On March 24, the International Journalists Federation (IJF) opened a human rights office in Lima. According to the Federation, over the past 10 years, 39 journalists were killed in Peru. Six of the 39 died within a six-month period of 1991. The Federation claims 300,000 members in 54 countries. (Source: Agence France-Presse, 03/20/92)
