LA CHARLA SEMANAL CON EL CENTRO

Quick thoughts:

Happy November! We are getting closer to the end of the semester and even closer to registration day. If you have any questions we encourage you to come by El Centro and make an appointment with one of our Student Program Specialists.

This Week at El Centro:

You are invited to Cafecitos con Rosa! This Tuesday, November 7th from 4:30pm-6:00pm at El Centro's conference room. Come Share your ideas with the Director of El Centro, build community and share resources while enjoying cafecitos & bocadillos. See you there!

Join El Centro this week for our second, of the series, Professional Development Workshop! It will be held this Wednesday, November 8th from 12:00pm to 1:00pm at El Centro's conference room. This week The workshop will focus on career construction.

Study Sessions: Join El Centro and our partners for a night of studying. On Wednesdays from 4:00pm to 9:00pm, come to the conference room for a place to study and do homework, filled with snacks, coffee, and tutors.

El Centro's annual Etiquette Dinner is going to be held on Tuesday, November 14th from 5:30pm to 8:30pm! Join us as we partner with Career Services to show you key skills to utilize when business dining or networking. Please see the attached flyer for more information and to RSVP.

This week at UNM:

The Humans of New Mexico project is now being exhibited across main campus libraries. It is a great opportunity to learn about diversity and stories of individuals across the state. The next program will be held on Tuesday, November 7th from 1:00pm- 2:00pm at Centennial Library with the chance to engage with project participants.

UNM Student Affairs will be hosting a Toy Drive at various locations including at El Centro de la Raza which will run through December 1st. Help make the holidays brighter for local families! See attached flyer for more information.

The Mellon Mays Undergraduate Fellowship (MMUF) program is now taking applications for 2018-2019 cohort. The program offers support academically and financially with the goal of encouraging minorities to pursue PhDs. The deadline will be December 4th, 2017. See attached flyer for more information

Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) has now posted their Pathways positions on USAJOBS. Applications will be due November 9th. See attached flyer for more information.

Reminders:

Registration for classes is rapidly approaching, and starting this semester all students must have completed the Grey Area Training in order to graduate/register for next semester classes. Find out more information by contacting the Lobo Respect Office at 505-277-2911 or visit their website at <http://loborespect.unm.edu/>.

MELLON MAYS UNDERGRADUATE FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

The fundamental objective of MMUF is to address the problem of underrepresentation in the academy at the level of college and university faculties. The program is designed to encourage fellows to enter PhD programs that prepare students for professorial careers; it is not intended to support students who intend to go on to medical school, law school or other professional schools.

MMUF Benefits:

- ❖ Research Opportunity – Fellows will engage in significant research projects in their fields.
- ❖ Professional Development – Fellows will develop analytical thinking, communicating, writing, and presenting skills and will network with Fellows from other universities.
- ❖ Faculty Mentor – Fellows will be paired with faculty providing one-on-one mentoring.
- ❖ Graduate School Preparation – The MMUF program provides guidance for the graduate application process including GRE preparation.
- ❖ Financial Support – Fellows will receive stipends ($1,800/semester) for up to four semesters. Fellows are also awarded summer stipends ($3,900) for two summers. Additional funding is available to Fellows for related travel and research materials.
- ❖ Post-Undergraduate – Fellows receive academic and financial support to complete their PhD.

You are eligible to apply if you:

- Are a full-time UNM student in one of MMUF eligible fields*
- Have two years remaining before graduation
- Have an overall GPA of at least 3.5
- Are determined to pursue a Ph.D. and an academic career in one of the MMUF fields*
- Are a US citizen or permanent resident
- Are a member of an underrepresented group (Hispanic, Native American, and African American students)

Program Requirements:

- Participate in at least one off-campus summer research development program
- Attend the MMUF regional conference
- Present at the UNM Shared Knowledge Conference held annually in April
- Attend bi-weekly seminar each semester led by the MMUF Coordinator
- Attend orientation session and reception when first accepted into the MMUF program
- Participate in events provided for MMUF Fellows

Application Deadline: December 4, 2017
Application Form: mmuf.unm.edu/application

To apply for MMUF program, please submit the online application form. You will need:

- Unofficial transcript
- Letter of intent (one page) that clearly states your interest in the MMUF program and an academic career
- One letter of reference from a faculty member (The letter may be sent directly to MMUF@unm.edu by your recommender.)

*MMUF eligible majors
