NOTES AND COMMENTS

Attorneys for Children in Abuse and Neglect Proceedings: Implications for Professional Ethics and Pending Cases
Barry J. Berenberg ................................................................. 533

The Irrational Legacy of Romer v. Evans: A Decade of Judicial Review Reveals the Need for Heightened Scrutiny of Legislation That Denies Equal Protection to Members of the Gay Community
Kate Girard ........................................................................ 565

Immigration Consequences of Guilty Pleas: What State v. Paredez Means to New Mexico Criminal Defendants and Defense Attorneys
Tyler Atkins ........................................................................ 603

Trans-Literacy Within Eighth Amendment Jurisprudence: De/Fusing Gender and Sex
Nikko Harada ....................................................................... 627

The Unstated Tension in Albuquerque Rape Crisis Center v. Blackmer: A Divergence Between Formalism and Functionalism
Simona Martinez-McConnell .................................................. 661

Spencer v. Health Force, Inc.: One Step Forward, Two Steps Back for New Mexico Tort Jurisprudence?
Deana M. Bennett .................................................................. 687

Advancing the Arts Community in New Mexico Through Moral Rights and Droit de Suite: The International Impetus and Implications of Preemption Analysis
Channah Farber .................................................................... 713

INDEX: VOLUME 36 .................................................................... 749