Some Things Students Should Know

Tuesday the 9th of January, is set apart for registration for the second semester. Students who were in residence last semester were required to make out their programs of studies and file same with the registrar before the close of the semester. Those who failed to do this are liable to the late registration fee of one dollar.

Registration of New Students.

Matriculants first go to the office of the secretary, first floor, Main building, and pay fees. Students who have not resided in New Mexico for one year are liable for the tuition fee of $10 per semester charged to non-residents. After paying fees, they then go to the library and fill out information cards under the direction of the librarian. Then they go to room 9, second floor, and present records of past work to the chairman of the Committee on Student Standing who will determine their status in the University and send them to the proper persons for the completion of their registration.

Transcripts of Records Must be Presented.

No person can become a bona fide member of the University until he has presented an official transcript of his scholastic record to date, first eight grades excepted. In case this record can not be presented on registration day, a student may be registered provisionally, but he will have no status in the University until this part of registration is completed.

Maximum and Minimum Schedules.

Except in the School of Applied Science no student may enroll for less than twelve hours without the consent of the President nor for more than seventeen hours without the consent on the Committee on Student Standing. This consent must be sought by means of a written petition addressed to the committee and may be granted when the student in the previous semester has made a record of at least C in all courses except one, with no grade below M.

Eligibility.

Eligibility to represent the University in public games or contests not only athletic but also oratorical, debating, etc., and to hold class office, editorial and managerial positions, is established when the student has passed ten hours of work in the previous semester (matriculants excepted), and is passing in two-thirds of the schedule he is carrying, provided that he is passing at least ten hours.

Attendance at Classes.

Deductions are made in the credit earned in the course at the rate of one-tenth of an hour for each over-cut. An over-cut is taken when the student is absent beyond the number of class exercises which are held per week in any class. For example, the fourth absence and all succeeding absences in a course earning three credit hours are over-cuts. All absences are considered in the operation of this rule, whether they are due to late registration or incurred after registration.

Whenever absences are incurred on account of sickness or other sufficient cause, the student should report to the chairman of the Committee on Student Standing and present reasons for absence. If the reason is accepted, the student will be given an excuse card which he should exhibit to each of his instructors, and which will permit him to make up the lost work. However, it lies in the discretion of the instructor to determine whether the lost work can be made up and how it may be made up. After this lost work has been made up, the student should secure the signature of the instructor of the course from which he has been absent and file the card with the registrar. Note carefully, that such excuse cards will not be issued after two weeks from the time absence has been incurred and the card must be returned to the registrar before the close of the semester.

When deductions in credit on account of absences amount to more than one-third of the maximum which may be earned in any course, the student forfeits credit in the course, and is dropped from the class whenever such number of absences is reached.

Three tardinesses may be counted by the instructor as one absence.

Absences incurred immediately before or after a holiday or recess incur double penalty.

Strict Accountability to Program of Studies.

Each student is held strictly accountable for the courses for which he was registered. The registrar sends a class card to members of the faculty, each showing name of student, name and number of course and date of registration. Until such cards are received, students are not members of a class. No course can be dropped except in the regular way. The student must obtain from the registrar a drop card and secure the approval of the instructor of the subject dropped and of his advisor and then return the card to the registrar who notifies the instructor that the student has withdrawn from the course. A student who otherwise withdraws from a course will not be considered withdrawn from that course but will receive an F for that course at the end of the semester.

PHI MU SORORITY BUYS PRETTY CHAPTER HOUSE

National women now located in new home; first chapter house owned by women in New Mexico.

The most exciting piece of business transacted during the holidays was the purchase of Professor Nelson's house by the Phi Mu Sorority. The Phi Mu girls have been expecting to build for some time past, and the house.

seizing the opportunity when it presented itself, they have, with the greatest business foresight, transacted a deal which is most assuredly to their credit and which will benefit them greatly in the future.

The parties living in the house most graciously vacated and the Phi Mu's are occupying their new home at the present time. Allie Atkinson and Miss Sisler are the only two outsiders at present, besides Mrs. Shields, who is acting as matron of

The house is very suitably arranged for a sorority or fraternity home, and the location is one of the most advantageous that could be selected for such a building.

The girls have started on a campaign to raise money to furnish the house completely, and donations from friends have been accepted and will continue to be in order until their new quarters are furnished entirely.

The purchase of this house is only

ARIZONA BASKETEERS TO PLAY HERE FEB. 1

Two games have been scheduled to be played in Armory; financial success must be assured beforehand; practice started yesterday.

Two basketball games have been arranged between the University of Arizona and the University of New Mexico to be played here February 1st and 2nd. The Arizona quintette are traveling over this part of the country, and from all reports, have a very good team. This will be the first game of basketball the two Universities have played for a long time, and will undoubtedly result in the resuming of athletic relations in the future.

Practice started in earnest last night at the armory, and all men who are candidates for positions on the team showed a great deal of interest and enthusiasm. With the proper support from the student body, there is no reason why this year should not be made a banner season for the Varsity.

With six men back from last year's squad, and the new material which is available, Hutch should be able to round out a team which will be worthy to represent the University. With the absence of Bud Friday it was necessary to elect or appoint a Captain and Ray McCanna was appointed to fill the position.

A basketball league has been organized, comprising the teams from the high school, Indian school, Y. M. C. A. and the University. The first league game will be played in the Y. M. C. A. on Friday night. The teams to play have not yet been chosen, but will be picked before the end of the week. The season tickets obtained by the University students in the beginning of the year, are good for admission to these games. The hearty support of the U. N. M. students is necessary to make these games a success.

ROCKY CONFERENCE ADMITS U. N. M.

Freshman rule will be done away with, but all others must be fulfilled; great step for University of New Mexico.

The University of New Mexico has been admitted into the conference of the Rocky Mountain region, on the same basis that the University of Wyoming was admitted last year. This basis is that the Freshman rule will be done away with in our case, that is that Freshmen will be allowed to play on college teams.

The recognition of the University (Continued on page three) one more sign of the progress and advancement being made by the fraternal organizations on the hill and the Phi Mu girls are to be congratulated on the purchase of such a fine home.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 9, 1917

TO STUDENTS OF UNIVERSITY

Owing to the illness of some of the faculty, the grades were reported to this office very slowly. All psychology and philosophy grades have not yet been received at this date (5th of January) owing to the illness of Professor Worcester. Reports complete, except for psychology and philosophy, were mailed to parents or students within the last few days.

Five students were suspended for one semester on account of the operation of the rule that a student, in order to continue in the University, must pass at least one-half of his schedule. A few students were dismissed for the same reason in the course of the last semester.

Fraternity and sorority averages can not be compiled until all records of grades are complete but this work will be done at the earliest possible moment and published in the Weekly.

The present Freshman class is regarded by the faculty as being somewhat better prepared for college work and as being somewhat stronger in scholarship. A satisfactory improvement in grades by the whole student body on the average has been attained in the last semester. This is probably due to several factors; the improvement in the quality of work done in New Mexico high schools, the operation of the regulations on eligibility, attendance at classes, dismissal for poor showing, deduction in amount of credit hours required for graduation on account of higher grades and the enforcement of the maximum schedule regulation.

Signed, THE REGISTRAR.

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER! BEWARE VARSITY BACHELOR!

Beware of the New Year's dance my lad,
A score of old maids have gone plum mad.

They're coming with whims from the suffrage float.

All dolled and powdered to get your goat.

The old maids know, with their curls and locks,

That leap year will fade with a tick of the clocks.

Ladies' choice is scarce in this world of chance;

They'll enter the game and wear the pants.

II.

Beware of the New Year's party, my boy,

The spinsters are seeking their future joy;

Taffy's natural to them as water to a duck;

Bamboozled you'll be till you think you're stuck.

They'll urge you on in flirtation courts,

And talk of gym till you'll swear they're sports;

They'll offer a kiss with outstretched arm;

Beware, young man, they're not from the farm.

III.

The plot is on for the New Year's dance,

And you'll be the target for Cupids lance.

The suffragette girls are aiming the blow;

They're anxious to marry, as well you may know;

At last they'll seize you, with suffragette cop;

With billy in hand, the question they'll pop.

They've got your goat, and they've got you red hot;

Too late, bashful boy, they've fired the shot.

Holidays! Christmas Wreaths! Mistletoe! Tinsel! and Holly! Teas, picnics, watch parties and dances! And all that remains is the pleasant memory and the society chronicle. What a merry nineteen days they were with fun to make up for our pre-Christmas lent! If there was any variety of amusement not indulged in by our happy number, it cannot be discovered. The climax of the festivities came on New Year's morning and young 1917 was welcomed with more than the usual amount of celebration. Perhaps there followed an anti-climax—perhaps not—who can tell?

But now we come back to earth with a thud and gaiety vanishes before the black scowl of a grim report card. So joy must be locked in a strong box, and we can only hope that Pandora will pass our way once in a while, and open the box just a wee bit.

SIGMA CHI POSTMORTEM.

The Sigma Chi fraternity started the ball rolling on Friday, December 22, with a post-mortem dinner dance in honor of those passing away in exams. If the party was a sample of life post-mortem, we should all be willing to die tomorrow. The Sigs did not state whether their party was a foretaste of life in heaven or—or not. But anyway, they had a most sumptuous banquet, and courses with such terrible French names, that even turkey and cranberry sauce were scarcely recognizable.

A feature of the evening was the prize dances, in which the lucky winners received funny little dolls. The party was indeed a clever and original affair. The guests were Kathren Little, Alberta Hawthorne, Annette Weinman, Beatrice Selsor, Lina Ferguson, Laura Colan, Margaret Flounoy, Adelaide Shields, Louise Bell, Allie Atkinson, Rebecca Horner, Helen Vincent, Lillian Spickard, Carolyn Michaels, Rose Maharam, Mildred Cady, Kathleen Long, Helen Aldridge, Martha Henderson, Julie Hubbell and Miss Safford of Santa Fe. Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Ross chaperoned.

FOR LILLIAN SPICKARD.

On Thursday, December 28, Louis Bell entertained a few couples at her home in honor of Lillian Spickard, who was her house guest during the holidays. Popcorn was popped and marshmallows toasted over the fireplace.

Hazel Hawkins entertained a number of friends at a sewing party at her home on last Tuesday.

Martha Henderson and Adelaide Shields entertained a few couples in Phi Mu rooms last Tuesday evening. The party was a delightful little affair and wound up with a "spread" which would be hard to beat. Martha's Christmas box full of perishable eats, which of course came from home, was the nucleus of strength.

Katherine Keleher gave an informal party at her home on last Thursday evening.

Myrl Hope entertained for the Dorn girls, who remained in town during the vacation, on Friday afternoon.

A picnic at home is a novelty, but that is what the Sigs did on last Thursday afternoon. Fred Sabin, Stanley Seder and Carl Brorlen, took the party to Coyote Springs in their cars, where a wrennie roast was to add the proper touch to the trip, but a cold wind and lack of fuel drove the crowd back to the warm fireside at the Sig house. There the wrennie roast proceeded in a rustic but more comfortable fashion.

PHI KAPPA PHI.

The New Mexico Chapter of Phi Kappa Phi held interesting exercises on the 29th of December, at which Lillian Kieke, and Cherange Roberts, Alumnae, were initiated. The initiation was followed by a luncheon at the Country Club and the annual address of the president of the local chapter, Professor Lynn B. Mitchell, who read a paper on the development of the religious consciousness, based upon his researches in Greek and ancient religions, in a seminary course in Cornell University, and upon subsequent study.

The New Mexico chapter is planning to offer a group of lectures some time in the second semester, and is contemplating an elaborate and interesting program for commencement week.

Fred Luthy, a former University student, now attending Yale, and who will graduate from there this year came home for the Christmas vacation to visit his folks.

Annie Cristy gave a little informal party last week at her home.

Miss Angelica Howden entertained at a luncheon the fore part of last week.

Pete Sinesio will not return the second semester.

ROCKY CONFERENCE ADMITS U.N.M.

(Continued from page one). by the conference is due to the fact that our football team made such a showing against the Colorado College and the Colorado School of Mines.

This is a big step for the University, showing that we are recognized by other institutions as being able to compete in athletic contests with other colleges and schools, much larger than ourselves. This is something that the University has long been wanting and we are proud to have the opportunity of getting into such fast company.

The efforts and work of Dean Worcester who has been in Denver during the holidays are greatly appreciated by the student body. Dean Worcester was given authority to represent the University in any proposition proposed at the meeting of the conference last week, and he did so quiet admirably.

No definite schedule has been arranged as yet, but Albuquerque football fans will have a chance to see one or two more good football games next season.

LOCALS

Lillian Spickard spent the holidays jointly, with Louise Bell and Myrl Hope.

Kay Conway has recovered from a serious attack of pneumonia. Kay's many friends are exceedingly glad that she will be able to attend classes from now on.

Harold Miller has left us to return no more. (Ask the new poetess, if she had anything to do with it?)

Bud Friday stopped in the city for a few hours enroute to Los Angeles, where he will attend business school before going back to Columbia University in New York city. Bud's presence on the basketball team will be greatly missed this season.

David Mitchell is about to have his nose knocked out of joint, for he has a new brother, Thomas Jerome Mitchell, who claims the 23rd of December as his birthday, and the class of 1938 at the University of New Mexico.

Allie Atkinson has moved from Hkona to the new Phi Mu house, formerly occupied by Professor Nelson.

Herbert Shelton, one of last year's favorite students, will return in the next few days to resume his line of study.

Don Richardson has returned from Roswell, where he spent the Christmas holidays with his folks.

History No. 136, being the history of New Mexico is a new course added this semester. Professor Hill will conduct this class and it will probably be at 2 o'clock, Tuesdays and Thursdays. Professor Kirk will also give a course on the geography of New Mexico, which will come at 8 o'clock, Monday, Wednesday and Thursday. Professor Bonnet's class in civics of New Mexico will probably be at 8 o'clock Tuesday and Thursdays. We should all know something of New Mexico and any or all of these courses will undoubtedly prove useful.

Lee Langston has been forced to stay home this semester. Lee will return next year, however, prepared to stay until the end. Entire student body wishes Langston a prosperous New Year.

Howard Fullerton will be with us only for a short time. Fully completed his requirements for graduation and is just adding the finishing touches.

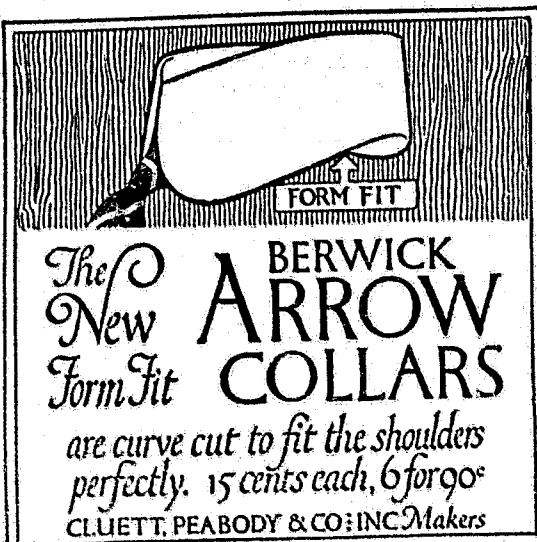

"Doggie," who has been at St. Joseph's hospital for the last three or four weeks, is able to get around now.

Professor Worcester, who has been in Denver in the hospital during the holidays will be with us in a few days.

Earl Gerhardt has returned after spending the holidays in bed at his home. Earl was threatened with pneumonia.

The Circulo Espanol will resume its meetings probably the next week. Watch for announcements on the bulletin board.

All those interested in basketball report at the armory from now on, every night at 4 o'clock.

HONOR SYSTEM

With the completion of the examinations for last semester, and the successful passing of a majority of students, in fact a little better than a majority, it seems that the time is ripe for the establishment of the honor system in examinations. This system has been tried in several other institutions and has worked very successfully. The plan is very simple, and places the student on his honor not to give or receive aid from anyone during the examination period. We are old enough now to realize that the only knowledge that is worth anything is that which we know ourselves. The only purpose of examinations is to enable the instructor or professor to determine the students ability to put the things together that he has learned during the semester.

The honor system is nothing more than the student signing his name to a slip of paper stating that he has not received or given aid during the examination.

Any suggestion concerning this system will be gladly received by the staff and published if desired. If you have any views this is a good chance to try them out. At any rate, the proposition to establish this system seems very plausible, and now is the time to act, before the program for this semester's examination schedule is arranged.

NOT ALL WORK AND NOT PLAY.

The record book of the faculty "non-Skid" committee shows that during the last semester the student activities have been many and varied. Apparently, dull care never hit our campus. The record book shows the following, in order of application for date.

Reception to new students, August 25.
