Colombia: Natural Gas Distribution Shutdown Caused By Rebel Sabotage

by Barbara Khol

Category/Department: General

Published: Tuesday, March 10, 1992

On the evening of March 2, rebels attacked oil and gas pipelines outside Barrancabermeja, site of Colombia's main oil refinery, located 225 km. north of Bogota. The explosions set off raging fires and forced Ecopetrol to suspend distribution of natural gas to several cities. (Basic data from Associated Press, 03/03/92)
