SUNSET MEMORIAL MAUSOLEUM

Architects: Nesmith & Lane, El Paso, and Brittelle, Giner & Associates, Albuquerque.

General contractors: Underwood and Testman.

Crypt contractors: J. C. Milne, Portland, Oregon.

Owners: Mr. & Mrs. C. T. French, President & Vice President, Mr. & Mrs. Jack Stewart, Secretary & Treasurer.

Of reinforced concrete and steel frame construction,
this building consists of three major areas: a crypt containing 1230 crypts, a spacious memorial hall which also contains 15 tandem crypts, and an administration wing.
The main block containing the memorial hall will be faced with shell stone on the exterior and walnut paneling within. Six varieties of Italian marble will be used in different parts of the mausoleum: (Italian Pearl Beige, St. Clair Golden Vein, Swedish Cippolino, Rose Cecile, Verde Antique, Bois de Jourdan). Crypt openings will be closed with marble slabs and each crypt will be equi­ piped with a vent pipe and drain pipe.
general
pumice corporation santa fe new mexico

FORMICA . . . the new romance in laminated plastics.

Sink tops, cabinet tops, counters, bars, display areas . . . . these are but a few of the many uses you have with Formica. Formica will not crack or craze, is unharmed by alcohol, fruit acids, boiling water or temperatures up to 275 degrees. Nineteen exciting new colors to choose from. Use this attractive, durable plastic laminate for all of your home building needs.

Distributed by

FORMICA®
Laminated Plastic

More doors for the choosing
More door for the money
WHEN YOU SPECIFY
CRAWFORD DOORS

Residential

Crawford
Garage Doors

Industrial

Commercial

Yes, look to Crawford for all the door models, styles and sizes you'll ever need . . . residential, industrial or service station. Designed to complement any style of architecture . . . engineered for "feather-touch" operation . . . built to last a trouble-free lifetime. That, in a nutshell, is why you should specify Crawford Doors.

CRAWFORD DOOR SALES of NEW MEXICO

Division of Welch-Erwin Corporation
1726 LOMAS BLVD., N.E.
ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO