SALE OF THRIFT STAMPS IS LARGE

At Assembly Held Monday, Mrs. Werner of the Local Post Office, Explains This Form of Loan. Nearly Everyone Present Buys.

An assembly was held Monday morning, at which time Mrs. Werner, of the local post office, thoroughly explained the United States government thrift stamps and the war savings stamps.

Mrs. Werner was introduced by Dr. Boyd. In his introduction, Dr. Boyd said that the war saving stamps provided a means for those who were unable to purchase Liberty Bonds to help their country, and that it was intended primarily for them. He stated that the purchase of these stamps has been so large that the government may issue no Liberty Bonds in February, as was its intention. Dr. Boyd pointed out how vitally each one of us was interested in our home, our city, and even our state, and that we should have just as deep an interest in our nation.

Mrs. Werner then took the floor and explained the war saving stamps and the thrift stamps as follows:

A thrift card may be obtained at any bank, postoffice or other authorized agency by purchasing a 25-cent stamp. This card has spaces for sixteen stamps, or a total of $4.00 when filled. When all the spaces have been filled the card may be exchanged for a $5.00 stamp by adding 12 cents in cash before February 1, 1918, and one cent additional each month thereafter until December, 1918, when the sale of thrift stamps is expected to cease.

If, after exchanging the thrift card for a $5 stamp, it becomes necessary for the holder to get the cash on it, this could be done by giving the postmaster ten days' written notice and surrendering the stamp. In that case, of course, the holder would not get $5, but only the actual amount of cash he had invested, plus one cent for each month held.

For those who are in a position to go a little stronger, the government has provided thrift stamps which sell for $4.12 to $4.23 during 1918, depending upon the month in which purchased. They automatically increase in value each month.

If you want to be the possessor of a war savings certificate, take $4.12 to any authorized agency prior to February 1 and you will be given a pocket-sized folder containing twenty spaces upon which to affix war savings stamps. Fill the twenty spaces on this certificate, keep it until January 1, 1923, and the government will pay you $100 for it.

The limit for one person is $1,000, and no more than $100 worth can be issued to a person at one given time. The war saving stamps may be registered at the postoffice, but the registration makes them unpayable at any other postoffice, whereas unregistered they are payable at any postoffice in the United States.

Professor Hodgkin was then called upon to give his views of the sale of these stamps, and responded with

DEBATERS MEET AT NOON TUESDAY

Nothing Has Been Heard From Arizona or Cruces Yet. Will Try to Make Both Debates on Same Question.

Seven members who intend to try for the debating teams met at noon Tuesday, to see what has been accomplished, and to lay plans for the future. Several others, not present Tuesday, have announced their intention of coming out also. Among those who will try for the honor of representing the Varsity are Booker, who won the state oratorical contest last quarter, Harry Lee, who was a strong contender for honors last year, Don Richardson, whose ability is well known, and several new men who have well established reputations in high school and "prep" debating.

No definite dates have yet been set for the two debates which will take place, one with Arizona at Tucson, and one with Cruces here. Professor Worcester is going to try to secure the same subject with Cruces as with Arizona.

This subject reads: "Resolved, That the Philippines be given their independence in 1925, provided that the war shall have been over two years at that time." If this subject can be secured with Cruces, it will make the work easier for local debaters.

Leslie Boldt, who recently joined the aviation corps of the navy, left Tuesday night for El Paso, and from there will go to San Diego, California. Les. is the second of the Boldt family to enlist, his brother Ira having enlisted in the quartermaster's corps at Deming some time ago.

STUDENT BODY MEETING, THURSDAY, 10 A. M.

Every student should be present at the assembly called by the vice president of the student body, Miss Helen Vincent, for Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock. There are several matters of importance to come before the students at that time, among which is the election of a business manager for the "Mirage" for this year; the election of an editor and a manager for the "Weekly," and various other business. These are all matters of vital importance to each member of the student body, so be at Rodey Hall Thursday morning at 10 o'clock sharp.

GAS MACHINE IS INSTALLED.

The new gas machine, ordered to take the place of the one destroyed by fire about the first of December last year, has been installed, and work will now proceed in the laboratories. This time the authorities are taking all the precautions urged by the manufacturers of the gas machine, and a few of their own. All gasoline from this time on will be

Committees were appointed by Dr. Boyd to canvass the school, in order that those not at assembly should be given a chance to purchase thrift stamps.

BASKETBALL GAME - SATURDAY NIGHT

University Girls to Meet Magdalena Town Team at Armory December 19, at 8 P. M. Dance After the Game.

Ed King, manager of the girls' basketball team, has announced a game with the Magdalena town team, to be played at the armory Saturday night at eight o'clock. This is the first game that has been scheduled since the holidays. Our team will line up differently than last semester. Two good players, Mrs. Hoffman and Miss Mitchell, will not be in the lineup, having failed to return to school this semester. However, the captain, Katherine Angle, says that the team will be almost, if not quite as strong as ever by Saturday night. Darrow, Heinrich and Gibbs, who played in the two former games, will play Saturday, and several new candidates have appeared for the team.

The Magdalena team is composed of teachers from Magdalena and Kelly. Among them are reported to be some former stars from different parts of the state. Margaret Flournoy, a student at the University last year, but who is now teaching in the Magdalena high school, will play.

The admission to the general public is 50c, but Varsity students who have paid their athletic fee will be admitted free. A big dance will follow the game.

Arrangements are under way to get a preliminary game, but it is not known whether they will be successful or not.

Remember the time, Saturday, January 19, at eight o'clock, and the place, the armory. Don't fail to be there.

a poem upon the abuses which the stored under ground, and no gasoline will be able to come into contact with anything which may cause a fire.

Several improvements were made in the chemistry building during the holidays. The hoods were connected up to an outdoors outlet, and are now ready for use. Chairs and benches were received and unpacked, also. The lecture room is now fully equipped with chairs and the laboratories with stools.

Herbert Shelton, who attended the University last year, was a visitor on the Hill Friday and Saturday. He and Jimmie Hoover left Saturday night for Oklahoma, where they will go to work as geologists for an oil company there.

FIRST SHOOT OF YEAR BY GUN CLUB

Under Government Supervision now, the U. N. M. Rifle Club Held Its First Shoot Saturday. New Members Needed.

Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock the Rifle Club held its first shoot of the year at the rifle range, just north of the University. The ten men who participated were escorted to the range by Temporary Captain Rex Craig, who was appointed to act in place of Jimmie Hoover, the regular captain. The shooting was under supervision of Professor Wand.

When the crowd arrived at the range, Papen expressed a keen desire to serve in the pits, but thinking that Freshmen should await their turn and not be too anxious, the authorities sat on Papen for a while. When permission was given, Papen eagerly rushed to the pits and took up his station. However, he became very inquisitive when "Bullseye" Booker began to shoot, and in spite of Carl Moore's efforts to hold him down, persisted in sticking his head out to see who was shooting. (We call attention to Booker's record below.) He seemed to like what he saw, and after that every member said that between shots Papen's head would pop up to see who was shooting and to look at the target.

The Club is especially proud of "Bullseye" Booker's record. It is probable that Booker will be awarded the title of expert marksman. The score follows:

	200 yds.	200 yds.	300 yds.
	prone	kneeling	prone
Craig	17	14	16
Paulson	3	8	9
C. Moore	3	13	5
McClure	19	20	17
Papen	7	9	13
Morris	9	9	4
Foraker	10	7	3
Sharp	14	17	18
Scruggs	9	4	6
Booker	7	0	4

The shooting is now done under the supervision of the United States government, with government rifles. Membership fees are $1.00, and entitle a member to 120 rounds of ammunition and allow him to participate in all shoots. The club intends to hold a shoot every Saturday, the weather permitting. The next shoot will be this Saturday at 2 o'clock. If you wish to join, give your membership to Scruggs or Craig.

ADDITIONS TO HONOR ROLL.

Below are a few names which were omitted from the honor roll published last week:

Paul Simmons, Battery A, France. Charles Amsden, American ambulance corps.

Howard E. Morrow, Canadian medical corps, England.

Lieutenant Philip B. Upton, Fort Bliss, Texas.

Leslie Boldt, naval aviation, San Diego.

Robert Hopewell, quartermaster's corps, Deming.

EFFECTS OF THE WAR.

More and more, every day, we are feeling the effects of the war, first in one way, then in another. This quarter some half a dozen of our strongest men failed to return to school, having joined some branch of the army or navy. The draft which is to occur in February will remove some more from school, while if the bill now pending before congress to have all men register as they become 21 years of age passes, it means the loss of still more.

Effects of the war may also be seen in the absence of some of the faculty, who are now in the army, or are filling positions left open by the war.

On every hand, we hear the call for money, funds for the Y. M. C. A., funds for the Red Cross, funds for the entertainment of soldiers, and subscriptions to liberty bonds and war savings stamps. All of these funds are doing a great work, and should be supported at a sacrifice. It is no real sacrifice to buy liberty bonds, for they are just a loan to the government, but Y. M. C. A. and Red Cross contributions are such that we seem to receive nothing ourselves from them. Can we not afford to sacrifice something to help those who are sacrificing so much for us? Do as Mrs. Werner said: "Make it a personal matter. Think of some one you know, and give as you would give to help him." The girls are doing their share in helping to provide comforts by knitting, and by their Red Cross activities.

At the last request for money for the Y. M. C. A., less than $200 was subscribed. We know that a person going to school hasn't very much money which he doesn't need, that a great many here are working their way through school, or at least paying part of their expenses, and that this school has the poorest student body per capita of any state university, but it seems that the response should have been more generous. There are surely a few luxuries which we could forego to help those at the front.

Monday morning an assembly was called for the purpose of promoting the sale of war thrift stamps. Not half the student body was present. Practically every person present bought a stamp. It costs only 25c down and 25c whenever you can save it. Everyone in the University can afford one. And these little loans help. If everybody in the United States gave 25c, it would amount to $25,000,000.

Classes were dismissed for this assembly, and yet many took advantage of that fact to do something else rather than go to assembly. It is one's duty to attend assembly when all classes are dismissed for that purpose.

Part of the Excitement.

After the smash-up a colored auntie was discovered contentedly munching a chicken wing.

"Weren't you hurt or scared in the smash-up?" she was asked.

"Law, no. Was dey a smash-up?" she inquired. "Ah t'ot dese yere combustifications went right along wif de ticket."—Country Gentleman.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB MUSICAL FESTIVAL

Excellent Program Consisting of Three Entertainments to Be Given the First Part of Next Week, Professor Seder in Charge.

The first music festival to be held in Albuquerque will be offered to the public next week by the Fortnightly Music Club, and, as usual in things musical, the University college of fine arts is well represented. Professor Stanley Seder is managing director of the festival, and has arranged a strong program of three concerts, all to be given on Monday and Tuesday of next week, at the Presbyterian church. It is announced that the proceeds will go to the local Red Cross.

The first program will be Monday evening, January 21st, and will be an artists' concert, participated in by Mrs. Ada Pierce Winn, soprano; Mr. Sol Phillips, tenor, formerly of Des Moines; Mr. Thomas A. Christian, of Pueblo, Colorado, who formerly resided in this city, and Professor Seder, pianist. The University opera chorus will appear in several numbers.

Tuesday evening, the 22nd, the Fortnightly Club community chorus, in which there is a very considerable number of present and former students of the college of fine arts of the University, will present the famous oratorio, "Elijah," by Mendelssohn, with soloists named above under Professor Seder's direction. It is hoped that every member of the University will see the great educational value of this festival, and support it heartily, in order that this city may have events of this kind annually.

Tickets can be obtained at the library, or from Professor Seder, Miss Hickey, and members of the opera chorus.

PI KAPPA ALPHA DANCE.

Friday night the Pi Kappa Alpha entertained at a dance at the Woman's Club, complimentary to Leslie Boldt, who joined the navy, and to James Hoover, who left Saturday for Oklahoma. All went well until Harry Lee discovered that no programs were to be found, but this was quickly remedied by program hastily devised on the backs of some cards found there. A departure from the regular custom was made when cider (perfectly soft) was served instead of the usual punch. Dancing was continued as late as the girls' dormitory regulations would permit. Those present besides Pi Kappa Alphas were: The Misses Edith Boellener, Irene Boldt, Frances Bear, Gracie Stortz, Annie Cristy, Flora Chess, Ann Harris, Jimmie Stanley, Evangeline Perry, Maurine Reagan, Lois Davis, Shirley von Wachenhausen, Margaret McCanna, Katherine Shotwell, Louise Dadey, Lillian Spickard, Margaret Lee; David Barton, Clare Fetter, "Biff" White, Fred White, Dick Bruce.

PHILOSOPHY.

If you go with one girl you are married—if you go with several you are a heartbreaker.

If you try to spoon with the girls you are a cad—if you don't, you are slow.

If you don't atronize all school activities you have no pep—if you do you are soon broke.

If you go in for athletics you are wasting your time—if you don't you are lazy.

If you study you are a grind—if you don't you are a loafer.

If you treat freely you are a spend-thrift—if you don't you are stingy.

You can't please everybody, Oswald. It can't be did.—Ex.

Japanese Make Paper Clothes.

Underclothing made of finely crimped or grained paper is manufactured in Japan. After the paper has been cut to a pattern the different parts are sewn together and hemmed, and the places where the buttonholes are to be formed are strengthened with calico or linen. The paper is very strong and at the same time very flexible. After a garment has been worn a few hours it will interfere with the perspiration of the body no more than do garments made of cotton fabric. The paper is not sized, nor is it impermeable. After becoming wet the paper is difficult to tear. When an endeavor is made to tear it by hand it presents almost as much resistance as the thin skin for making gloves.

THE LITTLE ONE-STAR FLAG.

By Damon Runyon.

Oh, I used to hear the family in the house across the way—A father, and a mother, and a child. And, oh, the noise they used to make;

They'd keep the neighborhood awake—

I sometimes used to think they'd drive me wild! I glanced across the way the other day;

It seemed too quiet over there, by far.

And hanging in the window of the house across the way Is a little flag which bears a single star—

There's a Service Flag in Broadway And it flaunts two thousand stars. Oh, it swings there to the glory Of the soldiers and the tars. But no star there in its beauty Tells of stronger Love and Duty Than the little one-star flag across the way.

Oh, I used to see them waiting In the house across the way—The mother and a little girl so sweet. And, oh, the way they used to shout;

And, oh, the way they'd hurry out When they saw Daddy coming up the street.

Now I miss the noise they made there as they played; It seems too quiet over there by far—

Oh, they're watching from the window of the house across the way

By the little flag that bears a single star!

There's a Wonder Flag in Spring street, Flying from a dizzy height, Like a gorgeous patch of heaven That was ripped from starry night. But no star there in its beauty Tells of stronger Love and Duty Than the little one-star flag across the way!

The girls of the dormitory are showing their patriotism by cleaning the dormitory themselves, and turning over the money formerly used for that purpose to the Red Cross.

Word has been received that John R. McFie, Jr., has been appointed to the third officers' training camp, which will begin soon. Mr. McFie is a member of the board of regents of this institution. He was in Albuquerque at the time the soldiers were leaving here for California, and dropped everything to enlist. At the time of his appointment he was a sergeant.

The days for the meeting of the University Red Cross have been changed from Wednesday and Friday to Tuesday and Thursday. The hour is the same.

Jason Williams, business manager of the Weekly last quarter, who left school to join the army, was on the Hill Monday. Williams has enlisted in the aviation corps and has been ordered to report at San Antonio, Texas, January 21. While at his home in Mountainair, Williams reports that he saw "Blanco" several times. "Blanco" has also applied for enlistment in the aviation corps, and expects to leave for San Antonio soon.

"Nobody," answered Jones unconcernedly, "only I thought it would improve my appearance."

"Improve your appearance wid a face like yours!" bawled the enraged sergeant. "If yez don't hiv it on again at the afternoon parade today there'll be trouble!"
