Robert J. Cramp, president of the University of Texas, gave a short talk on the significance of the university for the state and nation.

The ceremonies, and a most impressive program was rendered by the students.

The program consisted of a series of addresses by Dr. H. J. Cramp, president of the university, and several members of the faculty.

The speeches were given by special invitation from the university, and were well attended.

The audience was satisfied with the program, and many were pleased with the results.

One of the most important and impressive parts of the program was the address by Dr. H. J. Cramp, president of the university.

He spoke on the importance of the university and its role in the development of the state.

The address was well received by the audience, and was followed by a round of applause.

The president ended his address by thanking the audience for their support and expressing his hope that the university would continue to grow and prosper.

The program was followed by a series of addresses by faculty members and guests, each of which was well received by the audience.

The program concluded with a rendering of the national anthem, sung by the university choir.

The audience was pleased with the program, and many were impressed with the quality of the performances.

The program was well received by the audience, and was followed by a round of applause.

The president ended his address by thanking the audience for their support and expressing his hope that the university would continue to grow and prosper.

The program was followed by a series of addresses by faculty members and guests, each of which was well received by the audience.

The program concluded with a rendering of the national anthem, sung by the university choir.

The audience was pleased with the program, and many were impressed with the quality of the performances.

The program was well received by the audience, and was followed by a round of applause.

The president ended his address by thanking the audience for their support and expressing his hope that the university would continue to grow and prosper.

The program was followed by a series of addresses by faculty members and guests, each of which was well received by the audience.

The program concluded with a rendering of the national anthem, sung by the university choir.

The audience was pleased with the program, and many were impressed with the quality of the performances.

The program was well received by the audience, and was followed by a round of applause.

The president ended his address by thanking the audience for their support and expressing his hope that the university would continue to grow and prosper.

The program was followed by a series of addresses by faculty members and guests, each of which was well received by the audience.

The program concluded with a rendering of the national anthem, sung by the university choir.

The audience was pleased with the program, and many were impressed with the quality of the performances.

The program was well received by the audience, and was followed by a round of applause.

The president ended his address by thanking the audience for their support and expressing his hope that the university would continue to grow and prosper.
NORDHAUS TO SPEAK

The next assembly to be held at the University will be of interest to everyone so interested in the development of the world of today. It will be held at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the Center of the auditorium.

Mr. Nordhaus is to be introduced by Mr. Walker of the Federal Reserve Board. He will address the members of the student body on the current economic situation. His talk will be an inspiration to all students who are interested in the future of the world.

We solicit your account
CITIZENS NATIONAL BANK
Albuquerque, N. M.

LIBERTY DAILY LUNCHEON
OPEN DAY AND NIGHT
PHONE 146
2516 CENTRAL AVE.

"The U. N. M. Weekly" is printed by
ALBRIGHT & ANDERSON, Inc.
Figure with us on any of your school printing projects, placards, invitations, etc.

U. N. M. WEEKLY
1920

PASTIME THEATRE

WATERFALL, MEXICO
Now Playing at the Pastime Theatre.

YOUR FAVORITE CIGARETTE

Your Cigarette Mr. Mainker's
RUBBER CO.
Albuquerque, N. M.

LET US DO THE SHOPPING FOR YOU

The New Mexico Telephone Company
PROFIT NOT FOR APPOINTMENTS

The New Mexico Telephone Company

OPTOMETRIST

ABERNATHY OPTICAL

C. A. HAYDEN

G. A. BURGESS

C. A. HAYDEN

Your failure to obtain all sources as absolutely healthy habits.

Electrical Appliances of the Most Modern Types and Styles
Come and look over our stock

ALBUQUERQUE GAS & ELECTRIC CO.

USE... R. E. P. FLOUR

CERILLO'S ANTIQUES

CERILLO'S and CALLUP LAMP CO.

CERILLO'S

CERILLO & CALLUP LAMP CO.

CERILLO & CALLUP LAMP CO.

CERILLO'S ANTIQUES

CERILLO'S AND CALLUP LAMP CO.
DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNITY LIFE

University of New Mexico

1930

UNIVERSITY WEEKLY

ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO APRIL 21, 1930

BASEBALL SQUAD TO SCORCITO SATURDAY

Baseball to Meet New Mexico Junior College Baseball Game

Saturday afternoon at the University of New Mexico.

CENTRAL AND DESERT STATE LEAGUE

The following is the account written by the Editor of the News in the Journal of the Central and Desert States League:

The second game of the series was played at the University of New Mexico on Saturday, April 12, when the New Mexico State University and the University of New Mexico met, the former winning by a score of 7 to 4. The attendance was good, and the weather was favorable.

In the first game of the series, the University of New Mexico defeated the New Mexico State University by a score of 7 to 4. The attendance was fair, and the weather was favorable.

In the second game of the series, the New Mexico State University defeated the University of New Mexico by a score of 7 to 4. The attendance was fair, and the weather was unfavorable.

The weather was favorable in both games, and the attendance was good in both games.

The first game of the series was played at the University of New Mexico on Saturday, April 12, when the New Mexico State University and the University of New Mexico met, the former winning by a score of 7 to 4. The attendance was fair, and the weather was favorable.

In the second game of the series, the New Mexico State University defeated the University of New Mexico by a score of 7 to 4. The attendance was fair, and the weather was favorable.

In the first game of the series, the University of New Mexico defeated the New Mexico State University by a score of 7 to 4. The attendance was fair, and the weather was unfavorable.

In the second game of the series, the New Mexico State University defeated the University of New Mexico by a score of 7 to 4. The attendance was fair, and the weather was unfavorable.

The weather was favorable in both games, and the attendance was good in both games.

The first game of the series was played at the University of New Mexico on Saturday, April 12, when the New Mexico State University and the University of New Mexico met, the former winning by a score of 7 to 4. The attendance was fair, and the weather was favorable.

In the second game of the series, the New Mexico State University defeated the University of New Mexico by a score of 7 to 4. The attendance was fair, and the weather was favorable.

In the first game of the series, the University of New Mexico defeated the New Mexico State University by a score of 7 to 4. The attendance was fair, and the weather was unfavorable.

In the second game of the series, the New Mexico State University defeated the University of New Mexico by a score of 7 to 4. The attendance was fair, and the weather was unfavorable.

The weather was favorable in both games, and the attendance was good in both games.