Earth Hymn

Anne Griffis

Fields of grain ripple gold; trees grow stately, green and old.
Priceless land and sea and air, ancient rivers, oceans fair.

Precious earth! Look everywhere! We can choose to live and care.
Grasses where the swift ones leap, moses where the tiny sleep.

Care that sky is clear and bright, care that birds can soar in flight.
Heal the earth, preserve this sphere, join in acts that hold it dear.

Precious earth! Look everywhere! Guide us all to live and care.
