paso is to have a new smelter, although the ore it is to treat is to come from New Mexico. By proper effort Albuquerque or some other city might have secured the smelter, for the New Mexico corporation laws are more liberal than those of Texas and it seems natural that a smelter should be erected in the commonwealth where the ores it is to treat are found.

Another little war cloud has appeared on the South American horizon. Ecuador intends to invade the United States of Columbia. A battle or two may be fought and the casualties may run up to five or six before peace is declared, but it will hardly pay to send special correspondents to the seat of war, for it is a peculiarity of South American revolutions that they are as brief as they are bloodless.

Colonel Bryan changes his proposed political itinerary every day it seems. The ominous reports that are pouring in to Democratic headquarters at Chicago are to blame for this. It is the intention to send Colonel Bryan to the doubtful states, but every day the list of states that were deemed Democratic in the beginning of the campaign but are doubtful now, grows longer, and therefore the frequent revision of the itinerary.

Bryan's automobile campaign tour may prove a boomerang. To his party belongs a large part of the laboring world which does not believe in the introduction of labor saving machinery and which has been made to believe that Colonel Bryan is a teller who has an aversion to luxuries and new fads. An old-style statesman and a modern automobile are an incongruous combination that will keep the cartoonists busy until the end of the campaign.

Factional fights in Democratic ranks in this territory are evidently not unknown, vide the following from the last issue of the Raton Gazette, a bitter Democratic paper:

"A number of Independent voters have requested the announcement of a mass convention to be held at the opera house on the 10th of October, 1900, for the purpose of nominating a county ticket.

A delegation of heretofore members of the Democratic party in good standing called at this office and requested the publication for a mass convention which appears in this issue.

In the battle of Antietam the 15th Massachusetts infantry lost 56 per cent of its whole number of men engaged, most of them in less than twenty minutes. In the battles fought by Americans within the last few years the loss of 23 per cent by the 9th infantry before Tien Tsin is the nearest approach to so heavy a loss. The engagements in the Philippines are mere skirmishes compared to the battles of the civil war. The cry of the anti-expansionists about the terrible bloodshed in the Philippines is far-fetched, for the death rate of the soldiers in Luzon is not greater than is the death rate of New York or Chicago.

Advantages of the Country Boy.
The magazines and reviews are discussing with great seriousness why the average country boy succeeds better in life than the average city boy. It is an open question whether that is true, but granted that it is, it is interesting to know the reasons advanced for the country boy's superiority to fight the battle of life.

Thomas Brennan, a Chicago business man, who has studied the question for thirty years, blames the city schools. He says: "The average country boy coming in from the backwoods is more valuable to the business man than the average pupil who is graduated from the Chicago public schools. The amount of time spent in the Chicago schools upon studies that are not essential is fully as great as that given to reading, writing and arithmetic. They have tried to make everything of the school boy, and they have prevented him from becoming anything."
H. W. Foster, superintendent of schools at Ithaca, N. Y., takes the view that the basis of the country boy's success is in the home life on the farm. "Through that life these elements of character are directly cultivated—fearlessness, pluck, self-reliance, activity, responsibility, patience, endurance, judgment." Farm labor calls for intelligence. The farm boy must rise early to do his chores before school and attend to them after school. He has worked to split, cows to milk, stables to clean, stock to feed. He must push ahead with his work in order to have any leisure. He shares in the toils which feed, warm,

CATARRH: FORERUNNER OF CONSUMPTION.

Few realize what a deep-seated, obstinate disease Catarrh is, regarding it as a simple inflammation of the nose and throat, little or no attention is given it. But, however insignificant it may seem at first, it is serious and far-reaching in its results.
The foul secretions entering the circulation poison the entire system. The stomach, kidneys—in fact all the organs—feel the effect of this catarrhal poison, and when the lungs are reached its progress is rapid and destructive, and finally ends in consumption.
It frequently happens that the senses of hearing and smell are in part or entirely lost, the soft bones of the nose eaten into and destroyed, causing intense suffering and greatly disfiguring the face. While sprays, washes and salves may give temporary relief, no permanent benefit can be expected from such treatment.

CATARRH IS A CONSTITUTIONAL OR BLOOD DISEASE,

and far beyond the reach of mere local remedies. Those who rely upon them for a cure lose valuable time, meet with disappointment and allow the disease to take firmer hold. Only a real blood remedy can reach this troublesome and dangerous disease.

S. S. S. cures Catarrh because it first cleanses and builds up the blood, purifies it, makes it rich and healthy, stimulates and puts new life into the sluggish worn-out organs, and thus relieves the system of all poisonous accumulations.

Mrs. Josephine Polhill, of Due West, S. C., writes: "I had Catarrh, which became so deep-seated that I was entirely deaf in one ear, and all inside of my nose, including part of the bone, determined to try S. S. S. as a last resort, and began to improve at once. It seemed to get at the seat of the disease, and after a few weeks' treatment I was entirely cured, and for more than seven years have had no sign of the disease."

S. S. S. is made of roots, herbs and barks of wonderful tonic and purifying properties. It is the only vegetable blood purifier known, and a certain and safe cure for all blood troubles. Send for our book on Blood and Skin Diseases, and at the same time write our physicians about your case. They will cheerfully give you any information or advice wanted. We make no charge for this.

shelter and clothe the family. He gains skill in meeting difficulties, and becomes self-reliant because he finds in himself power to do. He learns to endure cold, heat and fatigue with fortitude. From childhood he sees that labor is necessary, and he seldom doubts its justice and honor.

The city boy, even if his parents are poor, has little training in labor, endurance or responsibility. The boy need take no thought for the comfort of himself or others. A comfortable school house is provided in which he is expected to sit quiet five to six hours a day. "What an education," as Mr. Foster well says, "may be here in laziness and irresponsibility. It is a mistake to educate children into a disposition to avoid any sweat-producing activity."

The trouble with the average city boy is that he has never really learned to labor. To the country boy, a dollar, compared with his work, looks as big as a cart wheel, and he is willing to do any amount of dirty and menial work for it, which really is the stepping stone to higher positions. The city boy, on the other hand, as soon as he leaves school desires to jump into a high-salaried, white shirt front job, and being unable to secure that he drifts into a little clerkship or business, and being disheartened at his small salary, does his work in a half-hearted manner, which prevents his ever rising to a position of greater responsibility or pay.

Many of the coal miners in the Pennsylvania anthracite region already are tired of the strike and wanted to go back to work today. There is nothing like drawing your pay regularly, small as the amount may be. The coal miners of Pennsylvania make fair wages, although what is not unknown among them as it is elsewhere there are improvident or unlucky individuals but on the average the remuneration they receive for their work gives them a fair living, and whenever they find it does not, they are at liberty to move to a place where they can find work that pays better. There are abuses to be corrected and wrongs to be righted but they are the subject for legislative enactments and arbitration rather than for a strike and high handed violence.

"Your voice, when constitutionally expressed, is commanding and conclusive. It is the mandate of law. It is the law to congress and to the executive. May that voice be that of right and truth and justice. I am sure it will be so, and if it is, we need have no fear for the future of our country."—Wm. McKinley.

POLITICAL SIDE LIGHTS.

Comments of the Leading City Papers on Political Questions.

THE VERDICT OF FOUR STATES.
(St. Louis Globe-Democrat.)

Since April four states that gave their electoral votes to McKinley have held elections, and the Republicans have swept them all by exceptionally large pluralities. They are Oregon, Rhode Island, Vermont and Maine. In the three New England states the Republican pluralities were not as large as in 1896, but far beyond the average of the years before the Democratic party went into a partnership with free silver and Populism. In Oregon, on the opposite side of the country, the Republican plurality greatly exceeded that of 1896. Oregon was very close in its state election that year. The Republican plurality was less than 500 in the spring, and McKinley's plurality in November was only 2,117. But Oregon's Republican plurality this year was over 10,000. In the four states mentioned every Republican candidate for congress has been elected, making a total of ten for the next house. All the state officers and legislatures are Republican.

Taking Oregon as the test for the west, there will be large Republican gains in that region, enough to add twenty or thirty electoral votes to the Republican side. The result in Oregon is the more significant because Bryan canvassed the state in the spring.

GOVERNOR ROOSEVELT'S LETTER

(Boston Journal.)
Theodore Roosevelt's perfect knowledge of the west, acquired in his ranching and hunting life there, stands him in good stead in the preparation of his letter accepting the Republican nomination for vice president.

No more true, vivid and convincing thing has been said in this whole "imperialism" controversy than the historical parallel which Colonel Roosevelt draws between our own earlier "expansion" and our treatment of the Indian and other residents in the annexed territory, and our treatment of the Philippines. Colonel Roosevelt shows that our additions to the national domain have been made without "the consent of the governed" without consulting the wishes of the native inhabitants. He reminds his countrymen of a significant though forgotten fact when he points out that "the great majority of the inhabitants" of Louisiana "were bitterly opposed to the transfer" when Thomas Jefferson accomplished it. "An armed force of United States soldiers had to be hastily sent into the territory to prevent insurrection." Colonel Roosevelt says, "President Jefferson sending these troops to Louisiana for exactly the same reasons and with exactly the same purpose that President McKinley has sent troops to the Philippines."

MR. WEBSTER DAVIS AGAIN.

Mr. Webster Davis is to the fore again, through the medium of some of the most interesting accusations ever made concerning an officer or ex-officer of the government. These accusations are made by a Mr. Thielkuhl, who was formerly a subordinate of Mr. Davis in the interior department when the latter was assistant secretary. They are to the effect that Mr. Davis used him as a cat's paw in violating the neutrality laws of the United States in advertising for and forwarding to South Africa men who were to serve in the Boer army. Mr. Davis, it is represented, was careful not to let himself appear in the matter lest it should "injure him with the administration," but made Mr. Thielkuhl bear all the brunt of suspicion; and then, as his superior officer in the department, when the latter's conduct was called into question, went through the force of a pretended investigation and whitewashed him. In return for his services Mr. Thielkuhl says he was to receive a share in the Kimberley diamond mines when the triumphant Boers succeeded in wresting them from Great Britain. He says, further, that it was in connection with this precious scheme that Mr. Davis went on his extraordinary tour to South Africa at the expense of the United States, expecting to receive a large sum of money from Mr. Kruger for his services, but that since he started on that trip he has quite ignored his unfortunate tool. Mr. Thielkuhl, who not only has fallen thus far to receive title deeds to any corner lots in the diamond mines, but has also lost his place in the government service.

SUBSTITUTE FOR COAL.
A good deal of anxiety has been devoted to the question, what will the human race do when coal gives out? Its disappearance will not make the slightest difference, as a chemical substitute has been discovered, which is cheaper and better. The new century is bound to witness many changes, but there is one human benefactor which will remain as firm as the Pyramids, and that is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It is a cure for all stomach ills. No one has been able to discover anything so effective for indigestion, constipation, dyspepsia, biliousness, liver and kidney troubles as the Bitters. Be sure to give it a trial, and you will be convinced that it is the medicine to strengthen your stomach and restore your appetite.

The Attraction.

No other preparation will do this. It instantly relieves and quickly cures all stomach troubles. Ireland's Pharmacy.

DOES IT PAY TO BUY CHEAP?
A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boecher's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. For sale by Ireland's Pharmacy.

Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea After 30 Years of Suffering.
"I suffered for thirty years with diarrhoea and thought I was past being cured," says John S. Halloway, of French Camp, Miss. "I had spent so much time and money and suffered so much that I had given up all hopes of recovery. I was so feeble from the effects of the diarrhoea that I could do no kind of labor, could not even travel, but by accident I was permitted to find a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after taking several bottles I am entirely cured of that trouble. I am so pleased with the result that I am anxious that it be in reach of all who suffer as I have." For sale by A. C. Ireland.

LOCATION OF MINING CLAIMS.

Some Legal Pointers That Every Prospector Should Know.
Under the act of congress (Revised Statutes, section 2319-2324), a lode claim cannot exceed 1,500 feet in length by 600 feet in width, and should be in the form of a parallelogram, having its side lines equidistant from the center of the lode, with end lines parallel to each other.

A lode is a zone, belt or body of quartz or other rock lodged in the earth's crust, and presenting two essential and inherent characteristics, viz: (1) It must be held in place within or by the adjoining rock; and (2) it must be impregnated with some of the minerals or valuable deposits mentioned in the statute, and which will authorize the location of a lode claim.

In locating a mining claim all that the statute requires is that the location shall be distinctly marked on the ground so that its boundaries can be readily traced. Whether any markings have been made, and whether they are such that the boundaries of the location can be readily traced, are questions of fact.

The statute does not require any record of the location, but when one is made it prescribes what it shall contain, viz: that the name of the locator, the date of the location, and such description of the claim by proper references as will identify the claim, the principal object of the record is the identification of the claim; and, if, considering everything it contains, the name of locator, date and description by reference to some natural object or permanent monument, the claim can be identified, the record is sufficient.

No notice of location is required by the statute, but when the same is posted on the ground it must be considered as a marking to aid in tracing the boundaries. When such notice contains a description of the claim and is recorded, it operates as constructive notice to the locator claims the ground described. The description as shown by the record will ordinarily bind the locator as to the locus of the claim; but where the distances and courses set out in the description vary from the monuments or markings made on the ground, the latter prevail and will determine the locus of the claim.

The effect of a valid location is to segregate from the public lands the grounds located, and the prior location gives the prior and better right. A valid location vests in the locator the exclusive right of possession and enjoyment of the ground located, together with all the lodes therein.

The maxim that one may recover on the strength of his own title does not apply in the case of a naked trespasser or intruder, although the party in possession may have a defective location; in such case the latter's possession alone is sufficient to maintain ejectment.

RE-SEEDING THE RANGE.

An Experiment That Will Be Attempted by the Department of Agriculture.

The first steps toward a re-seeding of the range on the public domain, which has been denuded by too much cropping by cattle, may shortly be taken by the department of agriculture in the west. J. H. Carpenter, a botanist of the department of Colorado, says:

"I want to study the conditions of the range and see if there was any other wild grass than the blue stem, which has been almost exterminated, which could be made to grow on the lower hills of the region. On the higher mountains of New Mexico, western Colorado and eastern Utah there are millions of acres of the best pasturage in the world. Above certain altitudes, where there is more or less rainfall, various kinds of low grasses grow, which from June to November could fatten ten times as many cattle as now feed upon them. That which limits the size of the herds, however, is the lack of winter range. 'Fifteen or twenty years ago these lower hills were covered with a growth of the grass known locally as 'blue stem.' In some of the open parks the grass grew so thick and so high, without irrigation or cultivation of any sort, that the first settlers cut thousands of tons of hay right off the public domain. In those days, they tell me, cattle could be picked up fat for beef in February. Unfortunately for the region, it was opened just at the time that the first cattle boom had caused the plains east of the range to be enormously overstocked. Cattle by the thousands and tens of thousands were rushed in to fatten on the grasses of the mountains in summer, and to pass the winter on the benches and lower hills in the blue stem. That grass has not a very strong root, and its continuance depends upon re-seeding to a large extent. The crowding in of cattle, with also a few flocks of sheep, has almost exterminated the blue stem over large areas, and where thousands of cattle once spent the winter there is now nothing but sage brush and pinon."

"I am of the opinion that the gramma grass of the plains; the common short grass which grows even in dooryards in Denver, and is sometimes known as buffalo grass, could be seeded in place of the blue stem, and that it would furnish in time even better winter range than there used to be. The gramma grass grows readily from the seed, and the seed is readily collected. I base my opinions on this matter largely on what I have been told of the usual weather conditions in that part of the state. This year there has been practically no rain, and as I saw the conditions no sort of grass would grow. But I am willing to take the word of the old residents that this is the worst year for drought that they have known."

"The essential thing for the success of the experiment is that the ranchmen give the new grass a year or so to catch hold."

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers' and grandmothers' never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by Ireland's Pharmacy.

Charles Beinert has returned to railroading again, and will take his old place as night operator for the Santa Fe railroad at this point. Samuel Laird, the present operator at the depot, will be transferred to a similar position at Thornton. The steam laundry will in the future be continued by A. C. Graves.

Yesterday afternoon Ireneo Chavez and Hank Easton went out to look at some horses, and when Easton entered the pasture a steer took after him. He was about 200 yards away from the steer at the time, and suddenly developed wonderful sprinting powers. He covered the distance in less time than it takes to tell, and went right through the fence before the steer could overtake him. His companion had not entered the pasture at the time, and so escaped being pursued.

A new county central committee was selected as follows: Charles de Bremond, Ira P. Wetmore, Robert Kellahin, W. S. Prager, H. W. Hamilton, R. S. Hamilton, Howard Leland and E. A. Cahoon, for Roswell; W. E. Lindsey and C. O. Leech, for Portales; O. R. Tanner and J. S. Dicus, for Hagerman; T. C. Tillotson, for Penasco, and C. C. Martin, for Cedar Canon. The member for South Spring will be named by the committee later.

The delegates to the territorial convention were instructed for Solomon Luna for delegate, and the territorial and national administrations were strongly indorsed.

LEGISLATIVE CONVENTION.

After the county convention had adjourned the legislative convention of Chaves, Eddy and Lincoln counties met. A. J. Nisbet nominated James M. Hervey, of Roswell, for representative to the thirty-fourth legislative assembly. A new legislative committee was chosen as follows: W. E. Lindsey, Karl A. Snyder, O. R. Tanner, R. S. Hamilton and A. J. Nisbet, of Chaves county; W. A. Finlay, I. S. Osborne, L. O. Fullen, John Ritchey and B. G. Stegman, of Eddy county; and Timoteo Analla, J. V. Tully, R. Michaelis, J. H. Canning and George Sena, of Lincoln county. R. S. Hamilton was elected chairman of the committee and A. J. Nisbet secretary.

TWO OF THE CANDIDATES.

John Shaw, the candidate for sheriff, is well and favorably known in Santa Fe, where he lived for ten years, and was a United States deputy surveyor. If elected, and there seems to be a good chance for that, he will make a first-class sheriff.

James Hervey, who was nominated for the lower house of the assembly for the district, is a young man who has resided in Chaves county for ten years or more, a member of the bar, and who is liked all over the county. The entire ticket is strong, and the Chaves county Republicans propose to poll the largest Republican vote they ever did since the creation of the county.

UNION COUNTY DEMOCRATS.

The Democrats of Union county held their convention at Clayton Saturday a week ago. The following delegates were chosen to the territorial convention at Santa Fe on October 4: J. S. Holland, Jose M. Gonzales, Luis A. C. de Baca, Lino Garcia, O. E. Smith; alternates, Howell Earnest, Leandro Vigil, Caraculo Garcia, Charles Sanford, Francisco Miera. O. A. Larrazola was indorsed for delegate to congress.

DEMOCRATS OF BERNALILLO COUNTY.

The county convention of the Bernalillo county Democrats at Albuquerque, to select delegates to the territorial convention, was slimly attended, only seven delegates being present. L. S. Trimble was chairman and A. B. McGaffey secretary. The following delegates to the territorial convention at Santa Fe on October 4 were selected: H. B. Ferguson, E. V. Chavez, Frank McKee, N. B. Field, O. N. Marron, John Bonnell, L. McKee, P. F. McCanna, S. Burkhardt, A. B. McGaffey, Martin Tierney, W. M. Weaver, John Couloden, Henry Lockhart, James McCormiston, Edward Dodd, L. S. Trimble, Andres Romero, Leonardo Hunick, George Hofheins and Horton Moore.

SANTA FE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

It Selected Delegates to the Territorial Convention Next Month.

The Democratic county convention to elect delegates to the territorial convention assembled at the court house Saturday afternoon. Eugenio Sena, county chairman, called the meeting to order. E. H. Borgman was chosen temporary chairman, and Jose Ortiz y Baca, temporary secretary. The question of permanent organization proved a fruitful one for discussion. Each delegate seemed to have a method of his own and each objected to the method of the other. One motion followed another and objections came thick and fast from all sides. Finally it was proposed to table the whole lot but further objections were made but at last this was straightened out and the chair ordered the roll call of precincts. This too was objected to and A. B. Renahan suggested that it was about time for the chair to apply the Reed rules if the convention was to accomplish anything.

The controversy was finally adjusted and the committee on organization and order of business were appointed and reported. Jose Segura was selected permanent chairman and J. L. Zimmerman permanent secretary. Camilo Padilla and Jose Ortiz y Baca were appointed interpreters.

The convention adopted brief resolutions endorsing the Kansas City platform and proceeded to the selection of delegates. There was no factional fight on this score and no instructions were given. The only trouble was that there were more candidates than delegates to be chosen.

The delegates selected were: Charles F. Easley, Manuel Naranjo, Julian Ortiz, Miguel Abeyta, Camilo Padilla, N. B. Laughlin, Tony Neis, Frank B. White, Patricio Trujillo, Leandro Alarid, Pedro Sandoval, Meliton Castillo. The alternates were: W. H. Pope, Librado Vigil, Sebraso Sena, Cirilo Sena, J. P. Victory, A. P. Hill, R. Green, Warren Graham, Atanasio Jaramillo, Rafael Maestas, J. S. Candelario, A. B. Renahan.

Harmony was awfully thick in the convention, that is every one of the delegates present wanted to be a delegate to the territorial Democratic convention. It looks as if the delegation were an Antonio Joseph delegation.

It must be admitted that the convention was not large nor was it very enthusiastic, but great zeal was manifested especially by the committee to select 13 delegates to the territorial convention. These gentlemen were very zealous indeed and it took a long time to agree upon a slate and all because about every man was ready and willing to sacrifice himself upon the altar of his country and attend the Democratic territorial convention, which is all very proper, right and commendable. There is nothing like being patriotic and it is bad policy in politics to hide one's light under a bushel basket, which the delegates evidently did not propose to do.

WINE OF CARDUI

A LITTLE
DOES MUCH.

No tongue can tell what I have endured in the past ten years with my monthly sickness. While suffering untold agony, a friend called and recommended Wine of Cardui. I sent for a bottle, and Oh! what relief. After the first dose I began to feel better and have had no pain since.

MRS. GRACE LAMPHERE.

Wine of Cardui

Wine of Cardui not only cures but it acts AT ONCE. Here is a case of ten years' standing, and yet one single dose made the sufferer feel better, and stopped the pain. The Wine goes straight to the seat of the trouble. It acts directly upon the menstrual and genital organs. Its action is not violent, and it does not force a result. It simply gives Nature that little assistance that the sufferer's system lacks. A single disorder in the feminine organs spreads many disorders all over the body, and when the Wine cures the source, all the other ills vanish as a matter of course. A woman can be her own physician and cure herself at home. Local examinations are largely things of the past—the obnoxious custom is no longer necessary. Wine of Cardui is the only perfectly safe and sure vegetable Wine made to-day for the cure of "female troubles".
