NEWS

Anderson & the Association for Commerce and Industry present A Business-to-Business Breakfast Series with Distinguished Adjunct Professor John T. Ackerman Tuesday, February 19, 7:30 - 9:00 am in the Jackson Student Center.

Admission to the breakfast series is free, but seating is limited. Those interested in attending can reserve a space at rsvp@mgt.unm.edu or for more information call 277-6413. A light breakfast will be served.

Work Study Needed
Anderson is looking for an energetic individual to work in a fast-paced reception area. Duties include answering telephones, copying documents, distributing mail, delivering paperwork to buildings on main campus. Some light lifting. 10-15 hours per week. Call 277-6471 to schedule an interview. Work-study qualified a plus.

Lunch and Seminar with High-Tech CEO Jim McNally, Friday, February 22, 12:15 - 1:45 pm, GSM 302. “Who’s the Boss around Here, Anyway? Making It as an Entrepreneur” will give students an audience with a successful high-tech entrepreneur in a lively discussion about startup structure and how to move forward with business planning. Part of the UNM Technology Business Plan Competition events, this lunch and seminar is open to everyone! Jim McNally is the CEO of TruTouch Technologies, Inc. Lunch is provided. RSVPs, which are recommended but not required, will allow plenty of food to be ordered: RSVP to bizplan@mgt.unm.edu.

FAST INFO

Have a question? Ask it at http://fastinfo.unm.edu and we’ll try our best to answer it here.

Question: The student info screen in LoboWeb has the wrong concentration for me, so what do I need to do to change it?

Answer: Stop by the Advisement Center and fill out a “Change of Concentration” form at the front desk. Your advisor will make the change in 24-48 hours and you’ll see it reflected in LoboWeb.
