THE U.S.-MEXICO LAW INSTITUTE
SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

An objective of the U.S. Mexico Law Institute is to promote and exchange understanding, knowledge and information concerning the U.S. and Mexican legal systems, and U.S.-Mexico legal issues. To this end, the Board of Directors of the Institute instituted a scholarship program to encourage and assist U.S. and Mexican law students, and young legal professionals, that have a demonstrated interest in U.S.-Mexico legal issues.

The Institute is proud to announce that the first recipient of the U.S.-Mexico Law Institute Scholarship is Omar Vargas. Mr. Vargas, a third-year law student at the American University School of Law, will be invited to attend the Seventh Annual U.S.-Mexico Law Institute and will be presented with a cash award.
