Good afternoon and happy Tuesday! As part of our new design, we will also be sending out La Charla on a new day! Starting this week, La Charla will be sent out on Tuesdays instead of Mondays. If you have any events or workshops that you would like promoted in La Charla, please feel free to email your information to El Centro at elcentro@unm.edu with the the headline as "La Charla Next Week". We hope you have a fantastic week!

STAFF HIGHLIGHT

Diana Martinez-Campos serves as the Sr. Student Program Advisor for the College Assistance Migrant Program (CAMP) since July 2013. At CAMP, Diana helps CAMP students plan their academic paths, discover their passions, and develop practical skills essential for academic and professional success- from getting involved on campus, to how to write a professional email. Her passion and professional goal is to continue helping students discover doors of opportunity through education.
Nominations are officially open for the 2018 Raza Excellence Outstanding Student Award! See the flyer below for details or visit elcentro.unm.edu!

The Women's Resource Center Presents...

Eating Disorders and Body Love: The Things Mama Didn't Tell You
February 22, 2018
3:30 pm
Kiva Auditorium

This workshop will discuss the connection historical trauma has with eating disorders and the way colonialism has impacted the way people of color and indigenous people view their bodies. This workshop is coming from the perspective of a woman of color and welcomes people from all backgrounds to participate.

REMININDERS

Are you in need of counseling? Every Tuesday afternoon, El Centro partners with SHAC to bring Ruben Zurita, LPCC to help out our students. If you desire an appointment, please visit SHAC and ask to be seen by Ruben at El Centro.

Looking for more ways to get involved at El Centro? Sign up on our new volunteer form and we will send you opportunities to stay involved with El Centro familia! Sign up at this link: http://bit.ly/2rSKs8w

Study Sessions are in full swing! Join El Centro and our partners every Wednesday night from 4:00 to 9:00 pm for our weekly study sessions! There will be tutors, snacks, and coffee! We look forward to seeing you!
