This exhibit will spotlight the various activities and projects developed through the talents of Indigenous students. We are excited to focus on the next exhibit, this exhibit is called We Are UNM! This exhibit will highlight and celebrate the many talents of Indigenous Faculty at UNM. We Are UNM! Exhibit

The INLP collection provides access to resources and collections that support and promote Indigenous knowledge and its relation to the root of sociocultural knowledge and its relation to land and landscape. This book is beautifully compiled and the cover is exquisite. Living on the Land: Indigenous Women’s Knowledge is inseparable from land and landscape. This collection focuses on women's knowledge. This collection focuses on the intimate nature of knowledge processes that Indigenous women possess. Understanding of Place, is a book that speaks volumes because we see the value and importance of reinforcing the Wellspring of Wisdom.

This month's newsletter includes:
- Upcoming Events
- INLP Podcasts
- INLP Strategic Planning
- Featured Book
- Open Forum
- Paulita Aguilar, Associate Professor & Research Librarian. paulita@unm.edu

Thank you very much for taking the time to read our newsletter. If you have any questions please contact: 505.277.7433 1 University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, NM 87131 University Libraries, MSC05 3020

Thank you,

Paulita Aguilar