

To Change the World: My years in Cuba

A Reading by Margaret Randall

Wednesday, September 28
The Willard Room
Zimmerman Library,
6:00-8:00 PM

The revolution in Cuba was one of the most important and controversial social experiments in the second half of the 20th century. Margaret Randall reads from her 2009, part memoir, part political analysis of her experience in Cuba from 1969-1980.

Brought to you by Inter-American studies @ the University Libraries, Latin American and Iberian Institute, Queer Straight Alliance, Women's Resource Center, Women's Studies, Office of Graduate Studies, and Center for Peace Studies. For more information 277-0818 or pheffern@unm.edu